Address (Street) (City) (State) (ZIP) Phone

Your status for financial aid as an Independent student is based solely on your answer to question 52 on the FAFSA regarding your support of someone other than your child or spouse. Therefore, the Department of Education requires that you submit legal documentation verifying that situation.

You are stating that you provide more than 50% of this persons support. Documentation should include:

1. A copy of your tax return
2. A copy of your dependent's tax return reflecting their status as your legal dependent
3. A written and signed statement from your dependent regarding your contribution of more than 50% of their support.

If you have any questions, contact the Office of Student Financial Aid.
