

REQUEST FOR CASL
RESEARCH STIPENDS
2010-2011

"OUT OF THE CLASSROOM AND INTO THE COMMUNITY"

The Citizenship and Service-Learning Research Stipend

The Citizenship and Service-Learning office invites proposals for research stipends that will be of direct service to the community or advance the knowledge of service-learning as a pedagogical tool. The stipend is a vehicle to accomplish the goals of a metropolitan university. A metropolitan university seeks to be a resource for the community through formal service, special research projects, and interaction with governmental agencies. Service-learning is a powerful pedagogy for the development of educated persons and enhancement of the knowledge base is important to the evolution of the pedagogy on campus.

Competitive proposals enable faculty members to:

- Conduct research combining students in collaboration with community partners to address significant policy issues of local relevance or provide research to community partners to support/address a community need. Preference will be given to faculty who include service-learning students to conduct the research.

- Conduct research on the effectiveness of service-learning as a pedagogy to increase academic learning or commitment to civic life.

AWARDS

Grants of up to $8,000 are expected to be funded this year. The amount of each grant and the number awarded will depend on the proposals submitted ($8,000 is the total available for the program). Funds will be transferred to the faculty's department in December, 2010. The final report and budget are due to the CASL office on August 1, 2011.

Acceptable budget items include:

- Faculty support (i.e. reassigned time for research project)
- Graduate student salaries ($7,965 will fund one spring graduate assistant at the highest stipend level [$4,865] and pay the required spring fees [$3,100] to the Graduate College)
