

2007–08 Citizenship and Service-Learning Oversight Committee

A standing committee of the Faculty Senate, the CASL Oversight Committee is charged with the task of maintaining the academic credibility of the Service-Learning program. The Oversight Committee supervises new Service-Learning options that are added to the individual departments and approves all course syllabi of faculty integrating the Service-Learning component into their course(s). Faculty who have served on the committee for the 2007–08 academic year included: COAL Faculty Member - Dr. James Baumlin, English, Chairman; COBA Faculty Member - Dr. Sandra Byrd, School of Accountancy; COE Faculty Member – Dr. Joanna Cemore, Early Childhood & Family Development; CHHS Faculty Member – Dr. Carol Shoptaugh; CNAS Faculty Member – Dr. Annette Gordon, Chemistry; CHPA Faculty Member - Suzanne Walker, Sociology, Anthropology & Criminology; Dr. Pauline Nugent, chair protem of Faculty Senate; and Elizabeth Burton, CASL Associate Director serve as ex-officio members of the committee.