

Appendix B

(Note: Numbers 1 – 7 are from attendees of the May 15, 2007 workshop. Numbers 8 – 20 are from attendees of the June 6 workshop. Numbers 21 - 29 are from attendees of the June 2 workshop.)

Question 11: What is one principle you learned today that you will immediately apply to your job?

- 1.
2. Appreciate the other team members.
- 3.
4. Pre FST meetings with the parents
- 5.
6. I will work harder at being more empathatic [sic] to the family
- 7.
- 8.
9. Having co-workers attend PPT's [?]. I wasn't aware that another caseworker could act as the objective party
- 10.
- 11.
12. It is helpful to hear the perspective of different people in re: FST mtgm.
13. be more mindful of worker competencies
14. I really like the check list / I was needing more accurate information & the time line
15. Agenda
- 16.
17. Importance of collaboration.
18. FST checklist
- 19.
20. How to start an FST meeting
21. (1) Bringing out the Family Strength's [sic] to show support in a Family Support Team Meeting (2) Discussion of Risks vs. Safety.
22. the checklist: child taken into A / C
23. Include family in process
24. Listen, empathize, ASK, paraphrase, and summarize.
25. I learned I am actually doing some things right.
26. I had trouble understanding difference in FST & PPT until today
27. Move forward without looking back
28. Better Listening
29. Model [?] FST. It was nice to get back & watch to gain new ideas to use during my meetings.

Question 12: Which part(s) or topic(s) of the workshop did you find most helpful and why?

- 1.
2. All were good
3. I found it helpful that the class discussed different experiences and talked through those situations.
4. feedback on how to deal with certain situations
- 5.
6. The emphasis on asking the family what they think they need.

- 7.
8. Suggestion on more specific goals & objectives on the written service agreement.
9. The actual FST w/ the whole team-it gave me some pointers on how to facilitate [sic].
Picture of the children-get their perspective.
- 10.
11. Writing out an Agenda before the meeting. Having an Agenda helps keep the meeting on task.
12. Being able to dissect [sic] the FST scenario after the role play.
13. -competencies discussion -defining goals and being more specific -good refresher; always room for improvement
14. I really like the role play (for once)
15. Role play. Nice to see how others do it. Get ideas.
- 16.
17. interaction & discussion of group
18. Handouts
- 19.
20. -FST skit, role play--what should happen in an FST
21. The Role Playing of FST Meeting
22. FST & PPT meetings & the agenda Relationships between client worker / children to be prepared for the meeting & focus more so on reunification
23. Role play
24. handouts on skills for relationship building.
25. I liked the whole thing. It was interesting and informative.
26. Discussions.
27. Mock FST-walking in the families [sic] shoes-
28. Role play / handout
29. Points of new from clients / children. Procedures for FST / PPT.

Question 13: Which part(s) or topic(s) of the workshop did you not find helpful and why?

- 1.
2. None
3. none
- 4.
- 5.
6. none.
- 7.
- 8.
9. The initial FST--it lasted quite a while
10. (1) Training on application of theory in an "ideal" work situation. The natural constraints & burdens of our jobs Do not make this realistic (2) Too broad an audience--too basic for those working professionals & too esoteric for most foster parents
- 11.
- 12.
13. none identified
14. Nothing
- 15.
- 16.
17. Reading of Academic material
- 18.
- 19.

20. Hard to hear the role play.
21. Nothing--Everything presented was helpful even if just for a reminder(s).
22. None
- 23.
- 24.
25. There were none
26. N/A
- 27.
- 28.
29. Ø