

WHAT DOES BEING AN Ambassador MEAN TO YOU?

"Being a Bear POWER Ambassador means helping create and maintain a safe and inclusive environment along with accepting people with different abilities! I've loved meeting new friends and seeing them thrive at our school. I have autism so being an Ambassador is a way to give back so others with different abilities can be accepted by everyone."

- Emily Daily

"I absolutely love being a Bear POWER Ambassador! It has helped me learn how to promote inclusion and making sure that everyone feels welcome, safe, and involved. Bear POWER has provided me with a true 'home away from home' - a group that has helped me form some seriously AMAZING friendships. Plus, I'll never forget that Bear POWER has reminded me that it's not only okay to be goofy, have dance parties, and laugh endlessly, but it's encouraged. I am so thankful for the Bear

POWER program!"

"To me, being an Ambassador means being hopeful and open-minded as we are pushing to make this world more inclusive and aware. Being an Ambassador makes me feel as though I can positively contribute to bringing about a secure place for everyone to freely be themselves without any judgment or close-mindedness. I'm honored to be apart of this life-changing organization and can't wait to see what's in store for the future of Bear POWER."
