III. Review of Curricular Proposals

NEW COURSES

EDT 650 – Selection and Utilization of Educational Technology

Representative not present. This is a cross listing with a 500 parallel course.

Motion to recommend. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

SPE 750 – Practicum-Visual Impairment

Dr. Paul Ajuwon is present. Dr. Ajuwon speaks to the changes in the proposal. Discussion. There are editorial corrections and inconsistencies in the proposal.

Motion to not recommend based on errors and editorial inconsistencies. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

The Department Head should contact Dr. Homburg to request that he reject the proposal so necessary changes can be made.

PROGRAM CHANGES

Educational Technology - MEd

Representative not present.

Motion to consider the proposal. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

Motion to recommend. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

Elementary Education - MEd

Dr. Cunningham notified committee that she is not able to attend the meeting due to inclement weather.

Motion to consider. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

Motion to reject the proposal on the basis that it involves a course change (ELE 771) that has not been approved by EPPC. Second. Discussion. Motion carried

ELE 771 has progressed through Graduate Council. When asked, Dr. Cunningham explained that it is not part of certification therefore is not under EPPC review. Discussion. There is consensus that the course should have come before EPPC as we do not review only certification courses.

V. New Business

1. Several minors were before the committee last month that came from departments not linked to education. There was discussion at the December EPPC. The January EPPC is expecting a recommendation from this committee. There are two options up for consideration.
 - Option 1: Recommend that deans, department heads and college curriculum committees be advised on the curricular review process and/or the appropriateness of minors for teacher education students.
 - Option 2: Recommend that the curricular process system be edited to advise curricular authors that selecting BSEd, BME, etc. for program changes will trigger a review of the program proposal by the EPPC.
- Discussion. The Committee reaches consensus that both options are good and will be presented to the EPPC for a decision.
2. The Committee agrees that 2:30 p.m. is the meeting time for remainder of the spring semester.

VI. Adjournment

Daniel Hellman adjourned the meeting at 3:25 p.m.
