1	0.19%	<input type="text"/>	I attended Bands Alive! Summer Camp several times. I fell in love with the band program and I became familiar with the campus. When it came time for me to start thinking about college, I knew three things. The first was that I was not ready to give up band, even though I knew it wasn't what I was going to do with the rest of my life. The second thing I knew was that I was comfortable with the campus and knew how to navigate it, and the chances of me getting horribly lost wasn't very likely. The final factor was that my band directors all went to MSU and talked about it constantly; they constantly told us how much they loved the campus and their time at MSU.All of these things made my decision rather easy.

There was also an adult services page I found that listed step by step what you need to do to enroll. That is what made me decide to enroll. Before that I wasn't sure what steps I needed to take and that page made it so clear. Also, the office of admissions is very prompt at responding to email. My high school lost part of my transcript so I was in email contact with the admissions office about it. They were very helpful in getting my issue resolved quickly so I could get admitted.

1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Being a freshman, it came a little as a shock all of the extra fees that are added on. When calculating how much it would cost to come to MSU, I was about $1,500 short of what it really costs. I wish I was a little more informed, specially being a freshman.

1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Having to apply for housing immediately after getting accepted even though I wasn't for sure that I was going to attend MSU and because I didn't apply for housing until after my housing application deadline, I didn't get to room with my roommate.

1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I didn't get the roommate I had requested, I was placed then in a 6 person suite which I DID NOT WANT. I requested a change which was denied. I called to get changed because I refused to pay extra money to be in a suite I didn't want to be in not to mention the one girl I did want to room with wasn't even in the suite! It was ridiculous! They put me in Freddy so I'd leave them alone. Now I'm stuck with a roommate I don't even get along with!

1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I had a very hard time with the Financial aid department. I had special family circumstances and had to fight with the financial aid office to get any help. It took months for me to get any help and it was only because i moved to missouri two months early and visited the financial aid office many times.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I had to verify for FAFSA. That's alright, but I was told that my notification came on a postcard. That's particularly terrible to send to a senior in high school. They already get tons of postcards in the mail as promotional from colleges. Next time a letter would be incredibly useful, as people usually see letters as more urgent and tend to open and read them.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I missed the deadline for applying for the presidential scholarship.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I recieved a 35 on my ACT, was a National Merit finalist, and was involved in many clubs and extracurricular activities in high school and it is ridiculous that I didn't receive a full ride scholarship.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I spent three weeks in waiting while the financial aid office attempted to locate my verification papers after I hand delivered them in early august.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I used Roommate Click and didn't get put with any of my mutual roommates.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I was a little upset about how long it took for my acceptance letter to come to me in the mail. It slowed a lot of things down in my life, but in the end it all worked out perfectly. Life has a way of making that happen.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I was confused whether my FAFSA covered my tuition at first, so I thought I wasn't going to be able to afford it.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I was frustrated to find out on move in weekend that Missouri state had not received my FAFSA, however I am not sure if this was something that was my responsibility or theirs. I just wish they had emailed me saying that they didn't have it.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	i was not aware that i cannot have more than 2 items able to connect to the internet and that i can only connect one at a time, we should be able to have a router in our rooms
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I was not informed that I needed to switch out of my math class until the thursday before school started, and this was very frustrating and made my first week of school hectic and stressful. I had to change my entire schedule, which then led to more stress.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I was really confused through the financial aid process and when I called the office the woman who answered was extremely rude. That was what made me look at Drury in the first place: the people who answered the phones there were extremely nice and it seemed like they genuinely wanted to help.

1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I wasn't applicable for many scholarships, being a white, middle class, male, with no extraordinary skills/aptitudes.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	I worked really hard on my portfolio (for months) to show to the scholarship department. I didnt recieve anything and when i showed it to an art school they offered me fifty four thousand dollars. So I know it wasnt bad. That was extremely frustrating. It made me feel very rejected. Like they barely looked at it.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	It took a long time to get my housing assignment.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	It took forever to get my financial aid package... come to find out I had unsatisfied requirements that I was never informed of and were not listed on the financial aid page... I called and got everything worked out but I feel like the Financial Aid office could to better. Maybe with more staff or organization. I understand there's a ton of students here and they work with all of them but it would be better if I had a specific staff member for me that I could go to all the time.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	It was difficult to communicate through e-mail with the office of admissions and other areas of msu. I live out in the country and our internet was not very reliable. I would have preferred to send things through the mail rather than over e-mail.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	It was extremely cold and snowy on my tour, by the time we finished we went to blair shannon but it was closed so we had to walk back to Garst.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	just when blackboard goes down and the internet usage is exceeded. seems silly for that to be an issue. also the aleks system is really difficult to use for most students
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Like many others the paper work and all the people to talk to to just get an answer was horrible. I would like things to go over more smoothly.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	many classes were full and i did not get in all the classes i wanted
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Meeting with an advisor and trying to pick my classes. I did register late, so that is my fault. The advisor at university hall wasnt very helpful.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Missouri State does not do anything with A+.Missouri state can not compete with the A+ incentive that OTC can give.It is very frustrating that A+ can only be used at the west plains campus and this campus would be of an inconvenience. MSU should offer some kind of monetary aid to the students who are A+ qualifiers. I spent alot of my time earning A+ tutoring hours and I never got any benefit from doing that by picking Missouri State.I could have went to Dury and got $1000 for doing A+.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Missouri States website was down for a while.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	my "my missouristate" account was messed up when enrolling. It has since been fixed and works great.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	my admission letter got lost in the admission process, but I am not complaining to much because I think that was why I got the Recognition scholarship.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	My financial aid is still not done and its September 23
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	my food plan wasnt working at first so i had to go get it fixed
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	My scholarship acceptance form was lost two time when I mailed it in.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	My soar date ended up being moved because i didnt press some button at the end of my registration and they told me like 4 weeks later so i ended up getting a horrible date.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	My student aid process has been very lengthy and there was not a lot of help that was provided to me about making the time go faster. I have called the financial aid office many times and they always tell me that I need to get this done and that done but they never tell me the best way to do it or the fastest way and I believe that could be greatly improved upon.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	No
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Not all of my loans have gone through yet; I understand that the administration office and the office of financial aid is very busy but it shouldn't take as long as it did for loans and grants to go through.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Not enough financial aid offered. I received more from loans then I did from all of my financial aid provided, and I only received 1 scholarship from MSU. Had I not received the one, two year renewable scholarship, I wouldn't have come.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Not recieving more financial aid
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	On the last year of my Upward Bound experience our Site Coordinator was fired for very unjust reasons, and to my knowledge Missouri State has not made it a priority to resolve. And also, I just believe the general organization and communication on campus could be simplified and improved quite a bit.

1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	Outside scholarships not registering until the day fines are implemented.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	SOAR was a waste of time. you should not be required to attend all of this. it was frustrating going through things at SOAR that are almost exactly the same as a campus visit. also it conflicted with work schedules for me, felt like i was forced to do pointless things. registering for classes should not be this demanding
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	the amount of time it took for me to receive my acceptance letter when my grades and act score were easily above the required levels
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The bill for soar said i didn't pay when we thought we did pay the amount of money required to set up classes. The enrolling process during soar was stressful and overwhelming.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The fact that a parent has to sign the paper for me to request to live off campus made me feel degraded. I am an adult and I feel if I want to live off campus I shouldn't have to explain myself to the college or have my parents take time out of their work days to get a piece of paper signed. It is ridiculous that that was required.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	the financial aid office did not contact me all summer over my financial aid package due to their own error. They have delayed over a month in reviewing my financial aid after all work was completed. They are rude and very unhelpful
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The financial aid office switched me and my brothers social security numbers, keeping us both from receiving our loans on time
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The Financial Aid Office told me 4 weeks ago that they were running about 5 weeks behind on my loan. From what they told me, I should have my loans by the end of this into next week. But I just got back from their office and they told me that it might be another SIX weeks before they will know anything. They were really nice about it, but I wish they would be more clear and let me know. My family and I had to make MANY changes because of the false information we received.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The financial aid. It was very hard to know what to do when I have never dealt with financial aid before.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The housing was very frustrating. The roommate pick was not a for sure thing. I was told to change all of my preferences to match to person I wanted to room with and we would be roommates. We did that and in the end we were not placed together. After that we had to go through a process to become roommates.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The lack of rooms for residence halls
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The music department was the only department that really helped me out. The admissions office really did nothing at all for me.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The Office of Financial Aid said that they sent an email or letter stating that I had to fill out a verification form before I could receive any financial aid. I never got either and didn't know about it until my mom tried finding out what other financial aid I received.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The Office of Financial Aid took quite a bit of time in notifying me of my financial aid. I also had problems receiving a phone call back.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The only difficult thing I had to accept was the difference in scholarship money that I had been offered. But I am grateful for what I did receive and I just have to try harder these next few semesters to try and earn more scholarship money.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The only frustrations that I have inquired here at Missouri State is with Financial Aid. My information got picked for further verification, so my loan application wasn't available to me before the first pay period. I found that very stressful, and I wasn't sure why they wouldn't make sure that had all of that done before that.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The parking is terrible!
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	the people in the residence hall office, seemed like they did not want to be there. they were unhelpful, rude, and unsympathetic. i was extremely disappointed when i found out that she was the woman, or at least one of the people in charge, and that the student there helping and not in charge, was more kind and much more helpful.
1	1.02%	<input type="text"/>	The SOAR program was very frustrating a tiring. The scheduling session on the second day was extremely helpful but there were a lot of aspects of the experience that were redundant and pointless and a lot of the activities we did felt a little like girls scout or summer camp activities for children. I did not feel like I was really treated like a mature college student. Some excitement and fun is great but it was a little too much like a gung-hoe pep rally. Very cheesy. Also, the first day of SOAR was extremely long and exhausting and at the end of the day I was so tired and overwhelmed that I was very VERY unenthusiastic about the upcoming school year. Making young people go to an 11 hour even all day and forcing them to do things that, in my opinion, do not benefit the majority of the students is very drab. I felt that SOAR would be much more effective if it were a little more direct and not so drawn out.

1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The staff are enthused to teach and are knowledgeable
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The validation process with my FAFSA took quite a while to get completed in the system as well as my housing appeal wasn't available since even though I turn 21 in October I was required to stay in the dorms.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The verification process took forever to process my information. Also, I think that the school should offer high subsidized and unsubsidized loan amount, because I had to take an alternative loan because my parents will not pay for my college and would not apply for the parents loan through missouri state
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	the whole online housing experience. contacting people about questions with the roommate click
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	there were some confusions about things online
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	There were some problems surrounding my financial aid. They stated that i had not turned in my FAFSA, which i turned in. It ended up that they had recorded my social security number wrong and i feel that i did not get as much federal aid, as i could of, if they had recorded my FAFSA with the school sooner, which i had provided.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	They didn't get my ACT score which would have gotten me the scholarship and I didn't notice it till half of the summer was over, so that was really stressful trying to get that taken care of.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	This was actually my fault...but I lost my mymissouristate login password and it took me forever to track it down because nobody could help me over the phone. I missed my housing application date because I couldn't login to complete it.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Two of my social security numbers were transposed on my FAFSA, and so even though I gave MSU my FAFSA in March of 2010, they didn't receive it fully until we realized the error, which was in July. This hurt my chances for a lot of the General Scholarships I applied for.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Understanding/comprehension about financial aid and bursar office. There was much confusion on my part. I've been here for almost 2 months already and I'm still learning about how to make payments and how the system works.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	We had to send my transcripts a number of times, and the stupid vaccination thing. I got the vaccination, I sent in the record, and then they lost it, and I had to sign something to say that I don't care if i get it. even though i already got the vaccination
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When I asked about IB credit (having already looked it up online; i just wanted to make sure it was the most updated version) no one knew what I was talking about, I was sent around to multiple offices, and they ended up printing out the webpage for me.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When I came for my campus visit, my leader was really kinda rude and kept saying that certain places were not good so we shouldnt go there. And then we told the people who arranged our tour that my mom walks kind of slow, but our leader just kept walking ahead and at one point just left my mom and didnt even seem to care. She knew that my mom was slow, yet she just didnt seem to care. I was very upset that this happened and I know that my mom was too. She actually filled out a complaint about my leader. It was just something that really upset me about my visit. Other than that, the visit was good.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When I came to my visit duringmy senior year, I did not receive the parking permit via email or any other information I was supposed to receive prior to my visit and when I asked directions to where I was supposed to go They talked to me like I knew where everything was on campus when obviously I did not.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When I needed help and had questions for accepting my loan, I called financial aid and they sounded like they didnt have time for my call so I was still confused.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When I was trying to get my financial aid situation taken care of, the financial aid office never returned any of my emails, and I was forced to visit the office in person to get my situation taken care of. I was also having some issues with printing, and res reg has not been very helpful in helping me fix this problem.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes everytime I was trying to log on to pick a room mate/pick a room, the website never worked. My password was reset countless times and it was very frustrating. We got it figured out eventually though.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes, but it was more my fault because I applied later on than I should have.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes, getting information for my financial aid was tough. Although it was eventually figured out, it was frustrating.
1	1.02%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes, I didn't know how I was going to afford this, and I still don't know. This is staying in the back of my head, and its really stressing me out. My parents are not able to help me financially, so I'm on my own, and I must find a job quick.
