1	3.23%		Because I received an Associates of Applied Sciences, my general education courses did not transfer, leaving me in need of taking more classes than I feel I should have to. I will spend three years, working to finish this degree when it should only take me two. Also, because of quarters vs. semesters, I'm still short in credits for classes which are required. Ex. I am short .99 credit hours in Philosophy. Why bother transferring the credits if I will have to take another 3 hour course to fill the requirement?

1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	As a student attending both west plains and springfield, I sometimes feel like an outsider to the Springfield campus. I chose to stay in West Plains because it is close to home but I wouldn't mind going to Springfield for certain events that I felt welcomed too. I wish I could join a sorority or something, but not sure how that works if you are not on campus in Springfield.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Aside from the website being a bit difficult to navigate, I have had no unpleasant experiences with MSU.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Can't bring a toaster, the food options.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Didn't find out about what scholarships I could get signed up for until too late.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Disappointed that where you need to park your car at the campus for evening classes is not very clear. The campus is huge and its not very clear as to what parking lot you can park in closest to my classes without getting my car towed away.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Finding the right building and phone number to call or go by the offices.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I can not figure out if the 43 hour block i completed at OTC transferred.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I did not have any deadline information and I feel like I had to figure things out for myself.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I don't feel very welcome coming in as a junior, I feel as though I have missed out a lot not coming here as a freshmen. Many of the Welcome Week activities feel geared toward the incoming freshmen, perhaps there should be a fun transfer student mixer type activity. Also, I went to the Convocation and felt as though I was not supposed to be there, maybe I wasn't supposed to go to that, I honestly don't know.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I felt there was still so much I did not know about MO State before transferring. I ended up borrowing a friends SOAR book to learn more. Maybe a transfer student session over the summer would have been helpful.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I got an email saying I would be getting something in the mail in the next day or two about being accepted, but I didn't get for a week and half. By then I had contacted someone on email to find out what to do and figured it by myself.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I had little to no counseling before I came here on what my projected major should be, even though I know what career field I wanted to go to. So when I crossed the state to get here, I couldn't meet with business advisers.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I had to take classes within COBA which I did not know I would need to take.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I have no disappointing experiences with Missouri State to discuss.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I haven't had very nice people on the phone. They all talk to me like I am an 18 y/o first time freshman and I don't like that about the main campus. I've decided to commute to WP and because of this, I have much better success in all departments dealing with the faculty and staff down there. I have had good responses from CFD department instructors in Springfield but that's it. I actually abhor having to call up there and talk to anyone because it's like they hate their jobs and would rather not deal with students. Just my personal experience the last few times I have called and it's sad because I'm 90 miles from west plains and 20 from Springfield and I chose WP.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I only had 27 credit hours, so trying to live off campus was a difficult process, but it finally came through.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I received a letter that I would not be admitted and then two weeks later I received one informing me that I was admitted it was just confusing
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I reserved my books a long time ago. Now come time for classes I am waiting on 2 of them to arrive. I feel like this is a horrible start and honestly I am afraid to see what else goes wrong.
		<input type="text"/>

1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I was basically disappointed in how my credits transferred
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I was not disappointed in anything.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I'm still not sure how I'm going to pay for feeding myself all year at the moment, and I wish I'd had more help with the student aid process. As an older student, not being able to get a job on campus for at least a semester is really stressing me as my schedule makes finding a job off campus that much harder.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	I've had several frustrating and disappointing experiences. The only people who really seem to help are the students who work on the help lines and the two women who work on the financial aid problems. Everyone else that I have talked to in trying to figure out what was wrong with my enrollment and receiving my PELL grant were extremely rude and crude. I also got to the point of refusing to be transferred to Dixie Williams because of how lacking and unwilling she was to help. I've had the same problems since February and only one has completely been fixed.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	It seems that there are a ton of people that 'work' here, but there are few who actually work here. I was repeatedly given the round-about treatment and told to go to another building or go talk to someone else. I don't like that.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Kinda hard to navigate on the website. SOAR was very dissapointing and frusturating. Only good thing was that it was easy to step up my classes.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	My account locked up until only a week prior to class registration causing class scheduling issues.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	My adviser was very confusing, and did not answer some of my questions. I began to advoid meeting with him if possible.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	My advisor was late for our appointment, i was waiting for a while and didnt know what to do. She eventually arrived and said she got mixed up on the times

1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	The Biology Advisor was not the nicest. She did not tell me where I was supposed to meet her or send me an e-mail to confirm our meeting place or date. She scolded me for being two minutes late when I didn't realize I was in the wrong building when I went to meet with her.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	The cost and specifics of completing an online program were not clearly explained.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	The criminology academic advisor that I worked with was very rude and didn't seem professional! Highly disappointing for a university!

1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	the experiance has been a pure nightmare becausse one campus does not know what the other is doing including what classes are offerred at both which caused hard feeling and frustration when trying to enroll. 1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	Website does not play friendly with Mobile Android Device.
1	1.54%	<input type="text"/>	When I had visited the campus a couple of times when trying to meet with my advisor which I didn't know who it was . The first visit the computer didnt read my password so I got locked out and the computer people cant unlock it even if I would answer questions. The second visit I was told that there was a meeting and the advisors were busy but not message on the website before I came. The third visit I was told that I could not sign up for classes until I meet with my advisor and then I had to set up an appointment to come back. This was not a good experience and it almost got me to not come here because before I lived an hour and half away so I had a total of 3 hours of driving a day and gas is not cheap.
