1	1.69%		- make tuition costs easy to find - have quicker response times to emails
1	1.69%		pictures of the sorority houses and members working on their mission statement. Also the ability to change for meal plan online and way to calculate your finances with your own decisions.
1	1.69%		A search bar
1	1.69%		Better communication between students who registered early looking to live on campus and those in charge of Residence Hall Assignments
1	1.69%		Better recreation fields
1	1.69%		Difficult to navigate. A better layout is more appealing and easier to find what you are looking for.
1	1.69%		Easier access to what dorms look like and more pictures of actual existing dorms
1	1.69%		Explain how to get to certain places
1	1.69%		Financial Aid Dept. Responses should be quicker
1	1.69%		For the most part I like Missouri State but I have been disappointed with some of the offices on campus. For example, Residence Life. I put in my housing application 3 months ago and paid the deposit and I have not yet been placed in a residence hall. I understand that making housing assignments will take time but there is a list of open rooms online and it's very frustrating having such short notice on where you're going to live since move in day is less than a month away. I also could have been happier with the financial aid services. I qualified for The Dean's Scholarship and didn't receive it even after writing a letter of appeal to the office of financial aid.

1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	I find the collage website excessively intricate, poorly structured and difficult to navigate
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	I really like Arizona State University's website. When I searched for my degree, it listed job suggestions in that field that included salary and job growth percentages.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	I really like being able to look up peoples contact information easily and the alphabet at the top of the page is very helpful when looking for information
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	I would change my password because you have to do that every couple months, yet the day after I changed it it made me change it yet again. It was frustrating yet not a big deal.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	I would maybe make a tutorial for new students with a brochure on how to use the website and maybe stress how important it is to get in the habit of using your account regularly
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	In my opinon, Missouri State's website is far better than the setup that the University of Missouri system uses. UM-Columbia and Missouri S&T's student pages are a convoluted mess compared to myMissouriState. Finding information is pretty easy on MSU's site. The only thing that I do not like is how long it takes to access the General Education Requirement page. You have to go the Undergraduate Catalog, click Academic Policies, then click General Education. This page actually outlines the specific courses for General Education. It's an immensely helpful page, but it's sort of hidden. Students can do a degree audit, but it isn't as readable as that page is.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It is just a little difficult to find certain individual academic areas (especially theatre).
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It is somewhat difficult to navigate
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It needs easier accessability for first-time users of the website. The information is very scattered which makes it hard to find the information you are looking for. (It seems every college website is like this though.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It needs more organization. Many of the questions I have had, I have had to call and explain my situation before I could get some help. It needs to be easier to find information about our email or clubs because there isn't a direct link to it anywhere. You have to go searching through the website for hours before you find what you need.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It needs to be a bit easier to navigate.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It was very difficult to find information
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	It's was sometimes difficult to find certain information, like parking permits and the commuting form.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Live chat would be good for housing and financial aid support
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Make deadlines more obvious. I barely met a lot of deadlines and I only did because I just clicked multiple buttons and links; I stumbled upon most of them.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Make it easier to navigate to what you need.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Make the Bear Sign In Area bigger to log in
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Make the bookstore accessible from the home page
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	-make the home page more user friendly by creating a more organized look -having to click on many links to get to a certain page can be frustrating, so creating a way to things in a more timely manner would be wonderful -the search bar is not the best way to find things so that could improve
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Make the housing assignments less confusing to find and read and understand
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	My Missouri State is a little overwhelming when you first log in. Further dividing and classifying the links under each of the 4 respective tabs (Home, Profile, Academic, Campus Services) would be beneficial to navigate the website in an easier and more timely manner.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	On other college websites there would be red flags and descriptions on the main screen of my student page listing any agreements or anything that I still needed to complete, I did not find anything like this on the MSU student page. I just had to discover them myself. It would help to have a list of what I still need to complete right there where I can access it quick and easily.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Once you complete something needed for the coming year it then be checked so you know that you have done it.
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Pictures of residence halls and styles of rooms would have been nice, not just drawings of the layout of the rooms
1	1.69%	<input type="text"/>	Please make it neater. Sometimes it seems like things are jumbled together and it is a bit difficult to navigate around.

1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Sometimes it is a challenge to find simple things like the room specs, ect. If possible you should create more tabs
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Sometimes it was difficult for me to find the descriptions/prices of the residence halls when I was making a decision on which I would live in. It doesn't really matter now, but maybe for future students make it easier to find pricing on different residence halls.

1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The Missouri State website looks, and functions so much better than every other college's website. Literally they all suck compared to Missouri State's. Keep it up.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The most important things to find are the hardest to find.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The mymissouristate times out way too soon, it's really inconvenient.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The navigation is like a labyrinth. I would suggest adding a navigation bar at the top of EVERY page that includes as much information and links as possible.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The online application for admission could use an update.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The search bar is not very user-friendly. I'm quite computer savvy and I found it rather hard to find my way around the website.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The search tool is not very helpful in finding what information is needed
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The site is a little hard to navagate. Maybe more concise tabs would be helpful.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	There are some things on my beat pass that are hard to find
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	There should be place where you can look to see when and if documents were received by Missouri State. On the Baylpr Website it has a place like that and when I was applying it made so much less stress free.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Update the calendar in advance.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When waiting for housing assignments there should be more information as to when you will receive that, I was left in the dark.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When you enter a specific page on your website, you can not go back to My Missouri State home page without logging back in.
1	1.69%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Your website is not user friendly unless you have been told how to use it before. If you are an employee or a current student that has been given instructions on how to best guide the website I think it would be a lot easier but as I am neither of those I found it very hard to find what I was looking for even when I used the search bar.

1	1.61%	<input type="checkbox"/>
1	1.61%	<input type="checkbox"/> Again, the online application was outdated and at times difficult to understand.
1	1.61%	<input type="checkbox"/> At SOAR, we were treated like children. I am ready to start my college experience, but I do not feel as though i need to go to a summer camp to show that. I just wanted information and help registering for classes, not to make bracelets and sing songs.
1	1.61%	<input type="checkbox"/> Bear Account is a little hard to follow when dealing with the financial stuff.
1	1.61%	<input type="checkbox"/> Because Freshmen are mandatory to live on campus their first year. I had to make an exemption form because I can not afford the room and board at the university and I live too far away to commute. Therefore, I could enroll in the classes I wanted until a week before school started.
1	1.61%	<input type="checkbox"/> Before enrolling for classes, yes. I thought the SOAR program was good at getting everyone involved and excited for classes, but the public affairs team did a skit that I felt had a lot of unnecessary content such as profane language and some innuendo. I understand the goal of their skit, but I definitely didn't feel as though it was necessary and I found it to be offensive and a disappointing representation of the school.

1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	By the time I was accepted it was too late to apply for the A+ scholarship
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Communication glitches in Accessibility Office re: dates/accommodations for tests
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Didn't like staying overnight for SOAR
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Dissapointed when I found out that there was an alumni scholarship but it was just for out of state students. My family had been donating to msu and my dad got mad because msu wasn't giving me money just because im in state. Even in state student with alumni need help financially.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Dorm assignments being made so late. I first heard of my roommate less than two weeks away from move in day, so we havnt had much time to discuss who is bringing what appliances
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Even though I have worked so hard for my GPA and ACT score, I will not be able to receive merit scholarships for ANY of the years I spend here at MSU. Why? Because the college I was supposed to go to swindled me out of money and I decided to come to MSU because it is a much better choice for many reasons. Especially since my family is really struggling with money right now, missing out on $5,000 a year is very upsetting.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	FASFA wouldn't process
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Hard to navigate my missouri state page
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	Have not been able to get in my dorm prior to starting school.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I am very disappointed that I have not received my room assignment or roommate yet. Why would you allow others to change their room situations by July 15th when you haven't given out the rooms to others yet. I would have liked to know my roommate before the start of school, we are holding off buying things for the room. Also we do not know what the tuition is going to be yet and school starts in less than a month. I would like to know if I am going to be close to my friends at MSU.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I applied for housing in March of 2014 and I didn't get a response until the last week of July. I know that there were people that applied in June and July of 2014 and got their housing way before I did. Not only that but I asked for a two person suite and I got a four person suite in the house I didn't want. If I applied as early as I did I expect better results than I have received. At this point I never want to have to deal with the housing department again because of how I feel like I have been treated.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I believed that I was eligible for the Missouri State Advantage scholarship because I had taken about 13-14 dual enrollment hours in high school but it was never mentioned to me.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I did not realize we should have been checking our Missouri State email regularly. I thought I wouldn't have to until I was officially registered and beginning the school year. I missed out on a lot of information that would have been helpful earlier. I think the school should have sent an email to other email to inform us how helpful viewing our Missouri State email could be. I am also the first to go to college in my family, so it would have been helpful to have an adviser or someone to be able to call for general questions or concerns. SEMO did this, and it was comforting and helpful.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I didn't get any scholarships
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I graduated a year early and began the application process in the fall, however, admissions messed up twice and so now I cannot receive the Dean's scholarship due to my enrollment date.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I had to appeal for admission and scholarship consideration because a class wasn't accepted. There were no photographs of the dorm rooms. The My.Missouristate.edu email has problems logging in sometimes and requires you to change your password too frequently.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I had to switch roommates multiple times.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I requested a copy of my tax account transcript from the office of financial aid during my visit to campus. I had turned it in recently, and needed some information that was printed on the form. I was denied access to my own document which was very frustrating and puzzling. Please allow students to view their own documents; I doubt it's possible to steal your own identity or misuse your own information.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I still do not have my room assignment.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I was assigned a residence hall that I did not apply for
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I was disappointed I could not enroll in a sign language class my first year.
1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I was very disappointed to learn I was still required to live in the residence halls even though I was transferring in enough credit hours to where I was no longer considered a freshman. Other universities allowed me the opportunity to live off campus, even though my credits were earned while in high school.

1	1.61%	<input type="text"/>	I wasn't able to receive a response back quickly for the errors in my FAFSA, so that I could get it done before school.

When I was filling out the housing application I put all the halls that were open during breaks as my priority choices hoping that housing would put my situation into consideration. I was told over the phone that I would have to wait until September to request a room change. I was treated as if I was moronic for voicing my complaint about being upset about my hall assignment.

I took a long time to make my decision and Mr. Hoover was constantly wondering if I would join by continuously asking one of my friends who was attending Missouri State. Unlike when I visited Dr. Snow at Mizzou, he took the time to introduce himself, explain what band was like at Missouri State, and really made me feel like part of the "family". Without Mr. Hoover's support, I probably would not be going here.
