Notes

Departments are placed in their 2008 Colleges even though many Departments were in other colleges in earlier years.

Media, Journalism, and Film did not exist in 1992 but was part of the Communications. Hence, percentage comparisons are to Communications in 1992.

The College of Education had many organizational structures during the above time period.

The Consumer and Family Studies Department was (mostly) moved to the College of Natural and Applied Studies in 2005 and became Applied Consumer Studies. Data here is merged under Applied Consumer Studies.

Applied Consumer Studies was split into Hotel & Restaurant Management and Fashion/Interior Design.

The University College recently became the Undergraduate College.

Notes

Departments are placed in their 2008 Colleges even though many Departments were in other colleges in earlier years.

Media, Journalism, and Film did not exist in 1992 but was part of the Communications. Hence, percentage comparisons are to Communications in 1992.

The College of Education had many organizational structures during the above time period.

The Consumer and Family Studies Department was (mostly) moved to the College of Natural and Applied Studies in 2005 and became Applied Consumer Studies. Data here is merged under Applied Consumer Studies.

Applied Consumer Studies was split into Hotel & Restaurant Management and Fashion/Interior Design.

The University College recently became the Undergraduate College.

Notes

Departments are placed in their 2008 Colleges even though many Departments were in other colleges in earlier years.

Media, Journalism, and Film did not exist in 1992 but was part of the Communications. Hence, percentage comparisons are to Communications in 1992.

The College of Education had many organizational structures during the above time period.

The Consumer and Family Studies Department was (mostly) moved to the College of Natural and Applied Studies in 2005 and became Applied Consumer Studies. Data here is merged under Applied Consumer Studies.

Applied Consumer Studies was split into Hotel & Restaurant Management and Fashion/Interior Design.

The University College recently became the Undergraduate College.

Notes

Departments are placed in their 2008 Colleges even though many Departments were in other colleges in earlier years.

Media, Journalism, and Film did not exist in 1992 but was part of the Communications. Hence, percentage comparisons are to Communications in 1992.

The College of Education had many organizational structures during the above time period.

The Consumer and Family Studies Department was (mostly) moved to the College of Natural and Applied Studies in 2005 and became Applied Consumer Studies. Data here is merged under Applied Consumer Studies.

Applied Consumer Studies was split into Hotel & Restaurant Management and Fashion/Interior Design.

The University College recently became the Undergraduate College.

Notes

Departments are placed in their 2008 Colleges even though many Departments were in other colleges in earlier years.

Media, Journalism, and Film did not exist in 1992 but was part of the Communications. Hence, percentage comparisons are to Communications in 1992.

The College of Education had many organizational structures during the above time period.

The Consumer and Family Studies Department was (mostly) moved to the College of Natural and Applied Studies in 2005 and became Applied Consumer Studies. Data here is merged under Applied Consumer Studies.

Applied Consumer Studies was split into Hotel & Restaurant Management and Fashion/Interior Design.

The University College recently became the Undergraduate College.
