

2024 Missouri Fine Arts Academy (MFAA) Student and Parent/Guardian Terms of Agreement

TERMS OF AGREEMENT:

- By accepting your spot at MFAA 2024, you are making a commitment to attend the entire Academy, from registration on June 2 through closing convocation on June 15. Student leaves of absence are granted at the discretion of the MFAA Director. Parents must fill out a pre-arranged departure form for the student to leave from and return to the Academy.
- Students must adhere to expectations and guidelines outlined in the MFAA Student Handbook (www.missouristate.edu/mfaa) and to instructions from MFAA and Missouri State University (MSU) staff and faculty or risk being dismissed from the Academy. Within 24 hours of notification of dismissal, the parent/guardian or agent must assume responsibility for student and provide transportation from the Academy.
- Photographs, videos, and other representations of students and student artwork generated at MFAA may be exhibited, displayed, and/or posted by MFAA for the promotion of the Academy. Students will not be identified by name in MFAA promotional materials except by written consent.
- MFAA students are automatically enrolled in a 3-credit hour college level course (IDS 101- Interdisciplinary Seminar), and should understand MSU's enrollment policies.
- Parents/guardians accept financial responsibility for any loss or damage to equipment, furnishings, or facilities of Missouri State University or the Missouri Fine Arts Academy caused by their student.

STUDENT:

I accept my invitation to join the 2024 class of the Missouri Fine Arts Academy. I have read and understand the Terms of Agreement and the 2024 MFAA Student Handbook and agree to the policies and procedures set out in them.
