OPENING THE SESSION

Meeting had a few guest speakers addressing different subjects:

- Kunti Bentley
 - Project Coordinator for Project HEAL, Kunti Bentley shared the project's details with the Senate. A few key pointers from the presentation worth noting:
 - The project's goal is to stop sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking.
 - The project coordinates between Missouri State University and Ozarks Technical Community College. Ensuring to work with underrepresented student populations, also engaging with male and male-identifying students.
 - They partner with The Victim Center and Harmony House to develop presentations to educate students.
They have a peer-to-peer education program, where they gather students to develop content. They work with various student organizations and encourage students to lead the discussions.
 - The grant for the project covers for 3 years, and they plan on applying for an extension for a total of 6 years to prove that the project is sustainable.
- Michel Bampoe
 - Assistant Director of HR talked about benefits and healthcare:
 - Open enrollment starts on November 2nd, it ends on November 30th.
 - Life insurance is provided by Cigna, base will be covered by the University. There will be a total life insurance coverage, no questions asked.
 - There is a new vision insurance provider, it has two base-plans.

- Anyone needing to reconsider must contact MedPay directly using the number provided on the insurance card.
- For any other questions, contact Michel Bampoe, Paula Huey, or Denise Lofton at HRBenefits@MissouriState.edu.

OPEN FORUM

Proposal to change bylaws so the next senator election has more seats for senators: instead of the bylaws saying “a” senator change it to “two”. JF1 gets 4 more senators, JF3 gets 1 more, JF4 gets 5 more senators.
