

CREED: We, the Interfraternity council, exist to promote the shared interests and values of our member fraternities: leadership, service, brotherhood, and scholarship. We believe in Fraternity and that the shared values of Fraternity drive the IFC to create better communities, better chapters, and better men. We work to advance the academic mission of Missouri State University to enable fraternal organizations to grow and thrive through collaboration and teamwork, to provide an outlet for self-governance and accountability, and to model and teach ethical leadership. In a spirit of mutual support and betterment, we, the men of the inter-Fraternity Council, pledge to elevate the Ritual and the values of the member organizations.

II. Guest Speakers

- Jonathan Larsen from Foster Recreation talking about changes that could be seen at the Rec. He asked if anyone would be interested in teaching classes on how to lift weights and was wanting to hear feedback about that idea. If you have an opinion, feel free to reach out to him.
- Trysta Herzog from Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Ozarks came and talked about the organization as a whole. She continued to explain that there is a need for guys to participate in their program as a big brother. They have a large group of younger individuals that need guidance from older members of the community. If you were to participate in this program, you would potentially help them stay out of the juvenile court system, and to feel wanted. If you can't make the commitment to being a mentor, they have other opportunities to serve. If you or your organization is wanting to participate or have general questions, feel free to visit their website and reach out to her.
