

We, the Inter-Fraternity Council, exist to promote the shared interests and values of our member fraternities: leadership, service, brotherhood, and scholarship. We believe in Fraternity and that the shared values of Fraternity drive the IFC to create better communities, better chapters, and better men. We work to advance the academic mission of Missouri State University,

Inter-Fraternity Council General Council Meeting March 2, 2017

to enable fraternal organizations to grow and thrive through collaboration and teamwork, to provide an outlet for self-governance and accountability, and to model and teach ethical leadership. In a spirit of mutual support and betterment, we, the men of the Inter-Fraternity Council, pledge to elevate the Ritual and the values of the member organizations.

President (Evan Grosch— Evan512@live.missouristate.edu):

- First time sponsor program was very successful, look forward to working with our corporate sponsors in the future
- I have planned a day at the capital trip for IFC Exec. This is a great opportunity for us to discuss issues pertaining to higher education and fraternities while at the states capital
- In the coming weeks I will be meeting with university legal counsel to discuss the governance statement. On Monday I presented an update during the IFC presidents meeting on the governance statement
- I have set up a meeting to work on getting unused office space to serve as an office area for chapters without a house
- Delegate Retreat will be in the place of an IFC meeting in April. This is to be as time efficient as possible on my end and respect your time. Because of this I hope to see you all engaged during the retreat.
 - We will also be taking pictures the day of the retreat for the council book. I want to make sure our entire delegation is included in that
- Remember to get your guys signed up for new member day and I hope to see many of you at the basketball tournament this weekend
