

MASTER ADVISOR TRAINING PROGRAM

ADVISING BASICS WORKSHOP

New to advising or advising at Missouri State?

The Advising Basics Workshop helps advisors jump right in with the essentials such as advising techniques, university policies, and campus resources.

TOPICS

Preparing for Your Appointment

Advisor and Student Expectations
Finding Student Info in My Missouri State

Conducting the Appointment

General Education and CORE 42
Advising Styles and Referrals

Documenting the Appointment

Advising Notes
Following Through and Following Up

@MOSTATEADVISING

MASTER ADVISOR WORKSHOP

Ready to become certified through intentional training?

The Master Advisor Workshop provides a comprehensive analysis of theories, knowledge, skills, and techniques for effective undergraduate advising.

TOPICS

Conceptual

Approaches to Advising
Ethics in Advising

Informational

MSU Rules and Regulations
Campus Resources
FERPA
DegreeWorks
Advising Notes

Relational

Cultural Competency
Virtual Advising
Working with Transfer Students

Register at MissouriState.edu/Advising

CONTINUING DEVELOPMENT

Looking to maintain certification and continue learning?

The Master Advisor Training program offers continuing development on many topics. Master Advisors must complete 3 hours of approved training annually.

RECENT TOPICS

Advising Specific Student Populations:

- Transfer Students
- International Students
- LGBTQ+ Students
- First Generation Students

Incorporating Anti-Racism into Advising
Cultural Humility in Advising
Distance Advising
Campus Resource Town Halls
Advising for Math
What's New at Missouri State
Technology Updates in Advising
Proactive Advising

Advisors may also submit self-reported training for approval or watch recorded forums on the MOStateAdvising YouTube channel.