How do you describe the course to students when they ask “What is this class about?” (Without using the catalog description)?

The course introduces students to important concepts related to diversity from a social work perspective.

Beyond meeting a General Education requirement, what benefits can students realize from choosing this course?

It is a required course for all social work majors and is also part of the Non-Profit Leadership Minor. It is also beneficial to have a general education course fully online as it offers flexibility and accessibility for students who want online courses.

Other than your major/minor/certificate students, what groups of students could find this course relevant to their degree program or career path?

All students could find this course beneficial as respect and understanding of diversity is crucial for all career paths.

Catalog Description (Fall 2022 Undergraduate Catalog)

Content and skill development pertinent to working with diverse racial, cultural, ethnic, and other populations such as persons with physical disabilities and mental illnesses. This course is designed primarily to inform and sensitize individuals for effective interventions within a heterogeneous society. A grade of "C" or better is required for admission to the BSW program.
