What is Your Biggest Concern
Finances
I am worried about super hard classes and managing my time.
Not being able to pass my classes
Managing class work
Managing my life between school,work, and relationship
Not reaching out to anyone for assistance or advice about my interests or my career plans.
My biggest concern is not putting myself out there as much as I want to and not getting the best grades I possibly can.
Getting all my credit hours while working might be a stresser
Paying for college
Finances
My biggest concern is finding a way to campus. I don't have a car and I can't drive to get here so I'm going to have to get ubers and ask for rides.
Not having a good time.
fights with suitmates
Having a hard time with school work and being home sick
Not making friends, struggling with coursework
Academics and lectures
also more freedoms and responsibility. being able to balance them
Affording the tuition and managing to have work and schooling at the same time.
Getting back into school after taking a break time management
Beating traffic to class
Activities
im not really feeling like an adult yet
Pacing myself with the school work responsibilities and time management.
Not being able to pay for college
I'm taking 17 credit hours/ 9 total classes time management
School
I'm most nervous for making friends.
Money
My roommate

Money
That I won't find my people :(
I'm concerned about friends a little bit not too much though and also missing home
Not making enough friends and struggling a ton with classes.
Money and all the class work
Not having someone I know at the school before coming.
Not making friends
The difficulty of the classes and the workload that they may bring, along with the many stressors of college.
Getting behind.
balancing everything
Keeping up with the work load while managing a social life
Passing all my classes
Not understanding the work and falling behind.
Being nervous, or being to scared to speak up
Making sure I have time to fit everything in.
Mostly about a work/life balance, I am worried I will not be able to do anything except class and I am fearful of burning out, but I want to do my best and I love the program I have chosen, I'm excited!
getting out of my comfort zone and meeting new people
Bad grades
Getting behind in school work or not understanding something fully.
Not finding friends
Making sure that I ask for help.
Sleep
Just balancing everything
Getting homesick and not clicking with people
Starting school and it's not what I expectwd
Money
money
Finding a balance between school and studying, relaxation and pleasure, and work.
The schoolwork
Not getting enough resources or help when needed.
I am most concerned about the cost of college, and attending my classes and maintaining good grades.
Paying for college seems rather daunting at the moment.
Money and financial and book costs
I won't be able to do it

Not making friends
Being alone, not knowing where to go or what to do.
Getting myself into debt
Mental health

Finance for housing and college.
Keeping up with my schedule
I am concerned with the transition to college from my hometown. Especially considering living with my mom, i think it will be hard for me adjusting to a life where I don't have to ask permission. I also think it will be hard to leave my partner so far away, and of course, my cat I will miss constantly.
Living with someone random, but also the expectations on myself to do good while no one is watching.
Burnout
homesick and money
I am most worried about paying for tuition since merit was taken away.
