

FHRC Report

15.2.2.7 Legally Mandated Changes

In the event that regulatory or legislative mandates require immediate changes to this Handbook, the president of the university is hereby authorized to establish and implement provisions or make appropriate modifications to the provisions as set forth here with notification of such provisions sent to the Faculty Handbook Revision Committee and the Faculty Senate Executive Committee. Such provisions will be immediately effective upon action by the president but will be reported to the Board at the next meeting of the Board by either the president or designee.
