DAVID ARMBRUSTER

David Armbruster has been a music educator for the past 25 years in Michigan and Ohio. He is the former Director of Bands of the nationally recognized Plymouth-Canton Educational Park High School. He has also been the director at Northmont High School as well as Jenison High School. Bands under his direction have received many state, regional and national honors which include numerous Michigan Competing Band Association Flight 1 and 2 State Championships. His bands have been consistent finalists at Bands of America events where they have earned numerous Class and Regional Championship titles as well as Bands of America Grand National Finalist appearances. The P-CEP Marching Band also marched in the 2011 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and the 2016 Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, California. His concert programs have performed throughout the country and in 2015 presented at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic.

He is a very active band adjudicator and clinician throughout the country. He is also a drill designer for numerous high school programs across the United States and currently serves as the Music Caption Head for the Michigan Competing Band Association.

AUSTIN GREENE

Austin Greene is a professional visual designer and educator from Raleigh, NC. He is in regular demand as adjudicator throughout America for Bands of America, Winter Guard International, and numerous local circuits. Austin joined the instructional staff for Blue Knights in 2019 after serving as a visual judge for DCI. Austin previously instructed The Cadets Drum and Bugle Corps from 2012-2015 and served as Visual Caption Head from 2014-2015. He is currently the Education Director for the Blue Knights.

Previously, Austin was Director of Bands at Concord High School in Concord, NC, and Director of Bands and Performing Arts Department Chair at Durham School of the Arts. In 2010, he was hired as an adjunct instructor at the Dublin Institute of Technology's National Conservatory of Music in Dublin, Ireland. He has served for 10 years as a program consultant and clinician for the Bands of America Grand National Finalist Kennesaw Mountain High School Marching Band. Austin attended Western Carolina University where he earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Music Education in 2003. He went on to earn his Master of Music in Conducting Degree from the University of Connecticut in 2006. He is in regular demand as a designer, clinician, and adjudicator throughout the United States and abroad.

TIM HUDNALL

Tim Hudnall is a graduate of Western Kentucky University where he received a B.S. degree in Biology/Chemistry and a M.S. degree in Public Health. He was a member of the “Big Red Marching Band” as a trumpet and color guard performer and a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Music Fraternity.

Mr. Hudnall has 40+ years of experience in design and instruction in marching band and winter guard programming. Tim's marching band adjudication includes multiple circuits across the country and he is currently affiliated with several marching band and winter guard judging associations as well as being an adjudicator for WGI, DCI, and BOA.

With a varied teaching past, Tim has been the director, program coordinator, and/or consultant for several programs in Kentucky, Florida, and Tennessee. His groups have been finalists at WGI regionals, semi-finalists at WGI World Championships, and medalists in multiple winter guard circuits in the southeast. His marching band clients have been involved in various local, state, and national competitions and regular participants in the BOA arena as well as BOA Regional finalists.

Currently, Tim and his wife Anne, reside in Knoxville, Tennessee where he works as a Physician Assistant at East Tennessee Children's Hospital.

ALBERT LO

Albert Lo is currently in his fourth year as the Director of Bands at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley and the resident Conductor/Artistic Director for the Brownsville Wind Symphony. Mr. Lo also serves as the Director of the UTRGV Jazz Orchestra and heads the secondary instrumental music education department. Mr. Lo is completing a Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of North Texas in Denton, where he is under the tutelage of Professor Eugene Migliaro Corporon, Professor Dennis Fisher, and Dr. Nicholas Enrico Williams. A native of Chicago, IL, he received his Bachelor of Music Degree from Northern Illinois University and his Master's of Art Degree from Western Illinois University. As a former Director of Bands at Winston Churchill High School in San Antonio, TX, his bands continued their tradition of excellence, placing in the finals at consecutive Texas 5A State Marching Contests, Bands of America (BOA) Regionals, and the Bands of America Grand National Championships in Indianapolis, IN. The Charger Band was selected to participate in the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, CA. and performed in the 50th anniversary celebration of Hawaii's Statehood. Mr. Lo is an active clinician and guest conductor in Texas and throughout the United States, Europe, and most recently in Asia. Mr. Lo is a two-time Teacher of the Year recipient and was awarded Certificate of Recognition by the Texas Academy of Math and Sciences at the University of North Texas in Denton. He is a member of College Band Directors National Association, Pi Kappa Lambda Music Honor Society, Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity, Texas Music Educator Association, and Texas Bandmasters Association.

MARLIETA MATTHEWS

Marlieta Matthews, originally from Madison, Wisconsin and currently a resident of Chicago, Illinois, is one of the premier color guard technicians in the United States, focusing on the technical aspects of equipment and movement. She is a former color guard member of the 27th Lancers Drum and Bugle Corps, and was both a performer and staff member of the six-time WGI World Class Champions State Street Review Winter Guard. Marlieta also performed with the Guardsman, and has taught Center Grove High School, Marian Catholic High School, Bluecoats, Capitol Regiment, and Cavaliers Indoor Percussion. Currently, Marlieta is on staff with the Santa Clara Vanguard Drum and Bugle Corps, Hebron High School, and The Pride of Missouri State Winter Guard. She continues to serve as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States, and was an inaugural member of the recently formed WGI Diversity Committee.

CHERYL MYERS

Cheryl Myers has been involved in the marching arts for over 40 years. Her instructional experience encompasses many Central New York and Northern Virginia programs and includes a recent return to field band instruction with the Auburn Vanguard of Auburn, NY. Currently, Ms. Myers is a member of the NY Federation of Contest Judges, the Mid-Continent Color Guard Judges Association, Michigan Color Guard Circuit, the Atlantic Indoor Association, and the Texas Color Guard Circuit, specializing in movement, color guard, and individual visual performance. She is a former WGI adjudicator and was recently appointed as the judge coordinator for the Mid-Continent Color Guard Circuit. Additionally, she is the owner and proprietor of JOY studios in the Finger Lakes area of New York State, offering ballet, jazz, and barre/Pilates classes to local dancers.

Ms. Myers has presented clinics to band directors and guard instructors alike on various movement topics and recently was invited to speak at the New York State Scholastic Music Association's annual conference on the topic of "Body as it Relates to Field Visual: Training and Achievement." Although she works in the audit/financial field, she is far prouder of her primary career: that of raising her three children, Emma, Amanda, and Jake.

J J PIPITONE

JJ Pipitone received his Bachelors Degree in Music Education from Morehead State University and his Masters Degree in Music Education from the University of North Texas. He worked in the public schools as a band and percussion director for over 20 years at Grapevine High School, Lewisville High School and as an adjunct percussion professor at Texas A&M University Commerce. Over the years, he taught 6th through 12th grade percussion activities of all kinds, in addition to the Symphonic Band, Music Theory, Music History, Jazz Band and Musical Theater.

JJ has extensive drum corps experience, having marched in numerous drum corps in the upstate New York area: the Dutch Boy, the Phantom Regiment and the Concord Blue Devils. As an instructor, JJ taught the World Champion Phantom Regiment, the Glassmen and the Crossmen.

His extensive judging experience has made him one of the most in demand Music judges in the United States, serving as a judge for BOA, WGI, DCI and numerous high school marching band circuits around the country.

KEN TURNER

Ken Turner has extensive experience in music education. He has served as band director, music supervisor, clinician, music arranger, program coordinator, adjudicator and guest conductor. His bands have won numerous local, state and national honors. Ken was Music/Brass Chairman for the New York State Field Band Conference, Drum Corps Associates, the New York Federation of Contest Judges and Drum Corps International, and served as Judge Administrator for the New York State Field Band Conference as well as Drum Corps International. He has judged virtually every major state and national marching music event. He has been inducted into the DCI and New York State Field Band Conference Halls of Fame. Ken was Director of Music for the Johnson City Central School District in Johnson City, NY, which was honored on 6 occasions as a GRAMMY Signature School, and recognized as one of the 100 Best Communities in America for Music Education. He served as a member of the national advisory board for the Partners in Education Program at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, DC, and is currently a member of NAMM's congressional advocacy group. Ken holds a US Patent for the angled shell drum, and is currently the President of ErgoSonic Percussion LLC. (www.ergosonicpercussion.com).

DALE WARREN

W. Dale Warren is Senior Wind Band Conductor and Professor of Music in the University of Arkansas Music Department. During his three plus decades of service at UA, Professor Warren has conducted the Wind Ensemble, Wind Symphony, Chamber Winds, Symphonic Band, Concert Band, Varsity Band, and Campus Band. He also teaches music education courses, supervises music ed student teachers and is actively engaged in the graduate instrumental conducting program. From 1991-2000 he was the Director of the Razorback Marching Band. He is also the director of the highly successful UA Summer Music Camps.

Since Professor Warren arrived at the University of Arkansas, the Wind Symphony has made six guest appearances at CBDNA Conventions. The Wind Symphony performed at Carnegie Hall in New York City and at the Arkansas Music Educators Convention/All-State Conference on two occasions under his baton. The Razorback Marching Band performed numerous times for former President William Jefferson Clinton, including the 1992 Presidential Inaugural Parade in Washington, D.C. Under his leadership, the Razorback Band performed at the SEC Championship, the Cotton Bowl, the Citrus Bowl, the Carquest Bowl, and the Independence Bowl. The Razorback Marching Band also appeared as the Grand Finale Band at the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Dublin, Ireland.

Professor Warren is a former marching member of the Guardsmen Drum and Bugle Corps and a former brass and visual staff member for the Guardsmen and the Imperial Guard Drum & Bugle Corps. He has also served as a DCI Adjudicator.
