GEORGE BOULDEN

George R. Bouden holds the rank of Professor of Music and is the Associate Director of Bands at the University of Kentucky, where he serves as the conductor of the Symphony Band. Additionally, he teaches conducting, music technology, and supervises student teachers. In 2011 George was selected as the Kentucky Music Educators Association College/University Teacher of the Year. In February of 2014, George received the Outstanding Bandmaster Award from the Psi Chapter of Phi Beta Mu, the International Bandmasters fraternity. George also serves as a clinician and education consultant for the Conn-Selmer Music Education Support Network. George is past president of the Kentucky Music Educators Association.

Active as an adjudicator for Music for All/Bands of America, Drum Corps International, and Drum Corps Japan, George has also served as a clinician and guest conductor throughout the United States, Canada, and Japan. He has presented lectures and clinics at the Midwest International Band & Orchestra Clinic, MENC National Convention, NBA National Conventions, CBDNA National Conventions, MFA/BOA Summer Symposia, and Drum Corps Japan.

MARIE CZAPINSKI

Marie Grana Czapinski is an expert in the field of pageantry, a co-founder of Winter Guard International, and the only one to hold Hall of Fame membership in all 3 elite marching arts organizations: Winter Guard International, Drum Corps International and Bands of America. She is an educational clinician with Bands of America and Conn-Selmer, Inc. She is currently a consultant for the Phantom Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps, Rockford, IL and Jubal Drum Corps in Dordrecht, Netherlands.

IVAN DE LA CRUZ

Ivan De La Cruz is entering his 2nd year as the Assistant Director at Mountain Ridge High School in Glendale, Arizona. Before moving to Arizona and the West Valley suburbs of Phoenix in February of 2020, Ivan served as the Associate Director of Bands and Visual Program Director for the Dublin Coffman High School Band in Columbus, OH from 2014-2019. He helped lead the band to two Bands of America (BOA) Outstanding Visual Performance Awards (2016 & 2017), as well as its first class (AAA) Championship at the BOA Canton Regional in 2017. Prior to moving to Columbus, Ivan spent the previous four years teaching in The Woodlands, TX as an Assistant Director of The Woodlands High School Band. During his tenure at The Woodlands, the program was a consistent finalist at the Bands of America Grand National Championships and was crowned the 2013 Grand National Champion.

Ivan's performance career includes time as a member of the Blue Knights Drum & Bugle Corps from 2001-2002 and the Cavaliers Drum & Bugle Corps in 2003. As an educator, he served on the Cavaliers' visual staff from 2004-2010, and the Santa Clara Vanguard visual staff from 2011-2019, then served as the organization's Corps Director from 2019-2021.

In addition to his work as an educator, Ivan also works as a visual designer for numerous schools throughout Texas, Mississippi, Ohio, Arizona and New Mexico, where a multitude of these programs are successful both at the local and state level. He serves as a marching band adjudicator, consultant, and clinician throughout the country. He has also served as a visual judge in the Carolina Winter Ensemble Association, the Mid East Performance Association, and the Indiana Percussion Association from 2014-2019.

Ivan lives in Goodyear, AZ with his lovely wife Alyssa, their newborn daughter Hannah, and their two dachshunds - Charlie and Lilly.

CHAD DUGGAN

Chad Duggan, from Indianapolis, Indiana, is one of the current leading designers in the marching activity. Marching bands, drum corps, color guards, and winter guards throughout the United States use his designs, now produced by Dance Sophisticates and DeMoulin, with his concepts being premiered in the Bands of America, Winter Guard International, and Drum Corps International arenas. He is considered to be a visual visionary, and his designs have progressed units to a new level of excellence.

Chad marched color guard with the Madison Scouts, and continued as color guard staff and color guard caption head after aging out with the corps, making his career with the Scouts span a 14-year commitment. As caption head, he was instrumental in all aspects of the design process, including the visual programming of the corps. He was also on staff with Everybody Winter Guard (which eventually became Northern Lights), where his show concepts, costume designs, and innovative choreography became legendary within the ranks of Winter Guard International. Chad also marched with Thunderbolts Winter Guard and State Street Review Winter Guard.

Currently, he is the lead designer for Dance Sophisticates, and continues to clinic, design, and adjudicate throughout the United States.

BETH FABRIZIO

Beth A. Fabrizio holds a Bachelor of Music from the Eastman School of Music in Clarinet Performance and a Masters of Music in Conducting, Education and Performance from Ithaca College. She has studied conducting with Rodney Winther and Dr. Donald Hunsberger and clarinet with Michael Webster, Richard Waller, Stanley Hasty, William Osseck, Carmine Campione and performed in master classes with Richard Stoltzman.

Ms. Fabrizio maintains a private clarinet studio with numerous students pursuing careers in music education, therapy, recording and performance. She herself performed as the principal clarinetist and personnel manager with The Greater Rochester Music Educators Wind Ensemble, and former Eb clarinet with The Perinton Concert Band. Beth is a freelance performer and is an active artist/clinician for The D'Addario Corporation and educational clinician with the Conn-Selmer Corporation. She has just recently retired after 36 years as a public school educator, and most recently from The Hilton Central School District as a Director of Bands at Village Elementary. Beth is also presenting educational clinics and workshops thru Fabrizio's Musical Concepts. Ms. Fabrizio was hired in July 2021 as a Music Curriculum Specialist with The Conn-Selmer Corporation.

Ms. Fabrizio has conducted various honor bands and given master classes and clinics across the United States, Europe and Japan. She has taught marching bands and drum and bugle corps for over thirty years. Ms. Fabrizio has been the brass caption head with The Carolina Crown Drum and Bugle Corps, brass coordinator with The Pride of Soka from Tokyo, Japan, brass staff with Boston Crusaders, The Glassmen and Spirit of Atlanta. Beth adjudicates for DCI, WGI and numerous other state associations.

MARLIETA MATTHEWS

Marlieta Matthews, originally from Madison, Wisconsin and currently a resident of Chicago, Illinois, is one of the premier color guard technicians in the United States, focusing on the technical aspects of equipment and movement. She is a former color guard member of the 27th Lancers Drum and Bugle Corps, and was both a performer and staff member of the six-time WGI World Class champions State Street Review Winter Guard. Marlieta also performed with the Guardsman, and has taught Center Grove High School, Marian Catholic High School, Bluecoats, Capitol Regiment, and Cavaliers Indoor Percussion. Currently, Marlieta is on staff with the Santa Clara Vanguard Drum and Bugle Corps, Hebron High School, and The Pride of Missouri State Winter Guard. She continues to serve as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States, and was an inaugural member of the recently formed WGI Diversity Committee.

JEFF QUEEN

Jeff Queen has been involved with percussion since the age of 10. At the age of 15, Jeff began his drum corps career with the Canton Bluecoats ('89) and continued on to marching with the Velvet Knights ('90-'91), Santa Clara Vanguard ('92), Blue Knights and the University of North Texas ('93-'95). Jeff was the Drum Corps International Individual and Ensemble Snare Drum Champion in 1994 and 1995 as well as the Percussive Arts Society Individual Snare Drum Champion in 1994 and 1995. Jeff continued to be involved in the drum corps activity after aging out, including being the caption head for the Carolina Crown drum and bugle corps from 2003-04, percussion arranger for the Colts Drum and Bugle corps for 2007-08, and a DCI Judge from 2012-2018.

Jeff is an original cast member of the Tony and Emmy award winning Broadway Show "BLAST" where he was a solo performer and battery instructor from 1999-2003. Jeff has performed across the US, Europe and Asia. In addition Jeff has appeared on numerous television shows including: The Late Show with David Letterman, The Kennedy Center Honors 2000, NBA All-Star Game 2001, Grey Cup 2007, "BLAST" and "The Making of Blast" on PBS DVD and Video.

Jeff has been an active teacher since 1993, where he was the drumline coordinator at Avon High School from 2003-2012, winning 3 back-to-back BOA Grand National Championships with the Avon Marching Black and Gold (2008, '09, '10) and becoming a perennial finalist for WGI with the Winter Drumline. In 2012, Jeff became the percussion coordinator for Carmel High School in Carmel, Indiana, where he has assisted with winning 4 Grand National Championships (2012, '16, '17, '18), started their indoor percussion program along with developing their concert percussion program. Mr. Queen holds his BM in Music Theory and Composition and MM in Percussion Performance from Butler University and has served on Butler University's faculty from 2010-2019. Jeff was the assistant director of the Butler Marching Band from 2010-2019, adjunct percussion faculty from 2010-2019, and served as the full-time Artist in Residence for the 2017-18 academic year.

Queen is the author of "The Next Level: Rudimental Drumming Techniques" available through Jeff Queen Productions and "Playing With Sticks", a more than 3-hour instructional DVD through Hudson Music. More of Jeff's compositions are available through Row-Loff Productions, Tapspace Publications, Fannin Music, and jeffqueen.com.

Currently, Jeff is the Southwest District Sales Manager for Yamaha and has recently moved to Southern California with his wife Rosie, and two golden doodles, London and Indy.

BILLY SACCOMANNO

Billy Saccomanno has been a marching band and winter guard adjudicator for over 25 years, and resides in the Tampa Bay area of Florida. He serves as the Chief Judge for the Mid Continent Color Guard Association and as a Movement Adjudicator for Winter Guard International. Additionally, he has been serving as a guest judge for local marching band and winter guard circuits in 32 different states across the United States.

Billy's passion for the marching arts has been evidenced by 25 years of teaching marching band and winter guard including Black Watch, Apex and Bpex, Innuendo, CoMotion and Extraordinaire Winter Guards as well as several high schools in the New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, North Carolina, Kansas and Missouri areas. His drum corps teaching resume includes the Phantom Regiment, Crossmen, Jersey Surf, Teal Sound, Reading Buccaneers, and Hawthorne Caballeros.

Billy's profound love for animals, and in particular Pit Bull dogs, has led him to become a long term volunteer in the dog rescue world. Serving as an Animal Rescue Volunteer for The Humane Society of the United States, Billy has participated in several deployments including 2 years assisting with the 2nd largest dog fighting bust in United States history. This particular case allowed for the seizure and rescue of 367 dogs from a multi-state dog fighting ring in Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia.

MARK WAYMIRE

Dr. Mark Waymire is in his thirty-sixth year as a music educator. Though now working fulltime as a consultant, lecturer, adjudicator, and designer, he was most recently a Music Education professor at The University of Southern Mississippi. Prior to completing his PhD at The University of Mississippi, Dr. Waymire was Associate Director of Bands at Eastern Michigan University. His public-school experience includes work in Louisiana and Texas, including ten years as Director of Bands, Seguin High School, Seguin, Texas. Personal honors include six H.E.R.O. teaching awards, nine appointments to WHO's WHO in American Education, and two presentations of the National President's Award for Education Excellence. National and international lectures based on Dr. Waymire's research on teaching expertise have been given in California, Mississippi, Georgia, Arkansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Missouri, Tennessee, Texas, Canada, and Scotland.

In addition to his high school and collegiate-level designs and directorships, Mark Waymire has been a part of the staffs of the following drum corps: Phantom Regiment, Madison Scouts, Spirit of Atlanta, and Glassmen, taking on various roles including both brass and visual caption head positions, as well as designer and program coordinator.

Dr. Waymire is an active band clinician and adjudicator which includes associations with BOA, WGI, and DCI.

*The Pride Band and Staff would like to thank all of the bands participating in this year's Ozarko Marching Festival.
