- 1) Welcome and Announcements
- 2) Old Business
 - a) March 2024 minutes
 - b) Update integrating Gen Ed Course Proposal and CAW system
 - i) (while the old system can't, the new one should be able to)
 - c) Check-in on Gen Ed Course Evaluations
 - i) Some reports are still missing
 - ii) Some members have not reviewed their reports. Please check the spreadsheet.

- iii) Some reports will come in the summer; we might need volunteers to complete the report.
- d) 2024-2025 membership
 - i) Scott Zimmerman told us that the MSU in terms of committees, stays as it was for two years. We draw representation from units as we did in fall 2023.
 - ii) Sandy at Faculty Senate will send out an email, according to Beth Walker.
 - iii) Since we don't have chair elect for next year, Katie is willing to ask her dean for permission to reapply.
- 3) New Business
 - a) Curricular Action Workflow Items
 - i) New Course Proposals
 - (1) Maybe GBL 250 (if it passes college council)
 - (a) Proposal Review - Course Proposal - Missouri State University
 - (b) We looked at it even though the last signature from College Council is missing.
 - (c) Bryan Brickman said that Introduction to Global Studies and Globalization prepares students to make thoughtful choices as members of society considering that they are acting as global citizens. The goal is to create global citizen scholars. T looks at globalization as a public issue. They will talk about current events, for example, migration. They also do news evaluation from a media literacy point of view. All this addresses MSU mission statement. He also talked about the general Learning Goals. This is an existing course looking to be gen ed.
 - (d) Approved by general consent.
 - (e) Note: Beth Walker reminded us that proposals like these need to come from faculty and not from administrators. We should return proposals that come from administrators. Beth has explained this to the deans and the message is not trickling down to faculty. This is a faculty-controlled process.
- 4) Adjournment
 - a) Next Meeting – May 1, 2024 3:30 p.m. Library 120

- b) Meeting adjourned at 4:01 p.m.
- c) Respectfully submitted by X. Uribe-Zarain
