Welcome

Dear graduates, families and friends,
Congratulations on this milestone. Your dedication, hard work and resilience brought you to this moment, and we are proud to celebrate with you.

As you step into what comes next, it is my hope you will carry forward the lessons you learned in classrooms, labs, studios and the community. Make your Missouri Statement in every setting. Lead with integrity, respect and curiosity. Engage across cultures. Serve your communities. These are the pillars of our public affairs mission and the mark of a Missouri State education.

Our strategic plan, Igniting Opportunity, calls us to connect learning with purpose and careers. You are ready. You have built skills that matter to employers and to society. Think critically. Communicate clearly. Collaborate well. Keep learning.

Wherever you go, you remain part of the Missouri State family. Stay connected to your alma mater. Share your story, mentor a student, come back for events and cheer on the Bears. Your involvement strengthens the generation to come.

Thank you for trusting us with your education. It has been a privilege to have you as a Bear. I look forward to the impact you will make in the years ahead.

Once again, congratulations, and Go Bears!

9:00 a.m. Ceremony – Madelynn Jared

Earning a Bachelor of Science in Marketing (Marketing management track) and an undergraduate certificate in Food and Beverage Operations

As a student at Logan-Rogersville High School, Madelynn Jared knew she loved business, but she initially planned to pursue a different major at Missouri State University. Yet, as her first semester approached, she felt drawn to the College of Business (COB), where she chose to major in marketing with a focus on marketing management. On the path to graduation, she also earned an undergraduate certificate in food and beverage operations, a credential that helps ground her interest in the culinary world and gives her résumé a unique point of differentiation.

With her friend and fellow COB graduate Isaac Moon, Jared led efforts to revitalize Mo State’s chapter of the business leadership organization DECA. “We’ve grown so much,” she says. “We have incredible members, with more and more students competing — and placing — each year.”

Jared’s other top experiences include a semester spent studying in Florence, Italy, and her time with the MSU Tennis Club, a group she calls “my family on campus.”

Now, as she looks forward to completing her Master of Business Administration through Mo State’s accelerated master’s track, she says, “I have a drive that pushes me every single day. I’ve learned to say ‘yes’ to things. Seeing where I started and how I’ve grown, I know that if I keep putting my mind, heart and soul toward my goals, good things will happen.”

1:00 p.m. Ceremony – Lana Janson

Earning a Bachelor of Science in Physics, an undergraduate certificate in Biomedical Physics and an undergraduate certificate in Computational Science

When Lana Janson first arrived at Missouri State University, she knew she was in the right place. She began her college career at a different institution, where she was part of the swim team. But her first college didn't feel like home, and it didn't offer her preferred major — physics. She considered transferring, and Mo State's welcoming atmosphere won her over.

Coming into the physics program as a sophomore, she worried she'd be behind. Dr. Robert Mayanovic helped her chart a three-year plan that gave her confidence in her path to graduation. He also invited her into his research group, which focuses on drug delivery systems for cancer treatments.

"When I started, we were synthesizing the cancer drug delivery system, and now we're collaborating with the biology department to actually test it," she says.

Another of her favorite experiences was winning a Missouri Valley Conference championship with the women's swim team in 2024. "I led off the first conference relay of the meet," she says. "I was so nervous, but the senior girls — the ones we all looked up to — had my back. We not only won that relay; we broke records."

Next, Janson plans to pursue a master's degree in biomedical engineering or quantum engineering. "I'm the type of person that, once I set my mind to something, I have to keep at it," she says. "Studying in America was always my dream, and here I am."

5:00 p.m. Ceremony – Maddux Radosevic

Earning a Bachelor of Science in Journalism with a minor in Communication

When Maddux Radosevic was a senior at Kansas City’s Rockhurst High School, he considered colleges across the country — from California to Maine. Missouri State University offered everything he was looking for: the chance to pursue his dream of becoming a sports broadcaster, a welcoming campus and vibrant choral programs. “All those things came together, and Missouri State was undoubtedly the best choice I could make,” he says.

Throughout college, he’s enjoyed “opportunities I didn’t even know would be possible,” he says. Many of them involve The Standard, where he’s served as a reporter and sports editor. Some of his favorite experiences include announcing baseball games on platforms such as ESPN+, producing episodes of The Standard’s podcast “The Growl,” and reporting from the Bears’ sideline during the 2025 Xbox Bowl.

Mo State’s choral ensembles have also played a big role in his life. Every experience he’s had with Chorale and Men’s Chorus has created “a lifelong memory,” he says.

Next, he looks forward to completing his Master of Arts in Communication through Mo State’s accelerated master’s track. Ultimately, he hopes you’ll hear him as the play-by-play announcer for his favorite team, the Chicago Cubs.

“Every spot on this campus has meaning for me,” he says. “I have at least one distinct memory from pretty much every building, so every time I walk by it, I smile thinking about what this place has meant to me.”

Honorary Doctorate – 1:00 p.m.
Ms. Mimi Garstang

Missouri State University will grant its 25th honorary doctorate to alumna Mimi Garstang. She will receive the Doctor of Public Affairs (A.P.D.) degree during the 1 p.m. ceremony. Garstang devoted her career to public service through science, leadership and education.

In 1972, she graduated with a bachelor's degree in geology from what was then Southwest Missouri State University. In 1978, she joined the Missouri Geological Survey, part of the Missouri Department of Natural Resources. She rose through the ranks and made history as the first woman to serve as state geologist of Missouri and director of the Missouri Geological Survey in 2000.

In these roles, she led Missouri to rank among the top 10 states for mineral production, strengthening the state's economy while balancing environmental stewardship.

She also educated the public about environmental issues and protection, promoted sound environmental policies in the state legislature and organized continuing education for geologists and engineers to advance public safety and welfare.

Garstang has served students at all levels by fostering a love for science, creating scholarship opportunities for future scientists and mentoring young professionals.

Since retiring from public service about 15 years ago, she has continued to help improve and protect Missouri's natural resources. Through the Association of Engineering and Environmental Geologists and the American Society of Civil Engineers, she supports continuing education for professionals, which also funds undergraduate scholarships.

Additionally, she continues legislative outreach, promoting scientific understanding through the Missouri Geologists Consortium and the American Institute of Professional Geologists (Missouri chapter).

SCHOLASTIC HONORS

Special distinction for high scholarship is awarded to certain undergraduate students as follows:

Summa cum laude (with highest honor) for those who have a grade point average of at least 3.90.

Magna cum laude (with great honor) for those who have a grade point average between 3.75 and 3.89.

Cum laude (with honor) for those who have a grade point average between 3.50 and 3.74.

The GPA is based on the lowest of the student's Missouri State cumulative GPA or the student's combined (Missouri State and transfer) cumulative GPA. Students must complete a minimum of 30 undergraduate credit hours prior to graduation at Missouri State University to be eligible for scholastic honors. Students meeting the above GPA criteria at the close of the semester immediately preceding their final semester of college work are honored at commencement ceremonies. The final eligibility of students for scholastic honors is based on credit hour totals and grade point averages at the end of the semester of graduation. Final eligibility is recorded on the University diploma and transcript.

These students are identified by a cordon worn with their academic regalia. The colors designating the honors are summa cum laude, gold; magna cum laude, silver; cum laude, bronze.

Scholastic honors eligibility for candidates in the Cooperative Engineering Program are based on Missouri University of Science and Technology scholastic honors requirements.

The Academic Dress

The history of academic dress goes back to the medieval European universities of the fourteenth century. European universities continue to follow varied patterns in cut and color of gown and type of headdress. In the United States, colleges and universities have standardized the academic dress so that its features are common and uniform throughout the country. The standard dress in the United States is as follows:

The Gown. At Missouri State University, bachelor's degree gowns are maroon and the master's and doctoral degree gowns are black. The pattern varies with the degree held; pointed sleeves for the bachelor's degree; long, closed sleeves with a slit for the arm for the master's degree; and round, open sleeves for the doctoral degree. The doctoral gown is faced down the front with velvet and three bars across the sleeves.

The Hood. Hoods are not worn for the bachelor's degree. The master's hood is shorter than the specialist and doctoral hood and lacks the panels of the doctoral hood. Hoods are lined with the colors of the school granting the degree, while the color of the binding or edging of the hood indicates the subject in which the degree was attained. The colors designating the subject of the degree are:

Audiology.....	Apricot
Arts.....	White
Athletic Training.....	Sage Green
Business.....	Drab
Defense & Strategic Studies.....	Gold
Education.....	Light Blue
Fine Arts.....	Brown
Music.....	Pink
Nursing.....	Apricot
Nurse Anesthesia.....	Gold
Occupational Therapy.....	Delpha Blue
Physical Therapy.....	Emerald Teal
Physician Assistant Studies.....	Kelly Green
Public Administration.....	Peacock Blue
Science.....	Gold-Yellow
Social Work.....	Citron
Specialist.....	Light Blue

The Cap. At Missouri State University, bachelor's degree candidates wear a maroon mortarboard, master's degree candidates wear a black mortarboard.

Members of the Board of Governors are uniformly attired in Governors' robes. The gown is maroon with velvet chevrons and panels. The hood is lined with maroon and white – the colors of Missouri State University.

Academic dress markedly different from the above description indicates a degree from a foreign university.
