1. No old business.

V. New Business

1. Bachelor of General Studies program requirements
 - a) Dr. Sullivan received an email from Dr. Brandon Aigner regarding concerns about students taking the ABCTE as an alternative to completing an education program with student teaching. Dr. Aigner brought it up first at the January 28, 2022 BSED Secondary Education Oversight Committee meeting where the committee shared his concern.
 - i. EPP Executive Committee is also concerned since there has been an increase in ABCTE students. However, it is not under the purview of EPP and should be addressed at the state level. Dr. Sullivan will respond to Dr. Aigner with a potential MACTE contact.
2. EPPC bylaws – BSED Secondary Education Oversight Committee
 - a) A secondary Business Education program has been added at the College of Education. Dr. Sarah Nixon from the RFT Department is the program coordinator. As such, Dr. Nixon is now attending the regular meetings of the BSED Secondary Education Oversight Committee with voting privileges. There are already two RFT representatives on the BSED committee in accordance with current EPP bylaws.
 - i. The original intent of the bylaws is to allow RFT two votes on the BSED Committee.
 - ii. The bylaws may need to be changed. This will be an agenda item for the March EPPC.
 - iii. Dr. Sullivan and Dr. Engler will meet with Dr. Stephanie Huffman about RFT representation before EPPC meeting in March.
3. Nominations will be requested for EPPC Chair-elect for 2022-2023 at the March EPPC meeting.
