Not Present: Melanie Carden-Jessen (CNAS), Andrew Homburg (COAL), Jim Hutter (COA), Diana Piccolo (COE)

Guest: Fatih Benzer (COAL)

I. Call to order

Dr. Swearingen called the meeting to order at 4:01 p.m.

II. Approval of minutes

The April 1, 2019 meeting minutes stand approved.

III. Review of Curricular Proposals

COURSE CHANGES

ELE 425: Methods of Teaching Communication Arts in Elementary Schools

A representative is not present. There is a change from two to three credit hours.

Motion to recommend. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

COU 781: Secondary School Counseling Internship and COU 783: Elementary School Counseling Internship

A representative is not present. There are formatting issues and clarification is needed as discussed at the April 1 meeting. It does not appear that changes have been made.

No action taken. Dr. Swearingen will discuss the proposals with the author.

PROGRAM CHANGES

Art & Design-BSED

Dr. Fatih Benzer spoke to the proposal. ART 359, Digital Photography, is being added to the list of electives. This does not increase the number of credit hours for the program. This course will need to be added to the matrix.

Motion to recommend. Second. Discussion. Motion carried.

Teaching English/Speakers of Other Languages

The EPP Screening Committee recommended this proposal but the Special Education program voiced concerns regarding SPE 310 and SPE 340 at the April EPPC and the proposal was tabled. However, this committee is not aware of any conversations that took place between Special Education and TESOL. The SPE courses have been part of the TESOL program for quite some time. The Committee agrees to bring this forward
