1	4.55%		All I needed was one class, college algebra, and so I decided to take the class here and have an Associates degree from Missouri State.
1	4.55%		I am also currently attending OTC finishing up my Associates Degree
1	4.55%		I am majoring in History-BSED. I completed all but three of my GEN-EDs before I transferred. I needed 12 hours to continue full time with my A+. So, I could complete my last three classes (9 hours) plus one random class that would not apply toward my major. Or I could begin taking classes that would give me a slight head start on graduating. I chose to just do the transfer in the fall instead of having to transfer over in the middle of the year when it might be more difficult to adjust.
1	4.55%		I did not complete the AA degree because I did not feel like I needed to take the extra classes that were boring and waste of money. I completed the transfer block of 42 hours and then transferred to MSU. However, I am excited to learn that some of the classes I am taking here I can transfer them to OTC so I can finish my AA degree through OTC.
1	4.55%		I did not pass my college algebra class the first time I took the course, which was last semester. In order for me to graduate from OTC with my Associate degree, I need college algebra. Because this is the only class holding me from my degree, I am currently dual enrolled in both OTC and Missouri State University.
1	4.55%		I did not receive an associate's degree because I had taken all of the transferable courses for my degree at OTC and did not see any point in wasting more time and money taking courses that were not needed at OTC.
1	4.55%		I got the AAS didnt know about the associates transfer degree
1	4.55%		I kept changing degrees and didnt have a plan nailed down to where I could get my associates.
1	4.55%		I only attended OTC for one year and I did not like the school. It was too small and I didnt like the teachers, lack of involvment and limited resources for students. Because of personal my psychology and criminal justice classes transferred only as psychology lower deviation and criminal justice lower deviation classes.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I need Art history classes for my major and I had already taken two at OTC. But the material covered in those courses did not meet the criteria required for my program. I understand why they did not it just.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I thought more of my ecd classes would take place of my cfd classes.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I'm going to take a stab in the dark here, but probably so MSU can make more money per transfer student. Because transfer students are going to have less of a turn over rate on dropping out than first year freshman.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Took Anatomy and Physiology combined and was unable to use it for what I expected to. Was my fault for not researching properly though.
1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	When I went to [REDACTED] I was told which classes to take for my major during my last semester at OTC, so I did not go to my advisor. When I transferred to MSU it ended up that a 3 of the classes I was told to take didn't really count towards my major because they were just introductory classes to the major.

1	5.88%		I agree with the above statements
1	5.88%		I agree with them all
1	5.88%		I did not receive my letter until two and a half weeks after they said that I could have received it
1	5.88%		I do think there could be more effective Financial aid information and help.
1	5.88%		I had a lot of problems in my transfer and admission to MSU. There were misunderstandings about paperwork and some regulations that no one told me about and I didn't know to ask about. This caused a lot of anxiety and stress and led to rather unpleasant feelings about MSU
1	5.88%		I just remember during my admission process, I did a lot of going back and forth the campus. There is also one guy I talked to who wasn't very helpful. He was asking for a Missouri residency card... some card that I never heard about and my friends don't know about. Turns out that I don't even need it. Overall, I felt like I talked to staff that doesn't know what to do or how to accommodate a new transfer student.
1	5.88%		Missed deadlines for scholarship and having to take EDU 150 to get admitted is hard on the finances. A student who has an AAT degree should be admitted to the College of Education immediately not after EDU150.

1	5.88%		My first advisor for Psy department was helpful. Then transferred me to another one. This second one didn't know anything about me, in fact, had my name completely wrong before I going in for an advisement meeting. Didn't even know what classes I was currently taking. I could go on.
2	11.76%		n/a
1	5.88%		N/A
1	5.88%		One of the most important documents, one about scholarships, arrived a week after all of the deadlines.
1	5.88%		Something that I didn't like about transferring to MSU was before I moved to Missouri I lived in Arkansas and completed 2 associate degrees there. However, I retok a few classes in Arkansas to get better grades in. Well at MSU the departments took both grades as an average. I didn't like that. I paid to retake a class and the school I was at accepted the better grade. I just think it a student pays to retake a class to get a better grade the school should take the better grade.
1	5.88%		The only concern I had was with my scholarship application. I did have to make multiple trips for financial aid, but that is a learning process. I electronically filed and had no signature on the copies. I believe that the Missouri State Promise Scholarship is through the University so I have checked yes on the following question. If I am in error I apologize.
1	5.88%		the transfer help list was not that good. It wasn't specific to my needs and I felt like a number. The staff just runs you around from one unqualified person to a less qualified person. Who do you have working that office? I had to go over their head to test out of my spanish courses. The academic advising is even worse. I was never assigned an advisor and I won't given a list to choose from to place them on my account
1	5.88%		You gave me a To-Do list...but there were things that I didn't know how to do (such as getting Zip Card, registering for classes, etc.) You have to remember that OTC students are used to things being much as they were in high school. I thought it wasn't necessarily a difficult transition, but there were a few struggles I had.

Count	Percent

Count	Percent
1	2.00%		Cheaper. Or offer more scholarships to help pay.
1	2.00%		Coming from OTC was a lot different in the classes then it is at MSU
1	2.00%		For MSU to accept more of the courses I took from other schools considering they were higher level courses from a private school that would blow MSU out of the water.
1	2.00%		Get transfer students more involved
1	2.00%		Have better access to advisors around class schedules and work and get help in determining classes needed for a degree.
1	2.00%		Have better programs to effectively transfer credits from OTC to MSU.
1	2.00%		I am a mom there aren't any mom groups I have heard of, we all need some support too
1	2.00%		I am a untraditional student, and more and more of us are reentering college due to the economy, maybe connecting more with the older groups.
1	2.00%		I am very satisfied with my transfer experience. As a nontraditional student I can emphasize with the difficulty transferring from OTC to MSU. This is the reason why I began the process early and took steps to ensure my comfort level was appropriate to the move. I took it upon myself to walk the campus and familiarize myself with the facilities I would utilize.
1	2.00%		I cannot think of any
1	2.00%		I don't fully understand this question. When you say connected, what do you mean?
1	2.00%		I don't live on campus or even live in Springfield, there is nothing really that I feel needs to be changed. I'm just not there enough to experience the events they provide.
1	2.00%		I feel connected with Missouri State.

1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I feel like just another student. Since there are so many students it feels like advisors and instructors just see you as another individual needing help.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I feel very good about what Missouri State does to connect with students
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I had never been on MSU's campus before and decided to take a tour. The tour was great, but geared more for highschool kids and their parents. It seemed most of the tour was about the dorms and trying to convince people to come to MSU. I understand the need for that, but it would be nice to offer a tour for the non traditional students who are more interested in where their classes will be than what the dorm rooms offer.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I love how many clubs and organaizations there are on campus, but we get them all introduced to us at the same times over and over which was overwhelming especially at the beginning of the semester. I also feel like alot of students are intimidated or dont find organizations that they fit into and so they do nothing at all. So if there was a way for organizations to publicize in a more efficient and less overwhelming way I think more people would be involved.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I personally just don't have time to do any extra stuff with all of my classes and work
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I think if MSU had more online or evening classes it would be a lot better for me. I have a baby at home and my husband works full time. I think if MSU had more of a schedule like a community college they would benefit from it. More classes of an evening and online.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I think MSU does a fine job at helping stregthen students connection.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I think that Mlssouri State has done a excellent job to help me feel connected at Mlssouri state on and off campus/
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I would like to see a transfer group set up for students who live on campus and transfer in. Missing out on my first year really set me back socially because I didn't know very many people. It would be helpful to make friends with people who have the same situation.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I'm an older student, therefore, nothing really. It would be great if I would have attended years ago.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I'm not sure, I don't do extracurricular things at the campus.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	It's a lot harder on transfer students. You're new, and you feel like a freshman, but you aren't a freshman. Plus, I do not live on campus. I live outside of town. I think it just needs to be remembered that transfer students are students just like everyone else. Sometimes I feel as if I'm looked down on because I went to community college before I came here. But I'm not sorry I did. I have so much less debt. Even though I thought I hated OTC there was almost a camraderie there. Everyone was there because they were in similar situations. They were all raised near-by and most don't have loads of money. In a way I miss OTC because everyone was just like me. Everyone there had to work to get by. Here there are so many people that don't work or they get to go to school for free because of financial situations. I feel like an outsider.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	It's nothing that MSU could do. It's just that it's my first semester here so once I don't feel like a newbie I sure I will feel more connected.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Keep doing what your doing

1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	More classes available would be nice.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	More events that are more well known
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	More information about new student events that happen prior to the semester beginning. And maybe some events specifically for transfer students, to help us better meet more people.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	n/a
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	None.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Not a lot.
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Not Sure.
2	4.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Nothing
1	2.00%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Nothing, I am an older student and I just do not get much out of most of the student get togethers and activities.

1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	Nothing, it's great.
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	One free ticket to a sports event the your first year at the school.
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	Perhaps more involvement specifically for non-traditional students -- more opportunities for them to get together.
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	Probably nothing really... maybe have more family events that I could bring my child to?
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	Provided me more information about student organizations
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	The only complaint that I have had with Missouri State so far is the difficulty of putting a class schedule together that works for me. Specifcly, the Agriculture Department does not make it easy for commuter students who cannont afford to drive every day of the week. I have had really long breaks in between classes as well. So I think there should be more than one section for the major requirement classes and that the times of the classes should not overlap by 10 minutes or be 3 to 4 hours apart.
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	There is nothing I can really think of.
1	2.00%	<input type="text"/>	This semester has been incredibly unpleasent and stressful, it has caused me great anxiety and by now I've regretted transfering to Missouri State in the first place.

When I called and asked the Transportation Department the lady became very hateful with me and I felt like she was talking down to me. I felt like I had just asked a "dumb" question. OTC doesn't have parking permits so I didn't know exactly how they worked and it was just a simple yes/no question. 1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	I had one annoyance with the transfer process. I was sent a letter saying I couldn't be accepted because my paperwork wasn't all on file. I had already sent my transcripts in from OTC, though. So after I took time one afternoon to come up and talk to Admissions about it they told me I had to also have my high school transcripts sent in. I had been at OTC for an entire year at that point. They said that because I took dual credit with MSU and my high school they needed both transcripts. I thought that was a little unnecessary since all the classes I took for DC were on my OTC transcripts. Nevertheless I had to go out to Willard and have them sent in because they require a written request and signature or a request in person. It all worked out, but I found it a little excessive.

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	I had some issues with the website not allowing me to log into my account right before school started, so I missed the initial SOAR date I was registered for which frustrated me. I was also disappointed while moving in, I was by myself and totally capable of moving all my things, but was expecting move in crews to help. The only time I saw the crew they were standing in a group talking. I also feel like the living learning community (LLC) I live in now is a great idea, but only if its actually utilized. I picked the llc for health and human sciences and know nothing more about this are than before coming to MSU. We are also supposed to be a close floor and I can say I only know about 7 girls on the entire floor. Also, the staff at front desks have been very unknowledgable for the most part about answering different questions and very unhelpful. Not all are, but a large majority. I am very disappointed that these people are being payed to watch movies at the desk all day and night and act inconvenienced when you approach them.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	I had to contact admissions and financial aid multiple times as there was a problem which caused me to have 2 student accts with 2 bear numbers - but rather than resolving it completely I had to keep calling back because things were posted to the wrong account multiple times.

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	I was disappointed that after filling out the school wide scholarship data base that I didn't qualify for a transfer scholarship. I feel that if I would have applied individually for it, that I might have received it.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	I was not aware that I needed to also do loan counseling for MSU to receive my loans.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	I WAS TOLD FROM MY OTC ADVISER THAT I COULD REPLACE A FEW CBASE SCORES BY TAKING A FEW CLASSES TO GET ME INTO THE EDUCATION CLASSES BUT THAT IS NOT TRUE. IT CAN ONLY REPLACE ONE SCORE.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	It is both frustrating and disappointing that there are not many or sometimes not at all night or online classes. Not all that go to MSU are full time college students. Some of us have jobs and have to support families. It makes it extremely difficult to attend. This is a huge problem that I am having and have considered other options.

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	Most students try to bring their lunches and all the microwaves in the two buildings I go to regularly are broke! This is tough, especially when you're on a schedule and can't heat up any food. Also, the coffee vending machine is terrible. I have sank money in it twice to get a hot cocoa and got hot water, not my greatest investment. I don't have the time or patience to go all the way to the Bursar's office for .65 cents. These things may seem small, but for students they are frustrating and disappointing.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	My advisor was trying to eat lunch, so I felt rushed in my process. I did not get to ask him any questions about my degree. Also I tried to explain to him which days I worked and which days I was available for class. I ended up going home and signing up for classes by myself.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	My teachers have been disappointing, dull, hostile, and unhelpful. My classes have all been repetition of things I've already learned, the assignments have seemed like busy work and in some classes, the points given haven't seemed to meet the amount of work required on the assignments

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	One of my current professors is very unprofessional at what he does and simply cannot communicate the material clearly. Another one blasts through an hour and fifteen minutes of material like he's on speed and assumes the students know exactly what's going on while explaining new material that I certainly don't know. He's also kind of a hypocrite with explaining mathematical proofs... "You can't assume what you want to prove is true." Well, you can't assume your students automatically understand everything you're doing either. Then his comments make me feel inferior.

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	The campus is very offensive. It is too liberal for a state college and for one in South West Missouri. When I walk across campus and there is an organized group of students blasting music and F is in it, or when my Spanish class watches a movie that has no relivence to anything we are studding and the F is there every few minutes enough to rate the movie R, or when a music class has you listen to music with foul language. I know I'm an adult but I still find it offincive and don't want to hear it form a public institution. Nor wast my time learning from them.

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	The only thing was wanting to trasfer to another section of a course I had been in...I think it's ridiculous to have to pay for 75% of the class you are dropping and 100% of the new course you're switching to.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	the staff I talked to seems to have limited knowledge of what I needed to be answered. I was passed around from person to person which is really annoying. Right now, I am only hoping that my intro to education class (for transfer students) will help fill me in with the things I need to know as far as what classes I need to take. During the summer of my transfer process, I wasn't able to talk to the right people due to their complicated schedules and not being assigned to the right person which is also part of my fault. Frankly, I was surprised that Ozark Technical Community College had a better admission and advising team than what I just experienced from Missouri State. I felt like the transition there were a lot smoother. here is how the scenario went: I called the campus and asked for an art education adviser but she gave me the contact for drawing adviser. When i met with my drawing adviser, she wanted me to see the education adviser because she didn't know anything about the education stuff... then when i finally was able to contact my education adviser, she wanted me to contact an art education adviser. The process was very frustrating. Up to this point, I wont know exactly what I need till I take my intro to education, or so I hope.

1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	Yes it seems all the classes I need my first semester were only offered at overlapping times. I found this very frustrating and as a result had to push back my graduation date by a semester.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	Yes, the financial aid process. I know it's a long process and a lot of hoops to jump through, but something was missing on my part and my student loans have been held up because of this and no one notified me. Therefore, I didn't know anything about it and now it's going on November and still nothing. I had to keep checking my bank balance to see if my loan had hit and when it hadn't, I decided to call financial aid, glad I did.
1	1.82%	<input type="text"/>	Yes. My adviser sent me an email saying we needed to complete my COBA paper work. I ended up having to bring my son because my husband was out of town with work and she was rude to me about my schedule and I ended up not being able to finish the COBA paper work till the end of this semester. I have a new adviser now and she is much better.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Explain the website set up and class times better. Such as "R" stands for Thursday and Biology 121 A is lecture and Biology 121 003 is a lab and that you need to enroll in one of each. That is very confusing at first for a transfer student.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Honestly, keep up the good work. You are much more helpful than OTC ever was. It seems like the departments all talk to one another here, and know what they are doing.
1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I did receive multiple emails from other institutions soliciting my attendance, I do not recall receiving any from MSU.
1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I have already made these suggestions but there need to be major improvements in the financial aid department. The entire staff needs to be better trained, and the website needs additional features.
1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	I just think if Missouri State had classes throughout the day and evening MWF it would be better. I think more students would choose to go there, because they could work during the day and go to school at night. Students with children are having to pay a fortune in child care, because they need to go to class. I think more Mother's and Father's and adults would attend college if it fit into their schedules better. I think it is something MSU should look into!
1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Im not sure if you have any control over this, but I was not aware till after I transfered that there was a MSU help desk at OTC as well as a website. It would have helped me alot to know this.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	My children's colleges notify me by email of all required steps in the financial aid process. That would help.

1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	Seeing eye to eye with an adviser would be a lot better than talking through email which usually take days for responses. I understand that Missouri State have a lot of students that they need to accommodate, and that is why I was patient through out, until this survey :)
1	6.25%	<input type="checkbox"/>	The people who answer questions over the phone up at financial aid could certainly be more patient and courteous -- make people feel like they really are listening and care and want to help.
