Ad Hoc Committee on Curricular Matters

Purpose:

- Continuously reviewing the university's curricular processes, practices, actions, and systems to ensure they reflect the curricular process outlined in the Faculty Senate Constitution and Bylaws. Any recommendations and/or resolutions of the Committee shall be directed to the Faculty Senate for appropriate disposition.
- Serving as a vehicle through which Faculty Senate, the Office of the Provost, and the Office of the Registrar may introduce items of concern for discussion and consideration.
- Inviting the submission of items of concern regarding curricular matters from faculty members or administrators for discussion.
- Preparing an annual report to be presented at Faculty Senate and posted to the Faculty Senate website during the fall semester. The report should (1) include data on the number of curricular proposals submitted and approved during the previous academic year, distinguishing between types of proposals; (2) describe any substantial changes made to curricular processes, practices, or systems; (3) explain items of concern that were discussed and/or addressed; and (4) outline the process by which items of concern can be submitted to the committee.

Membership: The membership should consist of a past Secretary of the Faculty, who would be chair of the Committee on Curricular Matters; the Chair of the Faculty Senate; the Chair-Elect of the Faculty Senate; the Secretary of the Faculty; and the Past Chair of the Faculty Senate. The administrative specialist for Faculty Senate, a designee of the Office of the Provost, a designee of the Office of the Registrar, and any other additional representative(s) as designated by the chair would serve as ex officio members without vote.

COMMITTEE ON UNIVERSITY BUDGET & PRIORITIES

Purpose: Shall help ensure that the university's budget reflects its priority of high-quality academics. Logically, this includes ensuring that the faculty are paid competitive salaries and that faculty hiring keeps pace with enrollments.

Shall every year produce a report card to be presented to the Senate, posted on the Senate's website, and sent to all faculty. The report card should summarize pertinent data including faculty salaries compared to CUPA averages and medians. The report card should note recent and long-run trends with respect to ranked and unranked faculty and staff salaries. The report card should also summarize the number of equity adjustments given in the previous year, by count and by total value, for faculty, staff and administrators, respectively. The data for the report card should reflect data published by the administration in, for example, budgets and budget requests, Human Resources' salary surveys, and the Key Performance Indicators. The presentation to the Faculty Senate should occur in the fall, preferably during the October meeting.

Shall every year oversee the update of the Institutional Research personnel database to maintain consistency with the previous years' format. Annually, an abbreviated report of personnel proportions will be presented to the Faculty Senate, preferably during the March meeting. This abbreviated report will identify and describe the student-personnel ratios for the most recent update to the Institutional Research personnel database.

Every fifth year, beginning in 2020-21, a comprehensive report of personnel hiring trends across the Missouri State University system will be presented before the Faculty Senate during the April meeting. This comprehensive report will follow the format of the 2017-18 ad hoc Committee on Personnel Hiring Trends including data analysis which identifies and describes the absolute and relative growth/decline in personnel categories, the current and historic proportions of the personnel categories within the entire personnel of the university, and the trends in student-personnel ratios for the personnel categories used in the database.

Should assist appropriate university bodies in identifying and articulating Faculty Senate concerns about budgeting and planning priorities, and should help with monitoring and reporting progress, or the lack of progress, towards goals reflecting these priorities.

Shall every year report on student credit hour (SCH) production and ranked and unranked faculty utilization, as reflected in review the Faculty Descriptors and Productivity Comparison Summary. The committee's report should summarize recent and long-run trends. The university report is completed in late fall, thus, the presentation to the Faculty Senate should occur in the early spring, preferably January.

Shall examine all proposals for intercollegiate programs, general education courses or other major initiatives with possible budgetary implications before the Faculty Senate and report to the Chair of the Faculty Senate the examination results prior to the proposals being voted on.

Membership: The Committee on University Budget & Priorities of the Faculty Senate shall consist of representatives from each college and additional representatives as defined in <http://www.missouristate.edu/facultysenate/entities.htm>. A ranked faculty member shall be elected by his or her respective college councils, based on a nomination from each academic department within that college, at the earliest possible session of the college council in the spring semester, and serve a three-year term. A committee member may be elected to more than one three-year term. Membership shall be staggered. Any unforeseen vacancy on the committee shall be filled by the same election process; such election shall occur at the earliest possible session of the appropriate council following the vacancy. In addition to faculty members, one institutional research staff member and the university chief financial officer (CFO) will be ex officio members of the committee to help provide technical support and advice to help the committee produce the Hiring Trend report. The Chair-Elect of the Faculty Senate shall call the organizational session of the committee within seven (7) school days after the first Fall Faculty Senate session and preside until the membership has elected a chair who shall serve a one-year term and may be reelected for succeeding terms.

COMMITTEE ON CITIZENSHIP AND SERVICE LEARNING

Purpose: Shall advise departments regarding departments' proposed attachment of service learning components to existing courses as part of the Citizenship and Service Learning program in order to ensure compliance with the service learning course criteria established in Faculty Senate Action 10-95/96, which created the Citizenship and Service Learning program.

Shall monitor the service learning courses and program to ensure compliance with established service learning criteria.

Shall periodically review service learning courses, program, and assessment data and recommend changes to the Faculty Senate.

Shall serve as a faculty advisory committee to the director of the Citizenship and Service Learning program.

Shall report annually to the Faculty Senate.

Membership: The Committee on Citizenship and Service Learning shall comprise the following: one faculty member from each undergraduate college, appointed by the Chair of the Faculty Senate; one faculty member from each entity so identified in <http://www.missouristate.edu/facultysenate/entities.htm>, appointed by the Chair of the Faculty Senate; the Chair-Elect of the Faculty Senate, ex officio without vote; and the director of the Citizenship and Service Learning program, ex officio without vote. At least half the members shall be faculty with experience in service learning courses. Members shall serve for a term of three (3) years and may be reappointed for one succeeding term. Members shall serve staggered three-year terms, so that one-third of the membership shall be replaced each year. The Chair of the Faculty Senate shall appoint the chair of the Committee.

COLLEGE COUNCILS

Purpose: The primary purpose of each discipline-based undergraduate college council is to act upon curricular matters that are referred to it by academic departments within the college.

Powers: Each discipline-based undergraduate college council is empowered to approve a departmental proposal, reject and return a proposal to the originating academic department, or amend and approve the proposal.

Membership: A discipline-based undergraduate college council shall consist of one member from each academic department of the college, and one student representative, majoring in a discipline in that college. The academic dean of the college shall be an ex officio member of the council without vote. Each college council member shall serve for a term of two years and may be reelected for one immediately succeeding term but shall not then be eligible for reelection until after the lapse of an intervening year. Department heads are not eligible for election except in the case where a department head is the only member of an academic department. The Chair of the Faculty Senate may attend the session of any college council as an ex officio member without vote.

COUNCIL ON GENERAL EDUCATION & INTERCOLLEGIATE PROGRAMS

Purpose: This Council shall act upon all curricular proposals affecting the General Education Program as well as courses and programs offered collaboratively by Academic Departments/Schools in two or more colleges (i.e. Intercollegiate programs not routed to EPPC or Graduate Council).

Powers: This Council is empowered to approve curricular proposals, reject and return proposals to the College Council(s) that submitted it/them, or amend and approve the proposals.

Membership: The Council shall be comprised of two persons from each undergraduate College (with the exception of University College) and the Chair-elect of the Faculty Senate, an ex-officio member without vote. Members shall serve for a term of three (3) years and may be reelected. At the first organizational meeting, one (1), two (2), and three (3) year terms shall be drawn by lot, so that one-third of the council has each term length. Thereafter, members shall serve staggered three (3) year terms, so that one-third of the membership shall be replaced each year. The Provost or a designate of the Provost shall be an ex-officio member without vote. The Director of the Center for Assessment and Instructional Support shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

EDUCATOR PREPARATION PROVIDER COUNCIL

Purpose: The primary purpose of the EPPC is to review courses and programs and to define those policies and procedures that ensure educator preparation programs at Missouri State University (MSU) meet state and national guidelines for preparing qualified school personnel. The EPPC represents the EPP (Educator Preparation Provider) as a governing body that is part of the Faculty Senate. Missouri State University is organized such that educator preparation programs are offered in each of the six academic colleges. The EPP was established to encompass all educator preparation certification programs across the various colleges.

Membership:

- A An EPPC member who represents the faculty must be a member of the EPP. Faculty/staff who teach one or more EPP courses, advise or supervise educator preparation students, or administer educator preparation academic departments/units* or colleges must be members of the EPP.

(*The term “unit” here refers to any group of faculty members who collectively controls the curriculum of one or more academic programs and resides outside of the administrative structure of any single academic department. The only educator preparation entity that fits this description is the MSED-Secondary Oversight Committee. If additional educator preparation units are formed which fit this description, they shall receive voting membership on the EPPC automatically without additional amendment to the Bylaws. The BSED-Secondary Oversight Committee does not fit this description because each of the BSED-Secondary programs is controlled by its respective department.)

All faculty serving on EPPC must meet all Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) accreditation standards regarding members of the EPP. These standards include being actively involved in teacher education and having a five-year plan on file in the respective academic department and the EPP. This five-year plan must detail the faculty member’s direct and periodic involvement with the public schools.

- B 1 The EPPC shall include at least one EPP faculty member from each academic department, and from each entity so identified in <http://www.missouristate.edu/facultysenate/entities.htm>, that has one or more education programs. All departments are required to have at least one representative. Departments with more than 250 combined graduate and undergraduate teacher education majors have the option of electing one representative per 250 majors in teacher education. If an academic department or entity so identified in <http://www.missouristate.edu/facultysenate/entities.htm> has three or fewer EPP faculty members, then its head may serve as an ex officio EPPC member without voting privileges.
- 2 Eligible members from the faculty shall be elected for a two-year term and shall be eligible to serve two consecutive terms but following the second term shall not be eligible to serve until after the lapse of an intervening year. Exception to this rule: A person elected chair-elect during the fourth consecutive year as a EPPC member may serve a fifth year as chair-elect and a sixth year as chair. Upon completion of a term as chair, that person will not be eligible to serve on the EPPC until after the lapse of an intervening year. A second exception shall be those academic departments in which only one or two faculty meet EPPC membership requirements. These faculty may be reelected without limit.
- C Three school teachers (elementary, secondary, K12) from the community and one full-time school administrator from the community shall be elected to the EPPC by the EPPC and shall be eligible to serve two consecutive terms of two years each, but following the second term shall not be eligible to serve until after the lapse of an intervening year. These members shall be full voting members except they shall be excluded from discussions and decisions regarding confidential personnel matters.

- D Membership shall also include two Missouri State University undergraduate students and two Missouri State University graduate students. Student members shall serve a term of two years as full voting members. They shall be excluded from discussions and decisions regarding confidential personnel matters.
- E The Head of the EPP and the Secretary of the Faculty shall be ex officio members to the EPPC without voting privileges. The administrator responsible for DESE and CAEP accreditation process shall also serve as ex officio member to the EPPC without voting privileges.

COMMITTEE ON FACULTY BENEFITS

Purpose: Shall maintain communication with personnel in the Office of Human Resources concerning current faculty benefits.

Shall prepare an annual report on the status of faculty benefits, to be submitted to the Faculty Senate during the Spring semester and presented no later than the April Session, that includes:

- A comparative review of benefits provided or available to faculty at MSU and benefits offered to faculty at other state and peer institutions.
- A review of data from the Faculty Concerns survey addressing satisfaction with faculty benefits.
- A summary of feedback solicited from the faculty about current and desired benefits.
- A list of Committee recommendations, if any.

Membership: The Committee on Faculty Benefits shall include one representative from each undergraduate college and one representative from each entity so identified in <http://www.missouristate.edu/facultysenate/entities.htm>. Eligible college representatives include ranked faculty. College representatives shall be appointed by the Chair of the Faculty Senate. The Chair of the Faculty Senate shall choose members with interest in benefits. The Associate Director of Human Resources in charge of Benefits, or a designee of the Associate Director, and the Chair-Elect of the Faculty Senate shall be ex officio members without vote.

College representatives shall serve for a term of three (3) years and may be reappointed indefinitely. Terms shall be staggered so that one-third of the membership is appointed each year.

The Chair of the Faculty Senate shall appoint one of the college representatives to serve as chair of the Committee on Faculty Benefits.

FACULTY SENATE

Purpose: Actions, as perfected and passed by the Faculty Senate, represent the collective reasoning of the Faculty through its governance process as to policies and procedures to be followed by the University and are communicated to the University Administration for approval and implementation. Resolutions passed by the Faculty Senate state the collective reasoning of the Faculty Senate on specific issues and shall be forwarded for information to the appropriate Administrators.

Membership: There are two classes of membership in the Faculty Senate: voting members (designated as senators) and non-voting members (designated as delegates). The voting membership of the Faculty Senate shall consist of the following senators: the Chair of the Senate; the Chair-Elect of the Senate; the Secretary of the Faculty; representatives of academic departments, one senator from each academic department; one representative from the instructors; one from clinical faculty; and representatives of the ranked faculty, one senator from each rank: (a) assistant professor, (b) associate professor, (c) full or distinguished professor. Eligible department representatives include all ranked faculty, as well as those instructors and clinical faculty who have served no less than two consecutive academic years at Missouri State University by the September session of their term. Ranked faculty refers to tenure-track/tenured Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, or Professor or Distinguished Professor. Those who hold administrative appointments at or above head level of academic department are not eligible to serve as senators. Exception to this rule: if an academic department/school has three or fewer eligible representatives, then the head may serve as senator.

FACULTY SENATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Purpose: Shall participate in the curricular process as described in Article VI, Section 9.

May advise the Chair of the Faculty Senate in preparing the agenda for sessions of the Faculty Senate.

Shall assist in supervision of the working of the Faculty Senate in such manner as directed by the Faculty Senate or by the Chair of the Faculty Senate.

Shall prepare, revise and supervise the use of forms utilized in faculty governance processes.

Shall assign or approve special charges to committees of the Faculty Senate.

Shall ensure that each standing committee and council of the Faculty Senate understands and addresses its charges by providing an ex officio member without vote.

Membership: Shall consist of the Chair of the Faculty Senate, who shall be chair of the Executive Committee; the Chair-Elect of the Faculty Senate, the Secretary of the Faculty, and the past chair of the Faculty Senate. A past-chair who has been appointed to a full-time administrative position will not be eligible to serve on the Executive Committee. When the immediate past-chair is unable or ineligible to serve, the Executive Committee shall consist of the Chair of the Faculty Senate, the Chair-Elect of the Faculty Senate, and the Secretary of the Faculty. The Chair may appoint a parliamentarian to serve as an ex officio member of the Executive Committee if additional parliamentarian expertise is desired.

GRADUATE COUNCIL

Purpose: The primary purpose of the Graduate council is to act upon graduate level curricular matters that are referred to it by academic departments.

Powers of the Graduate Council: The Graduate Council is empowered, for courses numbered 600 or higher, for graduate degree programs, for graduate degrees, and for the general requirements for graduate certificates, to recommend approval of a curricular proposal from an academic department or special academic program or to reject and return a proposal to the originator. If so charged by the Senate Chair, the Graduate Council is also empowered to initiate curricular proposals to add graduate degrees, delete graduate degrees, modify the requirements for existing graduate degrees, and modify the general requirements for graduate certificates, or to investigate the merits of such a proposed change and initiate a curricular proposal at its discretion. It must approve all members of the graduate faculty. Other responsibilities include program planning, curricular control, and policy-making for the Graduate College.

Membership of the Graduate Council: The Graduate Council shall comprise the following: the Chair, one representative from the Graduate Student Senate; one member of the graduate faculty from each entity so identified in <http://www.missouristate.edu/facultysenate/entities.htm> that offers one or more graduate programs; and one member of the graduate faculty from each academic department offering one or more graduate programs, or in the case of an interdisciplinary program, a representative from the sponsoring entity. The term of office for members of the Graduate Council is one year for the student representative and two years for each faculty representative. A faculty representative to Graduate Council may be elected for two consecutive terms, but following the second term shall not be eligible to serve until after the lapse of an intervening year. A person elected Chair of the Graduate Council during his or her second term as member may serve out his or her term as chair. Upon completion of the term as chair that person shall not be eligible to serve on the Graduate Council until after the lapse of an intervening year. Department heads are not eligible for election except in the case where an academic department head is the only graduate faculty member in an academic department. The following individuals shall be ex officio members of the Graduate Council without vote: the Dean and the Associate Dean of the Graduate College, the most recent past-Chair of the Graduate Council, the Chair of the Faculty Senate, a representative from Meyer Library, and a representative from Records and Registration.

Chair of the Graduate Council: The Chair of the Graduate Council must be a member of the graduate faculty and Graduate Council at the time of election. The Chair of the Graduate Council is elected by a majority vote of the members present at an organizational session of the newly-elected Graduate Council held in May. The Dean of the Graduate College (or designee) shall preside at this organizational session until a new chair is elected. The Chair of the Graduate Council shall serve for a term of one year and may be elected for a second consecutive one-year term. After serving two consecutive one-year terms, the Chair shall not then be eligible for reelection as Chair until after a lapse of an intervening year.
