Who is a Peer Leader?

A Peer Leader is a student who uses his/her positive attitude, exemplary academic work, interpersonal skills, and personal experience to assist first-year students in their transition to university life. Peer Leaders pair up with GEP 101 instructors and help educate students on topics including campus involvement, time management, critical thinking, campus resources, the public affairs mission, and more.

What does a Peer Leader do?

- Make a difference in the lives of first-year students
- Partner with a lead GEP 101 instructor
- Help students by answering questions, serving as a resource, and problem-solving
- Assist with class activities and teaching
- Develop positive relationships with students

What are the requirements of becoming a Peer Leader?

- 3.0 cumulative GPA
- Completion of 30 credit hours
- Enrollment in IDS 310, a 1-credit hour course for leadership instruction at no cost to the student
- Completion of Peer Leader training
- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- Strong work ethic
- High standards for ethics and integrity
- Respect for the University and its students, faculty, and staff
- Desire to serve others

What are the benefits of becoming a Peer Leader?

- Make a difference in the lives of first-year students
- Obtain numerous skills to highlight a variety of jobs
- Receive GEP101/IDS310 textbooks and Peer Leader apparel
- Earn 1 credit hour for IDS 310, Leadership Seminar, each semester of service to a maximum of 3 credits at no cost to the student
- Receive 16 hours of university service hours
- Meet other leaders on campus to collaborate on ideas and share resources

Why do you want to return as a Peer Leader? What might you do differently this year?

The information in this application is factual and is a realistic assessment of my abilities. I understand that my academic and conduct histories, including academic integrity violations and student conduct violations, will be reviewed as part of the Peer Leader selection process. I recognize that being a GEP 101 Peer Leader carries with it both privileges and responsibilities and I can be removed from my Peer Leader position at the discretion of the Director of First-Year Programs.
