Submit the following information regarding two required references.

Please note: A full-time faculty, staff member or graduate assistant of Missouri State University must complete the reference form. Your former high school teacher may also complete this form. Recommendations written by undergraduate students (such as RAs, Peer Leaders, etc.) will not be accepted. If you need assistance in identifying an acceptable reference, please contact Dr. Tracey Glaessgen.

Name/ Position	Business Address	Business Telephone	Affiliation with Reference

It is the applicant's responsibility to contact their references to ask them to fill out the reference form. First-Year Programs will not contact references to ask that they submit a reference for a Peer Leader.

Links to the online reference form and a printable version are available on the First-Year Programs website:

Provide a short, typed response to the following questions.

(Please use only the space provided)

1. Why do you want to be a Peer Leader? Why do you think you would be a good choice for the position?

2. What do you think are the most important needs of a first-year student at Missouri State in order to make a successful transition from high school to college?

3. What does Missouri State's public affairs mission mean to you?

The information in this application is factual and is a realistic assessment of my abilities. I understand that my academic and conduct histories, including academic integrity violations and student conduct violations, will be reviewed as part of the Peer Leader selection process. I recognize that being a GEP 101 Peer Leader carries with it both privileges and responsibilities, and I can be removed from my Peer Leader position at the discretion of the Director of First-Year Programs.

Missouri State University is a community of people with respect for diversity. The University emphasizes the dignity and equality common to all persons and adheres to a strict non-discrimination policy regarding the treatment of individual faculty, staff, and students. In accord with federal law and applicable Missouri statutes, the University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin (including ancestry, or any other subcategory of national origin recognized by applicable law), religion, sex (including marital status, family status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any other subcategory of sex recognized by applicable law), age, disability, veteran status, genetic information, or any other basis protected by applicable law in employment or in any program or activity offered or sponsored by the University. Sex discrimination encompasses sexual harassment, which includes sexual violence, and is strictly prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. This policy shall not be interpreted in a manner as to violate the legal rights of religious organizations or of military organizations associated with the Armed Forces of the United States of America. The University maintains a grievance procedure incorporating due process available to any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against. Missouri State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/Minority/Female/Veterans/Disability/Sexual Orientation/Gender Identity employer. Inquiries concerning the complaint/grievance procedure related to sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual assault, should be addressed to the Title IX Coordinator, Carrington Hall 205, 901 S. National Ave., Springfield, Missouri 65897, TitleIX@MissouriState.edu, 417-836-8506, or to the Office for Civil Rights. All other inquiries concerning the grievance procedure, Affirmative Action Plan, or compliance with federal and state laws and guidelines should be addressed to the Equal Opportunity Officer, Office for Institutional Equity and Compliance, Carrington Hall 205, 901 S. National Ave., Springfield, Missouri 65897, Equity@MissouriState.edu, 417-836-4252, or to the Office for Civil Rights. (Res. Board Policies No. 70-11; Bd. Min. 10-28-11.)
