

Does this newly added general education course count towards the old general education?

The only newly added general education courses that count towards the old general education are those specifically listed below. If a new general education course is not listed, it means it does not count towards any of the old general education requirements.

The new general education course is:	The area it counts for in the new general education:	The area it will be counted for in the old general education:	Additional things you might need to know:
AST 113	Natural World/Physical Sciences	Natural World/Astronomy and Physics (no lab)
BIO 101	Natural World/Life Sciences	Natural World/Biology and Biomedical Sciences (no lab)
BIO 111	Natural World/Life Sciences	Natural World/Biology and Biomedical Sciences (lab)
BMS 111	Natural World/Life Sciences	Natural World/Biology and Biomedical Sciences (lab)
CHM 108	Natural World/Physical Sciences	Natural World/Chemistry (lab)
CHM 116	Natural World/Physical Sciences	Natural World/Chemistry (no lab)	CHM 116 is the course formerly numbered CHM 106. As such CHM 116 would automatically meet the Natural World/Physical Science (no lab) requirement.
CHM 117	Natural World/Physical Sciences	Natural World/Chemistry (lab)
ENG 282	Human Cultures/Humanities	Self-Understanding/Humanities Perspective	ENG 282 is the course formerly numbered ENG 380. As such, ENG 282 would automatically meet the Self-Understanding/Humanities perspective requirement.
GLG 115	Natural World/Life Sciences	Natural World/Geography and Geology (no lab)
KIN 210	Public Affairs/Public Issues	Basic Required Courses/Fitness for Living	KIN 210 is the course formerly numbered KIN 100. As such, KIN 210 would automatically meet the Basic Required Courses/Fitness for Living requirement.