

Deidre Mings - Full Biography

Deidre started her career in Human Resources and Benefits directly out of High school working while attending school and Missouri State on the West Plains campus. She further developed her benefits knowledge while working directly in claims processing department at an insurance company. She further evolved her human resources knowledge working in employment staffing, where she managed as well as performed recruitment and employee staffing duties. Prior to coming to MSU as the Assistant Director, Human Resource - Benefits, she worked within the HR-Benefits department at one of the local area hospitals as a supervisor. She worked closely with her team to insure successful benefit communication and administration.

Deidre and her husband, Chad, are natives to the area and currently reside in Willard, MO on a small hobby farm where they have horses. Deidre is a carded judge in the Open horse show association and has a passion for animals. Her spouse is very active with recreational softball and they spend a lot of time pursuing their passions. The couple is also very active with their church family, Crane Bible Baptist.