

Jill Murphy

Jill started her successful career in Human Resources in private industry, but has spent over 20 years focused on the employment function in higher education. As of March 2021, she is the Assistant Director – Human Resources, Talent Acquisition at Missouri State University where she manages the Applicant Tracking System, oversees the hiring process for staff and faculty positions, and welcomes new faculty and staff to the University by conducting New Employee Orientation. Jill is the E-verify Program Administrator, and is a dedicated point-of-contact for employment questions and processes for the University community.

Jill earned a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources Management from Missouri State University, and is a member of the Springfield Area Human Resources Association, and Missouri College and University Professional Association. She is a committee member for the Permanent Residency Approval Committee, Staff Excellence in University Service, and Staff Excellence in Community Service. Jill previously served on the President's Commission for Diversity, and the Collaborative Diversity Conference Committee.

Jill and her husband, Patrick, have a daughter who is attending Missouri State. They are strong supporters of the American Cancer Society, St. Jude Children's Hospital, and Springfield Catholic Schools. The family enjoys watching basketball, spending time with extended family, and vacationing at the beach.
