The Missouri State University Nursing Pin was designed through the effort of Jeanne Stephens and the Nursing faculty in 2005. It is a round pin edged with a maroon circle that has the words “Missouri State University Nursing” embossed in gold lettering. The center of the pin has a white background with three symbols: Carrington Hall (an icon on the Missouri State campus), the Nightingale Lamp (signifying selfless devotion to duty), and an open book (denoting superior education). Finally, the MSU School of Nursing motto “Excellence in the Community” completes the pin.

International Nursing Pledge

In full knowledge of the obligation I am undertaking, I promise to care for the sick with all the skills and understanding I possess without regard for race, creed, color, politics or social status sparing no effort to conserve life, to alleviate suffering and to promote health.

I will respect at all times the dignity and religious belief of the patients under my care, holding in confidence all personal information entrusted to me and refraining from any action which might endanger life or health.

I will endeavor to keep my professional knowledge and skills at the highest level and to give loyal support and cooperation to all members of the health team.

I will do my utmost to honor the international code of ethics applied to nursing and to uphold the integrity of the registered professional nurse.
