The Missouri State University Nursing Pin was redesigned by the School of Nursing faculty in 2022. It honors many key characteristics designed by the previous faculty in 2005. This pin remains with a round edge and maroon circle with the words Missouri State University embossed in gold lettering across the top edge, a lamp with a candle on each side of the pin with the added inscription, “School of Nursing”, around the bottom edge.

The center of the pin remains a white background with a Caduceus symbol embossed in gold located directly above the BSN letters, with the wording, “Dedicated to Excellence”, at the lower edge of the pin center.

The symbol of the lamp with a candle on the outer edge pays tribute to Florence Nightingale, the founder of nursing. During the Crimean war (1853-1856), she was sent to the frontlines to take care of wounded soldiers and she carried a lit lamp while caring for injured soldiers. The Caduceus is associated with nursing and healthcare; the nursing sign is a staff covered in two twisting snakes topped with angel wings. This is the symbol most frequently associated with nursing.

The BSN letters signify completion of the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree. The BSN curriculum prepares students for work within the growing and changing healthcare environment. Completion of the four-year BSN degree provides the educational and experiential base not only for entry-level professional practice but also as the platform on which to build a career through graduate-level study. This degree also qualifies nurses for the widest range of positions in the nursing field.

Finally, the MSU School of Nursing motto, “Dedicated to Excellence”, completes the pin.

International Nursing Pledge

In full knowledge of the obligation I am undertaking, I promise to care for the sick with all the skills and understanding I possess without regard for race, creed, color, politics or social status, sparing no effort to conserve life, to alleviate suffering and to promote health.

I will respect at all times the dignity and religious belief of the patients under my care, holding in confidence all personal information entrusted to me and refraining from any action which might endanger life or health.

I will endeavor to keep my professional knowledge and skills at the highest level and to give loyal support and cooperation to all members of the health team.

I will do my utmost to honor the international code of ethics applied to nursing and to uphold the integrity of the registered professional nurse.
