

Example Research Matrix
CSD Department Requirements¹

	1995-2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011
Peer-reviewed work: (Total of 10 required)
Peer-reviewed articles: (Required: minimum of 3, on 2 of which individual must be first author)	16	1	3	0	0	2	3	2
Peer-reviewed presentations: (Required: minimum of 2 at professional meetings)	43	3	3	4	5	6	0	1
Other publications (Encouraged)	29	0	1	4	2	2	1	3
Invited Presentations	31	7	6	5	2	6	10	5
Established program of research/ Impact on the field: (Encouraged)	My work is focused on literacy development and disorders. It is evidenced by the number of publications I have on this topic that I have given both nationally and internationally, and the media I have done, which is why I was named a Media Champion by the Speech-Language-Hearing Association for Fall, 2013.
Grants Submitted: (Encouraged: submit 1 grant for internal or external funding)	2	1	2	3	0	0	1	1

Mentoring students (1993-2013; Yearly subtotals not available)	Member, Dissertation Committee, 5 students Director, Thesis Committee: 32 students Member, Thesis Committee: 20 students Director, Masters Research Project: 107 students
---	--

Related Awards

Media Champion Award, American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 2013
2011 Research Fellowship, Curtin University, Australia
Outstanding Thesis Advisor, Missouri State University, 2009
University Research Award, Southwest Missouri State University, 1999.
Fellow, American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 1998
Outstanding Alumnus, Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology, University of Memphis, 1998.
Research Award, College of Health & Human Services, SW Missouri State University, 1997

¹ The matrix was created within the context of the CSD plan that was approved in 2007. A revision was approved and put into place in 2012.