UNIVERSITY PROFILE

Southwest Missouri State University is a metropolitan university serving a unique combination of urban and rural environments. The university is committed to the creation of a teaching and learning environment which maximizes the student's opportunity to become an educated person.

The academic experience is grounded in a focused general education curriculum which draws heavily from the liberal arts and sciences. This foundation provides the basis for successful mastery of focused disciplinary and professional studies as well as enabling critical, independent intellectual judgment on the culture and institutions of the larger society.

The university understands its task of developing educated persons to include adding to the store of human understanding through research, and drawing from that store of understanding to provide service to the community which supports it. In all of its programs, both undergraduate and graduate, the university is committed to using the most effective and regularly evaluated methods of discovering and imparting knowledge and to the appropriate use of technology in support of these activities.

The university functions through a three-campus system structured to address the needs of the metropolitan area it serves. The system includes a selective admissions campus in Springfield, a two-year open admissions campus at West Plains, and a research campus at Mountain Grove.

The University was founded in 1905 as the Fourth District Normal School and became Southwest Missouri State Teachers College in 1919. The University's primary role during the first 40 years of its history was the preparation of teachers for the public school systems in the southwest region of Missouri. By the mid-1940s, the University had expanded its instructional program beyond teacher education to include the liberal arts and sciences; and as a consequence, the Missouri legislature in 1945 authorized an official change in the institution's name to Southwest Missouri State College. As additional programs were implemented at the undergraduate level and with the development of graduate education, the institution became educationally diverse. Recognition of this further growth and development again resulted in an official change in name to Southwest Missouri State University in 1972. Today, the institution is a multipurpose, three-campus university system providing instructional, research and service programs.

The University currently offers programs through over 40 academic departments organized in eight colleges. Over 150 academic programs are offered at the undergraduate level, leading to eight undergraduate degrees. Forty programs leading to 15 graduate degrees also are offered. The University is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association to offer these programs, many of which also carry specialized accreditation and approvals (listed in the "Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements" section of this catalog).

The SMSU faculty is comprised of experienced professionals dedicated to the students of the University. Seventy-six percent of the full-time faculty hold terminal degrees. Many members of the faculty have distinguished themselves in their fields through teaching, research and public service.

The central campus of SMSU is located in Springfield, the third largest population center in Missouri. Springfield and the surrounding Ozarks region offer diverse cultural and recreational opportunities. The Springfield community serves as a regional center for health and medical services and is home to many industries and corporations. The southwest Missouri region, the fastest growing in the state, has a unique cultural heritage, a significant agricultural economic base, and a rapidly expanding tourism and recreation industry. These features and characteristics have influenced the programs and activities of the University.

The main campus is located on 225 acres in a residential area in central Springfield. The campus offers a convenient compactness found at few major universities. Recent additions to the campus include an outstanding performing arts center, three residence halls, a classroom building which provides state-of-the-art teaching and research space for the College of Business Administration, a 1,240 space Park-and-Ride facility, and a $20.25 million Public Affairs Classroom Building which opened in the fall of 1998.

In 1963, a branch campus of SMSU was authorized in West Plains, located 110 miles southeast of Springfield in the south-central Missouri Ozarks region. The West Plains Campus, which is separately accredited by The Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association, offers 14 academic programs leading to three associate degrees. In addition, the University offers graduate courses in Joplin, as well as graduate and undergraduate courses in other southwest Missouri communities through interactive video and throughout the world through the Internet. Together these delivery systems form the University's Fourth Campus. The University also owns and operates a 125-acre William H. Darr Agricultural Center in southwest Springfield, a Research Campus specializing in fruit experimentation near Mountain Grove, and the Baker Observatory near Marshfield.

GOVERNANCE

Southwest Missouri State University is under the general control and management of a Board of Governors which is charged with the responsibility and authority to adopt administrative policies and procedures relevant to the management of the University. The seven voting members of the Board are appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to serve six-year terms. Two appointments are normally made every biennium during a regular session of the General Assembly. A student member of the Board is appointed by the Governor for a two-year term.

The President is the chief executive officer of the University System and is responsible to the Board of Governors for the recommendation of and administration of institutional policies and operation. The senior administrative officers of the University serve as an advisory body to the President and are responsible for specific operational divisions of the University. The Faculty Senate is an elected body of academic faculty established to provide a means of dealing with curricular matters and the concerns of the faculty. The Graduate Council is an elected body of graduate faculty established to address matters concerning graduate education (programs, curricula, and policies). The Staff Senate is an elected body from the University support staff which addresses concerns related to staff. The Student Government Association provides the means by which students can participate in campus governance, in student discipline and in the management of student activities.

To formulate policy, to facilitate decision making and to promote a spirit of collegiality, the University is committed to participatory governance and to an open system of communication throughout the University.

MISSION, ROLE AND SCOPE

The primary mission of the University is to develop educated persons.

University Mission

The Southwest Missouri State University mission statement has been reduced to one sentence for use on campus and with various constituent groups. That one sentence reads:

Southwest Missouri State University is a multi-campus metropolitan university system with a statewide mission in public affairs whose purpose is to develop educated persons while focusing on five themes: professional education, health, business and economic development, creative arts, and science and the environment.

The one-sentence statement is useful for key constituent groups: governmental leaders, alumni, students, faculty, staff, community leaders, etc. This one sentence captures the essence of the full mission statement which elaborates on the single-sentence version.

In addition to being memorable, the one-sentence mission statement also has meaning in every word.

SMSU's three campuses operate as a system under the direction of a Coordinating Council composed of representatives from each of the three campuses in Springfield, Mountain Grove, and West Plains.

The University is a member of a national organization of metropolitan universities. Universities with this designation meet specific criteria and serve a special niche in higher education.

Metropolitan universities, no matter where they are located around the world, deal with the five themes identified in the mission: professional education, health care, business and economic development, performing arts, and public affairs.

In 1995, the Missouri General Assembly passed legislation giving SMSU a statewide mission in public affairs. Governor Carnahan signed that bill into law on the campus of Southwest Missouri State University in June of that year.

The purpose of the public affairs mission is to develop citizens of enhanced character, more sensitive to the needs of community, more competent and committed in their ability to contribute to society, and more civil in their habits of thought, speech, and action. These goals are realized in the curriculum, extra curricular activities, and an emphasis on community service in a variety of ways.

The University understands its task of developing educated persons to include adding to the store of human understanding through research, and drawing from that store of understanding to provide service to the community which supports it. The educated person is literate in the broadest sense, understands the beauties of citizenship and the challenges of public problems, has the capacity to continue to learn throughout life, and is able to solve problems through the mastery of an academic discipline. In all of its programs, both undergraduate and graduate, the University is committed to the use of the most effective and regularly evaluated methods of discovering and imparting knowledge, and to the appropriate use of technology in support of these activities.

The University functions through a three-campus system. These structures complement one another to address the needs of the metropolitan area they jointly serve. The system includes a selective admissions campus in Springfield, a two-year open admissions campus at West Plains, and a research campus at Mountain Grove.

Declaration of University Community Principles

Preamble

Community, civility, and the search for knowledge and truth are the essence of University Life. A community is a group of people who hold something fundamental in common. A University is a community whose common purpose is the creation, preservation, and sharing of knowledge and understanding. The search for knowledge and truth requires a rational discourse. This in turn requires honesty and civility. Civility springs from the concept of respecting the rights of individuals. The community helps to protect the rights of the individual. Thus the community promotes the civility necessary to engage in the pursuit of truth. The three are thus connected.

The primary participants of this community are administrators, students, faculty, and staff, who themselves come from a variety of external communities. Before becoming a part of the community of scholars that is Southwest Missouri State University, whether as a member of the student body, faculty, administration, or staff, one should understand the full nature of that choice. The community derives its strength from each individual. Each individual derives strength from his/her association with the community. The individual must sustain the community in order for the community to protect and sustain the individual. In order for this interaction to take place, the principles stated in this document must be the foundation for the community of scholars. Behaving civilly implies acting in a manner consistent with these principles and encouraging these behaviors in others. Adherence to the principles is voluntary and cannot be compelled. Choosing to accept the direction of the principles strengthens both the individual and the community, but only when the choice is not forced. Discovering the natural benefit of these principles is a virtue. These principles are of little use in themselves; they must be practiced.

Principles

The community of scholars that is Southwest Missouri State University is committed to developing educated persons. It is believed that educated persons will accept responsibility to act in accordance with the following principles:

Practicing personal and academic integrity.

Being a full participant in the educational process, and respecting the right of all to contribute to the "Marketplace of Ideas."

Treating all persons with civility, while understanding that tolerating an idea is not the same as supporting it.

Being a steward of the shared resources of the community of scholars.

Choosing to accept these principles suggests that each participant of the community refrains from and discourages behavior that threatens the freedom and respect each member deserves.

Support Programs

The support programs at SMSU facilitate and support the activities of faculty and meet the extra-curricular needs of students. Programs providing supportive service are delineated into three areas: academic support, student services, and institutional support. Each area has a distinctive role within the University.

The role of academic support units is to provide direct service to the University's programs of instruction, research and public service. The scope of this responsibility includes: (1) acquiring, preserving, and displaying published materials, art objects and scientific materials; (2) providing services to assist instruction and research activities; (3) administering academic programs; and (4) developing opportunities for the personal and professional growth of faculty.

The role of student service units is to develop the emotional and physical well-being of students as well as to contribute to their intellectual, cultural, and social development outside the context of the institution's formal instructional program. The scope of this responsibility includes activities which provide: (1) personal services to students; (2) opportunities for student growth and development; and (3) services and conveniences needed by students as members of a resident and commuting student body.

The role of institutional support units is to provide for the University's organizational effectiveness and continuity. The scope of this responsibility includes (1) planning and executive leadership; (2) administrative and logistical services; and (3) institutional advancement activities.

University Policies

In fulfilling its mission, the University adheres to a set of educational and administrative policies which is essential to the maintenance of a learning environment and which fosters a sense of community and public accountability. While it is impossible to specify all relevant University policies, the more salient ones are herein identified.

Academic Accommodation of Disabled Students

Mission

Southwest Missouri State University (SMSU) is committed to providing an accessible and supportive environment for students with disabilities. Equal access for qualified students with disabilities is an obligation of the University under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. SMSU does not discriminate on the basis of disability against otherwise-qualified individuals in any program, service or activity offered by the University. The University is committed to insuring that no otherwise-qualified individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids or other appropriate services; however, accommodations cannot result in an undue burden to the University or fundamentally alter the requirements essential to a program of instruction. For a full statement of the rights and responsibilities of students with disabilities, and the rights and responsibilities of the University and its faculty, see our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword = disability).

Notifying Disability Support Services of a Request for Accommodation

Students requesting academic accommodations for a disability are responsible for notifying the University of their disability and their request for accommodations. To initiate a request for academic accommodations, students must contact Katherine Staeger-Wilson, Director of Disability Services (DS), Plaster Student Union, Suite 405, (417) 836-4192 (voice) or (417) 836-6792 (TTY). The student should notify the Office of Disability Services as soon as the need for the academic accommodation becomes evident. In order to receive accommodations, students must provide disability documentation that meets University guidelines. Accommodations will not be provided for undocumented disabilities, except that accommodations may be provided on a provisional basis pending receipt of documentation for disabilities that are readily apparent. Only persons interested in disability-related accommodations or services need provide disability information. Accommodations must have a legitimate educational purpose, and cannot be based simply on applicants' preferences. Students must initiate a request for every semester in which accommodations are sought. If eligibility for services and the request for academic accommodations are approved, Disability Services or the Learning Diagnostic Clinic will provide the student a letter to be shared with instructors outlining the approved recommended accommodations.

DSS Referrals to the Learning Diagnostic Clinic (LDC)

Students seeking accommodation for any type of disability should direct the initial request for accommodation to Disability Services. DS refers students seeking accommodations for psychological or learning disabilities to SMSU's Learning Diagnostic Clinic.

Learning Diagnostic Clinic Testing Services

The LDC provides assessments of learning and psychological disabilities. Students who simply wish to inquire about LDC's diagnostic or testing services do not need to seek referral through DS, but may instead directly contact the Learning Diagnostic Clinic, Professional Building, Suite 275. To inquire about testing services, contact Dr. Steve Capps, Director, LDC, (417) 836-4787 or visit our web site at www.smsu.edu (keywords = learning diagnostic). The LDC charges a sliding-scale fee for its testing services.

Appeal Processes

If the student's eligibility for services and/or request for academic accommodations are denied, Disability Services or the Learning Diagnostic Clinic will provide to the student written notification of denial, including the basis for denial as well as information on the appeal process. Student appeals related to eligibility for services or the request for academic accommodations shall be directed to Jana Long, Equal Opportunity Officer, Office of Human Resources, Carrington Hall 128, 901 South National, Springfield, Missouri 65804, (417) 836-4252 (voice) or (417) 836-6874 (TTY). The student has the right to file a disability-related grievance with Jana Long at any time.

A faculty member who believes that accommodations recommended by DS or LDC can be shown to alter or compromise fundamental course or program goals has the right to appeal the provision of those accommodations; however, recommended accommodations should be provided until the appeal is resolved. A faculty member should first address his/her concerns through discussions with Disability Services or the Learning Diagnostic Clinic, and may initiate a formal appeal of a recommended academic accommodation by submitting a written statement to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA), clearly documenting the fundamental academic goals and demonstrating that the recommended accommodation necessarily compromises those goals. A faculty member who is not satisfied with the decision of the VPAA may file a grievance with Jana Long, Equal Opportunity Officer.

Academic Freedom

The University is committed to freedom of thought and inquiry for both faculty and students. This commitment ensures the protection of the faculty's freedom to teach, research, and publish in their professional capacity without restraint or fear of reprisals. Academic freedom is essential to the University's instruction and research programs. Freedom in research is fundamental to the advancement of truth. Academic freedom in instruction is essential for the protection of the rights of faculty to teach and of the freedom of students to learn.

Accountability

As a state-assisted university, SMSU is accountable to various publics for the fiscal management of public funds, for educational outcomes relevant to individual and social needs, and for the effective administration of university programs. The University is committed to the concept of public accountability in its broadest sense, for it is the obligation of the institution, faculty and staff to produce outcomes consistent with goals of the institution. Such a commitment obligates the University to: (1) define institutional goals and priorities; (2) determine the degree to which goals are achieved; (3) identify and measure the outcome of its programs; and (4) measure the costs and benefits of programs. Inherent in these obligations is a commitment to systematic institutional planning and to continuous program review and evaluation in order to ensure maintenance of quality and excellence.

Educational Accessibility and Opportunity

The University is committed to educational accessibility for all students who have demonstrated, by traditional academic achievement (high school rank and/or standardized admission tests), an aptitude for successful accomplishment at the collegiate level. The University also provides educational access based on criteria other than traditional achievement measures (career life experiences, General Education Development examinations) for those students seeking learning opportunities for purposes of career enhancement, professional development, or self-enrichment. The University does not discriminate, on the basis of any category listed above, in its educational programs, services or activities. Inquiries may be directed to the Equal Opportunity Officer, Carrington Hall 128.

Educational Rights and Privacy

The University complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974. In accordance with this federal law, the institution has adopted policies and procedures governing the confidentiality of student educational records. No individual shall have access to, nor will the institution disclose any information from, a student's educational record without the written consent of the student or as otherwise authorized by FERPA. Permitted exceptions under the law include disclosures to: university personnel who have a legitimate educational interest; officials of other institutions in which a student seeks enrollment; representatives of agencies or organizations from which a student has received financial aid; and certain federal and state officials. Information designated as directory information may also be released unless specifically prohibited by the student. The following information regarding students is considered directory information: (1) name, (2) address, including email address, (3) telephone number, (4) date and place of birth, (5) major field of study, (6) grade level and part-time/full-time enrollment status, (7) participation in officially recognized activities in sports, (8) weight and height of members of athletic teams, (9) dates of attendance (including matriculation and withdrawal dates), (10) academic classification by year, (11) degrees and awards received, (12) the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student, and (13) student's photograph. Indications of religious preference along with names, addresses and telephone numbers are distributed to the Campus Ministers Association. The institutional "Policy Regarding Personally Identifiable Student Records" is available in the Office of Student Affairs, Carrington Hall 200.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The University is committed to nondiscrimination and equal employment opportunities and to affirmative action programs designed to strengthen this commitment. The University takes affirmative action to provide equal opportunity in all personnel-related activities administered by the institution. This commitment includes the intent to maintain an environment free from discrimination, including harassment, based on any of the protected categories listed in the Nondiscrimination Policy.

Inquiries regarding the SMSU affirmative action program or compliance with Title VI, Title IX, Section 504, the Age Discrimination Acts, and the Americans with Disabilities Act may be addressed to Jana Long, Equal Opportunity Officer, Carrington Hall 128, 901 S. National, Springfield, Missouri 65804, (417) 836-4252.

Liability Protection

Because only officers or employees of the University are generally covered by the legal expense fund, students involved in internships or cooperative employments with other organizations are advised to provide for their own liability insurance through their cooperative employer/internship sponsor, through professional organizations, or personally.

Nondiscrimination Policy

Southwest Missouri State University is a community of people with respect for diversity. The University emphasizes the dignity and equality common to all persons and adheres to a strict nondiscrimination policy regarding the treatment of individual faculty, staff, and students. In addition, in accord with federal law and applicable Missouri statutes, the University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, or veteran status in employment or in any program or activity offered or sponsored by the University. The University maintains a grievance procedure incorporating due process available to any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against. Southwest Missouri State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Inquiries concerning the grievance procedure, Affirmative Action Program, or compliance with federal and state laws and guidelines should be addressed to Jana Long, Equal Opportunity Officer, Carrington Hall 128, 901 South National, Springfield, Missouri 65804, (417) 836-4252.

Public Availability of Safety Reports

Under the ruling of U.S. District Court for the Western District of Missouri, security records, including personally identifiable information regarding students, are available for public disclosure and release. The judicial order requires this disclosure under the Missouri Sunshine Law (construed to protect the name and address of a victim whose identifiable assailant is still at large). SMSU has adopted security records access release guidelines which are available from the custodian of records, Carrington Hall 205, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Resource Management

The University is committed to the concept that future growth and selective development in areas of excellence must be based on present and potential strengths which relate to the institution's physical, financial, and human resources. This commitment has several implications for University programs and services. Resource allocation decisions must be guided by an explicit statement of goals and priorities for the future.

ADMISSION

The Southwest Missouri State University system welcomes applications from qualified students. Our objective is to provide educational opportunities within the system for all students, either through the selective admission Springfield Campus or the open admission West Plains Campus.

Admission requirements for the Springfield Campus are described below. For information on West Plains Campus admission requirements, please refer to the West Plains Campus section of this catalog.

Freshman Admission

To qualify for admission, students must be graduates of accredited high schools* and meet the high school core curriculum and selection index requirements, as follows.

High School Core Curriculum

The following high school core curriculum, developed by the Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education, is required for admission to the Springfield Campus.

English: Four units, two of which must emphasize composition or writing. One unit may be speech or debate.

Mathematics: Three units at the high school algebra level and beyond including algebra II.

Social Studies: Three units, including American history and at least one semester of government.

Science: Two units, not including general science. One unit must be a laboratory course.

Visual and Performing Arts: One unit.

Additional Core Courses: Three units selected from foreign language and/or a combination of two or more of the areas listed previously. Computer science (if algebra I is a prerequisite), state history, and international history are also acceptable as electives.

If you have questions regarding acceptability of courses to the core curriculum, please consult with your high school counselor or call the Office of Admissions.

Students who will graduate from non-accredited high schools, including home schooled students, are encouraged to contact the Office of Admissions regarding admission requirements and options.*

Selection Index

Eligibility for admission is based on a selection index, which is the sum of a student's class rank percentile and ACT or SAT percentile*. The selection index requirement is 102 for fall 2001 through summer 2003. Students may also qualify on a corresponding combination of high school grade point average and test score.

If you have questions regarding your eligibility, please consult with your high school counselor or call the Office of Admissions. That office has a chart which shows the qualifying combinations of class rank or grade point average and ACT or SAT score. The chart is also available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=application for admission).

Students who have received a General Educational Development (GED) diploma will be evaluated on the basis of their GED scores and ACT or SAT scores. GED scores are converted to a class rank equivalency for admission purposes.

The selection index for fall 2003 and future semesters will be available from the Office of Admissions at least one year in advance.

The ACT/SAT requirement is waived for admission purposes for students age 22 and older.*

Admission Options

Our Admission Committee will consider requests for admission as an exception to the requirements described above. Students who wish to submit an appeal should contact the Office of Admissions for information on the procedure they should follow.

Students who are approved as exceptions by our Admission Committee will be required to participate in our Alternative Admission Program (AAP). A satisfactory performance in this program during their first semester will qualify students to enroll for subsequent semesters. Missouri high school graduates who have completed the core curriculum but are not approved for fall semester admission may begin during the summer session through the AAP to demonstrate their promise for academic success.

Transfer Admission

Students who have completed 24 or more transferable credit hours subsequent to graduation from high school with at least a 2.00 cumulative grade point average are guaranteed admission as transfer students. Students with fewer than 24 transferable credit hours must also meet the freshman admission requirements.

Applying for Admission

Applications for admission are available from the Office of Admissions and from most Missouri high schools and community colleges. An on-line application is also available on our website at www.smsu.edu (keyword=application for admission). While the application deadline is three weeks prior to the beginning of the term, students are encouraged to apply up to one year in advance. Early applicants may receive advantages in registration, housing, and financial aid.

Admission decisions are made on a rolling basis after necessary information is received by the Office of Admissions. Students who apply while still in high school may be admitted on a pending basis but must supply an official, final high school transcript verifying graduation to complete their admission. Students who apply while enrolled at another college or university may also be admitted on a pending basis but must supply an official, final transcript verifying an overall grade point average of 2.00 or higher on transferable courses to complete their admission.

If you have questions regarding admission policies or procedures or wish to request an application for admission, admission guide (viewbook), or undergraduate catalog, please call the Office of Admissions at 417/836-5517 or 800/492-7900 or write to:

Information about SMSU is also available on our web site. In addition, you may send inquiries to us via e-mail at smsuinfo@smsu.edu.

Campus Visit

We encourage and welcome all prospective students to visit our campus. To assist us in planning your campus visit, please call the Office of Admissions ten days in advance of your visit.

Transfer Credit Policy

It is the University's policy to award credit for courses taken through institutions accredited by a regional accrediting agency.

Students transferring from Missouri public colleges and universities with an Associate of Arts degree will be considered to have met the lower division general education requirements at SMSU.

A copy of the transfer credit policy for undergraduates is on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=transfer credit policy). Students with an Associate of Arts degree from other regionally accredited institutions will be exempted from lower division general education requirements. Please refer to the Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of this catalog for the transfer policy regarding the catalog of graduation.

A course-by-course evaluation of transfer credit is sent to students once they have been admitted. Questions regarding these evaluations should be referred to the Office of Admissions. Students transferring from other Missouri colleges (especially public colleges) should be aware that a designated articulation officer is available on each campus to assist students who encounter difficulty in transferring courses. Dr. John Catau, Associate Dean of the University College, is the articulation officer for SMSU. Transfer equivalencies for many Missouri colleges and universities are available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=transfer equivalencies).

Transfer credit is awarded and posted to transcripts only for students who enroll at SMSU subsequent to completing coursework at other institutions.

Admission to Program

Admission to the University does not guarantee admission to a specific degree program. Some programs, such as the Sports Medicine and Athletic Training major, Nursing major, majors within the College of Business Administration, the School of Social Work, the School of Communication Studies, and the Teacher Education Program, have grade point average and test score requirements higher than the minimum required for admission. Some programs, such as Sports Medicine and Athletic Training, have enrollment limits. Students should refer to the appropriate sections of this catalog for program admission requirements.

Orientation for Freshmen and Transfer Students

Freshmen*

New freshmen are required to participate in a "Student Orientation, Advisement and Registration" (SOAR) program. Non-traditional students (includes students age 22 and older, evening students, married students, and students with children) may, as an alternative, register through the orientation and registration services provided by the Office of Adult Student Services. Students who are admitted late and/or cannot attend a SOAR program or register through Adult Student Services may not register until after the last scheduled SOAR program for the semester.

Exceptions to the above policy must be approved by the Orientation Coordinator.

Transfer Students*

Transfer students are encouraged to participate in a "Student Transfer Advisement and Registration" (STAR) program. (Non-traditional transfer students may also utilize the orientation and registration services provided by Adult Student Services.) A STAR program will be scheduled each fall for students admitted for the following spring semester; another will be scheduled in spring for students admitted for the following summer and fall semesters. These programs will be scheduled during the early registration sequence at approximately the same time that current freshmen begin registering. An additional STAR program will be scheduled in July for fall semester transfers.

Transfer students will also be given complete instructions on the process they should follow should they choose to register independently from the STAR program. All new transfer students, regardless of the number of hours completed, will be required to have an advisor's signature prior to registering.

 Students are classified as freshmen if they enter SMSU having completed fewer than 24 transferable college credit hours subsequent to graduation from high school. Students who enter having completed 24 or more transferable college credit hours subsequent to graduation from high school are classified as transfer students.*

Nondegree Seeking Undergraduate Students

Students who are 18 years of age or older and who wish to take courses but do not plan to pursue a degree at SMSU may be admitted as nondegree undergraduates without providing transcripts. Students in this classification may enroll for up to 8 credit hours per semester, may earn a maximum total of 24 credit hours, and are not eligible for financial aid. Students who later decide to seek a degree must meet requirements for regular admission as either freshmen or transfer students. Individuals interested in admission under this classification should contact the SMSU College of Continuing Education and the Extended University at 417/836-4126 or toll-free at 888/879-7678 for information.

Students with a bachelor's degree who do not wish to pursue an additional degree will be admitted under the postbaccalaureate classification (see below).

Postbaccalaureate Students

Students who have a bachelor's degree and wish to return to take additional courses but do not wish to pursue an additional degree may enroll as postbaccalaureate students without providing transcripts. Postbaccalaureate students may take either undergraduate or graduate courses (courses numbered 500 and higher automatically carry graduate credit for students in the postbaccalaureate classification). The only limitation is that no more than 9 hours of graduate credit may be accumulated under this classification. A maximum of 9 hours of graduate credit earned as a postbaccalaureate student can be applied toward a graduate degree at SMSU, and this application of credit is contingent upon program requirements. Individuals interested in admission under this classification should contact the SMSU College of Continuing Education and the Extended University at 417/836-4126 or 888/879-7678 for information. Generally, students in the postbaccalaureate classification are not eligible for financial aid.

Individuals who have a bachelor's degree, are seeking either initial certification to teach in Missouri or additional endorsements to an existing teacher certification, and are not enrolled in an SMSU degree program should contact the Teacher Certification Office, 417/836-5429. This office provides a program evaluation service (a $25 fee is charged for this service), as well as advisement and assistance to students seeking certification. Generally, teacher certification students are admitted under the postbaccalaureate classification. Official transcripts from all previous colleges attended are required for students seeking initial certification.

Adult Students

Adult and part-time students interested in undergraduate programs should contact Adult Student Services/Evening College, Carrington Hall 422, 417/836-6929. Adult Student Services/Evening College sponsors adult student orientation programs each fall and spring semester to assist evening and adult students who wish to learn more about the University, learn ways to improve their chances for success with college work, and meet other students who have similar concerns. Please refer to the index for more information about adult student services.

Precollege Enrollment

Highly qualified high school juniors and seniors may be admitted under the campus based (dual enrollment) or the high school based (dual credit) Precollege Programs. Students must have completed their sophomore year of high school, have at least a 3.00 cumulative grade point average on a 4.00 scale, and have an ACT composite score of 21 or higher (or an equivalent score on the PLAN, PSAT, or SAT). Freshman or sophomore students may qualify for the high school based (dual credit) by scoring at the 90th percentile or above on the ACT or SAT. Students admitted under this program may enroll in one, and with permission, two courses each semester (fall and/or spring) and a maximum of six credit hours in the summer session. Students must have written permission of a parent/guardian and written permission of a high school official (i.e., superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or counselor). Course selection(s) must be approved by the student's designated academic advisor.

Students interested in the campus based precollege program or a combination of the campus based and high school based programs should contact the SMSU University College Office at 417/836-5258. Students interested strictly in the high school based (dual credit) program should contact the SMSU College of Continuing Education and the Extended University at 417/836-4128 or toll free 1/888-879-7678.

Graduate Students

Students interested in graduate programs are encouraged to contact the Graduate College at 417/836-5335 or toll free at 1-866-SMS-GRAD for details regarding the admission policies and procedures, applications, and for a copy of the Graduate Catalog. Information regarding graduate programs and graduate admission is also on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=graduate college).

International Students

International students may apply as first-time freshmen, transfer, postbaccalaureate, or graduate students. However, application procedures and deadlines are different. Interested international students should submit an on-line application, download the application materials from our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=international students) or contact the Office of International Student Services to request application materials. The deadlines for submitting applications are April 15 for the fall semester and September 1 for the spring semester. The University is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students.

International students are required to demonstrate proficiency in the English language. The English language requirement for admission will be met when the applicant has submitted proof of a Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 500 (paper), 173 (computer), for undergraduate admission or a TOEFL score of 550 (paper), 213 (computer), for postbaccalaureate or graduate admission. The TOEFL requirement for all levels can also be met by completing the SMSU English Language Institute, a full-time intensive English program. For more information, see the ELI web site at ccpe.smsu.edu/eli/. SMSU also accepts ELS level 109 for proof of English of undergraduate applicants only. In order to manage enrollment, the University expects undergraduate international students to have earned at least a 2.50 cumulative gpa (on a 4.00 scale) on prior course work. Official transcripts from all previous institutions attended must be on file with the Office of International Student Services.

Requests for information may be submitted by facsimile transmission (FAX) at 417/836-7656, by telephone at 417/836-6618, through our web site, or by email at InternationalStudentServices@smsu.edu. Applications may be submitted on-line, by postal mail, or by FAX followed by mailed originals.

Returning Students

Readmit Students: Students returning to SMSU who are in good academic standing and plan to return under the same classification may register without applying for readmission. Students who have attended another accredited institution since leaving SMSU may be required to provide official transcripts by the Office of Admissions or the Graduate College. Registration instructions are included in the semester class schedule, available from the Office of Records and Registration, and are available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=registration). Other students should call the appropriate office based on the admission classification under which they plan to return, as follows:

Undergraduate, degree-seeking: Office of Admissions, 417/836-5517 or 800/492-7900.

Graduate, degree-seeking: Graduate College Office, 417/836-5335 or 866/SMS-GRAD.

Nondegree undergraduate or postbaccalaureate: College of Continuing Education and the Extended University, 417/836-4126 or 888/879-7678.

Students who plan to apply for financial aid are encouraged to initiate the admission and registration processes well in advance of the semester for which they plan to return.

Reinstatement Students: Students who were suspended following their last semester at SMSU must apply for reinstatement at least three weeks prior to the beginning of the semester and follow instructions provided on the application.

Tests Required

Freshmen and transfer students with fewer than 24 semester hours of credit are required to have ACT or SAT scores on file before admission and class registration can occur. This requirement is waived for students age 22 and older. The ACT or SAT scores must be fewer than five years old. High school students are encouraged to take the ACT or SAT in their junior year or early in the senior year (preferably by October). SMSU will accept the highest ACT composite for admission purposes. The SMSU Counseling and Testing Center and most high school counselors have information concerning ACT and SAT test dates and locations.

Students seeking admission to the Teacher Education Program may also be required to present ACT results. See the College of Education section of this catalog for further information.

Students must take placement tests before they will be permitted to register for their initial general education basic required class in English. To register for general education basic required classes in mathematics, students may choose to be placed according to either math placement tests or ACT math subscores. Students who receive transfer credit for the appropriate classes in these subjects will be exempted from the placement test requirement.

Physical Examination

A physical examination is strongly recommended, although not required, before undertaking the rigors of college courses. Students who have an examination done should request the examining physician to send a report of that examination to the Director of the Taylor Health and Wellness Center.

A self-completed medical history is required of all students. The health form is sent to new students after they are admitted. Copies may also be obtained at the Taylor Health and Wellness Center or on our web site at health.smsu.edu. A completed form must be on file at the Center before the student is eligible for medical care.

A pre-entrance tuberculin skin test is strongly recommended for all students and should be performed by the student's family physician or some other licensed physician or county health department. The report of the results may be placed on the self-completed medical history by the persons performing the test.

Students found to have communicable diseases may, at the discretion of a university physician, be excluded from classes, placed in isolation or referred for treatment until they are no longer a danger to others. Students who show evidence of mental illness to a degree that it interferes with their own class work or with the activities of others may be excluded from classes and referred for evaluation by a psychiatric consultant of the University. Depending upon the results of the evaluations, a student may be returned to class, referred for treatment or suspended. Readmission to classes or permission to re-enroll will be permitted only upon recommendation of the Taylor Health and Wellness Center psychiatric consultant.

COSTS

Park-and-Ride Facility.

Admission Application. Undergraduate: A $25 non-refundable admission application fee will be required of all first-time applicants for admission to an undergraduate, degree-seeking classification. Graduate: A $25 non-refundable admission application fee will be required of all first-time applicants for regular admission to graduate studies.

The application fee will not apply toward the required student fees. Students applying for their initial admission as undergraduate, non-degree seeking or post-baccalaureate students are not assessed the application fee. Such students will be assessed the fee should they apply for regular admission as indicated above.

Books and Supplies. SMSU students purchase their own books. Typically, a full-time student will spend $400 per semester for books and supplies. Actual book costs will vary based on the number and type of courses taken and whether students buy new or used books. The total cost is also reduced for those who sell back their books at the end of the semester.

Course Fee. Supplemental course fees may be assessed on individual courses to cover the cost of specialized supplies, equipment, or services for instructional purposes that are provided by the University to all students enrolled in the course and are in addition to routine instructional expenses. Such courses and fees are identified in the class schedule and will be assessed at time of registration.

In laboratory courses, a student responsible for unusual breakage or loss of equipment is held liable for such breakage or loss and charged accordingly.

Many courses in the Departments of Art and Design, Consumer and Family Studies, and a few courses in other departments involve the completion of projects or exercises which require materials such as modeling clay, plastic, wood, fabrics or specific materials. Most of the projects become the property of the student; however, some completed work may be retained by the instructor. Although a course fee may not be charged, students should be aware that they will incur the cost of required materials. As a convenience to students, the University has some of these required materials available for purchase.

Diploma. A $10 fee is assessed for the issuance of a duplicate diploma.

Health Insurance. This insurance is available to students. This fee will be charged each semester at the time of registration to all students for whom SMSU has issued student visa documents. Contact the Taylor Health and Wellness Center for details.

Fall 2001	$237
Spring 2002	$237
Summer 2002	$118
Annual	$592

Housing Deposit. A $100 housing security deposit is required of all new applicants for University housing.

Identification Card. A $10 fee is charged for the replacement of a lost student identification card (ZipCard).

Late Admission Application Fee.* A $25 non-refundable fee will be charged to individuals making application for admission after the published deadline (see academic calendar).

Late Registration Fee.* A $25 non-refundable fee will be charged to students who initially register after the published deadline during the fall and spring semesters (see academic calendar).

The late admission application and the late registration fees are waived for students registering only for short courses, workshops, seminars, and other special courses administered through the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University which do not begin until after the regular (fall, spring, or summer) semester has begun.*

Missouri State Teacher Certification Evaluation. Postbaccalaureate students seeking either initial certification or additional endorsements to an existing teacher certification will be assessed a $25 program evaluation fee.

Music Fee. The private music lesson fee is $60 per semester for one half hour lesson per week and $105 for one hour per week. For less than a full semester the fee is $5 per half-hour lesson for SMSU students and $10 for non-students. The musical instrument rental fee is $20 per instrument per semester. The rental fee covers normal maintenance of the instruments. Students are responsible for any extraordinary repairs. The fee for summer band camp is $65.

Parking Permits/Fines. Refer to the Parking Regulations guide available in the Parking Administration Office, 700 E. Elm, or by calling 836-4825.

Records and Registration Document Fees. A $17 fee will be charged for transcripts or other documents sent via express or overnight mail within the continental United States. An additional amount may be required when sending items outside of the country.

Registration Deposit. A $60 non-refundable deposit is required of students upon registration. This deposit will only be applied toward payment of the required student fees for the semester of registration. The deposit is refunded only if the student is suspended from the University.

Required Student Fees. See page 20

Returned Check Fee. A fee of $20 will be charged for each check presented to the University that is not honored (insufficient funds, stop payment, etc.) by the bank on which the check is drawn. If the returned check was used to pay the required student fees, the registration may be canceled and the student will be assessed the late registration fee, if applicable, in addition to the returned check charge.

Student Services Fees. See page 21

Study Away Processing Fee. A $75 fee must be paid by students who participate in the Study Away Program. The fee includes purchase of the International Student ID card.

Supervised Teaching Outside of Service Area. Students will be charged $235 per 8-week placement.

Transcript Request Fee. There is no charge for reasonable and routine transcript requests. See "Transcript Request" in the Academic Regulations section of catalog for more information on requesting transcripts.

Policies Regarding Payment of Fees

The purpose of this section is to inform students of the actions which may be taken when fees assessed by the University are not paid in a timely fashion.

All charges assessed by the University are due and payable within 30 days of the date the debt was incurred. If a student makes payment by check and that check is not honored by the student's bank, the student will be notified and must make restitution within ten days from receipt of notification.

When a student has unpaid charges which are over 30 days past due or has otherwise failed to make satisfactory arrangements for the settlement of a University account, the University may: place an encumbrance on the student's record which will prevent registration for future semesters and the release of transcripts and diplomas, as well as access by the student to other University services except where an emergency medical situation may exist; offset the student's payroll checks (for student employees) or refunds issued through University offices until the debt is repaid; assess a late registration fee (when a check for required student fees is not honored by the student's bank); remove the student from University housing; and/or disenroll the student. Failure to repay short-term loans by the specified date could make a student ineligible for future financial assistance. Charges which remain unpaid after an extended period of time may be reported to the Credit Bureau of Springfield for credit reporting and collection purposes. The reported data are compiled on the debtor's permanent credit file. Past due charges may also be reported to the Missouri Department of Revenue to be offset against the debtor's Missouri income tax refund.

Inquiries regarding unpaid charges should be directed to: Financial Services Office, SMSU, 901 South National, Springfield, Missouri 65804, phone (417) 836-5632.

Should a student feel that a notification of indebtedness is incorrect, the student may submit a written appeal, citing the grounds for the appeal, through the Vice President for Student Affairs Office within ten school days from the date of notification.

Policy on Residency For Fee Purposes

Because SMSU is a public, state-assisted institution, the fees for Missouri residents are lower than those for non-residents. A student's residence status is determined at the time of admission according to a policy established by the Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education and adopted by the SMSU Board of Governors. This policy is available from the Office of Admissions and is on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=residency). Current students seeking a change in their residence classification should contact that office.

Deferred Payment Plan

SMSU has a Deferred Payment Plan which allows students to defer payment of required student fees and residence hall charges. In addition, SMSU students, faculty, and staff will be allowed to use their identification numbers to charge miscellaneous charges and fines, including Taylor Health and Wellness Center charges, long distance telephone charges, Baker Bookstore charges, and library fines. These miscellaneous charges are not deferred, but are due when billed.

To enroll in the plan, students must submit the required minimum payment of $60.00 toward the required student fees by the fee payment deadline in effect at the time of the student's registration. Fee payment deadlines are printed in the semester class schedule, and are stated on each student's registration invoice. The remainder of the required student fees and residence hall charges, if applicable, must be paid in monthly installments with the balance being paid in full by the fifteenth of the month preceding the end of the semester.

The terms and conditions of the Deferred Payment Plan are printed on the reverse of the Registration Request form and the monthly accounts receivable statement.

Refund Policy for Drops and Withdrawals

Students who withdraw from the University or drop a course prior to the 41st day of the fall or spring semester will receive a partial refund of the required student fees (or a change in their fee assessment if all fees have not been paid) provided they complete the formal drop or withdrawal process. Students who are enrolled in the Deferred Payment Plan are responsible for the amount of unpaid fees after the refund or re-assessment.

If a student receives a scholarship, grant, or loan from the University the refund is used to repay the scholarship, grant, or loan. A refund is made to the student only if the refund exceeds the amount of the award from the University. For students who are recipients of Federal Title IV student aid, refunds will be made in accordance with all applicable federal regulations. Examples of refund calculations for Title IV aid recipients are available in the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Sixty dollars of each student's required student fees is designated as a non-refundable administrative fee. The administrative fee is retained by the University if the student withdraws from all courses, but not for students who drop only some of their courses.

Refer to the "Academic Regulations" section of this catalog for information regarding the drop and withdrawal policies and procedures. Refer to the appropriate semester class schedule for specific deadline dates. Semester class schedules are available in the Records Office and in the Registration Center.

The date used to determine the refund of fees is as follows:

Withdrawals — the date the student completes the withdrawal request form and has it processed in the Registration Center, Carrington Hall, Room 320; or the postmark date of withdrawal requests submitted by mail to the Registration Center, 901 S. National, Springfield, MO 65804-0094; or the date a withdrawal request is faxed to (417) 836-8776.

Drops — the date the student submits a change of schedule form to an authorized location for processing. Authorized locations are printed in the semester class schedules.

If a student drops or withdraws from a full-semester course during the fall or spring semester, the refund shall be as follows:

On or before the second day of the semester	100% of Required Student Fees (less $60 if student withdraws from all courses for semester)
Days 3 through 10 of the semester	90% of Required Student Fees (but no more than 100% less $60 if student withdraws from all courses for semester)
Days 11 through 20 of the semester	50% of Required Student Fees (but no more than 100% less $60 if student withdraws from all courses for semester)
Days 21 through 40 of the semester	25% of Required Student Fees
After the 40th day of the semester	No refund

Refunds for block courses and the summer session are proportionate to the length of the above refund periods. Specific dates and deadlines are printed in the appropriate semester class schedules.

The refund for intersession, short courses and workshops is 100% of Required Student Fees (less an administrative fee of $60 if the student withdraws from all courses) if the course is dropped before the first day of class. After the first class meeting, refunds for intersession, short courses and workshops are made on the basis of the number of class meeting days. For classes meeting one to four days, the refund is 70% of Required Student Fees (less an administrative fee of $60 if the student withdraws from all courses) if dropped before the second class meeting. For classes meeting five or more days, the refund is 70% of Required Student Fees (less an administrative fee of $60 if the student withdraws from all courses) if dropped before the third class meeting. No refunds will be issued after these deadlines.

Courses which are offered through the SMSU Online Program (Internet-based instruction) and are self-paced or off-sequence in regard to the regular semester schedule will utilize a special refund schedule adapted to the specific time frames of the individual courses. The College of Continuing Education and the Extended University will maintain a refund schedule and authorize refunds for such courses.

PLEASE NOTE: Routine exceptions are made to the above refund schedule for students who drop and then replace those hours with added hours DURING THE CHANGE OF SCHEDULE PERIOD ONLY (the first five days of the fall or spring semester and the first two days of the summer session). Such drops are credited at 100 percent for an even exchange of hours. Because courses should not be added after the change of schedule period, dropped courses and added courses (including section changes) WILL NOT be considered an even exchange and will result in an additional financial obligation for the student. Exceptions may be granted when the department of the course(s) dropped and added provides written verification to the Registration Center stating that the change was required or recommended by the department.

Exceptions to the Fee Refund Policy

Exceptions to the drop and withdrawal fee refund policy are generally granted only when a documented University error has occurred. Exceptions may be granted when the deadline is missed by a few days due to documented exceptional circumstances which were beyond the control of the student. Appeals to the refund policy must be made in writing to the Director of Records and Registration, Carrington 304, within one month of the drop or withdrawal and must be accompanied by documentation of the circumstances. The appeal will then be forwarded to the Fee Refund Policy Exception Committee for a decision.

Required Student Fees for Fall 2001, Spring 2002, and Summer 2002

Required student fees are a combination of basic fees and student services fees.

Basic Fees:

Basic fees will be assessed based on the level and type of courses for which students enroll, as follows:

Course Level or Type	Per credit hour charge
	Missouri residents	Non-residents*
Courses Numbered 1-599	$111	$222
Courses Numbered 600-799	$127	$254

Courses audited are counted in the same way as courses taken for credit in determining fees. Students enrolled at SMSU through the off-campus high school dual enrollment program are charged 50 percent of the basic fee for a Missouri resident.

*Non-Missouri residents will be assessed resident student rates when enrolling in fewer than seven hours for the fall and spring semesters or fewer than five hours in the summer session. Such students enrolling in enough hours to be charged the non-resident rate will be assessed the non-resident rate for all hours enrolled.

Student Services Fees:

The student services fees include capital project fee–Student Union, capital project fee–Wyrick Fund, student art gallery fee, health center fee, shuttle fee, computer usage fee, student involvement fee, and recreation facilities fee.

The student services fees will generally not be assessed for sections identified in the semester class schedule as: Workshop, Dual Credit/High School Based, Intersession, Short, Cable TV, Video Rental, Cable TV and Video Rental, Internet, and courses taught in any location other than Springfield Campus.

Students who enroll in fewer than seven hours for fall or spring (four hours in summer) will be assessed an additional fee upon their initial use of the Taylor Health and Wellness Center.

Studies taught via the internet	$ 50

Calculating your fees

To calculate your fees, multiply the number of credit hours for each course by the appropriate per credit hour fee based on the level of the course, sum the basic fees for all courses, and add the student services fee appropriate for the total number of credit hours for which you are enrolled.

Example (for a Missouri resident during fall 2001):

Course	Credit Hours	Per Credit Hour Charge	Basic Fees	Supplemental Course Fee
PSY 121	3	$111	$ 333	$ 0
MGT 606	3	$127	$ 381	$ 0
PED 106	1	$111	$ 111	$ 40
GLG 412	4	$111	$ 444	$ 75
PED 101	1	$111	$ 111	$ 0
Total Hours	12		$1,380	$115
			Total Basic Fees	$ 1,380
			Student Services Fees	$ 209
			Required Student Fees	$ 1,589
			Supplemental Course Fees	$ 115
			Total Fees	$ 1,704

The required student fees schedule is subject to revision by the Board of Governors without notice. Refer to the West Plains campus catalog for West Plains required student fees.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Duane G. Meyer Library entrance.

The faculty and administration of the University, recognizing the desirability of excellence in scholarship and aware of the financial needs of many students, have developed a program of financial assistance. The program consists of scholarships, awards, loans, grants, work-study programs and short-term loans. In addition, athletic grants-in-aid are provided for selected student athletes, and the Student Employment Office helps students find part-time work.

The following sections provide summary information on scholarship and financial aid programs at the Springfield Campus. SMSU Scholarships are awarded for the academic year, August to May, and may not be received for more than four years. Summer Session fees are not covered. Students awarded scholarships must be enrolled full-time (a minimum of 12 hours per semester). For more detailed information, or to request application forms, contact the Financial Aid Office at (417) 836-5262 or 1-800-283-4AID or visit our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=financial aid).

Criteria for selection, the application process, the value and number of scholarships listed below are all subject to change without notice.

Scholarships

The following is a summary of selected University funded competitive scholarship programs for the 2001-2002 academic year. The scholarship program is subject to revision for the 2002-2003 academic year. Prospective students for fall 2002 and future semesters are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office for information.

Departmental Scholarships. Many academic departments offer scholarships to students who have declared majors in their departments. Detailed information about eligibility criteria and value is published in the Financial Aid Guide. Interested students may also contact the academic department head or the scholarship coordinator in the Financial Aid Office for more information about departmental scholarships.

Athletic Awards. Grants-in-aid for men and women athletes are awarded each year to student athletes who possess those qualities of character and academic ability essential for college success. The requirements and regulations governing athletic grants-in-aid are set and supervised by the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Missouri Valley Conference. Contact the Office of Men's Athletics or the Office of Women's Athletics for information.

Scholarship Development. The University finds it increasingly important to explore new avenues of securing scholarship and financial aid funds for students. To assist in this, as well as other areas of University development, the University has established the SMSU Foundation. Through the generosity of SMSU alumni and friends, many scholarships have been established to assist students. These scholarships carry the names of individuals who have been honored or memorialized by private donations made through the SMSU Foundation. Persons interested in establishing a scholarship or helping the University in some equally meaningful way are encouraged to contact the Director of Development for information.

Federal Financial Aid Programs

The following is a summary of federal financial aid programs. Most of these programs are based on need.

Need is defined as the cost of attending the University minus the contribution of the student and the student's parents.

Federal Pell Grant. This program provides grants, which need not be repaid, to help students with their college expenses. Grants range between $400 to $3,750 for the academic year. During the 2000-2001 school year, 3,600 SMSU students received a combined total of about $7,172,783 from this program.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG). These grants are very limited in number and amount. Like the Pell Grants, they need not be repaid. Priority in awarding SEOG grants will be given to those students with the highest need. During the 2000-2001 school year, 950 SMSU students received a combined total of $540,000 in SEOG grants.

Federal Work-Study (FWS). This program provides part-time jobs to students while they are in school. A work-study award is a promised opportunity to work enough hours to earn the amount awarded. Jobs will be assigned in a manner that will provide work learning opportunities which complement and reinforce the student's educational programs. Students are paid by the hour and receive paychecks once a month. Most students will work eight to twelve hours per week. During the 2000-2001 school year, 450 SMSU students earned a combined total of over $600,000 from the Federal Work-Study Program.

Federal Perkins Loan. The Perkins Loan Program provides low interest (5 percent) loans that must be repaid after the student leaves school. The typical loan amount at SMSU is $1,000 or less. Cumulative limits are $15,000 for undergraduates and $30,000 for graduate students. During the 2000-2001 school year, 700 SMSU students received a combined total of $440,000 from Perkins Loans.

Federal Stafford Loan. These loans carry a variable interest rate and require repayment after the student leaves school. The school approves the loan and private lenders such as banks, savings and loans, or credit unions provide the funds. Annual loan limits are $2,625 for freshmen, $3,500 for sophomores, and $5,500 for juniors and seniors. Graduate students can borrow up to $8,500. Cumulative limits are $23,000 for undergraduates and $65,500 for graduate work combined. Eligibility for this program is based on demonstrated financial need. Students who qualify on the basis of financial need may have their in-school interest paid by the federal government. During the 2000-2001 school year, 6,199 SMSU students borrowed a total of $24,024,570 from this program.

Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan. Students who do not qualify for a Stafford Loan based on need or have their maximum loan eligibility reduced, may receive an unsubsidized loan. The interest rate and deferment requirements are the same as the Stafford Loan. However, the student must pay the interest while they are in school or capitalize the interest and have it added to the principal of the loan. During the 2000-2001 school year, 3,601 SMSU students borrowed over $12,829,860 from this program.

Federal Parent Loan (PLUS). Parents of dependent undergraduates are eligible to borrow money for their children's educational expenses under this program. Loans are obtained from private lending institutions and are certified by the school. These loans carry a variable interest rate which accrues immediately upon disbursement. The amount of this loan may not exceed the student's cost of education less any other aid received.

Application for the first six programs listed above is made by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This form is available in most high schools and colleges and may also be obtained by contacting the Office of Student Financial Aid at SMSU. For priority consideration, applications should be received by the processing center no later than March 31 for the following academic year. Applications received after this date will be considered only if funds are available.

State Programs

Missouri Higher Education Academic Scholarship Program (Bright Flight). This program provides scholarships in the amount of $2,000 to eligible Missouri residents attending a participating Missouri college or university. To qualify, a high school graduate must have a composite score on the ACT or SAT in the top three percent of all Missouri students taking those tests. The Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education (CBHE) administers this program.

Missouri Teacher Education Scholarship. This scholarship program, created by the Missouri Legislature in 1985, was established to attract high ability students into the teaching profession. The scholarship is valued at $2,000 for one academic year. Half of each award is paid by the state of Missouri, the other half is paid by SMSU. The program is administered by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE).

Missouri College Guarantee Program. This scholarship is based on demonstrated financial need, as well as high school and college academic achievement. To be eligible, you must: have a high school grade-point average of 2.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale; score 20 or higher on the ACT; be enrolled full-time at a participating Missouri postsecondary school; demonstrate financial need; maintain satisfactory academic progress according to standards of the school; be a Missouri resident and a United States citizen or eligible noncitizen, and; not be pursuing a degree or certificate in theology. The maximum scholarship award is based on the tuition cost at the University of Missouri. Other federal and state need-based financial aid programs will be considered to determine the final award amount.

Advantage Missouri Program. Each year the Coordinating Board for Higher Education in Missouri identifies high-demand occupational fields for the Missouri workforce. A student entering or enrolled in academic programs that will lead to employment in those fields may qualify for a loan through this program. If the student then obtains employment in one of those high demand occupations they may have part of their loan forgiven each year of employment. The maximum loan is $2,500 per year to an aggregate limit of $10,000. Since this is a need-based program, students must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) prior to the deadline set each year by MOSTARS. The students will have one year of loans forgiven for each full year of employment in the high-demand area.

Student Loans

International Loan Fund. Provides small short-term loans to international students.

Mary Lemmon-Hopewell Fund. Provides small short-term loans for junior, senior or graduate students.

Memorial Loan Fund. Provides short-term loans for the use of students. Information may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office.

University Employment

In addition to the Federal Work-Study program, most departments and offices on campus employ student assistants. The University has established a student employment service to assist students in locating jobs, both on campus and in the community. The Student Employment Office is located in Blair-Shannon Residence Hall, Room 113, telephone (417) 836-5627.

Graduate Assistantships

A number of graduate assistantships are made available each year to assist students with expenses while studying for advanced degrees at SMSU.

To be eligible for a graduate assistantship, a student must be admitted to a degree program in the Graduate College. Graduate assistants must have a minimum grade point average of 3.00 on the last 60 hours of course work, or a minimum grade point average of 3.00 on nine or more hours of the most recent graduate course work.

The graduate assistantship provides a student with a stipend of either $6,150 or $8,200 for the academic year (nine months). Graduate assistants are required to enroll in a minimum of six hours of graduate course work (500-800 level) each semester they receive an assistantship. A limited number of graduate assistantships are available during the summer.

Graduate assistantships are offered in both academic and administrative areas and may involve academic, teaching, research, and/or administrative responsibilities. When feasible, the assistantship assignment is closely related to the student's program of study.

To apply for a graduate assistantship, the student must submit an application directly to the department in which an assistantship is sought. Applications are available from the Graduate College, Carrington Hall Room 306, telephone (417) 836-5335.

Students who apply for graduate assistantships are also eligible to apply for fee-waiver scholarships. Awarding of these merit-based scholarships is based on the recommendation of the department and approval of the Graduate Dean. Students should contact their department concerning the availability of fee-waiver scholarships.

Moving-in day!

University Housing Policy

All single non-commuting Freshman students (0-29 credit hours) and under the age of 21 are required to live in University housing. All other students are welcome. This requirement is founded on the belief that University housing provides students with the educational and social ground work necessary for continued personal and academic success. All residence halls are completely smoke- and tobacco-free.

Student Housing Contracts are available after students have been accepted for admission to the University. All new single Freshman students under the age of 21 will be mailed a Student Housing Contract following admission. All other new students will be mailed a University Housing Information Request Card to be mailed back if housing is desired. Contracts must be signed and returned with a $100 security deposit before a reservation is complete. Housing fees are listed at the end of this section of the catalog.

All Student Housing Contracts are for the entire academic year (excluding those contracts entered into for the summer session) with food service beginning on the Saturday before classes begin for the fall semester, and the first day of classes for the spring semester. The cancellation policy is explained in the Student Housing Contract.

Blair-Shannon House, Freudenberger House, Kentwood Hall, Wells House, and Woods House, as well as the student dining halls, are closed during semester break, and spring vacation. Special arrangements may be made, however, for students requiring housing during these periods for an additional charge.

Rates and policies are subject to change without notice.

The Department of Residence Life and Services will be glad to provide more information on University housing and the Residence Life and Services system or visit our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=residence).

Residence Halls – Room Style

Freudenberger House. Located at the heart of campus, Freudenberger House is a five-story, U-shaped, air-conditioned residence hall. This hall is designed with double-occupancy rooms with some triplexes and quads available. Freudenberger House accommodates 742 men and women. Bedrooms are equipped with a desk, overhead bookshelf, chest of drawers, and wardrobe for each student. Rooms also contain a refrigerator and microwave oven, two desk chairs and two beds. A large central bath area is located on each floor. Freudenberger House residents are encouraged to make use of the grand lounge and TV room, fitness center, recreation room, computer lab, and study rooms. Centralized laundry facilities are also available.

Woods House. Woods House is a 10-story, high-rise residence hall with accommodations for 390 males and females. Designed on the double-occupancy room plan, this air-conditioned residence hall offers a refrigerator and a microwave oven, a sink in each room and a central bathroom for each floor. Built-in bedroom furnishings include a desk and closet for each student. Beds, desk chairs, and chest of drawers are also furnished. A special feature of Woods House is its tenth floor common area. Offering a beautiful view of campus and the Springfield community, the tenth floor area also provides kitchen facilities, recreation area, laundry facilities, a large sundeck, and a fitness center. Located on the ground floor is a computer lab and TV area.

Wells House. After a 14-month renovation project, Wells House will open its doors for 455 men and women just in time for the 2001 fall semester. This U-shaped, centrally located, air-conditioned residence hall is designed with 2- and 3-person room-style accommodations, all on single gender floors, as well as suite-style living units reserved for upper-class students. Each room-style living unit is equipped with a desk, desk chair, bunkable bed, overhead bookshelf, chest of drawers and underbed storage space, and wardrobe for each student. Rooms also contain a microwave and refrigerator. The suite-style living units include two carpeted bedrooms connected to a living room providing a sofa, arm chairs, end and coffee tables, dining table and chairs, bookshelf, area rug, and kitchenette complete with sink, microwave, refrigerator, and counter space. A large bathroom is located on each floor providing ample individual stalls and showers. Wells House will offer a large grand lounge, TV lounge, fitness and aerobic centers, music practice rooms, vending room, large central kitchen, laundry facility, study lounges, and computer lab.

Residence Halls – Suite Style

Blair-Shannon House. Two high-rise buildings, connected by a ground floor common area, comprise the air-conditioned residence hall, Blair-Shannon House. Centrally located on campus across from the Student Union, Blair-Shannon houses 729 males and females. The living areas in Blair and Shannon are arranged by suites. Each suite contains a living room, bathroom, and three double-occupancy bedrooms. Each living room is furnished with two sofas, one arm chair, two end tables, one coffee table, a microwave oven, and full-length mirror. Built-in bedroom furniture consists of two desks and two closets with drawer space and overhead storage. Bedrooms also contain a refrigerator, two movable beds and desk chairs. Every floor includes a storage room, laundry facility, and study lounge. One attractive feature of Blair-Shannon House is the convenience of the dining center located on the ground floor. Other features of this residence hall include a fitness center, large computer lab, sun decks, music practice room, TV lounge, and a grand lounge.

Hammons House. Hammons House houses 584 males and females in the air-conditioned, eight-story residence hall arranged in 2-person and 4-person suites. Each suite is carpeted and has one or two bedrooms, a private bathroom, and a kitchenette with refrigerator, convection/microwave oven and sink. Suites are furnished with a dining set. Bedrooms provide two beds, desks, chairs, wardrobes, and one chest of drawers and underbed storage unit. Hammons House offers rooms for typing or studying, laundry facilities, a TV and recreational room, fitness center, computer lab, convenience store, and a made-to-order diner. Hammons House will remain open during all vacation periods throughout the academic year. Auxiliary services, such as the diner and convenience store, are closed during all vacation periods.

Kentwood Hall. Tradition and modern convenience unite at Kentwood Hall to provide residents of this facility with a unique living experience. This air-conditioned residence hall provides furnished 2-, 3-, and 4-person rooms and a limited number of single rooms, all with private bathrooms and a refrigerator and microwave oven. Kentwood houses 137 males and females. Students may utilize the Kentwood dining center located on the lower level. Additionally, this facility provides residents with a computer lab, study lounge, TV lounge, fitness center, centralized laundry facilities, and recreation room.

The New Residence Hall. As a companion to Hammons House this facility offers housing accommodations for 605 males and females. Each 2- and 4-person suite is carpeted and has a kitchenette with refrigerator and microwave/convection oven, and private bathroom. The bedrooms contain two beds, desk chairs, wardrobes, and one chest of drawers and underbed storage unit. Features include a sundeck, aerobics workout room, computer lab, and fitness center. Also located in the New Residence Hall are music practice rooms, a TV lounge, and recreation area. The new dining center connects Hammons House to the New Residence Hall.

Scholars House. This honor student living environment opened for occupancy for the first time in the fall of 2000 and provides a special living option to 115 students who are either a member of the honors program or a presidential scholarship recipient. This suite-style residence hall provides both single-gender and coed living environments. Each suite contains a living room, private bathroom and two double-occupancy bedrooms. The living room is furnished with a sofa, arm chairs, end and coffee tables, dinette set, area rug, and microwave oven. Each bedroom is furnished with desks, desk chairs, overhead bookshelves, bunkable beds, wardrobes, shared storage space including a chest of drawers, and a refrigerator. Scholars house offers ample study rooms, music practice rooms, large central laundry facility, TV and recreation area, fitness center, ice and vending machines, and a 24-hour computer lab.

Residence Halls – Apartment Style

Dogwood, Elm, and Kentwood South Apartments. These 52 apartments provide accommodations for married students (no children), graduate students, and non-traditional students (23+ years of age) in one- and two-bedroom apartments. The apartments are completely furnished, carpeted, and centrally heated and air-conditioned. Each kitchen is equipped with an electric range, garbage disposal, and refrigerator. Dogwood and Elm residents have access to all services provided by Sunvilla Tower and Kentwood South residents have access to all services provided by Kentwood Hall.

Sunvilla Tower. Sunvilla Tower is an 18-story apartment structure which houses 186 males and females. The spacious, air-conditioned apartments are furnished and carpeted. The kitchens have an electric cook-top range, oven, dishwasher, refrigerator, and garbage disposal. Two full baths are included in all two bedroom apartments. The bedrooms are equipped with single beds which may be converted into bunk beds. The two-bedroom apartments house five students, and the one-bedroom apartments house two and three students. Sunvilla Tower remains open during all vacation breaks throughout the academic year. Attractive features of this facility include a terrace located on the second floor, a private swimming pool, patio, and gas grill. A study area, fitness center, recreation room, and computer lab are also available for use by students. Underground garage spaces are available for lease on a first-come, first-serve basis. The top five floors of Sunvilla Tower, known as Sunvilla Apartments, offer 21 additional one- and two-bedroom apartments for married (no children), graduate, and non-traditional students (23+ years of age), who have access to all services provided by Sunvilla Tower.

STUDENT SERVICES

Taylor Health and Wellness Center.

Academic Advisement Center

The University has a central Academic Advisement Center which serves students with undecided majors. Refer to the University College section of this catalog for a description of the services available to students.

Achievement Center for Intercollegiate Athletics

The Achievement Center for Intercollegiate Athletics is a service for student athletes participating in every sports area. The director and assistant director assist athletes in registering for classes and with other problems encountered. The program offers student athletes a variety of services including a study hall, computer facilities, mentors, and tutors as needed. The center is located in the Forsythe Athletic Building.

Adult and Evening Student Services

The University recognizes that many students are adults who must attend college on a part-time basis and assume a variety of other responsibilities along with their academic work. For that reason, a wide range of services and special programs are offered through the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University in cooperation with other administrative offices on campus especially to assist these students. A few of our services include: adult student orientation programs, non-degree undergraduate and postbaccalaureate non-degree admission programs, evening/weekend office hours, Adult Learner Scholarships, academic advising services for undecided majors, registration by mail/fax and special services by telephone. For additional information on these services, see the Continuing Education section of this catalog or call or visit the College of Continuing Education, Carrington Hall 422, (417) 836-6929 or toll free at 1-888-879-7678.

Alumni Association

The principal organization through which SMSU students continue their affiliation with the institution once they leave campus is the SMSU Alumni Association.

One of the primary goals of the Alumni Association is to maintain current records of all SMSU alumni. At present, the alumni population includes more than 73,000 graduates and former students. The Alumni Association communicates with alumni on a regular basis through publication of the Southwest Missourian. Each issue provides a wide variety of articles about people and programs on the SMSU campus, as well as updates about fellow alumni. The Southwest Missourian is mailed three times annually to all alumni with a current address in the Office of Alumni Relations.

Throughout the year, the Alumni Association makes available an assortment of programs and activities to help alumni stay in touch with the University, including chapter meetings, Homecoming, class and special reunions, promotional events, the Flying Bears travel program, the collegiate license plate program, and the SMSU MasterCard. Additionally, the Student Alumni Association allows current students an opportunity to become aware of the programs of the Alumni Association and participate with alumni in a variety of activities.

The SMSU Alumni Association is a non-dues paying organization, and all alumni are viewed as members. However, all graduates and former students are encouraged to support their alma mater by making a contribution to the Greater SMSU Annual Fund. The SMSU Alumni Association offices are located in The Alumni Center at 300 South Jefferson in downtown Springfield.

Bookstore

The University owned and operated bookstore is a self-service bookstore where students can purchase textbooks as well as all course related material, reference books, trade books, academically priced hardware, software and peripherals. Some of the services provided include a computerized textbook system to provide any enrolled student with a list of the required textbooks for his/her classes, a textbook reservation program, on-line textbook orders, and textbook buyback. The bookstore also carries art, drafting, science and other classroom supplies in addition to health-related items and a variety of official SMSU clothing. Cash, checks, ZipCard, American Express, Discover, MasterCard and VISA are accepted as well as charges to your Deferred Payment Plan account.

An automatic teller machine of a local bank located at the front entrance to the bookstore provides 24-hour service.

Bursar's Office

Required students fees, residence hall charges, parking tickets, telephone long distance charges, short-term loans, and ZipCard deposits are payable at this office. MasterCard, Visa, Discover, and American Express cards are accepted at the Bursar's Office as well as by phone and internet.

Students may cash personal checks and two party checks from their parents, made payable to the student, with a valid University ID. The limit is $50.00 per day.

The Bursar's Office has two locations with the main office on the first floor of Carrington Hall and a drive-up branch office at 700 E. Elm. Hours at both locations are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. A drop box is available on the first floor of Carrington Hall for after hours and weekend payments.

Career Services

Career Services is devoted to helping students explore career options, research occupations, integrate knowledge gained in the classroom with off-campus employment, and prepare for job searching.

Career Counseling

With so many options available to students, selecting an academic major often presents an overwhelming challenge. Through an individual appointment with a career counselor, students are able to learn more about themselves and explore majors and occupational choices through assessments such as FOCUS and the Self-Directed Search.

In addition, staff members can assist students in finding current information on hundreds of career possibilities. Discovering the working conditions, job outlook, average salary, and education or training requirements can help in making those important academic and career decisions. For students needing more in-depth career planning, the IDS 120 course Approaches to Career Life Planning offers a variety of tools for career exploration and information on the world of work.

Cooperative Education

Once students reach a preliminary career decision, a cooperative education experience or internship offers an exciting way to determine if that career choice is the right one. Through cooperative education (CO-OP), students can receive academic credit, earn a salary, and gain valuable work experience in their career. This work experience not only supplements what students are learning in the classroom, but it also puts them steps ahead when interviewing for jobs after graduation.

Students may choose from a variety of options within CO-OP. The parallel option offers part-time employment while taking classes. Another option is the alternating semester, with students alternating between taking classes full time one semester and working full time the next semester. Other options include non-paid internships, a one-semester internship, or a summer term.

Job Search Assistance

After students have made a career choice and have participated in a CO-OP experience, it is time to focus on "life after SMSU." For some students, this means graduate or professional school. For others, it may mean securing meaningful employment following graduation.

Career Services provides direct assistance through on-campus interviews, job vacancy listings, referrals to employers, and career fairs, such as Teacher Placement Day.

Students may make appointments for professional advice on preparing resumes, writing cover letters, learning proper interview techniques, preparing portfolios, and conducting successful job searches. Staff members conduct videotaped mock interviews to help students practice and improve their interview skills. Additionally, staff members can help students learn how to research employers and find employment opportunities on the Web and in the career library.

A sampling of employers who have hired SMSU students include Hallmark, Sprint, Cerner, Edward Jones, Tyson Foods, Inc., Baird, Kurtz & Dobson, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Kraft, Boeing, Wal-Mart, Sherwin Williams, Principal Financial Group, Ford Motor Credit, many government agencies, non-profit organizations, and school districts.

For more information on Career Services, visit our web site at careerservices@smsu.edu or contact us at Career Services, Carrington 309, (417) 836-5636.

Computing

SMSU provides its students with a robust computing and networking environment. More than 1,500 computers are available for student use within 70 classrooms and labs. Most also contain a variety of printers, scanners, and other peripheral devices, as well as technical support specialists. More than 50 classrooms have digital media systems. Both PC and Macintosh platforms are supported and available on campus, and a 24-hour computer lab is available during weekdays. Assistive technologies are provided to students with disabilities in all open labs. A common suite of software applications are provided on most university computers to promote ease of interoperability between facilities.

Electronic mail accounts (with 15MB space per student) are available to all students at no cost. A web-based e-mail client (Bear Mail) makes this service available from anywhere on the Internet. Students are also provided 5MB of disk space to post personal web pages.

The campus high-speed data network is large and growing. All networked computers are provided with either 10MB or 100MB connectivity to the university network. Dial-in access is available to all students, providing free access to the Internet and other campus computing resources from off campus. More than 270 modems, dial-in CD-ROMs, and help desk services are provided to support remote access.

Convenience Stores

Convenience stores are staffed by students. Cash, checks, ZipCard, American Express, Discover, MasterCard and VISA are accepted as well as charges to your Deferred Payment Plan account.

Bear Necessities: Located in Plaster Student Union, provides snacks, school supplies, campus wear and sundry items for students.

ETC: Located in Hammons House, snacks, school supplies, campus wear and sundry items are available.

Copy This...

Copy This... is a full-service copy center for student, faculty, and staff use. The facility features color and black/white copying, poster/banner makers, lamination, binding, and finishing services (drilling, cutting, padding, folding, stapling, collating). We also have both Macintosh and Gateway computers ready for multimedia production. FAX services and a full selection of materials are also available. Copy This... is located in Plaster Student Union 210, 836-5808. Copy This... is open Monday through Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m., Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and Sunday from 12:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Counseling and Testing Center

The primary goal of the Counseling and Testing Center is to promote the student's personal development and psychological well-being. Services are provided for individuals with personal-social concerns and life-planning issues. Experienced mental health clinicians and graduate students assist students in resolving conflicts which may interfere with their progress in the University.

The Counseling and Testing Center adheres to the American Counseling Association (ACA) and the American Psychological Association (APA) professional codes of ethics in providing all services. Such services are strictly confidential. No information, including whether an individual has received counseling, will be released without the informed written consent of the student except in certain emergency situations.

Counseling Services

Assessment. An initial screening is provided immediately after an individual completes an information form. The purpose of this first meeting is to explore the student's concerns and to make decisions about the type of resources that may be most helpful. For an initial interview, students may come to the Counseling and Testing Center in Carrington Hall 311 between 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, (417) 836-5116.

Individual/Couples. Individuals or couples may work with a counselor/psychologist in order to identify, understand, and resolve personal and relationship difficulties.

Group. At times issues are most effectively dealt with in a supportive environment where interaction with others occurs. Groups are structured to promote personal growth and skill development by focusing on particular concerns such as: adjustment to university life; balancing work, family, and academics; and establishing and maintaining meaningful relationships.

Emergency. Crisis intervention is provided to deal with situations which require immediate attention.

Outreach. Special programs and workshops designed to define and/or prevent problems and improve the quality of the University experience are presented on a regular basis, as well as by request. These offerings provide information, techniques, and strategies relevant to specific topics of interest such as stress management and communication skills.

Consultation and Referral. The Center's staff is willing to share its expertise with University administration, faculty, staff, and students. If assistance from other departments, professionals, or agencies is indicated, the staff will facilitate such contacts.

Testing

Interest tests and personality inventories are used to clarify personal strengths and concerns. In addition, more than 30 different testing programs such as American College Testing Program (ACT), Graduate Record Examination (GRE), and General Education Development (GED) are administered by the staff. Other frequently administered tests include the National Teachers Examination (NTE), College Basic Subject Examination (CBASE), and Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).

Dean of Student's Office

The Dean of Student's Office provides and supports a variety of programs and services designed to enhance each student's life at SMSU. Those programs and services are highlighted in this publication. There are other programs which are co-sponsored with other departments in Student Affairs and with academic departments. Any member of the campus community interested in becoming more involved in programs offered, or in need of services provided by this office is invited and encouraged to drop by Plaster Student Union, Room 405, or call (417) 836-5527.

Disability Services. Disability Services (DS) helps ensure an equitable college experience for students with disabilities at Southwest Missouri State University. Academic accommodations are available at no cost to students who can provide documentation of a disability and can demonstrate that the requested accommodations are necessary for participation in university programs within established guidelines. DS provides services to students with disabilities that are physical and/or medical in nature. The Learning Diagnostic Clinic (LDC) provides services to students with learning disabilities, Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD/ADHD), and psychological disabilities.

Academic accommodations coordinated by DS include, for example, sign language interpreters, out-of-class testing, taped textbooks, note takers, adjustable tables, closed captioning, etc. An Assistive Technology lab is located in Cheek Hall 150 and is staffed by the Assistive Technology Support Specialist and lab assistants.

Any prospective or currently enrolled student interested in obtaining information about academic accommodations at Southwest Missouri State University should contact Disability Services, Plaster Student Union, Room 405, (417) 836-4192 (voice) or (417) 836-6792 (TTY)

Educational Programming. Special programs for the University community that are co-sponsored by the Dean of Student's Office include: the annual Student Leadership Conference, African-American Heritage Month, time and stress management, recognition of outstanding members in student organizations, motivating students, and rape awareness programs.

Emergency Contacts. The Dean of Student's Office facilitates communicating emergency messages to students. Call (417) 836-5527.

Fraternities. Eighteen fraternities call the SMSU campus home. These organizations offer their members brotherhood in addition to academic challenges and opportunities to develop leadership and social skills. These groups are active in community service and add greatly to the SMSU community. Information regarding rush and the fraternities is available from the Office of Student Activities. Call (417) 836-4386.

Judicial Affairs. In cooperation with the Faculty-Student Judicial Commission and other student judiciaries, the Dean of Student's Office coordinates campus judicial affairs and, when appropriate, processes alleged violations of University policies and regulations. Alleged violations may be resolved in this office or, by student choice, through an official hearing.

Legal Services for Students. An attorney is available for consultation with students Wednesday mornings at 8:00 a.m. while classes are in session, provided the student makes an appointment (836-5527) at least a day in advance. Students are seen on a first-come, first-served basis. The attorney does not provide legal representation in conjunction with these consultations.

Publications. This office produces several publications including:

The web site www.smsu.edu/campuservices/policies.btm – serves as the student's primary directory and links to University information, policies, and procedures that are relevant to current students.

Student Organization Handbook – resource for student organization policies, advising assistance, and related services.

The web site studentorganizations.smsu.edu/guide – provides a list of all recognized student organizations.

Handbook for Students with Disabilities – describes services and is distributed to students with disabilities.

Homecoming Handbook – presents student organizations with all information and applications necessary to participate in Homecoming events.

Family Guide – answers frequently asked parental questions and provides information about the University.

Sororities. SMSU's campus is home to 10 member chapters of National Panhellenic Conference (7) and the National Pan-Hellenic Conference (3). Sorority life offers a chance to make close friends, develop leadership and personal growth, attain high scholarship, and to serve the University and the community. Information on rush and the sororities is available through the Office of Student Activities.

Student Activities. The Office of Student Activities provides educational programming and entertainment for the campus community. Student Activities sponsors such events as the New Student Festival and Meet the Ozarks Day. The office coordinates the operation of over 240 registered organizations on campus and advises several organizations. The office of Student Activities is involved with all matters concerning Greek social organizations including: the administration of rush and membership, and coordinating the selection of faculty advisors. The office advises the sororities and fraternities; Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council, and the honor society of Order of Omega. This office handles the registrations of all fund raisers, distributes organizational mail, and facilitates the formation of new organizations. In addition, the office sponsors programs and events including leadership development and the annual Leadership Conference and works with Homecoming, Family Weekend, and other campus-wide events.

SOFAC. The Student Organization Funding Allocation Council (SOFAC) was established to allocate funding to various student organizations. Funds are available to allocate to registered campus student organizations for special projects or needs. These proposals are reviewed monthly by the nine-member council, which is responsible for selecting those proposals which will receive funding. For more information, call (417) 836-5886.

Student Activities Council. While the primary purpose of the Student Activities Council (SAC) is to provide activities which benefit the SMSU campus community, SAC is also responsible for promoting the personal and professional growth of its membership. SAC is made up of a variety of committees including: Campus Events; comedy, concerts, films, and lectures. Programs include the movie and lecture programs, Welcome Week Activities, annual events such as the Easter Egg Hunt, a wide variety of comedians, and SAC sponsored trips and special events, just to name a few.

Dining Services

Sodexo Food Services, the largest contract food service provider in North America, provides nutritious, quality food with excellent service and variety for the entire campus. Three dining facilities (Kentwood, Blair-Shannon, and New Hall) offer an all-you-can-eat format with a diverse menu that will appeal to everyone. Two of the dining halls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, with weekend hours to accommodate the busy student's schedule. Students may choose from four different meal plans to meet their individual needs: 10, 14, or 19 meals a week or our Unlimited Meal Plan which allows access to the dining center as many times a day as desired whenever they are in operation.

The Plaster Student Union Food Court currently offers great fast food restaurants and snackbars such as Blimpie's, Churchill's Coffee, Domino's Pizza, I Can't Believe It's Yogurt, Madison Street Grill, Smoothie Island, and Wok & Roll. Something's Bruin is located in Hammons House and serves food with a home-cooked taste. Hours of operation for these restaurants may vary throughout the year.

Directory

The University publishes a directory each fall semester with information on students enrolled for the fall semester. A current directory of enrolled students is continuously updated and available on the SMSU web site at www.smsu.edu (select the "people" category on the FindIt Feature). The directories may include the name, local and permanent address, local telephone number, University email address, classification, and department of major for all SMSU students. The directory also contains name, department, office location and telephone number, home address and telephone number of all faculty and staff members.

Students who do not want their directory information printed must complete a "Refusal to Permit Disclosure of Directory Information" form in the Office of Student Affairs, Carrington Hall 200 prior to September 1 for the printed directory or at any time for the web directory. Faculty and staff who wish to restrict the release of directory information must contact the Office of Human Resources, Carrington Hall 118 prior to September 1 for the printed directory or at any time for the web directory.

The directory generally becomes available for distribution in October through the Dean of Students Office.

E-mail Accounts

Health and Wellness Services

Taylor Health and Wellness Center is located at the southwest corner of Florence and Monroe Streets, north of the University's bookstore. The following health services are provided: primary clinic for diagnosis and treatment of illnesses and injuries, women's health services, nursing treatment (including allergy injections and immunizations), a full-service pharmacy with both prescribed and over-the-counter medications, diagnostic laboratory testing, radiological procedures and interpretations, and wellness programming which emphasizes positive lifestyle choices. Consultation services are also provided in orthopedics, internal medicine, general surgery, radiology, and psychiatric care.

An appointment may be made at Taylor Health and Wellness Center by calling 836-4000. The clinic is open Monday-Friday, except on University holidays. Health services are provided by a staff of physicians, nurses, pharmacists, technicians, and support staff.

Students enrolled at the University are assessed a health fee which is included in their required fees. Students receive unlimited pre-paid basic office visits each semester when seeing one of the clinic providers. There is an office visit fee for seeing one of the clinic physicians for longer office visits and the consulting physicians. Charges are incurred for laboratory tests, x-rays, pharmacy items, and for certain other procedures. Services may be paid for by cash, check, Discover Card, Visa, MasterCard and American Express, or may be charged to the student's university account, if enrolled in the deferred payment plan.

Spouses of students may receive service at the health center including pharmacy. They will be charged for laboratory tests, x-rays, and pharmacy items in addition to an office visit. The student, along with the spouse, must enroll for this program at the center before the spouse receives any services. Call Taylor Health and Wellness Center at 836-4000 for details.

A student group health and accident insurance plan is available to all registered undergraduate students taking 6 or more credit hours and all graduate students taking credit hours. All International students with an F-1 or J-1 visa are required to enroll in the plan. Eligible dependents of International students may enroll in the plan by completing an enrollment form and sending their premium directly to the insurance company. Dependent coverage is available to all students who are enrolled in the plan. This supplementary insurance helps cover part of the costs of hospitalization, surgical treatment, nursing service, ambulance, anesthetist, and other types of medical care. It is advisable for students to assess their health coverage programs(s) before starting school to determine if this policy would benefit them.

The Wellness Program provides students with educational activities, programs, and resources on a variety of health-related topics. Information and programs are available in the areas of alcohol and other drugs, stress management, general nutrition and weight management, smoking cessation, sexuality issues, physical fitness, and other wellness topics.

Students who are interested in becoming involved in wellness activities and advising the Center's administration on numerous issues are encouraged to join the Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC). For more information about the above programs, contact the Wellness Center's Director at (417) 836-4000.

International Student Services

International Student Services, Carrington Hall 302, (417) 836-6618, provides assistance and support to international students. Services offered include recruitment, admission (undergraduate, graduate, non-degree, and English Language Institute), transfer credit evaluation, orientation programs, special activity programming, and assistance with matters relating to Immigration and Naturalization Service policies and procedures.

KSMU Radio Station

KSMU (FM 91.1) is the campus radio station and is affiliated with National Public Radio and Public Radio International. In-depth news and information programs, classical, jazz, and contemporary music formats are offered. The station also serves as a training ground for those students interested in careers in broadcasting.

Learning Diagnostic Clinic

The primary mission of the Learning Diagnostic Clinic (LDC) is to validate documentation and prescribe educational accommodations for qualified students with learning disabilities and/or disabilities that create problems similar to those of learning disabled students (e.g., traumatic brain injury, depression). A related goal is to provide an educational support service for those students with the ultimate goal of developing educated persons.

The LDC reviews an individual's diagnostic documentation and then based on that documentation may offer services (free of charge) to the qualified individual such as career and personal counseling, testing accommodations, note-taking assistance, academic advisement, recorded textbooks, study skills training, organizational and planning skills training. More intensive services are available through the Project Success program (a fee is charged). Prospective students who need support services through the clinic need to first register with Disability Services (DS). DS can be contacted by calling (417) 836-4192.

Diagnostic documentation must be provided by a qualified professional. For learning disabilities, the documentation is required to be conducted within three years of the time of admission. Other diagnoses (e.g., depression) may require more recent documentation. Providing the documentation is the responsibility of the student. In the absence of such documentation, and if an evaluation is warranted, the LDC can provide psychoeducational testing for a fee.

For more information, contact the LDC in the Professional Building, room 275, (417) 836-4787.

Library Services

The SMSU library system is comprised of the Duane G. Meyer Library, the Music Library, the Greenwood Laboratory School

Library and the Evans Library on the Mountain Grove Campus. These four libraries have collections of over 2.9 million items including over 745,000 accessioned volumes; current subscriptions to over 4,655 periodicals and newspapers; and extensive back files of journals and newspapers, many on microfilm, microcard, and microfiche. Total microform holdings amount to over 953,000 units. Collections of audiovisual materials total over 32,000 titles. Documents and maps total over one million items. A large collection of audio CD's is fully cataloged and available in the Music Library. A number of special collections are also housed in the Meyer Library. The William J. Jones collections of Rimbaud and Butor are internationally recognized; materials by and about the French poet, Jean Arthur Rimbaud, comprise the largest collection of this type in the United States. A curriculum laboratory features a children's literature collection, a textbook collection, a collection of curriculum guides, and special learning materials. The Lena Wills Genealogical Collection provides information of importance to Missouri genealogists. The Ozarks Labor Union Archives document regional labor history.

Students at SMSU have access to a wide variety of materials by using the latest technology. Most cataloging records, including over 259,000 for government documents, are in the on-line catalog ATLAS. In addition to over 75 public terminals in the libraries, there is access from remote terminals via telephone lines from both on- and off-campus locations including residence halls. Electronic access is also provided to reference resources, course reserve materials and licensed commercial citations and full-text databases. Currently over 45 electronic databases are available to the SMSU community. In addition to citations from thousands of journals, newspapers, and books, these databases contain articles from over 2,300 journals and newspapers in full-text. Access to CyBear is available on the Web in the library and from any computer on the campus network. For licensed databases, remote access is available through the university modem pool. SMSU Libraries also maintain an extensive index of authoritative Web-based reference resources, organized by broad subject categories which include full-text, analytical, indexing, and other resources.

Identifications of, and requests for materials not held in our libraries are enabled electronically. OCLC is utilized for interlibrary loan and reference, with links to over 30,000 libraries in 65 countries. As a member of the Center for Research Libraries (CRL), we can borrow from a research collection of over 3.5 million items. The statewide MOBIUS system is simplifying access to regional holdings. Telefacsimile transmissions are commonly used to acquire material in a timely fashion. Within Meyer Library, several hundred U.S. Government files are provided in CD-ROM format. Meyer Library also maintains a Computer Lab for SMSU faculty, staff and students. A variety of software is provided and there is the capability to scan and make laser prints.

Reciprocal borrowing agreements exist between the SMSU libraries and other academic/research libraries in the area and with all state-supported institutions of higher education. During the fall and spring semester, Meyer Library is open 99 hours a week to serve the students. Librarians are available 90 hours a week to assist and teach students. Research carrels are available and are assigned to graduate students working on theses.

Accessibility of Resources. Meyer Library provided accessibility and services that include an access ramp, electronic door openers, and a TDD phone (417) 836-6794. The amount of hardware and software for use by persons with hearing, visual, or physical disabilities continues to increase and change as the technology evolves.

Midwest Sports Medicine Center

The Midwest Sports Medicine Center (MSMC) is a cooperative effort between Southwest Missouri State University and St. John's Regional Health Center and offers a variety of services to the general public and students. A team of athletic trainers, physical therapists, orthopedic surgeons, pediatricians, nutritionists and other professionals are available to evaluate, diagnose and treat injuries as well as educate patients in such matters as injury prevention, home injury care programs, general conditioning, and nutritional matters. X-ray services are also available. When calling the MSMC, the injured person may choose to see either an orthopedist or an athletic trainer. Patients may follow a home care program, supervised rehabilitation program, or be referred for further tests or surgery if necessary.

The MSMC also provides educational opportunities and clinical experiences for students in SMSU's sports medicine and athletic training major.

The MSMC is located at the corner of Fremont and Seminole streets, phone 888-7990. Phones are answered from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. An appointment is required and a fee is charged for services.

Minority Student Services

Minority Student Services, Carrington Hall 302, (417) 836-6618, provides academic, social, and cultural programs throughout the year. The office also gathers and distributes information of interest to minority students and links students with other University activities and services. The staff is sensitive to and supportive of the needs of minority students.

Multicultural Resource Center

The Multicultural Resource Center, located in Plaster Student Union, room 141, (417) 836-5652, promotes diversity and cultural awareness in the University environment and community. One of its major functions is to sponsor workshops and seminars on selected topics of interest. In addition, other resources such as a video library and a collection of books, training materials, newsletters, and magazines gives students access to diverse information on current issues, trends in the job market, and preparation for graduate or professional studies.

My Information System

The My Information system allows students immediate access to their academic information. The system may be accessed via the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) via the world wide web at the University web site (www.smsu.edu).

Information available includes: update of current local and permanent address, gpa, hours completed, current and future schedules, most recent grade report, major and minor of record, degree program status, degree audits, transcript, transfer evaluation, encumbrances, accounts receivable status, fee payment, status of parking fines/appeals, and registration date.

Currently enrolled students may contact the ZipCard Office, Plaster Student Union, room 128, 836-8409, or Records Office Carrington Hall, room 202 for information on obtaining a PIN.

Ozarks Studies Institute

The Ozarks Studies Institute seeks to preserve the heritage of the Ozarks, its culture, environment and history by fostering a comprehensive knowledge of Ozarks' peoples, places, characteristics and dynamics. The Institute promotes a sense of place for residents and visitors alike and serves as an educational resource by collecting existing and discovering new knowledge about the Ozarks and by providing access to that knowledge.

A comprehensive view of the Ozarks is enhanced through a multi-disciplinary, university-wide effort. Nearly all academic departments and colleges have some role to play in improving our understanding of the Ozarks, ranging from the natural and built environments, to performance and visual arts, to history, folklore, economics, politics, and religion. The Institute enables the university to focus its programs relating to the Ozarks, serve as a clearinghouse for knowledge of and about the Ozarks, and promote scholarly activities that increase our understanding of the Ozarks. The Institute sponsors a major annual festival, the Ozarks Celebration, as well as speakers, professional conferences and workshops. For further information see the SMSU web site (keyword = Ozarks Studies).

Partners In Education

Partners In Education is designed to strengthen the triangular partnership of the student, the family, and the University during the critical freshman year. By completing and signing a Student Release of Confidential Information form, freshman students may allow designated persons access to academic information otherwise protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Non-student members of Partners In Education will receive mid-semester progress reports and final grade reports on their student members, and may telephone the Academic Assistance Office for other information related to their students' academic progress, as long as the membership is active. Students may withdraw permission to release information at any time. (Student members of Partners In Education receive their grade reports and other mailings the same as students not enrolled in the program.)

Freshman students are encouraged to enroll in Partners In Education, and may do so through the Academic Assistance Office in University College Hall 122.

Personal Identification Number (PIN)

(See "My Information System", "World Wide Web", and "ZipCard" sections.)

Plaster Student Union

The purpose of the Student Union is to provide opportunities, facilities, and programs for individual growth, and to give the University family the opportunity for interchange outside of the classroom.

The Plaster Student Union is a multi-purpose facility, primarily for students, faculty, and staff of the University. The Student Union has large and small conference rooms, a ballroom, an arcade and bowling center, retail stores and a food court. The staff provide many educational, recreational, and co-curricular activities for the campus community. Rooms, as well as equipment, can be reserved by contacting the Conference Services Office located in the Plaster Student Union, room 303.

Services and activities provided by the staff of the Student Union are:

Conference Services Office. The Student Union can make arrangements for facilities, accommodations, and meals for campus organizations or groups who wish to bring conferences, seminars, and workshops to SMSU and Springfield.

Information Center. Located at the main entrance of the Student Union, the information center has information on University events, a lost and found department, and staff available to assist individuals with their questions.

Outdoor Adventures. The Student Union rents various camping and outdoor equipment, including sleeping bags, tents, and canoes. Stop by Outdoor Adventures on the first floor to see what is available.

Sailboat Rental. The Student Union rents sailboats and classes are offered by the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department. Students, faculty, staff or alumni with helmsman cards may check out the boats for a nominal fee by contacting the Recreation and Intramural Sports Office.

Games Center. The Student Union Games Center has eight bowling lanes and eight billiard tables plus numerous video and pinball games. A cyber lounge is also available for easy access to the internet. Bowling leagues are organized for students, faculty and staff during the week and open bowling is available when leagues and classes are not bowling. Thursday evening Rock and Bowl and Weekend Rent-A-Lane are popular specials throughout the year. Several bowling, billiard and video game tournaments are held throughout the year. Bowling classes are offered for academic credit in conjunction with the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Reading Success and Study Skills Lab

The Reading Success and Study Skills lab, located in Hill Hall 208, can help students enhance their study skills. The main focus of help is offered through two courses: College Reading and Efficient Study Techniques (IDS 117) for two credit hours and Enhancing Learning Techniques for College and for Life (IDS 118) for one credit hour. Both courses address enhancing study techniques such as time management, concentration, memory, textbook mastery, listening, lecture note-taking, and objective and essay test taking. In addition to study techniques, IDS 117 through lab activities deals with improving reading speed and comprehension and building vocabulary skills.

For the campus community not enrolled in IDS 117, the Reading Success Lab is also open on a limited basis during the spring and fall semesters for one-on-one help with study-related problems and for self-study in vocabulary development and reading improvement. Appointments for lab help are required and may be scheduled by contacting the Developmental Reading and Study Skills Office at (417) 836-5005. As a further service, the program's web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=studyskills) offers a resource list for those seeking information and strategies for effective study skills.

Records and Registration

The Office of Records and Registration comprises four divisions listed below and is responsible for maintaining accurate academic records and enforcing policies set by the Board of Governors, Faculty Senate, and the state and federal governments. In addition, this office maintains student and course data systems used on campus, annually produces this catalog, and maintains information on the SMSU web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=records).

Pre-recorded Messages of important information are available 24 hours per day:

Deadline Dates and Information (417) 836-6895

Transcript Request Procedures (417) 836-4323

Withdrawal Request Procedures (417) 836-6894

Hours of Operation are 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday excluding weekends and university holidays.

Please note that these offices are closed most Thursdays from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. for staff meetings and periodically may only offer limited services when the staff is attending a seminar, workshop, or other university-wide function.

Degree Check Office

This office maintains the Computer Assisted Student Advise-ment (CASA) system and certifies undergraduates for graduation. Undergraduate students must submit properly completed applications for admission to a degree program, and Intent to Graduate forms to this office. For further information, call (417) 836-5520 or visit Carrington Hall 304.

Records Office

This office is primarily responsible for maintaining student academic records. In addition, this office processes address changes, name changes, audit, and pass/not pass requests. Student academic summaries (unofficial transcripts) and official transcripts are available from this office. The Records Office also provides enrollment verifications as needed for loan deferments, insurance and other purposes. For further information, call (417) 836-5519 or visit Carrington Hall 202.

Registration Center

The Registration Center provides registration and change of schedule services to most students, processes all student withdrawals from the University, and compiles and produces each semester class schedule. The Registration Center also coordinates registration services available across campus. For further information, call (417) 836-5522 or visit Carrington Hall 320.

Veterans Services Office

SMSU has the largest population of students in the state of Missouri receiving the G.I. Bill.

This office provides services to students eligible to receive educational assistance as administered through the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (D.V.A.). These students may be veterans, members of the Selected Reserve, the Army National Guard or the Air Guard. Another category of benefits are those provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs under DEA (Dependents' Educational Assistance Program, chapter 35 of title 38, U.S. Code). This program provides education and training opportunities to eligible dependents of certain veterans. Eligibility is determined by the U.S. D.V.A. after a claim for benefits has been filed.

Certain veterans may be eligible for veterans Vocational Rehabilitation which is a program of services for service members and veterans with service-connected disabilities.

Other services provided include certifying enrollment, monitoring progress, conferring with the students and ensuring that students are in compliance with federal and state laws governing these educational benefits. For further information, call (417) 836-4615 or visit Carrington Hall 304.

Retention Services

Retention Services, Carrington Hall 302, (417) 836-6618, assists students from recruitment to graduation. Students are connected to campus resources which help them reach their educational goals.

Services such as free tutoring are available on a first-come, first-served basis in addition to referring students to other campus offices to help them with their course work. This office also provides assistance to commuter students by providing off-campus housing information, roommate information and educational programming to help students become better consumers as they look for a place to live.

This office also participates in research that identifies issues students face which may hinder their success. It then provides support through campus programs and services, in response to identified needs.

Safety and Transportation

Escort Service. The SMSU Department of Safety and Transportation operates a night-time escort service. This service is designed to supplement the shuttle service by escorting members of the SMSU community to and from locations within the confines of the campus.

Students should call (417) 836-5509 to obtain escort service. An officer will then be dispatched by radio to that location.

Vehicle Operation and Parking Regulations. Any student who operates a motor vehicle on campus is responsible for being informed about the parking regulations. A copy of the SMSU Parking Regulations can be obtained at the Parking Administration Office, Transit Operations Center, 700 E. Elm, telephone (417) 836-4825.

Towing Policy. Vehicles which have been abandoned, are improperly parked, or have accumulated three or more unpaid parking tickets may be towed. Contact the Department of Safety and Transportation for details.

Shuttle Service. The University operates a shuttle service for use by students, faculty, staff and guests of SMSU. The Shuttle makes numerous stops at locations convenient to residence halls, academic buildings, the library and Hammons Student Center.

The Shuttle is financed through student services fees. No fares are charged during scheduled operating hours.

Current brochures containing a map of the shuttle route and describing the shuttle system are available at the Department of Safety and Transportation, the Plaster Student Union Information Desk, and other locations on campus.

Annual Security Report. SMSU, in compliance with Part II of the Federal Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act of 1990 publishes an Annual Security Report. It provides applicants, students, and employees with the University safety policies, resources, and crime statistics. Copies are available in the Office of Admissions, Dean of Students Office, and in the Department of Safety and Transportation. The Annual Security Report is also available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=security).

Crime Reporting. Any individual on the SMSU campus who is a victim of or observes any criminal activity should report the incident immediately to the Springfield Police Department by dialing 911.

SMSU Foundation

The SMSU Foundation, established in 1981, is a not-for-profit corporation which helps the University obtain the greatest possible educational benefit through private giving. The SMSU Foundation's fund-raising efforts provide support for student financial aid, faculty research, library acquisitions, program enhancement and other academic and capital needs of the University. Since its inception, the Foundation has received gifts and gift commitments in excess of $93 million.

The SMSU Foundation offers a variety of annual giving programs that encourages regular and yearly increased annual support. These include the Nationwide Phone Campaign, the Campus Campaign and direct mail and corporate matching gift programs in support of academic programs. Gifts to athletic programs are coordinated through The Bears Fund. Gifts for the Juanita K. Hammons Hall for the Performing Arts are coordinated through The Performance Society.

Those donors who have made a significant and long-lasting financial commitment to academic or capital programs are recognized through participation in The Founders Club. Other donors are recognized with membership in the Carrington, Maroon and White, and Century Clubs.

Planned and deferred giving programs provide donors the opportunity to endow scholarships, grant bequests through their wills and utilize other estate planning vehicles. Significant planned gifts are recognized by membership in The 1905 Society. Gifts made in honor or in memory of a loved one or someone who has been a strong influence provide a lasting and thoughtful tribute to a life and its accomplishments. All gifts must be within the IRS regulations governing charitable contributions. The SMSU Foundation reports regularly on its progress through The Honor Roll of Donors.

World Wide Web

SMSU has a home page (www.smsu.edu) on the World Wide Web which contains information about the campus, academics, and other various information. Students who have been assigned a Personal Identification Number (PIN) may access their own personal information such as class schedule, previous grades, gpa, address, degree audits, and other information through the My Information system. Additional information and enhancements are expected in the near future.

Students have access to the web in the computer labs located in Cheek, Kemper, and Glass Halls; Public Affairs Classroom Building; and Meyer Library as well as many residence halls and other computer labs on campus. In addition, students have access to PC's in Carrington Hall and Plaster Student Union as well as the Kiosks located across campus.

Writing Center

The SMSU Writing Center is a friendly and comfortable place where students, faculty and staff can come for free help on any writing project. Trained undergraduate and graduate students will assist you with any aspect of your writing: interpreting assignments, discovering ideas, organizing and developing ideas, interpreting audience feedback, and refining your editing skills. Call 836-6398 to make an appointment or drop by Pummill 401. The Writing Center is open during the fall and spring semesters, Monday, Tuesday 9 a.m.-7 p.m., Wednesday, Thursday 9 a.m.-9 p.m., and Friday 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Summer Session hours vary.

Other services include a computer lab where students can produce their papers, a Writer's Hotline (836-6398) for quick answers about writing, and an on-line tutoring extension at writingcenter@smsu.edu.

Wyrick Commission

The Wyrick Commission and Wyrick Fund, set up in 1982, give students a chance to design, select, and execute campus improvement projects that they want to have instituted.

Each semester, $5 of each student's fees are deposited in the Wyrick Fund to pay for the proposals chosen by the student body during spring elections.

The proposals are submitted by students from any department and reviewed by the 13-member Wyrick Commission, made up of eight students and five faculty members.

Prominent past projects include: new weight equipment in Plaster Sports Complex, new furniture for the library and the Student Union, the signs at the corners of campus, the U-shaped bicycle racks, and lighting and irrigation for the new intramural field on the northeast corner of campus.

ZipCard

The ZipCard is your official University identification card which you should keep with you at all times. It can also be used as a campus debit card provided that you have made a deposit in your ZipCard account. As a debit card, it can be used almost anywhere you spend money on campus. You can pay your bills at the Bursar's Office, do your laundry, purchase items from vending machines, make copies, make purchases at the food court, and much more. For a complete list of services, visit our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword = zipcard).

With your ZipCard you can also be assigned a Personal Identification Number (PIN) which can be used to access your personal information on our web site. See the "My Information System" section of the catalog for more information.

The ZipCard office is located in Plaster Student Union room 128, (417) 836-8409.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student Organizations

Student organizations are an integral part of the SMSU experience, contributing to the social, intellectual, cultural, recreational, and spiritual needs of the campus, offering students the opportunity to enhance their educational experience through various activities.

The Office of Student Activities is committed to supporting the activities of student organizations and encouraging the participation of the entire campus community in these organizations and the programs of this office.

Over 240 student organizations are now registered at SMSU, divided into nine categories—departmental, honorary, professional, religious, service, social, Greek-Social, sports, and University organizations.

Art

The Department of Art and Design sponsors visiting artists, lecturers, workshops and field trips to major art museums for the purpose of acquainting students with the range and diversity of the visual arts at the professional level. Regularly scheduled exhibitions include the Bachelor of Fine Arts Senior Shows and an exhibition by senior art majors. The Student Art Association sponsors and coordinates exhibitions by member students and artists from outside the SMSU community. The Art and Design Gallery hosts a series of regional, national, and international exhibitions, along with faculty shows. The Department has a monthly colloquium of interest to the art community.

Athletics

Athletics at the University are a part of the total educational program. The prime function of athletics is to provide opportunities for student participation and personal development. A faculty intercollegiate athletic committee provides advice and guidance to the athletics administration.

The University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). All sports participate in Division I of that association except football which competes in IAA.

Intercollegiate (Men). The men's intercollegiate athletic program fields teams in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, soccer, swimming, tennis, and track and field. Some athletic grants-in-aid are available in each sport.

In football, the University is a member of the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference (GCAC). The football division of the GCAC was formed in 1985 and is comprised of Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Southern Illinois University, Western Illinois University, University of Northern Iowa, Youngstown State University, and SMSU.

The SMSU men's teams compete in the Missouri Valley Conference in all other sports. The Missouri Valley Conference sponsors championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, indoor track, golf, tennis, indoor track, outdoor track and soccer. In addition to SMSU, other league members are Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, Evansville University, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Southern Illinois University, University of Northern Iowa, and Wichita State University.

Intercollegiate (Women). The women's intercollegiate athletic program offers competitive opportunities in basketball, cross country, field hockey, indoor track, golf, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, outdoor track, and volleyball. Each sport conducts annual tryouts which are open to all full-time female students. Some athletic grants-in-aid are available in each sport.

The women's program competes in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Missouri Valley sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, indoor track, outdoor track, and volleyball. The institutions in the Missouri Valley are the same as listed above for the men's program. In the sport of field hockey, SMSU is a member of the Northern Pacific Field Hockey Conference.

Community Service Opportunities

The public affairs mission at SMSU has given strong emphasis to the role of community service in the development of the educated person. Community service typically increases students' sensitivity to the needs of the community and their competency to contribute to society. Those characteristics are fundamental to the leadership roles for which higher education prepares students.

There are over 240 student organizations on campus. Eleven of them are especially focused to provide community service. Over 30 departmental organizations include community service in their activities. Most of the Greek organizations include community service in their chapter activities as do many of the campus religious organizations. An increasing proportion of all student organizations are including service projects in their activity schedules.

In addition to the many student organizations involved in volunteer public service, the University maintains a Campus

Volunteer Center at Blair-Shannon 113, where opportunities for volunteers are listed and assistance is offered to students and groups interested in community service.

The Student Community Action Team (SCAT) is also engaged in community service. SCAT provides an opportunity for civic-minded Federal Work-Study students to participate in long-term service projects in the community.

Service-Learning for Academic Credit

For students interested in earning academic credit related to performing community service, there are a variety of programs.

Citizenship and Service-Learning. The Citizenship and Service-Learning (CASL) program enables a student to earn an additional hour of credit in selected courses in exchange for the learning acquired by completing 40 hours of service that benefits an external government agency, service organization, or public/private school. The CASL program forges a direct link between community service and disciplinary learning. It connects the classroom experience to the world beyond its walls by enabling the student to integrate real-world learning with material taught in the classroom. It also enables students to experience and understand themselves as active, participating citizens in the collective life of the community. Most academic departments provide service-learning options for selected undergraduate and graduate courses. See www.smsu.edu (Keyword = service learning) for information.

Dance

Dance concerts are presented annually as part of the cultural attractions available to the community. A faculty choreographed dance concert is presented each spring semester. Student choreographed studio programs are presented each semester, and advanced student work is selected for a full-fledged concert. Theatre productions often include dance as an integral element. Inertia Dance Company is the resident student organization of SMSU which gives dance lecture-demonstrations and concert works to schools and groups throughout the geographic area.

SMSU boasts a tradition of excellence in debate. The debate program at SMSU is as old as the university itself and has consistently been one of the top debate programs in the nation. In 1992, SMSU won first place at the Cross-Examination Debate Association (CEDA) National Tournament. SMSU students have appeared in the "Sweet Sixteen" of college debate in eight of the last ten years, including a second place finish and two additional Final Four appearances. SMSU is also the only school in the nation to have hosted both the CEDA National Tournament and the National Debate Tournament (NDT). SMSU students participate in NDT debate.

Within this tradition of competitive excellence lies a commitment to the education of the individual student. SMSU debaters are consistently admitted to top graduate programs and law schools. The Holt V. Spicer Debate Forum features a national and regional travel schedule designed to offer each student the optimum level of participation. For more information about the SMSU forensics program, contact the Department of Communication.

Dramatic Performance Activities

The Department of Theatre and Dance affords students with theatre and dance talent an avenue of expression and provides the campus community with entertaining and worthwhile productions.

Several faculty-directed productions, including plays, musicals, operas, children's plays, and performance pieces, are presented each year. Productions directed by students, both graduate and undergraduate, are also presented. Through participation in these productions, students gain practical experience in constructing and painting scenery, making costumes, applying makeup, light control technology and acting in outstanding plays of all periods. Productions are presented in Coger Theatre, the experimental Balcony Theatre in Craig Hall, Carrington Auditorium, Juanita K. Hammons Hall for Performing Arts, and Vandivort Center Theatre in downtown Springfield.

One of the area's favorite summer attractions is the SMSU Tent Theatre. From mid-June to early August, two musicals and one comedy are presented in rotating repertory.

The In-School Players, a group of advanced students chosen from audition, prepares original theatrical material to tour to area elementary schools two afternoons a week through the late fall and spring semesters. The Inertia Dance Company, a group of advanced students chosen from audition, prepares a presentation to tour to area elementary schools and a concert program for adult audiences.

Foreign Languages

The Department of Modern and Classical Languages offers a variety of activities to students to supplement its academic programs. The department sponsors conversation tables, honorary societies, and cultural activities. Travel and study tours to Canada, Costa Rica, Germany, and Spain are offered to provide direct language and cultural experience. The department also sponsors public service activities related to the study of foreign language and culture.

Mass Media Activities

An integral part of the Department of Mass Media, Journalism and Film Studies, the mass media program provides a wide range of activities in broadcasting, journalism, and film. The department maintains an instructional television studio which provides student programming for SMSU-Cable 24. The department also serves in an advisory capacity for the school newspaper, The Southwest Standard, and is associated with KSMU-FM (91.1 MHz), the University's National Public Radio affiliate. Mass media majors can gain valuable experience working in each of these areas, as reporters and journalists for the newspaper, as producers of television programming, or as student interns at KSMU, the area's FM source of fine arts and information programming. The department also maintains a strong internship program with local and regional broadcasters, providing an opportunity for majors to acquire professional experience at a variety of radio and television stations, as well as corporate production facilities.

For more information about media activities, contact the Department of Mass Media, Journalism and Film Studies.

Music

The Department of Music offers a wide range of musical activities for all students including orchestra, string orchestra, wind ensemble, symphonic band, concert band, marching band, chamber singers, concert chorale, collegiate chorale, jazz ensembles, and various small ensembles. In addition, private and classroom instruction is available in all keyboard, orchestra and band instruments. Each semester, Ellis Recital Hall, Wehr Band Hall, and Hammons Hall for the Performing Arts provide the setting for a full schedule of events presented not only by the ensembles listed above, but also by the students and faculty of the Department of Music and by many guest artists. These programs provide the University community with a rich variety of listening opportunities.

Recreation and Intramural Sports

A wide variety of activities for all interest and skill levels are offered through Campus Recreation.

Intramural Sports are available for both the highly skilled athlete and recreational player. League competitions are organized for men, women, and coed teams in softball, volleyball, basketball, flag football, roller hockey, sand volleyball, ultimate frisbee, and soccer. Over 25 other individual competitions such as golf, tennis, badminton, and weight lifting are also a part of the intramural sports program.

Fitness/Wellness programs promoting a healthy lifestyle are coordinated with Taylor Health and Wellness Center and offer activities for a healthier lifestyle. Floor aerobics, water aerobics, tai chi, tae kwon do, yoga, ballroom dancing, belly dancing, and CPR are just a few of the many activities offered throughout the year.

Outdoor Adventures provides opportunities for students to attend workshops, seminars, and trips covering topics such as backpacking, mountain biking, caving, rock climbing, kayaking, and white water rafting.

A wide variety of camping and sports equipment may also be rented at Outdoor Adventures.

For more information, contact Campus Recreation, located in Plaster Student Union, room 131, (417) 836-5334.

Student Government Association

Student Government Association (SGA) is the official voice of the students to the administration of SMSU. Through organizational and student body representation, SGA collects student opinion on matters concerning fees, discipline, and social activities at SMSU to express them to the administration and other students.

SGA represents all students. Students are welcome at any SGA meeting and becoming a Senator is a wonderful and rewarding experience that all students should consider pursuing. SGA believes that the students' voices need to be heard and continuing participation will foster student input.

The Southwest Standard

SMSU's official student newspaper, The Southwest Standard, has provided University students, faculty and staff with vital news coverage for over 87 years. The Southwest Standard is published weekly and is student managed and edited, providing valuable practical experience for future journalists and other students interested in journalism.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Robert W. Plaster Sports Complex

Student Conduct

When students enroll at the University, they do so voluntarily and in so doing implicitly accept certain obligations of performance and behavior established by the University, as defined in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities and other Official University publications. The development of self-discipline is a goal of education and the disciplinary process is intended to be educational in nature. The judicial system is designed to further the educational process; therefore, it is not comparable to, or a substitute for, jurisprudence under a criminal code. The procedures are designed to balance the rights and responsibilities of the student accused of wrong doing with the rights of the accuser, other students, members of the academic community, and the public. Hearings shall be conducted by a judicial body in order to provide a fair opportunity for hearing of the student's position, explanations, and evidence.

Any member of the University community may file charges against any student for misconduct. Generally, jurisdiction and discipline shall be limited to conduct which occurs on University premises or which adversely affects the University Community and/or the pursuit of its objectives. Charges shall be prepared in writing and directed to the Office of Student Judicial Programs, Plaster Student Union 4th Floor, which is the office responsible for the administration of the University judicial system. Any charge should be submitted as soon as is reasonably possible after the event takes place, but in any case, no longer than one calendar year from the date the person knew or should have known the facts.

Acts of dishonesty can be perceived to be related to a student's academic performance or a student's conduct. When the matter is related to a student's academic performance, the policies of the Division of Academic Affairs, listed in the "Academic Integrity" section of this catalog, are in effect. When the matter is related to a student's conduct, the policies of the Code are in effect. The course instructor has original jurisdiction over his/her class and may deny a student who is unduly disruptive the right to attend class. The student is expected to comply with all reasonable directives of the course instructor.

Once the hearing authority has determined that a violation of the Code has taken place, the hearing authority will determine a recommendation for a sanction appropriate to the violation. In determining its recommendation, the hearing authority will hear recommendations from the accused student and the Judicial Advisor, who is a representative from the Office of Student Judicial Programs. The Judicial Advisor may introduce evidence of past violations by the accused student in order to establish why a recommended sanction is appropriate. Disciplinary sanctions other than dismissal and expulsion shall not be made a part of the student's permanent academic record, but shall become part of the student's confidential disciplinary record, which will be maintained in a specified area of the Dean of Students Office and shall be subject to the restrictions of the Family Educational Right to Privacy Act (FERPA).

The complete Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities is on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword = judicial) or from the Office of Student Judicial Programs, Plaster Student Union, room 405, 836-6937. It is also recommended that each student become familiar with the Current Students and Campus Services web page at www.smsu.edu (select Current Students) to learn about other University policies and procedures.

University Rules for Speakers and Facilities Usage

1. The use of University facilities for speakers is intended to support the academic mission and is therefore viewed as educational programs. The University retains the exclusive right, through authorized persons and organizations, to determine the appropriateness of speakers scheduled for University facilities. If a speaker is not allowed access to University facilities, that speaker will still have access to the Bear Paw (open area in North mall), in accordance with the University's Public Forum Policy.
2. The University retains the exclusive right to determine the appropriateness of all arrangements required for a speaker appearing in a University facility.
3. Each University facility (e.g., Juanita K. Hammons Hall for the Performing Arts, Hammons Student Center, Cogger Theater, etc.) will have separate regulations and procedures for the use of the facility which must be followed for any scheduled event.
4. Any speaker appearing in a University facility must be sponsored by a registered student organization, University organization, or University department. The sponsoring organization is responsible for insuring that procedures for event scheduling are followed.
5. Press conferences on University-owned property must be arranged for in advance through the News Services Office.
6. Orderly picketing and demonstrations are permitted according to the Public Forum Policy but, for reasons of safety, only unmounted signs no wider than the human body are permitted within University buildings.
7. Individuals entertaining guests on campus, in any University facility, are responsible for the proper identification and conformance to rules of the University by such guests.
8. All buildings or facilities other than residence halls shall be off limits to students after closing hours with the following exceptions:
 - a. Students possessing an "after hours" permit, signed by his/her instructor and department head, stating the building, room number, student name, and the times for which the student is cleared.
 - b. University student employees who are required to enter the locked buildings in the performance of their duties. The students must be able to validate their employment to Public Safety Officers who encounter them in the closed buildings.
 - c. Students who are accompanied by Department of Public Safety personnel, University staff members, or faculty members.
9. Arrangements for the use of University facilities, including both buildings and grounds, must be made in advance through the Conference Services Office. Meeting rooms and facilities may be reserved by only those student organizations who are properly registered by the University.
10. Registered student organizations conducting University-related activities off-campus must register them no less than one week in advance with the Office of Student Activities.
11. University-sponsored student travel must be registered in advance with the Office of Student Activities. Participating students are subject to the same parameters of the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities that are in effect at the University.
12. The indoor pool at Hammons Student Center is operated during the hours and under the rules published annually by the Director of Hammons Student Center. Students are not permitted inside the pool area when the pool is closed.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Academic Integrity Policies and Procedures

The community of scholars that is Southwest Missouri State University (SMSU) is committed to developing educated persons. Educated persons accept the responsibility to practice personal and academic integrity. Each participant of the University community refrains from and discourages behavior that threatens the freedom and respect each member deserves. The policies and procedures described in the Student Academic Integrity policy specifically address student academic integrity, but recognize that student academic integrity is only part of the entirety of academic integrity in a community of scholars, and that all members of the community share the responsibility for fostering academic integrity.

The SMSU Faculty Handbook states that course policy statements must include a statement of the instructor's policies concerning cheating and plagiarism, including consequences. An instructor's policies on academic integrity issues, while they may reflect the instructor's personal views, should also be consistent with the University policy on student academic integrity. The instructor should allow the student who has been charged with academic dishonesty to continue attending class until all appeals are resolved. If an academic integrity matter is pending at the end of a semester, the instructor will issue an Incomplete (I) grade to the student until the appeal process is completed.

The complete Student Academic Integrity Policies and Procedures document, including information on the Academic Integrity Proceeding, is available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=academic integrity) or from the Office of Academic Affairs.

Definitions

Academic Integrity Council (AIC): The 21-member Academic Integrity Council (AIC) is comprised of ten voting student members and ten voting faculty members, plus the Vice President for Academic Affairs or designee, who is the non-voting Chair of the Council. The Council is charged with overseeing Academic Integrity Proceedings. The Council may also at its discretion undertake other activities intended to foster academic integrity.

Academic Integrity Proceeding: An Academic Integrity Proceeding is conducted by a six-member panel drawn from the AIC membership. The purpose of a proceeding is to explore and investigate allegations of student academic dishonesty and to reach informed conclusions as to whether or not academic dishonesty is likely to have occurred.

Academic Dishonesty: Any one of the following acts constitutes academic dishonesty:

Cheating: The term "cheating" refers to using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise.

Fabrication: The term "fabrication" refers to unauthorized falsification or invention of any information (including research data) or any citation in any academic exercise.

Plagiarism: The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work or sections of a work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials, including material taken from or ordered through the Internet.

Facilitating academic dishonesty: Assisting or attempting to assist another to violate any provision of the Student Academic Integrity policy, whether or not that action is associated with any particular course, is considered academic dishonesty.

Reporting Academic Dishonesty

All members of the University community share the responsibility and authority to challenge and make known acts of apparent academic dishonesty. Any student, faculty member, or staff person who has witnessed an apparent act of student academic dishonesty esty, or has information that reasonably leads to the conclusion that such an act has occurred or has been attempted, is strongly encouraged to report said act. Acts of apparent academic dishonesty that occur in the classroom may be reported directly to the course instructor, and/or the course instructor's department head, and/or the instructor's college dean. Incidences of apparent academic dishonesty, whether associated with a particular course or not, may also be reported directly to the Academic Integrity Council (AIC) by contacting the Chair of the Council (the Vice President for Academic Affairs or designee) in the Office of Academic Affairs, Carrington Hall 209. The Academic Integrity Council will not accept or act upon anonymous reports but will hold in strict confidence the identity of any person reporting a suspected instance of academic dishonesty, unless that person consents to having his or her identity revealed. If the act of academic dishonesty that is reported to the AIC is alleged to have occurred in a particular course, the AIC Chair will notify the course instructor of the allegation. If the reported allegation is not associated with any particular course, the AIC Chair will convene an Academic Integrity Panel to conduct an Academic Integrity Proceeding to explore the allegation, provided that at least one person making an allegation is willing to be identified and to participate in the proceeding.

Academic Dishonesty Not Associated with Enrollment in a Course

Any incident of alleged academic dishonesty by a student not enrolled in a particular course but sitting in the course for a student duly enrolled (for example, taking a test for a duly-enrolled student) should be reported directly to the AIC, which will convene a panel to address the alleged incident. Similarly, any incident of alleged academic dishonesty committed by any student at SMSU outside the context of enrollment in any particular course should be reported directly to the AIC, which will convene a panel to address the alleged incident.

Academic Record (Transcript)

An academic record (transcript) is permanently maintained for each student who enrolls at SMSU. This record includes a list of courses in which the student was enrolled (except for those dropped during the Change of Schedule period-see "Change of Schedule" section), as well as the credits and grades earned in those courses. Academic and disciplinary suspensions and expulsions are also recorded.

For students with transfer credit (including West Plains Campus courses taken since August 1995), an entry will appear on the transcript indicating the number of credit hours awarded for each institution attended. Individual transfer courses are not listed. Transfer credit is noted on the transcript only for courses completed by students prior to or during their last semester of enrollment at SMSU.

All students are issued a transcript upon graduation. For information on requesting copies, see the "Transcript Request" section. Course order transcripts are available on the My Information system provided the student has been assigned a PIN. Students who have attended the West Plains Campus of SMSU since August 1995 must contact that campus to request a transcript.

Academic Renewal Policy

Academic renewal is designed to permit students with a grade point average deficiency to remove the effects of low grades from their academic record, under the following conditions:

1. This policy applies only to undergraduate students and must be invoked prior to graduation.
2. A student enrolled at SMSU after an absence of five years or more from college may elect academic renewal. This renewal will affect only those courses taken prior to the five-year absence and may be elected only once in a lifetime.
3. Once elected, academic renewal applies to all courses, whether passed or failed and regardless of origin, taken prior to the date chosen by the student.
4. Academic renewal does not erase the record. The grades received are removed from the GPA with an appropriate notation on the transcript indicating the renewal election. Academic renewal is a policy of SMSU and as such may not be recognized by outside institutions or agencies (e.g., Missouri State Department of Elementary and Secondary Education).
5. Credit hours subjected to academic renewal cannot be used to meet any requirements (e.g., graduation, prerequisite, or certification).
6. Once elected, academic renewal is irrevocable. Students must consult an academic advisor prior to election of academic renewal. Final approval for all academic renewal applications will be processed by the Office of Academic Affairs.

Academic Status

Good Standing

A student who has a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00, at SMSU and on transfer and SMSU academic work combined, and is not currently suspended, is considered to be in good standing. A student who has not achieved the minimum good standing grade point average will be placed on scholastic probation or suspension.

Probation

The purpose of scholastic probation is to remind students that the quality of their cumulative academic work is unsatisfactory. A brochure describing scholastic probation and suspension is available in the offices of the College Deans, Admissions, and Records. A student on scholastic probation may be required to reduce the number of credits carried, maintain a lighter out-of-school work load or forego participation in social activities. The director of an extra-curricular activity may also bar students on probation from participation in that activity. A student on probation may also be ineligible for financial aid.

The student's academic advisor and staff of various administrative offices are available to give assistance in the planning of courses, time organization, and establishing effective study habits.

Suspension

Any student who fails to make a 1.00 or better grade point average in any single semester or session (regardless of the cumulative grade point average) will be suspended, unless, in the opinion of the appropriate college dean, there are circumstances which warrant an exception. The student must make written application for an exception.

If a student who was placed on probation in a previous semester fails to remove that probation within one semester in residence, the student will be suspended, unless in the opinion of the appropriate college dean, there are circumstances which warrant an exception. If satisfactory progress has been shown, the student may be allowed to remain from semester to semester.

Reinstatement

A student suspended for academic reasons for the first time is eligible to apply for reinstatement after remaining out of school for a minimum of one semester. The summer session does not count as a semester. Reinstatement of suspended students is not an automatic process. Students are responsible for showing that their chances for success are better than they were before their suspension. Applications for reinstatement are available in the Admissions Office. See the "Academic Calendar" for deadline dates.

A student requesting reinstatement may be required to take certain tests and receive other assistance from the Counseling Center as a part of consideration for reinstatement. If the student is reinstated, the grade point deficiency for each semester attended thereafter must be progressively decreased or the student will again be suspended. After a second suspension, a minimum period of one full calendar year must elapse before a student's application for reinstatement may be considered. If the student is reinstated a second time, a progressive decrease in grade point deficiency must be shown or the student will again be suspended.

If a student had been admitted into a degree program at the time of suspension, the program is voided and the student must reapply for admission or request reinstatement of the original degree program.

A student who attends another college or university after being suspended from SMSU must earn at least a 2.00 GPA on transferable courses to be considered for reinstatement.

Accelerated Masters Program

Students admitted into an approved Accelerated Masters Degree Program may have a limited number of 500-600 level courses counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degree. Before enrolling in a course to be counted as both undergraduate and graduate credit (mixed credit), an undergraduate student must be accepted into the accelerated program and receive prior approval from the graduate program advisor, department head of the undergraduate program, and the dean of the Graduate College. All approvals must be completed prior to the end of the Change of Schedule Period for the course(s). See Graduate College for further information.

Address (Local and Permanent)

Students must report their correct addresses at the time of registration. Students may also update their address(es) via the web (see "My Information System") or by reporting address changes to the Records Office.

The local address is generally used to contact students when classes are in session. The permanent address is used on billings, refunds and other items sent while classes may not be in session. The local and permanent address may be the same in the case of a commuting student.

Change of a permanent address does not affect a student's residency status for fee purposes. If a change of residency is appropriate, the proper forms must be completed in the Office of Admissions, Carrington Hall 204.

Advanced Placement

SMSU recognizes the Advanced Placement (AP) Program and awards credit for many of the subjects offered. A copy of the current AP policy is available from the Office of Admissions and is also available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=credit by examination).

Attendance Policy

Because class attendance and course grade are demonstrably and positively related, the University expects students to attend all class sessions of courses in which they are enrolled. Each instructor has the responsibility to determine specific attendance policies for each course taught, including the role that attendance plays in calculation of final grades and the extent to which work missed due to non-attendance can be made up. On the first day of class, each instructor will make available to each student a written statement of the specific attendance policy for that class. The University encourages instructors not to make attendance a disproportionately weighted component of the final grade. The University expects instructors to be reasonable in accommodating students whose absence from class resulted from: (1) participation in University-sanctioned activities and programs; (2) personal illness; or (3) family and/or other compelling circumstances. Instructors have the right to request documentation verifying the basis of any absences resulting from the above factors. Any student who believes that his or her final grade for a course has been reduced unfairly because of attendance factors has the right to appeal that grade under the process outlined below.

Appeal Process for Attendance-Related Grade Reductions:

The process of grade appeal based upon attendance factors is intended to render a timely and peer-based judgement and is outlined as follows:

1. The student should first attempt to resolve the grade conflict with the instructor on an informal basis. If satisfactory resolution is not reached, formal appeal should be initiated as outlined in (2) below.
2. The student initiates the formal appeal process as follows:
 - a. The student writes a formal letter to the instructor (or to the appropriate department head if the instructor is no longer on campus) requesting a re-evaluation of his or her grade. The letter should include the following information: student's name and social security number; the course code, number, and section; the year and semester the course was taken; the instructor's name; and a clear statement of the grade change request and reasons which justify the request. This formal letter must be initiated no later than the end of the first semester after the grade in question is received (excluding summer semester).
 - b. The instructor (or the appropriate department head if the instructor is no longer on campus) must respond to the formal appeal within ten (10) school days of the receipt of the formal letter:

- i. If it is determined that the student's request is justified, the instructor (or department head, as appropriate) will prepare a Grade Change Authorization and submit it to the department head, who will forward it to the Records Office. If the grade change is in a course taken for graduate credit, the department head must also notify the Graduate College.
 - ii. If it is determined by the instructor (or department head, as appropriate) that the student's request is not justified, the instructor (or department head) will write a formal response to the student justifying his or her decision.
- c. Should the student desire to continue the appeal process, he or she may request a formal hearing before the SMSU Attendance Appeal Board (AAB)¹ as follows:
- i. The student will submit to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs a completed AAB Request for Hearing Form (including a release of information on grades awarded on examinations and assignments, and attendance data, for the specific course in question); the student's formal letter to the instructor (or department head, as appropriate); and the instructor's (or department head's) response.
 - ii. Upon receipt of the specified documentation, the AAB will determine if the grade reduction is attendance related and potentially unreasonable and/or at variance with the instructor's stated attendance policy. If it is so determined, the AAB will convene a hearing at the earliest possible date based upon the schedules of the involved parties. The hearing will be conducted in an attempt to determine the facts associated with the appeal and the intent is that a recommendation will be rendered by the end of the semester in which the appeal was filed.
 - iii. The AAB is advisory only. The Board will forward all documentation and its recommendation to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Based upon those data, the Vice President for Academic Affairs will make a ruling to the extent that: (1) the grade should be changed including the new grade to be awarded; or (2) the grade should not be changed.

¹The Attendance Appeal Board will consist of five members as follows: The Board Chair will be the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee. The Vice President for Student Affairs will also select one faculty member from among those serving on the Faculty Student Judicial Commission and three students from among those serving as Justices on the Campus Judicial Board.

Students are not automatically dropped for non-attendance. Failure to properly drop or withdraw will result in F grade(s).

Auditing a Course

The auditing student is expected to attend class regularly and should consult with the instructor to determine what else is expected in the course. The instructor has the right to request the Office of Academic Affairs to have the student dropped from the course for non-attendance.

Students may audit courses to the maximum authorized academic load. A person currently not enrolled at the University must be admitted in order to register as an auditor. Courses audited are counted in the same way as courses taken for credit in determining required student fees. Credit is not awarded for auditing a class.

To audit a course (or to remove a course from audit) the student must complete a form in the Records Office, Carrington Hall room 202 anytime prior to the No Penalty Drop/Automatic N deadline for that course. Students may not change from a credit basis to an audit basis or vice versa once the No Penalty Drop/Automatic N Grade deadline has ended. Instructors will receive notification when students change from or to an audit status.

CASA Degree Audits

The Computer Assisted Student Advisement (CASA) system is designed to assist the student, advisor, and University in tracking student progress toward completion of all applicable degree requirements. This is accomplished by the production of a report commonly referred to as a degree audit. This degree audit report matches completed, in-progress, and registered courses with courses required on a specified degree program to determine which requirements have or will be met and which requirements are deficient or not yet completed. The degree audit will then list what is needed to complete the requirement. The degree audit is designed to be used as an advisement tool. Final confirmation of degree requirements is subject to department and University approval.

All currently enrolled undergraduate degree seeking students may view their degree audit through the My Information system on the SMSU web site provided they have been assigned a Personal Identification Number (PIN).

Change of Schedule (Add/Drop)

Students are expected to complete the courses for which they register. Failure to properly drop or withdraw from classes will result in the assignment of F grades for those classes, as well as a possible financial obligation.

Students who wish to withdraw from all courses for a given semester should refer to the withdrawal policy in the printed and web versions of the catalog and schedule.

Students who wish to add or drop selected regular semester courses must follow the procedures outlined below, which vary over time. Students who wish to add or drop intersession courses, short courses, workshops, and other courses that do not meet for a full semester or block should contact Continuing Education Registration Services or the Registration Center for information on policies, procedures, and deadlines.

Also refer to the Fee Refund Schedule, the Academic Calendar, and Instructor Drop for additional information regarding drops and withdrawals. Also refer to Auditing a Course, Enrollment Status, and Overload Permission for related information.

Prior to the beginning of the semester: Adds, drops, and section changes may be processed in any authorized registration center.* Students must complete a short form and present photo identification. To add a course which requires permission to enroll, the student must first obtain a Course Permission form from the department office which offers the course. Students are responsible for ensuring compliance with stated prerequisites. The department office may or may not drop students who do not meet prerequisites.

During the Change of Schedule Period (first five days of fall or spring semesters, first two days of summer session): Same procedure as above except that such changes may also be completed in the department office of the student's major or in the department office of the course being added or dropped.

After the Change of Schedule period:

1. To drop a course: Same procedure as above except that drops may only be processed by an authorized registration center during this time.
2. To add a course: In general, only courses which have not yet begun (e.g., second block courses, short courses, workshops, independent study, etc.) may be added after the Change of Schedule Period has ended. Department approval is required to add a first block or full semester length class beginning on day 6 of the fall or spring semester, and to add a second block class on day 3 or beyond of the second block period. The department may also require instructor approval.
 - a. Go to the department which offers the course to seek approval. If approval is granted the department office will complete an Add/Section Change form and affix the department signature and stamp. Course Permission forms are not required during this period.
 - b. Take the completed form to an authorized registration center with photo identification for processing.
3. To change sections: A section change should be completed during the Change of Schedule Period. Such changes are considered a drop and an add, and are treated as such in determining the refund or credit to be granted.
 - a. Go to the department office of the course and request permission to change sections. The department may require instructor approval. If approved, the department will complete an Add/Section Change form and affix the department signature and stamp. If the change is due to extenuating circumstances the department may, at its discretion, indicate on the form that the drop should be processed with a 100 percent credit on the dropped section and the form must be taken to the Registration Center, Carrington Hall 320 to be processed with the correct refund.
 - b. Take the completed form and photo identification to an authorized registration center for processing.

No transaction is considered complete unless received, verified, and processed by the Registration Center or other authorized office. Students will be provided a revised schedule and invoice. It is the student's responsibility to review these for accuracy and to request corrections immediately.

Grading:

1. Prior to the end of the Change of Schedule Period: Dropped courses will not appear on the transcript.
2. After the Change of Schedule Period: Courses dropped up through the No Penalty Drop/Automatic N Deadline for that course will have a grade of N. This is week 2 through 9 for full semester courses during fall and spring semesters; other course lengths are treated proportionally.
3. After the No Penalty Drop/Automatic N Deadline: Courses dropped up through the Last Day to Drop or Withdrawal deadline for that course will have either an N or F grade assigned by the instructor on the final grade roster. An N indicates that the student was doing passing work at the time of the drop. An F indicates a failing grade for the course, and is calculated into the grade point average. This period is from the 10th week through the next to last week of the semester for full semester courses during fall and spring semesters; other course lengths are treated proportionally.

4. No drops or withdrawals are allowed after the Last Day to Drop or Withdrawal deadline for the course.

Related Information: Students should use the drop procedure judiciously as numerous N grades on a transcript may be construed by some to indicate an inability of the individual to persist when challenged. Dropping courses will generally result in extending the time required to complete a degree. In addition, dropping below a full-time or half-time enrollment status may jeopardize insurance, financial aid, scholarship, and athletic participation eligibility. Students who are dropping because of a concern regarding their grade in a course are encouraged to consult with the instructor prior to dropping a course. Students who are concerned about the impact of dropping a course on their progress toward graduation are encouraged to consult with their academic advisor prior to dropping.

Authorized Registration Centers: These offices may process registrations, adds, and drops year round. All withdrawals from the University must be processed by the Registration Center in Carrington Hall 320.

- Honors College Students must process changes in the University College, University College Hall room 115.
- University Athletes must process changes in the Athletic Achievement Center, Forsythe Athletic Center room 239.
- Declared Business Majors may process changes in the College of Business Administration Advisement Center, Glass Hall room 106A.
- Evening, Graduate, and Extended University students may process changes in Continuing Education Registration Services, Carrington Hall room 422.
- Premajors (students who have not declared a major) may process changes in the Academic Advisement Center, University College Hall room 109.
- All other students may process changes in the Registration Center, Carrington Hall room 320.

Class Disruption

The course instructor has original jurisdiction over his/her class and may deny a student who is unduly disruptive the right to attend the class. Students are expected to master the course content in compliance with the syllabus of the course instructor. The student is expected to comply with all reasonable directives of the course instructor. The course instructor may have a student administratively withdrawn from a course upon showing of good cause and with the concurrence of the department head. The appeals process in case of such administrative withdrawal shall be as stated in the academic regulations under "Grade Re-evaluation Based on Performance."

Classification

Undergraduate degree-seeking students are classified according to the number of credit hours earned, as follows: Freshmen = 0 - 29; sophomores = 30 - 59; juniors = 60 - 89; seniors = 90+. Other undergraduate classifications include precollege and nondegree seeking. Graduate classifications include graduate masters, graduate specialist, doctoral, and postbaccalaureate (nondegree seeking).

Commencement

Students who wish to participate in commencement ceremonies must do so in their semester of graduation. Students who cannot do this may apply through the Degree Check Office, Carrington Hall 304, to participate in a subsequent commencement ceremony. The listing of their names in the commencement program will remain in the semester of graduation.

Students who received academic scholarships and students who will be recipients of scholarship honors at graduation are expected to participate in the senior banquet (held prior to commencement) and in the commencement ceremony.

Students who complete a University certificate program will receive a "certificate of completion". These students will not be recognized at the commencement ceremonies.

Commencement information is available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=commencement).

Credit by Examination

Students may receive credit by examination for selected College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Subject Matter Examinations, for most Advanced Placement (AP) examinations, and for most International Baccalaureate (IB) subject examinations.

In addition, examinations may be taken for credit for courses in selected departments. These courses are identified under the departmental sections of this catalog.

The credit by examination policy is subject to revision. A copy of the current policy is available from the Office of Admissions, Carrington Hall 204 and is also available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=credit by examination).

Credit Hours

The unit of credit used at SMSU is the semester hour. Lecture courses meet the equivalent of one hour per week for 15 weeks for one semester hour of credit. Laboratory and studio courses meet for the equivalent of two hours per week for 15 weeks for one semester hour of credit. Courses which include lecture and laboratory or studio meetings carry credit combining the above guidelines.

Dean's List

A Dean's list is prepared at the end of each semester listing the names of undergraduate degree-seeking students who earned at least 12 hours of graded credit in the fall or spring semester or 6 hours of graded credit during the summer session, with a semester grade point average of 3.50 or better.

NOTE: Courses taken or graded pass/not pass will not count toward the total semester hours required for eligibility.

Declaring or Changing a Major

To declare or change their major, prior to being admitted to a degree program, students are to report to the University Academic Advisement Center, University College Hall 109, then go to the appropriate departmental office to be assigned an advisor. Students who change majors after being admitted to their degree program will initiate that change at the departmental office of the new major.

Degree Program

A degree program consists of a major, a minor (required for non-comprehensive majors under the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees), and the applicable requirements associated with the degree (see the "General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements" section of this catalog).

Students must be admitted to a degree program before completing 60 credit hours or will be encumbered and not allowed to register. Each fall and spring semester, undergraduate students who have completed 60 or more credit hours and have not been admitted into a degree program are advised by letter to seek admission in consultation with their advisor. Without written permission by the dean of the student's college, a student cannot be admitted to a baccalaureate degree program until he/she has completed these General Education basic required courses: IDS 110/UHC 110, CIS/CSC 101 or CSC 111, COM 115, ENG 110, MTH 135 or higher, and PED 100.

Students who have declared a major will obtain an application form in the departmental office of their first major, and then arrange an appointment with their advisor to plan the remainder of their undergraduate studies. Students who are listed as undecided will first go to the University Academic Advisement Center, University College Hall 109, to declare a major and receive instructions on completing the process.

Diploma

The diploma is mailed to students approximately three weeks after the end of the semester of graduation. An encumbrance will prevent the release of a student's transcript and diploma. The name used is the name provided by the student on the Intent to Graduate card.

The diploma lists the degree earned, major(s), and the scholastic honors attained at the end of the semester of graduation. Options within majors and minors are not recorded on the diploma but are on the transcript. Students completing multiple majors in the same degree will only receive one diploma listing all majors.

Duplicate diplomas may be ordered by sending a written request and a check or money order in the amount of $10 payable to SMSU to the Degree Check Office, SMSU, 901 S. National, Springfield, MO 65804. The written request must include the graduate's name, social security number, date of graduation, mailing address, daytime phone number, signature, and exactly how the name is to be printed on the diploma.

Dual Enrollment

College. Current SMSU students who wish to take courses at other colleges or universities, either while enrolled at SMSU or between terms at SMSU, are encouraged to verify transferability of credit with the Office of Admissions prior to enrolling at the other institution. Transfer equivalencies for many Missouri colleges and universities are on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=transfer equivalencies).

High School. Highly qualified high school seniors may be admitted under the precollege enrollment program. See the "Admission" section of this catalog for details.

Encumbrances

An encumbrance may be placed on a student's record for a variety of reasons such as an unpaid bill or fine, failure to return books or equipment, failure to be admitted to a degree program within the specified time limit, and failure to complete a financial aid exit interview during semester of graduation.

All encumbrances will prevent a student from registering for upcoming semesters and most encumbrances will prevent the release of a student's transcript and diploma.

Contact the Records Office for further information regarding encumbrances.

Enrollment Status

Enrollment status may be reported to external agencies such as the Social Security Administration and Veterans Administration. For official reporting purposes, SMSU uses the following definitions:

Full-Time Status. Undergraduate students carrying 12 or more credit hours and graduate students carrying 9 or more credit hours in the fall or spring semester are considered full-time students. Undergraduate and graduate students carrying 6 or more credit hours during the summer session are considered full-time students.

Half-Time Status. Undergraduate students carrying 6-11 credit hours and graduate students carrying 5-8 credit hours during a fall or spring semester are considered half-time students. Undergraduate and graduate students carrying 3-5 credit hours during the summer session are considered half-time students.

Reduced Course Load Policy. The University complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. These laws mandate that the University provide academic accommodation for students with disabilities.

The purpose of the reduced course load policy is to allow for case-by-case consideration of requests that students with disabilities be considered full-time or half-time when taking a reduced course load due to their disability. Students must petition for this accommodation each academic year. Students obtaining approval under this policy will adhere to the current fee structure of the University, but will be considered full-time or half-time and entitled to all of the services, benefits, rights and privileges of their status. Students must be enrolled in a minimum of 6 credit hours to be approved for full-time status and 3 credit hours to be approved for half-time status.

Reduced course load requests, with supporting documentation, shall be submitted to the Director of Disability Services. Supporting documentation must include a diagnostic evaluation from an appropriate professional that permits evaluation of the current need for accommodation. The Director shall review potential consequences of reduced course load with the student, including slower progress toward graduation, changes in financial aid, and changes in University billing. The Director shall encourage the student to explore potential external consequences of a reduced course load, including changes in vocational rehabilitation funding and federally regulated financial aid.

The Director shall submit the student's request, with supporting documentation, to the Scholastic Standards and Revision of Records Committee for disposition. If the request is approved, the Records Office shall ensure that enrollment status is accurately noted on the student's record and accurately reported.

Final Examination Period

A two-hour final examination period is scheduled for each course during the last week of the fall and spring semester. This final examination period is used either for administration of final examinations or for other appropriate course terminating activities.

If students must reschedule final exams because of extenuating circumstances, they must obtain written approval of the academic dean of their major and then of the instructor of the course in advance of the scheduled exam time. Students who have not yet declared a major must first obtain written approval of the Dean of the University College and then the instructor of the course.

Grade Appeals and Academic Grievances

Grade Re-evaluation Based on Performance

A student may request that an assigned grade be changed in accordance with the following procedures. The change must be requested prior to the end of the first semester of enrollment (excluding summer) following the term in which the grade was assigned.

Student evaluations and assignments of final course grades are the responsibility of the faculty. The faculty member is accountable for any and all grades assigned to students; therefore, each faculty member shall maintain records to support student evaluations and grades.

Students who have reasons which can be substantiated to request grade changes must:

1. write a formal letter to the instructor (or to the appropriate department head if the instructor is no longer on campus) requesting a re-evaluation of their performance in the course; and
2. provide the following information in the letter: name and social security number; course number, title, and section; semester and year taken; name of instructor; and a clear statement of the grade change request and reasons which justify the request.

Faculty members, upon receipt of a student's request for a grade change, will review their records. If it is determined that a student's request is justified, the faculty member will prepare a Grade Change Authorization and submit it to the department head, who will forward it to the Records Office. If the grade change is in a course taken for graduate credit, the department head must also notify the Graduate College. A faculty member may not change an F grade to an N grade in those cases in which the student did not follow the proper procedures for dropping the course.

The student can appeal a negative decision of a faculty member. The steps in the appeal process are as follows:

1. present the appeal first to the faculty member's department head;
2. then to the college dean;
3. next to the Dean of the Graduate College, if the appeal is in a course taken for graduate credit;
4. then to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA), who may refer the appeal to his/her designee for a hearing and recommendation;
5. finally, to the President of the University.

At any step of the appeals process, any of the above individuals can authorize a grade change, and must notify the involved individuals of their action (i.e., the department head must notify the student and the faculty member of his/her decision; the college dean must notify the department head, faculty member, and student of his/her decision; the Graduate Dean, in the case of a graduate course, must notify the college dean, department head, faculty member, and student; the VPAA or designee is responsible for notifying the college dean, department head, faculty member, and student of his/her decision. If the request for grade change is appealed to the final step, the President will take action deemed appropriate and so inform the VPAA, college dean, department head, faculty member, and student. It is solely the student's responsibility to appeal in the order specified at each step of the process, and the student may halt the appeal at any step.

To appeal an attendance-related grade reduction, the appeal process that is part of the Attendance Policy must be followed. That appeal process can be found in the section describing the Attendance Policy.

Grade Re-evaluation Based On Exceptions to University Policy

In those cases in which the grade received by the student is the result of the University policy rather than a faculty member's evaluation of performance in a course (e.g., an F resulting from failure to remove an I grade in the time allowed or failure to officially drop a course), the student's written appeal should be directed to the Office of Academic Affairs. Such appeals will be considered by the Scholastic Standards and Revision of Records Committee, and the Committee will make its recommendation to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Requests for Grade Changes Made After an Extended Period - Appeals for changes in a student's academic records which are not made during the following semester must be submitted to the Office of Academic Affairs. Such appeals will also be considered by the Scholastic Standards and Revision of Records Committee.

Failure to Satisfy Academic Standards of University, College or Department

The University, colleges and departments have authority to set standards for admission of students to their programs or may deny enrollment for failure to satisfy academic standards or course/program prerequisites, even though no violation of disciplinary standards is involved. Except to the extent that cheating or plagiarism is involved, such standards are beyond the primary scope of this document. The University Undergraduate Catalog and/or Graduate Catalog and relevant advisement centers or deans' offices should be consulted for academic standards and for the process of requesting a waiver(s) or appeal(s) of a decision(s) involving those standards.

Financial Aid or Scholarships

For disputes related to the awarding or renewal of financial aid or scholarships, the student should consult the Financial Aid Handbook, the Financial Aid Office or the particular college or department under which the award is granted to ascertain the appropriate channel of inquiry. Also the student should obtain a copy of the scholarship eligibility criteria. Such disputes can be referred for appellate review only upon the recommendation of the Vice President for Student Affairs or the Vice President for Academic Affairs or their designee. Where the grounds for denial of a scholarship or financial aid involves academic dishonesty, the matter should follow the procedure described for "Academic Dishonesty by Student Enrolled in a Course."

Grade Point Average

Undergraduate and graduate grade point averages are maintained. A student's SMSU grade point average is based only on courses completed at SMSU. A combined grade point average, based on work completed at SMSU and in transfer, is also maintained by the Records Office. This combined grade point average is used in determining a student's academic standing and eligibility for graduation and scholastic honors at graduation. Refer to the sections on "Academic Status" and "Scholastic Honors" as well as the individual degree and program descriptions for more details on grade point average requirements.

Grade point average is calculated by dividing the total grade points earned by the total credit hours attempted. The semester grade point average is calculated by dividing the credit points earned for the semester by the credit hours attempted for the semester. See "Grading and the Credit Point System" and "Repeat Policy" sections for more details on grade point average calculation.

The grade point average of graduate and postbaccalaureate students is based only on graduate level courses (those numbered 500 and above). If a graduate student enrolls in undergraduate courses, grades earned in those courses will be included in the calculation of the undergraduate grade point average.

Grade Reports

Grade reports are provided to students on the web My Information system. A Personal Identification Number (PIN) is required which may be obtained from the ZipCard Office in Plaster Student Union 128 or in the Records Office in Carrington Hall room 202. Grade report are not mailed unless the student specifically requests one each semester prior to the deadline of the last day of the final exam period. Students may submit requests for an end of the semester final grade report to be printed and mailed to them on the web My Information system Grade Report option or by submitting a written request to the Records Office. Exceptions to this policy are that grade reports will be mailed to students who have a GPA below 2.00 at midterm or those who have any type of scholastic action or warning on the final grade report. In addition, grade reports will be mailed for those students enrolled in the Partners In Education (PIE) program.

The following grade reports are produced each semester and are available on the web My Information systems until the next grading cycle:

Intersession Grade Verification for all students enrolled in intersession courses. This report reflects the grades earned in such courses, but the student's cumulative totals, attempted hours, passed hours, grade point, and GPA are not updated until the end of the semester. Intersession grade reports are not mailed to students; However, students may obtain documentation of intersession grades if needed from the Records Office.

Mid-Semester Grade Report for all fall or spring undergraduate first-semester students, those on academic probation, and those enrolled in the Partners in Education (PIE) program.

Final Grade Report for all students, including those who withdrew after the semester began. This report reflects the final grades from all classes including intersession and has final cumulative totals and GPA.

Grading and the Credit Point System

Grades are awarded to indicate the quality of a student's work and are assigned as follows (point values per credit hour appear in parentheses):

- A (4) = Excellent work.
- B (3) = Superior work.
- C (2) = Satisfactory work.
- D (1) = Minimum passing work.
- F (0) = Failed—no credit.
- N (0) = No Penalty Drop—course dropped without academic penalty.
- P (0) = Pass—student passed the course under the pass/not pass system.
- NP (0) = Not Pass—student did not pass the course under the pass/not pass system.
- I (0) = Incomplete—assigned when due to unusual circumstances a small portion of a course, such as a term paper or final examination, has not been completed. (See “Incomplete Grade”.)
- V (0) = Visitor—student enrolled in and attended the course as an auditor.
- Z (0) = Deferred—grade to be given only to students enrolled in 600 or 700 level courses, restricted to graduate theses, graduate problem courses, or graduate seminars which might not be completed within a semester. If a Z grade is not removed within two calendar years, it will become an N.
- XF (0) = Failure due to academic dishonesty. (See “Academic Integrity”.)

Graduation

All students must inform the University of their intent to graduate before or early in the semester of graduation. Candidates for bachelors degrees may obtain an Intent to Graduate card at the Degree Check Office in Carrington Hall 304, any registration site, or at www.smsu.edu (keyword=intent to graduate).

Candidates for masters and specialists degrees may obtain an Application for Graduation card at the Graduate College Office in Carrington Hall 306 or at www.smsu.edu (keyword=graduate college). Information for graduating students is available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=commencement).

Incomplete Grade

In each instance where an Incomplete (I) grade is assigned, the instructor of the course shall, at the end of the semester in which the I grade is given, indicate on the Assignment of Incomplete Grade form what the student must do to complete the course and how the completed work would affect the final grade. The original copy must be filed with the appropriate department office, one copy must be given to the student, and one copy must be retained by the instructor.

If a student needs to repeat a course or a significant portion of a course, an N or F should be assigned according to regulations governing the assignments of such grades. An N grade cannot be assigned if the student has not officially dropped the course within the semester deadlines.

An I grade must be removed within one calendar year after it is received, or earlier as specified by the instructor, otherwise the I grade automatically becomes an F grade. An extension of the time limit to remove an I grade will be made only if a written request for such extension is submitted to the Records Office by the instructor. The student should make arrangements with the instructor or the department head for completion of the work. When the work is completed, the instructor will complete a Grade Change Authorization form in the department office and send it to the Records Office immediately. The grade may be changed from an I grade or from an F grade to the appropriate grade earned. The student will be sent a copy of the form with a corrected copy of their academic record indicating the adjusted grade point average. A copy of the form will also be returned to the department office indicating the change has been processed.

Graduating Seniors Only: Graduating seniors must remove I grades before the beginning of the final semester of enrollment unless an extension has been granted. I grades assigned in any semester immediately preceding graduation must be removed by May 1 for spring graduation, July 15 for summer graduation, and December 1 for fall graduation. I grades assigned during the semester of graduation must be removed prior to mid-semester of the following semester. Failure to meet this deadline will result in the official date of graduation being delayed to a later semester.

Instructor Drop

If a student does not attend by the second class meeting of a semester or summer session, and has not informed the departmental office of the intent to remain in the course, the instructor may institute proceedings to drop the student from the class. (This is generally done only when the space is needed for another student.) A faculty member may not institute drop proceedings after the first week of class. A student cannot drop a course merely by not attending classes. The student who is dropped by the instructor will be notified of such action by the Registration Center.

International Baccalaureate

SMSU recognizes the International Baccalaureate (IB) program and awards credit for many of the subjects offered. A copy of the current IB policy is available from the Office of Admissions and on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=credit by examination).

Mixed Credit

(See “Accelerated Masters Program” section).

Outcomes Assessment

The assessment program at SMSU is designed to assist in the development and maintenance of the highest quality programs and services. The information gathered in this process is used by University administrators, department heads, the faculty and staff to evaluate and improve both academic and non-academic offerings. Because the success of this program requires widespread cooperation from the entire university community, it is the policy of SMSU that all students are expected to participate in the assessment process. This participation may include, but not be limited to: the assessment and evaluation of basic skills, general education, programs in the majors and minors, continuing education, and surveys of the various components of the students' educational experiences.

The Center for Assessment and Instructional Support implements the University's assessment program and provides faculty with unique opportunities for enhancement of instruction and student learning.

Overload Permission

Permission must be obtained for hours taken over the maximum allowed as per the student's classification. Courses for which a student is enrolled on an audit basis are counted in hours for an overload.

Precollege Students:

Maximum: Two courses per fall or spring semesters. Maximum of six hours per summer.

Obtain overload permission from: If enrolled in the high school based (dual credit) Precollege Program, obtain permission from the Dean of College of Continuing Education and the Extended University. If enrolled in the campus based (dual enrollment), obtain permission from the Dean of University College.

Undergraduate Nondegree Seeking Students:

Maximum: Eight hours for fall or spring semester, or summer sessions.

Obtain overload permission from: Director of Evening College/Adult Student Services, College of Continuing Education and the Extended University.

Undergraduate Degree Seeking Students:

Maximum: Eighteen hours for fall or spring semesters. Maximum of 10 hours for summer sessions plus the following: Maximum of five hours in four-week session. Maximum of six hours in five-week session. Maximum of ten hours in eight-week session

Upon the recommendation of their advisors and the approval of their college deans, students who have a 3.00 or higher GPA for a semester in which a minimum of 15 hours is carried may request permission for an overload.

Obtain overload permission from: Dean of college of student's major up to 21 hours. If more than 21 hours, must also be approved by Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Postbaccalaureate Students:

Maximum: Sixteen hours (includes both undergraduate and graduate courses) for fall or spring semesters. Maximum of 10 hours (includes both undergraduate and graduate courses) per summer sessions. In addition, postbaccalaureate students (excluding those seeking teacher certification) may not enroll in more than nine hours of 500-600 level courses including completed, in-progress, and registered without permission from the Dean of the Graduate College.

Obtain overload permission from: Dean of the Graduate College if enrolled in any graduate course (500 level or higher). If enrolled in only undergraduate courses, obtain permission from the Director of Adult Services, College of Continuing Education and the Extended University.

Graduate Students:

Maximum: Sixteen hours for fall or spring semesters. Maximum of 10 hours per summer sessions.

Obtain overload permission from: Dean of the Graduate College

Intersession Courses (all students):

Maximum: Intersession courses are not counted in determining an overload for the fall semester, spring semester, or summer sessions. However, the maximum is two hours during the summer and fall Intersession. Student who elect to enroll in a three-hour course do not need special permission, but they cannot enroll in any other course offered during the same Intersession period. Maximum for the winter (January) Intersession is one hour.

Obtain overload permission from: Director of Intersession and Special Credit Programs, College of Continuing Education and the Extended University.

Pass/Not Pass Regulations

The pass/not pass option is intended to provide students an opportunity to pursue specialized or outside interests without penalty or reduction of grade point average. It allows students a greater degree of participation in those courses than the audit system permits.

Students earning grades of A,B,C, or D in courses for which they were enrolled on a pass/not pass basis are given a P; those failing will receive an NP. Pass and not pass grades are not used in calculating grade point averages. The Pass/Not Pass declaration period is printed in the semester class schedule and all requests must be processed in the Records Office, Carrington Hall 202.

CAUTION: Prerequisite requirements of other institutions may not be met with a course completed on a pass/not pass basis. A student shall have the option of having the earned grade in a pass/not pass course released upon request. The decision to take a course on a pass/not pass basis cannot be reversed.

Students may take courses on a pass/not pass basis under the following conditions:

1. Courses taken under the pass/not pass option cannot be used to satisfy general education, major, minor, professional education, or specific degree requirements.
2. Business students cannot use the pass/not pass option for courses in the business core requirements. Honors classes may not be taken on a pass/not pass basis.
3. Students will enroll for all courses on a regular graded basis. The student may choose to take a course on a pass/not pass basis during the pass/not pass declaration period. (See "Academic Calendar" for deadlines.)
4. A grade of C or better is required in certain courses in order to take a subsequent course.

Consequently, such courses may not be taken on a pass/not pass basis. Check the current class schedule to ensure compliance with pass/not pass regulations.

5. The pass/not pass option is not available to repeat courses including those in which the student has earned a D or F grade.
6. No more than 12 semester hours of pass/not pass credit may be applied toward any academic degree.
7. No more than one course of pass/not pass may be taken in any one semester.
8. No more than one course of pass/not pass from any one academic department may be counted toward graduation.
9. No more than eight hours of pass/not pass from any one college may be counted toward graduation.
10. Unless specifically allowed in the catalog for a particular course, the pass/not pass option is not available to graduate students for graduate-level courses (500 or above). Departments may elect to offer certain non-didactic graduate courses (e.g., readings, special problems, independent study, clinical internships, research and thesis) on a pass/not pass basis. Transfer credit for similar types of classes at other institutions may be accepted by the Graduate Dean for SMSU credit if recommended by the graduate coordinator of the appropriate program.

11. Courses which may be taken only on a pass/not pass basis are exempt from the limitations otherwise imposed upon students by pass/not pass regulations.

Prerequisites

The student is responsible for having the appropriate prerequisites prior to enrollment in a course. The current prerequisites are indicated with each course in the University Catalog and the semester class schedule. If any academic department determines that a student does not have the appropriate prerequisites for a course, registration for the course may be canceled either prior to or after classes begin. Any questions concerning the prerequisites should be answered by consulting the current catalog or by contacting the academic department offering the course.

Refund Policy

(See "Costs" section)

Registration

The University allows currently enrolled, admitted, and readmitted/reinstated students to register well in advance of the beginning of each semester. Details are provided in each semester class schedule. New students are informed of registration opportunities with admission materials. Mail registration is available to evening and graduate students through the Office of Continuing Education.

Students returning to SMSU who are in good academic standing and plan to return under the same classification, may register without applying for readmission.

The semester class schedule explains the registration procedure. A schedule will be given to each student during the orientation program. Schedules may also be obtained from the Records and Registration Offices. The semester class schedules are also published on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=semester schedule).

Any student indebted to the University is not permitted to register for any succeeding semester or summer term until the indebtedness has been paid.

Students are not permitted to attend classes unless they are officially enrolled in those classes. Students whose names do not appear on a class list should contact the Registration Center.

Students become officially enrolled for classes once one of the following conditions is met:

1. Required Student Fees have been paid in full; or,
2. eligible for the Deferred Fee Payment Plan and paid the $60.00 required minimum payment; or,
3. been awarded and accepted financial aid.

Once enrolled, students are required to withdraw from the University if they will not be able to attend. Failure to do so may result in failing grades and further financial obligations. (See "Withdrawal").

Repeat Policy

Undergraduate Students

Students may repeat D or F grades to improve their GPA under the following conditions.

1. Courses in which repetition is specifically prohibited or limited in the course description may not be repeated.
2. The first repetition of the course replaces the original D or F grade in all grade point average computations. NOTE: The original grade will remain listed on the academic transcript.
3. If the first repetition results in a D grade, a student may not repeat the course again without written permission from the head of the department in which the course is to be taken. If special permission to repeat is granted, this subsequent repetition will increase hours attempted and grade points earned only. This subsequent repetition does not remove the D grade from grade point average calculations. NOTE: If permission is not granted and the course is completed, it will be marked as an invalid repeat and removed from all grade point average computations.
4. If the first repetition results in an F grade, the student loses credit if the original grade was a D. No special permission to retake the course is required. This subsequent repetition does not remove the F grade from grade point average calculations.
5. A NP grade may be repeated. If the first repetition results in an F grade, no special permission is required to retake the course. This subsequent repetition does not remove the F grade from the grade point average calculations. If the first repetition results in a D grade, special permission is required to retake the course. This subsequent repetition does not remove the D grade from the grade point average calculations.

With advance permission of the head of the department in which the course is to be taken, a student may repeat a course in which a grade of C or better has been received. This repetition will increase only hours attempted and grade points earned and will not remove the original grade from grade point average calculations.

A student should be aware that the material covered in "One-Time-Only" and variable content courses may not be offered again or a particular class may be discontinued. In these cases the student may not have the opportunity to repeat the course if a grade of D or F has been received.

The repeat policy is applicable to transfer credit as well as credit earned at SMSU. For example, if a student earns a D in a course at SMSU and repeats that course at another institution, the D will be removed from the calculation of the SMSU GPA. The transfer grade, however, will be included only in the transfer and combined grade point averages. Transfer credit is evaluated and recorded only if students enroll at SMSU subsequent to completion of such credit.

Graduate Students

No graduate student may repeat a course for graduate credit except with the written permission of the advisor and approval of the Dean of the Graduate College. The grade from such a repetition, as well as the original grade, will appear on the student's transcript. The grade earned in the repetition will replace an original D or F grade in the computation of a student's grade point average.

Scholastic Honors

Special distinction is awarded to students who demonstrate high scholarship in completing a baccalaureate degree. Honors are conferred according to the requirements in effect at the time of admission into the University (or at time of readmission if the student was not enrolled for more than one calendar year).

SMSU credit hours and grade point average include courses taken at the West Plains Campus prior to fall 1995. Courses taken at the West Plains Campus fall 1995 and after are considered to be transfer credit.

Requirements to be met for students admitted to the University fall 1992 semester to present:

1. Completion of 60 credit hours at SMSU, and
2. an SMSU grade point average of 3.40 or better, and
3. a combined (SMSU and transfer) grade point average of 3.40 or better.

Honors will then be granted based on the lower grade point average of either SMSU or combined as indicated below.

GPA	SCHOLASTIC HONOR
3.40 - 3.74	Cum Laude
3.75 - 3.89	Magna Cum Laude
3.90 - 4.00	Summa Cum Laude

Students who meet the above criteria at the close of the semester immediately preceding their final semester of college work shall be honored at commencement ceremonies. The final eligibility of students for scholarship honors shall be determined on the basis of their credit hour totals and grade point average(s) at the end of the semester of graduation. Students who qualify for scholarship honors shall have those honors entered on their academic record and printed on their diploma.

Questions concerning eligibility for scholastic honors should be directed to the Degree Check Office, Carrington Hall 304, (417) 836-5520.

Refer to "Dean's List" section for further information regarding scholastic honors.

Semester Class Schedule

The semester class schedules contain information such as the listing of courses to be offered, fee and refund policies, deadline dates, instructions for registration and change of schedule, and the final exam schedule.

Schedules are available from the Registration Center, Carrington Hall 320, just prior to the start of registration (in mid-March for summer and fall and mid-October for spring). The schedules are also available on our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=semester schedule).

Senior Permission for Graduate Credit

Seniors and nondegree seeking students may take courses for graduate credit during the last two semesters of a four-year baccalaureate program upon approval of the Graduate College. Courses completed for graduate credit under Senior Permission cannot be applied toward the undergraduate degree. To qualify to take graduate courses under senior permission, students must have a grade point average of at least 3.00 on their last 60 hours of undergraduate course work. Under this policy, students may enroll in a maximum of nine semester hours of graduate credit during a semester, and a total of no more than 15 hours per semester (graduate and undergraduate combined). A student may not complete more than a total of 12 semester hours for graduate credit under Senior Permission. Students enrolled in a 500 level course for graduate credit may be required to complete additional work in the class to receive graduate credit.

Transcript Request

All transcript requests must be in writing (addressed to Records Office, SMSU, ATTN: Transcripts, 901 S. National, Springfield, MO 65804-0094) and must include the following before the request will be processed:

- (a) student's full legal name and any former names
- (b) student's social security number or student identification number
- (c) student's birth date
- (d) last semester of attendance at SMSU
- (e) student's current address including day phone number
- (f) address to which transcript is to be mailed
- (g) student's signature to authorize the release of the transcript
- (h) first and last semesters of attendance at the West Plains Campus of SMSU (if any)

There is no charge for reasonable and routine transcript requests. Students may also request transcripts in the Records Office, Carrington Hall, Room 202, by supplying all of the above information plus photo identification.

Transcripts will not be released if the student, or former student, owes the University more than $10 or has not completed a financial aid exit interview upon graduation.

A $17 fee will be charged for transcripts or other documents sent via express or overnight mail within the continental U.S. An additional amount may be required when sending items outside of the country.

Students may obtain a free academic summary for personal use upon presentation of ID card to the Records Office. This Student Academic Summary (SAS) must be requested in person and will not be mailed. A course order transcript is also available to students on the Web My Information system.

Transcripts that are provided directly to the student will be stamped "Issued to Student" and may or may not be accepted by other institutions and agencies.

Variable Content Courses

Several courses in this catalog are identified in their descriptions as "Variable Content Courses." Variable content courses include any courses, whether or not they can be repeated for additional credit, whose content may be substantially different from one semester to another. Not included in this category are special problems, special projects, readings, and research conducted on a tutorial basis with individual students. Unless otherwise stipulated in the course description, a variable content course may be taken only once for credit.

A student may apply no more than eight hours of variable content courses toward a bachelor's degree beyond the variable content coursework allowed in the major. For this purpose, variable content is defined as any course having in either its course title or its description any of the following terms: variable content, special topics, issues, mini problems, seminars, projects, independent study, or readings.

Withdrawal Procedures

Students who withdraw completely from the University (drop all courses) must submit a written request to withdraw to the Registration Center, Carrington Hall 320 or by FAX to (417) 836-8776.

The date the official withdrawal request form is submitted to the Registration Center (or the postmark date of withdrawal requests submitted by mail) shall be the date used in determining the refund of fees and the assignment of grades. Withdrawals are not allowed after the last day to drop or withdraw deadline. See the appropriate semester class schedule for specific dates.

Grades. Assignment of grades for withdrawing students are made on the basis of current grading policies detailed in the "Change of Schedule" section of this catalog. Deadlines are included in the semester class schedule. Withdrawals cannot be noted on academic transcripts until two weeks after the close of the semester.

Refunds. Refunds are credited to a student's account according to the policy indicated in the "Costs" section of this catalog. Refer to the current semester class schedule for deadline dates. Refunds will be issued by the Financial Services Office approximately four to six weeks following the withdrawal. Prior to issuing a refund check, that office will deduct any outstanding financial obligation to the University from the refund amount. Refunds will be mailed to the permanent address of the student on file at the time the refund is issued.

If a student withdraws from the University with outstanding financial obligations, the student's transcript will not be released and the student will not be permitted to enroll for a future semester until the obligation is satisfied. Questions concerning financial obligations should be referred to the Financial Services Office, Carrington Hall 113.

Financial Aid. Recipients of financial aid, scholarships, or short-term loans for payment of fees or expenses for the semester of withdrawal must be approved by the Financial Aid Office before they will be allowed to complete the withdrawal process. Such students may also be required to participate in an exit interview.

Residence Halls. Students living in University housing must terminate their housing contract and vacate their room or apartment within 24 hours of the date of the withdrawal. For information, contact the Office of Residence Life and Services in Hammons House.

Veterans. Recipients of veterans benefits must report withdrawals to the Office of Veterans Services, Carrington Hall 304.

Parking. Parking permits must be returned to the Parking Administration Office, 700 E. Elm, by students who wish to receive a refund of the parking permit fee. Full refunds are issued for withdrawals processed through the second week of the semester, 50 percent refunds are issued for withdrawals processed from the third through the ninth weeks of the semester, and no refunds are issued after the ninth week.

Meal Plans. Contact the Food Service Office, Hammons Hall 109, regarding their refund policy for meal plans which are independent of a housing contract.

ZipCard. Students who have a ZipCard Debit Account must complete a ZipCard Debit Account Withdrawal form which is available in the Registration Center and the ZipCard Office, Plaster Student Union room 128, 836-8409. This form will cancel the account and authorize a refund of the account balance.

Returning to the University. Students who wish to return do not need to apply for readmission. Instead, they may register with current students according to the guidelines in the class schedule for that semester.

Workshops and Special Courses

College courses taught in a shorter period of time than regular semester courses described in this catalog shall meet the same number of hours for both lecture and laboratories as required if offered on a semester or summer session basis. Laboratory sessions and activity-type courses which are primarily characterized by hands-on, experimental, and skill-building activities shall be in session 30 clock hours for each hour of credit. Workshop courses may vary, depending on the situation. Some workshops fall into the hands-on, activity-type category while others are structured primarily as lecture classes taught in a more intensive, abbreviated format.

Pre-Professional Programs of Study

The University provides prerequisite courses and degrees for students seeking entrance into professional schools. SMSU students are regularly admitted to leading schools in all professional areas. Because admission to most professional schools is highly competitive, students are urged to work closely with an academic advisor on the selection of courses and the sequence in which they are to be taken. Although there are general guidelines for each profession, students should contact the professional program(s) they intend to pursue for specific admission criteria.

Pre-Engineering. The Department of Mathematics and the Department of Physics, Astronomy and Materials Science share student advisement for all pre-engineering areas. Most students select a major in one of the two departments. Contact either department for details.

Pre-Health Professions. The University provides pre-professional education for a variety of health occupations. Some of these professional programs require the completion of a bachelor's degree while others encourage students to apply much earlier in their educational careers. Students may decide on any major area offered by the University, provided they complete the admission requirements for their chosen professional program. In those departments most heavily involved in providing the required academic background, special advisors have been trained for each of the various health areas. General information on health profession careers and academic preparation is provided by the University College Academic Advisement Center.

Pre-Law. Pre-law students draw on courses, facilities, and services from throughout the University, but primarily those in the Colleges of Humanities and Public Affairs, Arts and Letters, and Business Administration. Many professors have expertise in law-related subjects, teaching in areas such as political science, economics, history, philosophy, the sciences, and business administration, among others. The University College Advisement Center, departmental pre-law advisors, and Phi Alpha Delta Pre-Law Club sponsored by the Department of Political Science, can assist, direct, and inform students seeking admission to law school.

General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements

Catalog of Graduation

Students shall satisfy the general education and residence requirements in effect upon first enrollment as a degree seeking student at SMSU. Major and minor requirements and other special degree requirements in effect at the time the student is admitted to that program shall be satisfied. Candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree must meet all Missouri state teacher certification requirements in effect at the time the certificate is granted.

If a student re-enrolls after an absence of one calendar year or more from SMSU, requirements in effect at the time of readmission as a degree seeking student must be satisfied.

Transfer students from Missouri public colleges and universities may follow the general education and general baccalaureate degree requirements in effect at SMSU when they first enrolled (or re-enrolled after an absence of one calendar year or more) as degree seeking students at the institutions from which they transferred. The general education catalog year for these students will be established at the point of admission on the basis of this policy. Students who elect instead to follow the general education and general baccalaureate degree requirements in effect during their first semester at SMSU may do so by notifying the Degree Check Office.

Credits and Grade Point Average

All candidates for any baccalaureate degree must meet the following credits and grade point average requirements:

1. completed a total of at least 125 semester hours of credit;
2. complete 40 hours in upper division work (upper division courses are numbered 300 or above);
3. at least a 2.00 GPA on all work attempted at SMSU;
4. at least a 2.00 GPA on all college work (SMSU and transfer combined);
5. at least a 2.00 GPA on all SMSU and transfer courses used to meet the general education requirements;
6. at least a 2.00 GPA on all work attempted at SMSU which is required in the major and all other courses bearing the prefix of the major*;
7. at least a 2.00 grade point average on all work attempted at SMSU which is required in the minor and all other courses bearing the prefix of the minor*.

Candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are also required to meet the following additional grade point average requirements. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

1. at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended;
2. at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study);
3. at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area;
4. at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses;
5. no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses.

Candidates for the Bachelor of Social Work Degree are also required to have at least a 2.50 GPA on all work attempted at SMSU.

Candidates for majors in the College of Business Administration are also required to have at least a 2.50 GPA for all upper division College of Business Administration courses attempted at SMSU.

Candidates for African American Studies and Gender Studies minors are also required to have at least a 2.50 GPA in all courses taken at SMSU and counted toward the minor.

Excluding those courses which are designated by the departments as not counting toward the major and/or minor.*

Residence

A candidate for a degree who transfers credit from another college must meet the following residence requirements:

1. Complete a minimum of at least 30 hours of courses administered by the Springfield Campus;
2. Complete at least 12 hours of upper division credit in the major in courses administered by the Springfield Campus;
3. Complete at least 6 hours of upper or lower division credit in the minor in courses administered by the Springfield Campus;
4. Complete at least 20 out of the last 30 hours in courses administered by the Springfield Campus. Students who have completed at least 90 hours in courses administered by the Springfield Campus, may petition the department head of their major to take less than 20 out of the last 30 hours on the Springfield Campus. If this petition is granted, written approval from the department head must be forwarded to the Degree Check Office prior to the semester of graduation.

Exceptions to 20 out of the last 30 hours requirement are made for the following: a) Medical Technology majors when the last year is completed at an approved school of Medical Technology, b) Radiography majors when the last two years are completed at an approved school of Radiologic Technology, c) Animal Science major when the last two years are completed at the University of Missouri School of Veterinary Medicine and, d) Biology, Cell and Molecular Biology, and Chemistry majors where the last two years are completed at the Kirskville College of Osteopathic Medicine; and e) students who participate in an SMSU study away or exchange program approved by the University College, and f) students in the West Plains Campus completion degree programs.

Time Limit

Credit for courses completed in the major more than eight years before the student's date of graduation may be disallowed by the major department.

Teacher Certification

A Bachelor of Science in Education degree may be granted without a teaching certificate if the graduate does not present evidence of good moral character as determined by the Professional Education Committee.

Constitution Study

No student may graduate without complying with the state law known as Senate Bill No. 4, 1947 (Mo. Rev. St. Sec. 170.011), which provides that students must be "given regular courses of instruction in the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Missouri, and in American history including the study of American institutions."

Students may meet this requirement by completing the American Studies requirements under general education at SMSU.

Transfer students who have had a course in American government (PLS 101) that did not include a study of the Missouri constitution must enroll in PLS 103.

Non-Traditional Credits

Not more than 25 percent of the credits required for a degree may be non-traditional. Non-traditional credits include those awarded for: correspondence courses, credit by examination (including CLEP, advanced placement, institutional examinations, DANTES, etc.), service schools, physical education for more than one year of active military duty, and non-collegiate courses. Not more than 10 hours of credit in correspondence or other non-traditional work may be earned in any one year. No student may carry more than two correspondence courses at one time. Correspondence work may not be carried in any institution in addition to a normal program in residence. Approval of non-traditional work to be applied on a degree program is not automatic.

To apply correspondence credit in educational methods courses on a Bachelor of Science in Education degree, a student enrolled at SMSU must have written permission from the Dean of the College of Education. Credits obtained through completing correspondence courses can be applied toward graduation only on the condition that such credits are presented to the Office of Admissions at least 30 days prior to the date of commencement.

Second Undergraduate Degree

General Education Requirements. Candidate must satisfy all General Education requirements in effect upon first enrollment at SMSU or re-enrollment after an absence of one calendar year, with the following exception: Students whose first baccalaureate degree was from SMSU or another regionally accredited college or university will be considered to have met all General Education requirements.

Major/Minor Requirements. Candidate must satisfy all requirements for a major that is in a different field of study from the major in the first degree. If the major in the second degree requires a minor, that minor may not be in the same field of study as the major or minor in the first degree.

Specific Degree Requirements and General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements. Candidate must satisfy all specific degree requirements and all general baccalaureate degree requirements.

Multiple Use of Courses

Courses may be counted toward meeting the requirements in more than one area (major and minor, two majors, major and general education requirements, etc.) unless specifically prohibited by the academic departments and so stated in the catalog.

General Education Assessment Exam

All students admitted into a degree program during the fall 1993 semester and beyond shall complete a nationally normed test designed to assess general education and educational preparedness. The general education assessment exam may be taken during the student's junior or senior year, and must be taken prior to graduation.

Information regarding this assessment exam may be obtained from the Center for Assessment and Instructional Support or from our web site at www.smsu.edu (keyword=assessment and exit exam).

Appeals for Exceptions

Students who wish to appeal for exceptions to the general baccalaureate degree requirements as stated above should submit an appeal to the Office of Academic Affairs, Carrington Hall 209. Such appeals will be considered by the Degrees Committee.

Appeals for exceptions to major or minor requirements should be made to the department head of the major or minor.

Appeals for exceptions to the general education policies and/or requirements as stated below should be made to the Associate Dean of the University College for General Education, University College Hall 212. Students who are unsatisfied with the Associate Dean's decision may appeal to the Office of Academic Affairs. Such appeals will be considered by the Degrees Committee.

General Education

The General Education program of the University is administered by the Associate Dean of the University College for General Education.

The Aims and Goals of General Education

The Aim of General Education

The aim of General Education at Southwest Missouri State University is to develop people capable of making thoughtful choices that lead to creative and productive lives and to responsible participation in society.

Goals for Learning in General Education

General Education is that portion of the curriculum in which the University directly addresses the knowledge, skills, habits, and dispositions of educated persons. General Education at SMSU provides for learning that educated persons will use throughout their lives in their many roles and communities. To prepare students for a lifetime of important choices, General Education has at least the following goals for learning:

Part One: Intellectual Abilities and Dispositions

Improving our ability to make important choices involves attention to the intellectual skills, habits, and dispositions which help to guide such choices. General Education has as a goal of student learning the development of the following:

- A. Conceptual and Practical Understanding of Modes of Learning, Problem-Solving, and Creative Inquiry
- B. Information-Gathering, Reasoning, and Synthesizing Abilities
 - 1. Skill in formulating questions and in setting goals for inquiry
 - 2. Knowing how and when to make generalizations and value judgements
 - 3. Skill in generating and evaluating observations and evidence
 - 4. Skill in making deductive inferences
 - 5. Ability to use relevant quantitative methods
- C. Reflective, Creative, and Critical Dispositions
 - 1. Striving to be well-informed and open-minded
 - 2. Looking for multiple possibilities and being able to deal with ambiguity
 - 3. Striving to achieve one's best with persistence and imagination
 - 4. Willingness to make choices and to evaluate those choices
 - 5. Intellectual self-awareness: being conscious of one's own thinking process, including the cultural and social contexts of that thinking
- D. Communication Skills
 - 1. Writing and speaking with clarity and precision for diverse audiences
 - 2. Making use of computers and other technological tools
 - 3. Interpreting and communicating visual information

Part Two: Knowledge and Understanding

Developing educated people requires intensive study in many areas of inquiry as well as interdisciplinary explorations. The process involves different modes of scholarly discourse and methods of inquiry that have evolved in various fields of study. General Education provides students with an opportunity to perceive ways of linking the various areas of inquiry; in this way they can make creative and responsible connections not only among all of their general education courses but also among major, minor, and elective courses as well as with co-curricular educational opportunities in the larger university community. The categories listed below should not be regarded as separate from one another but as interdependent areas of knowledge and understanding.

A. Understanding of the Natural World

Study of the natural world provides an understanding of important principles and methodologies for making choices. Such study includes the following:

1. Knowledge of the physical universe, including its origin and the physical laws governing it
2. Knowledge of living systems, including their nature, organization, and evolution
3. Understanding the history and methods of scientific inquiry and alternative explanations of the natural world
4. Understanding the multiple influences on scientific inquiry and the consequences of science and technology
5. Understanding the ways human choices affect the earth and living systems and the responsibilities of individual citizens and communities to preserve global resources

B. Understanding of Culture and Society

Informed choices require knowledge of what people have done and imagined, currently as well as historically. Choices are also tempered by knowledge of the social and cultural settings in which they are made or were made in the past. This learning includes the following:

1. Knowledge of the many expressions of culture, including
 - understanding of the unique shared ways of thinking, believing, and acting, developed by a people who live together over a long period of time
 - ability to conceptualize and trace the influences of community, institutions, and other constructions such as class, gender, and race
 - familiarity with the ways in which culture is expressed artistically, through literature, performance, and artifact
 - awareness of and appreciation for the ways in which culture and society influence and are influenced by work and leisure
2. Understanding the sources and expression of diverse values throughout the world, including ethical, religious, aesthetic, political, and economic values as well as social and cultural priorities
3. Ability to trace the impact of technology on societies and cultures for diverse audiences
4. Understanding the ways human choices affect communities, from local to global, and responsibilities of individuals to assume the duties of citizenship
5. Understanding the role of governmental regulation and of legal requirements, political processes, and financial and economic influences on decisions of individuals and society

C. Self-Understanding

To make informed choices, one must understand the natural and the social context in which one lives and must heed the ancient injunction to “know thyself.” That self-understanding depends on the following:

1. Understanding the nature of our humanness and how human beings are like and different from the other beings with whom they share the planet
2. Knowledge of individual physical, emotional, intellectual, social and creative development as well as ability to use such knowledge to improve personal well-being
3. Knowledge of individual physical, emotional, intellectual, social, historical, spatial, and cultural matrices into which the individual is born; and the influence of the unique set of experiences which the individual encounters

4. Ability to perceive one's own being not only from cognitive perspectives but also from those perspectives which come from exposure to and creative vision of the arts—to imagine the possibilities the future holds and to develop responsible goals for interactions with others, modes of personal expression, and roles in improving the world

General Education Program Components

Every course in the program will promote a common set of General Education objectives. The major components are Basic Required Courses, Areas of Inquiry, and Public Affairs.

All students are required to have a 2.00 cumulative grade point average (transfer and SMSU combined) in their General Education courses in order to graduate from SMSU.

General Education courses may not be taken on a pass/not pass basis.

Without written permission by the dean of the student's college, a student cannot be admitted to a baccalaureate degree program until he/she has completed these General Education Basic Required Courses: IDS 110/UHC 110, CIS/CSC 101 or CSC 111, COM 115, ENG 110, MTH 135 or higher, and PED 100.

A student must apply for admission to a baccalaureate degree program no later than the semester following completion of 60 semester hours.

Many majors and degrees require specific general education courses. Students should review specific major and/or degree requirements before enrolling in general education courses.

A. Basic Required Courses (11-20 hours) Hours

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 1. Introduction to University Life: IDS 110 (required of all entering students with less than 24 credit hours) or UHC 110 (required for Honors College students) | 0-1 |
| 2. Computers for Learning: CIS/CSC 101 or CSC 111 * | 0-3 |
| 3. Public Speaking: COM 115 | 3 |
| 4. Writing I: ENG 110  | 0-3 |
| 5. Writing II: ACC 360, AGR 320, ART 370, COM 337, ENG 210, ENG 221, GLG 358, HST 310, JRN 371, NUR 472, PED 310, PLS 310, or REL 310 | 3 |
| 6. Mathematics: A MTH course numbered 135 or higher | 3-5 |
| 7. Health and Well-Being: PED 100 | 2 |

* Students may take a test to determine if they already possess the computer-related knowledge and skills comprising the Computers for Learning requirement. Those who pass this test will be excused from, but will not receive credit for, the Computers for Learning requirement. See the Department of Computer Information Systems or the Department of Computer Science for information.

 Based on the results of their English placement test, students will be placed in remedial, Writing I, or Writing II levels. Students who place at the Writing II level may be excused from, but will not receive credit for, the Writing I requirement. Bachelor of Science in Education candidates must complete six hours of composition to meet state certification requirements.

 Students who transfer to SMSU from accredited colleges with at least two hours of credit in health and well-being coursework may have completed the Health and Well-Being component upon approval from the Department Head of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Students who successfully complete Basic Training in any of the United States Military branches after December 31, 1997, will be exempt from the PED 100 General Education Requirement. Credit for Military Basic Training must be granted by the Office of Admissions.

B. Areas of Inquiry (23-25 hours)

1. Natural World 8-10
Select courses from two of the following four areas. At least one of the selected courses must include the equivalent of at least one credit of laboratory work (indicated with *).

Astronomy or Physics

- AST 114(4) Survey of Astronomy
- * AST 115(4) Basic Astronomy
- * PHY 100(4) Survey of Physics with Laboratory
- * PHY 101(4) Physics by Inquiry for Educators
- PHY 102(4) Physics and Technology
- * PHY 123(4) Introduction to Physics I
- * PHY 203(5) Foundations of Physics I

Biology or Biomedical Sciences

- * BIO 100(4) Biological Science for Educators
- * BIO 102(4) Principles of Biological Science
- * BIO 121(4) General Biology I
- BMS 100(4) Concepts and Issues in the Life Sciences
- * BMS 105(4) Concepts and Laboratory in the Life Sciences
- * BMS 110(5) Concepts in the Biomedical Sciences

Chemistry

- * CHM 105(5) Fundamentals of Chemistry
- CHM 106(4) Fundamentals of Chemistry
- * CHM 107(4) Chemistry for the Citizen
- CHM 160(4) General Chemistry I

Geography or Geology

- * GLG 110(4) Physical Geology
- * GLG 115(4) Life of the Past
- GLG 171(4) Environmental Geology
- * GRY 135(4) Atmospheric Science
- * GRY 142(4) Introductory Physical Geography

2. Culture and Society 6

NOTE: Under the Culture and Society and Self-Understanding Areas of Inquiry, students must select one course from each of the five perspective areas with at least four different course codes (three-letter course prefixes).

Humanities Perspective (3 hours)

Select one of the following courses:

- AAS 100(3) Introduction to African American Studies
- ART 271(3) History of Western Art I

Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science Individualized Major

An individualized major is offered on the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. The individualized major is intended for any student with a clear sense of direction, motivation and strong concept of an educational program that will best serve individual needs. This major shall be described individually, specifying the area(s) of emphasis.

For specific degree requirements for an Individualized Major consult the University College section of this catalog.

Bachelor of Science in Education Degree Requirements

The Bachelor of Science in Education degree provides a training program for teachers. The holder of this degree is normally granted a certificate to teach in Missouri. Refer to the College of Education section of this catalog for Teacher Education Program requirements as well as the areas of teacher certification.

The candidate for this degree must meet the following requirements:

	Hours
A. General education requirements	43-54
B. Specific general education requirements for certification (see department of major)
C. Major requirements (see department of major)
D. Additional course credit to bring total to at least	125-142
Most programs leading to teacher certification require more than the 125 University minimum for graduation. It is the student's responsibility to meet all degree requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education as specified by the department of the major.
E. All general baccalaureate degree requirements listed at the beginning of this section of the catalog.

The Bachelor of Science in Education degree is available with these majors. Minors are available, although this degree does not require a minor.

Personalized Minor (Any Degree)

A student whose educational objectives cannot be best served by existing minors within a department may design a personalized minor suited to individual needs. The student, after completing a minimum of 30 hours, must petition in writing the department head of the area in which the minor is to be taken. This petition is prepared in consultation with the student's advisor and the minoring department; it includes a list of the proposed courses to be taken with a detailed statement of justification. The department head may accept or reject the petition. When the proposal is agreed upon by both the student and the department head, a personalized program is written and forwarded to the Degree Check Office, Carrington Hall room 304.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSE LISTINGS

Courses are identified according to the following example:

Course Prefix	Course Number	Former Number	Course Title	Credit Hours	Lecture Hours	Lab/Clinical Hours	Course Periodicity
ACC	504	404	Advanced Accounting	3	(3-	0)	F,S.

Former number represents the number or prefix previously used to identify the course. Most courses do not have a former number.

Lecture hours represents the number of hours per week (based on a 15 week semester) the course will meet in a lecture environment. For courses which are lecture only, the lecture hours will equal credit hours.

Lab hours represent the number of hours per week (based on a 15 week semester) the course will meet in a laboratory environment. Two laboratory hours are required for one credit hour. For example, a four credit hour course with three hours of lecture will have two hours of laboratory.

Clinical hours represent the number of hours per week (based on a 15 week semester) the course will meet in clinical experiences outside the classroom and may not be listed in the lab hours area and/or in the course description. Normally clinical hours will require 3 hours per hour credit.

Course periodicity indicates the schedule on which the course will typically be offered: F=Fall; S=Spring; and Su=Summer. (Many courses with an "F,S" designation are also offered during the summer.) An "E" indicates that the course will be offered in even years and a "O" indicates odd years. A "D" indicates that the course will be offered upon sufficient demand. The individual departments determine when courses will be offered and can provide more details on course periodicity. Check semester class schedules available in the Records Office or the Registration Center for details on semester course offerings.

Following each course listing is a course description. The first item included in the course description is the prerequisite statement for those courses which have prerequisites. Prerequisites are listed to inform the students what they must have in advance to ensure success in the course. Some prerequisites are checked by the department offering the course and students may be dropped from classes for which they do not meet the prerequisites. Students should register only for courses for which they meet the prerequisites.

Many courses are listed with the prerequisite of "permission" or "and permission." Unless otherwise stated, permission is to be granted by the department head. The student should go to the departmental office to secure a permission to enroll form before registering for the course.

Course descriptions may also contain specific instructions or limitations. Students should review those carefully.

THE FOLLOWING COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM IS CURRENTLY IN EFFECT:

Number	Definition
0-99	Background/Developmental
100-199	Lower division courses designed primarily for, but not limited to, freshmen
200-299	Lower division courses designed primarily for, but not limited to, sophomores
300-399	Upper division courses designed primarily for, but not limited to, juniors
400-499	Upper division courses designed primarily for, but not limited to, seniors
500-599	Upper division courses designed primarily for seniors, postbaccalaureate, and graduate students. (Graduate credit is awarded to postbaccalaureate and graduate students, and to seniors and nondegree seeking students who have received Senior Permission for Graduate Credit. Preapproved accelerated masters program courses may receive both undergraduate and graduate credit. Because graduate credit is awarded, such students may be required to complete additional work in these 500 level courses.)
600-799	Graduate courses open only to graduate, postbaccalaureate, and undergraduate students who have received Senior Permission for Graduate credit or admitted to an accelerated masters program.
800-899	Graduate courses open only to those admitted into the educational leadership doctoral program.

General Education Courses and Restrictions

ART 271, 272, or 274 may be used toward the Humanities Perspective of the Culture and Society Area of Inquiry. ART 200 may be used toward the Humanities Perspective of the Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry. ART 209 may be used toward the Creativity and Vision Perspective of the Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry. At most, two of these courses may count toward General Education requirements. ART 370 may be used to satisfy the Writing II requirement of the Basic Required Courses in General Education.

Candidates for a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with a major in the Art and Design Department may not use ART 200, 209, 271, 272, or 274 toward their General Education requirements.

Candidates for a Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a comprehensive major in Art and Design are required to take ART 271 or 274 and may count this course toward their General Education requirements.

Candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a non-comprehensive major in Art and Design are required to take ART 274 and may count this course toward their General Education requirements.

Fine Arts Courses

ART 200 and any art history course may be used to meet the fine arts requirement for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Majors

General Admission Requirements for all Majors

All majors in the Department of Art and Design must satisfy the following requirements before they can be admitted to the program:

1. Complete the 12 hours of Foundations courses.
2. Complete any additional requirements for selected major. (See specific major for listing of additional requirements.)
3. Submit application for admission into degree program and receive approval from faculty advisor and Head of the Department of Art and Design.

Foundations Courses (12 hours)

ART 100	Two-Dimensional Design
ART 101	Three-Dimensional Design
ART 115	Drawing I
ART 215	Drawing II

Waiver of ART 100 Requirement. If an entering freshman feels that his/her art background is strong enough to permit a waiver of ART 100, Two Dimensional Design, application should be made to the Departmental Head. A portfolio will then be submitted, a written examination will be administered, and an interview will be conducted by a faculty committee of three.

The waiver examination and an interview is given at 1:00 p.m. on the first day of class each semester. Application forms must be secured from the Art and Design Office prior to the examination date. At that time the student is given further information about the waiver.

Art

Bachelor of Fine Arts

Specific Admission Requirements

In addition to completing Foundations courses students must pass the Candidacy Review for BFA in ART. A selection of work from Foundation and Studio Core areas is to be submitted to a committee of the art studio faculty for review during the first semester of the student's junior year. Student records will be encumbered at sixty hours if the student has not yet filed a degree program. It is the student's responsibility to apply for the review which is held during the fall and spring semesters. ART 499, Senior Exhibition, may not be taken unless the Candidacy Review has been completed.

Transfer students with more than sixty hours completed must apply for candidacy during their first semester at SMSU.

Art and Design (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades K-12)

Specific Admission Requirements

In addition to completing Foundations courses students must have a combined GPA (SMSU and transfer combined) of at least 2.50, GPA in Art and Design of 2.50, “C” or higher in ART 360. Application for admission to the degree program may be made after completion of thirty hours and must be made before sixty hours have been completed or student records will be encumbered. In addition to completing the specific Art and Design requirements, students must also fulfill all the admission requirements as listed under the Teacher Education Program of the College of Education section of this catalog.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
Specific General Education Requirement: ART 271 or 274
- B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)
- C. Major Requirements
 - 1. Foundations Courses (12 hours): ART 100, 101, 115, 215
 - 2. Art History (9 hours): ART 272, 273, and 480 or 484
 - 3. Studio Art (27 hours):
 - a. ART 212, 225, 235, 242 or 243, 253, 255
 - b. 3 courses from: ART 210, 312, 315, 323, 325, 335, 342, DES 300 or one course from ART 354, 355, 356
 - 4. Art Education (12 hours): ART 360, 366, 460, 466
- D. Professional Education courses: ART 401 and see College of Education/Secondary Education section
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a “C” in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Art and Design (Non-Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades 9-12)

Specific Admission Requirements

In addition to completing Foundations courses students must have a combined GPA (SMSU and transfer combined) of at least 2.50, GPA in Art and Design of 2.50, “C” or higher in ART 360. Application for admission to the degree program may be made after completion of thirty hours and must be made before sixty hours have been completed or student records will be encumbered. In addition to completing the specific Art and Design requirements, students must also fulfill all the admission requirements as listed under the Teacher Education Program of the College of Education section of this catalog.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog) Specific General Education Requirement: ART 274
- B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)
- C. Major Requirements
 - 1. Foundations Courses (12 hours): ART 100, 101, 115, 215
 - 2. Art History (6 hours): ART 271, 272, or 484
 - 3. Studio Art (24 hours): ART 210, 212, 225, 235, 242 or 243, 253, 255 or DES 300
 - 4. Art Education (9 hours): ART 360, 460, 466
 - 5. Art and Design Electives (9 hours): additional courses in studio, design or art history, chosen with approval of advisor, to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 60.
- D. Professional Education courses: ART 401 and see College of Education/Secondary Education section
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a “C” in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Design

Bachelor of Fine Arts

Specific Admission Requirements

In addition to completing Foundations courses students must have a GPA of 2.50 or higher in the major and an SMSU cumulative GPA of at least 2.50 to pass the Advisory Review administered by the Design Program Coordinator in the spring of the freshman year for provisional admission to the program.

In the spring of the sophomore year students must apply for Candidacy Review. A committee of Design faculty will administer this review. A student must submit a portfolio consisting of 12-20 pieces selected from Foundations and Design Core courses including: ART 115 or 215, ART 202, DES 202, 210, 301, 303 and may include additional work chosen with faculty advisement. Students must choose an option at this time: Graphic Design, Illustration, or a Dual emphasis. This is a competitive program—if students are not accepted into the program they may consider repeating courses and/or doing additional work and reapplying for admission the following spring, but acceptance is not guaranteed. Students must have a GPA of 3.00 or higher in the major and an SMSU cumulative GPA of at least 2.50 to be admitted to candidacy.

Transfer students choosing the BFA in Design must apply for admission to the program. The application with portfolio (slides acceptable) and transcript must be made to the Design Program Coordinator in the spring semester for admission to the program in the fall. (Students are not encouraged to apply for spring admission.) The Design Program Coordinator in consultation with the Design faculty will review the application with portfolio and transcript. Students must receive permission from the Design Coordinator before enrolling in any Design course. To be admitted to the Design Program transfer students must have a GPA of 2.50 or higher in the major if transferring 12 hours or less in the major, or a GPA of 3.00 or higher in the major if transferring more than 12 hours in the major. All transfer students must have a combined (SMSU and transfer) GPA of at least 2.50 to be admitted to the program.

Design Internships (DES 499) for credit may be arranged through the Office of Cooperative Education, and may be used to fulfill art or design electives by design majors. Permission to take an internship for credit must be obtained before the work is done. For more information on how to enroll in DES 499 contact the Design Program Coordinator.

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. Foundations Courses (12 hours): ART 100, 101, 115, 215
2. Design Core (15 hours): ART 202, DES 202, 210, 301, 303
3. Art History (15 hours): ART 271, 272, 377, 480 or 484, and 3 hours from ART 273 or 274.
4. Studio Art (12 hours): ART 225, 235, 255, 315
5. Professional Design Practicum (3 hours): DES 490
6. Complete 18 hours in either Graphic Design or Illustration.
 - a. Graphic Design (18 hours)
 1. DES 330, 331, 332, 430
 2. 6 hours art or design electives
 - b. Illustration (18 hours):
 1. DES 250, 350, 452
 2. 6 hours chosen with advisement from one of the following areas: Photography ART 354, 355, 356, 357, 358; Drawing and Painting ART 315, 316, 325, 326; Printmaking ART 242, 243, 342, 343; Digital Imaging ART 310, 410; Computer Animation ART 230, 330, 430; Design DES 330, 331, 332, 430, 497, 499
 3. 3 hours art or design elective

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Electronic Arts (Non-Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

Admission Requirements

1. Complete the following three Electronic Arts core classes with a GPA of 3.00 or higher: ART 110(3) or 100(3); MED 365(3); MUS 216(3)
2. Initial Portfolio Review:

Audio: Portfolio review will include materials from MUS 216 and MED 365, plus any other appropriate work.

Video/Computer Animation: Portfolio review will include materials from ART 110, ART 230 and MED 365, plus any other appropriate work.

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements (37 hours)

1. Core Courses: ART 110(3) or 100(3), 300(3); MUS 216(3); MED 290(3), 365(3); ART/MED 498(4)

2. Choose one of the following options (18 hours):

- a. Audio: MED 382(3), 561(3); MUS 512(3); select 9 hours from the following courses with advisor approval: COM 332(3); MED 495(1-6); MUS100(2), 111(2), 137(1), 529(3); TEC 142(3), TEC 143(4), 243(4), THE 558(3)
- b. Video/Computer Animation: ART 230(3); MED 465(3); select 12 hours from the following courses with advisor approval: ART 330(3), 430(3), 431(3); COM 332(3); MED 490(3), 562(3), 565(3), 583(3), THE 255(3); ART 407(1-3) or MED 495(1-6)

C. Minor Required

D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements

(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minors

Art

Bachelor of Arts

- A. ART 100, 101, 115
- B. Additional 9 hours art and/or design electives should be chosen with advisement to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 18.

Art

Bachelor of Science

- A. ART 100, 101, 115
- B. Additional 12 hours art and/or design electives should be chosen with advisement to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 21.

Art

Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades K-9)

- A. ART 100, 101, 115, 212, 225, 235, 253, 271 or 272, and 366
- B. One course from the following: ART 242, 243, 255 or DES 300
- C. PSY 331
- D. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, all candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree must have at least a 2.50 GPA (SMSU and transfer grades combined) in the certificate subject area which includes all courses required for the minor.

Art History

Bachelor of Arts

- A. ART 270, 271 or 272, and 273 or 274
- B. Additional 12 hours art and/or design electives should be chosen with advisement to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 19.

Art History

Bachelor of Fine Arts

- A. ART 270, 271 or 272, and 273 or 274
- B. Additional 12 hours art and/or design electives should be chosen with advisement to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 19.

Art History

Bachelor of Science

- A. ART 270, 271 or 272, and 273 or 274
- B. Additional 15 hours art and/or design electives should be chosen with advisement to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 22.

Art History

Bachelor of Science in Education (Non-certifiable)

- A. ART 270, 271, 272, 273 and 274
- B. Additional 9 hours art and/or design electives should be chosen with advisement to bring the total number of hours in Art and Design to no fewer than 22.

Design

Bachelor of Science

- A. ART 100, 101, 115, 202, 255, DES 300
- B. ART 210 or DES 210

Graduate Program

The Master of Science in Education degree (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in art. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Art Courses

ART 98 Topics in Art and Design. 1-2, D.

A variable content course consisting of lectures and/or studio projects. May not be used to fulfill a major requirement in the Art and Design Department. Students should consult the registration schedule of classes to determine the specific topic offered. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 100 Two-Dimensional Design. 3(0-6) F,S.

Elements and principles of two-dimensional design. Experience with a variety of media and subject matter.

ART 101 Three-Dimensional Design. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100. Elements and principles of three dimensional design. Experience with a variety of media and subject matter.

ART 110 Two-Dimensional Design for Digital Media. 3(0-6) S.
Elements and principles of two-dimensional design. Computers will be used extensively in this class. This course will not count toward the BA in Art or Design, BFA in Art or Design, or the BS Ed in Art and Design.

ART 115 Drawing I. 3(0-6) F,S.

Basic elements and principles of drawing. A problematic approach to the process of seeing and drawing—through an applied investigation of natural and man-made forms.

ART 200 Art in Context. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course introduces the visual arts in the context of history and culture. It involves analysis of art works and introduces terminology and concepts necessary for understanding art within various cultural matrices. Does not count toward BA or BSED in Art and Design or BFA in Art or Design.

ART 202 Intermediate Design. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100 and ART 101 and ART 115. A presentation in greater depth of major theories of art and design with emphasis on color theory and systems. Structured studio design problems applying and investigating such theories.

ART 209 Introduction to the Visual Arts. 3(0-6) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. This course will incorporate studio experiences, lecture and discussion in the exploration of the fundamental elements within the visual arts. Will not count for degree requirements towards a BA or BSED in Art & Design or BFA in Art or Design.

ART 210 Introduction to Digital Imaging. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100 or ART 110; and CIS 101 or CSC 101 or CSC 111. Understanding of the principles, methods, techniques and vocabulary of the most widely used digital imaging processes with an emphasis on visual problem solving.

ART 212 Ceramics I. 3(0-6) F,S.

An introduction to handbuilding, wheel and firing processes, including raku. Fundamentals of ceramic materials, equipment, and preparation of clay and glazes.

ART 215 Drawing II. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 115. Continuation of drawing fundamentals in greater depth and exploration of additional media.

ART 223 Metals-Jewelry I. 3(0-6), F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 101. Introduction to non-ferrous metal fabrication processes including piercing, soldering and finishing. Fundamentals of tools, materials, and jewelry concepts.

ART 225 Painting I. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100 and ART 115 and ART 215. Basic investigation of materials, techniques, and visual concepts important to the process of painting. Emphasis on understanding visual elements through work which includes study from the still-life and model.

ART 226 Watercolor for the Non-Art Major. 3(0-6) F,S.

To acquaint the student with the essential characteristics of the materials used in watercolor painting and to familiarize the student with the techniques used in applying transparent pigment to various prepared surfaces. This course will not fulfill the requirements for a major or a minor in art.

ART 230 Computer Animation I. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100 or ART 110; and CIS 101 or CSC 101 or CSC 111. Exploration of visual expression through the use of sequential images. Experience with a wide range of digital processes.

ART 235 Sculpture I. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 101. Development of fundamental and personal concepts concerning subject matter as related to sculpture. Experience with a wide range of media and techniques.

ART 242 Printmaking I. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100 and ART 115 and ART 215. Beginning problems in printmaking.

ART 243 Relief Print. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 215. An exploration of the relief processes through the mediums of linocut and woodcut.

ART 253 Fibers. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 100. Introduction to two and three-dimensional fiber techniques and structures. Emphasis will be placed on using a variety of techniques in the execution of assigned problems. Experimental use of materials will be encouraged. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 255 Photography I. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 100. Basic course in black and white photography. Includes camera controls and darkroom work. Photography as visual expression.

ART 270 Writing in Art History. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. Must be taken currently with ART 271 or 272 or 273 or 274. A composition class designed to provide training and experience in writing within the discipline of Art History.

ART 271 (371) History of Western Art I. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. A survey of Western art and the cultures that produced it from Prehistory through the Gothic period.

ART 272 (372) History of Western Art II. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. A survey of Western art and the cultures that produced it from the Gothic Period to the Second World War.

ART 273 (383) Survey of the Art of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. A survey of the art and architecture produced by the cultures of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas.

ART 274 (384) History of East Asian Art. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. A survey of the art objects and the cultures which produced them including those of India, China, and Japan.

ART 300 Fundamentals of Collaboration in Electronic Arts. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of the instructor. Exploration of aesthetic and communication issues involved in producing work in interdisciplinary electronic media.

ART 306 Interrelated and Integrated Arts. 3(1-4) D.

Prerequisite: ELE 302. Theory, methodology, and activities for teaching the arts to children, from early childhood through Grade 6. A creative experiential approach, emphasizing how the four primary art forms (drama, movement, music, and art) relate to and enhance one another and facilitate the child's learning in other content areas. Students who receive credit for this course will not receive credit for THE 306, DAN 306, or MUS 306.

ART 310 Digital Imaging. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: ART 115 and ART 210. This course will focus on using the computer as a creative tool. Emphasis will be placed on inter-media applications of digital processes. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 312 Ceramics II. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 101 and ART 212. Problems of greater complexity involving handbuilt and thrown forms and surface enhancement. Greater exploration of materials and processes including basic glaze chemistry and firing operations.

ART 313 Ceramics III. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 312. Advanced problems associated with clay form and surface treatment. Evidence of expanded individuality and sensitivity expected. Greater studio and firing responsibilities. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 314 Special Topics in Ceramics. 3(0-6) D.

Prerequisite: ART 212. Specialized studies in ceramics to include subjects in such areas as raku, salt firing, kiln building, glaze formulations, handbuilding, etc. Subject of course to be selected by the instructor. May be repeated to a total of 12 hours when course content changes. Variable Content Course.

ART 315 Drawing III. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 215. Problems of greater visual and conceptual complexity. More emphasis given to development of individual qualities. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 316 Life Drawing. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 215. Drawing the human figure with emphasis on anatomy, structure, and form. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 323 Jewelry and Metalsmithing. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 223. Further exploration of metal fabrication processes. Introduction to jewelry scale casting and to silversmithing techniques. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 324 Jewelry, Metals and Enameling. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 223. Advanced problems in metals. Includes enameling and other metals techniques. Emphasis on individual problem solving. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 325 Painting II. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 225. Problems of greater visual and conceptual complexity. More emphasis given to development of individual qualities. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 326 Painting with Water-Based Media. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 225. A course which introduces and explores one or more water-based media such as watercolor, gouache, casein and acrylic. Media emphasis to be determined by the instructor. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 330 Computer Animation II. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: ART 230. Further exploration of visual expression in animation. Advanced techniques in the manipulating of forms and surfaces within the digital environment.

ART 335 Sculpture II. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 235. Individual problems and concepts in organizing mass and space utilizing a range of techniques and media, including metal casting and welding, carving, plastics, and fibers. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 336 Figure Modeling. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 100 and ART 101 and ART 215. Modeling the human figure with emphasis on anatomy, structure and form by exploring the usage of clay, wax or plaster. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 342 Printmaking II. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 242. Advanced problems in printmaking. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 343 Lithography. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 242. Exploration of stone lithography as an expressive means toward creating hand pulled prints. May be repeated for a total of 9 hours.

ART 354 Medium Format Photography. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 255. An investigation of technical and aesthetic issues of medium format photography. Emphasis on the development of expressive photographic images. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 355 Large Format Photography. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 255. An investigation of technical and aesthetic issues of large format photography. Emphasis on the development of expressive photographic images. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 356 Color Photography. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 255. An investigation of technical and aesthetic issues of color photography. Emphasis on the development of expressive photographic images. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 357 Special Topics in Photography. 3(0-6) D.

Prerequisite: ART 355 or ART 356. Alternative photographic processes to broaden the photographic experience. Subject of course to be selected by the instructor. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours when course content changes. Variable Content Course.

ART 358 Studio Photography. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 354. An investigation of technical and aesthetic issues of studio photography with special emphasis on the portrait and the still-life. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 360 Introduction to Art Education. 3(2-3) S.

Prerequisite: ART 100 and ART 101 and ART 215. Introduction to the field of art education and the role of visual arts in education; survey of issues, theories, and trends; review of content, materials, and approaches through discussion, research, studio experiences, critical writing, observation of classes, and analysis of models for teaching art in elementary and secondary schools.

ART 365 Art for the Elementary Teacher. 3(2-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 360. Study of sequential stages in the artistic development of children and appropriate objectives, procedures, activities, and resources for teaching visual art to elementary students and integrating it into the school curriculum. Lecture, discussion, and studio. Designed for elementary classroom teachers. Credited only for B.S. in Education.

ART 366 Elementary Art Education. 3(2-3) F.

Prerequisite: ART 360. Overview of artistic growth of children; survey of philosophies, issues, methods, materials, resources, processes, and strategies for teaching art and integrating it into the school curriculum; unit and lesson planning, assessment, and evaluation. Lecture, discussion, studio, and classroom observations. Credited only for B.S. in Education.

ART 370 Writing II: Writing for the Visual Arts. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110 and completion of 30 hours. Students are encouraged to be concurrently enrolled in an art history course. A composition course designed to provide training and experience in writing within the disciplines of the visual arts.

ART 377 History of Graphic and Applied Design. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ART 271 or ART 272 or ART 274. An historical and critical examination of design from its beginnings to the present with emphasis on communication design in the industrial and post-industrial periods. This course will not fill an Art History elective for the BFA in Art.

ART 378 Women and Art. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 271 or ART 272. The course examines women's roles and contributions in the history of art and culture. The course can count toward the Gender Studies minor.

ART 381 (481) The Art of the United States of America. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 272. The art of the United States from its pre-Revolutionary days to the present.

ART 382 A Survey of Islamic Art. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ENG 110. A survey of the art produced in the lands under the influence of the Islamic religion.

ART 385 Art of the Americas. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 273. A survey of the art and architecture of North America, Mesoamerica, Central America, and South America and the cultures that produced it.

ART 386 Art of Africa. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 273. A survey of the art and architecture of Africa and the cultures that produced it.

ART 387 (482) History of Photography. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 272. The development and history of photography as an artistic medium.

ART 390 Research Methods in Art History. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 270. The student will be involved with the systematic processes of observation, description, contextual development, analysis and argumentation upon which art historical research is based.

ART 399 Individual Instruction. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: senior or post-baccalaureate standing; 12 sequential hours in same studio area and permission of instructor. Independent work on special projects approved by studio advisor. Repeatable to a total of 6 hours in any studio area.

ART 401 (SEC) Teaching of Art. 3(2-3) S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300, 301; and ART 366. Artistic and aesthetic growth of adolescents; survey of philosophies, issues, methods, materials, resources, processes, and strategies for teaching art in secondary schools; observation; unit and lesson planning; microteaching. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

ART 407 Art Internship. 1-3(0-6) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Student will complete actual job assignments while working for outside organizations under the supervision of an art faculty member. Graded Pass/Not Pass only. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 410 Special Topics in Digital Imaging. 3(0-6) D.

Prerequisite: ART 310. Advanced problems involving digital imaging. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours. Variable Content Course.

ART 430 Computer Animation III. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 330 and permission of the instructor. Priority will be given to those students who have successfully completed the Computer Animation Emphasis Candidacy Review for the BFA in Art or the BS in Electronic Arts. Individual problems in animation and advanced techniques. Emphasis will be placed on the development of a personal, narrative point of view. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

ART 431 (411) Professional Practices in Computer Animation. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 430. Lecture, discussion and assignments for students seeking professional careers in computer animation. Presentation skills will be emphasized. Students will be required to write and perform research.

ART 455 Advanced Photography Seminar. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: 12 hours in emphasis and permission of the instructor. Pursuit of advanced photographic projects. Emphasis on development of personal vision. A study of historical and contemporary critical issues in photography. Must be taken at least once with Art 499. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

The approach and the assignments will employ theoretical and critical as well as historical thinking.

ART 485 Art of Mesoamerica. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 273. The art and architecture of Mesoamerica and the cultures that produced it.

ART 492 Art History Methodology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 390 and 15 hours of art history. This is a critical study of the various methodologies used in the discipline of art history. This is a capstone course intended to prepare students planning to pursue advanced study in art history.

ART 494 (396) Independent Study in Art History. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ART 271 and ART 272; and ART 273 or ART 274; and/or permission of instructor. Individual projects and special problems in Art History. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 495 Internship in Art History. 1-3(0-6) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Students will complete various duties as assigned with a variety of art history-related organizations. These areas include local museums, galleries, and/or visual resource-media collections. Graded Pass/Not Pass only. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 496 (397) Special Topics in Art History. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. The specific topics will change from term to term depending upon the interest of students and professors, e.g. German Expressionism, History of Photography, The School of Paris, Cubism and its Progeny, Pre-Columbian Art in North America. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

ART 497(319) Special Topics in Art and Design. 3(0-6) D.

Prerequisite: ART 100 and ART 101 and permission of instructor. Advanced problems involving the application of art and design fundamentals in either two or three dimensional projects will be explored. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours when course content changes. Variable Content Course.

ART 498 Senior Project in Electronic Arts. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Admission to this course is contingent upon successful completion of the Electronic Arts Junior Portfolio review. Under advisement from faculty, students will form production teams consisting of video production, computer animation, and audio production students. Each team will produce a broadcast-quality audio or video project which may assume various forms, such as a music video, a computer animation, or a short dramatic video. This course must be repeated in sequence for a total of four hours. The first two hours will be spent in pre-production preparations for the approved senior project. The second two hours will involve production and post-production of the approved project. If a student drops ART 498 during the second semester, she/he will have to join a new senior project team and repeat the first semester (pre-production phase) for a replacement grade before completing the final two hours of the course.

ART 499 Senior Exhibition. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: senior standing and completion of B.F.A. Candidacy Review and studio advisor's approval. Must be taken concurrently with upper division course in area of emphasis. Presentation of work from area where the majority of art course work has been taken. This work must evidence the attainment of a level of conceptual and technical maturity judged by a committee of the art studio faculty to meet qualitative standards required for the granting of the B.F.A. degree in art. May not be taken pass/not pass.

ART 590 Art Studio Workshops. 2-3 F,S.

Focused study in specific studio area, emphasis on upgrading skills and extending understanding of aesthetic and visual qualities. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours. Variable Content Course.

ART 598 Seminar in Art Education. 1-3 Su.

In-depth study of specific topics and/or interaction with leaders in the fields of aesthetics, art criticism, art history, art making, and art education. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

ART 600 Historical Perspectives in Art Education. 3(3-0) F.

A history of ideas in art education and the individuals who have made significant contributions to the field; overview of beliefs, values, and practices and the role of art and art education in society.

ART 660 Contemporary Issues and Current Trends in Art Education. 3(3-0) S.

ART 699 Independent Study. 3(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: portfolio review of work in selected studio area. Independent work in one studio area, directed and critiqued by studio advisor. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

Design Courses

DES 202(302) Graphic Design Systems. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: SMSU GPA of at least 2.50 and a GPA of 2.50 or higher in the major and ART 100 and ART 101 and ART 215. Abstract and theoretical applications of design systems including grid information, various symmetries, and printed page formats.

DES 210 Introduction to Computer Graphic Design. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: SMSU GPA of at least 2.50 and a GPA of 2.50 or higher in the major and ART 100 and ART 101 and ART 215; and either CIS 101 or CSC 101 or CSC 111. An introduction to methods of image creation and visual communication via available computer graphic software packages. Emphasis will be placed on the use of the computer as a production tool for graphic designers.

DES 250 Materials and Techniques for Illustration. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: SMSU GPA of at least 2.50 and a GPA of 3.00 or higher in the major; and ART 100 and ART 101 and ART 215 and admitted to BFA Design Illustration or Dual Emphasis degree program. A study of methods and materials used in traditional illustration.

DES 300 Graphics for the Non-Design Major. 3(0-6) F,S. Prerequisite: ART 100. An investigation of how basic design principles relate to graphic communication as well as the study of processes used in preparing designs for reproduction. The student will apply this knowledge in a number of assigned design problems. This course will not apply toward the B.F.A. in design degree.

DES 301 Graphic Production. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: C or better in both DES 202 and DES 210 and concurrent enrollment in either ART 202 or ART 255. The study of materials and mechanical processes required for single, multiple, and four-color print production.

DES 303(201) Basic Typography. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: C or better in both DES 202 and DES 210 and concurrent enrollment in either ART 202 or ART 255. Introduction to basic typographic forms and their use in visual communication. The application of design principles to the setting of type. Visual experiments with typographic elements.

DES 330 Communication Design/Methodology. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: C or better in both DES 301 and DES 303 and admitted to BFA Design Graphic Design or Dual Emphasis degree program. Investigation of the design process and its methodology through different forms of visual communication. Development of students' ability to present visually different ideas or information.

DES 331 Advanced Typography. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: C or better in both DES 301 and DES 303 and admitted to BFA Design Graphic Design or Dual Emphasis degree program. Application of typography in different fields of visual communication and publication design. Exploration of the relationship between meaning, content, and typographic layout.

DES 332 Image Design. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: either ART 315 or ART 225 (or concurrent enrollment in ART 315 or ART 225) and C or better in both DES 330 and DES 331. Production of graphic images in relation to written information and/or specific subjects, ideas or messages.

DES 350 Illustration. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: ART 315 (or concurrent enrollment in ART 315) and C or better in DES 250 and admitted to BFA Design Illustration or Dual Emphasis degree program. The study of various approaches and techniques of illustration for print and publication, including an introduction to digital illustration.

DES 430 Advanced Graphics. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 377; and either ART 315 or ART 225 (or concurrent enrollment in ART 315 or ART 225) and C or better in DES 332. The completion of advanced projects in graphic communication, including corporate and product identity, public service and editorial design.

DES 452 Intermediate Illustration. 3(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: ART 377 and ART 225 (or concurrent enrollment in ART 225) and C or better in DES 350. The study of illustration as a communicative tool. Students will be assigned problems using various media.

DES 490 Professional Design Practicum. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: C or better in either DES 430 or DES 452. A design workshop for the development and production of materials for portfolio. Preparation of a Final Project containing design work for a non-profit organization or a selected design issue, a written thesis related to it and public presentation of this project.

DES 497 Special Topics in Design. 3(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: SMSU GPA of at least 2.50 and a GPA of 3.00 or higher in the major and admitted to Art or Design degree program and permission of the instructor. The specific topics will change from term to term depending upon the interest of students and professors, e.g. Scientific Illustration, Comic Book Illustration, Art Direction, Book Arts, History of the Book, Letterpress Printing. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours. Variable Content Course.

DES 499 (407) Design Internship. 1-3 (0-6) D.

Prerequisite: SMSU cumulative GPA of at least 2.50 and a GPA of 3.00 or higher in the major and admitted to Design degree program and permission of Design Program Coordinator. Student will complete actual job assignments for outside organizations under the supervision of a design faculty member. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

General Education Courses

COM 115 is required of all students in order to satisfy the Public Speaking requirement of the Basic Required Courses in General Education. COM 337 may be used to satisfy the Writing II requirement of the Basic Required Courses in General Education.

Majors

Admission Requirements

All majors in the Department of Communication (except for those seeking the B.S. in Education degree) must satisfy the following requirements before they can be admitted to the program.

1. Complete a minimum of 59 credit hours.
2. Complete the general education requirements in Writing I, mathematics and public speaking.
3. Have a combined grade point average (SMSU and transfer) of 2.50 or higher or have a GPA of 2.75 for the last 30 hours of courses completed before applying for admission to the degree program.
4. Complete the departmental core courses and COM 115 with a GPA of 2.50 or higher.
5. Complete any additional admission requirements for selected emphasis or major.
6. Submit application for admission and receive approval by faculty advisor and Head of the Department of Communication.

A student must meet these requirements by the time he/she has completed 90 hours of courses (SMSU and transfer) to be admitted to the program. No waiver of these requirements will be granted except that transfer students transferring 90 hours or more will be allowed one semester to complete the departmental core courses after transferring to SMSU.

All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Minors

Communications

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

- A. COM 115(3), 209(3)
- B. 9 hours of elective courses chosen with approval of department head or delegate (6 hours of which must be chosen from courses numbered 300 or higher) to bring total hours in minor to at least 15 hours.

Graduate Program

The Master of Arts degree offers a major in Communications. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Communication Courses

Nonmajors who do not meet a course's prerequisite may request permission to enroll from the instructor.

COM 115 Fundamentals of Public Speaking. 3(3-0) F.S.

Instruction and practice in researching, composing, and delivering formal and informal speeches in a variety of public contexts. Representative topics include: ethics in public speaking; listening; library research; outlining; delivery; writing in an oral style; evaluation of public address; and analyzing and adapting to audiences. The course emphasizes informative and persuasive speaking.

COM 120 College Debate. 2(0-4) F.S.

Open to students of freshman or sophomore standing showing exceptional promise in public speaking.

COM 205 Interpersonal Communication Theory and Skills. 3(3-0) F.S.

Theory and practice in the principles and skills of interpersonal communication within a variety of contexts. Representative topics include: perception; self-concept development; verbal and nonverbal communication; effective listening techniques; conflict resolution; and sensitivity to cultural and gender differences.

COM 209 Survey of Communication Theory. 3(2-1) F.S.

A survey of selected theoretical approaches to understanding mediated and non-mediated human communication.

COM 305 Service Learning in Communication. 1 F.S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a communication course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in communication to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

COM 307 Gender and Communication. 3(3-0) D.

This course examines theory and research on gender and communication. Its purpose is to help students explore how gender and communication are interrelated, how these concepts intertwine with other aspects of our identities, and how these factors play out in their own lives.

COM 309 (409) Principles of Public Relations. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. Study of the development, planning, and implementation of communication programs and campaigns. Emphasis on the professional practices and ethical standards important to effective communication within organizations, and between organizations and their publics.

COM 315 Public Speaking II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: COM 115. Study and practice in speech research, composition and presentation. Emphasis is placed on speeches for business and the professions.

COM 320 Inter-Collegiate Debating I. 2(0-4) F.

Open only to those chosen to debate as University representatives.

COM 321 Inter-Collegiate Debating II. 2(0-4) S.

Open only to those chosen to debate as University representatives.

COM 322 Introduction to Argumentation. 3(3-0) F,S. Prerequisite: COM 115. Fundamental theories of argument. This course will meet the secondary teaching certification requirements for a minimum of 2 semester hours in debate.

COM 325 Nonverbal Communication. 3(3-0) D.

This course examines the methods of research in nonverbal communication, the types or subcodes of nonverbal behaviors, and the application of nonverbal behaviors in social situations.

COM 326 Effective Listening. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. The purpose of this course is to prepare the student to understand listening attitudes and behavior and to build a program for improvement in listening skills through application of listening theory to practical situations.

COM 328 Persuasion. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. Modern theories of persuasion with some evaluation of specific case studies.

COM 331 Employment Interviewing. 1(1-0) D.

Students will examine the employment interviewing process as an instance of applied persuasion from the perspective of the job applicant. Topics include: anticipating employer questions, types of commonly asked questions, asking questions during the close, nonverbal elements of persuasive interviewing, the structure of the selection interview, creating positive first impressions, and writing thank you letters after the interview.

COM 332 Small Group Communication. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. Basic theory and techniques of oral interaction in group activities.

COM 336 Communication in Organizations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. Analysis of communication processes as they occur within organizations. Students study both the effects of the organizational context on communication as well as the role of communication in shaping organizational life and effectiveness.

COM 337 Writing II: Organizational Symbolism. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ENG 110 and 45 hours. Students will examine the production of meaning in organizations through the use of symbols. Students will learn how to locate, examine, and interpret the symbols to be found within and across organizational settings. The course is writing intensive, culminating in a significant written organizational analysis. Students will learn and practice the scholarly discourse in the discipline of Communication.

COM 350 The Rhetorical Tradition and Contemporary Applications. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. A survey of rhetorical theory from the classical period until present. The relevance of the rhetorical tradition to contemporary communication theory and practice is stressed.

COM 360 Introduction to Intercultural Communication. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. This course investigates the nature of communication between people from different cultures and nations.

COM 379 (JRN) Writing for Public Relations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: JRN 270. Study and preparation of copy for press releases, news letters, brochures, annual reports, and other written public relations communications.

COM 390 Communication and Aging. 3(3-0) D.

Communication theories as they apply to the aging process. Examination of the effects of communication on the self-esteem, self-perception, well-being, and quality of life of the elderly. Study of communication between the elderly, the elderly and the young, and the elderly and their caregivers in a variety of contexts, including in one-on-one, family, and mediated situations.

MED 490 Multimedia Interactivity Design. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: MED 290 and MED 365. An advanced investigation of interactive multimedia design based upon known human-computer interaction principles. Interactivity design is analyzed on many levels: interface layout, input control, messaging behavior, metaphor selection, etc. This course includes the creation of a group CD-ROM project incorporating interactive objects as design elements.

MED 492 Independent Study in Electronic Media. 2-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120 and permission of instructor. Supervised independent study exploring selected areas determined by the student in consultation with the media faculty. Readings controlled by conferences, progress reports and term papers. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with permission of the department.

MED 495 Media Internship Practicum. 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120 and 6 hours of MED courses and 60 hours and MED major and permission of instructor. Work experience with a professional media organization. The student will be provided an educational opportunity not available through class-work experience. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with permission of the department.

MED 498 Senior Project in Electronic Arts. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: ART 300. Admission to this course is contingent upon the successful completion of the Electronic Arts junior portfolio review. Under advisement from faculty, media students will form production teams consisting of video production, computer animation, and audio production students. Each team will produce a broadcast-quality audio or video project which may assume various forms, such as a music video, a computer animation piece, or a short dramatic video. The first two hours will be spent in pre-production preparations for the approved senior project. The second two hours will involve production and post-production of the approved project. This course must be repeated in sequence for a total of four hours. If a student drops out of the second semester of MED 498, the student will have to join a new senior project group and repeat the first semester (preproduction phase) for a replacement grade before completing the final two hours of the course.

MED 510 Media Resources for Organizations. 3(3-0) D.

This course is designed to provide students with opportunity to explore the interface of profit and non-profit organizations with television, radio, newspapers and the internet to enhance organizational effectiveness. The course is project based focusing on developing specific media resources to meet strategic organizational communication goals.

MED 561 Audio for Media. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: MED 382 or permission of instructor. Advanced audio production techniques applicable to radio, television, and film production. Emphasis will be placed on production projects as well as on the technical and aesthetic aspects of advanced audio production. Topic areas include acoustics, hearing multitrack recording, microphone placement techniques, signal processing and digital audio technology.

MED 562 Electronic Field Production. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: MED 465 or permission of instructor. Planning, designing and executing single camera video production in non-studio settings. Emphasis will be placed on narrative projects which require advanced application of media design concepts including cinematography, non-linear editing, directing, producing, and sound design.

MED 565 Scriptwriting. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MED 365 or permission of instructor. The many phases of documentary and feature film scriptwriting will be investigated in detail. Premise proposals, treatments, sequence outlines and the final stage, the master scene script will all be studied. Characterization, dialogue and narration, plot structure and many other scriptwriting elements will also be studied. A segment of a final master scene script will be produced along with the preliminary scriptwriting steps.

MED 570 Film Studies: Film Form, Theory and History. 3(3-0) D.

An analysis of the visual art of film in terms of cineliteracy, by using contemporary film theory to investigate such aspects as the relationship between form and content, visual style and the nature of pictorial motion. Weekly screenings and discussions of short films, excerpts, complete classics and outside assignments of current first-run films.

MED 580 Media in Politics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. An in-depth examination of the role of print and electronic media in American politics. Emphasis is placed on media coverage of government, social issues, and political campaigns. The course examines both the strategies of paid media and the media's coverage of politics as news.

MED 581 Issues in Media Ethics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120. An investigation of fundamental ethical issues and their implications for media practitioners. Responsibilities of media practitioners to the public, advertising agencies, the government, and special interest groups will be examined. Special attention will be paid to the possibility of conflict between the business of media and general ethical considerations.

MED 583 Directing for Television. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: MED 383 or permission of instructor. Principles, skills, and techniques involved in effective television directing. Practical experience in directing a variety of television forms.

MED 597 Studies in Media Theory and Practice. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: COM 115 and COM 209 and MED 120; or permission of instructor. In-depth examination of a special topic in media. May vary from semester to semester and with the permission of the department, may be repeated to a total of 12 hours. Variable Content Course.

The following course is open only to graduate students.

MED 604 Theory and Research in Mass Communication. 3(3-0) S.

Survey of theories, models and research in mass communication. Topics include propaganda, attitude change, agenda-setting and media effects research.

Diagnostic Essay

Freshmen are required to write an impromptu timed essay during summer orientation (or before the beginning of the semester). Students who score three or below (on the City University of New York evaluation scale) must enroll in ENG 100; students who score four or above must enroll in ENG 110. This diagnostic essay should not be confused with entrance examinations or similar diagnostic essays written at other colleges or universities.

Exemption for ENG 110. Students must write a level-six placement essay and submit a portfolio of expository writing that meets Department of English criteria for exemption.

AP Credit for ENG 110. Students with a score of four or above on the AP English Language and Composition Examination may receive credit for ENG 110. Students who score a three on the AP Language and Composition Examination may petition for credit by submitting a portfolio of expository writing to the Department of English.

General Education Courses and Restrictions

ENG 110 will satisfy the Writing I requirement for general education. ENG 210 or ENG 221 will satisfy the Writing II requirement for general education. ENG 210 and 221 both require ENG 110 or equivalent and 30 credit hours as prerequisites. ENG 310 and ENG 321 will be offered in the Fall 2001 semester as Writing II courses for those students who have prior credit for Writing I. (See the Diagnostic Essay section for placement information).

The following courses may be used toward the Areas of Inquiry component of general education: ENG 200, Culture and Society Area of Inquiry-Humanities Perspective; ENG 296, Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry-Social/Behavioral Perspective; ENG 287 or 380, Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry-Humanities Perspective; and ENG 203, 205, or 215, Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry-Creativity and Vision Perspective. At most, two of these courses will count toward general education.

English majors and minors may use, at most, two of these courses toward general education if the courses are not also being used to meet the major requirements, minor requirements, or fine arts requirement on the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree must complete six hours of composition to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements. BSED students who receive an exemption for ENG 110 must complete one of the following courses in addition to the Writing II course: ENG 203(3), 215(3), 220(3), or 321(3).

Fine Arts Courses. Any literature courses except ENG 334 and 338 may be used to meet the fine arts requirement on the Bachelor of Arts degree. English majors or minors may not use the same literature courses to satisfy both the major or minor requirements and the fine arts requirement.

Majors

Students who take both a writing major (or minor) and an English major (or minor) may not count courses on both.

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN AND CLASSICAL LANGUAGES

376 Craig Hall, Phone: 836-5122, FAX: 836-7626
Email: MCL@smsu.edu

Department Head: Associate Professor Julie A. Johnson, Ph.D.

Professors: Roger Dowdy, Ph.D.; Larry L. George, Ph.D.; Joseph J. Hughes, Ph.D.; Curtis P. Lawrence, Ph.D.; Robert L. Norton, Ph.D.; Lyle R. Polly, Ph.D.

Associate Professors: Edwin Carawan, Ph.D.; Carol Anne Costabile-Heming, Ph.D.; Mary Harges, Ph.D.; Madeleine Kernan, Ph.D.; David Lee, Ph.D.; Pauline Nugent, Ph.D.; Arthur L. Spisak, Ph.D.

Assistant Professors: Nilsa Lasso-von Lang, Ph.D.; Judith Martin, Ph.D.

Instructor: Amy Thiessen, M.A.

Lecturers: Nelson Martinez, M.A.; Maria Santiago-Padin, M.A.

Emeritus Professors: Robert J. Berndt, Ph.D.; William Holman, Ph.D.; Gisela F. Kopp, Ph.D.; James R. Woodward, M.A.

The department offers work in Chinese, French, German, Ancient Greek, Biblical Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, and Spanish designed to give students the fundamentals of each language and to introduce them to the culture and literature of the people whose language is being studied. Intensive Spanish programs in Mexico and Spain and an intensive French program in Quebec are offered during the summer. Russian courses may be offered as resources permit.

A well-equipped foreign language laboratory offers opportunities for practice in comprehension and speaking. The Dr. Anna Lou Blair Language Media Room offers satellite feed and computer interconnections abroad. Laboratory practice is required of all students in modern language courses 101, 102 and 201.

Students who have studied a foreign language before entering this university should consult the Modern and Classical Languages Department before scheduling for courses.

General Education Courses. LLT 121 may be used to satisfy the Culture and Society Area of Inquiry-Humanities Perspective. LLT 180 may be used to satisfy the Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry-Humanities Perspective.

The Bachelor of Arts degree requires 12 hours in one language selected from courses within the Department of Modern and Classical Languages numbered 101 through 205, and 320 or above. The language selected must not be the student's native language. Consult with the Department of Modern and Classical Languages regarding any exceptions or substitutions.

Native speakers of non-English languages should consult with the department prior to enrolling in courses.

Six hours of foreign language requirement will be waived toward this Bachelor of Arts requirement for successful completion of two years of high school study of the language on which the waiver is to apply. This waiver is a substitute for courses 101 and 102 or their equivalents in the language used to meet the above requirements. This waiver does not reduce the total number of hours required for any degree program.

Fine Arts Courses—Bachelor of Arts Degree. Any literature courses in this department count toward the fine arts requirement on this degree provided those courses have not also been used to meet the foreign language requirement.

Placement Examinations. Students of French, German, or Spanish who have two years or more of high school study in those languages or university credit for high school courses, should take the departmental placement examination prior to enrolling in any French, German, or Spanish classes. The exam is computerized and takes approximately twenty minutes to determine placement level.

Credit-by-Examination for Placement. The department offers credit-by-examination for placement for French, German, and Spanish courses of 101, 102 and 201. Credit is given provided the student takes the computerized Placement Examination before taking any university-level French, German, or Spanish classes and completes the highest level of placement with a minimum grade of 'C'. Credit will then be awarded, upon application to the department, for courses in the same language below the placement level.

Modern and Classical Languages Courses

MCL 103 Coping with Culture. 3(3-0) S.

This three-hour content-variable course (e.g. Hotel and Restaurant Management; Agri-Business; International Finance, Business and Banking; Languages for Vocalists, Scientists, et al.; Travel Industry; Medical Professions; etc.), is designed to introduce students to a discipline-specific understanding of cultural differences and to provide them with a limited vocabulary specific to their discipline. It gives students a rudimentary idea of how languages (e.g., French, German, Spanish) work, and helps them achieve a basic level of expression in these languages in situations relative to their profession. In this semester-long course, students rotate every five weeks from one language instructor to another.

MCL 413 (SEC) Teaching of Foreign Languages. 3(3-1) F.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 and equivalent of 12 hours in foreign language. Teaching of foreign languages in secondary schools; practical application of techniques and methods. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of C or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MCL 499 Program Assessment. 0(0-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Required assessment of programs for all foreign language majors or any student completing teacher certification in a foreign language. Assessment procedures and activities are scheduled during the last semester of residence or of graduation. Process may include oral and written examinations, a paper or project, and departmental interviews, summaries and questionnaires. The focus is on foreign language program development, rather than on individual student evaluation. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

MCL 500 Advanced Research in the Discipline. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor or department head. This course will focus on research sources and methods such as the use of bibliographical materials and literary investigation and interpretation in non-English languages. Emphasis will be on resources for teachers in developing individualized professional interests.

MCL 550 Advanced Study Abroad (3-6 hours) D.

Prerequisite: FRN 311 or GRM 311 or SPN 205 and permission of instructor and language advisor. Study in an area of the world where the target language is spoken. This may be taken through the Department's existing program or at any accredited institution.

MCL 597 Topics for Teachers of Foreign Languages. 1, D.

Prerequisite: 60 hours or permission of instructor or department head. Variable content course covering topics of discipline-specific interest to foreign language teachers, e.g., specialized technological resources or contemporary cultural materials. Sections may be specific to a particular language or concern general pedagogical issues. May be repeated with changed content. No more than 2 hours may be counted toward M.S.Ed. degree. Variable Content Course.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

MCL 600 Advanced Language Teaching Methods and Technology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor or department head. This course will acquaint language teachers with current second language research and teaching practice, with emphasis on the uses of technology.

MCL 699 Thesis. (1-6) D.

Prerequisite: 60 hours and permission of instructor or department head. In consultation with MCL and Education advisors, a student may elect to write a thesis on a topic within the discipline. May be repeated up to 6 hours.

Stipulations. All majors in all degrees will be required to pass a piano proficiency examination prior to the conclusion of the sophomore year. The examination will be given each year at the end of each semester.

All Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Science in Education, and Bachelor of Arts majors will be required to pass the following seven courses in recital attendance prior to graduation: MUS 107, 108, 207, 208, 307, 308 and 407.

All music majors in the Bachelor of Science in Education must concentrate in at least one major field of performance (piano, voice, organ, strings or a wind instrument) and make senior appearance in recital registering for credit under MUS 498.

A diploma solo recital may be given by qualified candidates for the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Education.

All majors in the Bachelor of Music must present a minimum of a half recital in their junior year and full recital the senior year.

All undergraduate majors in all degrees will be required to take an assessment test in music prior to graduation. This test will be administered at no cost to the student and will not be used for any purpose other than that of assessing departmental programs and courses.

Application for scholarships in individual, private lessons may be made by all students majoring in music in the Bachelors of Science in Education, Music and Arts.

A student in this department may be prohibited from participating in music ensembles outside the University if, in the judgment of the music faculty, that participation interferes with the student's musical growth.

Fine Arts Courses—Bachelor of Arts Degree. These courses may be used to meet the fine arts requirement on the Bachelor of Arts: MUS 239, 241, 345, 346.

General Education Courses. MUS 239 may be used toward the Humanities Perspective of the Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry. MUS 241 may be used toward the Creativity and Vision Perspective of the Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry. MUS 345 or 346 may be used toward the Humanities Perspective of the Culture and Society Area of Inquiry. At most, two of these courses may count toward general education.

Diploma in Applied Music. Based on excellence in performance, this diploma is granted upon recommendation of the Department of Music. Such diplomas are awarded to those receiving the Bachelor of Science in Education degree. They are not granted to those receiving the Bachelor of Music degree since the excellence of performance is evident in the awarding of this degree.

Musical Theatre Bachelor of Fine Arts

The primary objective of this program shall be the development of the singer/actor/dancer who possesses a strong foundation in the requisite skills to pursue a career as a performing professional in musical theatre, including "book" musicals and variety productions.

Admission Requirements

Formal admission to the BFA in Musical Theatre will occur after the successful completion of the first BFA review, generally administered after two semesters of study.

BFA Reviews

In addition to the curricular requirements for the degree, students must successfully complete three BFA reviews. Each review, conducted by faculty in the Musical Theatre program, will be used to evaluate student performance in the areas of acting, singing, and dancing.

The first BFA review will generally occur after two semesters of study. The second BFA review will generally occur in the middle of the fifth semester of study. The third BFA review will generally occur after seven semesters of study.

Students who do not pass one BFA review may take that review again the following year. Students who fail any one review twice will not be allowed to continue in the BFA program.

Musical Theatre

Bachelor of Fine Arts

The primary objective of this program shall be the development of the singer/actor/dancer who possesses a strong foundation in the requisite skills to pursue a career as a performing professional in musical theatre, including “book” musicals and variety productions.

Admission Requirements

Formal admission to the BFA in Musical Theatre will occur after the successful completion of the first BFA review, generally administered after two semesters of study.

BFA Reviews

In addition to the curricular requirements for the degree, students must successfully complete three BFA reviews. Each review, conducted by faculty in the Musical Theatre program, will be used to evaluate student performance in the areas of acting, singing, and dancing.

The first BFA review will generally occur after two semesters of study. The second BFA review will generally occur in the middle of the fifth semester of study. The third BFA review will generally occur after seven semesters of study.

Students who do not pass one BFA review may take that review again the following year. Students who fail any one review twice will not be allowed to continue in the BFA program.

College of Business Administration Mission

The College of Business Administration (COBA) is committed to being the center of excellence in the field of business education and research and to fulfilling a role as one of the key collegiate units within SMSU, a selective admission, public, comprehensive institution of higher education. COBA recognizes the need for balance and the value of synergy among teaching, research, and service. As such, the COBA mission can be broadly stated to include the following:

A. Providing students with the knowledge, skills, and values to succeed and adapt in a dynamic global economy.

One of COBA's two highest priorities focuses on offering a wide range of undergraduate degree programs to prepare new professionals as well as returning senior managers for their role as the individual business contributors of today and tomorrow in diverse organizational settings. COBA also concentrates on maintaining, strengthening, and expanding a select group of graduate programs for a diverse student population that reflect special regional needs and resources and build on the distinctive competencies of faculty.

B. Engaging in intellectual contributions and conveying the results of such efforts to the wider academic and business community.

The second of COBA's two highest priorities focuses on the creation, refinement and dissemination of knowledge. Because COBA recognizes the diverse needs of various constituents, it values different types of business knowledge. While substantial emphasis is placed on applied knowledge and educational development and moderate emphasis is placed on basic research, COBA values faculty involvement in exploring and developing knowledge in each research area.

C. Building effective partnerships with the business community, the public, and our alumni.

COBA interacts with the external environment to keep abreast of changes in technologies, structure, values, and needs of the regional business community, as well as the public and not-for-profit sectors which increasingly recognize and utilize the skills and talents offered by traditional business disciplines. COBA will maintain existing working relationships and build new ones in these sectors of the community so it can provide experienced practitioners with continued learning opportunities through conferences, seminars, workshops, institutes, and related activities.

COBA will actively serve our institution; our professions; and local, state, and national societies by providing intellectual capabilities and expertise. In addition, COBA will maintain a collegial, supportive organizational climate, recognizing the value of shared governance, that will stimulate individual achievement, encourage collaboration among colleagues, and contribute to the professional development of the College's faculty, staff, and students.

Degree Program Accreditation

All undergraduate and graduate degree programs in business and accounting offered by the College of Business Administration at Southwest Missouri State University are fully accredited by AACSB - The International Association for Management Education.

Admission Requirements

All students who plan to apply for admission to the College of Business Administration should declare a major in one of the five academic departments of the College upon admission to the University and seek enrollment advice through the Business Advisement Center.

Students in good standing at SMSU are eligible to be considered for admission to a specific degree program in the College of Business Administration upon the completion of at least 54 hours including at least ten of the following preparation courses. As many as two of the twelve courses may be completed during the semester of admission, but students should make every effort to complete all of them prior to admission.

COURSE	SUBJECT	HOURS
ACC 201 and 211, or 206	Accounting	4-6
CIS 101* or CSC 101*	Computers for Learning	0-2
COM 115	Public Speaking	3
ECO 155 and 165	Principles of Economics	6
ENG 110*	Writing I	0-3
MGT 286	Business Communications	3
MTH 135 or Higher	Mathematics	3-5
PSY 121	Psychology	3
QBA 237	Business Statistics	3
RIL 231	Legal Environment of Business	3

*May be waived by proficiency exam

Excluding MTH 145

Admission to the College of Business Administration is limited to a total of 2,000 majors at the combined junior and senior levels. Admission decisions will be determined by applicants' combined (SMSU plus transfer) grade point average. However, all applicants whose combined grade point average is 2.50 or higher will be admitted to the College of Business Administration. Factors in addition to grade point average may be considered in unusual cases, but exceptions to the prevailing minimum grade point average will be limited to five percent of the 2,000 majors at the combined junior and senior levels.

Special Procedural Information:

After completing 30 semester hours, students are notified to prepare a tentative degree program. The preparation of the tentative degree program establishes the courses required for admission and graduation requirements which must eventually be met. The degree program is not finalized, however, until students have gained admission to the College of Business Administration.

Because admission to the College of Business Administration will be limited, students must apply by the following deadlines to ensure admission for the appropriate semester and to avoid registration problems:

Summer/Fall	6th week of Spring Semester
Fall*	4th week of Summer Semester
Spring	6th week of Fall Semester

*for students who did not apply in the Spring

Admission decisions will be made by the 8th week of the Spring and Fall Semesters and the 6th week of the Summer Semester.

Students must gain admission to the College by that semester in which they have earned a total of 60 semester hours of college credit (including transfer credit). Students who do not gain admission as expected are subject to being dropped as business majors and will not be permitted to register for the following semester without special permission. Students should contact the College of Business Administration Advisement Center regarding the granting of special permission to register.

Business majors cannot be enrolled in upper-division business courses until their degree program has been finalized. Business majors who have enrolled in upper-division business courses without having met all admission requirements will be dropped from those courses.

Degree Requirements

All Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Science in Education degree candidates in the College of Business Administration must meet the following requirements for graduation.

1. Grade Point Average:

All business majors must have a 2.50 or higher grade point average at the time of graduation for all upper division College of Business Administration courses attempted at Southwest Missouri State University.

2. Specific Course Requirements for All Majors in COBA:

	Hours
General Education Requirements (See Note 1)	43-54
ACC 201 and 211, or 206	4-6
CIS 201 and 429 (See Note 2)	5
ECO 155 and 165	6
FGB 380	3
MGT 286, 340, 364, and 487	12
MKT 350	3
PSY 121	3
QBA 237	3
RIL 231 and 232	4
Globalization Requirements (listed in section 3 below)	6
Major requirements and electives to total at least 125 hours	25-39

Note 1: All business majors must complete the General Education Requirements listed in the UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES AND REQUIREMENTS section of this catalog. ECO 155 and PSY 121 may be used to meet two of those requirements.

Note 2: Rather than taking CIS 429, ACC majors are required to take ACC 341, and CIS majors are required to take CIS 591.

3. Globalization Requirements:

All business majors are required to complete six hours of Globalization Requirements. The College of Business Administration strongly encourages students to complete six hours from one foreign language to complete the Globalization Requirement.

Foreign Language or Foreign Culture selected from:

ANT 100, 226, 320, 330, 335
ECO 346, 565
ENG 341, 361
GRY 100, 320, 321, 323
HST 340, 350, 355, 381, 556, 559, 561
LLT 215, 321, 325, 326
MUS 239*
PLS 205, 232, 339, 343, 344, 345, 348, 429, 537, 545
REL 210*, 330, 350
SOC 150
Approved international study
(ACC 505, FGB 584, MGT 447, MKT 574, and RIL 539 may be used to satisfy the globalization requirement, but no more than 50% of the hours required for graduation may be business courses.)

REL 210 or MUS 239 may be used to partly satisfy general education requirements.*

4. Summary of Required Course Work Outside COBA:

All business majors are required to complete at least 50% of the hours required for graduation outside the College of Business Administration excluding ENG 100, IDS 117, MTH 101, 102, and 103. CIS 101, QBA 237 and 337 may be counted as course work outside COBA.

5. Other Requirements:

A minimum of 12 credit hours not counted as requirements on any other major or minor, and exclusive of "problems" and "readings" courses, is required for the completion of any additional major in business. A minimum of 9 credit hours not counted as requirements on any major or other minor, and exclusive of "problems" and "readings" courses, is required for the completion of any minor in business.

Enrollment by Non-Business Students

Students seeking degrees outside the College of Business Administration cannot exceed 31 hours of business courses (25% of the 125 hours required for graduation) unless all admission requirements to the College of Business Administration have been met. All exceptions must have the written approval of the Dean of the College of Business Administration. Students found to be in violation of this policy will be dropped from all courses exceeding the maximum number of business course hours.

Transfer Credit

Validation Requirements

Students who plan to begin work at a community college or another four-year institution and later transfer to SMSU should take only those lower-division courses in business that are numbered 1 through 299.

Upper-division courses taught in the junior and senior years at SMSU are numbered 300 or higher and should not be completed at a two-year college for transfer credit in the business core or major program area of specialization at SMSU. If similar courses are taken at the lower-division level at a community college or a four-year institution, validation through additional course work or testing will be required. Courses taken at any level must be approved by the appropriate department as equivalent to an upper-division course in the College of Business Administration.

Validation by exam must be completed within the semester of admission. Validation by additional course work must be requested in the Business Advisement Center the semester of transfer and must be completed within one year.

Residence Requirement

At least 50 percent of the College of Business Administration credit hours required for a business degree must be earned at the Southwest Missouri State University Springfield campus.

Sequencing of Courses

The College of Business Administration has established an appropriate sequencing of courses in addition to specified course prerequisites. Additional information about course prerequisites and sequencing of classes is available in the COBA Advisement Center, GLAS 106. The sequencing of courses and course prerequisites is enforced by computerized prerequisite checks.

High School Preparation

Students entering the College of Business Administration are expected to have computer keyboarding skill and an understanding of the accounting cycle. These skills may be acquired by taking keyboarding/typewriting and accounting. Students who enter the College of Business Administration with an understanding of computer concepts, knowledge of common software used, and BASIC programming skills may waive CIS 101 by a proficiency examination.

William G. Baker and Retha Stone Baker Trust

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Baker of Marshfield, Missouri, have placed funds in trust with the SMSU Foundation which represent a significant contribution to Southwest Missouri State University and to the College of Business Administration. The earnings from the trust currently fund a scholarship for students who graduate from Ozark County, Missouri, high school and provide recognition to an outstanding senior in the College of Business Administration in the form of the Joseph Daniel Delp Award. Mr. Delp is honored for his long service to the University as Chairman and Founder of the Department of Commerce which later became the College of Business Administration.

In addition to these scholarships and awards the trust provides funds for a speaker at the annual Insurance Day Program sponsored by the College of Business Administration and the Department of Finance and General Business. In 1990, Mr. and Mrs. Baker established an endowment to create a Chair of Insurance within the College of Business Administration. This endowed chair, which is the first for the College of Business Administration and for SMSU, stems from Mrs. Baker's forty years of interest in education as a teacher and Mr. Baker's professional career in insurance.

Center for Business and Economic Development

The Center is the outreach arm of the College of Business Administration, and as such, its activities are primarily aimed at helping public and private sector entities to improve their management abilities and to help create and retrain job opportunities for American workers. The efforts of the Center are primarily handled through the following programs:

- 1) The Small Business Development Center provides general management and technical assistance to smaller enterprises in SW Missouri. It also has a state-wide mission in the areas of innovation and international business. Counseling is offered in strategic planning, market research, cash flow analysis, procurement, exporting and a variety of other areas.
- 2) The Management Development Institute provides a broad base of non-credit programs and seminars in such areas as total quality management, supervision, human resource management, strategic planning and customer satisfaction. Professional certification programs and special in-house training programs are also provided for both public and private sector organizations.
- 3) The Wal-Mart Innovation Network is a cooperative venture with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. and the Innovation Institute and provides innovation evaluation and referral assistance to independent inventors throughout the United States and Canada.

Graduate Programs

A Master of Business Administration degree is offered. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Master of Business Administration Program

Undergraduate majors in the College of Business Administration may apply for admission to the Master of Business Administration program during the second semester of their junior year. If accepted, up to six hours of 500- or 600-level COBA courses taken in the senior year may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. See Graduate Catalog for details.

School of Accountancy Mission

The School of Accountancy is committed to being a center of excellence in the field of accounting education and to fulfilling a role as one of the key collegiate departments within the College of Business Administration. As such, the School has as its main objective the preparation of students for successful careers in public accounting, private accounting or governmental accounting as well as for entry into graduate programs in accounting.

General Education Course

ACC 360 may be used to meet the Writing II Basic Required course of the General Education requirements.

Advisement Information

With careful selection of elective courses, students can customize their degree to target specific interests, entry-level job markets, or professional certification examinations (see below). Students should consult with their advisor (and other faculty) concerning this opportunity.

Graduate Program

A Master of Accountancy degree is offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Master of Accountancy Program

Eligible undergraduate accounting majors may apply for admission to the Master of Accountancy program as early as the second semester of the junior year. If accepted, up to six hours of 500-level accounting courses may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. This program allows accounting majors to obtain the Master of Accountancy degree in five years with a total of 152 semester hours rather than the normal 158 semester hours. See Graduate Catalog or contact the School of Accountancy for further information and admission requirements.

Accelerated Master of Business Administration Program

Undergraduate majors in the College of Business Administration may apply for admission to the Master of Business Administration program during the second semester of their junior year. If accepted, up to six hours of 500- or 600-level COBA courses taken in the senior year may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Professional Certification

Nationally recognized professional accounting certifications include Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Management Accountant (CMA), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM), and Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE). The School of Accountancy encourages its majors to consider earning one or more of these certifications.

The State of Missouri requires those who apply to sit for the CPA examination to have at least 150 semester hours of college credit. Furthermore, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) requires at least 150 semester hours of college credit for membership. The SMSU accounting faculty highly recommends that the Master of Accountancy program be used to acquire the 150 hours required for CPAs as well as for those desiring other professional certifications.

Kinds of audits, the duties and obligations of the auditor, principles and procedures to be followed in conducting an audit. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take ACC 650. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

ACC 555 Internal Auditing. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: grade of "C" (or better) in one of ACC 341 or CIS 429 or CIS 521; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Functions of internal audit, financial audit, and operations audit; importance of the changing professional status of the internal auditor.

ACC 556 Operational Auditing. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Primarily a case study approach covering nonfinancial audits of efficient and effective resource utilization, accomplishment of operational goals, adherence to laws and regulations, fraud prevention and detection, integrity and security of computer systems, and achievement of program goals.

ACC 596 (500) Research Issues and Problems: Accounting. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours and permission of the School of Accountancy Director; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Research issues and projects growing from particular needs which may require additional depth or breadth of study. Outline of study must be approved prior to enrolling. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

ACC 603 Seminar in Accounting Theory. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 15 credit hours of accounting courses at the 300 level or higher. Critical evaluation and interpretation of accounting theory. Completion of a significant research project.

ACC 605 Advanced Financial Accounting Problems. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ACC 504 or concurrent enrollment in ACC 504. Case studies of the application of major authoritative financial accounting pronouncements to integrated financial accounting problems; emphasis on the impact of accounting pronouncements on financial reporting, the changing trend in accounting theory and the possible future development of accounting pronouncements.

ACC 611 Managerial Accounting. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ACC 211 or ACC 206 or ACC 500. Role of accounting in improving the practice of business management; budgeting, accounting analysis, the behavior of costs, accounting control. This course will not be counted in the 33 semester hours required for the MAcc degree.

ACC 612 (512) Controllershship and Communication. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ACC 311 or ACC 611. An in-depth examination of the leadership and communication challenges associated with being a controller and/or professional accountant. The written and oral communication skills required for success as a professional accountant will be developed.

ACC 615 (546) Advanced Cost Accounting. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ACC 311 or ACC 611. An in-depth study of problems and contemporary issues in cost accounting. An introduction to selected quantitative techniques used by accountants to solve cost accounting problems.

ACC 621 Advanced Tax Accounting. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ACC 321 and ACC 521. Research and presentation of chosen topics from the field of tax accounting. Study will focus on the impact of taxation on business planning and decision making.

ACC 631 Control of Non-Profit Organizations. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ACC 311 or ACC 611. Case study approach to financial control in non-profit organizations. Special emphasis is on governmental and health care organizations, although other non-profit organizations are also studied.

ACC 641 Advanced Accounting and Management Information Systems. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ACC 341. Application of the concepts of systems design and implementation. Study of the attributes of accounting information systems and their relationship with management information systems. Functions of accounting information systems including data collection and transmission, internal controls, data organizations and storage, processing data, and information retrieval and display. Characteristics and applications of both manual and automated information systems.

ACC 650 (551) Advanced Auditing. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ACC 550. External auditing procedures; implementing auditing standards; verifying adherence to generally accepted accounting principles; importance of the auditor's attest function.

ACC 651 Information Systems Auditing. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ACC 550 or ACC 555. A study of information systems controls; auditing around, through, and with the computer; auditing advanced computer systems, spreadsheets and other fourth generation language applications. Hands-on computer auditing projects will be integrated into the course.

ACC 690 Seminar in Accounting. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 12 graduate credit hours of accounting courses and permission of the Master of Accountancy Program Director. Critical evaluation and interpretation of the current research and professional literature in accounting. Study of ethical and institutional features of the accounting environment. Completion of a significant research project.

ACC 694 Internship: Accounting. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 12 graduate credit hours of accounting courses and permission of the Master of Accountancy Program Director. In consultation with the coordinating professor, the student is engaged in first-hand experience with a business, organization, or other professional entity. A portfolio of assigned work shall be collected, examined, and evaluated during the semester.

ACC 697 (670) Special Topics in Accounting. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 9 graduate credit hours of accounting courses and permission of the Master of Accountancy Program Director. In-depth study of contemporary topics in accounting. Each offering concerns a single topic. May be repeated with departmental permission to a total of 9 hours.

ACC 699 (599) Thesis. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission of the Master of Accountancy Program Director. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis.

General Education Course

CIS 101, will satisfy the Computers for Learning requirement for General Education. Students may take a proficiency test to determine if they already possess the computer-related knowledge and skills comprising the Computers for Learning requirement. Those who pass the test will be excused from, but will not receive credit for, the Computers for Learning requirement. Contact the Department of Computer Information Systems for further information.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Computer Information Systems. The Master of Science in Education degree (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in business. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Master of Business Administration Program

Undergraduate majors in the College of Business Administration may apply for admission to the Master of Business Administration program during the second semester of their junior year. If accepted, up to six hours of 500- or 600-level COBA courses taken in the senior year may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Business Education Courses

BSE 403 (SEC) Teaching of Business. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 and ACC 211 and 70 hours and approved major or minor in business; or permission. Development of a philosophy for and about business education; study of relevant legislation; study of methods of teaching selected business subjects including use of research-based readings, observation, and microteaching. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

BSE 509 (AOS) Business Education Workshop. 1-5, D.

Development and promotion of desirable programs in business education. Each workshop emphasizes a single topic. May be repeated for a maximum of 5 hours when topic varies.

BSE 520 (AOS) Occupational Analysis. (Identical with TEC 520) 1-2, D. Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission. Analysis and breakdown of broad occupations or specific jobs into basic elements for instructional purposes. May be repeated to a total of 2 hours when topic varies.

BSE 522 (AOS) Philosophy of Vocational Education. (Identical with SEC 522, TEC 522) 1-3, D.

Philosophical foundations of vocational education; philosophies of vocational education in the contemporary school. Meets Missouri Vocational Education certification requirements. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours when topic varies.

BSE 523 (AOS) Guidance for Vocational Development. (Identical with COU 523 and TEC 523) 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission. Materials, procedures, and problems in guidance of individuals in the selection of, preparation for, and advancement in a vocation. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours when topic varies.

BSE 526 (AOS) Coordination of Cooperative Education. (Identical with SEC 526 and TEC 526) 1-2, D.

Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission. Problems and procedures in organizing and operating part-time cooperative and evening occupation programs. Restricted to those who can qualify as coordinators. May be repeated to a total of 2 hours when topic varies.

BSE 528 (AOS) Measurement and Evaluation of Vocational Education Programs. (Identical with SEC 528 and TEC 528) 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission. Assessing specific program needs as determined from occupational surveys and other demographic data; follow-up techniques to evaluate the overall effectiveness of the program on manpower needs in a given labor market area. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours when topic varies.

BSE 540 (AOS) Procedures and Materials for Business Education. 3(3-0) S.

Major emphasis given to teaching strategies in business courses. Selected topics include teaching accounting and basic business courses; motivating, disciplining, and evaluating; sponsoring youth organizations; selecting equipment.

BSE 596 (AOS) Problems in Business Education. 1-3, F,S.

Technical or professional problems growing from particular needs that may require additional depth or breadth of study. Outline of study must be approved prior to enrolling. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours when topic varies.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

BSE 605 (AOS) Curriculum Construction in Business Education. (Identical with SEC 605) 1-3, D.

Objectives and interrelationships of business education courses and programs. Development of curricular materials and evaluative devices. Meets Missouri Vocational Education certification requirement. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours when topic varies.

BSE 610 (AOS) Improvement of Instruction in Business Education. 1-3, D.

Current developments and trends in teaching business subjects; new developments in resources, methods, and techniques. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours when topic varies.

BSE 624 (AOS) Organization and Administration of Vocational Education. (Identical with SFR 624 and TEC 624) 1-3, D.

Problems; procedures; and local, state, and federal relationships in the organization and administration of vocational education in the contemporary school. May be repeated to a maximum of 3 hours when topic varies.

BSE 630 (AOS) Research Seminar in Business Education. 3(3-0) D. Critical interpretation and evaluations of research in business education. Individualized assistance provided in the development of an extensive research paper to satisfy the requirement for Research Option II.

Computer Information Systems Courses

CIS 101 Computers for Learning (Identical with CSC 101) 2(1-2) F,S.

Fundamental computer concepts including word processing spreadsheets, assessing information and the responsible use of information and technology. Course may be waived by proficiency exam.

CIS 195 (AOS) Introduction to Desktop Publishing. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CIS 101 or CSC 101 or CSC 111 or CIS/CSC 101 waiver exam or permission. Introduction to desktop publishing concepts and applications.

CIS 197 (AOS) Topics in Computer Information Systems. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Study of topics in Computer Information Systems. May be repeated as topics change to a total of 6 hours.

CIS 201 Computer Applications for Business. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 101 or CSC 101 or CSC 111 or waiver exam. A study of the use and applications of computer information systems concepts in business and public organizations. The course emphasizes the use of spreadsheet software to plan, analyze, design, develop and test business solutions.

CIS 202 Program Design and Development. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 101 or CSC 101 or CSC 111 or waiver exam. A study of structured program design, concepts and techniques related to the development of computer programs with an emphasis on business applications. A high level language is used to implement the design concepts and techniques.

CIS 223 Introduction to COBOL Programming. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 202. Introduction to COBOL (Common Business Oriented Language) programming to process business data.

CIS 224 Windows Programming with Development Tools. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 202. An introduction to development of computer applications using rapid developmental tools such as Visual Basic. Emphasis on designing and managing graphical user interfaces, procedures, file management, debugging, and testing.

CIS 260 Object Technology I. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 202. Introduction to the key concepts of object technology and the fundamentals of the Java programming language. Projects using Java involve the development of elementary applications and applets.

CIS 275 Web Application Development for Business I. 3(3-0) F. Prerequisite: CIS 202 or equivalent. Introduction to the key concepts of developing business applications for the World Wide Web, a critical element of successful e-business systems. Includes extensive hands-on experience in the areas of the hypertext markup language (HTML), HTML editors (such as FrontPage or Dreamweaver), and scripting languages (such as JavaScript and/or VBScript).

CIS 290 (AOS) Advanced Microcomputer Applications. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 101 or CSC 101 or equivalent. Emphasis on problem-solving activities using advanced applications such as word processing, desktop publishing, database, graphics, and multimedia.

CIS 294 (AOS) Internship in Computer Information Systems. 1-3, F.S.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. Work-study program with cooperating employers in appropriate office situations to include a broad range of relevant on-the-job experiences. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

CIS 316 (226) Computer Programming in RPG. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 202 or permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Solving business-oriented problems using RPG (Report Program Generator) programming language.

CIS 320 Survey of Computer Languages. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CIS 223 or CIS 224 or CIS 260 or permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A survey of computer languages used for business applications with emphasis on teaching high level languages currently not being taught in other CIS courses.

CIS 321 Information Systems Analysis and Design. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 223 or CIS 224 or CIS 260 or permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A study of the analysis and design of computer information systems. Course includes developing a study project using CASE tools.

CIS 323 Advanced COBOL Programming Techniques. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 321 or concurrent enrollment and CIS 321; CIS 223; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Methods and techniques of programming for disk and tape applications in the solution of business problems, using COBOL.

CIS 324 Computer and Network Operating Systems. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 202; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A study of computer and network operating systems with an emphasis on managing system resources through the operating system's command language or graphical user interface.

CIS 330 Data Communication and Networking. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 324; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. An introduction to data communications concepts, hardware, and software with an emphasis on business applications. Included are both wide and local area networking concepts.

CIS 334 Advanced Windows Applications Programming. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 224; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Methods and techniques of designing and implementing Windows software applications. Case study will provide a framework for developing working prototypes of business applications using a graphical user interface, event-driven language.

CIS 350 Object-Oriented Systems. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 321; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A study of object-oriented systems, including systems analysis and design and programming techniques. One or more graphical user interface object-oriented languages are used to build business application prototypes.

CIS 360 Object Technology II. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 260; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. This course is a continuation of the study of object technology and the Java programming language. Projects using Java involve the development of standalone and web based applets. Topics include abstract windows toolkit (AWT), layout managers, event handling, exception handling, inheritance, arrays, graphics, and file I/O. An introduction to HTML is covered to support web server based applets.

CIS 375 Web Application Development for Business II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CIS 275 or permission of instructor; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Continuing coverage of the key concepts of developing intermediate to advanced business applications for the World Wide Web within the context of e-business. Includes extensive hands-on experience of an intermediate to advanced nature in the areas of the hypertext markup language (HTML), HTML editors (such as FrontPage or Dreamweaver), and scripting languages (such as JavaScript and/or VBScript). In addition, students will be introduced, with hands-on experience, to dynamic HTML, extensible markup language (XML), Active Server Pages (ASP), database connectivity, and Internet security.

CIS 385 (AOS) Records Storage and Retrieval Systems. 3(3-0) F.S.

A study of the design and use of records storage and retrieval systems to include micrographics, electronic controls, and optical disk systems.

CIS 394 (399) Cooperative Education in CIS. 1-3, F.S.

Prerequisite: acceptance into SMSU Cooperative Education Program and permission of department head; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. The opportunity to earn academic credit in a planned learning process that integrates academic training with a supervised work experience. This is a variable content course that may be repeated to a total of 6 semester hours in Cooperative Education.

CIS 396 (AOS) Readings in Computer Information Systems. 1-2, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Planned readings designed to intensify and supplement an area of computer information systems or business education.

CIS 397 (300) Topics in Computer Information Systems. 1-3, F.S.

Prerequisite: permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester. Topics are identified by title in the schedule of classes. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

CIS 429 Information Systems in Business. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 201; 90 hours which includes FGB 380, MGT 364, and MKT 350; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Computer information systems analysis, design, and utilization including information as a resource, hardware/software concepts, data communications, database concepts, systems development and general systems concepts. Explores various computer information systems applications in accounting, management, marketing, finance, and office administration. May not be taken for credit by the Computer Information Systems major.

CIS 431 Advanced Systems Analysis and Design. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: CIS 321; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Advanced study of systems development methodologies. The course emphasizes the strategies and techniques utilized for analysis and design in the development of complex information systems.

CIS 494 (AOS) Internship in Computer Information Systems. 1-3, F.S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Work-study program with cooperating employers. Class or conference study of problems encountered by the student; on-the-job application of principles with analysis and improvement of work operations. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

CIS 500 Information Systems in Business Organizations. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: permission of a director of a COBA graduate program. Comprehensive study of the fundamentals of business information systems. Designed for graduate students who have not had undergraduate information systems courses. This course will not be counted in the hours required for a COBA undergraduate or graduate degree.

CIS 510 e-Business Technology Concepts. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 201 and FGB 510; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. An introduction to e-Business and Internet concepts and technology. The course emphasizes content driven web development using database concepts.

CIS 515 Fourth-Generation Languages. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CIS 321 or CIS 429 or permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. An introduction to fourth-generation languages (4GL). A study of the versatility and integrated functions of popular fourth generation languages including general application development, report generation, data base query, screen development and graphics.

CIS 522 Decision Support Systems Development. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: QBA 337 and CIS 323; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A study of Decision Support Systems (DSS), a review of current DSS literature, and the design and development of a DSS with emphasis on the user interface.

CIS 526 Database Management Systems Concepts and Design. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 321; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Study of database management concepts and techniques. Emphasis on data modeling using various data models such as semantic object, entity-relationship, relational, hierarchical, and network. Discussion and application of SQL to develop and query databases. Additional topics include database administration, study of micro and mainframe DBMS such as SQL/DS (DB2), client-server database environment, and distributed databases. Completion of a major study project is required.

CIS 528 Database Management Systems Implementation. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 526; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Application of database management principles in the implementation of a business information system. Emphasis will be on the design, construction, testing, and installation of a comprehensive database system using SQL, fourth generation languages or other data access tools.

CIS 530 (AOS) Training for End User Computing. 3(3-0) F.

An analysis of the training function and its application to end user computing. Emphasis on selecting appropriate methods and media.

CIS 540 Advanced Network Administration. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 330 or CSC 465, or permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Application of basic networking concepts to create working network systems for organizations and to solve business problems. Installing and configuring network operating systems and Internet web servers. Planning and implementing network security schemes. Planning and implementing enterprise networking. Server-based roll-outs and maintenance of applications on multiple workstations.

CIS 550 Advanced Object-Oriented Systems. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 350 and CIS 526; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Application of the concepts of object-oriented systems. Case study approach provides the framework for developing working prototypes of business applications using one or more graphical user interface object-oriented languages.

CIS 591 (521) Information Systems Development. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 hours, CIS 323 or CIS 334 or CIS 360 or CIS 528; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Independent analysis, design and development of an information system in a field of the student's choice. With the instructor's approval, the system can be developed in a language and on a machine of the student's choice. These systems can be individual or group projects. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CIS 596 Problems in Business: Computer Information Systems. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 60 hours or permission; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Technical or professional problems growing from particular needs which may require additional depth or breadth of study. Outline of study must be approved prior to enrolling. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

CIS 607 (AOS) Practicum in Computer Information Systems. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Work-study program with cooperating employers. Class and/or conference discussion of successes achieved and problems encountered by the student. On-the-job application of techniques, methods, procedures, and principles dealt with in other courses.

CIS 632 Information Systems Planning. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Introduction to fundamental issues of information system (IS) planning. Current theory and specific IS planning practices are studied. Emphasis on strategic implications of information technology, IS planning vis-a-vis strategic planning, development and maintenance of IS plans, analysis of organization information requirements, and prioritizing IS projects. Implications for business and technology trends and application of planning concepts to IS planning projects are examined.

CIS 634 Staffing the Information Systems Function. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Focus on current and emerging issues of recruitment, selection, training, motivation, retention and evaluation of IS staff. Issues include developing job descriptions, shifting demands for staffing, performance criteria, alternative approaches to training, alternative career tracks, and the role of personality types on performance. Influence of recent trends including downsizing, outsourcing, centralization and decentralization, and end-user computing will be examined. Current theory and specific practices are studied. Practical applications will be stressed.

CIS 636 Network Planning and Administration. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Computer network planning, including physical layout, resource requirements, and budgeting. Administration of computer networks, including managing user accounts; selecting and loading applications software; managing upgrades and enhancements; monitoring and optimizing system performance; ensuring physical and logical system security.

CIS 638 Information System Project Management. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Objectives and techniques of planning, organizing, and managing complex information systems development projects. The course will include a study of resources and tools available for scheduling, tracking, and measuring system development productivity.

CIS 640 Comparative Systems Development Methodology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Study of various systems development methodologies used to analyze, design, and implement information systems; selection criteria for a specific methodology, and how to introduce a new methodology within an existing environment. Specific tools and techniques for systems development and for business process reengineering will be explored and applied.

CIS 642 Management of End User Computing. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Planning, organizing, staffing, control, and support of end user computing. Various organizational structures used to support end user computing will be investigated. Methodology for development of end user computing systems will be identified for several forms and types of projects. A case project will involve development of an end user system using an appropriate methodology.

CIS 644 Information Systems Management. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: acceptance in the M.S. in CIS program. Overview of managerial applications of information technology (IT) to increase effectiveness. Use of IT to support decision making, cooperative work, organizational competitive advantage, and inter-organizational communication. Various planning approaches will illustrate the use of IT in organizations. Case method will be used.

University Certificate

Business Essentials

Program Description

The Business Essentials Certificate Program offered by the Southwest Missouri State University College of Business Administration, is designed to provide a foundation of basic business knowledge for students pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree in a non-business discipline. A student who completes the entire six-course program should be better qualified to interview for entry-level positions that require a fundamental understanding of business practices and concepts in addition to their discipline-specific knowledge.

Admission Requirements

Any student with a 2.0 GPA (combined SMSU plus transfer) who has completed the following three classes with a grade of "C" or better in each class can, upon application, be admitted to the Business Essentials Program: MTH 135 (or higher), FGB 135, and CIS/CSC 101.

Required Courses

CIS/CSC 101	Computers for Learning	2 hours
FGB 135	Introduction to Business	3 hours
MKT 150	Marketing Fundamentals	3 hours
ACC 201	Introduction to Financial Accounting	3 hours
RIL 231	Legal Environment of Business	3 hours
MGT 320	Patterns of Management	3 hours

Actuarial Science

Students may pursue a career as an actuary by choosing a major and minor in related areas and selecting appropriate electives. Students interested in actuarial science typically major in mathematics and minor in insurance. Help in preparing for the early actuarial exams is available through the mathematics department. For more information, contact the Mathematics Department or the Finance and General Business Department.

Graduate Program

Accelerated Master of Business Administration Program

Undergraduate majors in the College of Business Administration may apply for admission to the Master of Business Administration program during the second semester of their junior year. If accepted, up to six hours of 500- or 600-level COBA courses taken in the senior year may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Finance and General Business Courses

FGB 135 Introduction to Business. 3(3-0) F,S.

A survey of business which includes an evaluation of the social and economic environment in which it operates, followed by a look at business organization, management, finance, accounting, production, marketing, insurance, law, and data processing. Designed to serve three groups of students—those majoring in other departments who would like to develop a broad understanding of business through a single course; those who are undecided about a major and would like to explore business as a possibility; and those freshmen planning a major in some area of business who would like a broad understanding of business in order to make a specific selection of their major. A declared major in the College of Business Administration who has accumulated more than 30 semester hours of credit at the time of enrollment in the course will not receive credit for the course.

FGB 200 Topics in General Business. 1-3, D.

A variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester. Topics are identified by title in the schedule of classes. Graduate Program

Accelerated Master of Business Administration Program

Undergraduate majors in the College of Business Administration may apply for admission to the Master of Business Administration program during the second semester of their junior year. If accepted, up to six hours of 500- or 600-level COBA courses taken in the senior year may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Marketing Courses

MKT 150 Marketing Fundamentals. 3(3-0) F,S.

A survey of marketing designed to serve various groups of students – those from other colleges/departments who would like to develop a broad understanding of marketing, those who are undecided about a major and would like to explore marketing as a possibility; and those who desire to take a contemporary marketing course to assist them in their present career path. May not be taken for credit by students who have previously received credit for MKT 350.

MKT 297 (200) Topics in Marketing I. 1-3, D.

A variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester. Selected topics of contemporary interest are identified in the schedule of classes. Examples are: packaging, product liability, futures market, industrial marketing, and new product development. May be repeated to a total of 4 hours.

MKT 300 Service Learning in Marketing. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a marketing course designated as a service learning offering; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Marketing to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

MKT 350 Principles of Marketing. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 54 credit hours and PSY 121; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Structure, functions, principles and methods employed in discovering and translating consumer needs and wants into product and service specifications and then transferring these goods and services from producers to consumers or users.

MKT 351 Consumer Market Behavior. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MKT 350; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Influence of cultural, social, and psychological factors on consumer and customer behavior evidenced through behavioral science research.

MKT 352 Personal Selling. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MKT 350; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Principles and methods of effective personal selling, customer analysis and methods of sales presentations, and planning and coordinating the sales function.

MKT 354 Principles of Advertising. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MKT 350; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Advertising purposes, principles and procedures; development of appeals, media selection, layout, copy preparation; measures of advertising effectiveness.

MKT 355 Principles of Retailing. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: MKT 350; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. The application of retailing principles to real-world issues. Students are challenged to solve retailing scenarios using an “experience-based” format.

MKT 360 Marketing Research. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MKT 350 and QBA 337; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Basic research techniques designed to introduce the student to modern research procedures and the research process. Emphasis placed on research techniques to collect, analyze, and interpret research information as a basis for improved decision-making; and for the development of marketing strategies and policies.

MKT 380 Creative Advertising. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: MKT 354; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. An advanced course in the creation of broadcast and print advertising. Emphasizes strategic planning, developing creative concepts and assistance in writing and polishing copy and visuals within an ad, execution of finished product, and refining presentation skills.

MKT 394 (399) Cooperative Education in Marketing. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: acceptance into SMSU Cooperative Education Program and permission of the department head; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. The opportunity to earn academic credit in a planned learning process that integrates academic training with supervised work experience. This is a variable content course that may be repeated to a total of 6 semester hours in Cooperative Education.

MKT 410 Entertainment and Services Marketing. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MKT 350; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. The study, observation and application of specialized principles and practices in the area of entertainment, marketing of sports, performing arts, concerts, conventions and exposition activities.

MKT 430 (530) Logistics and Transportation. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MKT 350 and MGT 340; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Analysis of the activities and decisions necessary to plan, implement and control private and public physical distribution and transportation channel systems. Emphasis on physical, human, informational and organizational system components. May be taught concurrently with MKT 630. Students cannot receive credit for both MKT 430 and MKT 630.

MKT 699 Thesis. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission of the department head. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis.

Quantitative Business Analysis Courses

QBA 237 (CIS) Basic Business Statistics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CIS 101 or CSC 101 and MTH 135 or higher (excluding MTH 145). Collection, analysis, interpretation and presentation of data related to business, measures of central tendency and dispersion, elementary probability, probability distributions, sampling, standard error, interval estimation, hypothesis testing. Computer statistical packages will be utilized in analysis of a variety of applications problems. A student may not receive credit toward a degree for more than one of the following courses: AGR 330, ECO 308, QBA 237, MTH 340, PSY 200, REC 331, SOC 302.

QBA 328 Survey Sampling in Business Research. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: QBA 337 (or concurrent enrollment in QBA 337 and QBA 328); and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. An examination of various probabilistic and nonprobabilistic sampling techniques that are widely used in business research. Sample reliability, validity and other survey issues will be examined.

QBA 337 (CIS) Applied Business Statistics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: QBA 237 or equivalent; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. Business application of hypothesis testing, tests of goodness of fit and independence, analysis of variance, simple and multiple regression and correlation, nonparametric methods, time series and forecasting, and decision theory. Computer statistical packages will be utilized in analysis of a variety of applications problems.

QBA 420 (CIS 520) Computer Management Science. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: QBA 337; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A study of quantitative techniques including linear programming, critical path decisions (PERT/CPM), inventory modeling, and computer simulation. Quantitative techniques computer software is used in solving business problems.

QBA 437 (CIS) Forecasting for Decision Support. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: QBA 337; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. A study of various forecasting methods and their application in decision support. Computer software packages will be utilized in the application of the forecasting methods.

QBA 500 (600) Statistical Methods in Business Research. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of a director of a COBA Graduate Program. Comprehensive study of the fundamentals of statistics. Designed for graduate students who have not had an undergraduate statistics course. This course will not be counted in the hours required for a COBA undergraduate or graduate degree.

QBA 547 Nonparametric Statistics for Business Decisions. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: QBA 337 or 500; and undergraduate business majors must be admitted to COBA. The use of nonparametric statistics in business research designs, including the one-sample, two-sample, and multiple-sample cases. Computer application of nonparametric tests will be used where appropriate.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

QBA 637 (CIS) Research Design and Analysis. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CIS 101 or CSC 101 and either QBA 337 or 500. Advanced statistical methods for conducting research in business and economics. Discussion and application of design procedures, hypotheses formulation, data collection and data analysis. Teacher Education Program

Southwest Missouri State University is approved by the Missouri State Board of Education to offer basic and advanced professional education programs for purposes of professional certification. Admission to the University does not automatically qualify a student to participate in the professional component of the teacher education program. That participation is granted upon demonstration of a high level of academic and professional competence. Successful participation should result in the student's achieving certification to teach in Missouri public schools.

Professional Portfolio

All students desiring Missouri certification are required to submit a professional portfolio. This portfolio will be assessed, evaluated, and monitored throughout the teacher education program with the assistance and guidance from faculty. There are three distinct checkpoints for the portfolio: 1) at admission to the teacher education program (culmination of the introductory course-ELE 302 or SEC 301 or SPE 310), 2) at the designated methods course(s) for each departmental major, and 3) at the culmination of supervised teaching. Completion of certification requirements is a four-step process. Students who receive a certification recommendation must meet the standards for certification eligibility as outlined below:

1. Requirements for Eligibility to Enroll in Professional Education Courses:

Before a student can enroll in courses in the professional education component (SFR 250) eligibility requirements must have been met. The student must have:

- A valid ACT score on file at SMSU if required by the University for admission purposes and/or Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and a cumulative GPA of 2.50 or above.
- Completed at least 30 semester hours.
- A highway patrol background check prior to any clinical experience placement (fee required).

Note: The Department of Elementary & Secondary Education will require an FBI background check prior to issuing a certificate.

2. Requirements for Admission to and continuance in the Teacher Education Program:

Students who plan to complete teacher certification requirements must be admitted to the Teacher Education Program. Application is automatically made when enrolling in SEC 300 and 301 or ELE 302, or SPE 310. Admission to the Program is required before students are allowed to begin additional courses in the professional education component.

The criteria used to determine admission or rejection to the Teacher Education Program are outlined below. In addition to having completed at least 45 semester hours of university course work, the student must have:

- A combined (both SMSU and Transfer) GPA of 2.50 or above.
- Passed all sections of the Missouri State Board of Education entry examination (CBASE) with a score of 265 or higher on each section and attained a minimum grade of "C" in COM 115.¹ (not required for students with baccalaureate degree).
- Completed SEC 300 and 301, or ELE 302, or SPE 310 with a grade of "C" or higher.
- Passed portfolio first checkpoint.
- A background check on file.

A student's application for admission to the Program is considered when the requirements listed above are complete.

3. Requirements for Assignment to Supervised Teaching:

* Successful completion of supervised teaching is a requirement for teacher certification. The criteria used to determine eligibility for Supervised Teaching are outlined below. The student must have:

- Been admitted to the Teacher Education Program.
- A statement from the Director of Taylor Health and Wellness Center that a tuberculin test or chest x-ray has been completed and that the student has not been identified as infected with a communicable disease.

- A combined GPA of 2.50 or above for all college level course work completed.
- Completed at least 15 hours at SMSU, with a GPA of 2.50 or above for all work at SMSU.
- A combined GPA of 2.50 or above in major.
- Passed portfolio second checkpoint.
- Been recommended by the student's advisor.¹ The recommendation shall be based upon the applicant's character, personality, and potential for teaching.
- Been recommended by the School of Teacher Education.¹ The recommendation shall be based upon the applicant character, personality, and potential for teaching.
- Been recommended by the department in which the student is completing an undergraduate major or seeking certification.¹ The recommendation shall be based upon the applicant's character, personality, and potential for teaching. For those students completing a degree which involves significant work in more than one department (i.e., Speech & Theatre Education, etc.) the departmental recommendation will come from the department in which the greatest number of hours are completed. For those students who have already completed a degree, the departmental recommendation will come from the department which would normally provide the majority of the course work for that certification.

* Additional fee of $235 per 8-week placement for supervised teaching outside of service area.

4. Requirements for Certification Recommendation:

To be recommended for an initial Missouri teaching certification the student must have:

- Successfully completed Supervised Teaching.
- Met all Missouri teacher certification requirements which are in effect at time of certification. These requirements are normally met by persons earning the BS in Education degree at SMSU.
- A cumulative combined (both SMSU and transfer) GPA of 2.50 or higher.
- Met the criteria established by the Missouri State Board of Education exit evaluation procedures. (Praxis II: Subject Assessments Specialty Area Tests)
- Completed professional education courses with a GPA of 2.50 (SMSU and transfer combined) and no grade lower than "C".
- A grade point average of 2.50 (SMSU and transfer combined) on a 4.00 scale in the certificate subject area and for each additional area of endorsement.
- Passed final portfolio requirement.

Note: The Department of Elementary & Secondary Education will require an FBI background check prior to issuing a certificate.

¹A student who fails to meet this criterion and who wishes to appeal may do so in writing. Such appeals shall be filed with the chairperson of the Professional Education Exceptions Committee.

A student's qualifications for continuance in the Teacher Education Program is subject to review and change by the Professional Education Committee at any time while the student is enrolled.

Missouri State Teacher Certification

Students who have already obtained a Bachelors degree and are seeking Missouri state teacher certification should contact the Office of Teacher Certification Compliance, 200 Hill Hall, Phone 836-6779. This office provides a program evaluation service for initial certificates ($25 fee required), advisement and assistance to gain certification and/or additional endorsements.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, or permission. A comprehensive study of instruments for measuring psychological traits, including group devices suitable for use in elementary and secondary schools, as well as individual instruments for use in both school and community agency settings. Basic statistical concepts and common terminology related to measurement are taught as a functional part of the course.

COU 602 (GAC) Foundations of School Counseling. 3(3-0) D.

Philosophy, organization, and practices of a counseling program in the elementary and secondary school. The school counselor's role as counselor, consultant, and coordinator, professional identity, ethical standards and legal issues are included.

COU 603 (GAC) Foundations of Community Agency Counseling. 3(3-0) D.

An introduction and overview of the history, philosophy, and function of the counselor in mental health and other community agency settings. Includes an examination of service population characteristics and treatment needs, intervention modalities and approaches, professional identity, ethical standards, and related topics.

COU 605 (GAC) Orientation to Personal and Professional Development. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, or permission. This course is an experience in personal and group encountering and sensitivity. Its purpose is to assist students in discovering a more complete awareness, understanding, and acceptance of themselves and others as human beings. Primary emphasis will be upon students exploring self, values, needs, and personal characteristics. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

COU 607 (GAC) Human Development and Personality. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, or permission. Study of child, adolescent and adult psychological development theories, normal adjustment processes, personality structure, and abnormal behavior.

COU 608 (GAC) Theories and Techniques of Elementary School Counseling. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC elementary counseling (K-8) option, COU 602 and COU 605, or permission. A consideration of major theories of counseling as they are related to counseling with elementary school children. Emphasis is placed upon the counseling process as it affects the educational, personal, and social adjustment of children.

COU 610 (GAC) The Helping Relationship. 2(2-0) D.

Two training components are integrated to provide an intensive pre-practicum experience. The didactic component introduces basic skills of effective interpersonal communication and counseling. Participation in co-requisite laboratory (COU 611) provides supervised practice in the practical application of those skills in simulated counseling interviews.

COU 611 (GAC) The Helping Relationship Lab. 1(0-3) D.

Designed to accompany COU 610, this lab provides an opportunity for graduate students in counseling to practice basic counseling skills in role-played sessions with live observation, video-taped review and supervisory feedback. First enrollment must be concurrent with COU 610. Repeatable to 3 credit hours. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

COU 614 (GAC) Diversity and Multicultural Issues in Counseling. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, or permission. An introduction to counseling theories, interventions and issues in working with clients from diverse, minority and ethnic cultures. Values, beliefs and norms of various cultures, including the student's, will be examined as they pertain to the counseling process.

COU 624 (GAC) Appraisal and Clinical Interviewing. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, COU 610, COU 611, or permission. Study of and practice in conducting clinical interviews, appraising level of functioning and mental status, and developing diagnoses of psychoemotional disorders.

COU 633 (GAC) Marriage and Family Counseling. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, COU 610, COU 611, or permission. An introduction to the major theories of marriage and family counseling and their associated interventions. An integrated combination of lecture, discussion, demonstration and role-play lab sessions will be used.

COU 651 (GAC) Theories and Techniques of Counseling. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program, COU 602 or COU 603 and COU 605; or permission. Examination of various theoretical approaches to counseling; significance of theories in counseling practice. Overview of interventions and techniques associated with each theory. Students make an intensive investigation of a problem to be selected in counseling theory and methods. Report of the investigation required.

COU 652 (GAC) Career Development. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: COU 680 or COU 682 or permission. A consideration of the various theories of career development and their implications in counseling for vocational adjustment. A study of the work ethic, the labor force, and the concept of career education. Designed to give students competence in collecting and using occupational and educational information in counseling related to career development and in developing career education programs.

COU 653 (GAC) Analysis of Learning and Adjustment Differences. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program and COU 601; or permission. Acquaints student with various diagnostic procedures in evaluation of learning and adjustment problems, diagnosis of learning differences. Each student collects sufficient data on an elementary school child to enable him or her to write a diagnosis and recommendation for remediation.

COU 656 (GAC) Group Counseling. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to GAC program and COU 680 or COU 682 or COU 684; or permission. Acquaints counselors with group counseling theories and techniques. Includes a practicum component in which students will lead or co-lead a counseling group.

COU 660 (GAC) Seminar in Guidance and Counseling. 1(1-0) D.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science in Education and Specialist degrees offer majors in Educational Administration. Also a cooperative doctoral degree with the University of Missouri-Columbia is offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Educational Administration Courses

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

EAD 651 Foundations of Educational Leadership. 3(3-0) D.

An introductory course designed for the student considering a career in educational leadership. Explores the history, basic theories, and major areas of responsibility in school leadership. EAD 651 is the first course to be taken in an administration degree program.

EAD 652 The Secondary School Principal. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: EAD 651. An examination of the leadership responsibilities of the secondary school principal. Instructional leadership, decision-making, problem solving, effective schools correlates, the change process, school culture and school improvement concepts will be emphasized.

EAD 653 The Elementary School Principal. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: EAD 651. An examination of the leadership responsibilities of the elementary school principal. Instructional leadership, decision-making, problem solving, effective schools correlates, the change process, school culture and school improvement concepts will be emphasized.

EAD 654 State and National School Leadership. 2(2-0) D.

Role and responsibilities of the local, state and federal agencies in school administration.

EAD 657 The Administration of Instructional Programs. 3(3-0) D.

An analysis of instructional programs and the role of the school administrator in developing learner-centered school cultures and supporting research-based instruction.

EAD 658 Organizational Management. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: EAD 651. Emphasis is on basic administrative skills including fiscal management and building utilization as well as the skills and processes needed to collaboratively develop and maintain strategic plans.

EAD 659 Leadership Capstone. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690 or EAD 695. The culminating course in the EAD Master's Degree programs. The course results in the completion of the student's research major project; preparation and presentation of the student's graduation portfolio, and; completion departmental assessments.

EAD 660 Internship – On Site. 2 D.

Prerequisite: EAD 651 and permission of advisor. Problem-based field experiences encompassing building level, district level, or other specialized administrative or supervisory positions. Students spend specified periods of time working with experienced administrative or supervisory personnel. May be repeated to a maximum of 10 hours.

EAD 663 Internship—Related Agencies. 1 D.

Prerequisite: EAD 651 and permission of advisor. Problem-based field experiences with various external agencies that relate to the school administrator or supervisor. (i.e., juvenile court, law enforcement, community support services, etc.)

EAD 664 Human Relations and Collaborative Processes. 3(3-0) D.

Designed to develop skills in effective interpersonal skills, written and oral communication within a diverse cultural community.

EAD 665 Legal and Ethical Contexts of Schooling. 3(3-0) D.

Explores the statutory and regulatory requirements as well as the ethical implications of policy initiatives inherent in the effective operation of a school.

EAD 666 School Supervision and Performance Enhancement. 3(3-0) D.

Administrative functions related to human resource management and development as well as enhancing the performance of the instructional personnel. (i.e. Recruitment, selection, retention, training, supervision, evaluation of staff)

EAD 667 Administration of Special Programs. 3(3-0) D.

Designed to provide skills to establish, administer, and supervise special education services and other student programs. Programs in the area of special education, guidance, vocational education, early childhood as well as current state and federal programs affecting education are emphasized.

EAD 695 Action Research in Educational Leadership. 3(3-0) D.

Introduction to the research designs and analysis techniques of action research. Student will engage in activities designed to examine current best practices in the school setting through a methodical, research-based orientation with the ultimate goal of assessing the effect of innovative practices on a variety of school variables.

EAD 699 Thesis. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit.

EAD 750 Politics of Education. 3(3-0) D.

Overview of the origins and the nature and impact of political forces surrounding and influencing schools. Students will study the increasingly complex political web of American education as well as research the continuing debate dealing with local control versus the expanding role of state and federal government. This course will help the student in educational administration analyze the various core constituencies of school politics, analyze the issues/demands made in the school community, and study the intervening variables associated with school issues as well as the decisions which must be made by school policy makers.

EAD 758 School Personnel. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. This course will provide knowledge related to areas of personnel process such as: human resource planning, recruitment, selection, placement, induction, staff development, appraisal, compensation, negotiation, employment conditions, employee data, support staff, empowerment of staff, policies and procedures, and career paths.

EAD 760 Field Study. 1-4 D.

This course involves the completion of field projects conducted in cooperation with a public school district or appropriate agency. Requires a formal investigation and survey of a recognized problem within a selected institution. The nature of the investigation may also be in-depth, independent research relevant to current practice in any facet of the educational process. The subject for investigation is selected by the student with approval of the advisory committee. An oral review of the project will be presented to a selected faculty committee. May be repeated but not to exceed a total of 6 hours. A maximum of 3 hours may be counted toward the degree.

EAD 761 (661) Human Relations. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: EAD 651 or permission. Designed to upgrade educational leaders in human relations skills. Major focus will be on effective group processing and dynamics, understanding learning styles and cultural diversity issues, and facilitating skills for school improvement.

EAD 762 The Superintendency. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. Analysis and discussion relating to current problems of school management involving decision making, data processing, operations, research, work and wages, unions and management, and purchasing.

EAD 763 Curriculum Design and Evaluation. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. A course designed to investigate and analyze current and innovative instructional programs. Special emphasis is given to national reports on educational practices and the development of a model school of the future.

EAD 764 School and Community Relations. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. An examination of the various strategies involved in establishing effective internal and external communications. The responsibilities of boards of education, administrative officials, staff personnel, students, and the community will be emphasized.

EAD 765 School Law. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. Constitutional statutory and case law that relates to all staff personnel, students, school district and other allied governmental units is investigated, analyzed and discussed. Special emphasis is given to the study of contracts, dismissals, tenure, retirement, pupil injuries, liability of school personnel, school district and board member's legal rights and responsibilities.

EAD 766 Public School Finance. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. A study of school budgeting procedures, revenue and expenditure accounting, problems related to local, state and federal financing of public school operations. The Missouri Uniform Accounting System for Public Schools is utilized in the development of a major school finance project.

EAD 767 School Plant Planning and Maintenance. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 15 graduate hours. Designed to familiarize students with the development of master plans and educational specifications for a school facility. Attention is given to site and building evaluations, barrier-free facilities, bond issues, remodeling, energy conservation, contractor and architectural responsibilities, and equipping and maintaining school plants.

EAD 770 Specialized Topics in Educational Leadership. 1-3 D.

Designed to upgrade the school administrator or leader's knowledge and skills in specialized areas of current interest and need. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

EAD 795 Research in Administrative Practice. 3(3-0) D.

The study of research in the field of educational administration. This course integrates research skills and professional administrative practices. Students interpret, evaluate and apply research skills enabling them to design a Field Study proposal which is required for the Specialist degree in Educational Administration.

The following course is open only to students admitted into the doctoral program.

EAD 801 Leadership Theory and Practice. 4(4-0) FO. Advanced study of leadership theories, concepts, and inquiry as applies to educational organizations. The course will explore leadership theories, power and authority in organizations, leader effectiveness, and organizational reform.

Emphasis will be placed on understanding leadership in organizations through application and extension of leadership theories in practice.

EAD 802 Quantitative Methods in Educational Research I. 3(3-0) SE.

Requires concurrent enrollment in EAD 803. This course focuses on types of regression analysis and includes the following topics: simple linear regression, multiple regression, and semi-partial correlation, regression with categorical variables, categorical and continuous variables within the same model, Multilevel analysis (Hierarchical linear modeling), and structural equations. The emphasis in this class is on conceptual and practical understanding, rather than on computation. Goals are for the students to: (a) understand the basic assumptions and models underlying regression analysis, (b) use a statistical analysis package to conduct regression analysis, (c) read and interpret the output from a statistical analysis package, and (d) use this output to write a results sections.

EAD 803 Advanced Quantitative Inquiry in Educational Research. 1(1-0) SE.

Requires concurrent enrollment in EAD 802. This course is part of the statewide collaborative doctoral program. It is intended to be the application component of the Advanced Quantitative Analysis and Application course (EAD 802). This course will emphasize a wide range of instructional methodologies, cooperative activities, problem-based learning and practical application of quantitative techniques, including computer application. The students will be able to design, conduct, and report research to address problems of practice using quantitative action research methodologies. A collaborative field study project is required.

EAD 804 Content and Context of Learning. 3(3-0) D.

Students will develop the knowledge and skills for examining, designing, and implementing school and classroom conditions that support quality learning experiences for all students. This course theme is about learning, and those issues that enhance and detract from quality learning for all. Throughout the course, participants and instructors will model optimum learning conditions and strategies. Students will be asked to demonstrate a thorough understanding of those conditions and competencies through study, critique, development, implementation of authentic learning experiences for their colleagues. Resources to support the learning experiences will include audio-visual materials, readings, internet, and simulations. Authentic assessment will be used to determine each student's level of competence in the course content.

EAD 805 Team Building and Group Dynamics. 1(1-0) D.

The fact that educational leaders spend a significant amount of their time interacting with people and people concerns strongly suggests the need for the development of effective human relations skills. This one hour doctoral level seminar will focus on understanding key concepts and methodologies of team based management and group dynamics as well as the critical skills essential in successful implementation of collaborative team building within organizations. Through the exploration and development of the underlying principles of these concepts, course participants will examine a leadership/communication within a K-16 organization and with members of that organization, they will design a collaborative problem-solving team to address a problem of practice.

EAD 806 Leadership Inquiry. 1(1-0) D.

This seminar focuses on understanding policies related to doctoral dissertation research as set by the University of Missouri-Columbia Graduate School. In addition, the seminar will explore the use of multiple search sources for information, human subjects review requirements, and research ethics. The course will also examine the exploration and design of leadership research focused on addressing problems of practice.

EAD 807 Program Planning and Evaluation. 3(3-0) D.

This course will explore the theory and practice of evaluation of educational programs including evaluation models, research methods and design strategies to measure program outcomes, especially student and school performance. In addition, skills in evaluating educational personnel and effective schools will be discussed.

Check with the Department of Library Science for information regarding certification requirements. A minimum GPA of 2.50 (SMSU and transfer grades combined) in the certificate subject area is required for state certification.

Library Science Courses

LIS 101 Introduction to the Library. 1(1-0) F,S.

Introduces the concept of information in its various forms, describes libraries as information storage and retrieval centers, and prepares students to successfully identify, locate, and use information.

LIS 500 Libraries and Librarianship: An Introductory Seminar. 2(2-0) F.

Types of libraries; their functions and objectives; internal organization and procedures; duties and qualifications of librarians; professional organizations and literature; various issues and technologies reflecting the changing nature of librarianship.

LIS 502 History of Books and Libraries. 3(3-0) S.

History of books and libraries from the earliest times to the present; influence and importance of the book and the library in society throughout history.

LIS 504 Reference. 3(3-0) F.

An introduction to basic, general reference sources.

LIS 506 Selection and Acquisition of Library Materials. 3(3-0) F.
Principles of materials selection and collection development. Selection aids, review media and collection evaluation; methods of acquisition.

LIS 508 Cataloging and Classification. 3(3-0) S.

Basic cataloging and classification; subject headings; cataloging print and non-print material; MARC records; various types of traditional and electronic catalogs.

LIS 510 Utilization and Integration of Multimedia in Libraries. 3(3-0) F.

Survey of media in the library with emphasis on the utilization and integration of these materials in the teaching/learning process. Evaluation and selection of media; familiarization with basic hardware.

LIS 512 Reading Guidance for Young Adults. 3(3-0) S.

The study of reading interests and habits of young people. Methods of meeting the needs of different types of readers and stimulating reading interest through library collections and services.

LIS 514 Advanced Reference. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: LIS 504. Study of specialized reference sources in the humanities, social sciences, sciences and development of in-depth search techniques.

LIS 518 Service Learning in Library Science. 1(1-0) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent registration in an LIS course designated as a service learning offering. This one-hour service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in library science education. It provides an integrated learning experience, addressing the practice of citizenship and promoting an awareness of and participation in public affairs. It includes a three-hour introductory seminar and 37 hours of service benefiting an external community organization, agency or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated, but no more than two hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

LIS 524 Electronic Reference. 3(3-0) F.

Principles involved in identifying, evaluating and selecting information sources, preparing search strategies and utilizing resources. Emphasizing but not limited to the following: CD-ROM and online databases, online public access catalogs and Internet resources. Includes practice time performing searches using various resources.

LIS 528 Library Media Administration. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: LIS 500 and two of the following: LIS 504, 506, 508; or permission of instructor. Organization and administration of libraries with emphasis on school library media center administration.

LIS 530 Children's Librarianship: Birth through Age 9. 3(3-0) F. Fundamentals of children's librarianship for both public librarians and school library media specialists, including collection development, programming, and current issues.

LIS 532 Library Resources and Services for Grades 4-8. 3(3-0) F,S.

An introduction to a broad selection of books, audiovisuals, and electronic resources for grades 4-8 and how these can be used to enrich the curriculum. Emphasis will be placed on integration of a variety of resources in both content area studies and "stand alone" information literacy instruction.

LIS 540 Information Technologies. 3(3-0) S.

An introduction to applied information technologies applicable to libraries, including uses of computers in libraries, computer hardware and software needs of libraries, and issues related to access and evaluation of information.

LIS 560 Legal Reference. 3(3-0) S.

The study of basic, legal reference materials used by librarians and the general public in a library environment. Primary and secondary sources will be addressed, in both print and electronic formats. Emphasis will be on using the legal resources in a school library, public library or academic library.

LIS 596 Independent Study. 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: Two (2) of the following: LIS 500, LIS 504, LIS 506, LIS 508, LIS 528; and permission of department head. Individual projects or study under the supervision of members of the library faculty. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

LIS 597 Special Topics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics in substantive areas of librarianship such as automation, collection development and resource sharing, and the politics of librarianship. Offered when resources and demand allows. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topic changes. Variable Content Course.

LIS 599 Library Practicum. 2-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: LIS 500, LIS 504, LIS 506, LIS 508; and LIS 528 or permission of department head. Supervised practical work experience in an appropriate library designed to cover all aspects of librarianship.

Majors

Early Childhood Education

Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades Birth-grade 3)

All students must be admitted to the Teacher Education Program and to Supervised Teaching in order to earn this degree. (See application procedures at the beginning of the College of Education section of catalog.)

In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades. Additional State Board of Education certification rules require passing scores on all portions of the College Basic Academic Subject Examination (C-BASE) and successful completion of the appropriate Praxis Examination (National Teachers Examination (NTE) Specialty Area Test) with a score equal to Missouri's qualifying score.

The curriculum for early childhood teaching leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education and carries with it an initial professional certificate (PCI) to teach in the state of Missouri. The program is accredited by the Missouri State Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. Holders of this early childhood certificate may be employed to teach from birth through grade 3.

Elementary Education

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Certifiable grades 1-6, effective September 1, 1997)

All students must be admitted to the Teacher Education Program and to Supervised Teaching in order to earn this degree. (See application procedures at the beginning of the College of Education section of catalog.)

In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under B, C, and D; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades. The program is accredited by the Missouri State Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. Holders of this elementary certificate may be employed to teach in grades 1-6.

To assure an optimal pre-service teacher training experience and adhere to quality standards established by the Missouri State Department of Education and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, all students seeking the Bachelor of Science in Education – Elementary (grades 1-6 certification) are required to enroll in a 14 credit hour block of courses in the semester preceding student teaching. This block of courses is taken two days per week and includes ELE 429, 425, 434, 438, and RDG 420, 421. An extensive field experience in area public school classrooms is included in this block, and students must commit to two full school days per week during that semester which equates to 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This time commitment may fall on Monday-Wednesday or Tuesday-Thursday, depending on scheduling for that particular semester.

- D. Areas of Concentration (minimum 21 hours)

Elementary education majors are required by DESE to have a twenty-one hour area of concentration. The elementary education program has been structured to include two areas of concentration with a minimum of twenty-one (21) hours in each: social science and communication arts. Therefore, no additional hours will be required to meet the area of concentration.
- E. Program Option (minimum of 12 additional semester hours)

Elementary Education majors must select at least one of the following program options:

 1. In consultation with an advisor, complete a minimum of twelve (12) semester hours additional coursework in one of the following programs: Early Childhood, Middle School, Special Education, or Special Reading Teacher. Courses may be selected only with advisor approval. At least one course must be taken at the upper-division level. No courses utilized to satisfy other requirements on this degree may be utilized to meet this option. This option will not necessarily meet requirements for an additional endorsement certification.
 2. In consultation with an advisor, complete twelve (12) semester hours additional coursework in an individualized program option. The area(s) chosen may be in any subject matter in which SMSU offers a major or minor with courses selected only with advisor approval. At least one course must be taken at the upper-division level. No courses utilized to satisfy other requirements on this degree may be utilized to meet this option. This option will not necessarily meet requirements for an additional endorsement certification.
 3. In consultation with an advisor, earn a minor offered on B.S.Ed. A list of those minors is given in the "Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements" section of this catalog. Courses taken to satisfy requirements in A & B above may also be utilized to meet a portion of this option; however, a minimum of twelve new hours additional coursework must be completed to meet the program option. At least one course must be taken at the upper-division level. An earned minor will not necessarily meet requirements for an additional endorsement certification.
- F. Professional Education (52-53 hours)

(NOTE: A grade of "C" or better in each course is required for state certification.)

1. Foundations of Teaching: SFR 250(3); ELE 302(3), PSY 380(4) or 385(3); SPE 310(3)

Middle School Education

Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades 5-9, effective September 1, 1997)

All students must be admitted to the Teacher Education Program and to Supervised Teaching in order to earn this degree. (See application procedures at the beginning of the College of Education section of catalog.)

In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under B and C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades. Additional State Board of Education certification rules require passing scores on all portions of the College Basic Academic Subject Examination (C-BASE) and successful completion of the appropriate Praxis Examination (National Teachers Examination (NTE) Principles of Learning and Teaching Test) with a score equal to Missouri's qualifying score.

The curriculum for middle school teaching leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education and carries with it an initial professional certificate (PCI) to teach in the state of Missouri. The program is accredited by the Missouri State Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. Holders of this middle school certificate may be employed to teach in grades 5-9.

A. General Education (46-50 hours)

3. HST 122(3)

C. Area of Subject Matter Emphasis (42 hours)

Students must complete two areas of specialization consisting of 21 credit hours within each subject for a total of 42 hours. This requirement is met by adding nine hours of general education (section A) and/or degree requirements (section B) courses in each area of emphasis to 12 additional hours in each area of emphasis. The areas of emphasis are: Language Arts (grades 5-9); Mathematics (grades 5-9); Science (grades 5-9); and Social Sciences (grades 5-9). Following are the lists of courses identified for Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, and Social Sciences. Note that each contain nine hours of general education and/or degree requirements (bolded courses). Underlined courses are those that cannot be double-counted as General Education and Area of Subject Matter Emphasis.

1. Language Arts Emphasis (21 hours total): ENG 110(3), 310(3); ENG 336(3); 490(3), 521(3); THE 205(3); and one of the following courses: ENG 338(3), 351(3), 354(3), 380(3), 533(3), 534(3), 582(3)

Certification

Certification for three single categorical areas, Behavioral Disordered, Learning Disabled, and Mentally Handicapped, may be obtained by completing an additional hour of practicum per single category (SPE 591). This is in addition to the introduction, methods, and practicum courses identified under the professional education section. Any student seeking special education certification should obtain guidance from a Special Education Advisor, Hill Hall 202.

Minor

Developmental Reading Bachelor of Science in Education (Non-Certifiable)

The minor in reading is designed to strengthen a classroom teachers' knowledge for teaching reading and developing literacy. Minimum of 23 hours required.

- A. RDG 318(3) or 474(3); 420(3), 574(3); ENG 334(3) and 338(3) or ENG 536(3)
- B. Select additional electives from the following to bring total to 23 hours: PSY 331(3), 441(3); SPE 488(3), 560(3); SPE 584(3) or CSD 312(3); or other electives approved by the Department of Reading and Special Education. In consultation with the advisor a student may select from the elective offerings, courses which lead to Missouri certification as a Special Reading Teacher K-12.

Graduate Program

The Master of Science in Education degree offers majors in Elementary Education, Instructional Media Technology, Reading, Special Education, and Secondary Education. A Master of Arts in Teaching is also offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

University Certificate Program

A graduate level certificate program is available in Instructional Technology Specialist. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Early Childhood Education Courses

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses:

ECE 301 Emerging Literacy and Communication Arts. 3 (3-0) F,S.
Prerequisite: ELE 302 and CFD 160; concurrent enrollment with ECE 302 and ECE 303 required. This course will focus on the broad areas of emerging literacy and communication arts with particular attention to the early childhood years. The development of listening, oral language, and written comprehension skills as well as an understanding of the contribution of appropriate children's literature to literacy development will be the essential components of this course. Activities, materials, and lessons in these areas will be developed with particular attention to developmentally appropriate methodology. Field experiences are a part of the course.

ECE 302 Social Studies and Sociomoral Development. 2 (2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302 and CFD 160; concurrent enrollment with ECE 301 and ECE 303 required. This course will combine the concepts found in the sociomoral domain of Project Construct as well as concepts taught in an elementary social studies curriculum. Students will develop activities, materials, and lessons that focus on the building of relationships with adults and peers, negotiating and applying rules, demonstrating confidence and creativity. Additionally, the curriculum sequences for grades Kindergarten through third, including self, home, school community, school and family, neighborhoods, and communities will be part of this course. Field experiences are a part of the course.

ECE 303 Mathematics and Science for Young Children. 3 (3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302 and CFD 160; concurrent enrollment with ECE 301 and ECE 302 required. This course will teach the student methods for the active involvement of young children in the areas of mathematics and science. Students will develop problem solving experiences and hands-on activities of these two areas. The areas of beginning mathematics concepts such as classification, seriation, and counting, as well as problem solving, applications, communication and reasoning will be part of the course. Additionally, the development of concepts in both physical, biological, and earth/space sciences and active student involvement and discovery will be included. Developmentally appropriate methodology will be presented. Field experiences are a part of the course.

ECE 401 (ELE 422) Curriculum—Early Childhood Education. 3 (3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302, ECE 301, ECE 302, ECE 303; concurrent enrollment with ECE 402 required. Curriculum for early childhood education; underlying principles and applications; relationship to the skills of reading, writing, numbers, spelling, the creative arts, social studies, science. Field experiences are a part of the course.

ECE 402 (ELE 420) Assessing Young Children. 2 (2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302, ECE 301, ECE 302, ECE 303; concurrent enrollment with ECE 401 required. An overview and analysis of screening and diagnostic techniques and procedures for use by general classroom teachers in determining instructional programs for children from birth-grade three. Procedures for helping teachers develop programs for children from different cultural backgrounds and exceptional students integrated in general classrooms are included. Field experiences are a part of the course.

ECE 490 Supervised Teaching in Infant/Toddler Settings. 6, F,S.
Prerequisite: all courses listed in program except for CFD 563 and CFD 560 which may be taken with or at the completion of supervised teaching. Students will observe and then teach under the supervision of the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. Participation in extra-curricular activities and other duties as assigned by the cooperating teacher and supervisor will be expected. Students will be involved in the development of lessons, materials, and units for infants and toddlers. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

ECE 491 Supervised Teaching in Preschool/Kindergarten Settings. 6, F,S.

Prerequisite: all courses listed in program except for CFD 563 and CFD 560 which may be taken with or at the completion of supervised teaching. Students will observe and then teach under the supervision of the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. Participation in extra-curricular activities and other duties as assigned by the cooperating teacher and supervisor will be expected. Students will be involved in the development of lessons, materials, and units appropriate for preschool and Kindergarten children. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

ECE 492 Supervised Teaching in Primary Settings. 6, F,S.

Prerequisite: all courses listed in program except for CFD 563 and CFD 560 which may be taken with or at the completion of supervised teaching. Students will observe and then teach under the supervision of the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. Participation in extra-curricular activities and other duties as assigned by the cooperating teacher and supervisor will be expected. Students will be involved in the development of lessons, materials, and units appropriate for children in primary settings. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

ECE 501 Home/School/Community Relationships with Young Children and Their Families. 3 (3-0) F,S.

This course offers a transdisciplinary approach designed to enhance the student's understanding of the transactional relationship between the school, child and family. Particular emphasis is placed on family development and dynamics within a pluralistic society including the role that family functioning has on the child's total educational experience. Field Experiences are a part of the course.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

ECE 605 Field Experiences in Early Childhood Education. 1-3, Su.

Students participate in Field Experiences in area schools and other educational settings. This course will provide field experiences with three different age groups (birth-3; 3-5; 5-8). Course is designated for graduate students needing field experiences to meet certification requirements in Early Childhood Education. Students will attend weekly scheduled class discussion sessions on campus in addition to the required field work of 15 clock hours for every credit hour. May be repeated for a maximum of three hours of credit.

ECE 625 (ELE) Trends and Issues in Early Childhood Education. 3 (3-0) D.

A study of current trends, issues and theories related to early childhood education. Emphasis will be given to major developmental theories and research findings related to the education of young children. Included will be the application of theory and research to current practices in early childhood education.

ECE 626 (ELE) Advanced Curriculum Development for Early Childhood Education Programs. 3(3-0) D.

Analysis of programs, methods, materials, and activities appropriate for early childhood education programs. Emphasis will be on developing and/or selecting teaching strategies for a variety of programs such as day care centers, public school kindergartens and primary grades, Head Start Programs, private preschools, etc.

Early Childhood, Elementary and Middle School Education Courses

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

EEM 305 (EAS) Field Experiences in Education. 1-2 (0-2, 0-4) F,S. Student attends scheduled discussion sessions on campus and participates in field experiences at Greenwood Laboratory School and/or area schools. Designed for transfer students who have partially completed the field experiences requirement and students working on a certification which requires a second field experience.

EEM 399 (EAS) Problems in Education. 1-3 F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Independent research conducted on topics relevant to the field of education. The student and instructor mutually agree upon the direction and extent of the project. Credited only on the B.S. in Education degrees. May be repeated to a maximum of 3 hours credit.

EEM 576 (EAS) Topical Issues in Education. 1-5 D.

Prerequisite: permission may be required, see schedule. To develop further understanding and skills in the improvement of teaching procedures, curriculum, supervision, or administration. Each course is concerned with a single topic. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. A maximum of 3 hours may be used on a degree program. Variable Content Course.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

EEM 696 (EAS) Problems in Education. 1-3 D.

Specific problems in education related to needs and interests of the student. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

EEM 699 Thesis. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit.

Elementary Education Courses

ELE 300 Service Learning in Elementary Education. I, D.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in an ELE course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Elementary Education to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of an participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. No more than 2 hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

ELE 302 Introduction to Elementary Education and Clinical/Field Experience. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 250 and initial C-Base test must be taken. SFR 250 may be taken concurrently if student has completed 75 semester hours. An overview of elementary school organization, management techniques, and personalized teaching styles for use with children including those from various cultural backgrounds and exceptional children who are mainstreamed in regular classrooms. Students will participate in a 30 clock hour field experience at Greenwood Laboratory School and/or area elementary schools. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course to take ELE 495. This course may not be taken pass/not pass. Required first portfolio checkpoint will occur in this course.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

ELE 425 Developing Children's Communication Potentials. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302 and SPE 310 and 6 hours of college English and permission of department head. A study of the development of language and communication abilities, procedures and instruments for assessing language development, and techniques and materials for promoting development in communication skills for elementary and middle school programs. A comprehensive field experience in area school classrooms is required as a part of this course.

ELE 429 Teaching of Mathematics in Elementary Schools. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302 and SPE 310 and MTH 320 and MTH 360 and permission of department head. Emphasis upon diagnosis of skill level development, teaching basic mathematical skills, and individualizing instruction in mathematics for elementary and middle school programs. A comprehensive field experience in area school classrooms is required as a part of this course.

ELE 434 Teaching Science in Elementary Schools. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302 and SPE 310 and 12 hours of science (one biology, one physical and one earth science) and permission of department head. Current issues and approaches in teaching elementary school science to children, including exceptional children who are mainstreamed in regular classrooms. A comprehensive field experience in area school classrooms is required as a part of this course.

ELE 438 Teaching of Social Studies in Elementary Schools. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 302 and SPE 310 and 8 hours of history and/or social science. Emphasis upon teaching social studies, skills generalizations, attitudes, and values and the development and use of appropriate learning materials and evaluation instruments for elementary and middle school programs. A comprehensive field experience in area school classrooms is required as a part of this course.

ELE 458 Theory into Practice. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment with ELE 495. Experiences to integrate knowledge of methodology in practical teaching situations. Individual experiences designed to supplement previous coursework will be provided. Professional development plans, placement activities and sources of professional assistance will be examined.

ELE 495 Supervised Teaching (Elementary). 6, F,S.

Prerequisite: completion of ELE 425 and ELE 429 and ELE 434 and ELE 438 and RDG 420 and RDG 421; a grade of "C" or better in all professional education courses; approved for student teaching. Student observes, then teaches under the direction of the cooperating teacher and college supervisor. Students participate in extra-curricular activities and attend both individual and group conferences. Credited only on B.S. in Education. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

ELE 496 Supervised Teaching (Elementary). 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 495 or SEC 493 or SPE 495. Student observes, then teaches under the direction of the cooperating teacher and college supervisor. Student participates in school-related activities and attends both individual and group conferences. Credited only on B.S. in Education. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

ELE 610 Elementary School Curriculum. 3(3-0) D.

The purpose of this course is to analyze the philosophical and theoretical frameworks that guide elementary curriculum for the assumptions that each makes with regard to teaching and learning. Students will be introduced to the development of curriculum and curriculum materials for use in elementary educational settings. Students will examine the social, political and institutional contexts in which curriculum is developed and used, curriculum development methods and process, and various methods for the implementation, evaluation and distribution of curriculum materials.

ELE 611 Contemporary Issues in Elementary Curriculum. 3(3-0) D.

Contemporary issues confronting the modern elementary school; current problems, innovations and proposed changes which affect the total elementary school program. Trends and issues that are developing at the national level.

ELE 613 Advanced Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Communication Arts. 3(3-0) D.

Materials, methods and procedures for effective classroom presentation of communication arts. Selection, organization and development of content materials; current issues and trends in the field.

ELE 614 Advanced Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Social Studies. 3(3-0) D.

Materials, methods and procedures for effective classroom presentation of social studies. Selection, organization and development of content materials; current issues and trends in the field.

ELE 615 Advanced Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Mathematics. 2(2-0) D.

Materials, methods and procedures for effective classroom presentation of elementary mathematics. Selection, organization and development of content materials; current trends and issues in the field.

ELE 616 Advanced Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Science. 2(2-0) D.

Current philosophical and psychological issues in elementary school science; their implications for curriculum development, selection, implementation.

ELE 617 Advanced Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Economic Education. 3(3-0) Su.

Materials, methods, and procedures for effective classroom presentation of economic education. Selection, organization, and development of curriculum materials, current issues and trends in the field of economics. Presents students with a framework for proper scope and sequencing of economics concepts to develop an awareness of appropriate benchmarks for economic education instruction.

ELE 620 Advanced Theory and Practice in Student Assessment and Evaluation. 3(3-0) Su.

Materials, methods, and procedures for effective assessment and evaluation of students. Planning, selection, construction, use, and analysis of a variety of assessment practices including formal and informal approaches. Application of knowledge learned throughout course will help students make judicious and reflective decisions while teaching.

ELE 672 Seminar in Elementary Education. 3(1-4) D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690 and ELE 611 and one of the following: ELE 613 or ELE 614 or ELE 615 or ELE 616 or RDG 574 or RDG 673 or RDG 676 or RDG 677. Guided development of a research paper or a creative project. (It is advised that this course be taken during the term prior to the term of graduation.)

Instructional Media Technology Courses

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

IMT 365 (SFT) Instructional Applications of Technology and Media. 3 (2-2) F S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 or ELE 302 or SPE 310 and; either CIS 101 or CSC 101 or competency test. Principles and techniques for selection and utilization of computer and video systems as well as other basic forms of media and technology. The class combines research, instructional design, equipment operation and materials production in lecture and laboratory settings to prepare teachers to be reflective decision makers on proper methods of using technology in teaching.

IMT 562 (SFT) Educational Applications of Computers for Teaching. 3(2-2) D.

Using microcomputers in educational settings. Includes the investigation of software in desktop publishing, record management and multimedia applications. Special emphasis will be given to selection of appropriate programs for specific classroom utilization as well as computer interfaced peripheral devices.

IMT 563 Technology Administration and Management. 2(2-0) D.

This course is designed to provide technology specialists, technology coordinators, library media specialists, school administrators and educators with a working knowledge of the administrative processes and concerns of operating a media/technology support facility. The primary focus will be toward leadership, strategic planning, and change management and writing technology plans. The content of this course is primarily structured for educational institutions but could be utilized for instructional and training systems in many types of industrial, religious, medical and corporate organizations that teach and train.

IMT 565 (SFT) Selection and Utilization of Instructional Technology. 3(3-0) D.

Principles and techniques of selecting and utilizing technology equipment and materials in various educational settings. The course involves basic operation of common classroom technology including video, audio, photographic, computer and multimedia.

IMT 597 Topical Issues in Instructional Technology. 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head is required. A variable credit course with amount of credit based on the extent of the work required. Special topics related to the field of Instructional Technology which may broaden the scope of the program study. May be repeated up to a maximum of 5 hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

IMT 663 (SFT) Administration of Instructional Technology. 3(3-0) D.

Emphasis is placed on management skills including budgeting; facility design; policies and procedures; selection and utilization; evaluation; assessment and other topics related to coordinating an instructional technology program at a building, district, institutional or organizational level.

IMT 664 (SFT) Instructional Design. 3(3-0) D.

Emphasis on the analysis and development of instruction for large group, small group, and individual student instruction. The utilization of systems approaches and packaged instructional forms will be stressed. The course will integrate systems approaches with learning theory involving instructional media technology.

IMT 665 (SFT) Educational Media Production. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: IMT 565. Principles and techniques of designing and producing advanced forms of media software materials in video, audio, and photography formats with emphasis on multi-media which includes computer generated graphics interfaced with video and audio editing as well as more basic production projects such as slide-tape programs.

IMT 667 (SFT) Instructional Technology Practicum.

2(0-4) D.

This is a field-experience based course which requires the student to spend a minimum of 60 hours in a working environment where educational media technology services and programs are being used or developed. The practicum may include: school media services; university programs; development centers in industry, government or medical programs; educational TV studios; computer facilities or other special programs.

IMT 677 Instructional Technology Special Research Project. 3, D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. An extensive multimedia production project which results in a functional product with extensive written documentation to support its use as a research or instructional tool which could provide results for extended research and publication.

IMT 697 Problems in Instructional Technology. 1-3, D.

A variable credit course with amount of credit based on the extent of the work required. Problems related to the field of Instructional Technology which may provide for extended research or study of special issues. May be repeated up to a total of 3 hours.

IMT 698 Instructional Technology Seminar. 3, D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. An extensive research paper focused on the field of Instructional Design and Technology.

IMT 699 Instructional Technology Thesis. 3-6, D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. Independent research and study connected with preparation of a thesis in the field of Instructional Technology. The paper will consist of original or creative research accountable to committee review and defense. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 hours credit.

Middle School Education Courses

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

MID 421 (521) Philosophy and Organization of Middle School Education. 2(2-0) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: ELE 302, or SEC 300 and 301, or SPE 310. An overview of the philosophy, organization and curriculum of the middle school with emphasis upon teaching methods appropriate for use with students in late childhood and early adolescence. Strategies for advisory, study skills, and transition programs.

MID 425 (525) Middle School Curriculum. 2(2-0) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: MID 421. May be taken concurrently with MID 421. Foundations in the development and articulation of middle school curriculum, with emphasis on the development of interdisciplinary thematic units and lessons relevant to the young adolescent learner. Integrated approaches to teaching and learning designed, implemented, and evaluated as part of a teaching team. Alternative assessments, including performance-based portfolios.

MID 439 (539) Middle School Instructional Strategies. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: MID 421 and MID 425. Students will be assigned to site-based middle school teaching teams at Greenwood Laboratory School and/or area middle schools and will attend weekly seminars. Instructional methods and techniques appropriate for middle school learners will be studied including: teaching subject area classes in the core curriculum and strategies for teaching exploratory and advisory classes. Includes exploration of current issues, research, and innovative approaches to teaching at-risk youth and those with diverse backgrounds.

MID 493 Supervised Teaching (Middle School). 6(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: completion of MID 425 and MID 439 and RDG 318 and RDG 474 and all method courses in chosen content areas; a grade of "C" or better in all professional education courses; approval for student teaching. Student observes, then teaches under the direction of the cooperating teacher and college supervisor. Student participates in extra-curricular co-curricular, and exploratory activities and attends both individual and group conferences. Credited only on B.S. in Education. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

MID 494 Supervised Teaching (Middle School). 6(0-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: MID 493. Student observes, then teaches under the direction of the cooperating teacher and college supervisor. Student participates in extra-curricular co-curricular, and exploratory activities and attends both individual and group conferences. Credited only on B.S. in Education. Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

MID 625 Advanced Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Early Adolescents. 3(3-0) D.

Materials, methods, and procedures for designing developmentally appropriate learning experiences for early adolescents; current trends and issues in the field.

MID 710 (EAS) The Middle School—The Junior High School. 3(3-0) D.

An examination of educational programs most appropriate for students in late childhood and early adolescence with emphasis upon the philosophy, curriculum, instruction, and organization of middle schools and junior high schools.

Reading Courses

RDG 300 Service Learning in Reading. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a RDG course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Reading to provide an integrated learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. This course may not be substituted for RDG 421 or any other required practicum. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

RDG 318 Foundations of Reading Instruction. 3(3-0) F,S. Prerequisite: ELE 302 or SPE 310. The basic nature of reading, including developmental, functional, and recreational reading, with application to content areas. Basic approaches to reading instruction from readiness through middle school/junior high school, for use in the contemporary classrooms, which is assumed to contain children of diverse cultures and abilities.

RDG 319 Practicum—Foundations of Reading Instruction. 1(0-2) D.

Prerequisite: RDG 318 or concurrent enrollment or permission of department head. Practical application of developmental, functional, and recreational reading instructional practices from readiness through middle school/junior high school by the assignment of students to practicum centers where they will be required to observe, prepare, teach, and analyze reading lessons. Students enrolled in this course will be required to have a health examination, including a TB test for practicum placement.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

RDG 420 Assessing and Personalizing Reading. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: RDG 318 for Elementary and Early Childhood Education majors; SPE 320 and SPE 321 for Special Education majors. A practical approach to personalizing elementary reading instruction, which includes assessing the needs and reading progress of children, selecting appropriate materials and procedures for the contemporary classroom, which is assumed to contain children of diverse cultures and learning abilities.

RDG 421 Practicum—Assessing and Personalizing Reading. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: RDG 318 and concurrent enrollment in RDG 420. Practicum application of techniques in personalizing elementary reading instruction, by the assignment of students to practicum centers where they will be required to assess the reading status and progress of children and select appropriate materials and techniques for developmental and corrective reading. Students enrolled in this course will be required to have a TB test for practicum placement.

RDG 422 Techniques of Teaching Reading in the Content Fields. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: RDG 318 or permission of department head. Students will learn to assess reading levels and learning styles of children and select appropriate materials in various content fields. They will learn techniques of teaching reading in various content areas, with emphasis on functional and study skills in these materials. Application will be made to the contemporary classroom, which is assumed to contain children of diverse cultures and learning abilities.

RDG 474 Reading and Writing in the Content Fields. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301. Methods and strategies for using reading and writing as tools for learning in regular middle and secondary school classrooms in which there exists a wide range of reading achievement. Includes awareness of reading approaches and problems; study skills, reading evaluation and measurement; vocabulary and comprehension development; selection of materials appropriate for each student.

RDG 480 Problems in Reading Education. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. The student, in consultation with advisor or teacher, selects a topic in reading for in-depth, independent study. Number of hours of involvement determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

RDG 556 Topical Issues in Reading. 1-5 D.

Prerequisite: permission may be required—see schedule. To develop understanding and skills in relevant areas of reading education. Each offering concerns a single topic. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours when topics change. Variable Content Course.

RDG 574 Analysis and Correction of Reading Difficulties. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: RDG 318 or both RDG 420 and RDG 421, or equivalent. Techniques of analysis and correction of reading difficulties for elementary, secondary, special education and reading teachers. Trends in dealing with diagnostic procedures, instructional techniques, special materials, and evaluative devices. Students concentrate study within their level of training.

RDG 578 Classroom Management for Effective Reading Instruction. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: instructor recommendation and demonstrated proficiency in reading education. Students will acquire knowledge of, and demonstrate competence with, (1) techniques for matching students with materials, (2) providing activities for individual, small group, and whole group instruction, and (3) organizing independent and small group activities as a technique for aiding individualization of instruction.

RDG 599 Literacy Projects. 1-3, D.

This course is designed to provide students an opportunity to informally assess and tutor adults or children exhibiting literacy difficulties. Students are expected to have an increased awareness and understanding pertaining to literacy and to recognize the importance of improving the educational process of adults and children. This course may not be substituted for any required reading course. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

RDG 610 Problems in Reading Education. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. In consultation with the advisor, major issues in the field of reading education are selected for investigation through independent study. Number of hours of involvement determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

RDG 620 Use of Multi-Media Resources in Reading. 3(3-0) D.

Criteria, methods and tools for selection and effective utilization of books, magazines, recordings, films, computer software, television programs, and other materials enhancing and encouraging reading competency; production of materials utilizing various media. Students concentrate study within their level of training (elementary or secondary).

RDG 670 Remedial Reading for the Clinician. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: RDG 574. Designed especially for the special reading teacher or clinician who needs an advanced course for the remedial reader. Psycho-educational testing techniques, multisensory teaching techniques, report writing, resource personnel, and clinic operations will form the basis for this course. It is not recommended for those seeking regular classroom techniques.

RDG 671 Diagnosis of Reading Problems. 3(1-4) Su.

Prerequisite: RDG 670 and concurrent enrollment in RDG 672. Supervised individual practice diagnosing reading problems; teacher works with either elementary, secondary or adult pupils. Includes 4 hours of practicum.

RDG 672 Remediation of Reading Problems. 3(1-4) Su. Prerequisite: RDG 670 and concurrent enrollment in RDG 671.

Supervised individual practice with remedial procedures for reading problems; teacher works with either elementary, secondary or adult pupils. Includes 4 hours of practicum.

RDG 673 Psychology of Reading. 3(3-0) D.

Practical contemporary learning theories, physiological aspects and psycholinguistic principles which are subservient to learning to read. How one learns to read based on research in the area of education, psychology, neurology, and physiology.

RDG 674 Assessment and Instruction of Less Skilled Readers. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: RDG 318 or both RDG 420 and RDG 421, or equivalent. Supervised small group practice in a clinical setting assessing and instructing students who are experiencing difficulty learning to read. Less intensive and more generalized clinical experience for those not intending to pursue remedial reading certification. May not be substituted for any course required for special reading certification (RDG 574, 670, 671, or 672).

RDG 675 The Relationship of Language to Reading and Intellectual Development. 3(3-0) F,S,Su.

Utilizing elements of language and intellectual development which provide the basis for the development of appropriate reading skills. Helping teachers gain skill in using teaching strategies which help children develop language and intellectual competencies. To be taken during the first semester of the graduate reading program.

RDG 677 Reading in the Content Fields. 3(3-0) S.

Teaching subject matter in content areas in ways for utilizing and further developing fundamental reading; effective reading skills, vocabulary development in specific areas, study skills, utilization of cognitive processes.

RDG 678 (676) Curriculum Design in Reading. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: RDG 675 and RDG 677. Students will research and read literature to prepare for establishing a total school reading curriculum.

This capstone course is usually taken during the semester students take comprehensive exams.

RDG 679 Seminar in Reading. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 690 and RDG 675 or RDG 677. An in-depth study of a topic in reading, leading to the guided development and completion of an extensive research paper.

RDG 699 Thesis. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690 and RDG 675 and RDG 677. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit.

Secondary Education Courses

SEC 300 Clinical and Field Experiences in Secondary Education. 2(0-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 250 and an initial C-Base exam must be taken and concurrent enrollment in SEC 301. Students enrolled attend a weekly clinical and/or discussion session on campus and participate in field experiences at the Greenwood Laboratory School and/or area secondary schools. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

SEC 301 Introduction to Teaching in the Secondary School. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 250 and an initial C-Base exam must be taken and concurrent enrollment in SEC 300. Principles and objectives of secondary education; methods of meeting the diverse educational needs of today's secondary students; techniques of teaching; unit construction and daily planning. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493, SEC 494 or SPE 481. This course may not be taken pass/not pass. Required first portfolio checkpoint will occur in this course.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

SEC 493 Supervised Teaching (Secondary). 6 F,S.

Prerequisite: completion of all method courses in chosen content area; a grade of "C" or better in all professional education courses; approval for student teaching. Student observes, then teaches under the direction of the cooperating teacher and the college supervisor. Student participates in school related activities appropriate to the assignment and attends all required meetings. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

SEC 494 Supervised Teaching (Secondary). 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: SEC 493 or ELE 495 or SPE 495. Student observes, then teaches under the direction of the cooperating teacher and the college supervisor. Student participates in school related activities appropriate to the assignment and attends all required meetings. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). Students will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade.

SEC 505 Methods & Materials in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. 3(3-0)S.

Prerequisite: ENG 595. Contemporary approaches to teaching grammar, reading, writing, listening, and speaking for students who are learning English as a second language. Includes material design, development, and evaluation; student assessment; integration of all components into a unified TESOL curriculum.

SEC 522 Philosophy of Vocational Education. (Identical to BSE 522 and TEC 522) 1-3, D.

Philosophical foundations of vocational education; philosophies of vocational education in contemporary school. Meets Missouri vocational education certification requirements. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

SEC 526 Coordination of Cooperative Education. (Identical with BSE 526 and TEC 526) 1-2, D.

Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission of department head. Problems and procedures in organizing and operating part-time cooperative and evening occupation programs. Restricted to those who can qualify as coordinators. May be repeated to a total of 2 hours.

SEC 527 Teaching Adults in Vocational Education. (Identical with AGE 508, and TEC 527) 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission of department head. Rise of the adult education movement; learning abilities, educational interests and vocational needs of adults; problems and procedures in organizing and operating adult education programs; relationship of adult education to public school education.

SEC 528 Measurement and Evaluation of Vocational Education Programs. (Identical with BSE 528 and TEC 528) 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: teacher certification or permission of department head. Assessing specific program needs as determined from occupational surveys and other demographic data; follow-up techniques to evaluate the overall effectiveness of the program on manpower needs in a given labor market area. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students. Admission to the graduate program and/or permission from a graduate faculty advisor is required to enroll in the following courses.

SEC 601 Secondary School Curriculum. 3(3-0) D.

Foundation course in the development and organization of the secondary school curriculum.

SEC 603 Seminar in Current Trends in Teaching English. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: ENG 405. For experienced teachers of English in grades 9-12; research and recent developments in teaching literature and composition.

SEC 604 Seminar in Current Trends in Teaching Social Studies. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: HST 418. For experienced teachers of social studies in grades 9-12; research and recent developments in teaching various areas of social studies.

SEC 605 Curriculum Construction in Business Education. (Identical to BSE 605) 1-3 D.

Objectives and interrelationships of business education courses and programs. Development of curricular materials and evaluative devices. Meets Missouri Vocational Education certification requirement. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

SEC 606 Seminar in Current Trends in Teaching Business Education. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: BSE 403. For experienced teachers of business education in grades 9-12; research and recent developments in teaching business education.

SEC 607 Seminar in Current Trends in Teaching Mathematics. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 409. For experienced teachers of mathematics in grades 9-12; research in recent trends and developments in teaching mathematics.

SEC 608 Seminar in Current Trends in the Teaching of Biology. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: SCI 414. Methods of teaching biology; emphasizing modern techniques and developments in both the biological science curriculum and instructional procedures relating to that curriculum.

SEC 683 Internship in Teaching I. 3(1-4) D.

A site-based clinical experience. Students will observe the operations of a school, serve as teacher aides and administrative aides in the school; and work closely with school and community service organizations. Students will also attend an ongoing seminar.

SEC 684 Internship in Teaching II. 10(2-16) D.

Prerequisite: SEC 683. A semester-long supervised teaching experience. Students teach full time, under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and a University supervisor. Students also attend an ongoing seminar and design a research project required for graduation.

SEC 685 Internship in Teaching III. 1 D.

Prerequisite: SEC 683 and SEC 684. Students will complete an action research project and a professional preparation portfolio. Students will also attend an ongoing seminar, and are required to sit for an oral defense of both the research project and the portfolio.

Secondary Education, Foundations and Educational Research Courses

SFR 150 (SFT) Introduction to Teaching. 2(2-0) F,S.

An introduction to the teaching profession. Includes topics, observations, projects, and information designed to aid students in making a decision as to whether to enter the teaching profession. Does not satisfy any professional education requirement for either the B.S. in education or state certification.

Research methods used in education; problems of interpretation and application; basic form and structure in research.

SFR 691 (SFT) Educational Workshop. 1-9 D.

Workshop to upgrade understandings and skills, concerned with the improvement of secondary teaching procedures, curriculum, supervision, administration or guidance. Each workshop will be concerned with a single topic. Number of class hours determined by length of workshop. May be repeated to a maximum of 9 hours. Thirty clock hours equal one semester hour.

SFR 692 (SFT) Supervision of Student Teachers. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: valid elementary or secondary teaching certificate. For public school teachers cooperating in college student-teaching programs; organizing and directing work of the student teacher.

SFR 693 (SFT) School Ethnography 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. This course is an introduction to the use of ethnographic or qualitative methods in educational research. Explored in some depth are anthropological, sociological, and other traditions in school ethnography. Students will conduct their own ethnographic studies and by doing so will learn first hand how to frame research questions, gain access to research sites, collect data through triangulation, analyze data, and develop theories. Students will also find out how ethnography can be used to improve classroom practices and school policy.

SFR 694 (SFT) Research Practicum. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. Conducting research projects with schools and other educational agencies. Students will be engaged in articulating research problems, reviewing literature, collecting and analyzing data, and presenting results.

SFR 696 (SFT) Problems in Education. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Specific problems in education related to needs and interests of the student. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

SFR 699 (SFT) Thesis. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: SFR 690. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit.

SFR 758 (SFT) Current Issues Affecting Education. 1-3 D.

This multi-disciplinary mini-course is composed of selected topics of current interest to all school personnel. Opportunities are provided for object examination of highly volatile controversies surrounding education. May be repeated for a total of 6 hours credit.

SFR 790 (SFT) Field Research and Evaluation. 3(3-0).

Prerequisite: SFR 690 or permission of department head. Specifically designed to give each student the prerequisite skills and competencies necessary for completion of field study research project(s) as well as preparation for conducting on-the-job institutional research.

Special Education Courses

SPE 300 Service Learning in Special Education. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Special Education course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Special Education to provide an integrated learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

SPE 310 (330) Introduction to Special Education. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 250 and an initial C-Base taken; with permission, Special Education majors may concurrently enroll in SFR 250. This course will focus on the special education process as mandated by state and federal guidelines. Legislation, litigation, and service options pertaining to diverse populations will be stressed including those with disabilities, culturally diverse, and gifted. Emphasis will be placed on current issues in the field of special education. Students will participate in observations in appropriate school and agency settings. Required first portfolio checkpoint will occur in this course.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in all of the following courses.

SPE 320 Introduction to Teaching Cross Categorical Special Education. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SFR 250 and SPE 310. This course will focus on students served in cross categorical special education settings as well as low incidence populations. Emphasis will be placed on theoretical perspectives, etiology, characteristics, and historical aspects pertaining to individuals with mental retardation, developmental disabilities, behavior disorders/emotional disturbance, and learning disabilities.

SPE 321 Introduction to Teaching Cross-Categorical Special Education Lab. 2(0-4) F,S.

To be taken concurrently with SPE 320. This lab will provide students with opportunities to analyze case studies and programming for children and youth with learning disabilities, mental retardation/developmental disabilities, behavioral disorders, and physical and other health impairments.

SPE 340 (530) Educational Alternative for Exceptional Students. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 or ELE 302. The course will provide an overview of characteristics and identification criteria for individuals with disabilities and gifted. Legislation and process pertaining to special education will be addressed along with a focus on teaching individuals with diversity in the elementary, middle, and secondary educational setting. May not be substituted for SPE 330 core requirement in the special education major or minor.

SPE 345 (535) Educational Evaluation of Exceptional Students. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SPE 320 and SPE 321 and concurrent enrollment in SPE 346, or permission. This course will focus on mastery of psychometric principles as well as diagnostic and prescriptive teaching from performance based data. Federal and state process guidelines pertaining to multidisciplinary evaluation will be addressed. Emphasis will be placed on assessment of diverse individuals including those with disabilities, cultural, ethnic, and language differences. Course content will address developmental as well as vocational assessment.

SPE 346 Educational Evaluation of Exceptional Students Lab. 2(0-4) F,S.

Concurrent enrollment in SPE 345 or permission is required. Students will apply course content presented in SPE 345 through field based and lab activities including administration and scoring of standardized assessment instruments, development of alternative assessments, data analysis, and report writing. Lab experiences will be designed to meet specific competencies in either Early Childhood Special Education or Special Education K-12.

SPE 450 Methods of Teaching Mathematics to Exceptional Individuals. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346 and MTH 320. The focus of the course will include accommodating individual differences and diversifying instruction in the area of mathematics. Students will develop performance based assessment procedures, conduct error analyses, and apply mathematics skills in program planning for the diverse learner.

SPE 460 Curriculum Materials for Exceptional Students. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: SPE 310. This course examines curriculum materials for use with exceptional students in various remedial areas. Students will develop skills to analyze, select, utilize, and evaluate instructional guides and materials.

SPE 480 Problems in Special Education. 1-5 D.

Prerequisite: permission may be required—see schedule. The student in consultation with the advisor or teacher selects a topic in special education for in-depth study and/or special investigation. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 5 hours. Variable Content Course.

SPE 485 Curriculum and Methods in Early Childhood Special Education. 4(3-2) D.

Prerequisite: ECE 401 and ECE 402. This course will focus on major aspects in early childhood special education including legislation, litigation, and current issues in the field. Each area of development of young children with disabilities will be a part of the course with particular emphasis on adaptation of materials and curricula to meet the needs of these children. There will also be a focus on families and issues surrounding assessment and eligibility for special education programs. Reflection on current practices and services for young children with disabilities will be included. Thirty clock hours of field experience will be required.

SPE 488 (588) Behavioral Analysis and Intervention. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346. This course will focus on an analysis of behavior through a variety of behavioral assessment and recording techniques and the development of appropriate educational plans. Emphasis will be placed on proactive methods of behavior change and the development of positive instructional environments.

SPE 491 (494) Practicum – Teaching Individuals with Behavior Disorders/Emotional Disturbance. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in SPE 581. Students will apply skills from introductory and specialized courses in settings with students with behavior disorders/emotional disturbance. Students will be involved in individual and small group instruction, review diagnostic data, develop and implement educational programs, as well as meet with the university supervisor and other practicum students to reflect on experiences.

SPE 492 (595) Practicum – Teaching Individuals with Learning Disabilities. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in SPE 582. Students will apply skills from introductory and specialized courses in settings with students with learning disabilities. Students will be involved in individual small group instruction, develop and implement instructional lessons, and meet with the university supervisor and other practicum students to reflect on experiences.

SPE 493 (596) Practicum – Teaching Individuals with Mental Retardation/Developmental Disabilities. 2(0-4) S,Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in SPE 583. Students will apply skills from introductory and specialized courses in settings with students with mental retardation and developmental disabilities. Students will be involved in individual and small group instruction, develop and implement educational programs, as well as meet with the university supervisor and other practicum students to reflect on experiences.

SPE 495 (481) Supervised Teaching – Special Education. 6, F,S.

Prerequisite: completion of SPE 510 and SPE 581 and SPE 582 and SPE 583; a grade of “C” or better in all professional education courses; approval for teaching. Student observes, teaches, and participates in professional activities under the direction of the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. Student will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade. Credited only on BSSED degree.

SPE 496 (481) Supervised Teaching – Special Education. 6, F,S.

Prerequisite: ELE 495 or SEC 493 or SPE 495. Student observes, teaches, and participates in professional activities under the direction of the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. Student will be required to complete the work on the Professional Preparation Portfolio which will be included as a portion of the course grade. Credited only on BSSED degree.

The following courses (SPE 500-509) do NOT require Admission to the Teacher Education Program.

SPE 500 Introduction to Autism. 1(1-0) D.

This course is designed to give educators, parents, service provision agency personnel, and other interested persons an overview of autism as an educational disorder. The fifteen hours of course contact constitute part one of the Missouri Autism Institute, and provide basic information regarding the educational diagnostic condition of autism.

SPE 501 Working with Autistic Students in the Schools. 1-2 D.

Prerequisite: SPE 500 or permission of the department head. This course constitutes the second and last segment of the Missouri Autism Institute for educators who are, or will be, serving school-aged students with autism. Designed as an extension of the SPE 500, this course explores the education of school-age students with autism in greater depth. Variable 1-2 hours: Decision in consultation with advisor and/or department head. May be repeated for maximum of 2 hours with permission of department head.

SPE 502 Early Intervention for Young Children with Autism. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: SPE 500 or permission of the department head. This course constitutes the second and last segment of the Missouri Autism Institute for educators who are, or will be, working with young children birth to age six who experience symptoms of autism.

SPE 503 Assessment of Students with Autism for School Placement and Programming. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: SPE 500 or permission of the department head. This two-day course is intended for school multidisciplinary teams responsible for evaluation of children with academic, cognitive, communication, and social/behavior disorders suspected to be related to autism. Designed to expand upon knowledge gained in SPE 500, content will cover the seven evaluation areas required under state and federal law: vision, hearing, health/motor (physical status), social/emotional/behavioral, verbal and nonverbal communication, cognitive and adaptive behavior, and academic/vocational. Diagnosis, functional assessment for programming, as well as report writing will be addressed.

SPE 504 In-District Autism Consultant Training. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: SPE 500, current Missouri teaching certification, or the permission of the department head. Students will study advanced educational techniques of autism in general and educational methodologies specifically used with children with autism. Instruction will be provided in consultation and collaboration techniques. Students will demonstrate competence in educational report writing and inservice instruction. Personal professional development plans will be developed by each student, as well as a rating of personal competence. Students will be provided with resources for further study.

SPE 505 Braille Reading and Writing. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346, or SPE 682 or departmental permission. This course has been designed to assist teachers of children and youth with visual impairments develop basic competencies in reading and writing literary Braille, preparing correctly formatted Braille material, and an awareness and basic understanding of the Nemeth code for students grades K-12. In addition, students will develop an understanding for the rules of English Braille American Edition. Successful completion of this course should be regarded as only one step in a series of courses leading to certification in teaching students with visual impairments. An approved certification process must be completed in order to acquire basic and necessary competencies for work with children and youth with visual impairments. Teachers will employ the use of the Perkins Braille Writer and slate and stylus to produce high quality Braille material. Finally, the course has been designed to help teachers develop an appreciation for the Braille system and the application of this system to all aspects of life for individuals with visual impairments.

SPE 506 Orientation and Mobility. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346, or SPE 682 or departmental permission. The course will apply practical application of orientation and mobility techniques used by the blind or visually impaired. The student will use blindfolds and low vision simulators to perceive, integrate and react to different environmental stimuli. Development of cane techniques and use of low vision stimuli will be instructed and applied by each student in the course. Examination and application of the fundamental principles and theory of sensory information acquisition by the visually impaired or blind as it applies to the classroom teacher will be stressed.

SPE 507 Structure and Function of the Eye. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346, or SPE 682 or departmental permission. This course will provide prospective teachers and paraprofessionals who plan to work with children and youth who are low vision and blind with a fundamental understanding of the structure and anatomy of the eye. The course will address a full array of eye diseases and conditions and the educational implications.

SPE 508 Low Vision. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346, or SPE 682 or departmental permission. The course will apply practical application of low vision techniques used by teachers and rehabilitation specialists for the visually impaired. Terminology definitions, optics, and the use of low vision aides will be discussed. The student will use low vision stimulators to perceive, integrate and react to different environmental stimuli. Sections of the course will involve clinical low vision examinations. Development of the techniques and use of low vision stimuli will be instructed and applied by each student in the course. Examination and application of the fundamental principles and theory of sensory information acquisition by the visually impaired or blind as it applies to the classroom teacher will be stressed.

SPE 509 Methods of Teaching the Visually Impaired. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: SPE 345, and SPE 346, or SPE 682 or departmental permission. This course is one of five courses offered to provide prospective teachers of children and youth with visual impairments competency based training for work with this population in K-12 schools. SPE 509 provides students with the pedagogical preparation to effectively teach Braille reading and writing, organize activities to promote literacy development, utilization of assistive technology including voice output and other computer based applications, teach compensatory skills and strategies for mathematics, development of listening skills, as well as other instructional adaptations for the curricular areas of language arts, science, and social studies. In addition, the course focuses on the teaching of social skills needed for success in education and employment. The course requires a total of 60 clock hours working in settings with children and youth with visual impairments.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program is required to enroll in any of the following courses.

SPE 510 Physical and Health Needs of Students with Disabilities. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346. This course will focus on the role of the special educator in management of health related issues such as monitoring medication and providing services to individuals with specialized self care needs and those with chronic illness. Emphasis will be placed on collaboration with related services staff and medical personnel as well as the integration of the student with health care needs into school and community settings.

SPE 550 (350) Career/Vocational Education and Transition. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SPE 310 or concurrent enrollment. Legislation and process pertaining to transition services for individuals with disabilities will be emphasized. Students will explore vocational service delivery options and the role of the multidisciplinary team in the development and implementation of appropriate life skill programming across the age span.

SPE 556 Topical Issues in Special Education. 1-5 D.

Prerequisite: permission may be required—see schedule. To develop understanding and skills in relevant areas of special education. Each offering concerns a single topic. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 5 hours when topics change. Variable Content Course.

SPE 560 (360) Working with Families of Exceptional Individuals. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SPE 310 or concurrent enrollment. The relationship between families of children with special needs and various agencies is a central theme of this course. Techniques for working with a variety of families will be explored along with the impact of many ecological factors on families of students with disabilities.

SPE 581 (484) Methods of Teaching Individuals with Behavior Disorders/Emotional Disturbance. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: SPE 488 and concurrent enrollment in SPE 491. This course will focus on application of theoretical perspectives and research-based methods of teaching students with emotional and behavior disturbances. Evaluation procedures appropriate to analysis of social behavior and monitoring behavioral change will be emphasized along with educational programming that promotes social development and inclusion.

SPE 582 (482) Methods of Teaching Individuals with Learning Disabilities. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346 and SPE 488 and concurrent enrollment in SPE 492. Students will apply theoretical perspectives and research based methods in the development of diagnostic reports and educational plans for students with Learning Disabilities. Emphasis will be placed on the educator as a collaborator and advocate for provision of services in integrated settings; and on the educator as a specialist in evaluation, curricular accommodation, and modification.

SPE 583 (483) Methods of Teaching Individuals with Mental Retardation/Developmental Disabilities. 3(3-0) S,Su.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346 and SPE 488 and concurrent enrollment in SPE 493. The course will stress application of theoretical perspectives and research-based methods for individuals with mental retardation and developmental disabilities. Students will conduct an analysis of assessment data, apply data in the development of diagnostic conclusions and corresponding educational plans. Emphasis will be placed on evaluation and programming for integration in school, community, and vocational settings.

SPE 584 Language Development of Exceptional Students. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SPE 345 and SPE 346. Language development and intervention for exceptional individuals. Language assessment and curriculum development for individuals with disabilities, as well as for individuals who are culturally and ethnically diverse, will be addressed.

SPE 587 Introduction to the Education of Students with Behavior Disorders. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SPE 310. Students will acquire knowledge of identification, classification, diagnostic, and educational planning procedures based on the predominant conceptual models. Required for certification as teacher of students with behavior disorders.

SPE 590 Approaches in Mainstreaming Exceptional Students. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: SPE 310 or 340. Application of methods for modifying instructional materials and curriculum to help special education and regular classroom teachers meet the demands of mainstreaming.

SPE 591 Clinical Practicum in Special Education. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: completion of SPE 491 and SPE 492 and SPE 493, or previous certification. This course is open to professionals with teaching certification or students pursuing a minor requiring credit hours in addition to SPE 491, 492, or 493. Permission is required. Students will collect data, develop and implement individual educational programs, and submit an extensive written report. Assignments will be based on area of certification need.

The following courses are open only to students admitted to the graduate program or those with permission from a graduate faculty advisor.

SPE 610 Problems in Special Education. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Major issues in the field of special education designed to meet individual students needs. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

SPE 679 Application of Technology in Special Education. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education or permission of director. This course is designed to provide teachers with an in depth treatment of the research, theory, and application of computers and related technologies in the instruction of children and adults with learning, behavior, sensory, motor and communication disabilities. Students will incorporate the principles of reflective practice as it pertains to the assessment, selection of devices, and evaluation of assistive technologies for individuals with disabilities. The General Learning Outcomes 5, 9, and 10 presented in the Conceptual Framework of the Professional Education Unit (PEU) are the over arching tenets which guided the development and ongoing revisions to this course. Students acquire competencies related to the use of assistive devices and emerging technologies through participation in a 60 hour comprehensive field based experience in conjunction with schools and other agencies which serve individuals with disabilities.

SPE 680 Contemporary Issues in Special Education. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education or permission of the director. Analysis of trends, issues, and research in the field of special education will be reviewed and discussed. A comprehensive overview of local, state, and federal legislation and the impact on our public school special educational programs for children with disabilities will be discussed and analyzed. Historical and current litigation involving children with disabilities will be reviewed and discussed.

SPE 681 Educational Consultation. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education or permission of the director. The course seeks to develop students' skills in collaboration consultation. Emphasis will be placed on the development of innovative service delivery options, personnel training, and development of communication skills. Students will apply theory to practice in a field experience.

SPE 682 Advanced Diagnosis and Remediation of Students with Mild to Moderate Disabilities. 3(1-4) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 345 and SPE 346 or equivalent; or permission of director. Students will observe and participate in a variety of assessment and multidisciplinary team activities. Development of leadership skills will be stressed through participation in clinical field experiences involving standardized and performance evaluation of students with learning disabilities, analysis and synthesis of assessment data in clinical staffings, and development of educational programs. Students enrolled in this course should have prior knowledge of assessment including administration, scoring, and interpretation.

SPE 683 Advanced Diagnosis and Remediation of Students with Low Incidence Disabilities. 3(1-4) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 345 and SPE 346 or equivalent. Students will observe and participate in a variety of assessment and multidisciplinary team activities. Development of leadership skills will be stressed through participation in field experiences involving standardized and performance evaluation of students with mental retardation and developmental disabilities, analysis and synthesis of assessment data in clinical staffings, and development of individual educational plans. Students enrolled in this course should have prior knowledge of assessment including administration, scoring, and interpretation.

SPE 684 Advanced Procedures in Teaching Students with Mild to Moderate Disabilities. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 345 and SPE 346 and SPE 488 and SPE 680; SPE 682 or concurrent enrollment; and a minimum of two special education methods courses prior to enrollment (SPE 581, 582, 583). The primary purpose of the course is to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary for development and application of curricula appropriate to the needs of individuals with mild to moderate disabilities. Emphasis will be placed on the philosophical basis of curricula as well as principles of curricula design. Students will apply knowledge and skills in 60 hours of required field experiences.

SPE 685 Advanced Procedures in Teaching Students with Low Incidence Disabilities. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 345 and SPE 346 and SPE 488 and SPE 680; SPE 683 or concurrent enrollment; and a minimum of two special education methods courses prior to enrollment (SPE 581, 582, 583). The primary purpose of the course is to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary for development and application of curricula appropriate to the needs of individuals with mental retardation and other developmental disabilities. Emphasis will be placed on the philosophical basis of curricula as well as principles of curricular design. Students will apply knowledge and skills in field experiences.

SPE 687 Advanced Behavioral Analysis and Intervention. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 488 and SPE 680 and SPE 682 and SPE 683 and SPE 684 and SPE 685. Study of human behavior. The goal of applied behavior analysis is to seek understanding and improvement of human behavior. The goals of this class is to prepare graduate students to be contributing professionals in the area of applied behavior analysis; specifically, to become reflective behaviorists. Students will learn to identify, measure, and record the occurrence and nonoccurrence of behavior. Students will be expected to implement applied behavioral strategies and learn how to evaluate the success of single-subject studies as part of a 60 hour field experience.

SPE 688 (686) Seminar: Special Education Programs. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 680 and SPE 682 and SPE 683 and SPE 684 and SPE 685 and SPE 687 and SFR 690. An in-depth study of a chosen topic in special education leading to the guided development and completion of an extensive research paper or major creative work. Graduate students are expected to complete a 60 hour field experience associated with the summer project.

SPE 689 Practicum: The Exceptional Child. 3(0-6) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SPE 680 and SPE 682 and SPE 683 and SPE 684 and SPE 685 and SPE 687. Student observes, teaches, and/or participates in professional activities in Special Education under the direction of a cooperating supervisor and University supervisor. Students will work with individuals or groups demonstrating effective teaching and behavior management techniques, as well as expertise in instructional planning and evaluation.

SPE 690 Educational Workshop. 1-5 D.

Workshop to upgrade understandings and skills concerned with the improvement of elementary or secondary teaching procedures, curriculum, supervision, administration or guidance. Each workshop will be concerned with a single topic. Number of class hours determined by length of workshop. May be repeated to a maximum of 5 hours credit. 30 clock hours equal 1 semester hour.

SPE 692 Advanced Diagnosis and Remediation of Students with Disabilities Lab. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education; and concurrent enrollment with SPE 682 or SPE 683; and SPE 345 or SPE 346 or equivalent. Students will conduct standardized and informal assessments in the field as part of a 60 hour practicum/lab experience and develop a comprehensive case history. Emphasis will be placed on development of validated educational programs.

SPE 699 Thesis. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program for Special Education and SFR 690 and SPE 679 and SPE 680 and SPE 682 and SPE 683 and SPE 684 and SPE 685 and SPE 687 and SPE 689. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit.

Child Development Laboratory (CDL)

The Department of Consumer and Family Studies operates infant, toddler, and preschool programs as training grounds for University students majoring in child and family development. The CDL is also used for observation of young children by students in nursing, sociology, psychology, music and education. Lab school children and their parents agree to serve as subjects for research conducted by faculty and students. The CDL has been accredited by the Missouri Board for Voluntary Accreditation of Early Childhood Education Programs.

Learning Diagnostic Clinic

See "Student Services" section for details.

Speech – Language and Hearing Clinic

The Clinic provides evaluation and treatment for all ages in the areas of audiology, education of the hearing impaired and speech-language pathology. The Parent-Infant Program for hearing impaired infants and parents and the Preschool for the Deaf provide teaching and support for the development of language, speech, social and cognitive skills. The Audiology Program includes hearing evaluations, hearing aid fitting, assistive listening device fitting and aural rehabilitation. The Speech-Language Pathology Program provides individual diagnosis and treatment for all types of communication disorders. Graduate students in the Communication Sciences and Disorders Department provide services supervised by certified and licensed professionals.

General Education Courses

The following courses may be counted toward partial fulfillment of the General Education Natural World Area of Inquiry requirement: BMS 100, 105, 110.

Majors

Cell and Molecular Biology (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

The comprehensive major, Cell and Molecular Biology (CMB), is a rigorous and selective program in the sciences that prepares academically-serious students for:

- 1) graduate work in cell biology or molecular biology,
- 2) graduate work in fields such as biotechnology, biochemistry, physiology, pharmacology, and microbiology where a strong undergraduate foundation in cell and molecular biology would be an asset,
- 3) professional schools of medicine, dentistry, optometry, or other health-related professions or paraprofessions, and,
- 4) employment in cell biology and biotechnology-based industries.

Because of sequential prerequisites, limited course offerings, and tight course scheduling, students seeking formal admission to the degree program must begin to plan their program with a Cell and Molecular Biology (CMB) advisor in the Department of Biomedical Sciences early during their freshman year.

Admission Requirements

Formal admission to the Cell and Molecular Biology (CMB) major requires completion of at least 25 hours of course work, including BMS 110, 230, and CHM 160, and a cumulative and science GPA of 2.50 or higher. In the terminal semester each CMB major is required to take a comprehensive examination in Cell and Molecular biology.

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

Specific General Education Requirements:

CHM 160(4); PHY 123(4) or 203(5); MTH 287(3) or 261(5)

B. Major Requirements (54-57 hours)

1. Biomedical Sciences Courses Required: BMS 110(5), 230(3), 321(4), 521(4), 525(4)
2. Requirements From Other Departments: CHM 170(3), 175(2), 310(5), 311(5) or 312(3); PHY 124(4) or 204(5)
3. Other requirements: At least 17 hours of appropriate electives, selected in consultation with the student's advisor, numbered 300 or above. At least 10 of these elective hours must carry a BMS prefix. Recommended Electives: BMS 308(4), 497(1-3),

498(1-3), 514(2), 516(4), 524(3), 529(3), 540(2), 558(3), 569(3), 582(4), 584(3), 585(4); BIO 310(5), 511(4); CHM 480(4), 550(3)

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements

(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Pre-Professional Curriculum in Osteopathic Medicine

This program is an accelerated admissions program in cooperation with Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine (KCOM). The program is a five-year program, entailing three years of undergraduate work at SMSU followed by two years at KCOM prior to awarding the Bachelor's degree. Students considering this program should consult with the Pre-medical advisor in the Department of Biomedical Sciences to determine eligibility and to receive advice pertaining to application procedures.

By completing this option of approximately 100 hours, a student may apply for a B.S. degree in Cell and Molecular Biology from Southwest Missouri State University after successfully completing the first two years of the Osteopathic Medicine program at Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine.

A. General Education Requirements 43-54 (Including University and Departmental Requirements)

B. Cell and Molecular Biology Requirements 28 BMS 110(5)*, 230(3), 307(4), 308(4), 321(4), 521(4) and 525(4)

C. Additional Science and Mathematics Requirements 30 MTH 287(3), CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2), 310(5), 311(5), PHY 123(4)* and PHY 124(4)

D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements

(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

*May be included in General Education Requirements.

Dietetics (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

The Dietetics program is currently granted approval status by the Commission on Accreditation/Approval for Dietetics Education of The American Dietetic Association, a specialized accrediting body recognized by the Commission on Recognition of Postsecondary Accreditation and the United States Department of Education. Graduates of approved programs are eligible to apply for accredited preprofessional practice programs to complete the supervised experience requirement for the Registration Examination for Dietitians.

Admission Requirements

Completion of at least 45 hours, including BMS 240 and BMS 308 with a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
The following program requirements may be used to fulfill general education requirements: BMS 110(5); CHM 105(5) or 160(4); CIS 101(2) or CSC 101(2); PSY 121(3); ECO 155(3). Other recommended general education courses include: PHI 105(3), PHI 115(3), and SOC 150(3).
- B. Major Requirements
1. Biomedical Sciences Courses: BMS 110(5), 195(1), 240(3), 307(4), 308(4), 330(1), 331(4), 333(3), 335(3), 340(3), 561(4) or 567(4), 430(2), 432(3), 436(4), 438(5), 439(1), 445(3), 446(4), 498(1).
 2. Related requirements: ACC 109(1); BIO 210(3); CHM 105(5) or 160(4) and 170(3) and 173(2), 200(5), 350(3); CIS 101(2) or CSC 101(2); ECO 155(3); ENG 321(3); HRA 321(3); MGT 320(3) or MGT 340(3); MTH 340(3) or MTH 545(3) or PSY 200(3) or QBA 237(3) or SOC 302(3); PSY 121(3). Recommended electives: CHM 351(2); MKT 350(3).
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirement
(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog).

Requirements for ADA Verification Statement of Completion of Didactic Program in Dietetics

A cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 with a "C" grade or higher in all courses required for the major.

Medical Technology (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

Students desiring to enter medical technology may secure preparatory training at Southwest Missouri State University. All the requirements for the Bachelor of Science must be met with a minimum of 95 credit hours completed prior to entry into the clinical phase of the program. For the major, the University will grant 30-39 hours of upper division credit in medical technology upon completion of the work given in a NAACLS approved school of medical technology. The actual number of hours granted depends on which school of medical technology the student attends. Before a student matriculates to an approved school, he/she must secure a letter from the Records Office which indicates the completion of all requirements for the degree other than the training at the school of medical technology.

Southwest Missouri State University has entered into agreements with the school of medical technology at St. John's Medical Center (Joplin), Cox Medical Center (Springfield), North Kansas City Hospital (Kansas City), and the Jewish Hospital College of Nursing and Allied Health (St. Louis) whereby a medical technology major may complete his/her work at one of those schools. Under these agreements, the student must meet the requirements for admission at the school of his/her choice as outlined above. Courses taken at one of the above schools will be entered directly on the SMSU academic record and the grades earned in those courses will be calculated into the cumulative SMSU grade point average. This combined averaging of grades applies only to medical technology students attending one of the affiliated schools. MTC courses may not be used toward satisfying the University's residence requirements for graduation. Those requirements must be met before entering a school of medical technology. The descriptions of the courses to be taken at the school of medical technology are listed under the MTC prefix.

Neither admission to the SMSU program of preparatory training nor completion of that program will insure admission to a school of medical technology. The student may apply for admission during the third year at SMSU, but acceptance by the medical technology school is at the discretion of that school.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
Specific General Education Requirements: BIO 121(4) or BMS 110(5); CHM 160(4)
- B. Major Requirements:

1. Additional Science Courses Required: BMS 230(3) or BIO 235(4), 310(5), 511(4); CHM 170(3), 175(2), 200(5) or 310(5), 330(5); BMS 521(4) or CHM 350(3) and 351(2)
 2. Science Electives: With advisor, choose at least one course from: BMS 307(4) or BIO 380(5); BMS 308(4); BIO 520(3); BMS 524(3); CHM 502(4)
 3. Clinical Course Requirements: MTC 401(10-12), 402(1-3), 403(4-6), 404(3-4), 405(7), 406(3-5), 407(2)
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements
(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minors

Biomedical Sciences Bachelor of Arts

Required Courses: BMS 110(5), 230(3), 307(4), 308(4). BIO 101 or 102 do not count toward the minor.

Biomedical Sciences Bachelor of Science

- A. Required Courses: BMS 110(5), 230(3), 307(4), 308(4)
- B. Choose Biomedical Sciences electives to bring total hours in the minor to at least 20 hours. BIO 101 or 102 do not count toward the minor.

Exercise Science Bachelor of Science

- A. Required Courses: BMS 430(2), 432(3), 450(3), 467(3), 521(4) or CHM 350(3), BMS 567(4)
- B. Choose electives from the following to bring total hours in the minor to at least 23 hours: BMS 230(3) or BIO 235(4); BMS 260(4), 335(3), 563(3), 569(3), 570(4); PED 369(3); PSY 508(3)

Molecular Biology Bachelor of Science

Required Courses: BMS 521(4), 524(3), 525(4), 529(3), 558(3); BIO 310(5)

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers majors in Cell and Molecular Biology and Nurse Anesthesia. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Master of Science in Cell and Molecular Biology Program

Eligible undergraduate majors in Cell and Molecular Biology may apply for preliminary acceptance into the Master of Science in Cell and Molecular Biology. This option offers an opportunity for Cell and Molecular Biology majors with significant undergraduate laboratory research experience to complete the requirements for the Master of Science degree in ten semesters and a summer with a minimum of 150 semester hours rather than the typical twelve semesters with a minimum of 157 semester hours. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Nurse Anesthesia Courses

These courses are open only to those students who have been admitted to the Nurse Anesthesia, Master of Science degree. The ANE courses are taught by adjunct faculty at St. John's Regional Health Center and will not be charged the basic per credit hour fee or the student services fees.

ANE 500 Clinical Conference I. 1(1-0) F,S.

Weekly review of significant anesthetic cases demonstrating management problems and complications involving varied pathology.

ANE 505 Orientation to Clinical Anesthesia. 2(2-0) F,S.

Introduction to anesthesia equipment, monitoring equipment and techniques, positioning, intravenous considerations, records, departmental management, ethics, departmental organization and function, legal and professional aspects.

ANE 510 Physics and Chemistry of Anesthesia. 1(1-0) F,S.

A presentation of the principles and laws of physics and chemistry applicable to the field of anesthesia.

ANE 530 Application of Anatomy and Physiology to Anesthesia I. 1(1-0) F,S.

An in-depth analysis of structures and function of the respiratory, circulatory and nervous systems emphasizing the relationships to anesthesia management.

ANE 540 Application of Anatomy and Physiology to Anesthesia II. 1(1-0) F,S.

An in-depth analysis of the special relationships between anesthesiology and the endocrine system, muscles, liver, kidney, altitude, and hypothermia.

ANE 560 Introduction to Clinical Anesthesia. 2(2-0) F,S.

Preoperative evaluation of patients, airway management, inhalation techniques, common complications of inductions and emergencies.

ANE 600 Clinical Conference II. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ANE 500. A review of significant cases involving complex anesthesia considerations.

ANE 601 Clinical Conference III. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ANE 600. Continuing review of significant cases involving complex anesthesia considerations.

ANE 602 Clinical Conference IV. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ANE 601. Continuing review of significant cases involving complex anesthesia considerations.

ANE 605 Principles of Clinical Anesthesia I. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: ANE 560. Requirements for specialized care. Pediatrics, obstetric, neonatology, geriatric, regional and general anesthesia.

ANE 610 Pharmacology of Anesthesia I. 1(1-0) F.

Prerequisite: ANE 505. Introductory course in pharmacology which summarizes basic pharmacological concepts.

ANE 618 (BMS) Clinical Practicum. 1-4, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Clinical experience in the anesthesiology department at St. John's Regional Health Center. Course may be repeated to a total of 20 hours.

ANE 625 Special Considerations of Anesthesia Care I. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: ANE 560. A review of subjects essential to the practice of anesthesia; O.R. Safety, medico-legal aspects, equipment, CPR lab values, immunology, enzymes in medicine.

ANE 630 Pharmacology of Anesthesia II. 1(1-0) F.

Prerequisite: ANE 505. An in-depth review of all drugs commonly used to provide the state of anesthesia.

ANE 635 Principles of Clinical Anesthesia II. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: ANE 560. Continuation of specialized care. Neuroanesthesia, cardiovascular, thoracic, and outpatient anesthesia pain problems, and recovery room care.

ANE 640 Pharmacology of Anesthesia III. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: ANE 560. Review of the effects of drugs required by medical patients whose drugs must continue intraoperatively.

ANE 655 Special Considerations of Anesthesia Care II. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: ANE 560. Review of fluids, acid-base and blood gases, pulmonary function testing, inhalation therapy, ventilators, tracheostomy, and respiratory distress syndrome.

ANE 660 Pharmacology of Anesthesia IV. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: ANE 560. Review of drugs frequently used by internist or surgeon, affecting anesthesia course.

Biomedical Sciences Courses

BMS 100 Concepts and Issues in the Life Sciences. 4(4-0) F,S.

A non-laboratory course that partially fulfills the general education requirement in the natural sciences. A foundation of knowledge and concepts in science and human biology. The nature of science, applications, and relationships of knowledge leading to an understanding of the biological individual and biomedical issues are stressed. (Students will receive credit for only one of the following: BMS 100, 105, or 110.)

BMS 105 Concepts and Laboratory in the Life Sciences. 4(3-2) F,S.

A laboratory course that partially fulfills the general education requirement in the natural sciences. A foundation of knowledge and concepts in science and human biology with laboratory experiences. The nature of science, applications, and relationships of knowledge leading to an understanding of the biological individual, biomedical issues, and human relationships to the environment are stressed. This course is not designed for students who plan more advanced laboratory work in the life sciences. (Students will receive credit for only one of the following: BMS 100, 105, or 110.)

BMS 110 Concepts in the Biomedical Sciences. 5(3-4) F,S.

An introductory course that focuses on examples in human biology and prepares students for further study in the biomedical sciences or cell/molecular biology. Partially fulfills the general education requirement for a laboratory course in the natural sciences. Designed for students planning further laboratory or course work in the biomedical sciences, such as departmental majors, minors, and others preparing for courses in human genetics, human anatomy and human physiology. Recommended for other science majors, students in pre-nursing and those preparing for various allied health professions, most preprofessional students, students in the social sciences, and others who require an understanding of the biological human. (Students will receive credit for only one of the following: BMS 100 or 105 or 110.)

BMS 111 Introductory Laboratory in the Biomedical Sciences. 2(0-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 100 or BMS 105 or permission of instructor. This course is identical to the laboratory portion of BMS 110 and is designed for students who require intensive introductory laboratory experience to prepare for future laboratory work in the biomedical sciences. (Students will not receive credit for both BMS 110 and BMS 111.)

BMS 113 (HLH 113) Introduction to Medical Technology. 1(0-2) S.

Designed to acquaint students with the field of medical technology through performance of simple procedures and explanation of test principles and diagnostic interpretation of results. Also designed to provide adequate exposure to the medical laboratory so that the student will be able to make a rational decision concerning a career in laboratory medicine.

BMS 195 Introduction to the Health Professions (Identical with HLH 195) 1(0-2) F,S.

Designed to familiarize students with a variety of health career opportunities, and to provide guidance in early curriculum planning and alternative career options.

BMS 230 Human Genetics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 110 or BIO 121. A survey of genetic principles in humans with emphasis on molecular genetics and human genetic abnormalities causing diseases and behavioral changes. A portion of the course requires students to research, report on, and discuss current topics in human genetics.

BMS 240 Introduction to Nutrition. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 105 or CHM 160. Study of nutrients with emphasis on their sources and functions in human growth and health. Discussion of current nutrition issues. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take BMS 363. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

BMS 260 (360) Biology of Aging. 4(4-0) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 105 or BMS 110 or BIO 121 and; either CHM 105 or CHM 106 or CHM 160. The physiology and biology of aging in humans. Designed for gerontology majors.

BMS 300 Service Learning in Biomedical Sciences. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent enrollment in BMS 240. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in one of the subdisciplines of Biomedical Sciences to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

BMS 307 Human Anatomy. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in BMS 105 or BMS 110, or BIO 102 or BIO 121. Lecture and laboratory study of selected human cells, tissues, organs and organ systems. Mammalian examples of various systems studied in laboratory. Credit will only be awarded once for BMS 267, 307 or BMW 267.

BMS 308 Human Physiology. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in BMS 307 or BIO 380 and; "C" or better in CHM 105 or CHM 160. A study of mechanisms for maintaining homeostasis in the human organism. Topics covered include cellular structure and function, neurophysiology, metabolism, endocrinology, cardiovascular, pulmonary, renal, and gastro-intestinal physiology. Emphasis is on cellular and molecular mechanisms of physiology. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take BMS 363. Credit will only be awarded once for BMS 268, 308 or BMW 268. This course cannot be taken pass/not pass.

BMS 310 Nutrition and Physical Activity in Aging. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 260 or BMS 308. Study of the nutritional requirements and physical activity needs of the elderly with emphasis on cardiorespiratory, musculoskeletal, and metabolic health and disease. Designed for gerontology majors, gerontology minors, and others interested in aging.

BMS 321 Biomolecular Interactions. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 230. Recommended: concurrent enrollment in CHM 310. An introduction to the types of small and large molecular interactions important in cell and molecular biology. The course emphasizes the use of interactive computer software in order to visualize and manipulate the structures of molecules and molecular combinations. Emphasis on laboratory skills and techniques used in the biomedical sciences.

BMS 330 Food Selection and Preparation for Optimum Health. 1(0-2) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 240 or concurrent enrollment. Selection and preparation of food that supports optimum health. Food and nutrition information on grocery shopping, dining out, home preparation of meals, snacks, and special occasion foods.

BMS 331 Food Science. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 240 and CHM 200 and HRA 321. Experimental approach to the study of physical and chemical factors influencing food quality during processing, preparation and storage.

BMS 333 (433) Nutrition Throughout the Life Span. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 240. Factors that influence nutrient requirements during pregnancy, lactation, infancy, childhood, adolescence and aging. Recommendations for food intake based upon assessment of case studies.

BMS 335 Nutritional Assessment. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 240. Methods used to assess the nutritional status of individuals and populations. Interpretation of anthropometric, biochemical, clinical and dietary data as a basis for recommending nutritional care.

BMS 340 Nutrition Counseling and Education. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 240 and BMS 330 and PSY 121. Principles and procedures of nutrition counseling and education. Emphasis on subject matter and skills necessary to develop, implement, evaluate and document nutritional care plans for individuals and groups. Includes simulation techniques and work with clients in selected settings.

BMS 361 Introduction to Pharmacology. (Identical with NUR 361) 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 308. Introduction to basic pharmacology, pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of major drug classifications.

BMS 380 Cooperative Education in Biomedical Sciences. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Provides the opportunity to earn academic credit by participation in supervised work experience. A variable content course that may be repeated to a maximum of 6 semester hours. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BMS 405 Clinical Practicum: Preventive and Rehabilitative Exercise. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 567 or PED 369 and permission of department head. Field experience in a comprehensive health enhancement organization under the supervision of a certified preventive and rehabilitative program director. Students are assigned to Hammons Heart Institute. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 6 hours. Enrollment is limited. Students planning to participate in the clinical practicum must contact the Biomedical Sciences Department Head during the first two weeks of preregistration. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BMS 430 Sports Nutrition. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 240. Nutrition as it relates to athletic performance and other areas of physical activity, including training and competition nutrition, fluids and hydration, weight management, supplements and ergogenic aids, the child athlete, and eating disorders.

BMS 432 Principles of Nutrition. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 240 and BMS 308 and CHM 200. Food nutrients, their digestion, absorption and metabolism. Methods of determining requirements and interrelationships of nutrients.

BMS 436 Medical Nutrition Therapy I. 4(3-2) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 335 and BMS 432 and CHM 350 (or concurrent enrollment in CHM 350). Principles and application of medical nutrition therapy as related to disease and stress. Transportation required.

BMS 438 Administrative Dietetics. 5(3-4) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 240 and HRA 321 and BIO 210 and ACC 109 and; either MGT 320 or MGT 340. Application of managerial processes to the delivery of food to patients in health care facilities. Menu planning; recipe development; food procurement; receiving and storage; food production; quality assurance; personnel selection, training, supervision and evaluation; management of financial resources; equipment selection and layout; computer-assisted management and distribution. Transportation required.

BMS 439 Senior Seminar in Dietetics. 1(1-0) F.

Prerequisite: Dietetics major and admitted to degree program and 90 hours. Procedures and application process for obtaining professional status through dietetic registration and licensure. Professional ethics and legal responsibilities. Strategies for integration of current issues into dietetic practice.

BMS 445 Community Nutrition. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 335 and PLS 101. Recommended: BMS 333 and; either MGT 320 or MGT 340. Factors affecting the nutritional status of the community; nutritional assessment and surveillance methodologies; governmental nutrition policies and legislation; community resources. The role of the community dietitian in nutrition program planning, implementation and evaluation. Transportation required.

BMS 446 Medical Nutrition Therapy II. 4(3-2) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 436. Principles and application of medical nutrition therapy as related to complex disease states. Transportation required.

BMS 450 (150) Introduction to Biomedical Biomechanics. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 308. Biomechanical fundamentals and principles as they apply to the human organism; description of normal motion emphasizing orthopedic biomechanics and neuromuscular control.

BMS 455 Extraterrestrial Life. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Scientific, technological, and philosophical foundations of astrobiology with emphasis on origins of life, life beyond Earth, and programs involving the search for extraterrestrial intelligence (SETI). Content stresses scientific evidence and knowledge, not science fiction. This course is not designed to count as a major or minor elective on any academic program.

BMS 460 Understanding AIDS. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 100 or BMS 105 or BMS 110 or BIO 100 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. Biological aspects of infection by HIV (human immunodeficiency virus) and the disease syndrome known as AIDS (acquired human immunodeficiency syndrome). Recommended for health care workers or students planning to enter the health and service professions, individuals who work with or counsel populations that include HIV-infected or AIDS patients, and others seeking knowledge for personal assurance against infection. (Students previously enrolled in BMS 497 under the Understanding AIDS special topic will not receive credit for BMS 460.)

BMS 467 Anatomy of Human Motion. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 450. Biological description of normal articulation and body segment motions involving the interrelationships of neural, muscular, and skeletal mechanisms. Designed for those who plan to utilize exercise science for careers which deal with the prevention, treatment, or rehabilitation of motion disabilities.

BMS 497 (400) Topics in Biomedical Sciences I. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Selected topics which will vary from semester to semester. Course may be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours by a student provided topics are different. Variable Credit, Variable Content Course. Course fee for selected sections.

BMS 498 Undergraduate Research. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Individualized and directed research. May be repeated to a maximum of 8 hours.

BMS 499 Projects in the Biomedical Sciences. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Supervised experience in an area of the Biomedical Sciences. Course may be taken by students majoring or minoring in an area of the biomedical sciences.

BMS 500 Special Topics in Biomedical Sciences II. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Selected topics of an advanced nature which will vary from semester to semester. Course may be repeated by a student for a maximum of 8 hours of credit provided topics are different.

BMS 514 Scanning Electron Microscopy. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours or permission of instructor. An introduction to microsurface analysis using scanning electron microscopy and X-ray microanalysis. Theoretical considerations and laboratory procedures involve both techniques but the major emphasis will be on generation of secondary electron images. Some attention is devoted to backscattered electron imaging, X-ray mapping, stereo pair imaging, and related image processing techniques.

BMS 516 Transmission Electron Microscopy. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: 20 credit hours in BMS or BIO. Demonstration of basic transmission electron microscopy techniques and microscope use. Emphasis is on ultrathin sectioning techniques; additional techniques include support film preparation, negative staining, immunogold localization procedures, and digital processing of photographic prints and negatives.

BMS 520 Medical Cell Biology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in Nurse Anesthesia program or permission of instructor. Focus on the molecular aspects of cell biology for students in the Nurse Anesthesia program. Content identical to the lecture part of BMS 521. Students may not receive credit for both BMS 520 and 521.

BMS 521 Molecular Cell Biology. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 321 and; either CHM 200 or CHM 310. Origins, structure and function of cells and basic life processes from a molecular perspective. Major topics focus on the energy, chemical, and information exchanges within and among cells and their environment. Students may not receive credit for both BMS 520 and 521.

BMS 524 Virology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 310 or BMS 521. The molecular biology and pathogenicity of animal viruses; basic techniques of tissue culture and virology will be performed in the laboratory.

BMS 525 (358) Molecular Biology. 4(3-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 521. In-depth examination of nucleic acid structure, function, regulation, repair, and mutagenesis; principles of genetic engineering. Laboratory provides experience in the techniques used to isolate, separate, quantitate, characterize, and modify nucleic acids. The course also includes an introduction to the GenBank and EMBL nucleic acid and protein sequence databases.

BMS 529 (519) Molecular Genetics. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 525. Recent advances in the molecular aspects of genetics; mammalian DNA will be characterized and manipulated using modern molecular techniques.

BMS 530 Cell Biology of Cancer. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 321 or BIO 310 or BIO 320. Discussion of the initiation, cellular and genetic events which lead to cancer as well as its prevention, treatment, and personal consequences. An extensive paper and presentation are required.

BMS 540 Biotechnology. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 321. The applications of the methodologies of cell and molecular biology in the rapidly-evolving biotechnology and biopharmaceutical industries with an emphasis on the major sectors involving human therapeutics, human diagnostics, and genomics. Cell and molecular biology technologies adapted to mass production techniques to produce the products of biotechnology are surveyed. Typical pathways of product development from original basic research, product inception, clinical trials, regulatory approval, and commercialization are covered. Students will examine the current programs of the research and development of selected biotechnology and big pharma corporations.

BMS 558 Recombinant DNA Techniques. 3(1-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 525. Basic principles and techniques of gene cloning using major types of cloning vectors.

BMS 561 Medical and Pathologic Physiology. 4(4-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 308. A study of physiological dysfunction in human disease with consideration of disease etiology, diagnosis, clinical interpretation, and treatment. Designed for students and professionals in the health sciences.

BMS 562 Medical and Pathologic Physiology Laboratory. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 561 or concurrent enrollment. Experience using laboratory techniques and case studies to enhance knowledge of pathophysiology.

BMS 563 Advanced Work Physiology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in BMS 567 or PED 362 or permission of instructor. Review of cellular metabolism, energy transfer, and oxygen transport during work; excitation-contraction coupling in skeletal muscle; physiological mechanisms of fatigue; neuroendocrine regulation of metabolism and other responses to work; environmental factors in work performance. Emphasis on molecular and cellular mechanisms and contemporary research.

BMS 564 Molecular Endocrinology and Reproductive Physiology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: BMS 308 and; either BMS 321 or CHM 350. A detailed examination of the physiological, cellular and molecular aspects of human reproduction with particular emphasis on the endocrine aspects of reproduction.

BMS 565 Human Cardiopulmonary Physiology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 308 and; either BMS 321 or CHM 350. A cellular and molecular study of human cardiovascular and respiratory physiology and related human diseases. Emphasis will be on the molecular mechanisms for normal and abnormal functions of the blood, the blood vessels, the heart, the respiratory tract, and the lung. Current research topics and results will be introduced and discussed.

BMS 567 (363) Physiology of Exercise Metabolism. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in BMS 240 and "C" grade or better in BMS 308. Introduction to the study of human metabolic and work physiology. Digestion, absorption, and metabolism of biologically important nutrients as they affect cellular energy transfer; mechanisms of energy transfer in cells during various forms of work; oxygen transport and utilization at the cellular and system level; factors modifying the efficiency of human work performance. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

BMS 568 Physiology of the Human Gastrointestinal and Urinary Systems. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: BMS 308 and; either BMS 321 or CHM 350. Structure and function of the gastrointestinal and urinary systems including pathophysiology of common clinical conditions.

BMS 569 Neurobiology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 308. Study of the mammalian nervous system including anatomy and principles of function.

BMS 570 Principles of Pharmacology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 308. Principles of pharmacology, including pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of major drug classifications, and the application of pharmacology to the biomedical sciences.

BMS 582 (382) Embryology. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 110 or BIO 121 and; either BMS 307 or BIO 380. A study of anatomical changes during early animal development with emphasis on vertebrates. Lecture emphasis is on the cellular and subcellular mechanisms that may explain normal development, especially with regard to fertilization and morphogenesis. Laboratory emphasis on the normal development of live and preserved vertebrate embryos. Meets the embryology requirements for students in preprofessional medical, dental, and allied health curricula, as well as any student requiring a background in embryology.

BMS 584 Molecular Mechanisms in Animal Development. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 521 or BIO 320. An overview of the relationship between the anatomy of developing embryos and fundamental molecular mechanisms that generate this morphology, with an emphasis on vertebrates. Some invertebrate systems will be presented. Selected topics will include cell signaling during fertilization, gene activity in early development, cytoskeleton dynamics during morphogenesis, cell-cell adhesion, master pattern genes, and regulated cell death.

BMS 585 Histology. 4(2-4) F.

Prerequisite: BMS 307 or BIO 380. Microscopic structure of cells, tissues, and organ systems, with special emphasis on human tissues. Extensive laboratory experience with interpretation of structures in stained tissues mounted on microslides. Recommended for students in medical, dental, optometric, and other preprofessional curricula, medical technology, cell and molecular biology, and zoology.

BMS 593 Bioinformatics and Biomedical Resources. 2(2-0) F,S.

Use of biomedical source materials and methods of data access, selection, organization, and evaluation.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

BMS 600 Introduction to Graduate Studies in the Biomedical Sciences. 3(3-0) F,S.

Study of the researcher role, the research process, and research ethics relating to the biomedical sciences.

BMS 601 Introduction to Research in the Health Sciences. 3(3-0) Su.

Introduction to research methods, bioinformatics, and review of biostatistics.

BMS 607 (507) Medical Human Anatomy. 6(3-10) F. (Identical with PTE 607)

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program or permission of department head. This course offers an in-depth coverage of basic, applied, and clinical aspects of gross anatomy. Students observe, discuss, teach, learn, and dissect all body systems in detail. This course incorporates traditional didactic lectures, discussions, laboratory dissection, students teaching students in laboratory teaching sessions, and assignments that rely on critical thinking. Students make oral presentations and use the library and other sources of information (such as the internet and our Computer Laboratory) to learn and teach applied gross anatomy. May be taught concurrently with PTE 607.

BMS 611 Microbial Genetics. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 321 or BIO 310. Course is designed to investigate various aspects of microbial genetics using advanced laboratory techniques. Experiments may include DNA and plasmid isolation and characterization, mutagenesis, transformation, transduction and conjugation of bacteria.

BMS 617 Medical Human Anatomy and Radiology. 6(3-11) S. (Identical with PAS 617)

Prerequisite: admission to the PAS program or permission of department head. Regional study of the human body. Course will include lecture and laboratory activities including cadaver dissection, study of anatomic models, computer images, x-ray, CAT scan and MRI, and ultrasound imaging.

BMS 621 Signal Transduction. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: BMS 525. This course will examine the molecular mechanisms of various types of ligand/receptor interactions. The dynamics involved in ligand/receptor binding will be studied. Different signal transduction pathways across the biological membrane as well as the downstream intracellular signaling cascades will be closely examined at the molecular level regarding protein-protein interactions and the involvement of intermediate molecules (cAMP, G-proteins, inositol phosphates, and calcium ions). Research techniques and recent advances in the field will be the major focus of the course. The roles of oncogenes will also be discussed.

BMS 626 Advanced Topics in Cell and Molecular Biology. 1-4 F,S.

Focused or detailed consideration of advanced or timely topics in cell and molecular biology. May involve group discussion from another institution or represent individual study. Credit for BMS 626 may be given for electronic and distance learning courses available via the Internet with the approval of the cell and molecular biology faculty who will determine the credit hours and topic title. Variable Content Course. May be repeated up to 6 hours when topic varies.

BMS 630 Current Literature Topics. 1(1-0) F,S.

A weekly forum of faculty and graduate students to discuss reports in the current literature from cell, molecular, and developmental biology. Participants are assigned to report on developments in their specialty or area of interest and provide background for understanding the basis and significance of the report to others in the group. May be repeated to a total of 4 hours. Graded pass/not pass only.

BMS 632 Clinical Preventive Medicine. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. A review of current scientific evidence regarding effective screening tests and interventions to improve health status.

BMS 652 Medical Physiology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the PAS or the MPT program, or permission of department head. The study of biological function of the human organism. Emphasis will be placed on mechanisms and regulation using examples focusing on the field of medicine. Topics covered will include general cell function, neural, endocrine, cardiovascular, respiratory, gastrointestinal and renal physiology and regulation of acid-base balance. The course stresses the interrelated functions of the body systems in homeostasis and builds on this knowledge to introduce how disease alters the homeostatic controls.

BMS 675 Pathology – Pathophysiology. 3(2-2) F. (Identical with PTE 675)

Prerequisite: permission of department head. This course covers pathological conditions and their implications for Physical Therapists. All major systems of the body are studied. The pathophysiological portion of the course integrates the knowledge acquired in physiology with abnormal physiology caused by pathology. Case studies are used to integrate concepts in patient management related to pathology and pathophysiology.

BMS 684 Developmental Genetics. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: BMS 525. A study of developmental gene families, their expressions as related to the normal and abnormal development of form and structure, and their intrinsic and extrinsic regulation in various animal model systems, including humans. Specific gene-programmed and gene regulated mechanisms such as those regulating pattern formation, triggering cell differentiation, initiating regeneration (as it applies to specific tissues and organs), controlling apoptosis, and determining rates of cellular and organismal aging are included.

BMS 685 Histology and Tissue Biology. 2(1-2) S. (Identical with PTE 685)

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program or admission to the MS in Nurse Anesthesia program. This course emphasizes the structure and basic function of all the major tissues and cell types in the human body. It includes normal cell and tissue morphology and the adaptations that occur as a result of various stimuli both normal and abnormal.

BMS 697 Non-thesis Project. 2, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. In-depth study in an area of interest, culminating in a presentation of an extensive scholarly paper.

BMS 698 Research. 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Application of the research process in the supervised study of a selected problem. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 hours.

BMS 699 Thesis. 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Demonstration of the capacity for research and independent thought culminating in a thesis. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 hours.

Medical Technology Courses

These courses are not open to regular SMSU students. They are offered at a School of Medical Technology only for those students who have been admitted to such a school.

MTC 401 Clinical Chemistry. (10-12 hours).

Analytical and theoretical aspects of the clinical biochemistry of body fluid constituents, utilizing both manual and instrumental techniques including automation and special procedures.

MTC 402 Clinical Microscopy-Urinalysis. (1-3 hours).

Principles and techniques of the physical, chemical and microscopic examination of urine and other excreta as related to disease processes.

MTC 403 Hematology-Coagulation. (4-6 hours).

A study of the cellular element of blood and bone marrow; theory of cell production, release and survival; morphological characteristics of normal and abnormal cells; quantitative and qualitative abnormalities. Principles and techniques involved in the study of hemostasis, blood coagulation and hemorrhagic disorders.

MTC 404 Serology-Immunology. (3-4 hours).

The science of immunity including antibody development, principles of antigen-antibody interactions, and techniques of serological testing for various disease states.

MTC 405 Clinical Microbiology. (7 hours).

Sterile technique, methods of handling and inoculating specimens containing pathogenic microorganisms, isolation and identification of pathogenic microorganisms, laboratory test in chemotherapy, and diagnostic bacteriology, mycology, and parasitology.

MTC 406 Blood Bank-Immunoematology. (3-5 hours).

A study of blood group systems and the immune response. Methods of cross-matching, antibody screening, and phenotyping. Administrative safeguards and legal aspects of blood banking. Proper clinical utilization of blood components.

MTC 407 Special Topics in Medical Technology-Education and Management. (2 hours).

Instruction will include lecture and/or clinical practice in the areas of In-Service Education, Management and Supervision, Research and Development, and Principles and Techniques of the Instructional Process.

Associate Professor: Klaas Bakker, Ph.D.

Assistant Professors: Thomas C. Franklin, Ph.D.; Yea-Wen Wendy Shiao, Ph.D.; Lisa Wood, Ph.D.

Laboratory Supervisors: Karen Adams, M.A.; Jason Box, M.S.; Allison Crocker, M.S.; Deborah Cron, M.Ed.; Karen Engler, M.A.;

Patricia Pike, M.A.; Jennifer Wray, M.A.

Clinical Director: Mary Jill Oswalt, M.A.

Emeritus Professors: Herbert J. Arkebauer, Ph.D.; Laurabeth W. Windham, M.A.

The Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic

The Clinic provides diagnostic evaluations and therapy for persons with speech, language and hearing disabilities. A program for pre-school aged deaf/hard of hearing children is offered. Certified/licensed personnel supervise student therapy and learning activities.

Major

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Bachelor of Science degree program in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders will be granted to students, including transfer students, when the requirements indicated below have been met.

- A. Attainment of at least a 2.50 grade point average (based on a 4.0 scale) on all coursework attempted at SMSU. For those students with transfer credit, a combined grade point average of at least a 2.50 must be achieved for all coursework being transferred plus all coursework attempted at SMSU.
- B. The completion of a minimum of 50 semester hours including the following courses with a grade of "C" or higher in each CSD course*:
 1. Three hours of English Composition
 2. Four hours of Biological Science
 3. Four hours of Physical Science
 4. Three hours of Public Speaking (comparable to COM 115)
 5. Three hours of Mathematics (comparable to MTH 135)
 6. Three hours of Psychology (comparable to PSY 121)
 7. Three hours of the General Education Culture and Society Area of Inquiry
 8. Three hours of American History (comparable to HST 121 or 122)
 9. Six hours of the General Education Self-Understanding Area of Inquiry
 10. Three hours of Political Science (comparable to PLS 101)
 11. Linguistics (comparable to ENG 296)
 12. Phonetics (comparable to CSD 210)

 Please check with your advisor concerning any options for any of the above courses.*
- C. Special Procedures
After completing 30 semester hours, students indicating CSD as a major are notified to prepare a degree program. The preparation of the degree program establishes the admission requirements and graduation requirements which must eventually be met within a given specialization. The degree program is not finalized until all admission requirements have been met.

Communication Sciences and Disorders (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
 - B. Major Requirements
 1. Core: ENG 296(3), CSD 210(3), 216(3), 312(3), 360(3), 362(3), 370(3), 495(2), 496(2), 572(3)
 2. Area of Concentration (select one):
 - a. Audiology: CSD 260(3), 315(3), 318(3), 481(3), 482(3), 570(3)
 - b. Education of Deaf and Hard of Hearing: CSD 260(3), 321(3), 322(3), 562(3), SPE 345(3), 346(2)
 - c. Speech-Language Pathology: CSD 315(3), 316(3), 318(3), 481(3), 482(3), 522(3)
 - C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements
(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- NOTE: CSD majors may not take any CSD course on a pass/not pass basis.

Certification Requirements

Contact your advisor or the Department Head for the requirements and coursework necessary to meet state and national certification requirements.

Students who plan to complete Missouri certification requirements in Speech-Language Pathology or Education of Deaf and Hard of Hearing must take certain coursework through the Teacher Education Program. Please contact the Department Head or Academic Advisor in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders for further information.

Students pursuing coursework toward teacher certification are encouraged to collect and assemble materials for completion of a teaching portfolio. For further information regarding teacher certification requirements please refer to the catalog section under the College of Education entitled Requirements for Certification Recommendation.

In order to be recommended for state certification, each student must:

- A. Be admitted to the Teacher Education Program (see College of Education section).
- B. Successfully complete all Practicum requirements with a grade of "B" or better.
- C. Successfully complete the graduate degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders in the respective area of emphasis, or possess a comparable degree.
- D. Successfully complete the state approved exit assessment.
- E. Complete all state certification requirements in effect at the time a recommendation is made.

Minor

There is an opportunity for a personalized minor in Communication Sciences and Disorders. Contact the Department Head or Department Academic Advisor for further information.

Graduate Program

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Communication Sciences and Disorders. Areas of concentration are: Audiology, Education of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, and Speech-Language Pathology. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Communication Sciences and Disorders Courses

CSD 201 (CMD) Introduction to Communication Disorders. 3(3-0) F,S.

Provides a general understanding of normal and deviant speech, language and hearing in adults and children. Considers the normal development of communication behavior, and the nature of communication disorders.

CSD 209 (CMD) Basics of Linguistics for the Communication Sciences. 2(2-0) F,S.

General coverage of linguistic theories, relationships between cognitive and linguistic abilities, and cultural influences upon language. Also definition of the specific components of language (phonology, syntax-morphology, semantics, and pragmatics), with emphasis on procedures for description and analysis commonly used in the communication sciences.

CSD 210 (CMD) Phonetics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Instructional and laboratory application of international phonetic alphabet in transcribing normal/disordered American English.

CSD 216 (CMD) Anatomy and Physiology of Speech. 3(3-0) F.

Particular structure and functions of human anatomy related to the processes of speech.

CSD 260 (CMD 560) Survey of Interests in Deaf and Hard of Hearing. 3(3-0) F.

A survey course on the effects of hearing impairments as they relate to development, learning, education, and social interaction across the lifespan. Resources and agencies that assist persons who are deaf and hard of hearing at the local, state, and national levels will be discussed.

CSD 312 (CMD) Normal Language Acquisition. 3(3-0) F,S.

Theories and sequence of normal language development, emphasizing phonological, morphological, syntactic, semantic, and pragmatic abilities. Emphasis on first six years.

CSD 315 (CMD) Speech and Language Disorders in Children. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 216 and CSD 312. Nature, evaluation and treatment of speech and language disorders in children. Study of current theories and recent experimental work.

CSD 316 (CMD) Speech and Language Disorders in Adults. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 216 and CSD 312. Nature, evaluation and treatment of speech and language disorders in adults. Study of current theories and recent experimental work.

CSD 318 (CMD 218) Phonological Disorders. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CSD 210. The development of normal phonological systems and the assessment and intervention principles and practices of disordered phonology

CSD 321 (461) Sign Language I. 3(3-0) F

Prerequisite: permission. Gain beginner level skill in sign language and fingerspelling through Manually Coded English. Development of a general knowledge base including the history of sign language and the spectrum of sign options available.

CSD 322 (462) Sign Language II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 461 and permission. Emphasis on the expansion of Manually Coded English sign language skills through the use of conversation and the increased development of vocabulary.

CSD 360 (CMD) Hearing Science. 3(3-0) F.

Elementary acoustical theory and application to the study of speech production, reception and perception; emphasis on anatomy of auditory system, decibel notation and traditional psychophysical methods.

CSD 362 (CMD) Speech Science. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 216. Analysis of research on the acoustic parameters, the perceptual and productive processes of normal speech.

CSD 370 (CMD) Audiology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 360. Principles of hearing measurement: test methods, screening methods, test interpretation.

CSD 481 (CMD 381) Clinical Methods I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. A study of the principles, methods, and procedures of assessment relating to speech, language, and hearing disorders.

CSD 482 (CMD 382) Clinical Methods II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission. A study of clinical competencies in service delivery relating to speech, language, and hearing disorders.

CSD 492 (CMD) Issues in Communication Sciences and Disorders. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Supervised independent study exploring in-depth selected areas. Selected readings, controlled by conferences, progress reports and term paper. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

CSD 495 (CMD) Observation Clinical Practicum I. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: permission. Students will make observations and complete assignments relating to service delivery in their respective disciplines. A minimum of 12 hours will be direct observation. Course content will emphasize assessment practices, professional code of ethics, skills in reflective decision-making, and technical writing.

CSD 496 (CMD) Observation Clinical Practicum II. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: permission. Students will make observations and complete assignments relating to service delivery in their respective disciplines. A minimum of 13 hours will be direct observation and/or participation. Emphasis will be on professional competencies, technical writing, and implementation of discipline-specific practices. May be repeated to total of 4 hours.

CSD 522 (622) Neural Bases of Human Communication. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. Study of the nervous system and its role in normal and abnormal speech and language processing.

CSD 562 (CMD) Psycho-Social Implications of Being Deaf or Hard of Hearing. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission. Characteristics and problems of persons who are D/HH as they affect interaction with general society. Emphasis on interpersonal relationships through the lifespan.

CSD 570 (CMD 470) Clinical Audiology I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CSD 370. Theory and practice of audiological assessment including pure tone evaluation, speech audiometry, masking, and immitance audiometry. Emphasis on relevant calibration and instrumentation requirements.

CSD 572 (CMD) Aural Rehabilitation. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 360. Principles of habilitation/rehabilitation of communication disorders related to hearing impairment.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

CSD 600 (CMD) Research Methods in Communication Disorders. 3(3-0)F.

Prerequisite: permission. Nature of research methodology, experimental design, and scientific writing. An opportunity to explore research literature and to conduct research pertaining to speech, language and hearing functions.

CSD 610 (CMD) Developmental Psycholinguistics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. Presentation of current theories associated with psycholinguistic development. Focus will be on auditory perception, individual differences, cognitive hypotheses, and stage transition.

CSD 612 Language Disorders in Preschool-Age Children. 3(3-0) F.

Issues related to the area of language development and disorders in preschool-age children will be presented. The course will focus on best practices for the assessment and treatment of preschool-age children with language disorders.

CSD 613 Language Disorders in School-Age Children and Adolescents. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission. Current issues within the area of language development and disorders in school-age children and adolescents will be discussed. Methods for critically evaluating research and applying this research to clinical practice with children and adolescents with language disorders will be covered. Focus of course is on optimal methods for assessment and treatment of language disorders in children and adolescents.

CSD 614 (CMD) Language Disorders: Rehabilitation. 3(3-0).

Prerequisite: permission. Diagnostic and therapeutic strategies for language disorders in adults associated with auditory discrimination, perception, short and long-term memory, semantic and syntactical concept formation, and retrieval of auditory information.

CSD 615 Infants and Toddlers: Communication Assessment and Treatment. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission. Issues regarding communication assessment and intervention for infants and toddlers will be discussed. Course content will include a study of at-risk factors and established risks for developmental disabilities. Service delivery models for the assessment and treatment of communication disorders for infants and toddlers will be presented. Play-based assessment and intervention strategies will be included in course content.

CSD 616 Craniofacial Anomalies. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. The study of communication and associated problems related to congenital and acquired craniofacial anomalies. Emphasis on interdisciplinary procedures relative to amelioration of communication deficits manifest in these anomalies.

CSD 618 (CMD) Fluency Disorders. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. Theoretical, clinical, and experimental approaches to the study and treatment of fluency disorders.

CSD 620 Voice Disorders. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission. The study of the human voice and its disorders. Emphasis on 1) evaluation and treatment of neurogenic, psychogenic, and ideopathic voice disorders, and 2) respiratory, laryngeal and velopharyngeal dysfunction.

CSD 624 Aphasia and Related Disorders. 3(3-0) F or S.

Emphasis on language impairment as a result of brain dysfunction. A theoretical and clinical analysis of the neurolinguistic basis for describing, diagnosing and remediating disorders of language such as aphasia, language of dementia, and that following traumatic head injury.

CSD 625 Motor Speech Disorders. 3(3-0) F or S.

Prerequisite: permission. Study of neurogenic speech disorders. Emphasis on the evaluation and treatment of (1) the dysarthrias and dyspraxias, and (2) underlying neurologic and vocal tract dysfunction.

CSD 626 (CMD) Diagnostics: Speech and Language Assessment. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission. Principles and procedures for tests of language and speech dysfunctions. Interpretation of diagnostic findings leading to clinical decision-making, rehabilitative planning and reporting. Students obtain clinical experience in diagnostic procedures at the University Speech and Hearing Clinic.

CSD 628 Advanced Study of Phonological (Speech Sound) Disorders in Children. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. Discussion of processes involved in phonological production and how breakdowns in these processes lead to specific disorders. Methods for critically evaluating research and applying this research to the study of phonological disorders will be covered. Focus of course is on optimal methods for assessment and treatment of phonological disorders in children.

CSD 630 Introduction to Augmentative and Alternative Communication. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission. This is an introductory course on the subject of augmentative and alternative communication. It will cover the basic components of AAC processes as well as assessment and intervention strategies. In addition, the operation, evaluation, and application of the technology associated with AAC will be presented. AAC assessment and intervention will be discussed in regards to the following populations: children and adults with developmental disabilities and individuals with acquired disabilities.

CSD 632 Speech and Language Assessment and Treatment for Special Populations. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission. This course will provide information on the speech and language disabilities associated with children with special needs. Target populations will include children with cognitive disabilities, children with dual sensory disabilities, children with autism, and children with physical disabilities. Communication development, assessment, and intervention for each of these populations will be addressed.

CSD 640 Dysphagia. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission. Comprehensive study of normal and disordered swallowing. Special emphasis will be placed on the evaluation and treatment of disordered swallowing processes.

CSD 642 Speech-Language Services in Medical Settings. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission. This course is designed to provide a guide to the concepts, policies, and procedures encountered in the medical setting. It is hoped that at the end of this course, students will feel more comfortable entering the medical setting in various practicum settings that are required in our graduate program.

CSD 650 (CMD) Pediatric Audiology. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Overview of auditory development. Presentation of auditory disorders, audiological assessment, and treatment needs specific to infants and children. Emphasis on parent-child interactions and family dynamics in habilitating hearing-impaired children. Relevant calibration and instrumentation issues.

CSD 652 Advanced Hearing Science. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission. Physics of sound, anatomy and physiology of the auditory system (peripheral and central), and an introduction to psychoacoustics.

CSD 658 Early Intervention: Deaf and Hard of Hearing. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Methods and techniques for working with families as well as in the educational environment of infants and children who are deaf or hard of hearing from birth through the beginning elementary school years. Emphasis on methods and procedures for assessment and intervention.

CSD 660 Language Development: Deaf and Hard of Hearing I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission of the instructor. Theories and research into language development in individuals with hearing and those with losses of hearing are explored with implications for assessment and intervention. Problems and issues related to language development are presented for reflection and discussion.

CSD 661 Language Development: Deaf and Hard of Hearing II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 660 or the equivalent. Methods, strategies, and techniques of language development that may be applied in assessing and instructing students with hearing losses.

CSD 662 (CMD) Speech Development: Deaf and Hard of Hearing I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CSD 660 and permission. Theories of speech development as they apply to persons who are deaf or hard of hearing. Techniques for analyzing speech will be stressed. Two semester sequence, CSD 663 to follow.

CSD 663 (CMD) Speech Development: Deaf and Hard of Hearing II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 662 and permission. Application of information learned in CSD 662 is emphasized. Students collaborate with Speech-Language Pathology students assigned to clients who are D/HH. Assessment, planning, intervention, and record keeping are the focus of course activity. Regular interaction with family members of clients are also incorporated into the course schedule.

CSD 664 Instructional Strategies: Deaf and Hard of Hearing. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Formal and informal assessment, the concept of curriculum, instructional placement and programming for students who are deaf or hard of hearing from the upper elementary through the secondary school levels. Development of instructional strategies with an emphasis on individualized instruction.

CSD 665 Reading: Deaf and Hard of Hearing. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: permission. Theories of reading with an emphasis on adaptations for assessment and intervention for students who are deaf or hard of hearing. Introduction to available resources.

CSD 666 Counseling: Deaf and Hard of Hearing. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Theoretical bases of counseling and the role of the educator in the counseling process. Emphasis on the counseling process as it affects the educational, personal, social, and familial adjustment of individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing.

CSD 668 (CMD) Amplification Systems I. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 572 and permission. Current concepts in amplification and assistive listening devices. Evaluation, selection, and fitting of prosthetic devices for the hearing impaired. Relevant calibration and instrumentation issues.

CSD 670 (CMD) Clinical Audiology II. 4(3-2) S.

Prerequisite: CSD 570 and permission. Theory and practice of electrophysiological testing for the auditory and vestibular systems. Relevant calibration and instrumentation issues.

CSD 672 (CMD) Advanced Amplification Systems. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CSD 650 and permission. Coverage of recent developments in remediation of communication disorders related to hearing loss in adults and children.

CSD 674 (CMD) Clinical Audiology III. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CSD 570 and permission. Discussion of recent advances in audiology and hearing science research which have potential clinical application.

CSD 675 (CMD) Medical Audiology. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: CSD 670 (or concurrent with CSD 670) and permission of instructor. Detailed analysis of the etiology and assessment of common pathologies of the auditory system. Medical intervention and audiologic test battery interpretation discussed.

CSD 676 (CMD) Industrial Audiology. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: CSD 570 and permission. Theory and practice of noise assessment, including the effects of noise on man, and the development of hearing conservation measures. Includes the use of instrumentation for sound measurement.

CSD 680 (CMD) Technical Solutions in Communication Disorders. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission. Review and demonstration of current hard- and software systems for the evaluation, treatment, and research of communication disorders.

CSD 682 (CMD) Acoustic Phonetics. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission. Investigation of the acoustic characteristics of normal and pathological speech and voice production.

CSD 683 (CMD) Physiological Phonetics. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission. Analyses of the physiological features underlying voice, speech and language processes; theories of encoding, and encoding control mechanisms.

CSD 684 Non-Thesis Project. 1-2, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission. In-depth study in an area of communication science and disorders, culminating in a presentation of an extensive scholarly paper. Must be repeated for a minimum of 3 credit hours; may be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours.

CSD 688 (CMD) Professional Issues. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission. Overview of service delivery systems, business aspects of service delivery, quality assurance/assessment, legal and ethical responsibilities, professional organizations, and career development issues.

CSD 690 (CMD) Workshop in Communication Disorders. 1-6, D.

A concentration of work to improve the skill and knowledge in specific areas. Each workshop will be concerned with a single topic. Number of class hours determined by length of workshop. Thirty clock hours equal 1 semester hour. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit.

CSD 692 (CMD) Independent Study. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. May be taken to maximum of 4 hours. Study may be a reading project or a practical application of theories.

CSD 695 (CMD) Advanced Clinical Practice. 1-6, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission. Work in audiology, language disorders, speech pathology, and hearing impaired in clinical, hospital, school, and/or other settings. Thirty clock hours required per credit hour. May be repeated.

CSD 696 (CMD) Supervised Teaching. 3-6, S.

Prerequisite: permission. The assumption of teaching responsibilities at an approved practicum site under the direction of a University CED certified supervisor and practicum site instructor. Students enrolled in this course may be required to have a physical examination, including a TB test before placement in the practicum setting.

CSD 699 (CMD) Master's Thesis. 1-6 D.

Thesis research and writing.

CFD 562 (CFS) Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect. 3(3-0) F. The primary and secondary prevention of physical, emotional, and sexual abuse and neglect of children. Designed for professionals who work with children and families and are required by law to report suspected incidences of child abuse and neglect.

CFD 563 (CFS) Administration of Programs for Children and Families. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CFD 360 or permission. Types, purposes and administration of programs for children, youth and families.

CFD 650 (CFS) Seminar in Child and Family Development. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: graduate standing. Analysis of theories and trends in child and family development.

Consumer and Family Studies Courses

CFS 100 Introduction to Consumer and Family Studies. 1(1-0) F,S. Philosophy and development of Consumer and Family Studies. Professional opportunities and analysis of personal and professional proficiencies.

CFS 120 Family Health. 2(1-2) F,S.

Current trends in family health care and home nursing care; practice in the laboratory. Course fee.

CFS 130 (FNT) Essentials of Nutrition. 3(3-0) F,S.

Fundamental principles of nutrition and diet for physical fitness. Dietary needs of age group. Cultural aspects of nutrition. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take BMS 363. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CFS 197 Introductory Topics in Consumer and Family Studies. 1-3, D.

Variable content course for introductory concepts in Consumer and Family Studies. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topics change.

CFS 243 Equipment for the Home. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: HID 140. Selection, use, care and arrangement of home equipment.

CFS 299 Work Experience 2(0-4) F, S.

Prerequisite: permission of subject matter professor or coordinator. Students will secure positions in their area of specialization in order to gain work experience. This practicum is usually scheduled between their freshman, and sophomore years. Working in a coordinated program the student will be evaluated by both the company supervisor and the practicum coordinator. Besides work experience, the student can be expected to gain in career direction as well as in the application of the principles and practices of their respective specialization. 200 minimum work hours.

CFS 300 Special Topics in Consumer and Family Studies. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics of contemporary interest in Consumer and Family Studies, offered when resources and demand allow. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topics change. Variable Content Course.

CFS 302 Consumer and Family Studies Study Tour. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Study of mills, factories, stores, hospitals, laboratories, hospitality facilities, museums, design studios, historic sites, and/or trade markets, and not-for-profit agencies.

CFS 303 Service Learning Consumer and Family Studies. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a designated service learning offering within one of the major areas of study in the Consumer and Family Studies Department. A service learning course incorporates a community service experience with classroom instruction to provide an integrative learning experience which addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs/service. Requires 40 hours of service to a community organization, agency, or public service provider. The community service placement and assignment will vary, depending on the specialization area and learning objectives. A list of approved placements will be available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. Students are required to participate in a service learning training session(s) prior to beginning their service placement. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

Clothing, Textiles, and Merchandising Courses

CTM 180 Apparel Selection and Construction Techniques. 3(1-4) F.

Apparel construction techniques using commercial patterns. Emphasis on fitting different body forms.

CTM 185 Apparel Construction II. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CTM 180. Advanced apparel construction techniques with an industry perspective.

CTM 187 (287) Survey of the Global Fashion Industry. 3(3-0) F.

Overview of the global fashion industry from textile production to the retail level. Career options in the fashion industry are highlighted.

CTM 280 Pattern Development I. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: CTM 180 and CTM 185 and CTM 289. Fundamental concepts of flat pattern and draping design techniques to develop original garments for the sportswear/career wear industries. Designing apparel for both children and adults incorporated in this beginning design course.

CTM 283 (CFS) Textiles Science. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 105 or CHM 160. Analysis of textile fiber properties, yarn and fabric construction, and finishes.

CTM 286 Computer Aided Pattern Making. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CTM 180 and CTM 185 and CTM 280. Introduction to the principles and techniques of computer pattern making. Orientation to the CAD system in block manipulation, grading, and marker making.

CTM 289 Foundations of Product Development. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CTM 187. Principles of color, line, balance, and composition as they apply to fashion are explored. Proper terminology is presented.

CTM 299 Work Experience. 2(0-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: sophomore standing and permission. Students will secure positions in their area of specialization in order to gain work experience. Working in a coordinated program the student will be evaluated by both the company supervisor and the practicum coordinator. In addition to work experience, the student can be expected to gain career direction as well as experience in the application of the principles and practices of their respective specializations. The student must work a minimum of 100 hours, complete the student manual, and earn a satisfactory evaluation from the internship host.

CTM 380 Pattern Development II. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: CTM 180 and CTM 185 and CTM 280 and CTM 286. Creation of garments using draping techniques, advanced flat pattern and an introduction to pattern drafting. Product development by problem solving. Exploration of a variety of merchandise classifications. Knock-offs and fabric functions analyzed.

CTM 381 (281) Advanced Product Development. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CTM 180 and CTM 187 and CTM 289. Direct application of building a product line from specifications and sample development through the production process and distribution channels.

CTM 384 Fashion Promotion. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CTM 187. An experiential based fashion experience that provides opportunities to develop various forms of fashion productions and promotions.

CTM 387 Fashion Illustration. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CTM 187. Creation of fashion flats and specification sheets. Students gain the technical ability to translate a creative idea into a working blueprint.

CTM 388 Problem-Solving and Negotiation Techniques in Fashion Merchandising. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CTM 187. The planning, buying, selling, and promotion of apparel and accessories on all levels of the fashion industry. Case studies include merchandising mathematics, product development, vendor relations, negotiation strategies, and conflict management.

Director: Professor Bradley J. Fisher, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor: Carol A. Gosselink, Ph.D.; 231 Professional Building, Phone 836-6859

Administration of the program

Students declaring a major in Gerontology are assigned to a faculty member for advisement. It is the responsibility of the Director to approve the student's degree program, which is submitted to the Dean of Health and Human Services for final approval.

Evaluation of transfer credits must be approved by the academic department head for the department where the course is taught.

Major

Gerontology (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog) The following prerequisite courses will meet General Education requirements: COM 115(3); PLS 101(3); PSY 121(3); BIO 102(4) or BMS 110(5); CHM 105(5) or 106(4) or 160(4)
- B. Major Requirements
 1. Prerequisite for required courses for Gerontology major: PSY 304(3)
 2. Core courses for Gerontology major:
 - a. Substantive Aging Courses: BMS 260(4); GER 310(3), 380(3); PSY 365(3)
 - b. Research Methods Course: PSY 201(3) or 203(3) or SOC 201(3) or 307(3) or another course approved by advisor
 - c. Communication Skills Course: COM 390(3) or 326(3) or 332(3) or 405(3) or another course approved by advisor
 - d. Statistics Course: AGR 330(3) or ECO 308(3) or MTH 340(3) or PSY 200(3) or QBA 237(3) or REC 331(3) or SOC 302(3) or another course approved by advisor
 - e. Health Sciences Course: BMS 240(3) or 310(3) or CFS 130(3) or PED 467(3) or another course focusing on physical health and wellness selected by the student with advisor approval
 3. Other required courses: GER 498(6-12), Supervised Practicum in Gerontology and GER 499(3), Seminar in Gerontology
 4. Electives to complete comprehensive major: 9 hours of GER courses with another 3 hours selected by the student with advisor approval
- C. Electives to complete 125 hours. Students are encouraged to use these hours to complete another major or minor
- D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minors

Gerontology Bachelor of Arts Bachelor of Science Bachelor of Social Work

- A. Required Courses: GER 380(3) and two of the following courses: BMS 260(4); PSY 365(3); GER 310(3)
- B. Complete an additional 9 hours of elective courses chosen from the following with approval of the Director of Gerontology or delegate (6 hours must be courses with a GER designation) to bring total hours in minor to at least 18 hours:

GER 320(3), 330(3), 350(3), 365(3), 396(1-3), 397(1-3); BMS 260(4); COM 390(3); PED 467(4); PSY 365(3); GER 310(3)*; or another approved course.

Counts in elective hours if not taken as a "required" core course.*

Gerontology Courses

GER 300 Service Learning Curricular Component. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a gerontology course designated as service learning offering. An integrative learning experience which addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs by incorporating community service with classroom instruction. Includes 40 hours on-task service to a community organization, agency or public service provider. The community service placement agency and service assignment will vary, dependent on the course topic and learning objectives. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

GER 301 The Elderly and the Media: Confronting Popular Stereotypes. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: completion of 30 hours or permission. Students will be introduced to common stereotypes held about the elderly within our society and statistics and information which prove these stereotypes to be false. Public perceptions of the elderly will be studied through the use of five commercial motion pictures and a review of four articles covering topics related to the theme of each of the films. The class will focus on how stereotypes about the elderly are both reinforced and challenged in commercial motion pictures, how stereotypes affect an older person's self-concept, and how popular ageist stereotypes shape our own views on growing older.

GER 302 Successful Aging and Identity Issues in Later Life. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: completion of 30 hours or permission. This course introduces students to the idea of successful aging in later life and the necessary ingredients to maximize one's chances for a satisfying old age. Society's views of older people and life situations confronted in later life will be explored through the use of five commercial motion pictures. A review of three articles (through quizzes and class discussion) will give students a basic understanding of successful aging and identity issues in later life.

GER 310 Aging, the Individual, and Society. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: completion of 45 hours or permission. This course examines the aging process, demographic trends, and the social, economic, and social-psychological aspects of aging in America. Students will be introduced to current theories on aging in social gerontology and their application to the everyday lives of older people. Topics of interest include social attitudes toward aging, family and social bonds, work and retirement, gender issues, ethnicity and aging, living environments, and approaches to aging well. Students will learn about the role of federal, state and local agencies in meeting the needs of the elderly.

GER 320 Gender Issues in Later Life. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: completion of 45 hours or GST 170 or permission. A comparison of the aging experiences of men and women in later life. The relevance of gender and gender roles to the aging process will be considered. Specific topics of analysis will include the gender gap in longevity, psychological and physical health, minority status, socioeconomic status, family relationships, and public policy issues.

GER 330 Ethnic Diversity and Aging. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: completion of 45 hours or permission. This course investigates ethnic/racial diversity and cultural differences in relation to the experience of aging. Both a national and an international perspective will be emphasized in the focus on aging experiences across different ethnic/racial groups. Students will be exposed to fundamental concepts relative to ethnicity, racial discrimination, and cultural differences and how these impact upon the aging process and experiences in later life.

GER 350 Death, Bereavement, and the Elderly. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: completion of 45 hours or permission. This course examines issues related to death and bereavement within the context of later life. Students will examine the social construction of death within American culture, and the physiology of death; they will be encouraged to consider personal thoughts and beliefs surrounding this event. Students will be investigating and discussing issues such as elder suicide, euthanasia, living wills, hospice, widowhood, AIDS and the elderly, death in skilled care facilities, clustered loss, grieving, and attitudes toward death.

GER 365 Families in Later Life. (Identical to CFD 365) 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: completion of CFD 155 or CFD 163 or 45 hours or permission. Examination of the structure and function of families in later life. Topics of interest include demographic trends impacting the structure of the family, marriage, sibling relations, parent-adult child relations, grandparenthood, widowhood, and retirement. The application of family theories and their relevance to later life families will be discussed.

GER 380 (340) Senior Citizens: Policies and Politics. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: completion of 9 hours of gerontology or permission. Students will be introduced to the development and practice of social policy, on the state and federal level, and how it affects services to the older adult population. Political organizations that influence the lives of the elderly (e.g., the American Association of Retired Persons, Gray Panthers, Older Women's League) will be examined as well as government and social welfare programs (i.e., Social Security, Medicaid and Medicare). What constitutes "citizenship" and the role of a "senior citizen" will also be explored.

GER 396 Directed Readings in Gerontology. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 6 hours of gerontology and permission. Readings designed to supplement material introduced in previous Gerontology courses. Includes a wide selection of literature in the field. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

GER 397 (IDS) Special Topics in Gerontology. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: completion of 6 hours of designated courses in the gerontology major or permission of instructor. In-depth inquiry into selected interdisciplinary topics of contemporary interest in gerontology. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topic changes. Variable Content Course.

GER 498 (IDS) Supervised Practicum in Gerontology. 3-12, F,S.

Prerequisite: completion of the gerontology core courses with a grade of "C" or better in each and permission of the Director of Gerontology. On-site contacts with elderly individuals through an internship at a residential or community placement approved by the Director of Gerontology. Direct supervision will be provided by qualified professionals in the field of gerontology. Students will serve 45 clock hours for each credit hour awarded. May be repeated to a total of 12 hours.

GER 499 (IDS) Seminar in Gerontology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: completion of the gerontology core courses with a grade of "C" or better in each and permission of the Director of Gerontology. Weekly meetings to allow students to correlate experiences in GER 498 with academic knowledge, share experiences, and broaden contacts in the field of aging. Survey of current literature in gerontology from various disciplines will be included.

GER 597 Special Topics in Gerontology. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: completion of 90 hours and 12 hours of gerontology or permission of instructor. In-depth inquiry into selected interdisciplinary topics of contemporary interest in gerontology. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topic changes. Variable Content Course.

General Education Courses (Fall 1997 to Present). Students following the General Education Requirements in effect fall 1997 or beyond must complete PED 100, Fitness For Living, to meet the Health and Well-Being component of the Basic Required Courses. Students who transfer to SMSU from accredited colleges with at least two hours of credit in health and well-being coursework may have completed the Health and Well-Being component upon approval from the Department Head of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Students who successfully complete Basic Training in any of the United States Military branches after December 31, 1997, will be exempt from the PED 100 General Education Requirement. Credit for Military Basic Training must be granted by the SMSU Office of Admissions.

General Education Courses (Prior to Fall 1997). Students following the General Education Requirements in effect prior to fall 1997 must complete PED 100 and two additional activity credits in PED 101-149, DAN 101-149, AGS 162, or MIL 125. Students whose DD214 forms show completion of basic training and who are following the General Education Requirements in effect prior to fall 1997 may have completed the Health and Well-Being requirement upon approval.

Requirements for Physically Impaired Students. Students with medical disabilities may meet the health and well-being requirement by enrolling in a PED 100 lecture section concurrently with a special laboratory section of PED 100 designed to meet the needs of students with disabilities.

Physical Education/Service Courses. PED 101-149 are available as electives for students who enter SMSU during or after the 1997-98 academic year, for the purpose of providing a means to maintain and/or improve physical well-being.

Majors

Physical Education Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable K-9, K-12, 9-12)

Students majoring in Physical Education are encouraged to participate in athletics, recreational sports, and/or engage in personal physical fitness programs.

Students who complete the degree requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Education in Physical Education are certified to teach physical education and professionally qualified to coach.

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog) Specific General Education Requirements: BIO 102(4) or 121(4); CHM 105(5) or 160(4)

B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)

C. Major Requirements

1. Physical Education Core Requirements: ATC 222(2-3); PED 100(2)*, 200(1), 250(3), 252(3), 260(2), 264(2), 270(1), 360(4), 361(2), 362(4), 386(2), 430(2), 468(4), 485(2), 545(3), 575(2)

May be used in General Education Requirements*

2. Additional Physical Education Certification Requirements. Choose one of the following programs:

- a. Certification grades K-12: PED 240(2), 257(2), 273(1), 277(2), 335(2), 392(1), 431(3), 440(3); Select two courses from: PED 300(2), 301(2), 302(2), 303(2), 304(2), 305(2)
- b. Certification grades 9-12: PED 277(2), 335(3), 392(1); Select two courses from: PED 300(2), 301(2), 302(2), 303(2), 304(2), 305(2)
- c. Certification grades K-9: PED 240(2), 431(3), 440(3)

D. Professional Education courses (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)

Note: PSY 380(4) required for K-12 grades.

E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Radiography (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

The Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, in cooperation with the Cox Health Systems and the St. John's Regional Health Center School of Radiologic Technology, offer a baccalaureate degree in Radiography. This program contains professional training that is accredited by the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology sponsored by the American Medical Association. The curriculum includes both university course work that can be completed in 5 semesters and a 24 month sequence of professional courses. Each student must have at least a 2.00 GPA in both the coursework at SMSU and in the School of Radiologic Technology at Cox Health Systems or St.

John's Regional Health Center. To be a registered radiologic technologist, the student, after having completed the professional block of coursework, must pass a Registry Examination and obtain a letter of good standing from the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists.

A student may pursue this program by completing prerequisite courses at SMSU and by seeking admission to the School of Radiologic Technology, Cox Health Systems or St. John's Regional Health Center. Application deadlines are March 31 and February 1 respectively, of each year. Notifications will be sent to successful applicants and classes start in September (Cox Health Systems) or July (St. John's Regional Health Center).

In some cases a student may transfer all or part of the professional block of courses from another accredited program in Radiography. The Radiography courses are credited only on the B.S. degree with a major in Radiography. The courses to be taken at the School of Radiologic Technology carry the RAD prefix.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog) Specific General Education Requirements: BMS 110(5); CHM 105(5) or 160(4)*; ECO 155(3); MTH 135(3); PSY 121(3)
- B. Major Requirements
 1. BIO 210(3) or 310(5); BMS 307(4); BMS 308(4) or 566(5); CHM 200(5); CSC 121(3) or CIS 101(2) or CSC 101(2)
 2. A block of courses (21 hours credited as lower division, 21 hours upper division) in the professional curriculum from the School of Radiologic Technology at Cox Health Systems or St. John's Regional Health Center.
 3. Specialty Requirements (choose one option):
 - a. Science Option: Select 14 hours in science courses from Biology, Biomedical Sciences, or Physics with approval of advisor.
 - b. Education Option: PSY 360(2); SEC 301(2); IMT 565(2); SFR 396(2); plus two courses from PSY 200(3), 306(3) or 502(3), 508(3), 529(3); SFR 547(2)
 - c. Management Option: ACC 201(3); MGT 340(3), 341(3); plus two courses from ACC 211(3); MGT 343(3), 345(3), 368(3); QBA 237(3)
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

*CHM 160 should be selected if the science option is chosen.

Recreation and Leisure Studies (Comprehensive or Non-Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

The Recreation and Leisure Studies major must process not only the conceptual understanding, competencies, and experiences provided in the PROFESSIONAL CORE but must also, through the AUXILIARY CORE, PROGRAM AREA, and SERVICE AREA develop related competencies provided by other disciplines.

The student will select an area of concentration in one of the following emphasis areas: Community, Outdoor Recreation and Natural Resource Management; Private/Commercial; Therapeutic; Senior Adult; or Wellness.

Non-Comprehensive Major: The student must complete at least 33 hours in the PROFESSIONAL CORE, 12 hours in the AUXILIARY CORE, and 9 hours in the PROGRAM AREA. The student must also complete a MINOR and fulfill the FIRST AID PROFICIENCY requirements as described in section B5.

Comprehensive Major: The student must complete at least 33 hours in the PROFESSIONAL CORE, 12 hours in the AUXILIARY CORE, 9 hours in the PROGRAM AREA, 21 hours in the SERVICE area, and fulfill the FIRST AID PROFICIENCY requirements as described in section B5.

Certifications

Driver Education

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Certifiable grades 9-12, additional endorsement only)

Students who complete the Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a major in Secondary Education may receive Missouri state certification in Driver Education grades 9-12 by completing the following courses: ATC 222(2) or PED 253(2); PED 370(3), 371(4), 372(3); PSY 390(3) or 441(3); electives from PED 373(2), 499(1-5); CAS 210(3); IMT 365(3) or 565(2); SFR 442(2) or 547(2) or PSY 535(3); TEC 455(3) to bring total to no fewer than 21 hours. In order to meet Missouri State teacher certification requirements, all candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree must have at least a 2.50 GPA (SMSU and transfer grades combined) in the certificate subject area which includes all courses listed above.

Health Education

(Certifiable grades K-9, K-12, 9-12)

Students who complete the Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a major in Physical Education may receive Missouri state certification in Health Education grades K-9, K-12, or 9-12 by completing the following courses: BMS 307(4) or PED 250(3), BMS 308(4) or PED 252(3), or equivalents; CFD 163(3); CFS 130(3) or BMS 240(3); PED 253(2), 256(2), 257(2), 358(3); PSY 101(3); SWK 330(3); 9-12 certification student must select additional hours of electives in health-related courses, in consultation with their advisor, to bring total to 30 hours; K-12 certification student must select additional hours of electives in health-related courses, in consultation with their advisor, to bring total to 32 hours. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, student must have at least a 2.50 (SMSU and transfer grades combined) GPA in the certificate subject area which includes all courses listed above.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Health Promotion and Wellness Management. The Master of Science in Education degree (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in Physical Education. A Master of Public Health is also offered. See Graduate Catalog for details.

University Certificate

A graduate level certificate program is available in Sports Management. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Health Courses

HLH 195 Introduction to the Health Professions. (Identical with BMS 195) 1(0-2) F,S.

Designed to familiarize students with a variety of health career opportunities, and to provide guidance in early curriculum planning and alternative career options.

HLH 399 Cooperative Education in the Health Sciences. 1-6, F,S. Prerequisite: acceptance into the SMSU Cooperative Education Program and permission of Director of Health Arts & Sciences. A supervised learning experience that integrates on-the-job training with academic credit. The student will be required to complete assigned academic work related to the area of practical experience.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

HLH 600 (PED) Research Methods in Health, Physical Education & Recreation. 3(3-0) F.

Nature of research methodology, experimental design and scientific writing. Opportunity to explore research literature and to conduct research.

HLH 620 Epidemiology. 3(3-0) F,S. (Identical to NUR 600).

This course is an introduction to the epidemiological methods and procedures utilized in the study of the origin, distribution, and control of disease. It will include the study of infectious and non-infectious disease etiology, including vector control, host defenses and resistance, and investigation of disease outbreaks. Students will learn to use basic epidemiological concepts and methods for program planning, evaluation, and research. Basic statistical measures used in the analysis of clinical and epidemiologic evaluations, including measures of disease frequency and measures of absolute and relative effects, will be covered. Students may not receive credit for HLH 620 and NUR 600.

HLH 645 Environmental Health. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course will investigate and examine the relationships of environmental health problems to human health. Students will survey the major environmental issues facing developed and developing countries. Topics include water supply, air and noise pollution, sewage treatment and waste disposal, pest and pesticides, toxic waste, energy alternatives, food and drug quality assurance, population control, and environmental disease control.

HLH 650 (PED) Programming Approaches in Wellness/Health Promotion. 3(3-0) S.

Organizational and administrative approaches utilized in the conduct of wellness/health promotion programs will be studied. Emphasis will be placed upon the selection, development, promotion, conduct, and evaluation of the various component of wellness/health promotion programs.

HLH 652 (PED) Health Risk Identification and Management. 3(3-0) S.

Procedures and instrumentation utilized in the identification and assessment of risk factors associated with cardiovascular and other major life-style generated diseases and conditions will be studied. Emphasis will be placed upon the utilization of risk factor data in the conduct of a wellness/health promotion program.

HLH 656 (PED) Issues in Public Health. 3(3-0) F.

Public health aspects and implications of current issues including medical care, mental health, environmental health, diseases and other critical issues.

HLH 670 (PED) Seminar in Health Promotion and Wellness Management. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: HLH 600 or permission of instructor. Review of the professional literature relating to current issues in health promotion and wellness. Topics researched and discussed include health care ethics, diversity, cultural aspects, long-range planning, public relations, legal considerations, and grant-writing. Includes guided development and completion of an extensive research paper.

HLH 675 Principles and Skills of Public Health Administration. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course is designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the administrative, managerial and organizational practices of health professionals in a variety of settings. Opportunities for the development and application of administrative competencies in health education/health care settings will be provided.

HLH 688 Public Health Practicum. 1,D.

The Public Health Practicum is required of all students enrolled in the Professional Option of the MPH program. It will involve developing, implementing and establishing a public health intervention that includes, reflects, and integrates public health principles, theory, and practice as identified in the Masters in Public Health curriculum. All required courses must be completed in order to be eligible. Project selection must be approved by the course instructor.

HLH 690 Independent Study in Public Health. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and department head. The Independent Study in Public Health is a carefully planned experience which allows the advanced student to investigate a clearly defined problem that will enhance their academic preparation. May be repeated for credit.

HLH 691 (PED) Wellness Internship. 6 F.

Prerequisite: permission of Health Internship Coordinator. Supervised field experience in a health promotion or health care setting. Directly involves the student in the application of organizational skills and wellness manager skills. Student must complete a minimum of 480-600 clinical hours.

HLH 698 Public Health Field Experience. 6, D.

Prerequisite: completion of 36 credit hours in the degree program. The final culminating experience for all students is the field experience which provides experience in program development, community relations, public education, and research. Possible sites include: official health agencies, voluntary health agencies, or community social agencies. Selection is dependent on the students' background and career expectations. Students may choose to spend their entire time in one agency or, for shorter periods, in 2 or more agencies. All required courses must be completed in order to be eligible. The field experience can be done during the fall, spring, or summer and can be no less than 480 hours. All field experiences must be approved by the internship coordinator to ensure the site acceptability.

Physical Education/General Education Courses

(Courses 100-149 are general education physical education courses for students following the general education program in effect prior to fall 1997)

PED 100 Fitness for Living. 2(1-2) F,S.

The values of health-related physical fitness; ramifications of a negative health life-style presented for individuals living in an automated, sedentary society, encouraging students to make intelligent decisions concerning a positive health life-style to enhance wellness now and in the future. Laboratory helps the individual discover his or her needs for achieving and maintaining high level wellness.

PED 101 Beginning Swimming. 1(0-2) D.

Designed to teach novice swimmer basic swimming skills.

PED 102 Intermediate Swimming. 1(0-2) Su.

Prerequisite: PED 101 or demonstrate swimming skill first day of class. Review of basic strokes. Instruction in competitive strokes. Basic diving instruction. May be taken twice for credit.

PED 103 Lifesaving. 1(0-2) D.

Prerequisite: PED 102 or demonstrate swimming skill first day of class, first aid and CPR certification or permission of instructor. Development of personal safety skills and techniques of aquatic rescue for lifeguarding; certification in American Red Cross Life Guard Training may be obtained.

PED 104 Water Safety Instruction. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: PED 103 and permission of instructor. Prepares the student for complete American Red Cross Water Safety Instruction Certificate.

PED 105 Alpine Skiing. 1(0-2) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Fundamental skills of alpine skiing; required Student Union ski trip for the purpose of instruction and practice on snow.

PED 106 Sailing. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: demonstrate swimming skill first day of class. Development of skills and knowledge of sailing. Course fee.

PED 107 Intermediate Sailing. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 106 or comparable skill and swimming skills. The course includes a refinement of basic skills and discussion of sailing theory and sailboat racing tactics. May be repeated to a maximum of 2 hours credit. Course fee.

PED 109 Cycling. 1(0-2) D.

Cycling as a means of transportation, leisure activity, and fitness medium. Emphasis placed on safety, bikepacking, and cycle maintenance. Student must furnish a bicycle (ten-speed recommended). Field trips required.

PED 110 Backpacking. 1(0-2) D.

Backpacking as a lifetime leisure activity. Emphasis on equipment, safety, techniques, and trip planning. Field trips required.

PED 111 Beginning Badminton. 1(0-2) F,S.

Fundamentals of grip, stance, footwork and badminton strokes.

PED 112 Beginning Handball. 1(0-2) F,S.

Rules, techniques and strategy of four wall handball.

PED 113 Beginning Racquetball. 1(0-2) F,S.

Fundamental skills, rules, techniques and strategy of racquetball.

PED 114 Canoeing. 1(0-2) D.

Prerequisite: demonstrate swimming skill first day of class. River canoeing as a lifetime leisure activity. Emphasis on safety, techniques, trip planning, and equipment. Field trips required.

PED 118 Bowling. 1(0-2) F,S.

History, fundamental skills, techniques, terminology, rules, strategy and safety skills of bowling. Course fee.

PED 120 Beginning Gymnastics. 1(0-2) F,S.

Emphasis on skill progressions in tumbling and vaulting with an introduction to apparatus and balance work. Principles of training, conditioning, and spotting included.

PED 121 Intermediate-Advanced Gymnastics. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 120. Emphasis on skill progressions for the Olympic events. Principles of training, conditioning, and spotting are included. May be repeated for a maximum of 3 hours.

PED 122 Fencing. 1(0-2) F,S.

History, fundamental skills, techniques, terminology, nomenclature, rules, strategy and safety skills of fencing.

PED 123 Intermediate Fencing. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 122. Advanced compound offenses and defenses; detailed work on competitive techniques. May be taken twice for credit.

PED 124 Techniques and Principles of Hunting and Fishing. 1(0-2) F,S.

Skills and safety factors of hunting and fishing; Missouri hunting, fishing, and conservation laws and principles upon which these laws are founded.

PED 125 Aerobic Dance. 1(0-2) F,S.

Aerobic Dance is an exercise program of choreographed routines involving continuous rhythmic activity. The combination of motor skills, jogging, dancing, and vigorous exercise are set to music in a motivational manner. The routines are designed to be simple enough for all individuals to be successful as they move toward cardiovascular fitness.

PED 126 Folk and Square Dance. 1(0-2) F,S.

Understanding folk and square dance skills, directional patterns, structure.

PED 127 Weight Training. 1(0-2) F,S.

Scientifically founded isotonic and isometric weight training programs; development of cardiovascular and muscular endurance, strength and flexibility.

PED 128 Western Square Dance. 1(0-2) D.

Review of the 50 basics and introduction to the 25 extended basic skills and patterns of Western Square Dance.

PED 130 Adapted Physical Activity. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: physician's approval. Adapted physical activity to meet needs of student based upon the recommendation of the student's physician. May be repeated for credit.

PED 133 Volleyball. 1(0-2) D.

Basic skills of power volleyball.

PED 135 Selected Activities. 1(0-2) D.

A variable content course designed to develop lifetime skills in sports, fitness, and/or leisure activities. Activities selected will vary according to demand. Course may be repeated any number of times provided the same activity is not retaken.

PED 136 Ballroom Dance. 1(0-2) F,S.

Ballroom dances; technique, lead and style.

PED 138 Archery. 1(0-2) F,S.

Cultural aspects of archery throughout history; target archery, field archery, bowhunting and bowfishing.

PED 143 Beginning Tennis. 1(0-2) F,S.

Fundamental tennis skills and mechanical principles. Rules, courtesies and etiquette.

PED 144 Intermediate Tennis. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 143. Instruction in intermediate and advanced elements of strokes and strategy used in singles and doubles. May be taken twice for credit.

PED 145 Beginning Golf. 1(0-2) F,S.

Choice and use of clubs, form to be used, rules and courtesies of golf.

PED 146 Intermediate Golf. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 145. Correction of errors in basic strokes with all clubs. Application of mechanical principles. Instruction concerning strategy used on different golf courses in variable weather. May be taken twice for credit.

PED 147 Beginning Judo. 1(0-2) F,S.

Fundamental falling (ukemi), holding techniques (Katamewaza), basic mat and free exercises (mat randori), and history of judo.

PED 148 Intermediate Judo. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: PED 147 or Brown or Black Belt Ranking. Basic throwing techniques of judo; all mat techniques required for third degree brown belt status (sankyū). May be taken twice for credit.

PED 149 Self-Defense. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 147 or permission of instructor. Introduction to self-defense techniques including combative and defensive stances and position, taisabaki movement, parries, counterattack movement, hold releases, attack techniques, and ground defense.

Physical Education Courses

PED 200 Introduction to Physical Education. 1(1-0) F,S.

Provides the prospective teacher coach the opportunity to explore the theoretical aspects of physical education; nature and scope of physical education; values; qualifications and professional qualifications.

PED 201 Introduction to Biomechanics. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: 30 credit hours. Mechanics of sports; principles of motion related to individual and team sports. Techniques to analyze individual sport skills.

PED 218 Organization and Administration of Intramurals. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: 30 credit hours. Organization and administration of an effective program of intramural activities for secondary and college levels.

PED 234 Sports Officiating. 2(2-1) F,S.

Procedures and requirements for registration as a Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHSAA) Sports Official. Ethical standards and development of a philosophy for an official. Knowledge, rules and basic skills for officiating basketball, football, baseball, softball, track and field, volleyball, and wrestling. Students select a practicum experience in at least one sport.

PED 240 Creative Dance and Exploratory Activities for Children. 2(1-2) F,S.

Creative activities for movement and dance necessary for the physical development of elementary school students.

PED 250 Applied Human Anatomy. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 102 or BMS 110. Study of the structure of the human body with emphasis on the organ systems operational in effecting human movement. Integrates structural and biomechanical aspects of movement.

PED 252 Applied Human Physiology. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 105 or CHM 160; PED 250 or BMS 307. Study of the function and responses of each organ system in the body. Emphasis is directed toward a process of examining functional concepts requisite to critical assessment and description of human movement, exercise, sport and wellness.

PED 260 Outdoor Leisure Education. 2(1-2) F,S.

Introduction to outdoor leisure skills. Selected outdoor education activities, e.g. orienteering, hiking, etc. Field trips required.

PED 261 Wrestling Techniques. 1(0-2) F.

Fundamental wrestling skills necessary for demonstration purposes in teaching-coaching situations. Recommended for men only.

PED 264 Team Sports. 2(0-4) F,S.

Fundamental skills and techniques of basketball, field hockey, soccer/speedball, softball and volleyball; emphasis on demonstration in teaching-coaching situations.

PED 270 Recreational and Aerobic Dance Techniques. 1(0-2) F,S.

Fundamental skills in folk, square, social, and aerobic dance necessary for demonstration purposes in teaching situations.

PED 273 Aquatics. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 101 or demonstrate swimming skill first day of classes. Emphasis on stroke mechanics for swimming and basic diving. Development of the skills necessary to demonstrate in teaching-coaching situations.

PED 277 Individual and Dual Sports. 2(0-4) F,S.

Fundamental skills and techniques of golf, racket sports, track and field, and tumbling/apparatus; emphasis on demonstration in teaching-coaching situations.

PED 281 The Athlete's Diet. 1(1-0) D.

Instruction on the current research and concepts on diet and exercise performance, body weight and composition, fluid and electrolyte balance during exercise, and selected topics on proposed dietary ergogenic aids. No prior nutrition background required.

PED 282 Sports Conditioning. 1(1-0) D.

Instruction on the theory and practical aspects of designing and evaluating training and conditioning programs for competitive athletes.

PED 300 Volleyball Theory. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Strengths and weaknesses of various offensive and defensive systems. Development of coaching and game plays, discussion of strategies, screening and selection of player personnel.

PED 301 Football Theory. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Offensive and defensive systems applicable to varying skill levels. Analysis of game strategy, scouting, yearly organization. Training, recruiting and organization of coaching personnel and daily coaching plans.

PED 302 Basketball Theory. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Factors which compose the game of basketball; analysis of varying offenses and defenses used in competition. Team selection, development and organization.

PED 303 Track and Field Theory. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Organization and development of a track and field team. Preparation and selection of athletes for competition. Practical application of meet management techniques.

PED 304 Baseball Theory. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Development of a baseball team, selection of players by position, team drills, offensive and defensive strategies, scouting, management of players.

PED 305 Softball Theory. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Development of competitive softball team, player selection by position, team drills, offensive and defensive strategies, scouting and player management.

PED 335 Organization and Administration of Physical Education. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Organizational procedures and management principles of physical education and related programs.

PED 341 Physical Education for Elementary Teachers. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 100. Games, rhythms, material and methods utilized by elementary school classroom teachers to teach physical education.

PED 360 Kinesiology. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 250 or BMS 307. Mechanics of sports and related activities; principles of motion, body movements, muscle action and joint mechanics in relation to human movement. Principles of anatomic and biomechanical analysis. A maximum of 4 credit hours will be granted for PED 201 and PED 360.

PED 361 Principles of Motor Learning in Physical Education. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 380 or PSY 385 or PSY 390; PED 250 or BMS 307; and PED 252 or BMS 308. Process by which motor skills are learned; individual variables which affect acquisition of motor skills; techniques of improving motor performance.

PED 362 Exercise Physiology. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 105 or CHM 160; and PED 252 or BMS 308. Physiologic effects of muscular activity under different intensities, durations and environments on the human organism. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take BMS 563. This course may not be taken pass/not pass. Student may not receive credit for both PED 362 and 366.

PED 366 Exercise Physiology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 250 or BMS 307. Same course as PED 362 except it does not include a laboratory component. This course credited on a coaching minor only. (PED 366 will not count toward a physical education major). Students may not receive credit for both PED 362 and 366.

PED 386 Social Basis of Physical Activity. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours. Study of the growth and development of physical education, athletics and sports organization and their effect on participants and spectators in America since 1875.

PED 392 Coaching Practicum. 1(0-2) or 2(0-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Students should have completed coursework or concentrated experience in an area selected for practicum. A practical experience which students can relate to coaching theory. The students are assigned to participate in coaching related activities on or off campus in the secondary schools for exposure to coaching philosophies, organization, methods and procedures for preparing athletes and athletic teams for competition. May be taken twice for credit.

PED 402 Women In Sport. 3(3-0)S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours or permission of instructor. A survey of the role of women in sport and how they have developed to present status. Topics to be covered include women in the history of sport: athletic injury specific to women, care and prevention: physiology of the woman athlete and sport psychology for the woman athlete.

PED 411 (SEC) Teaching of Secondary Physical Education. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisites: SEC 300, 301; PED 261, 264, 270, 273, 277, 360 and 75 hours. Exploration of various teaching methods and selection of activities as they apply to secondary physical education. Unit planning, lesson planning and micro teaching of physical education activities. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

PED 430 History and Philosophy of Physical Education. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 200 and 60 credit hours. Synthesis of historically relevant material emanating from contemporary problems in physical education. Use of critical analysis of physical education concepts to bridge the gap between theory and practice.

PED 431 Teaching K-4 Physical Education. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 or ELE 302; PED 240 and PED 264 and PED 270. Emphasis on current teaching methods, management skills, and curriculum development for teaching physical education to K-4 students. An on-campus lecture/lab and participation in clinical/field experiences in the area elementary schools.

PED 440 Middle School (5-9) Physical Education. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 or ELE 302; PED 240 and PED 264 and PED 270 and PED 360. Emphasis on current teaching methods, management skills, and curriculum development for teaching physical education in the middle school (5-9). An on campus lecture/lab and clinical/field experiences in area middle schools.

PED 466 Physical Education for the Mentally Handicapped. 3(2-2)S.

Prerequisite: SPE 310 or permission of instructor. Identification and program development of physical activities for the severely retarded, trainable retarded, and educable retarded. Laboratory is off campus.

PED 467 Physical and Leisure Activities for the Aged. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: PED 250 or BMS 307; and PED 252 or BMS 308; or permission of instructor. The effects of aging and common degenerative diseases of the aged on physical performance and leisure. Included are units on assessment of physical working capacity, flexibility, body composition, strength maintenance. Also, units on selection of recreational and performance activities commensurate with functioning capacity. A series of field experiences with programming of select activities for the aged is required.

PED 468 Adapted Physical Education. 4(2-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: PED 360 and PED 362. Symptomatology, sources of referral, typical behavior aberrations, and principles and problems related to the physical education of the exceptional child. Instruction in the modification of motor activities, general fitness activities, and therapeutic exercises for exceptional students. Three hours of directed practicum per week.

PED 485 (314) Psychology of Sport and Physical Activity. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121. Inquiry into the psychological implications of sport and physical activity participation in relation to motivation and behavior of the participant.

PED 490 Sports Practicum. 1-4, Su.

Prerequisite: senior or graduate standing. Short-term course updates physical educators in new developments within selected sport areas. Techniques of coaching and conditioning. May be repeated for credit.

PED 500 Seminar in Physical Education. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours and permission of department head. Directed reading and special investigation of selected subjects in physical education, health, and safety; research projects under faculty supervision. May be repeated for a maximum of 9 hours of credit. Variable Content Course.

PED 545 Perceptual and Motor Development. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 380 or PSY 385 or PSY 390 and 90 credit hours or permission of instructor. Perceptual and motor development from prenatal life to adolescence; relationships of growth factors that influence motor abilities; difficulties that may arise when the normal course of development is interrupted. Includes a laboratory and a practicum experience.

PED 575 Measurement and Evaluation Applied to Physical Education. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours. The use of measurement and evaluation, including basic statistics, in achieving the objectives of educational programs. Contemporary assessment techniques and test construction in physical education are discussed. Computer usage will be utilized to provide for student competencies in the aforementioned content areas.

Physical Education/Driver and Safety Education Courses

PED 370 Content and Materials in Safety Education. 3(3-0) D.

General safety education in the instruction program of elementary and secondary schools; accident causes and remedial action.

PED 371 Driver Education. 4(3-2) D.

Prerequisite: valid operator's license and 60 credit hours. Prepares student to teach driver education in secondary school. Methods, lesson planning, psychophysical testing and driver education materials presented. Each student instructs one individual to operate an automobile.

PED 372 Problems in Driver Education and Traffic Safety. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PED 371. Acquaints the prospective driver education teacher with problems of automotive and traffic safety.

PED 373 Multiple Car Driving Ranges—Simulation. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: PED 371. Design and use of multiple car driving ranges. Simulation involving electro-mechanical devices and programmed films to reproduce situations which occur in the actual driving environment.

Physical Education/Health Education Courses

PED 253 (153) First Aid. 2(2-0) F,S.

First aid and civil defense knowledge; procedures in times of emergency, sickness, wounds, shock, poisoning, fractures, unconsciousness, stoppage of breathing.

PED 256 Community Health. 2(2-0) F,S.

School, community, state, national and international health programs; their relationship to the student; major communicable and non-communicable diseases and community health.

PED 257 Personal Health. 2(2-0) F,S.

Health problems; factors that contribute to development and maintenance of health for the individual living in a contemporary, automated society.

PED 350 Health and Wellness Promotion. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PED 257. Principles and objectives of health and wellness promotions. Critical issues in health and wellness. The structure, function, and contribution of public, private, and voluntary agencies involved in health and wellness promotion. Individual and group factors related to the promotion, maintenance, and restoration of health.

PED 358 Health Education. 3(3-0) F,S.

Methods, materials and resources for preparation, development and implementation of an effective school Health Education program.

PED 369 Health Appraisal and Exercise Testing Techniques. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: PED 360 and PED 362. Introduction to appropriate health appraisal and exercise tests for the purpose of exercise programming and prescription.

Physical Education/Special Courses

PED 297 Special Topics. 1-2, D.

Variable content and variable credit course. Special study of physical education or leisure skills. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 4 credit hours. Same topic may be repeated once for credit.

PED 310 Writing II: Philosophical and Historical Issues in Physical Education, Recreation and Sport. 3(3,0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110 and PED 200 or REC 152; and 45 credit hours. A writing intensive course focusing on the synthesis or philosophical and historically relevant material emanating from contemporary problems in physical education, recreation and sport. Writing tasks will involve the use of extensive research and critical analysis of major issues in the fields of physical education and recreation to bridge the gap between theory and practice. Areas of coverage will vary with the instructor. Meets Writing II requirement for a major in Physical Education or Recreation and Leisure Studies.

PED 405 Gender and Sport. 1, D.

An examination of sport as a major institutional locus for the historical and contemporary construction of gender relations.

PED 491 Field Experience. (8 or 12) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of subject matter professor and application on file in HPER office. Supervised experience in a cooperative program with business, government, community or related establishments within any of the specialized areas in Health and Physical Education. In addition to agency involvement, the student is (1) required to attend a beginning orientation and follow-up seminar, and (2) complete assigned academic work appropriate to subject matter specialization. Credit will be based upon the length of the field experience period.

PED 499 Special Problems. 1-5, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Investigation of a problem within physical education, leisure services, dance, safety education, or coaching as assigned by members of the departmental faculty. This course may be repeated up to a maximum of 5 hours of credit.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

PED 605 Applied Statistics in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: HLH 600 or SFR 690 or permission of instructor. Applications of descriptive and inferential statistics to research problems in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

PED 633 Current Problems in Sports Administration. 3(3-0) F, S.

Identification, analysis, and evaluation of current problems, research and trends in sports administration.

PED 635 Administration of School Physical Education and Athletic Programs. 3(3-0) D.

Financial and legal aspects, personnel management, program development, public relations, and evaluation as they apply to physical education and athletics.

PED 637 Curriculum Designs in Physical Education. 3(3-0) F, S.

A comprehensive inquiry of the principles underlying the curriculum of physical education in grades K-12. An in-depth analysis will be given to the problems in development and evaluation of physical education curriculum.

PED 639 Principles of Sports Management. 3(3-0) F.

Introduction to theories and principles of sports management as applied to all segments of the sports industry from high school, collegiate, professional and international sports, to health, fitness and recreational settings.

PED 655 Fitness as Preventive Medicine. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PED 362 or permission of instructor. Development and implementation of scientifically-based fitness programs as vehicles of preventative medicine.

PED 659 Contemporary Health Problems. 3(3-0) D.

In-depth consideration of relevant pertinent health issues, trends, controversy, and current research in Health Education.

PED 660 Applied Biomechanics of Human Movement. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: PED 360 or equivalent. Biomechanical principles applied to the analysis of human motion and performance. Techniques of cinematography, computerized motion analysis and other methods of analysis will be used.

PED 662 Applied Exercise Physiology. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: PED 362 or equivalent. A study of the mechanisms underlying the body's physiological responses and adaptations to exercise and training. Application is made to health-related concerns, environmental stress, exercise practices, and the aging process.

PED 680 Legal Aspects in Sports, Physical Education, and Wellness Programs. 3(3-0) F.

The legal aspects in sports, physical education, recreation and wellness programs as related to personnel, facilities, participants, spectators and contracts. Includes a review of legal concepts, necessary for in-depth study of the law, as it relates to sports, or other programmed activities.

PED 681 Contemporary Issues in Physical Education. 3(3-0) F, S.

Exploration of basic issues and trends in physical education using a philosophical approach to contemporary American education. Individual problem solving will assist the student in identifying, analyzing and evaluating recent developments and basic issues in physical education and sport.

PED 695 Research Project. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: HLH 600 or SFR 690 a statistics course and permission of graduate coordinator. Original research supervised by the departmental staff. Designed to enable students through first hand experience to understand the various parts of research papers, methods of gathering data, appropriate statistical tests, interpretation of findings and implications for further study.

PED 697 (690) Graduate Seminar. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 12 hours of graduate credit or permission of instructor. Selected topics in health, physical education, and recreation. Topics may vary from semester to semester. May be repeated for credit when topic varies. A total of 6 hours may be applied to a degree program.

PED 698 Field Experience in Sports Management. 6, D.

Prerequisite: completion of the application process for the field experience and 12 credits in the certificate program. The Field Experience is the culminating experience for all students in the certificate program. The field experience provides students the opportunity to become directly involved in the application of organizational and sport management skills in sport related venues. Possible sites include: professional or club sports teams, university athletic departments, sports sales, sports agencies, professional and university sports facilities. Selection is dependent on the students' background and career expectations. All required courses must be completed in order to be eligible. The field experience can be completed during the fall, spring, or summer and requires at least 400 hours. All field experiences must be approved by the internship coordinator.

PED 699. Thesis. 6, D.

Prerequisite: HLH 600 or SFR 690, a statistics course and permission of graduate coordinator. of graduate coordinator Independent research and study connected with the preparation of a thesis.

Radiography Courses

The following courses are specifically designed to provide the basis for professional training in Radiography. They are taught by the staff of the School of Radiologic Technology of Cox Health Systems or St. John's Regional Health Center as part of their degree program. Enrollment in any of these courses is contingent on acceptance of the student by the School of Radiologic Technology. The emphasis in all cases is towards applicability to Radiography. These courses are credited only on the Bachelor of Science degree in Radiography and are treated as transfer courses.

RAD 110 Introduction to Radiography. 1(1-0).

An introduction to the field, orientation to hospital and school policies, history and fundamentals of radiography, basic radiation protection, professional ethics, patient care, and general office procedures.

RAD 120 Radiographic Anatomy. 2(2-0).

A study of the structure of human systems, with special emphasis on the skeletal and radiographic anatomy.

RAD 130 Radiographic Procedures I. 2(1-3).

Fundamentals of radiographic procedures and terminology. This course includes all routine positions and a discussion of the resulting radiographic projections.

RAD 140 Medical Terminology. 1(1-0).

A survey of medical terms as applied to radiography to include a structural analysis of root words, suffixes, and prefixes.

RAD 150 Radiographic Science I. 3(2-2).

The fundamentals of atomic theory, basic electricity, construction of x-ray tubes, the production of x-radiation, interactions of x-radiation with matter and basic x-ray circuitry.

RAD 160 Radiographic Procedures II. 2(1-2).

Advanced positioning techniques with emphasis on special views of bony anatomy, trauma, pelvimetry, and pediatrics.

RAD 170 Image Processing. 1(1-0).

The fundamental chemical composition of radiographic film and processing solutions, construction and design of radiographic darkroom, and manual and automatic processing theory and techniques.

RAD 180 Radiographic Imaging I. 3(2-2).

A study of the formation of radiographic images to include a discussion of the image devices, exposure factors, and the geometric properties of the x-ray beam. Also included are methods of improving image quality and reducing patient exposure to ionizing radiation.

RAD 190 Practicum I. 7(1-12).

First year student clinical training. Duties begin under the direct supervision of the Registered Technologists to include most of the duties performed by a practicing technologist including routine radiography, tomography, fluoroscopy, and portable radiography. Also included is an extensive lab and clinical competency evaluation system.

RAD 310 Radiologic Physiology. 3(3-0).

Normal structure and function of human systems with emphasis on related radiographic examinations.

RAD 320 Radiographic Procedures III. 2(1-2).

A comprehensive study of examinations utilizing contrast media to visualize various aspects of the digestive and urinary systems. This course will include lab demonstrations and practice.

RAD 330 Radiographic Procedures IV. 1(1-0).

A general overview of the examinations requiring contrast agents or the use of special techniques.

RAD 340 Contrast Agents. 1(1-0).

A general study of the various types, uses, patient reactions to, and emergency treatment of reactions to contrast agents.

RAD 350 Radiographic Science II. 2(1-2).

A continuation of Radiographic Science I to include a study of ionizing radiations, radiobiology, and radiation protection.

RAD 360 Radiographic Imaging II. 2(1-2).

An in-depth study of Radiographic Imaging I with emphasis on image formation, exposure factors, and alternate imaging technologies.

RAD 370 Radiographic Procedures V. 1(1-0).

An introduction to advanced procedures such as vascular radiography, computerized tomography, diagnostic ultrasonography, nuclear medicine and digital radiography, and magnetic resonance imaging.

RAD 380 Practicum II. 8(1-14).

Second year clinical training to include a continuation of first year duties under supervision of the Registered Technologists with increased responsibilities. Also included is an orientation to: vascular imaging, computerized tomography, nuclear medicine, ultrasonography, radiation therapy, and magnetic resonance imaging.

Recreation and Leisure Studies Courses

REC 152 Introduction to Leisure Services. 3(3-0) F,S.

Implications of leisure values in society and the role that organizations, agencies, institutions and municipalities have played in the recreation movement. Theories, concepts, and philosophies of leisure in society. A survey of the career opportunities in the leisure service field.

REC 160 Outdoor Initiatives. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This course is designed to give the student an experiential exposure to the processes of facilitating individual and group outdoor initiatives. Students will be actively involved in a weekend course experience which includes individual and group activities, initiative games, trust building activities and low and high ropes activities. Concepts of dynamic group leadership, facilitation skills, group decision making and problem solving as well as personal development will be incorporated in the weekend experience.

REC 161 Basic Camping Skills. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This course is designed to provide the students with practical skills in camping. Basic campcraft skills such as toolcraft, firecraft, ropecraft, outdoor cooking, map and compass will be included with a minimum impact camping orientation. Skills will be taught with an emphasis on appropriately leading others in outdoor settings and with safety and risk management considered.

REC 190 Applied Social Recreation. 2(1-2) F,S.

Applied approach to developing leadership skills in games, activities, contests and social recreation activities. Activity analysis as applied to expected outcomes, instructional techniques, age appropriateness, and activity leadership skills is emphasized.

REC 205 Leisure Services and Special Populations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: declared RLS Major. Recommended: REC 152. Orientation to the broad implications of specialized clinical and community based recreation approaches to programs for special population groups. Specific consideration given to mental retardation, developmental disabilities, mental illness, physical disabilities, aging, juvenile and adult corrections.

REC 210 Camp Counseling. 2(2-0) D.

Recommended: REC 152. Overview of the camping movement in America, the role of the counselor, and the personal development of the camper.

REC 225 Practicum in Leisure Services. 2(0-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: REC 152 and permission of RLS practicum coordinator. A practical experience which the student can relate to classroom theory. Students are assigned to leisure-oriented agencies for exposure to structure, programming, and philosophy of the cooperating agency. This course may be repeated once for credit but each practicum must be in a different leisure service agency. Students must report to the RLS office at least six (6) months prior to the semester the practicum is desired. A permission slip must later be secured before enrolling in the course.

REC 235 Adaptive Recreation Techniques/Equipment. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. The identification of techniques associated with the utilization of adapted and modified recreational and personal aids, appliances, and equipment utilized in leisure pursuits by individuals with physical impairments.

REC 301 The Role of Animals in Recreation. 1(1-0) D.

In rural or urban, public or private settings, humans are attracted to domestic or wild animals as a recreation activity... keeping, observing, showing, breeding, harvesting, capturing, fighting, training, and riding. This is a seminar course that will offer the student an opportunity to make a critical survey of the "recreational role of animals" in society (for persons with or without disability) as well as its surrounding commercial recreation industry and technology. Intended for the mature learner.

REC 302 Ecotourism and Recreation. 2(2-0) D.

Students will gain an appreciation for ecotourism as a recreation experience. They will gain an appreciation for ecotourism development and ecotourism attractions as important components of a tourism destination, as well as the concept of community tourism. The course will also connect ecotourism with the concept of sustainability. This is a course for mature students.

REC 303 Recreational Tourism Frontiers. 2(2-0) D.

This is a seminar course that will offer the student an opportunity to make a critical survey of current trends and issues (some controversial) in the field of recreational tourism. Recreational trends such as health, sport, festivals, gambling, genealogy/reunions, incentive travel, adventure, contests/shows/meetings, heritage/nostalgia, tourism for the disabled, nature, arts, farm/home visits and more... seem to be on the cusp of popularity. Students will examine practices, resources, delivery systems, ethics, career development issues, literature, and research. This course is intended for the mature student.

REC 305 Meeting Planning. 1(1-0) D.

This course presents concepts necessary for the meeting planner to successfully solicit/develop and manage conventions and special events, commonly participated in during leisure time. Techniques of delivery, planning, managing and assessing economic impact, as well as highlighting the role of the convention and visitors bureau as a catalyst for regional leisure economic development of business travel will be included. As an elective, this course is for the mature, serious student particularly in recreation, communications, marketing, and other fields. Though the course makes reference to the hotel industry, it is instead taught from the perspective of the meeting planner.

REC 311 Outdoor Education. 3(3-0) S.

Recommended: REC 152. The scope, methods, and importance of using the outdoors as a teaching tool for both individual and group education settings.

REC 315 Introduction to Private/Commercial Recreation. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: REC 152. Overview of the spectrum of private planning, delivery and assessment of goods and services in the private and commercial sector.

REC 320 Fundamentals of Tourism. (Identical to GRY 310.) 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 credit hours. Geographical and recreational elements of tourism and travel including social, economic, environmental and political factors. Career options will be identified. Students participate in tourism research projects. One field trip may be required. Team taught by Geography and Recreation and Leisure Studies faculty.

REC 325 Leisure Counseling. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: REC 205. This course is designed to identify and experientially implement the concept of leisure counseling and examine individual interview techniques, group process approaches, techniques, and strategies, and other appropriate materials facilitating the leisure counseling process.

REC 330 Leisure Research Applications. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: REC 152 and 30 credit hours. An overview of the purpose, basic procedures, research designs, and computer applications in leisure research. Familiarization with and interpretation of research literature in the field of leisure services.

REC 331 Statistical Applications in Leisure Service. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: REC 152 and 30 credit hours. Introduction to statistical applications most commonly used in leisure services research; analysis, interpretation and presentation of data related to leisure services; particularly measures of central tendency and dispersion, elementary probability, probability distributions, sampling, standard error, interval estimation, and hypothesis testing. This course cannot be credited toward a degree if a student has passed any of the following: AGR 330, ECO 308, MTH 340, PSY 200, QBA 237, SOC 302.

REC 390 Recreation Programming. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121 and REC 152 and 60 credit hours. Students will examine various program areas and various approaches to program determination; develop a ten step process for program planning, and gain experience in brochure and survey development.

REC 400 Therapeutic Recreation Applications. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: REC 205; and PED 250 or BMS 307. Principles, concepts, techniques, and skills in the provision of therapeutic recreation programs and services. Areas of emphasis include: client leisure assessments, treatment plans, activity analysis, implementation and evaluation, intervention techniques, reporting and documentation skills.

REC 405 Camp Administration. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: REC 152. A study of the techniques and principles involved in the administration of modern camps.

REC 410 Recreation Leadership/Supervision. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: REC 152 and 60 credit hours. A study of the processes, methods, and characteristics of leadership and supervision in the delivery of leisure services.

REC 420 Trends and Issues in Therapeutic Recreation. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: REC 205. A seminar course designed to focus on contemporary issues, trends, practices, and professional literature, media resources, and research related to the delivery of therapeutic recreation services.

REC 422 Leisure Resource Management. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: declared RLS major and 90 credit hours. Elements of locating, planning, designing, developing, maintaining, and financing various leisure resources. Study of management principles and responsibilities applicable to leisure settings.

REC 423 Organization and Administration of Leisure Services. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: declared RLS major and 90 credits hours. This course is usually taken with REC 422. Presentation of administrative principles of leisure oriented agencies. Specific approaches to financing, personnel, budgets, facility operation, policy development, departmental structure, public relations, legal aspects, and evaluation procedures are presented.

REC 491 Leisure Service Internship. (8 or 12) F,S.

Prerequisite: REC 225 and REC 422 and REC 423, cumulative SMSU GPA of at least 2.20, first-aid competency met, and permission of internship coordinator. Supervised field experience which provides the student with an opportunity to make the transition from the classroom to actual involvement in a leisure service agency. In addition to the 10 week (optional 15 week) involvement, students are required to (1) meet with the RLS intern coordinator during the preceding semester to secure an internship site and clarify internship responsibilities, (2) complete a notebook during the internship, and (3) attend a one-day seminar at SMSU during the final examination of the internship semester. Credit will be based on the length of the internship period.

REC 495 Seminar in Leisure Services. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Study of various leisure services topics from contemporary and/or technical points of view. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic. The course may be repeated, provided the topic is different, to a maximum of 6 hours.

REC 499 Special Problems. 1-5, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of program coordinator. Directed reading or special investigation of a particular problem within the field of leisure services and research projects under faculty supervision. The course may be repeated up to a maximum of 5 hours of credit.

Respiratory Therapy Courses

NOTE: The following courses are not offered at SMSU and are treated as transfer courses.

RTH 111 Fundamentals of Respiratory Therapy I. 4 credits.

Topics in medical terminology, function of the respiratory system including: ventilatory mechanisms, gas transport in the blood and regulation of ventilation. Medical gas delivery devices will be considered with classroom knowledge being used to develop skills in the clinical setting.

RTH 112 Fundamentals of Respiratory Therapy II. 4 credits.

A continuation of fundamentals with major emphasis and topics of aerosols, humidity, equipment maintenance, IPPB therapy and asepsis techniques.

RTH 113 Fundamentals of Respiratory Therapy III. 4 credits.

Ventilatory insufficiency and failure, mechanical ventilation, and chest physio-therapy. Skills and techniques are developed in the clinical setting.

RTH 311 Pulmonary Functions. 2 credits.

Application of specialized diagnostic facilities including pulmonary function and blood gas analysis. Approach and application of fundamental skills are extended to primary intensive care facilities of the participating institution.

RTH 313 Clinical Application of Acid-Base Balance. 3 credits.

Prerequisite: RTH 311. Acid-Base Homeostasis is related to clinical therapeutics. Topics include expired gas analysis, hemodynamics, biomedical instrumentation of biostatistical analysis.

RTH 350 Respiratory Therapy Pharmacology. 2 credits.

Provides the student with the skills and knowledge for the safe usage of therapeutic drugs. An introduction to the general principles and mechanisms of drug actions, interactions, and toxicity of the use of therapeutic drugs.

RTH 352 Pathology and Chest Disease. 2 credits.

Physio-pathology of respiratory disease states as they relate to normal structure.

RTH 360 Respiratory Therapy Practicum. 3 credits.

Departmental responsibilities including principles and practices of planning, directing and evaluating a respiratory therapy department.

RTH 361 Respiratory Physiology. 2 credits.

In-depth study and analysis of ventilation, the response to chemical and gaseous agents and manifestation and diagnosis and treatment of pulmonary disease.

RTH 370 Advanced Clinical Techniques. 4 credits.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics in the use of biomedical electronic and health related equipment as applied to Respiratory Therapy.

RTH 371 Cardiovascular Physiology. 3 credits.

A course describing detailed anatomy and physiology of the cardiovascular system. Topics included are: neurogenic and histogenic homeostasis, shock, disease processes and diagnostic testing.

RTH 380 Special Studies in Respiratory Therapy. 4 credits.

Provides the student with the opportunity for advanced work in a specialty area on an individual basis.

RTH 381 Clinical Practicum in Respiratory Care. 3 credits.

Supervised practical application of various respiratory care procedures performed in clinical settings.

RTH 382 Clinical Practicum in Respiratory Care. 3 credits.

Prerequisite: RTH 381. Supervised practical application of various respiratory care procedures performed in clinical settings.

RTH 383 Clinical Practicum in Respiratory Care. 3 credits.

Prerequisite: RTH 382. Continuation of RTH 382.

DEPARTMENT OF NURSING

300 Professional Building, Phone: 836-5310, FAX: 836-5484

Email: Nursing@smsu.edu

Department Web Site: www.smsu.edu/nursing

Department Head: Associate Professor Kathryn L. Hope, Ph.D.

Associate Professor: Rose A. Utley, Ph.D.

Assistant Professors: Susan Sims-Giddens, M.S.N.; Susan Hinck, M.S.N.; M. Sue Yarbrough, M.S.

Instructor: Elizabeth M. Fahey, M.S.N.

Emeritus Professor: Karen L. McCoy, M.S.

General Education Course

NUR 472 may be used to satisfy the Writing II requirement of the Basic Required Courses in General Education.

Nursing (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science in Nursing

The Department of Nursing offers a Junior-Senior level nursing program leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree (BSN). Degree candidates must be registered nurse graduates of associate degree or diploma nursing programs. Admission to this program is by application and selection as stated in the admission policies.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog) Specific General Education Requirements: SOC 150(3) and PSY 121(3)
- B. Major Requirements
 1. Lower Division Nursing: Thirty hours lower division transfer credit will be awarded toward the major requirements after successful completion of NUR 306 with grade of "C" or better. These hours will be credited only toward the BSN degree.
 2. Upper Division Nursing Requirements: NUR 306(3), 341(6), 342(4), 442(6), 472(3), 482(6), 565(3)
 3. Select one or more courses from the following to equal three (3) credit hours: HCM 301(3), 303(3), 504(3); MGT 341(3); NUR 515(2), 499(1-6)
 4. Select one course in statistics from the following: SOC 302(3), PSY 200(3), MTH 340(3), ECO 308(3), QBA 237, AGR 330, REC 331
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
A maximum of six hours in NUR 499 may be credited toward the degree.

Admission Policies

1. Acceptance of application to the University by the Office of Admissions. (Note: Admission to the University does NOT automatically constitute acceptance for the professional program in nursing. The Department of Nursing's Admissions, Promotion and Graduation Committee will make recommendations on each application.)
2. Current licensure as a registered nurse in the State of Missouri.
3. Provide evidence of current malpractice liability insurance.
4. GPA of 2.50 or higher on a 4.00 scale, based on at least 30 hours of college work. Students with GPAs between 2.00 and 2.50 will be considered on an individual basis.
5. Two professional reference letters from an employer or nursing school instructor.
6. Provide evidence of current basic CPR certification.
7. Provide evidence of immunization or vaccination for vaccine-preventable diseases and show documentation of current tuberculosis status.
8. An admission conference with a member of the Department of Nursing Faculty is recommended for direction in sequencing courses.

Clinical Security Policy

Clinical sites may require a security check or other procedures before permitting students to complete their clinical practicum. Students who fail these checks or procedures will be subject to further review by the Department of Nursing Admission, Promotion and Graduation Committee and may be dismissed from the BSN program.

Readmission Policy

Continuing enrollment in SMSU must be maintained to be considered a student in the BSN program. Students who interrupt their education for a year or more must follow University readmission policies and petition the Department of Nursing to be reinstated in the nursing program at which time the previous course work will be reevaluated.

Retention, Progression and Graduation Policies

- A. After admission into the Nursing major, the students must achieve the following for retention in the major.
 1. Achieve a grade of "C" or better in all nursing and supporting courses.
 2. Receive a "pass" in all clinical evaluations.
 3. Maintain a University cumulative GPA of 2.50 or higher.
 4. Maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.50 or higher in all nursing and supportive courses.
 5. Courses in the nursing major may not be taken more than twice.
 6. Credit for upper division nursing courses taken more than 8 years before the student's date of graduation may be disallowed by the Nursing Department.
 7. Demonstrate acceptable levels of maturity, integrity, and behaviors and attitudes normally expected of professional nurses.
- B. Students who fail to meet the retention criteria may be (a) placed on academic or clinical probation in the nursing major, or (b) dismissed from the nursing program. Students on academic probation must achieve a grade of "B" or higher in the next 9 hours of coursework in nursing or supporting courses attempted. Students on clinical probation must receive a "Pass" in all remaining nursing clinical courses. Students who fail to meet the probationary criteria or are dismissed from the program are not eligible for readmission to the nursing major.

Students should refer to the BSN Student Handbook for additional information on the policies and procedures in the Department of Nursing.

Nursing Electives for Non-BSN Majors

NUR 199, 326, 327, 361 may be taken by students in other departments and as continuing education courses by non-degree seeking students.

Minor

Health Care Management

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

Accelerated Masters in Nursing

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

- A. HCM 301(3), 303(3); HCM 504(3) or ECO 504(3); ECO 165(3) or AGB 144(4); MGT 345(3) or PLS 356(3)
- B. Five hours from ACC 201(3); MGT 341(3); MKT 350(3); SOC 341(3); NUR 515(2) for a total of no fewer than 20 hours.

Graduate Program

A Master of Science in Nursing degree is offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Masters in Nursing

The Accelerated RN to Masters in Nursing Option is designed to enable academically outstanding registered nurses who have an associate degree or diploma in nursing to receive a baccalaureate and masters degree in nursing in less time than it would take to complete both degrees separately. If accepted to the accelerated option, students may earn graduate credit for up to 10 hours of 500-600 level courses and count these hours toward both degrees.

Students must apply to the Accelerated RN to MSN Option when they first apply for admission to the BSN completion program and prior to enrolling in nursing or supporting courses required in the BSN. Students may not enter the RN-MSN option after they begin taking courses for the BSN completion program. Upon acceptance to the RN-MSN option, students will be granted 30 hours of undergraduate credit from previous associate or diploma nursing courses. Students may then begin taking nursing courses, including courses that will count toward both degrees. Upon successful completion of the courses required for the BSN, all students will receive the BSN. Students who have met criteria for graduate study may be granted full admission to the graduate college and may complete the MSN. See Graduate Catalog for details.

University Certificates

Graduate level certificate programs are available in Post-Master's Family Nurse Practitioner, and in Post-Master's Nurse Educator. See Graduate Catalog for details.

Clinical Hours

Clinical and laboratory hours represent the number of hours per week the course will meet in clinical and laboratory experiences outside the classroom. In nursing, three clinical hours are required for one credit hour. For example, a four credit hour clinical course with two hours of lecture will have six hours of clinical experiences. Two laboratory hours are required for one credit hour. For example, a four credit hour laboratory course with two hours of lecture will have four hours of laboratory experience.

Health Care Management Courses

HCM 301 Health Care Organization. 3(3-0) D.

Analysis of organizational structure, the nature of health and health care delivery. Emphasizes the interrelatedness of cultural, economic, political, and social aspects of health care delivery along with its services and management.

HCM 303 Health Care Legal Issues 3(3-0) D.

Introduction to the legal system as it relates to health care. Legal responsibilities and issues related to health care institutions, health provider/patient relationships, medical records, malpractice insurance, licensure of health professionals, and ethical problems/questions in health care.

HCM 497 Special Topics in Health Care Management. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: administrative experience in health care system and/or permission. Variable content course to increase understanding and skills in relevant areas of health care systems administration. Topics to be chosen from current areas of interest. May be repeated up to 6 hours with different topic.

HCM 504 Health Care Economics. 3(3-0) F. (Identical to ECO 504).

Prerequisite: ECO 165 or AGB 144. A basic study of the major economic issues facing the health care industry. Emphasis will be placed on the major elements of economic theory from a micro-economic perspective and how these theories are applied in the area of health care. May not receive credit for both HCM 504 and ECO 504.

Nursing Courses

NUR 199 Health Topics. 1-3, F,S.

Topics of general interest in health care system, and the health professions. Topics may vary each semester; the course may be taken to a maximum of 10 hours provided the same topic is not repeated. Variable Content Course.

NUR 302 Concepts in Nursing. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the Nursing major or permission. Introduction to nursing: process and theory; historical, social and legal dimensions; contractual and professional relationships between nurse and client.

NUR 306 Professional Emergence. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: registered nurse. Enhancement of nurses' ability to function as professionals. Survey of past, current, and developing trends in nursing and health care delivery, including historical, socio-cultural, legal and ethical dimensions in nursing practice.

NUR 308 Nursing: The Healthy Individual. 7(4.5-7.5) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the major; NUR 302, BMS 307 and 308 or equivalent, concurrent enrollment in NUR 361. Focus on communication and assessment skills necessary to meet therapeutic self-care demand of clients throughout the life span.

NUR 310 Contemporary Problems in Medical-Surgical Nursing. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Variable content course dealing with special problems related to nursing of persons with medical surgical problems. Specific subjects vary each semester depending on the interest of the faculty and students. (Only 6 hours within the Contemporary Problems Series will count as electives toward the BSN degree.)

NUR 312 Nursing: Adult Health Deviations. 8(4-12) D.

Prerequisite: NUR 308; concurrent enrollment in NUR 465. Development of nursing systems to meet needs of adults with acute or chronic physical and psychological health deviations.

NUR 320 Contemporary Problems in Maternal-Child Health. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Variable content course dealing with special problems related to nursing care of parents and their children. Specific subjects vary each semester depending on the interest of faculty and students. (Only 6 hours within the Contemporary Problems Series will count as electives toward the BSN degree.)

NUR 322 Nursing: The Childbearing Family. 6(3-9) D.

Prerequisite: NUR 312; concurrent enrollment in NUR 324. Development of nursing systems to meet needs of the childbearing family.

NUR 324 Nursing: The Childrearing Family. 6(3-9) D.

Prerequisite: NUR 312; concurrent enrollment in NUR 322. Development of nursing systems to meet nursing needs of the childrearing family.

NUR 326 Current Issues in Children's Health and Safety. 1(1-0) D.

Variable content course dealing with issues relative to the health and safety of children. Methods to reduce morbidity and mortality rates are included.

NUR 327 Issues in Women's Health. 1(1-0) D.

Variable course content dealing with issues concerning women's health. Content is appropriate for non-nursing majors.

NUR 330 Contemporary Problems in Psychiatric Nursing. 1-6, D.
Prerequisite: permission. Variable content course dealing with special problems related to nursing care of persons with psychological disturbances. Specific subjects vary each semester depending on the interest of the faculty and students. (Only 6 hours within the Contemporary Problems Series will count as electives toward the BSN degree.)

NUR 340 Contemporary Problems in Community Health Nursing. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Variable content course dealing with special problems related to nursing care in the community. Specific subjects vary each semester depending on the interest of the faculty and students. (Only 6 hours within the Contemporary Problems Series will count as electives toward the BSN degree.)

NUR 341 Nursing: Individuals and Families. 6(4-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: RN, admission to the nursing program, NUR 306 and 342 or concurrent enrollments and permission. Application of nursing theory and nursing process in the health care of individuals and families. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 342 Nursing: Health Assessment. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: graduate of diploma or associate degree in nursing program. Acquisition and utilization of skills in health history interviewing and physical assessment of clients throughout the life span.

NUR 350 Contemporary Problems in Nursing Administration. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Variable content course dealing with special problems related to administration and leadership in nursing. Specific subjects vary each semester depending on the interest of the faculty and students. (Only 6 hours within the Contemporary Problems Series will count as electives toward the BSN degree.)

NUR 361 Introduction to Pharmacology. (Identical with BMS 361) 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 307 and 308 or equivalent. Introduction to basic pharmacology, pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of major drug classifications.

NUR 363 Human Pathobiology. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: courses in anatomy and physiology or permission. Topics concerning anatomical, physiological, pharmacological and genetic aspects of disease. Designed for students and professionals in the health sciences. May be repeated for a total of 6 hours in a degree program. Variable Content Course.

NUR 412 Nursing: Individuals with Complex Health Need. 6(3-9) D.

Prerequisite: NUR 322, 324, 472. Development of nursing systems to meet nursing needs of clients With complex or multiple health deviations.

NUR 416 Nursing: The Geriatric Client. 3(2-3) D.

Prerequisite: NUR 322 and 324 or RN and permission. Development of nursing systems to meet the health care needs of the older adult.

NUR 442 (342) Nursing: Community Health. 6(4-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: NUR 341, 342, 565 and 472 or concurrent enrollment, or permission. Theory and clinical experience in distributive nursing practice to aggregates and communities. Focus is on nursing knowledge and skills in community health nursing and nursing research to promote health and prevent disease. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 472 Writing II: Nursing Research and Scholarly Writing. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: RN, statistics, or concurrent enrollment. This course will prepare the student to write in a variety of styles common to the discipline of nursing, in addition to reading, interpreting, and evaluating nursing research. The student will acquire an understanding of the research process, apply relevant research to nursing practice, and demonstrate the accurate dissemination of research results in verbal and written format. This course will assist students to develop an attitude of inquiry, expand logical thinking, and enhance analytical skills.

NUR 478 Nursing: Senior Seminar. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: NUR 412, 416. Exploration of issues facing nursing practice, education and health care system.

NUR 482 Nursing: Leadership and Management. 6(4-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: NUR 306 and 442 or permission. Development of nurse agency, leadership, change agency and management roles. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 499 (399) Special Topics in Nursing. 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission. Independent study in area of special interest. May be taken up to maximum of 6 hours.

NUR 515 Healthcare Informatics. 2(2-0) F,Su.

Integration of health, computer and information sciences in managing information to support healthcare and research. Development of skill in managing information and using information systems relevant to health care.

NUR 565 (465) Advanced Human Pathophysiology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: introductory biology course. Exploration of pathophysiology with focus on health care problems relevant to nursing.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

NUR 600 Epidemiology. 3(3-0) F,S. (Identical to HLH 620).

This course is an introduction to the epidemiological methods and procedures utilized in the study of the origin, distribution, and control of disease. It will include the study of infectious and non-infectious disease etiology, including vector control, host defenses and resistance, and investigation of disease outbreaks. Students will learn to use basic epidemiological concepts and methods for program planning, evaluation, and research. Basic statistical measures used in the analysis of clinical and epidemiological evaluations, including measures of disease frequency and measures of absolute and relative effects, will be covered. Students may not receive credit for HLH 620 and NUR 600.

NUR 601 Nursing Science. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program NUR 551 or concurrent. This course is designed to address how nursing science has evolved and the state of the art of nursing science. Emphasis will be placed on analysis and critique of existing nursing models and theories.

NUR 607 Advanced Health Assessment and Health Promotion. 4(3-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program in nursing and to the family nurse practitioner tract. Exploration of advanced health assessment and health promotion strategies for primary care. Includes clinical and laboratory experiences of not less than 48 hours.

NUR 610 Nursing Case Management. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program in nursing. Emphasis on designing delivery systems; participating in policy development; assessing, diagnosing, and planning nursing needs of a particular patient population; and evaluating patient outcomes and effectiveness of the health care delivery system.

NUR 611 Advanced Roles and Leadership in Nursing. 2(1-3) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MSN program. Examination of advanced nursing roles with emphasis on role theory, leadership, and advanced competencies. Includes a clinical experience of not less than 48 hours.

NUR 615 Primary Care of the Adult. 6(4-6) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MSN program and to the family nurse practitioner specialization; NUR 565, 566, 607, 611 and 661, or permission of instructor. Adult primary care content and practicum. Emphasis on primary, secondary and tertiary prevention as well as on diagnosis and management of health problems. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 620 Clinical Concepts in Nursing. 4(3-3) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate program in nursing; NUR 515, 601, and 672. Analysis of theories of health and illness with emphasis on the research basis of selected nursing interventions. Includes clinical experience of 48 hours.

NUR 625 Primary Care of Women. 4(2-6) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the Family Nurse Practitioner Track, NUR 607, and permission. Development of the family nurse practitioner's knowledge and skills with emphasis on women's health. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 628 Primary Care of Children and Adolescents. 4(2-6) SP,Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the family nurse practitioner track, NUR 607, and permission. Content and practicum in primary care of children and adolescents. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 661 Advanced Pharmacotherapeutics. 3(3-0) F. (Identical to PAS 681).

Prerequisite: completion of PAS 680, or RN or permission. In-depth analysis of pharmacotherapeutics and the application of drugs for the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of disease. Emphasis will be placed on the rational use of drugs in the care and treatment of pediatric, adult and geriatric patients in primary care settings. Will include discussion of treatment guidelines, indications, contra indications, prescription writing, drug law, drug information resources and case studies.

NUR 665 Applications of Advanced Pathophysiology. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BSN, NUR 565 or concurrent enrollment. Clinical application of advanced pathophysiology for advanced nursing roles.

NUR 672 Advanced Research Methods in Nursing. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate college and the masters program in nursing; graduate statistics, NUR 515, 601 or concurrent. Critical analysis of the researcher role, the research process, and research ethics within a nursing framework. Application of learned principles will result in the development of the research proposal.

NUR 680 Teaching/Learning for Nurse Educators. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate college and the nurse educator program in nursing, NUR 515, and 601; or permission. Designed to examine works of major learning theorists and to investigate research related to teaching methods and learning. Identification of didactic and clinical teaching/learning strategies used in nursing education.

NUR 681 Nursing Education Practicum. 2(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate college and the nurse educator program; NUR 680 and 611 or concurrent. Clinical experience in a nurse educator role in a basic education program. Application of educational theories and principles in a clinical teaching setting. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 682 Curriculum Design and Program Development. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the graduate college and the nurse educator program in nursing; NUR 611 and 680. Basic components and processes of curriculum development. Various perspectives of curriculum design will be discussed. Curriculums for formal educational programs, staff development, and continuing education will be compared.

NUR 683 Nursing Education Practicum II. 2(0-6) S.

Prerequisite: NUR 682 or concurrent enrollment. Clinical experience in a nurse educator role in a healthcare or community setting with emphasis on application of educational theories and principles. Includes clinical experiences of not less than 96 hours.

NUR 686 Issues in Higher Education. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: completion of core courses or permission. Variable content course. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours when content varies.

NUR 688 Health Policies and Issues. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: NUR 515, 601, 611, and 672, or permission. Exploration of current issues in health care, such as access to health care, reimbursement, health care reform, case management, and health policy development. Health care trends related to special populations and ethical issues will be emphasized.

NUR 690 Family Nurse Practitioner Advanced Practicum. 5(0-15) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: NUR 515, 601, 607, 611, 672 and all family nurse practitioner role specialization courses, or permission. Development of the role of a family nurse practitioner in a supervised setting. Included clinical experiences of not less than 240 hours.

NUR 697 Non-thesis Project. 1-3 F,S, Su.

Prerequisite: NUR 672 and permission. Active participation in the ongoing research and/or nursing evaluation activities of nursing faculty. Culminates in a presentation of an extensive scholarly paper.

NUR 698 Research. 1-6 F,S.

Prerequisite: permission. Application of the research process in the supervised study of a selected problem. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 hours.

NUR 699 Thesis. 1-6, F, S, Su.

Prerequisite: NUR 672 and permission. Demonstration of the capacity for research and independent thought culminating in a thesis.

Graduate Program

A Master of Physical Therapy degree is offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Physical Therapy Courses

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

PTE 607 Medical Human Anatomy (Identical with BMS 607). 6(3-10) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program or permission. This course offers an in-depth coverage of basic, applied, and clinical aspects of gross anatomy. Students observe, discuss, teach, learn, and dissect all body systems in detail. This course incorporates traditional didactic lectures, discussions, laboratory dissection, students teaching students in laboratory teaching sessions, and assignments that rely on critical thinking. Students make oral presentations and use the library and other sources of information (such as the Internet and our computer laboratory) to learn and teach applied gross anatomy.

PTE 610 Introduction to Physical Therapy. 2(1-3) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program. This course is closely integrated with Professional Issues I. It provides an overview of physical therapy, including the history of physical therapy and the APTA, and the physical therapist's professional responsibilities. This information is combined with the acquisition of skills and knowledge necessary to be successful in managing patients. The topics that are discussed in Professional Issues I, e.g., Standards of Practice for Physical Therapy, Guidelines for Physical Therapy Documentation, and Guidelines for Professional Conduct, are "transformed" into practical skills that are necessary to professionally interact with patients. Hence this course combines these concepts with the skills necessary to provide patient care. These skills include the assessment of vital signs, basic measurement techniques, examination of the body, ensuring patient safety, infection control, using proper body mechanics, using appropriate transfers, gait training, and basic documentation, and patient and family education.

PTE 611 Professional Issues I. 2(1-3) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program. This course provides an overview of physical therapy and the physical therapist's professional responsibilities. Information regarding the Standards of Practice for Physical Therapy, the Guidelines for Physical Therapy Documentation, and the Guide for Professional Conduct are essential components of this course. This course focuses on the psychological and social aspects of communication in health care and providing care and services to patients. This includes patients' rights, the psychological impact of illness, social considerations such as gender, race, culture and ethnicity. These concepts are integrated using case studies of various patient-therapist situations.

PTE 612 Biomechanics and Kinesiology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program. This course provides the basis for understanding human movement. This encompasses functional anatomy, forces applied to, and by, the body, and the mechanics of human movement, including its quantitative assessment. Angular and linear kinetics and kinematics are studied and applied to patient management. Interactions among the skeletal, muscular, and neural systems of the body are emphasized as they relate to understanding normal and abnormal human movement.

PTE 613 Human Development and the Life Cycle. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MPT program or permission. This course describes the major features of embryology, maturation of the fetus, changes that occur during pregnancy, childbirth, the neonatal period, childhood, adolescence, adulthood and aging. The course stresses an integrated approach to understanding all of these periods of life as a cycle of events, each with its unique challenges to the health care professional.

PTE 620 Neuroanatomy - Neuroscience I. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course describes the gross anatomy and applied function of the central and peripheral nervous systems. Normal anatomy and function is compared and contrasted with abnormal anatomy and function due to disease or injury.

PTE 621 Professional Issues II. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on employment settings, legal issues regarding Physical Therapist Assistants, the structure of the American Physical Therapy Association, regulations, policies, practice acts, federal legislation, and direct access to patients. Additionally, this course focuses on the legal aspects of professional life including basic elements of contract law, criminal law, educational law, employment law, insurance law, and business law. Students continue to develop an individual Clinical Internship Plan with specific goals and objectives and select clinical sites for Clinical Internship III and IV.

PTE 622 Physical Agents, Mechanical Modalities and Electrotherapeutic Modalities. 3(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course describes thermal modalities (diathermy, therapeutic heat and cold, therapeutic ultrasound, low-power lasers, ultraviolet therapy) and mechanical modalities (spinal traction, intermittent compression devices, continuous passive movement devices, therapeutic soft tissue mobilization, and massage). In addition, the underlying scientific principles and clinical uses of electrotherapeutic and mechanical modalities are described. Major topics in the electrotherapeutic portion of the course include: electrical stimulation of muscle, electrical stimulation to control posture and movement (FES/NMES), electrical stimulation to control pain, electrical stimulation to promote tissue healing, iontophoresis, electroneuromyography, EMG, NCV, and biofeedback.

PTE 623 Patient Management: Musculoskeletal I. 3(2-3) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course emphasizes the management of patients suffering from musculoskeletal dysfunctions of the appendicular skeleton. Case studies are used to emphasize the process of patient management, i.e., examination, assessment, diagnosis, prognosis, treatment, analysis of functional outcomes, and reassessment. The joints of the limbs are the central themes around which the cases are built. General and specific examination and treatment techniques are included, stressing the integration of knowledge and skills. Treatment techniques include (but are not limited to) the use of soft tissue mobilization, myofascial release, therapeutic exercise, and basic joint mobilization.

PTE 630 Neuroanatomy - Neuroscience II. 2(1-2) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course builds on, and extends, the information covered in Neuroanatomy - Neuroscience I. It focuses on motor control systems and on the structure and function of the major components of the brain. The content is presented so that neurological lesions are understood based on an understanding of anatomical location and function. Case studies are used to introduce clinical reasoning based on fundamental knowledge in neuroanatomy and neuroscience.

PTE 633 Patient Management: Musculoskeletal II. 3(3-6) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course builds on the knowledge and skills acquired in Patient Management: Musculoskeletal I. It focuses on management of the axial skeleton and all of the joints associated therewith. Sophisticated examination and manual mobilization techniques are covered in detail.

PTE 637 Clinical Internship I. 2 Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course provides an introduction to the clinical education component of the MPT curriculum, as well as a four week, full-time clinical internship. Learning styles will be discussed, as well as how clinically-based learning may differ from classroom or laboratory experiences. Students will continue to develop their clinical internship plan and specific goals and objectives for this Clinical Internship. Students will complete a case study or present an "in-service" while on the four week internship write a short, reflective paper, and meet the requirements established by the program and the clinical facility. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

PTE 640 Research Methods and Design. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course examines the importance of research, the methods used to conduct research of various types, and the models that are available for designing appropriate research projects. Quantitative and qualitative research is covered in detail, as well as the use of functional outcome measurements to improve patient care and document treatment efficiency and effectiveness.

PTE 643 Patient Management: Neurological I. 3(2-3) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course covers neurological disabilities that primarily affect infants, children, and adolescents. Case studies and laboratory experiences are used to emphasize the process of patient management, i.e., examination, assessment, diagnosis, prognosis, treatment, analysis of functional outcomes, and re-assessment. General and specific examination and treatment techniques are included stressing the integration of knowledge and skills. Treatment approaches include theoretical models, and task-oriented models. Therapeutic exercise, modalities, and other treatment skills are presented and included in case studies. Functional outcome measures are incorporated, as well as patient management in the home.

PTE 644 Patient Management: Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Problems. 3(2-3) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course presents an overview of cardiac, vascular, and pulmonary physical therapy. It integrates foundational information such as anatomy, physiology, exercise physiology, embryology, histology, pharmacology, pathology, and pathophysiology into a meaningful basis on which patient management strategies are based. This course introduces the student to cardiovascular and pulmonary assessments, interventions, and outcome analyses. The course includes information specific to pediatric, adolescent, adult, and geriatric patients.

PTE 647 Clinical Internship II. 2 F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course provides for continuing development of clinical skills in the form of a four week, full-time clinical internship. Students will continue to develop their clinical internship plan and specific goals and objectives for Clinical Internship II. Students will complete a case study or present an "in-service" while on the four week internship write a short, reflective paper, and meet the requirements established by the program and the clinical facility. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

PTE 650 Research and Outcome Analysis. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on the management of data generated by research and outcome analyses. It will fully integrate the use of statistical methods, understanding the results of applying these methods, and making inferences or conclusions based upon the data analysis. It also addresses the larger scope of disseminating this information, professional responsibility to the public to generate meaningful data, and methods of critically analyzing results and conclusions drawn by others. In the latter portion of the course, students identify their research interests, choose or are assigned a research advisor and write a research project proposal.

PTE 651 Medical Lectures. 3(2-3) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on Internal Medicine from the perspective of implications for physical therapists. A significant component of the course will focus on signs and symptoms, disease recognition, associated surgical procedures, and on the affects of disease with regard to producing functional limitations and disabilities. This course covers muscular, skeletal, neurological, cardiovascular, pulmonary, hematologic, gastrointestinal, renal, urological, hepatic, and endocrine diseases. Case students are incorporated to emphasize patient management. Common medical instrumentation used in skilled patient management, the basic medical procedures associated with this instrumentation, and the application of this information to patient management in physical therapy is integrated where appropriate.

PTE 653 Patient Management: Neurological II. 3(2-3) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course covers neurological disabilities across the life span, but emphasizes adult neurological disabilities. Case studies and laboratory experiences are used to emphasize the process of patient management, i.e., examination, assessment, diagnosis, prognosis, treatment, analysis of functional outcomes, and re-assessment. General and specific examination and treatment techniques are included stressing the integration of knowledge and skills. Treatment approaches include theoretical models, and task-oriented models. Therapeutic exercise, modalities, and other treatment methods are presented and included in case studies. Functional outcome measures are incorporated, as well as patient management in the home.

PTE 654 Patient Management: Special Considerations Across the Life Span. 2(1-3) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on pediatric and geriatric physical therapy and on the unique considerations that arise in these patients. The processes involved in development are compared and contrasted with the degenerative processes that occur during aging. The specific assessment and treatment methods unique to each population are studied. Additional correlations are presented in cognitive abilities, communication, dependence on others, etc. Family-centered interventions and family education in the home are compared and contrasted in both populations.

PTE 656 Patient Management: Integumentary. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior coursework therein. The course builds on the basic information provided in Histology and Tissue Biology, and is correlated with information provided in Pathology-Pathophysiology, Neuroanatomy-Neuroscience I and II, and in Physical Agents, Mechanical Modalities, and Electrotherapeutic Modalities. Specific topics that are discussed include (but are not limited to) the prevention of skin disorders, management of burns and other open wounds, and the use of specific modalities to facilitate wound repair.

PTE 657 Clinical Internship III. 3 S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course provides for clinical practice of developing skills in the form of a six week, full-time clinical internship. Students will continue to develop their clinical internship plan and specific goals and objectives for Clinical Internship III. Students will complete a case study or present an "in-service" while on the six week internship, write a short, reflective paper, and meet the requirements established by the program and the clinical facility. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

PTE 660 Management of Research Projects. 2(1-3) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course builds upon all prior research courses in the curriculum and focuses on each student's project. Students secure Institutional Review Board approval, begin their research project, and move quickly into data collection and analysis. Important issues in research are reinforced. Students work closely with their advisor(s) during this course.

PTE 661 Contemporary Issues in Professional Practice: 2(1-3) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on some of the more specialized areas of physical therapy. This includes diseases, conditions, or practice areas such as women's health, osteoporosis, pelvic floor dysfunction, pregnancy, sports medicine, chronic pain, management of persons with AIDS and HIV infection, lymphedema, selected problems in human behavior, ergonomics, and industrial health and physical therapy. Alternative and holistic therapies are discussed, as well as their relationship and integration with patient rehabilitation.

PTE 662 Medical Pharmacology. 2(1-3) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on medical pharmacology, particularly those aspects that significantly impact the practice of Physical Therapy. Specific topics include drugs that affect the autonomic nervous system, the cardiovascular system, the central nervous system, and the endocrine system. In addition, anti-inflammatory, antiviral, antibacterial, and chemotherapeutic drugs are discussed. Case studies augment clinical information and emphasize patient management.

PTE 664 Exercise Physiology, Nutrition, and Wellness. 3(2-3) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course describes the effects of physical activity on human performance across the life span. The effects of exercise (or lack thereof) are considered for each system in the body. Strategies for improving physical performance in a variety of settings are considered, as well as fundamental principles of good health in relation to exercise.

PTE 665 The Physical Therapist as Educator. 1(1-0) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior coursework therein. This course focuses on educational theories and methodology relevant to the physical therapist in a variety of physical therapy settings. These topics are discussed in the context of promoting optimal health, preventing injury and illness, and promoting wellness. Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to utilize educational concepts and theories in the design, implementation, and evaluation of learning experiences used in the education of the community, industry, patients, families, students, colleagues, and self.

PTE 667 Health Care Systems and the Physical Therapist. 1(1-0) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior coursework therein. This course is an introduction to the various health care delivery systems in the United States, and provides a synopsis of the health care systems found in countries other than the United States. This course allows students to explore the provision of physical therapy services within the constraints of the existing health care systems, and to identify community needs, and resources.

PTE 675 Pathology - Pathophysiology (Identical with BMS 675). 3(2-2) Su.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course covers pathological conditions and their implications for Physical Therapists. All major systems of the body are studied. The pathophysiological portion of the course integrates the knowledge acquired in physiology with abnormal physiology caused by pathology. Case studies are used to integrate concepts in patient management related to pathology and pathophysiology.

PTE 685 Histology and Tissue Biology (Identical with BMS 685). 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course emphasize the structure and basic function of all the major tissues and cell types in the human body. It includes normal cell and tissue morphology and the adaptations that occur as a result of various stimuli both normal and abnormal.

PTE 771 Physical Therapy Management and Administration. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course covers theory and practical applications in managing yourself, other people, groups of people, subdivisions of organizations, and businesses. Within this framework, administration is discussed and examined as it pertains to a variety of settings in physical therapy. Health care economics is covered, as well as the economics of starting and managing a business in physical therapy. Marketing is discussed from several perspectives.

PTE 772 Orthotics, Prosthetics, and Assistive Technologies. 2(1-3) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course covers limb amputations, orthotic and prosthetic devices, and splints. The use of orthoses, prostheses, and splints is fully integrated into principles of patient management. Advanced wheelchair prescriptions are discussed, as well as advanced technologies (computer technologies, etc.) that are useful in rehabilitation including occupational and industrial therapies and devices.

PTE 773 Patient Management: Critical Integration and Analysis. 2(0-6) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course focuses on managing patients using a "life-long" conceptual basis. It stresses the importance of being proactive in resolving complex issues, particularly those that impact patients for a lifetime. Critical thinking is an integral part of this course. Cost effectiveness, efficiency, long-term planning, and using the best adaptive equipment for the long-term are emphasized. The elements of patient/client management as described in The Guide to Physical Therapist Practice are used to guide the clinical decision making process. Integral to this course will be the use of case-based learning modules.

PTE 777 Clinical Internship IV. 4, F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior coursework therein. This course provides continued clinical practice of skills in the form of an eight-week, full-time clinical internship. Students will continue to develop their global clinical internship plan, while writing specific goals and objectives for Clinical Internships IV and V. Students will complete a case study or present an “in-service” while on the eight-week internship, write a short, reflective paper, and meet the requirements established by the Program and the clinical facility. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

PTE 780 Research and Outcome Analysis: Completion and Presentations. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course is the culmination of the student’s research work during the physical therapy program. Each student will present a research project to the faculty and peers for evaluation. The student’s advisor and/or advisory committee will evaluate the student’s research or outcome analysis paper. The paper must be written using the guidelines for publication described in the Physical Therapy Journal. The paper’s quality must be similar to those that are published in the Physical Therapy Journal.

PTE 783 Patient Management: Critical Integration and Analysis II. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior coursework therein. This course follows PTE 773 that stressed the use of case-based learning modules. This course focuses on managing patients using a “life-long” conceptual basis. It stresses the importance of being proactive in resolving complex issues, particularly those that impact patients for a lifetime. Critical thinking is an integral part of this course. Cost effectiveness, efficiency, long-term planning, and using the best adaptive equipment for the long-term are emphasized. The elements of patient/client management as described in The Guide to Physical Therapist Practice are used to guide the clinical decision making process. The course will culminate with student teaching seminars that students have prepared while on Clinical Internship IV and V. These seminars are complex case studies presented to student peers and faculty.

PTE 787 Clinical Internship V. 4, S.

Prerequisite: enrollment in the MPT program and successful completion of all prior course work therein. This course provides clinical practice in the form of an eight-week, full-time clinical internship. Students must meet the requirements established by the Program and the clinical facility. After completion of Clinical Internship V and upon their return to campus, students will enter a period of in-depth self-analysis and reflection concerning Clinical Internship V and the entire clinical education experience. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

Graduate Program

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Physician Assistant Studies. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Physician Assistant Studies Courses

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

PAS 617 Medical Human Anatomy and Radiology (Identical to BMS 617). 6(3-11) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS or permission. Regional study of the human body. Course will include lecture and laboratory activities including cadaver dissection, study of anatomic models, computer images, X-ray, CAT scan, and MRI and ultrasound imaging.

PAS 653 Medical Physiology Clinical Correlations. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS and concurrent enrollment in BMS 652. Clinical application and discussion of physiologic concepts for PA students.

PAS 665 Clinical Assessment I. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. The first of a 2-semester course sequence. Introduction to effective communication and interviewing skills, techniques of physical examination utilizing a systematic anatomical approach and the recording and presentation of clinical information. Format will include lecture, hands-on laboratory exercises, small group presentations, limited patient contact and written and practical examinations.

PAS 666 Clinical Assessment II. 3(2-2) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. A continuation of Clinical Assessment I. Emphasis will be on continued development of interviewing and physical examination skills, recognizing and interpreting abnormal physical findings, developing problem lists and differential diagnoses, and refining the recording and presenting of patient evaluation data. In addition, students will learn advanced assessment techniques and perform written and practical skills examinations that incorporate the objective structured clinical exam (OSCE).

PAS 669 Behavioral Medicine. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. A biopsychosocial systems approach to the individual, family and community within the health care delivery system that includes issues germane to public health and rural medicine. A variety of topics such as growth and development, human sexuality, health promotion and disease prevention, health education, patient compliance, cultural diversity, substance abuse, family violence, child abuse and rural health issues are examined.

PAS 670 Professional Issues Seminar. 1(0-2) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. Seminar format for discussion of professional and legal issues relevant to the physician assistant profession. Includes topics such as the history of the profession, health care systems, professional organizations, national certification, Missouri licensure, prescriptive privileges, and clinical ethics.

PAS 675 Principles of Clinical Problem Solving. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS or permission. Introduction to critical thinking skills and problem solving techniques. Incorporates problem based learning format where small groups of students under the supervision of a group leader explore the various facets of "real-life" clinical case scenarios.

PAS 676 Clinical Problem Solving Seminar. 1(0-2) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. Advanced exercises in clinical problem solving in a small group format. Commonly presenting clinical problems are utilized as a means to refine students' ability to choose appropriate steps to determine a definitive diagnosis/outcome.

PAS 677 Introduction to Research and Clinical Epidemiology. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. Foundations of quantitative and qualitative research methodology related to the study of disease in populations. Includes issues related to study design, data collection, and methods of statistical analysis with a focus on application of these principles in the clinical setting. Will serve as the foundation for development of the clinical year research project.

PAS 680 Pharmacotherapeutics I. 1(1-0) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to MS in PAS. The first in a two-course sequence to introduce the principles of pharmacology and pharmacotherapeutics for the diagnosis, prevention and treatment of disease. Emphasis will be placed on the pharmacological, pharmacokinetic and pharmacodynamic properties of drugs and drug classes used in medical practice.

PAS 681 Advanced Pharmacotherapeutics. 3(3-0) F. (Identical to NUR 661).

Prerequisite: completion of PAS 680, or RN, or permission. In-depth analysis of pharmacotherapeutics and the application of drugs for the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of disease. Emphasis will be placed on the rational use of drugs in the care and treatment of pediatric, adult and geriatric patients in primary care settings. Will include discussion of treatment guidelines, indications, contraindications, prescription writing, drug law, drug information resources and case studies.

PAS 683 Clinical Practicum I. 1(0-4) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS and successful completion of didactic course work. A two week clinical experience with a minimum of 64 hours patient care under the supervision of a physician preceptor. Emphasis will be on refining interviewing, physical examination, recording and written/oral presentation skills.

PAS 684 Clinical Practicum II. 1(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. Clinical practicum for students to gain additional experiences in evaluating medical patients. Students will be under the supervision of a physician preceptor one afternoon per week (for a minimum of 32 hours during the semester) to further refine their interview and physical exam skills, including formulation of a differential diagnosis and patient management plans and presentation skills. Didactic classroom experience will also be required.

PAS 685 Clinical Medicine I. 4(4-2) Su.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. The first in a two-semester course sequence. Introduction to clinical medicine through an organs systems approach that examines the pertinent anatomy, pathophysiology, diagnosis, treatment, follow-up, patient education, and prevention strategies for the various disease entities. Emphasis will be on problems frequently encountered in primary care settings. Includes lecture and discussion.

PAS 686 Clinical Medicine II. 6(6-2) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. A continuation of Clinical Medicine I that emphasizes the organs systems approach to examine the pertinent anatomy, pathophysiology, diagnosis, treatment, follow-up, patient education, and prevention strategies for the various disease entities. Emphasis will be on problems frequently encountered in primary care settings. Includes lecture and discussion.

PAS 687 Laboratory Medicine and Clinical Procedures. 1(0-3) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. "Hands-on" laboratory format class that introduces the student to skills needed to perform diagnostic and therapeutic procedures such as performing/interpreting basic laboratory tests, phlebotomy, casting and splinting, knot tying, suturing, intravenous line insertion, aseptic technique, catheterization, and other clinical skills.

PAS 688 EKG and ACLS. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS. A study of the principles and practical applications of electro-cardiography for the physician assistant, followed by an Advanced Cardiac Life Support course. Lecture, lab, interactive CD, and "mock code" skills training.

PAS 690 Clinical Preceptorship. 3(0-40) S, Su, F.

Prerequisite: admission to the MS in PAS and promotion from the didactic year. Consists of a four-week structured clinical experience under the supervision of a qualified preceptor that will introduce the student to the evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, monitoring, patient education, and referral of patients for the various clinical presentations within a specific discipline. The emphasis will be on problems encountered in primary care settings. Specific cognitive, skill, and attitudinal objectives are defined for each required preceptorship that includes family practice/primary care, general surgery, psychiatry/behavioral medicine, internal medicine, emergency medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, and pediatrics. May be repeated.

PAS 697 Clinical Practice Issues Seminar. 1(0-2) S, Su, F.

Prerequisite: clinical year standing in the MS in PAS. Provides a forum for topics germane to the clinical practice setting and transition to professional practice. Topics of interest will cover areas such as managed health care, ethical decision-making, pharmacological management, resume preparation, job negotiation skills, the national certification examination, etc. May be repeated for a maximum of 3 hours. Graded Pass/Not Pass Only.

PAS 698 Research Project. 2, F.

Prerequisite: clinical year standing in the MS in PAS. In-depth study of a clinical problem of interest that culminates in a scholarly paper and formal presentation.

Graduate Program

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Psychology with tracks in Industrial/Organizational, Clinical, or General. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Psychology Courses

PSY 101 Psychology for Personal Growth. 3(3-0) F,S.

A study of the emotional, intellectual, and interpersonal experiences of self and others in order to enhance self-understanding, to make informed choices, and to promote adjustment. Will not count toward the major or minor in psychology.

PSY 121 Introductory Psychology. 3(3-0) F,S.

An examination of how psychology enhances our understanding of human behavior; a survey of basic biological, experiential, cognitive, emotional, and sociocultural influences on behavior and self-understanding. Students must choose either to be research participants or fulfill an alternative library assignment as part of the course requirements.

PSY 150 An Introduction to the Psychology Major. 1(1-0) F,S.

A course designed to acquaint new or prospective majors with careers available and to encourage an analysis of the student's personal and professional goals. Should be taken no later than the semester after a student declares the psychology major.

PSY 160 The Pursuit of Happiness: A Psychological Perspective. 1(1-0) D.

Explore the sources of our moods with an emphasis on skills for achieving healthy, happy, and productive feelings.

PSY 197 (100) Topics in Psychology. 1(1-0) F,S.

Selected topics especially appropriate for lower division students. (Examples: meaning of death, preparation for marriage, child rearing practices, etc.). May be repeated for a maximum of 4 hours.

PSY 200 Psychological Statistical Methods. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121; completion of math general education requirements. Principles and methods of statistics used in psychology; understanding and interpreting psychological data. This course cannot be credited toward a degree if the student has taken any of the following: AGR 330, ECO 308, MTH 340, QBA 237, REC 331, SOC 302.

PSY 201 Experimental Psychology I. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121 and 200. Psychological methodology; major emphasis on experimentation.

PSY 203 Introduction to Research. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121, any General Education MTH requirement. This course will provide an integrated approach to elementary research design and statistical methods. Students will review current research and develop small projects for which statistical methods will be selected and applied. This course cannot be substituted for PSY 200 and/or PSY 201 on the psychology major and will not count toward the Psychology major. This course is designed for psychology minors and will not prepare students for graduate work in Psychology.

PSY 250 Analysis of Interpersonal Behavior. 3(0-6) D. Prerequisite: PSY 121 and permission of the instructor. Ongoing processes of interpersonal behavior. Observation and experience as participant of a self-analytic group in the human relations laboratory.

PSY 300 Naturalistic Methods in Social Psychology. 3(3-0)D.

Prerequisite: PSY 121, PSY 200 or SOC 201. An alternative approach to traditional lab investigations of social psychological processes: involves unobtrusive observation and experimentation in naturally occurring, non-laboratory field settings; racial prejudice; collective behavior; consumer behavior.

PSY 303 Stress and Tension Control. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: PSY 121. An examination of the nature and treatment of the stress response. Laboratory experience with several forms of relaxation training including biofeedback.

PSY 304 Abnormal Psychology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121. Psychopathology and the maladjustment of the organism.

PSY 305 Introduction to Industrial and Organizational Psychology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121. A survey of the major topics that are studied and the methods that are used in I/O psychology. The topics and methods will be viewed from a psychological perspective and will include psychological testing and personnel selection; training and development; job analysis, employee evaluation and performance appraisal; human motivation and job satisfaction; leadership, communication and group processes; organization theory and development.

PSY 306 (401) Learning Processes. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: PSY 121, plus 3 additional hours of psychology. A survey of the methods of classical and instrumental conditioning with a laboratory introduction to basic operant conditioning techniques.

PSY 307 Human Sexuality. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PSY 121. A balanced and comprehensive perspective of the field of human sexuality. Content includes the psychological, physiological, and interpersonal variables of human sexuality.

PSY 310 Applied Psychology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PSY 121. Practical areas of application of psychology. Limited enrollment; field trips required.

PSY 311 Service Learning in Psychology. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours, concurrent registration in a Psychology course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in psychology to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of, and participation, in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

PSY 315(415) History and Systems of Psychology. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: PSY 121 and 6 additional hours of psychology. Present psychological systems in the light of their historical development from ancient Greek and medieval thought.

Major

Social Work (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Social Work

The Social Work major prepares graduates for beginning generalist social work practice.

Admission to the Social Work Program

The admission procedure to the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program consists of a two-tier process (Initial Progression and Advanced Progression). To comply with the requirements of the criteria and procedures, students are expected to meet with their advisor at least once a semester and are encouraged to apply to the program as soon as possible. Students may contact their advisor with any questions related to the admissions process. The decision to admit a student to the Social Work Program will be based on a holistic picture of the completed course work and values that are consistent with the conduct of the profession and the National Association of Social Workers' Code of Ethics.

Initial Progression:

Students are eligible to apply for Initial Progression into the BSW program when the following conditions are met:

1. Completion of a minimum of 45 credit hours;
2. Completion of the Basic Required Courses for General Education except Writing II (i.e., IDS 110, CSC/CIS 101 or CSC 111, COM 115, ENG 110, MTH 135 or higher, PED 100);
3. Completion of Introduction to Social Work (SWK 212) with a minimum of a "C" grade;
4. Completion of Citizenship and Service Learning (CASL) one-credit course attached to one of three courses: Interviewing Skills in Generalist Social Work Practice (SWK 205), Introduction to Social Work (SWK 212), Human Diversity (SWK 219), OR a 40 hour volunteer experience in a human service agency completed within three years prior to application for admission. Although SWK 300 is not required for admission, it is highly recommended. Those who take SWK 300 will be looked upon favorably in the BSW admissions process. If students elect to make arrangements for their own volunteer experience, or plan to use an already completed experience, they must meet with their advisor to discuss the requirements of the volunteer program. Completion of 30 credit hours is a prerequisite of SWK 300.
5. A minimum GPA of 2.30; however, students must have a GPA of 2.50 prior to applying for Advanced Progression. Only students with a minimum GPA of 2.50 at the time of Initial Progression can be "Admitted." Students with a GPA between 2.30 and 2.50 can be "Admitted Conditionally" or "Denied."

Advanced Progression:

Students not "Admitted" during the Initial Progression must apply for Advanced Progression before being formally "Admitted." Students are eligible to apply under the following conditions:

1. A minimum GPA of 2.50
2. Completion of SWK Practice With Individuals (SWK 305)
3. A copy of the "Individual Student Plan for Conditional Admission", with evidence that the conditions specified on the plan have been met.

Students not fully "Admitted" will be ineligible to enroll in Social Work Practice in Communities and Organizations (SWK 430), the Practicum in Social Work (SWK 490) and its accompanying Social Work Integrative Seminar (SWK 480).

Students must understand that if they fail to meet the conditions described above by the time they have completed 75 credit hours, the amount of time required to complete their program may be extended to beyond the normal amount of time required for graduation.

Academic credit for life experience and previous work experience will not be given, in whole or in part, in lieu of the field practicum or any other social work course.

All social work students admitted to the Social Work Program under these conditions must attain a 2.50 GPA or higher at the time of graduation for all coursework completed at SMSU. This program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. Additional information regarding the Social Work Program may be found in the Social Work Student Handbook available from the School of Social Work.

Graduate Program

A Master of Social Work degree is offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Social Work Courses

SWK 205 Interviewing Skills in Generalist Social Work Practice. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: SWK 212, 222 or concurrent enrollment. An introduction to basic interviewing skills based upon the purpose of and plan for the interview in the context of generalist social work practice. SWK 300 may be taken concurrently.

SWK 212 Introduction to Social Work. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110 and COM 115. This course is an introduction to the values, knowledge, and skills that guide the profession of social work. Examines practice interventions at the individual, family, group, organization and community levels. The fields and settings for social work practice are discussed. SWK 300 may be taken concurrently.

SWK 219 (319) Human Diversity. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 212, PSY 121, SOC 150. Content and skill development pertinent to working with diverse racial, cultural, ethnic, and other populations such as persons with physical disabilities and mental illnesses. This course is designed primarily to inform and sensitize individuals for effective interventions within a heterogeneous society. SWK 300 may be taken concurrently.

SWK 222 Human Behavior and the Social Environment I. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SOC 150; PSY 121; and one of the following: BIO 102, BIO 121, BMS 100, BMS 105 or BMS 110. SWK 212 may be taken concurrently. An introduction to the dynamics of human behavior and the effects of the social environment on the development of individuals and families.

SWK 300. Service Learning in Social Work. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours, concurrent registration in a social work course designated as a service learning offering (SWK 205, SWK 212, SWK 219). This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization or human/social service agency. Approved settings will focus on populations-at-risk, diverse populations and groups that have experienced social and economic injustice. A list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

SWK 305 (410) Social Work Practice with Individuals. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 205, 212, 219, 222, 300, PSY 304, Writing II and Initial Progression (initial admission) into the BSW program. Basic principles, practice theories and skill for beginning generalist practice with individuals. Integrates practice theory and intervention skills within the context of the Generalist Intervention/Problem-Solving model. The class emphasizes personal awareness, professional growth, critical thinking and skills practice.

SWK 308 Social Justice. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 219, 222; ECO 155, 165 or equivalent; and PLS 101. The primary subject matter of this course is social and economic inequality in United States society. Students are introduced to the patterns and processes of social and economic inequality in its major forms: class, race/ethnicity, gender, and sexual and political orientation.

SWK 309 Social Welfare Policy and Services I. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 308. This course examines the historical development and philosophical orientation of social welfare policy and services in the United States as well as introduces students to the development of social work as a profession. The course focuses on selected major social welfare policies and programs and the philosophical, economic, social and political forces that shape their development.

SWK 310 Children's Rights. 3(3-0) F,S.

A study of the role of the child in American society, and the value placed on children as evidenced by the rights accorded them. Children's rights to be studied include moral, legal, constitutional, civil, and human.

SWK 318 Methods of Social Research in Social Work Practice. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 212 and 222; following prerequisites may be taken concurrently: SWK 219, SOC 302 or PSY 200 or equivalent. The application and use of the social scientific method for conducting research and applying research to social work practice including, but not limited to, single subject research design, treatment intervention evaluation, and program evaluation.

SWK 320 Services for Women. 3(3-0) D.

Examination of the multiple problems women experience, and needed community resources. Areas of study broadly include women and health, violence against women, women and socio-economic status.

SWK 322 Human Behavior and the Social Environment II. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 212, 219, and 222. Exploration of a broad systems' approach to the generalist practice of social work. Focuses on the theories that support social work practice with groups, organizations, and communities.

SWK 330 Substance Abuse Interventions. 3(3-0) F,S.

Examinations of the problems of alcohol and chemical dependence. Areas of study broadly include definitions, prevalence, etiology, policies, effects on family and society, and prevention and treatment approaches.

SWK 370 Child Welfare Services. 3(3-0) F,S.

Develop beginning competence in assessing types and benefits of different child welfare services, (i.e., foster care, adoptions, institutionalization); examination of the impact of public policies and social work practice on children and families.

SWK 397 (300) Special Topics. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics of contemporary interest in social work such as changing social welfare policy, specialized fields of social work, models of practice and future trends in social work. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours as topics change. Variable Content Course.

SWK 409 Social Welfare Policy and Services II. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 305, 308, 309, 318, 322 and Final Progression (fully "Admitted") status into the BSW program. An introduction to the analytic, interactional, value clarification and political strategies necessary for policy analysis and implementation.

SWK 420 Social Work Practice with Groups and Families. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 305, 322 and Initial Progression (initial admission) into the BSW program. Offers basic principles of group and family (G/F) interventions with a generalist practice foundation. Contrasts G/F with other forms of social work practice. Reviews skills required to conduct clinical and task groups. Overviews skills needed to work with families. Emphasizes cultural diversity and ethical parameters when offering G/F services.

SWK 430 Social Work Practice in Communities and Organizations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 409 and 420; Final Progression (fully "Admitted") status into the BSW program. Problem assessment and practice interventions with macrosystems. Examines strategies and techniques for social work practice with organizations and communities. Must be concurrently enrolled in SWK 480 and SWK 490.

SWK 480 Social Work Integrative Seminar. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 219, 318, 322, 409, 420 and Final Progression (fully "Admitted") status into the BSW program. Must be concurrently enrolled in SWK 430 and 490. Examines student experiences, problems, and questions related to the practicum. Integrates theory, knowledge, social work values and skills from previous social work courses to prepare generalist social work practitioners. Failure to pass this course will result in failure to pass SWK 490.

SWK 490 Practicum in Social Work. 9(0-32) F,S.

Prerequisite: SWK 318, 219, 322, 409, 420 and Final Progression (fully "Admitted") status into the BSW program. Must be concurrently enrolled in SWK 430 and 480. An educationally directed social work practice experience with individuals, groups, families, communities and organizations in a social service agency. Students are required to work a minimum of 450 hours. A student who receives a not pass grade may repeat the course only with Field Education Committee approval. Failure to pass this course will result in failure to pass SWK 480. A student must perform at the "C" level or above in order to graduate with the BSW. A practicum liability insurance fee is required. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

SWK 496 (492) Directed Readings in Social Work. 1-3, D.
Prerequisite: 6 hours of social work and permission. Readings designed to supplement material introduced in previous social work courses. Includes a wide selection from literature in the field. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

SWK 597 Special Topics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of the instructor. Selected topic of advanced content in social work, relevant to fields of practice or practice methodologies. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours as topics change.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

SWK 605 Human Behavior and Social Environment. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Content on life span development and the influence of various systems on the individual.

SWK 610 Social Work Practice I. 3(3-0) F.

Corequisite and prerequisite: sequence schedules under Degree Requirements. Within a generalist framework, course provides an ethically-based, theory-driven, culturally competent approach to delivering professional social work services to individuals with varied issues and practice settings.

SWK 615 Social Welfare Policy and Services. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Covers the historical development, philosophical orientation, and analysis of social welfare policy and services in the United States. Examines social welfare policy in multiple areas.

SWK 620 Introduction to Social Work Research. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Understanding of social research methods and application of research to social work practice. Incorporates content on evaluation of practice and program evaluation.

SWK 625 Social Work Practice II. 3(3-0) F.

Co-requisite and prerequisite: see sequence schedules under Degree Requirements. Within a generalist framework, this course focuses primarily on groups and families, the basic skills required to facilitate group process and tasks, contrast between designed groups and family groups, and strategies for working with families.

SWK 626 Social Work Practice III. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: see sequence under Degree Requirements. Uses social work methods to focus on the dynamics associated with organizational and community generalist practice. This course provides a knowledge base (i.e., theory, research, and practice wisdom), values, and practice skills for the generalist social work profession. Concentration will be on social work practice occurring with organizations and communities.

SWK 630 Human Diversity and Societal Systems. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Theoretical perspectives and research findings on various populations at risk and the role of societal institutions in perpetuating social and economic injustice.

SWK 635. Field Instruction I. 9(0-30) S.

Prerequisite: concurrent with SWK 640 and sequence schedules*. Supervised social work experience in a social agency in the community. Students must complete 450 hours. A practicum liability insurance fee is required.

SWK 640. Practicum Seminar I. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in SWK 635 and sequence schedules*. Examines student experiences and problems in Field Instruction I. Designed to enhance the student's integration of theory, knowledge, and skills from previous courses.

SWK 641 Family Health and Domestic Violence. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: graduate standing. Enhances students' understanding of the theories, policies, practices, and interventions related to family violence.

SWK 642 Family Health and Substance Abuse. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: graduate standing. This course provides an opportunity for the students to understand the problems of alcohol and drug use and dependence, and their impact on family health.

SWK 643 Management and Program Development in Human Service. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: graduate standing and consent of instructor. Develop knowledge and skills for effective supervisors and administrators in human service organizations. Students will also learn grant proposal writing and develop an understanding of their management style and philosophy.

SWK 645 Perspectives on Family Health Systems. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Examines impact of family system on individual well-being and development as well as human diversity issues affecting individuals and families. Includes research and theory that guide social work practice within a family health context.

SWK 646 Foundations of Family Health Research. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: see sequence schedules under Degree Requirements. This course builds on the knowledge base acquired in the BSW research course by reviewing social work research methods, as necessary, for the purpose of developing a research proposal from a family health perspective. The course includes research concepts and tools most frequently encountered by the family health social work practitioner.

SWK 650 Human Behavior and Family Systems. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Provides a framework for understanding family systems and family health. The family is examined within an ecological context.

SWK 654 Perspectives on Individual and Family Health Assessment. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: see sequence schedules under Degree Requirements. Advanced overview to help the student transition from individually-focused assessment (e.g., DSM-IV) to family focused assessment (e.g., FAD).

SWK 655 Family Health Social Work Practice I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Knowledge and skills for advanced practice. Social work roles within different settings will be covered.

SWK 656 Family Health Social Work Practice II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: see sequence schedules under Degree Requirements. Advanced assessment and family centered practice interventions that are related to the family health perspective.

SWK 660 Family Health Policy. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Assists students in understanding how policies affecting family health are designed. Provides an analysis of the family health care delivery systems in the United States and other countries.

SWK 680 Field Instruction II. 9(0-35) S.

Prerequisite: concurrent with SWK 685 and sequence schedules*. Continuation of practicum experience in a social agency focused on family health. Students must complete 525 hours. A practicum liability insurance fee is required.

SWK 685 Practicum Seminar II. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: concurrent with SWK 680 and sequence schedules*. Examines student experiences and problems in Field Instruction II. Enhances the student's integration of theory, knowledge, and skills from previous courses.

SWK 697 Research Project in Family Health Services. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: sequence schedules*. Advanced research project focused on student's area of family health interest. Student will be responsible for completing a publishable quality research document. This course meets the graduate college research requirement.

Refer to sequence schedules under Degree Requirements in the Graduate College Catalog.*

Sports Medicine and Athletic Training (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

Admission to the Sports Medicine and Athletic Training Major is competitive and not all who apply can be accommodated. Admission requires each applicant to complete a process of application and selection for candidacy and meet retention standards prior to final acceptance into the Sports Medicine/Athletic Training Major.

I. Application Requirements:

- A. Before a student can be considered for candidacy, the following application requirements must be met:
 1. Admission to Southwest Missouri State University
 2. Completed application for Sports Medicine and Athletic Training Curriculum
 3. Written narrative response to application questions
 4. Submission of official transcripts of high school and college courses
 5. Four recommendations
- B. Application deadline is March 1 for consideration for each fall semester. Notification of acceptance into ATC 220—Introduction to Athletic Training, will be made approximately May 15.
- C. Application materials may be procured by contacting the Director of Sports Medicine and Athletic Training; Southwest Missouri State University; Professional Building 160; 901 S. National; Springfield, MO 65804. All completed materials must be returned to the Director on or before the March 1 deadline for fall enrollment consideration.

II. Preliminary Selection Process:

- A. All applicants will be ranked using a numerical scale on the following criteria:
 1. Cumulative high school GPA
 2. GPA in school sciences and sports medicine related course work
 3. Rank in class
 4. ACT score—24 is the minimum acceptable score
 5. Previous athletic training/sports medicine experience
 6. Strength of student's athletic training commitment as reflected in the narrative responses
 7. Sport participation, extracurricular activities, leadership experiences
 8. Letters of recommendation
- B. Enrollment in ATC 220—Introduction to Athletic Training, during the fall semester will be limited to students receiving the highest scores in the rating process and a positive recommendation from the selection committee.
- C. Applicants not selected to enroll in ATC 220—Introduction to Athletic Training, may reapply for admission. Re-applications received will be evaluated with all other candidates who apply for the subsequent fall's enrollment into ATC 220.

- D. All students selected for the candidacy phase of the program must provide evidence of being able to meet the technical standards of the program. Only those students who verify that they can meet those technical standards, with or without reasonable accommodations, will be allowed to enter the candidacy phase of the program. The technical standards for the program are available upon written request or may be viewed at the department's web site at www.smsu.edu/sportsmed/smat.htm.

III. Final Selection Process:

- A. From the students enrolled in ATC 220—Introduction to Athletic Training, candidates will be selected to continue in the Sports Medicine and Athletic Training Major. Final selection will be determined based on the following criteria:
 1. Academic performance—Cumulative University GPA
 2. Achieve a score of at least 3.0 on all clinical rotations
 3. Formal interview by committee

IV. Retention Requirements:

- A. After students are selected into the Sports Medicine and Athletic Training Major, retention in the program will be based on the following criteria:
 1. Clinical evaluation score of at least 3.0 on each clinical assignment
 2. GPA of 3.00 or higher in all ATC courses
 3. Cumulative University GPA of 2.80 or higher
- B. Students who fail to meet the required GPA criteria will be placed on probation in the Sports Medicine and Athletic Training major for one semester. If standards are not met by the end of the probationary period, the student will be dismissed from the major. Students who do not meet the retention criteria for required clinical work may follow the program's appeal process. Failure to follow the appeal process may result in dismissal from the program.

V. Sports Medicine and Athletic Training Requirements:

Students selected as candidates in the program must complete all required coursework and clinical requirements. Those requirements include the following:

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog) Specific General Education Requirements: BIO 102(4) or BIO 121(4); CHM 105(5) or 160(4); PSY 121(3)
- B. Major Requirements
 1. Related Requirements: BMS 307(4), 308(4); CFS 130(3); PED 253(2), 257(2), 360(4), 362(4); PSY 200(3)
 2. Athletic Training Requirements: ATC 220(3), 222(2-3), 223(3), 320(3), 323(3), 324(4), 326(3), 328(3), 329(3), 330(3), 420(3), 421(4), 423(3), 425(2)
 3. In addition to the curriculum requirements each candidate must complete four seven week clinical assignments with a 3.0 or higher evaluation score. Upon acceptance into the curriculum the following experiences must be completed and a clinical evaluation score of at least 3.0 must be achieved for each experience.
 - a. One season of football

- b. One season of two-per-day football practices
- c. Two assigned University intercollegiate team experiences
- d. One semester at an affiliated sports medicine clinic
- e. One semester at an affiliated high school
- f. One semester of elective assignment (dependent on availability)

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Athletic Training Courses

ATC 220 Introduction to Athletic Training. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: completed application to the Athletic Training program and permission. Orientation for students considering a career in Athletic Training. Various aspects of the Athletic Training profession and the Athletic Training program at SMSU are discussed.

ATC 222 Athletic Injuries. 3(3-1) or 2(2-1) F,S.

Prerequisite: BMS 307 or equivalent. Techniques, principles and theory underlying prevention and care of athletic injuries. Three-credit hour course to include neuroanatomy and is required for Sports Medicine and Athletic Training majors only. (Course may be taken once for credit.)

ATC 223 Athletic Training Practicum I. 3, F.

Prerequisite: ATC 220 and permission. Introduction to supervised clinical experiences in Athletic Training. Students administer to varsity athletes and patients in the Sports Medicine Clinic, under the supervision of NATA certified athletic trainers. Supervised hours acquired during this course will apply toward the 1200 directly supervised hour requirement.

ATC 297 Special Topics. 1-2, D.

Variable content and variable credit course. Special study of Sports Medicine and Athletic Training. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 4 credit hours. Same topic may be repeated once for credit.

ATC 320 Athletic Training Administration. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ATC 220, 223 and permission. Development and administration of various procedures, records, forms, budgets, and professional contacts needed to successfully manage an athletic training program.

ATC 323 Athletic Training Practicum II. 3, S.

Prerequisite: ATC 223, 328 or 329 and permission. A continuation of ATC 223 with emphasis on injury evaluations and initiation of rehabilitation programs. Students administer to varsity athletes and patients in the Sports Medicine Clinic under the supervision of NATA certified athletic trainers. Supervised hours acquired during this course will apply toward the 1200 directly supervised hour requirement.

ATC 324 Therapeutic Modalities 4(3-2) S.

Prerequisite: ATC 223, 330, BMS 307, 308, and permission. A study of the theory and application of various therapeutic modalities used in the treatment of many athletic injuries, including ultrasound, diathermy, electrical stimulation, hydrotherapy, cryotherapy, and thermotherapy.

ATC 326 Therapeutic Interventions in Athletic Training. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BMS 307 or PED 250, BMS 308 or PED 252, ATC 220. Theoretical and practical synthesis of area often requiring instruction on the part of an athletic trainer to enhance performance opportunities for athletes and other areas of physical activity. Emphasis on subject matter and skills necessary to recognize potential problems, help in understanding the interventions, and develop techniques for referral.

ATC 328 Athletic Injury Assessment Techniques-Lower Body. 3(3-0)F.

Prerequisite: ATC 222, BMS 308 or equivalent. This course is designed for individuals seeking National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA) certification. Content addresses observation and evaluation techniques for athletic injuries to the lower body. Students must integrate anatomical structures to provide a basis for critical decision making in an injury management environment.

ATC 329 Athletic Injury Assessment Techniques-Upper Body. 3(3-0)S.

Prerequisite: ATC 222, BMS 308 or equivalent. This course is designed for individuals seeking National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA) certification. Content addresses observation and evaluation techniques for athletic injuries to the upper body. Students must integrate anatomical structures to provide a basis for critical decision making in an injury management environment.

ATC 330 Surgical Pathology in Sports Medicine. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ATC 223, BMS 307, 308 or equivalent and permission: An overview of orthopedic surgical procedures utilized with sport-related injuries. Focus will be primarily on joint and musculo-skeletal structures commonly injured in athletic activities. Tissue pathology for each protocol, healing constraints, and implications for return to activity will be presented.

ATC 397 Special Topics. 1-2, D.

Variable content and variable credit course. Special study of Sports Medicine and Athletic Training. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 4 credit hours. Same topic may be repeated once for credit.

ATC 420 Medical Aspects of Athletic Training. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ATC 324, 326, and permission. Students are exposed to various medical specialties which contribute to a comprehensive athletic health care program. Topics stressed include injury and illness prevention, definitive medical treatment, indications for referral, and injury rehabilitation from the perspective of health care specialists in the community.

ATC 421 Therapeutic Exercise. 4(3-2) F.

Prerequisite: ATC 323, 324, 328, 329, PED 360, 362, and permission. A study of the ways therapeutic exercise can be applied to the treatment of various athletic injuries, including modes of strength and flexibility improvement, facilitation techniques, and postoperative exercises.

ATC 423 Athletic Training Practicum III. 3, F.

Prerequisite: ATC 323, 328, 329, and permission. A continuation of ATC 323 with an emphasis on independent training assignments to specific team sports and tournaments. Students administer to varsity athletes and patients in the Sports Medicine Clinic under the supervision of NATA certified athletic trainers. Supervised hours acquired during this course will apply toward the 1200 directly supervised hour requirement.

ATC 425 Contemporary Topics in Athletic Training. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: ATC 423, PSY 200, and permission. Discussion of current issues and problems facing the athletic training profession.

ATC 497 Athletic Training Seminar. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: ATC 220, 222, a 2.75 cumulative gPA, and permission. This course offers a concentration in subject matter to improve skill and knowledge in specific areas. Each workshop or seminar will be concerned with a single topic. Number of class hours are determined by length and specificity of workshop/seminar. Thirty clock hours equal one semester hour. May be repeated for a maximum of 3 credit hours.

ATC 498 Research Projects in Athletic Training. 1-3 F,S.

Prerequisite: ATC 328, 329, 421, a 3.00 cumulative gPA, and permission. This course provides an opportunity to enhance research skills within a specific topic area of athletic training. The student would conduct a research project under faculty supervision. May be repeated for a maximum of 3 credit hours.

ATC 499 Independent Study in Athletic Training. 1-3 (1-3) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: ATC 220, 222, a 2.75 cumulative gPA, and permission. This course provides opportunities to pursue specific subject areas in Athletic Training. The independent study may be a reading project or a practical application of theories under faculty supervision. May be repeated for a maximum of 3 hours of credit.

Centers for Research and Service

Bureau of Economic Research

The Bureau serves as a depository of economic data relevant to the Ozarks region. It distributes that information to interested parties to encourage economic research and to stimulate interest in special projects.

Center for Archaeological Research

The Center is designed to study, record, and share knowledge of past cultures as well as conduct research studies for various private and public agencies. The information from archaeological research is then disseminated through a variety of scholarly outlets and educational programs.

Center for Social Sciences and Public Policy Research

The CSSPPR is an interdisciplinary center where faculty and students conduct both applied and theoretical research in the social sciences and humanities. The Center conducts research for community and government organizations on a variety of issues of local, state, and national concern. The Center's research efforts are motivated by a desire to improve both understanding and the ability to create effective policy.

General Education Course

AAS 100 may be used to satisfy the Humanities Perspective of the Culture and Society Area of Inquiry in General Education.

Minor

African American Studies

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

The minor includes AAS 100, plus at least 15 hours of additional course work for a total of at least 18 hours with a minimum grade point average of 2.50 in all courses counted toward the minor. At least 3 hours in each of the following 4 areas must be completed as part of the minor. It is recommended that AAS 100 be taken prior to undertaking all other courses included as options in the African American Studies Minor.

Areas of Study

- A. Historical Foundations
 - HST 331 African American History I
 - HST 332 African American History II
- B. Pan-African Background & Perspectives
 - HST 323 Women in Africa
 - HST 335 African Civilization
 - GRY 507 Geography of Subsaharan Africa
 - ENG 363 Introduction to African Literature
- C. Arts & Humanities
 - REL 365 Life & Thought of Martin Luther King, Jr.
 - ENG 355 African American Literature
 - ENG 455 African American Drama
- D. Politics & Society
 - CAS 415 Crime, Class, Race, and Justice
 - SOC 336 Race & Ethnic Group Relations
 - SWK 219 Human Diversity
 - REL 345 African American Religious Experience
 - HST 531 African American Leaders & Movements

A student cannot take more than 6 hours in a particular discipline to complete the Minor; exceptions must have the permission of the Coordinator. A student can petition to apply a variable content/special topics course to the Minor, with the approval of the Coordinator. Such variable content/special topics courses might include:

AAS 397 Topics in African American Studies

AAS 497 Directed Reading

ANT 330 Peoples and Cultures (of Africa or the Caribbean)

REL 397 Topics: Life & Thought of Malcolm X

Administration of the program. Courses must be approved by the faculty of the African American Studies Committee for inclusion in the minor. The Coordinator must approve the course of study for each student who wishes to complete an African American Studies Minor.

African American Studies Courses

AAS 100 (IDS) Introduction to African American Studies. 3(3-0) F,S.

The course provides a multidisciplinary introduction of the many dimensions of the African American experience, including the African heritage and diaspora, slavery and freedom, African American artistic and literary expression, and the problem of racism in American society.

AAS 397 Topics in African American Studies. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: AAS 100 or permission of instructor. Topics of general interest in the area of African American Studies. Examples: African Independence, Negritude, Harlem Renaissance, 1960s Civil Rights Movement, the Black Panther Party, Nation of Islam in the U.S., Afrocentricism, and African/African American Destiny. May be repeated, as topics change, to a maximum of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

AAS 497 Directed Reading. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 6 hours in African American Studies or permission. Analysis of various topics in African American Studies not covered in regular courses. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 hours, provided that the topic is different.

Major

Antiquities (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Arts

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major Requirements

A comprehensive major in Antiquities consists of courses in three fields: Classical Studies, Near Eastern, or New World Studies. The major consists of concentrations in Classical, Near Eastern, or New World Studies with totals of 24 hours in any one of these fields and 12 hours more in either of the two remaining fields. Additional courses (9 hours) to total 45 hours are to be chosen from any of the three fields. In addition to the 45 hours, all majors must complete ANT 250.

Concentrations (24 hours)

Complete one concentration

1. Classical Studies: complete LLT 325 and LLT 326. The remaining 18 hours will be selected from within the parameters of each of the following groups:
 - a. Language Studies (9-12 hours). Select 3 courses from the Latin or Greek sequence above 102, including at least one course at the 300 level or above.
 - b. Historical Studies (6-9 hours). Select from HST 341, 343; REL 571.
 - c. Cultural Studies (3-6 hours). Select from LLT 121, 240, 321; PHI 306; ART 474.
 - d. MCL 499 (assessment for major).
2. Near Eastern Studies: choose from among the following courses with at least one course chosen from each group:
 - a. Any course in GRK or HBW above 102, or LLT 580.
 - b. HST 370, 541, 542, (597 when applicable), REL 350.
 - c. ANT 335, 540, (451, 452, 453, 454, 596 and 599 when applicable); REL 570, 571.
 - d. LLT 321; REL 101, 102, 312, 320, 321, 362, (397 when applicable), 510, 520.
 - e. REL 580 (when applicable, assessment for major).
3. New World Studies: two possible course tracks:
 - a. Concentration in Native American Studies. All persons choosing this track must complete ANT 325, 350, and 360. At least one course will be chosen from each of the following groups (15 hours):
 1. Archaeological Research: ANT 340, 451*, 452*, 453*, 454*, 596*, 599*.
 2. Environmental/Technical Studies: AGA 215, 425; BIO 369; GRY 300, 301, 348; SOC 302.
 3. Native American Studies: ANT 330*; ART 385, 485; HST 331, 350, 509, 510; REL 315.
 4. Cultural Studies: ANT 226, 301, 397; ENG 485.
 5. Assessment for Major: ANT 599*.

when applicable*
 - b. Concentration in New World Historical Archaeology. All persons choosing this track must complete ANT 350. At least one course will be chosen from each of the following groups (21 hours):
 1. Research in Historic Archaeology: ANT 340, 397, 452, 453*, 454*, 596*, 599* (*course must be in historical archaeology).
 2. Cultural Studies: ANT 226, 325, 397; ENG 485; SOC 314.

3. Historical Studies: HST 331, 350, 375, 390, 496, 509, 510, 518.
 4. Environmental Studies: GRY 300, 301, 320; HST 515.
 5. Technical Skills: ART 255; GRY 275, 360, 363; SOC 302, 345.
 6. Assessment for Major: ANT 599 (when applicable).
- course topic must be in New World Studies

Concentrations (12 hours)

Complete one concentration different from the 24 hour concentration.

1. Classical Studies: complete two courses from the Latin or Greek sequence above 102 and two courses from: LLT 325, 326; HST 341, 343.
2. Near Eastern Studies: choose courses from at least two of the groups listed in the 24 hour concentration.
3. New World Studies: complete ANT 325 and/or ANT 360, plus courses from the Historical Studies group (HST 331, 350, 375, 390, 509, 510, 518) and from one other group.

Additional Course Selections (9 hours)

An additional 9 hours, making a total of 45 hours, may be chosen from any of the groups in Classical Studies, Near Eastern Studies, or New World Studies.

- C. Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Arts Degree (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minor

Antiquities

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

- A. ANT 250(3)
- B. Complete 15 hours from the following areas. No more than nine hours of the 18 hour minor may be taken from any one department and at least one course must be taken from each area.
 1. Classical Studies: HST 341(3), 343(3), 597(3)*; LLT 121(3), 240(3), 321(3), 325(3), 326(3); LTN or GRK above 102; PHI 306(3)
 2. Near Eastern Studies: ANT 335(3), 540(3); HST 541(3), 542(3), 597(3); REL 101(3), 102(3), 312(3), 320(3), 321(3), 350(3), 362(3), 397(3), 510(3), 520(3), 570(3), 571(3), HBW above 102
 3. New World Studies: ANT 325(3), 360(3), 397, 451(3-6), 452(3-6), 599(1-3)*; HST 509(3), 510(3); REL 315(3)

when applicable*

Administration of the program. The Coordinator of Antiquities is responsible for the administration of the program under the aegis of the Dean of Humanities and Public Affairs, and with the assistance of the faculty Antiquities Committee. It is the responsibility of the student's academic advisor (who is a member of the Antiquities Committee) to approve the student's degree program. The approved program, including evaluation of transfer credits, is submitted to the Coordinator for final approval. All agreements are filed as a part of the student's degree program. Any alteration of the program must be approved by the Antiquities Committee. Drop and add will be handled by the major advisor, provided that the student's degree program is not altered.

Defense and Strategic Studies Courses

DSS 201 Introduction to International Security. 3(3-0) D.

The objective of this lecture course is to introduce the non-specialist undergraduate to the basic themes, issues, terminology, concepts, and recent development of American international security policy, defense policy, and diplomacy. The course will be taught by a professor as a lecture series and will include two 3-week intensive seminars on important current issues from a list of available topics.

DSS 301 (400) Nuclear Strategy & U.S. National Security Policy. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course provides an overview of American defense policies, concepts, and problems related to nuclear weapons since World War II. It also provides an introduction to strategy, deterrence, defense, arms control, and defense planning. Theories and concepts are compared with actual experience and real world planning considerations. Comparative Russian and Soviet policies and strategic concepts are covered. Strategic and arms control relationships and developments among the nuclear powers, with emphasis on the current situation, are also covered.

DSS 401 U.S. International Security Problems. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course examines international and regional security problems on a global basis, with an emphasis on U.S. interests, policies, and strategies. It starts with a review of containment, forward defense, and extended deterrence concepts, policies and issues as they have evolved since World War II. Alliance relationships, regional conflicts, and security threats are then examined with emphasis on contemporary problems and policies. Multilateral and regional (non-Superpower) arms control efforts are reviewed. Finally, trends and developments that may affect future security policies are discussed.

DSS 496 Directed Reading and Research in Defense & Strategic Studies. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: DSS 201 or DSS 301 or DSS 401. Individually tailored directed reading or research for undergraduate students. For improvement of research skills; for the purposes of a broader background of knowledge; for more depth in selected areas of specialization. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 3 credit hours.

DSS 501 Seminar on Nuclear Strategy & Arms Control. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This seminar examines contemporary U.S. and Soviet/Russian strategic nuclear arms and arms control policies and their interaction. The seminar will review the U.S.-Soviet nuclear relationship and extend this to an examination of post-USSR Russian and American nuclear strategy and policy. The seminar will study the strategic nuclear balance, including specific problems and programs, and the strategic doctrine, concepts, and objectives of the nuclear powers. Nuclear arms control, including the processes of decision making and negotiating, will be examined, with an emphasis on comparing theory and practice.

DSS 502 Seminar on International Security Affairs. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This seminar examines international and regional security problems and policies, from both a regional and global perspective. It treats strategies and security problems from a broader viewpoint than the Seminar on Strategy and Arms Control, covering alliance relationships, regional threats and the security policies of other states. (The focus of this seminar will generally be non-European.) While international security problems are studied on a regional basis, patterns of global strategic competition will be explored. Militarily, theater, general purpose, and power projection forces and strategies are emphasized over strategic nuclear forces.

DSS 503 Analysis of International Security Politics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This course deals with the methods and techniques of collecting and assessing information for use in the study of international security politics, problems, and policies. It explores the measures of relative power among nations and the manner in which such power or lack of it shapes the capability of a nation effectively to act in the international sphere.

DSS 504 The Geopolitics of Conflict and Accommodation. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. The application of the techniques and understanding lent by the geography to the illumination of the physical and social environment in which politics, strategy, and war take place. The relationship among geography, strategy, and politics is studied through the examination of both historical and contemporary circumstances where geography has intruded on politics or politics on geography. Students will be introduced to the geopolitical concepts of sea power, land power and air power, and these concepts will be critiqued in light of recent technological changes in warfare.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

DSS 600 Strategy & U.S. Defense Policy. 3(3-0). F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This course provides an examination of the basic concepts and issues of strategy, deterrence, defense, and arms control, and an overview of American defense policies, programs, and problems since World War II. Comparative Soviet/Russian strategic concepts, policies, and objectives are covered. The U.S.-USSR strategic balance and relationships, including arms control are examined on an introductory basis.

DSS 602 Seminar on Regional Security Problems. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: DSS 501, and DSS 502, and DSS 600; or their equivalents as approved by the instructor. This seminar provides an advanced and in-depth analysis of selected contemporary regional security problems outside of Western Europe. It focuses on a few critical conflict situations, analyzes threats to regional and to U.S. interests, and examines alternative strategic policies and actions, including military force requirements, for the states involved.

DSS 603 Science, Technology, and Defense Policy. 3(3-0). Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This course, which will be taught jointly with a qualified physical scientist, will cover four broad topics important to advanced work in DSS: basic principles and applications of defense science and technology; such as nuclear weapons effects, ballistic missiles, and strategic defenses; the influence of science and technology on defense programs and policies; the role of the scientific and technical community in defense policy; and current issues of defense science and technology.

DSS 604 Arms Control: Theory and Practice. 3(3-0).

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. An examination of contending arms control theories and concepts as tested by postwar and contemporary experience, bilateral and multilateral. There will be in-depth analysis of American and Soviet approaches to arms control, as well as consideration of the arms control policies of other states. The course will study scientific and technical problems in arms control, including those of R and D, testing, production, and deployment; arms negotiations, and issues in verification and compliance.

DSS 605 NATO Security Issues. 3(3-0).

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. After an examination of the history of NATO policies, defense policies, and security issues, emphasis will be placed on analysis of current NATO security problems and options, including specific military defense alternatives. The individual security policies of the U.S., UK, FRG, and France will be studied, along with problems on the northern and southern flanks, and policies for outside-NATO-area security problems. Literature on the future of NATO would be included.

DSS 606 Soviet and Russian Military Strategy. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: DSS 600 and either DSS 501 or DSS 502; or their equivalents as approved by the instructor. The first part of this seminar will review and study Soviet military policy, doctrine, strategy, and programs from the 1950s through the 1980s. It will consider problems of identifying, interpreting, and analyzing soviet strategic policies and programs – in essence, problems of U.S. intelligence and threat assessment. The second part of the seminar will extend this study to Post-USSR Russia and current directions of Russian strategic policy both for territories of the former USSR and beyond. Particular emphasis will be placed on military reform, continuity and change in military policy, and the status and role of the Russian military forces.

DSS 607 Seminar on Defense Policy Analysis. 3(3-0).

Prerequisite: DSS 501 or DSS 502 or DSS 600 and permission of instructor. Advanced research, study, and analysis of defense programs, policies, and the policy and budget processes, both within the Department of Defense and in Congress. Included also will be the comparative analysis of various studies, analyses, and critiques of U.S. defense programs and plans, and of regional and global military balances. Department of Defense administration and organization will also be studied.

DSS 608 Seminar on Contemporary Security Issues in the Former USSR. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: DSS 600 and either DSS 501 or DSS 502; or their equivalents as approved by the instructor. This seminar addresses on an advanced level current developments in Russia and other states of the former Soviet Union as they bear on issues of national and international security and on U.S. security policy-making. The approach will combine analysis of internal developments related to military power and policy, and of evolving international policies, with strategic and geopolitical analysis.

DSS 609 Seminar on Space and Information Warfare. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. This seminar will explore the role that space and information warfare play in the national security policies and programs, and military doctrines, of the United States and other great powers. The seminar will be divided into three parts. Part one will focus on the role of space in national security, including background on U.S. and Soviet/Russian space programs, the nature of space technologies and systems, the environment of space as a theater of military operations, the impact of international law and treaties on space warfare, the development of space threats to the United States and its allies, the historical and future role of space assets in terrestrial warfare, and the nexus between civilian and military space programs. Part two will examine the burgeoning field of information warfare by seeking to define and understand what is meant by the concept, what benefits and risks it offers to American national security, in what ways the pursuit of I-War capabilities is shaping the development of American military doctrine and force structure, and how and to what extent I-War capabilities are replacements for more traditional military capabilities such as conventional and nuclear forces. Part three will then examine the relationship between space warfare and information warfare, including how the two are conceptually supportive and how civilian and military applications of information and space technology will be increasingly blurred in the future.

DSS 620 Internship Training in DSS Policy. 1-3.

Prerequisite: at least three DSS 500-600 level courses, permission of department head, and acceptance by employer. Internship experience and training in defense and arms control policy making with a U.S. Government department or agency, a Washington, D.C., based defense policy research institute, or institution of comparable professional experience, including preparation of a written report or research paper based upon the internship. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 6 credit hours toward degree.

DSS 696 (615) Directed Reading & Research in Defense & Strategic Studies. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Individually tailored directed readings or research for bibliographical purposes; for improvement of research skills; for the purposes of a broader background of knowledge (e.g., in areas not covered by seminars, such as classical writings on strategy, and on the art of warfare historically or in the American experience); for more depth in selected areas of specialization; and/or to help meet the non-thesis M.S. research requirement. May be repeated for credit to a maximum of 3 credit hours toward degree.

DSS 697 (690) Special Topics. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor and department head. Special topics may be offered as specific important issues, which are not adequately covered by regular seminars, arise; when Distinguished Guest seminars and work-shops can be planned ahead of time; or when visiting faculty wish to offer specialized courses not in the curriculum. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours, as topics change.

DSS 699 Thesis. 1-6.

Prerequisite: completion of DSS course requirements for MS degree (30 hours minimum) and permission of department head. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis.

Minors

Economics

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

Bachelor of Science in Education (Non-Certifiable)

- A. Minor must include ECO 155(3), 165(3)
- B. Additional hours in economics to total at least 18 hours. One of the following statistics courses may be used toward this minor: AGR 330(3), ECO 308(3), MTH 340(3), PSY 200(3), QBA 237(3), REC 331(3), or SOC 302(3).

Economics Courses

ECO 155 Principles of Macroeconomics. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course prepares the student to understand the economic structure of the United States and its place in the world economy, to interpret common economic measures, to understand the processes of governmental fiscal and monetary policies, and to evaluate individual decision-making from an economic perspective.

ECO 165 Principles of Microeconomics. 3(3-0) F, S.

Basic principles of economics with a particular emphasis on the nature and application of those bearing on decision making within a household, firm or industry; including consideration of problems respecting the composition and pricing of the national output, distribution of income, pricing and output of factors of production and foreign trade.

ECO 197 (170) Topics in Economics. 1-3 D.

A variable content course designed to explore one or more current issues in the field of economics. Students should consult the class schedule to determine the topic(s) to be covered in any given semester. The course can be repeated to a maximum of 6 credit hours, as course topics change.

ECO 200 Consumer Economics. 3(3-0) D.

Economic problems of concern to the individual and the household and practice in the use of consumer aids.

ECO 300 Service Learning In Economics. 1, D.

Prerequisite: 30 hours, concurrent registration in an Economics course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Economics to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

ECO 302 Economic Analysis for Investors. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 3 hrs. of ECO or permission. This course examines economic principles used by investors and financial reporters. Concepts are drawn from several fields of economics including microeconomics, macroeconomics, money and banking, labor economics, and international economics. Students will participate in a stock market game, make in-class presentations and conduct internet research.

ECO 305 Money and Banking. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: ECO 155. Nature and functions of money, a survey of the operation and development of the banking system in the U.S.; introduction to monetary theory and policy.

ECO 308 Basic Statistics for Economists. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165; completion of mathematics general education requirement. Descriptive statistics, probability theory, sampling distributions, estimation theory, tests of hypotheses. Emphasis is placed on problems encountered in economic research. This course cannot be credited toward a degree if the student has taken any of the following: AGR 330, MTH 340, PSY 200, QBA 237, REC 331, SOC 302.

ECO 309 Intermediate Statistics for Economists. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ECO 308 or its equivalent. Simple regression and correlation. Multiple regression analysis. Model building, time series analysis and related topics.

ECO 310 Labor Economics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Factors determining the market for labor; examination of the economic effects of trade unions; recent trends in the labor force and the labor share of national income.

ECO 315 The Economics of Gender. 3(3-0) D. (Identical with GST 315)

Prerequisite: ECO 165 or permission. This course teaches students to analyze the economic decisions made by both males and females in two main areas: the labor market and the household. Specific areas of inquiry include the following: the family as an economic unit, gender differences in labor force participation, occupational gender segregation, explanations for gender earnings differentials and efforts to reduce such differentials, gender earnings discrimination, and international gender issues. A student may not receive credit for both ECO 315 and GST 315.

ECO 320 American Economic History. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 or ECO 165; HST 121 or HST 122. An examination of economic conditions and policies in America's past. Selected events are analyzed using principles drawn from economic theory, including: U.S. economic development, the origins of antitrust policy, and the New Deal.

ECO 325 Government and Business 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ECO 165. Theory and public policy concerning the structure, conduct and performance of U.S. industries. Primary emphasis is on oligopolies and monopolies.

ECO 346 Economic Development. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Theory of economic growth and development, with emphasis on developing economies and the techniques for understanding and promoting development.

ECO 365 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ECO 165. Maximizing behavior of households and firms; theory of price and output determination under various market structures; distribution theory; introduction to general equilibrium analysis.

ECO 385 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: ECO 155. Measurement, analysis and control of factors determining the aggregate level of economic activity.

ECO 396 (400) Directed Readings in Economics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: ECO 308 and ECO 365 and ECO 385; and 75 hours; or permission. Readings and written reports in the area of particular interest to the student with the consent and guidance of the instructor.

ECO 397 (300) Studies in Economics. 3(3-0) D.

A variable content course of 3 hours. Specific subject matter will change from semester to semester, depending on the interests of professors and students. May be repeated as topics change to a maximum of 6 credit hours.

ECO 399 Cooperative Education in Economics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: acceptance into the SMSU Cooperative Education Program, 12 hours of economics and permission of the department head. To enable qualified students to apply theoretical constructs and analytical techniques in a supervised work environment. This course cannot be credited toward a major in economics if the student has completed a total of three or more credits in either ECO 396, or cooperative education in another discipline.

ECO 435 The Economic Analysis of Law. 3-(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 165. Microeconomic theory is used to analyze the law and legal procedures. Although one purpose of the law is to resolve disputes between individuals, this course will focus on analyzing the incentives that the law gives rational individuals. Economic models are applied to four basic areas of law: property, contract, tort (accident), and criminal law. In addition, economic models are applied to the formation of the law and to legal institutions.

ECO 450 Location of Economic Activity. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Study of economic forces determining the location of businesses and consumers, and the size, shape, and changes in market areas/cities/land use. Also application of techniques of economic impact analysis of location decisions.

ECO 473 Mathematical Economics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165; and MTH 285 or equivalent. Development and application of mathematical techniques to economics.

ECO 475 Managerial Economics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Application of economic analysis to decision making in business management.

ECO 499 Senior Research Seminar. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ECO 309 and ECO 365 and ECO 385; and 90 credit hours; or permission of the department head. A seminar course requiring the completion of assignments which develop and refine economic research skills. One or more papers and class presentations will be used to assess student achievement. Primarily for economics majors in their final year of study. Graduating seniors are given enrollment priority.

ECO 500 (600) Fundamentals of Micro- and Macroeconomics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: COBA majors and minors must receive permission from a director of a COBA graduate program. An accelerated course dealing with the fundamentals of micro- and macroeconomic theory, designed for graduate students who have not completed undergraduate principles of economics. This course will not be counted in the hours required for a COBA undergraduate or graduate degree. This course will not be counted in the hours required for an Economics undergraduate major or minor.

ECO 504 (404) Health Care Economics. 3(3-0) F. (Identical with HCM 504).

Prerequisite: ECO 165. A basic study of the economics of the health care market. Microeconomic theory is applied to the analysis of health care issues. Attention will be given to empirical studies of health care economics. A student may not receive credit for both ECO 504 and HCM 504.

ECO 508 Intermediate Econometrics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 309 or permission. Examination of the principles of economic model construction and the econometric techniques used in estimation of behavioral relationships.

ECO 515 Public Finance. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Allocation and distribution functions of the public sector of the economy; theories of taxation and public expenditure; shifting and incidences of taxes, local-state federal finance.

ECO 520 History of Economic Thought. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Development of economic theory.

ECO 540 Economics of the Environment. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 165 or permission. The course applies economic concepts and analysis to environmental issues such as pollution and natural resource management. Economic concepts and analysis used in the course will include supply and demand, cost benefit analysis, and the role of incentives.

ECO 565 International Economics. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: ECO 155 and ECO 165. Theory, institutions and problems respecting international economic relations.

ECO 585 Advanced Economic Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 365 and ECO 385; 60 hours or permission. Advanced study of the theories of production, distribution and exchange; emphasizing the theory of games, linear programming and input-output analysis.

ECO 586 Business Cycles and Forecasting. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 385 or permission. Fluctuations in the level of economic activity; an examination of the basic principles and techniques of economic forecasting.

ECO 599 Directed Research in Economics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: ECO 365 and ECO 385 (or ECO 610), and ECO 309, or permission. The student is expected to conduct research in a selected topic in economics and to produce a written report.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

ECO 605 Economic Studies. 3(3-0) D.

Survey course; problems of government finance, fiscal policy, and resource structures; economic pressure groups.

ECO 608 Topics in Economic Education. 1-3, D.

Instruction for teachers in a limited number of economic concepts. Subject matter will change depending upon grade levels and goals involved. Attention will be given to ways concepts can be incorporated into the curricula. May be repeated as topics change, to a maximum of 6 credit hours. Variable Content Course.

ECO 610 Micro- and Macroeconomic Analysis. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ECO 500 or both ECO 155 and ECO 165. An intermediate to advanced study of selected topics in microeconomic and macroeconomic analysis.

ECO 630 Money and Credit Markets. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: ECO 305 or permission. Role performed by the Federal Reserve System, financial intermediaries, nonfinancial businesses, the public, and the foreign sector in developing and maintaining money and credit flows.

Administration of the program. Courses must be approved by the faculty of the Gender Studies Committee for inclusion in the minor. The coordinator must approve the course of study for each student who wishes to complete a Gender Studies Minor.

Gender Studies Courses

GST 170 (270) Sex, Gender, and Self. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ENG 110 or equivalent. An introduction to Gender Studies that explores the influence that ideas about sex, gender, and gender roles have on women and men, both as individuals and as social beings. Using new research on gender in many disciplines, it examines representations of male and female experiences, and historical and social constructions of women's and men's roles.

GST 315 The Economics of Gender. 3(3-0) D. (Identical with ECO 315)

Prerequisite: ECO 165 or permission of instructor. This course teaches students to analyze the economic decisions made by both males and females in two main areas: the labor market and the household. Specific areas of inquiry include the following: the family as an economic unit, gender differences in labor force participation, occupational gender segregation, explanations for gender earnings differentials and efforts to reduce such differentials, gender earnings discrimination, and international gender issues. A student may not receive credit for both ECO 315 and GST 315.

GST 326 Feminist Theories of Social Order. 3(3-0) S. (Identical with SOC 326).

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160 or GST 170. This course offers an introductory survey of feminist theories within a sociological framework. We will read and discuss significant classical and contemporary feminist writings on how social life is organized, maintained or changed. The feminist literature has led to the emergence of diverse theoretical frameworks analyzing historical and contemporary, macro and micro, public and private, local and global issues and concerns. The feminist paradigm, like many other paradigms, is inclusive of many disciplines. The sociological writings within this paradigm provides a wealth of materials on alternative views of social organization, order and conflict.

GST 400 Gender in Global Community. 3(3-0) F. (Identical with SOC 600).

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or GST 170 or permission. This course will explore the effects of an integrated global community on gender; how global trends are gender-based in terms of labor market participation, resource allocation, family regulations, health care, crime, war and regional politics. We will discuss how events and policies in one part of the globe affect gender relations in another region.

GST 496 (IDS) Senior Seminar in Gender Studies. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: GST 170 and 9 additional hours in the Gender Studies minor. A seminar which focuses on interdisciplinary perspectives concerning Gender Studies, this course is designed to be the last integrative course for the minor.

GST 497 (IDS) Special Topics in Gender Studies. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: GST 170 and admission to the Gender Studies program or permission. In-depth inquiry into selected topics of Gender Studies. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours if the topic is different.

DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE

30 Freudenberger House, Phone: 836-5791, FAX: 836-5792

Email: MilitaryScience@smsu.edu

Department Head: Professor LTC John C. Karch, M.S.

Assistant Professors: MAJ William Jakola, B.S.; MAJ Roger Wallenberg, B.S.; CPT Doug Schenck, B.S.; CPT Lance Stratton, B.S.

Instructors: SFC Dennis Jones; SSG Paul Ogwo, B.S.; SSG Jonathan Palmer; SGT Taddy Peterson

For the past 48 years the Military Science program (Army ROTC) has prepared college men and women for commissions as Second Lieutenants in the United States Army, the Army National Guard, and the Army Reserves. SMSU's ROTC program is divided into two elective courses; the Basic Course and the Advanced Course. Enrollment in all Basic Course classes is limited to full time freshmen and sophomore students. Students who enroll in Basic Course classes receive leadership, management, and confidence-building instruction which will be of great value in any career field they enter. Enrollment in the Advanced Course classes is restricted to students who meet departmental criteria and who willingly accept a commission as an Army officer with a military service obligation. All non-US citizens must have department permission prior to enrolling in any Military Science class.

Basic Course: The Basic Course encompasses two freshman and four sophomore Military Science classes. There are prerequisites for some of the classes, please check Basic Course class descriptions (below) for specifics. There is no military service obligation for enrolling in any of the Basic Course classes. The primary objective of the Basic Course is to provide college students with an understanding of the United States Army in general and Army ROTC in particular. Additionally, students who complete three Basic Course classes and meet departmental criteria, qualify for enrollment in the Advanced Courses, if they decide to continue in the Military Science program and earn an officer's commission in the U.S. Army.

Advanced Course: The Advanced Course consists of two 300-level and two 400-level Military Science classes (see class descriptions below). Enrollment in all Advanced Course classes is by departmental permission. The primary objective of the Advanced Course is to prepare qualified college students for military service as Second Lieutenants in the United States Army, the Army National Guard, and the Army Reserves. Students who are accepted into this program receive $200 per month (tax-free) for 10 months of both their Junior and Senior years. Additionally, Advanced Course students attend a six-week summer camp, normally between their Junior and Senior year. Students receive a salary while at camp, have meals and housing provided by the Army, and receive reimbursement for travel to and from the camp. Upon completion of the four Advanced Course classes, summer camp, and a bachelors degree, students are commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the U.S. Army. Students may elect to complete their military service either full time in the U.S. Army or part-time in the Army National Guard or Army Reserves.

All students in the Advanced Courses, prior to graduation, are required to take at least one course in each of the following four fields of study: Written Communications, Computer Literacy, Math Reasoning and Military History. The Written Communications and Math Reasoning requirements are satisfied by meeting the University's General Education requirements. The Computer Literacy requirement is satisfied by completing one of the following courses; CIS 101, CSC 101 or CSC 121. The Military History requirement is satisfied by HST 315. Advanced Course students are also encouraged (but not required) to take a course in the fields of national security affairs and management, if their degree programs allow. Additionally, all Advanced Course students and ROTC Scholarship students must participate in a regularly scheduled physical fitness program.

Scholarships: The Army ROTC Scholarship program is open to all full time University students. 2-year and 3-year scholarships are awarded each year on a best qualified basis and students need not be enrolled in Military Science classes to compete. Army ROTC Scholarships provide full tuition, pay lab fees, educational fees and book costs, plus a monthly tax free allowance of $200 for 10 months of each school year of the scholarship. Students who receive an Army ROTC Scholarship incur a military service obligation which is completed after graduation either full time in the U.S. Army or part-time in the Army National Guard or Army Reserves.

Camp Challenge: Students who decide they want an Army officer's commission but have never taken a Military Science class, nor had any previous military training can still qualify for entry into the Advanced Course, provided they have at least two academic years remaining in their degree program. Attendance at a five week summer camp, called "Camp Challenge", qualifies students for the Advanced Course and eventually, a commission. Students who elect to attend Camp Challenge also receive a salary while at camp, have meals and housing provided by the Army, and receive reimbursement for travel to and from the camp. As a special incentive, students can compete for 2-year Army ROTC Scholarships while at Camp Challenge. These scholarships are awarded on the basis of college academic record, leadership potential, and performance at the camp. Additionally, SMSU students can receive 5 credit hours for attending Camp Challenge (See MIL 225).

Veterans: SMSU students who are veterans of honorable military service (all branches of the Armed Forces, active and reserves) may be eligible for enrollment in the Advanced Course by virtue of their previous military training and experience. This option (called advanced placement) allows military veterans to complete the ROTC program in just two years, rather than four. Veterans who elect this option do not lose any of their GI Bill entitlements and still receive the monthly $200 tax free allowance from ROTC.

Uniforms and Texts: Textbooks are supplied for all ROTC courses. Uniforms are provided when required. Freshman and Sophomore students are furnished uniforms if required. Advanced Course students are furnished uniforms and accessory items.

Philosophy Courses

PHI 105 Critical Thinking. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course develops intellectual self-awareness by teaching the canons and skills of critical reasoning. Deductive and inductive reasoning, the application of logic to a variety of significant issues, and the relation between language and argumentation will be studied.

PHI 110 Introduction to Philosophy. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course explores various ways of understanding the human self and its relation to the world. Through a consideration of what can be known, what is worth valuing, what reality is, and how human communities should be composed and regulated, the course deals with central themes that arise from the human quest for deeper self-understanding.

PHI 115 Ethics and Contemporary Issues. 3(3-0) F,S.

This course examines ethical principles and theories in relation to contemporary moral issues (e.g. euthanasia, capital punishment, economic justice, environmental issues, world hunger). Through a consideration of ideals of justice and human dignity, as well as concepts of rights and responsibilities, it also explores the moral requirements for community and justified political order.

PHI 197 (180) Perspectives in Philosophy. 1-3, D.

A variable content course designed to explore the philosophical significance of issues of cultural, social or individual importance. Students should consult the registration schedule to determine the topic to be covered in a given semester. The course may be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours as topics change.

PHI 206 (106) Elements of Symbolic Logic. 3(3-0) S.

An introduction to the use of symbolic techniques to represent and evaluate arguments from everyday usage. There is an emphasis upon the student's development of an understanding of the methods and concepts of present day logic. Does not count toward the previous or present general education program.

PHI 300 (220) Philosophical Ideas in Literature. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or literature or permission of instructor. Selected works of Western literature in light of their relation to historical trends in philosophy and philosophical speculation in the areas of metaphysics, epistemology, value theory, social and political philosophy.

PHI 302 Environmental Ethics. 3(3-0) D.

This course critically examines various philosophical viewpoints that bear upon ethical issues concerning the environment. Among the questions examined are the following: Must concern for the environment revolve around human concerns? Do animals have rights? Does nature have intrinsic value that must be respected regardless of effects upon humans? What is the relative importance of aesthetic or economic values to environmental questions? Do we have obligations to protect resources for future generations? This course does not count toward any general education requirement.

PHI 306 (206) History of Western Philosophy: Ancient. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. Historical study of ancient philosophy based on the reading of representative writings of major philosophers.

PHI 310 History of Western Philosophy: Modern. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. A survey of the major philosophies of the modern period in the Western World, 1550 to 1850, including the work of philosophers who stand in the traditions of Continental rationalism, British empiricism, and German idealism.

PHI 312 Contemporary Philosophy. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. Contemporary philosophical thought including Philosophical Analysis, Phenomenalism, Existentialism, Vitalism, and important individual philosophers. Major writings of the period studied from both the historical and critical standpoints; influences on contemporary philosophy; major tendencies in contemporary thinking on traditional philosophical problems.

PHI 314 Asian Philosophy. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. This course compares and evaluates the major philosophies of the Eastern world. It treats selected topics from Indian, Chinese, and Japanese philosophies and examines the basic ideas that underlie the religious and moral viewpoints of these traditions.

PHI 315 Philosophy of Religion. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. Religious experience and the problem of man's knowledge of God; currently-held views concerning such issues as the relation between religion and other aspects of human culture.

PHI 318 Knowledge and Reality. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. Examination of some leading accounts of different ways of knowing, and of some of the different theories about the nature of reality. An additional goal is to clarify the interrelations between knowing and reality.

PHI 319 Feminist Philosophy. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or GST 170 or permission of instructor. This course examines the major strands of feminist philosophy. It focuses in particular on how issues of gender affect ethical theories and theories of knowledge. This course does not count toward the previous or present general education program.

PHI 320 Aesthetics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. Representative philosophical theories concerning the nature of aesthetic value; the bases of judgements in the arts and literature. Primarily intended for upper division students concentrating in the fine arts, literature or philosophy.

PHI 325 Philosophy of Science. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. This course investigates the nature and scope of scientific inquiry. It explores the aims and methods of both natural and social sciences as well as the place of science and scientists in society.

PHI 335 Philosophy of Mind. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. The course examines representative philosophical views about the nature of mind, with special attention to the issues of the self, consciousness, personal identity and the relation between mind and body.

PHI 340 Philosophy of Law. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours in philosophy or permission of instructor. A critical introduction to classical philosophical positions concerning the nature and functions of law, followed by a more detailed study of their contemporary successors. Analysis of rival positions will focus both on questions of theoretical justification and on implications for current legal controversies.

PHI 343 Business Ethics. 3(3-0) D.

The course investigates fundamental ethical issues that arise within a business environment. The responsibilities of business to consumers, employees and society are examined. Special attention is given to the tensions between moral ideals and business pressures.

PHI 345 Theories of Ethics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. This course examines the nature of ethics and the principles of moral actions and decisions.

PHI 397 (480) Seminar in Philosophy. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: 3 hours of philosophy or permission of instructor. Research in selected topics in philosophy. May focus on ideas of one or more thinkers, a philosophic issue or a branch of philosophy. May be repeated for credit.

PHI 496 (490) Philosophy Tutorial. 2-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Individual conference course for students with specialized interests in particular areas of philosophy not covered in regular courses. Includes independent research, progress reports and term papers. Enrollment requires advance agreement on topic.

PHI 513 Health Care Ethics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: 60 hours or permission of instructor. An introduction to central ethical questions that arise in the health care context, and to the resources various ethical theories offer for resolving those questions. In addition to a brief overview of contemporary moral theory, the course will discuss issues such as euthanasia, informed consent, proxy decision making, experimental research on humans and health care allocation. Specific cases will be discussed and analyzed throughout the semester. This course does not count toward the previous or present general education program.

Graduate Programs

Master of Public Administration and Master of International Affairs and Administration degrees are offered. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in Political Science. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated MPA Program

Exceptional undergraduate political science or public administration majors may apply to participate in the Accelerated Master of Public Administration program. If accepted, up to twelve hours of 500- and 600-level PLS courses may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees. Students who participate in this program will be given the opportunity to complete their bachelor and master degrees in ten semesters and a summer, rather than the twelve semesters normally required. Applications are made to the Department Head and are subject to the approval of the Graduate College. Applicants must have Junior standing, a 3.50 grade point average in political science or public administration, and a 3.00 overall grade point average. See the Graduate Catalog for further details.

Political Science Courses

PLS 101 American Democracy and Citizenship. 3(3-0) F,S.

The course familiarizes students with the institutions and constitutional framework of the United States and Missouri. The course emphasis is on the values, rights, and responsibilities that shape the public decision making of active and informed citizens and influence contemporary public affairs in a democratic society.

PLS 102 Introduction to American Public Policy. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PLS 101. This course deals with the process of policy formulation and with the historical development of specific public policies in such fields as economics, foreign affairs, education, business and labor, social welfare, criminal justice, health and environment.

PLS 103 Missouri Government and Politics. 1(1-0) F,S.

The course familiarizes students with the institutions and constitutional framework in Missouri. This course will partially fulfill Senate Bill 4 requirements with respect to the Missouri Constitution and institutions. (Students who have received credit for PLS 101 at SMSU or have received Senate Bill 4 transfer credit are precluded from taking PLS 103 for credit. Students who enroll in PLS 103 prior to taking PLS 101 will lose their credit for PLS 103.)

PLS 169 Introduction to Political Science. 3(3-0) F,S.

An introduction to the contemporary concerns and historical development of political science as a social science and as a mode of critical thinking about politics and society. Emphasis is upon acquainting students with the scope of intellectual inquiry and the specialized subfields of study of modern political science rather than with the particular characteristics of American government and politics.

PLS 205 Introduction to Comparative Government. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PLS 101. An introductory comparative study of the principles, techniques, and policy issues of government in constitutional democracies and authoritarian regimes. The course focuses on selected West European (Britain, France, Germany) and non-West European (Japan, Mexico, Russia) countries, and the evolution of the European Community.

PLS 232 International Relations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PLS 101. Conflict and cooperation in the nation-state system. Theories on international organization, power politics, regional integration, nationalism, war. Problems of developing areas such as Africa, Latin America and Southeast Asia.

PLS 251 Foundations of Public Law. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PLS 101. An introduction to the systematic study of public law. The purpose of the course is to familiarize students with major concepts of law, legal reasoning, and the legal processes; to provide a comparative and historical perspective on American public law, and to highlight basic issues of law, administration and social policy.

PLS 255 Public Administration. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PLS 101. American administrative organization and activities; centralization, decentralization and relation between the administration and other branches of government.

PLS 300 Service Learning in Political Science. 1, F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Political Science course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Political Science to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

PLS 310 Writing II: Political Science and Public Administration. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: 45 credit hours that include PLS 101 and PLS 102 and PLS 169 and; ENG 110 or equivalent or; permission of instructor. A composition course designed to provide training and experience in writing in the fields of political science and public administration, with the major focus on the writing of a research paper. Sociology Courses

SOC 150 Introduction to Society. 3(3-0) F,S.

The study of society including its structure and operation from the perspective of sociology. The course focuses on ways society is constructed by people and, in turn, on the ways society shapes people. This general education course supplies students with a community as well as global, multicultural understanding of society.

SOC 152 Social Problems. 3(3-0) F,S.

Sociological perspectives on contemporary social issues and problems in American society.

SOC 160 The Individual in Society. 3(3-0) F,S.

This general education course explores how self understanding emerges in a social context and is inseparable from that context. It examines the symbolic basis of communication, traces the interdependency of self and other awareness, and probes the social organization of human experience.

SOC 201 Research Methodology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160. Methods of collecting and analyzing data including interviewing and observation techniques, scaling and sampling designs.

SOC 284 Social Movements. 3(3-0) F.

The study of collective attempts to implement social change in society. Specific groups studied will vary, but may include the civil rights, feminist, political, religious, environmental and health movements.

SOC 290 Sociology of Gender Roles. 3(3-0) D.

A study of gender roles, focusing on the effects of socialization, role stereotyping, and rapid social change on adult gender role identity, life choices and family patterns.

SOC 297 (200) Special Topics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Selected topics of contemporary interest in sociology, offered when resources and demand allow. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topic changes. Variable Content Course.

SOC 300 Service Learning Curricular Component.

1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a sociology course designated as service learning offering. An integrative learning experience which addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs by incorporating community service with classroom instruction. Includes 40 hours on-task service to a community organization, agency or public service provider. The community service placement agency and service assignment will vary, dependent on the disciplinary course topic and learning objectives. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

SOC 302 Statistics for Social Research. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 college hours and completion of math requirement. Introduction to statistics with special emphasis on those techniques most commonly used in social research. This course cannot be credited toward a degree if a student has taken any of the following: AGR 330, ECO 308, MTH 340, PSY 200, QBA 237, REC 331.

SOC 306 Introduction to the Sociology of Education. 3(3-0) F. Structure and functions of the school in American society; impact of recent social and technological changes upon the education system.

SOC 309 Work, Industry and Society. 3(3-0) D.

The industrialization of society and its impact on formal and informal organization, management philosophies, worker attitudes and labor relations. Current trends affecting the work place are examined.

SOC 310 Social Deviance. 3(3-0) F,S.

An historical survey of the explanations of deviant behavior. Emphasis will focus on the structure of norms and rules, their diversity, and their role in identifying deviance.

SOC 314 Rural Sociology. 3(3-0) S.

An analysis of social organization, development, and change in rural cultures, lifestyles, and environments; includes comparisons of industrialized and developing countries.

SOC 315 (414) The Family. 3(3-0) F,S.

The family as a social institution; its adjustment to modern social conditions; personality adjustments in marriage.

SOC 316 Urban Sociology. 3(3-0) F.

The rise and development of urban settlements (cities), their ecology, problems, and an examination of urbanism as a way of life generated in cities.

SOC 325 Introduction to Sociological Theory. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160. A survey of the development of sociological theory with emphasis upon the social and historical influences shaping the thought of classical theorists.

SOC 326 Feminist Theories of Social Order. 3(3-0) S. (Identical with GST 326).

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160 or GST 170. This course offers an introductory survey of feminist theories within a sociological framework. We will read and discuss significant classical and contemporary feminist writings on how social life is organized, maintained or changed. The feminist literature has led to the emergence of diverse theoretical frameworks analyzing historical and contemporary, macro and micro, public and private, local and global issues and concerns. The feminist paradigm, like many other paradigms, is inclusive of many disciplines. The sociological writings within this paradigm provides a wealth of materials on alternative views of social organization, order and conflict.

SOC 330 Sociological Analysis. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: SOC 201 and SOC 302 and SOC 325. A course designed to integrate theoretical thinking with the practice of research. The course consists of a series of projects that require the sociological description, explanation and understanding of human experiences. Projects range from computer-assisted analysis using secondary data sets to field work. Students will demonstrate competency in using a statistical program, accessing the internet for the extraction and analysis of data, and using the computer to assist in the analysis of qualitative information. The course is primarily designed for sociology majors.

SOC 336 Race and Ethnic Group Relations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Selected racial and ethnic minorities, their relationships with each other and the larger society. Social policy affecting minority relations analyzed as well as trends and prospects for intergroup relationships in the U.S. and the world.

SOC 341 Medical Sociology. 3(3-0) S.

An analysis of the ecological, sociopsychological and cultural aspects of health and illness, both physical and mental, and of the social organization of health care services and of health professions.

SOC 351 Sociology of Childhood. 3(3-0) F,S.

Situational factors in the development of personality with special emphasis on the family, peer groups and the school.

SOC 357 Sociology of Sport. 3(3-0) D.

Investigation and analysis of the relationship between sport and society; the development and changing nature of sport as an institution; role of sport in modern society.

SOC 380 Sociology of Law. 3(3-0) F.

The interaction of law and society from a sociological perspective with emphasis upon legal institutions as instruments of social control. The impact of social values on the development of the legal order and the reciprocal influence of the law on social behavior.

SOC 390 (560) Religion in Society. 3(3-0) S.

A sociological analysis of religion in American society. Emphasis will be on how people become religious, church-state issues, characteristics of religious organizations, and the future of religion in society.

SOC 397 Special Topics. 1-3, D.

Selected topics of contemporary interest in Sociology. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when the topic changes. Variable Content Course.

SOC 420 Social Inequality. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160 or permission of the department head. An analysis of the structure, sources, and consequences of social inequality and the dimensions along which it may be observed.

SOC 425 Advanced Social Theory. 3(3-0) D.

The links between research and sociological theories of the middle-range. The use of theory in deductive approaches to social research.

SOC 470 Practicum in Applied Sociological Research. 3(2-4) D.

Prerequisite: SOC 201 and SOC 302 and SOC 325, or permission. Group experience in designing and carrying out an applied community research project. Variable Content Course.

SOC 485 Society and the Future. 3(3-0) F.

A critical analysis of post-industrial societies. Specific attention will be given to changes in institutional spheres and what these trends may indicate for post-industrial societies like the United States.

SOC 497 (400) Special Topics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 9 hours sociology or permission. Selected topics in substantive areas in sociology such as theory, methodology, social organization, social psychology, demography, criminology and family. Offered when resources and demand allow. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours when topic changes. Variable Content Course.

SOC 498 (495) Senior Seminar. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: Sociology major, completion of the 9 hour concentration and grades of "C" or better in SOC 201, 302, 325 and 330. A cumulative and integrative seminar experience for the sociology major during which the student will prepare and submit a bachelors paper.

SOC 499 (489) Internship in Applied Sociology. 1-6 (0-6) D.
Prerequisite: 18 hours in Sociology with 2.50 GPA and permission. Supervised work experience in business, industry, governmental, institutional and/or agency settings where sociological skills are utilized. One credit hour for each 45 clock hours on the job. No more than 3 hours internship credit may be applied to the Sociology major.

SOC 505 (405) Population Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160 or permission of the instructor. Comparative analysis of population size, distribution, and composition; population processes of fertility, mortality and migration; impact of population change on society; issues of population policy.

SOC 540 Community Analysis: A Focus on Crime. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: SOC 325 or CJS 320 or equivalent, or permission of instructor. This course will examine the ways in which social, political, and economic factors contribute to community/neighborhood disorganization and the role this disorganization plays in the generation of conventional crime.

SOC 596 (591) Directed Readings in Sociology. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 10 hours in sociology and permission. Readings designed to supplement material introduced in previous sociology courses. Includes a wide selection from literature in the field. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours.

SOC 599 Sociological Research. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: SOC 150 or SOC 160; and SOC 201 and SOC 325 and SOC 302, or permission. Independent and/or group work in research methodology, data manipulation and presentation in selected fields of sociology. May be repeated to total of 9 hours.

The following course is open only to graduate students.

SOC 600 Gender in Global Community. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: admission to Graduate College and SOC 150 or GST 170 or permission. This course will explore the effects of an integrated global community on gender; how global trends are gender-based in terms of labor market participation, resource allocation, family regulations, health care, crime, war and regional politics. We will discuss how events and policies in one part of the globe affect gender relations in another region. Cannot be taken for credit if GST 400 was taken for credit.

SOC 606 Advanced Social Research Methodology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: statistics or permission of instructor. Introduces research methodology in the context of understanding community social life. Covers surveys, ethnographic accounts, community indicators, comparative studies, and evaluation studies. Also instructs students in advanced skills of data analysis and presentation, report and grant writing.

SOC 685 Community Change. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Focus on the complexities in the sociological understanding associated with social change and the long-term trends impacting local communities. Students will conduct data research and develop strategies for implementing planned social change projects.

SOC 690 Sociology of Religion. 3(3-0), S.

This course examines the relationship between religion and its social context. Students will explore the social nature of individual religiosity and religious institutions. The interrelationship between religion and the problems created by modernity will be studied. Taught concurrently with SOC 390.

SOC 699 Thesis. 1-6.

Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis.

Centers for Research and Service

Center for Industrial Productivity

The Center is dedicated to assisting business and industry in research, development of new manufacturing technologies, and training of professionals involved in manufacturing. The primary objective of the Center is to support area business and industry in their pursuit of manufacturing excellence in their management practices, application of new technologies, and efforts to remain competitive in the global market place. The Center co-sponsors the "Excellence in Manufacturing Series" which provides workshops and seminars for professionals. The series is co-sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education and related professional organizations.

Center for Resource Planning and Management

The Center provides educational training, applied research and community outreach services in the field of urban planning and community development. Services provided to local governments, state and federal agencies and civic organizations include small town planning, comprehensive planning, grant writing, economic development planning, digital cartographic services and specialty planning services. The Center is an affiliate census data center of the Missouri State Library and is the administrative agent of the Southwest Missouri Advisory Council of Governments.

Center for Scientific Research and Education

The Center promotes scientific research, service, and educational activities by matching the professional expertise and physical facilities of the College of Natural and Applied Sciences with the needs of private firms, not-for-profit organizations, government agencies, and educational institutions. While serving the University's external constituents, the Center provides research and service opportunities for SMSU faculty and students.

Midwest Viticulture and Enology Center

The mission of the Midwest Viticulture and Enology Center is to promote growth of the grape and wine industry through focused research, advisory, and service activities. This center coordinates work carried on in viticulture and enology so as to efficiently use available resources in Missouri and surrounding states. The center is located on the Mountain Grove Campus, which has long been recognized for its grape research and advisory work.

Graduate Program

A Master of Natural and Applied Science degree is offered. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Science Education Course

SCI 414 (SEC) Teaching of Secondary School Natural Science.
3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisites: SEC 300 and SEC 301 and minimum of 20 credit hours in one field of science, and 16 in two other areas of science. Integration of current science learning theories and standards into practical classroom experiences for students of diverse backgrounds and abilities. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

- B. Major Requirements
 1. AGH 343(3), 353(3), 393(3), 483(3)
 2. Select a minimum of 11 hours from: AGH 243(3), 323(3), 333(3), 363(3), 403(3), 443(3), 573(3); AGA 575(2); AGW 143(3)
 3. Other Agriculture Requirements
AGA 105(3), 215(3), 405(3), 485(3); AGA 335(3) or AGR 357(3); AGB 144(4), 364(2); AGR 383(3), 490(1), 499(3); AGR 300(3) or any AGS class for 3 credit hours
 4. BIO 334(3) or 339(2); ACC 201(3)
 5. Select two courses from: MGT 320(3), 345(3), 384(3); MKT 350(3)

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Wildlife Conservation and Management (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

This major is offered in cooperation with the Biology Department.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
Specific General Education Requirements: BIO 121(4); CHM 105(5) or 160(4); GLG 110(4); GRY 100(3); MTH 135(3) or 138(5)
- B. Major Requirements
 1. Agriculture Requirements:
 - a. AGA 105(3), 215(3), 335(3), 365(3) or 375(3); AGR 383(3); AGW 143(3), 496(1)
 - b. Select two courses (4-6 hours) from: AGA 485(3); AGB 354(2); AGH 333(3), 483(3); AGW 351(2)
 2. Biology Requirements:
 - a. BIO 121(4), 122(4), 334(3), 339(2) or 545(2), 373(3)
 - b. Select one course from: BIO 369(4), 436(4), 562(4)
 - c. Select two courses from: BIO 573(3), 575(3), 577(3)
*Students who have completed BIO 134 and 167 combination are not required to take BIO 121 and 122; BIO 121 and 122 cannot count as degree credit if BIO 134 and 167 are counted as credit.
 3. Select ten additional hours in Agriculture and/or Biology
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minors

Minors in agriculture are available to students majoring in departments other than agriculture.

Agriculture

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Non-Certifiable)

- A. Select at least one course from each of the following areas: agriculture economics, animal husbandry, soils, field crops
- B. Select at least one course from: dairy husbandry, horticulture, poultry husbandry
- C. Select additional courses to complete 24 hours or more of agriculture. Students desiring to minor in agriculture on the Bachelor of Science in Education should confer with a member of the agriculture staff before scheduling to receive advise of desirable courses which meet their special needs.

Agricultural Business

Bachelor of Science

AGB 144(4), 394(3); plus electives from the following courses to total at least 20 hours in agricultural economics: AGB 334(3), 344(3), 354(2), 374(2), 524(3), 584(3)

Agronomy

Bachelor of Science

AGA 105(3); plus electives from the following courses to total at least 20 hours: AGA 215(3), 335(3), 365(3), 375(3), 405(3), 455(3), 485(3), 545(3), 575(2); AGH 483(3); AGR 300(3); AGW 143(3)

Animal Science

Bachelor of Science

AGS 101(4), 311(3); plus electives from other courses in animal science to total at least 20 hours.

Equine Studies

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

AGS 101(4), 161(2), 191(2), 311(3), 461(3); plus at least 6 additional credits in Equine Studies to be determined by consultation with advisor.

General Agriculture

Bachelor of Science

AGA 105(3), AGB 144(4), AGS 101(4); plus electives in agriculture to total at least 20 hours.

Horticulture

Bachelor of Science

AGA 105(3); plus electives from the following courses to total at least 20 hours: AGH 243(3), 323(3), 333(3), 343(3), 353(2), 363(3), 393(3), 443(3), 483(3), 573(3); AGR 383(3)

Pre-Professional Curriculum in Veterinary Medicine

Students considering this program should consult with the Pre-Veterinary advisor in the Department of Agriculture.

Option I: To be eligible to apply to the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Missouri, a minimum of 64 hours must be completed including the following courses: CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2), 200(5), and 350(3); COM 115(3); ENG 110(3); MTH 138(5), or 135(3) and 181(3); PHY 123(4) and 124(4); 10 hours of biological sciences — BIO 210(3) or 310(5), and 380(5) are recommended; plus 10 hours of courses in the social sciences and humanities.

Option II: By completing this option of approximately 100 hours, a student may apply for a B.S. degree in Agriculture with a major in Animal Science from Southwest Missouri State University after successfully completing the first two years in the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Missouri.

	Hours
A. General Education Requirements	43-54
B. Science and Mathematics Requirements	38-47
BIO 210(3) or 310(5), 380(5); CHM 160(4),*
170(3), 175(2), 200(5) and 350(3); MTH 138(5)*
or 135(3)* and 181(3); and PHY 123(4)* and 124(4)
C. Agriculture Requirements	32
AGS 101(4), 301(3), 302(3) or 306(3), 311(3),
316(3) and 511(3); AGA 105(3), 215(3); AGB 144(4); AGR 330

*May be included in general education requirements.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Plant Science. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in Agriculture. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Agriculture Courses

AGR 100 Technology's Impact on Society. (Identical to TEC 100) 3(3-0) F,S.

Technological progress of agriculture and industry and its socio-economic impact in a global environment.

AGR 110 Agriculture Orientation. 1(1-0) F, S.

Introduction to the educational opportunities, facilities, services, and activities at SMSU with specific emphasis toward the Department of Agriculture. Course designed for students interested in Agriculture.

AGR 157 Principles of Agricultural Mechanization. 3(3-0) F,S. Engineering and mechanical principles; their application to agriculture equipment, systems and concepts.

AGR 200 Mini Agriculture. 1(1-0) F,S.

A course designed to treat specific areas of agriculture to meet specialized student needs. Treatment of the subject will include consideration of historical, theoretical, scientific and application aspects. May be repeated up to a total of 3 hours provided the same topic is not repeated. A course fee may be charged for selected sections. Variable Content Course.

AGR 300 Food and Agricultural Chemistry. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 105 or CHM 160. Chemistry, sources and importance of biological materials used for food, fiber, and feed for man and domestic animals.

AGR 313 Beekeeping. 2(1-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Fundamentals needed for the amateur to establish and maintain honey bees and produce a surplus honey crop.

AGR 320 Writing II: Writing in the Applied Sciences. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: either ENG 110 or ENG 111 and 45 credit hours. Strategies for accessing information. Writing proposals, progress reports, final reports, manuals, and on-line documents for the Applied Sciences.

AGR 330 Statistical Applications in Agriculture. 3(2-2) F,S.

Recommended: either MTH 135 or higher and either CIS/CSC 101 or CSC 111. Collection, display, analysis and application of agricultural data, including measurement of location and dispersion, probability, normal distribution, sampling, sampling distributions, hypothesis testing, analysis of variance, correlation and regression analysis. Computer statistical packages will be used for simulation study and agricultural data analysis. Applications are specific to Agriculture. A student may not receive credit toward a degree for more than one of the following courses: AGR 330, ECO 308, MTH 340, PSY 200, QBA 237, REC 331, SOC 302.

AGR 350 Agricultural Communications. 2(2-0) S.

Recommended: ENG 110 and COM 115. Introduces the scope and applications of communications and journalism as they relate to agriculture.

AGR 357 Agricultural Power. 3(2-2) F.

Recommended: MTH 135 or higher. Principles of operation, construction and utilization of power units.

AGR 367 Agricultural Machinery. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: MTH 135 or higher. Principles of construction, operation, selection and utilization of farm field equipment.

AGR 377 Agricultural Structures and Systems. (Identical with TEC 390) 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: MTH 135 or higher. Functional and structural design of unified structures and systems for agricultural enterprises.

AGR 383 Applied Entomology. 3(2-2) F,S.

Principles of insect life; careful study of a number of common insect pests, their identification and control.

AGR 399 Special Topics. 1-5, D.

Special study of agricultural topics not treated in other courses. Course may be repeated to a total of 5 hours provided the same topic is not duplicated. Variable Content Course.

AGR 490 Agronomy/Horticulture Senior Seminar. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours. Presentation, discussions and analysis of professional and technical topics in Agronomy and Horticulture.

AGR 499 Internship in Agriculture. 1-8, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Supervised agricultural work experience. A paper describing and analyzing the experience required. May be repeated for a total of 10 credit hours.

The following course is only open to graduate students.

AGR 697 Seminar. 1(1-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. In-depth study in an area of agriculture, culminating in an extensive scholarly presentation. May be repeated to a total of three hours.

AGR 698 (AGH) Research. 1-6 F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Supervised research in agriculture. May be repeated, but not more than 6 hours may be counted toward the 32 hour degree.

AGR 699 Thesis. 1-6 F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Demonstration of the capacity for research and independent thought culminating in a thesis. May be repeated. A minimum of 6 hours will be applied toward a master's degree.

Agricultural Business Courses

AGB 144 (AGR) Agricultural Economics I. 4(3-2) F,S.

Characteristics of our economic system and basic economic concepts with applications to agriculture. Effects on agriculture by money and banking systems, monetary and fiscal policies, government policies, and international trade.

AGB 314 (AGR) Legal Aspects of Agriculture. 3(3-0) F.

Recommended: 30 credit hours. Legal framework impinging upon decision making of farm business including farm ownership and transfer, taxation, business organization, losses, and regulations of land and water use.

AGB 334 (AGR) Marketing Agricultural Products. 3(2-2) F,S.

Recommended: AGB 144. Economic principles and problems in marketing agricultural products.

AGB 344 (AGR) Financing Agriculture. 3(2-2) F,S.

Recommended: AGB 144. Capital requirements and sources and uses of each type of credit.

AGB 354 (AGR) Land Economics. 2(2-0) F,S.

Recommended: AGB 144. Principles and institutions affecting the allocation of land resources among uses and users.

AGB 364 (AGR) Agricultural Resource Marketing. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: AGB 334. Utilization of market theories to examine the structure, conduct, performance and merchandising strategies of firms involved in marketing Agricultural resources.

AGB 374 (AGR) Agricultural Business Management. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: AGB 344. A study of agricultural firm management including planning, organizing, directing, controlling and coordinating functions used to attain business goals. The role of finance and type of business organization including agricultural cooperatives.

AGB 394 (AGR) Agricultural Industry Study. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours including 6 hours in agricultural business and permission of instructor. A five-day study alternating between St. Louis and Kansas City to examine the management process of a variety of agricultural businesses. May be repeated for a total of 6 credit hours.

AGB 444 (AGR) American Agricultural Policy. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: AGB 144. Description and analysis of economic problems of U.S. Agriculture. History and significance of government programs to support farm prices and incomes, conserve land resources, encourage adequate food supplies and expand U.S. agricultural trade.

AGB 494 (AGR) Problems in Agricultural Business. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. A student selects a specific topic, prepares an outline, makes an investigation and presentation under the supervision of an agricultural business staff member.

AGB 524 (AGR) Agricultural Prices. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: AGB 334. Factors influencing the level and movement of agricultural commodity prices and prices of agricultural inputs.

AGB 584 (AGR) Farm Business Management. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: AGB 144. Economic principles applied to the organization and operation of agricultural units; tools of decision-making; and factor allocation.

Agricultural Education Courses

AGE 318 (AGR) Introduction to Agricultural Education. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: 30 credit hours. Building an acquaintance with the aims, philosophy, functions, opportunities and demands of agricultural education programs.

AGE 337 (AGR) Agricultural Mechanics Practices. 3(1-4) F.

Shop processes and techniques required for the construction, repair, and maintenance of agricultural facilities and equipment.

AGE 404 (SEC) Teaching of Agriculture. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 and 20 hours in agriculture. Establishing objectives and organizing the course, selecting textbooks and equipment, securing and using teaching aids; using workbooks and notebooks, planning field trips, selecting and supervising projects. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

AGE 498 (AGR) Problems in Agricultural Education. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. May be repeated with permission.

AGE 508 (AGR) Teaching Adults in Vocational Education. (Identical with SEC 527 and TEC 527) 3(3-0) D.

Rise of the adult education movement; learning abilities, educational interests and vocational needs of adults; problems and procedures in organizing and operating adult education programs; relationship of adult education to public school education.

AGE 518 (AGR) Agriculture Education – Special Topics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Special study of agricultural education topics not covered in other courses. Course may be repeated to a total of 5 hours provided the same topic is not duplicated.

AGE 548 Agriculture in the Classroom. 1(1-0) Su.

Course is designed to help elementary teachers better appreciate the importance of agriculture in their student's lives and to better understand Missouri agriculture. Course stresses integration of resources available from the agricultural industry across the curriculum.

AGE 568 (AGE 468) Course and Program Building in Agricultural Education. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: AGE 318 and AGE 404 and 60 credit hours. Organization and analysis of agricultural instruction courses and programs; including the adoption of resource materials to meet individual student needs.

AGE 578 (AGE 478) Methods of Teaching Agricultural Management. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: AGE 318 and AGE 404 and 60 credit hours. Identification, development, and utilization of supervised agriculture experience programs in Agricultural Education that includes methods of teaching program management, record keeping, and appropriate methodologies.

AGE 588 (AGE 488) Methods of Teaching Agricultural Laboratory Management. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: AGE 318 and AGE 404 and 60 credit hours. Prepare prospective agricultural science teachers to determine subject matter, methods of teaching, and organization of equipment and facilities as applied to agricultural laboratories in high schools.

The following course is open only to graduate students.

AGE 618 (AGR) Topics in Agricultural Education. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Current developments and trends in teaching agricultural education as well as new developments in resources and techniques. Students may repeat course, however, only 9 hours will count towards the student's graduate program of study.

Agronomy Courses

AGA 105 (AGR) Soils and Crop Science. 3(3-0) F,S.

Soils as influenced by geography, geology, temperature, rainfall, and other natural factors. Crop origin, adaptation, function and management principles are investigated.

AGA 215 (AGR) Soils. 3(2-2) F,S.

Recommended: CHM 105 or CHM 160. Physical, chemical and biological activities within the soil as related to moisture, temperature, drainage, and tillage.

AGA 335 (AGR) Soil Conservation and Water Management. 3(2-2) F,S.

Recommended: AGA 215. Conservation of soil by integrating the various mechanical, agronomic, management practices needed for effective erosion control. Design and layout of water management practices on the land.

AGA 345 (AGR) Soil Judging. 2(1-2) F,S.

Recommended: AGA 215. Introduction to soil morphology, interpretation of water relationships, site characteristics, classification, and land use. A soil judging team will be selected from this class. May be repeated up to a total of 6 hours.

AGA 365 (AGR) Grain Crops. 3(3-0) F.

Recommended: AGA 105. Adaptation, production, and utilization of the major grain crops.

AGA 375 (AGR) Forage Crops. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGA 105. Culture, preservation and management of crops useful for pasture, hay and silage.

AGA 405 (AGR) Soil Fertility and Plant Nutrition. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGA 215. Principles of soil fertility and fertilizer applications affecting nutrient availability and plant growth.

AGA 425 (AGR) Soil and Crop Management. 2(2-0) F.

Recommended: AGA 215 and either AGA 365 or AGA 375. Integration of soil and crop management techniques necessary to enhance crop production and improve soil productivity.

AGA 455 (AGR) Soil Genesis, Morphology and Classification. 2(2-0) F.

Recommended: AGA 215. Pedogenetic processes that are responsible for genesis, morphology, and classification of the eleven orders of soil taxonomy.

AGA 485 (AGR) Weed Control. 3(2-2) F.

Recommended: Either AGA 105 or AGA 375 and either BIO 102 or BIO 121 and either CHM 105 or 160. Identification, physiology and growth habits of weeds and their control.

AGA 495 (AGR) Problems in Plant and Soil Science. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Assigned investigations, dealing with current problems in plant and soil science supervised by an agricultural staff member. Student prepares outline, investigates sources of information concerning the subject, and summarizes his findings in a written report. May be repeated with permission.

AGA 505 (AGR) Advanced Soil Fertility. 3(2-2) D.

Recommended: AGA 405. Theoretical and Applied aspects of soil fertility emphasizing ion transport, nutrient availability, and root absorption in soils-plant environments.

AGA 545 (AGR) Soil Survey and Land Appraisal. 3(2-2) F.

Recommended: 6 credit hours in soils. Soil as a natural body, its morphological and chemical properties, and methods used to distinguish among different soils; description and identification of soil profiles; techniques in soil mapping; and interpretation of soil survey data.

AGA 555 (AGR) Soil Genesis, Morphology, and Classification II. 3(2-2) D.

Recommended: AGA 345 and AGA 455. Pedogenetic processes, macromorphology, micromorphology, redoximorphic features, and classification as related to soil taxonomy.

AGA 575 (AGR) Plant Improvement. 2(2-0) S.

Recommended: AGA 105. Application of genetic principles to the improvement of crop plants. Includes self-pollinated, cross-pollinated, and asexually-propagated crops.

The following course is only open to graduate students.

AGA 625 (AGR) Advanced Soils Interpretations. 3(2-3) D.

Recommended: AGA 345 and AGA 455. Field interpretation of physical and chemical properties, water relationships, and soil landscape relationships.

Animal Science Courses

AGS 101 (AGR) Animal Science. 4(4-0) F,S.

Introduction to farm animal industries, breeds, numbers, distribution, nutrition, heredity, reproduction, health and products.

AGS 161 (AGR) Introduction to Horses. 2(1-2) F.

Scope and role of the horse industry. Breeds, development and use; gaits; anatomy and foot care; selection; unsoundnesses; tack.

AGS 162 (AGR) Equitation. 1(0-2) F,S.

Techniques of English and Western styles of riding. Students are responsible for transportation and payment of a horse care fee. This course may be used to satisfy only one hour of the Physical Well Being requirement in General Education, but may be repeated for a total of 3 hours. Course fee.

AGS 191 (AGR) Evaluation and Performance Appraisal of Horses. 2(0-4) D.

Detailed evaluation of athletic performance of horses; influence of training and other environmental effects, heredity, and conformation; use of racing and performance records, visual appraisal, and industry trends; oral and written defense of judgements.

AGS 196 (AGR) Dairy and Meat Animal Evaluation. 2(0-4) F.

Comparative judging including selection, grading, and classification of dairy cattle, or beef cattle, swine and sheep. May be repeated with permission for up to 4 semester hours. Variable Content Course.

AGS 262 (AGR) Intermediate Equitation II. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Intermediate techniques of hunt seat and stock seat horsemanship. Students are responsible for transportation and payment of horse care fee.

AGS 301 (AGR) Physiology of Farm Animals. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: AGS 101 and BIO 102 and CHM 105. Basic physiology of farm animals with special emphasis on systems related to the economic importance of domestic animals such as the mammary, reproductive, endocrine, and other systems.

AGS 302 (AGR) Reproductive Physiology. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGS 101 and BIO 102. Physiological principles of reproductive processes in domestic animals (production and companion) including sperm and ova production, estrus, fertilization, gestation, and parturition.

AGS 306 (AGR) Veterinary Science. 3(3-0) F.

Recommended: AGS 101. Functional anatomy, diseases and parasites of farm animals; sanitation; disease prevention and control.

AGS 311 (AGR) Feeds and Feeding. 3(2-2) F,S.

Recommended: AGS 101 and either MTH 135 or higher. Feed composition and formulation of livestock rations.

AGS 316 (AGR) Animal Breeding. 3(2-2) F.

Recommended: AGS 101 and either MTH 102 or higher. Principles of heredity applied to the improvement of farm animals; variation, selection, inbreeding and crossbreeding.

AGS 342 (AGR) Meat Science and Products. 2(1-2) F.

Recommended: AGS 101 and either CHM 105 or CHM 160. Processing, inspection, grading, preservation and nutritive value of meats and meat products.

AGS 346 (AGR) Dairy Products. 2(1-2) S.

Recommended: AGS 101 and either CHM 105 or CHM 160. Processing, inspection, grading, preservation and nutritional value of dairy products.

AGS 361 (AGR) Horse Management and Training. 3(2-2) S,Su. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Survey of management and basic training of horses. Structural anatomy, care of feet, unsoundness, and equipment and facilities are emphasized. Instruction in fitting for show or sale, practical horse psychology and training for basic performance is given. Sections available for secure riders and non-riders available.

AGS 362 Equitation III. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Advanced techniques of hunt seat and stock seat horsemanship. Students are responsible for transportation and payment of horse care fee.

AGS 396 (AGR) Advanced Dairy and Meat Animal Evaluation. 2(0-4) S.

Recommended: AGS 196. Continuation of AGS 196 with special emphasis on comparative judging and giving of oral reasons. A variable content course; may be repeated for up to 4 semester hours.

AGS 402 Applied Reproductive Techniques. 2(1-2) F,S.

Recommended: AGS 302. Techniques of artificial insemination, pregnancy determination, semen processing and collecting, and embryo transfer. Planning and management for successful artificial breeding programs. Additional Saturday field trips may be required.

AGS 432 (AGR) Sheep and Goat Science. 2(2-0) D.

Recommended: AGS 311. Applications of the principles of nutrition, physiology and genetics to sheep and goat management. Wool and mohair production.

AGS 441 (AGR) Egg Science. 2(2-0) F.

Recommended: AGS 311. Managing poultry for egg production. Grading and quality control of eggs and egg products.

AGS 442 (AGR) Swine Science. 2(2-0) F.

Recommended: AGS 311. Applications of the principals of nutrition, physiology and genetics of swine management.

AGS 446 (AGR) Dairy Production. 3(2-2) FE.

Recommended: AGS 311. Efficient dairy farm enterprise organization, feed supplies, economical rations, breeding record analysis, labor-saving buildings and equipment, herd replacements, health and other management problems.

AGS 451 (AGR) Poultry Meat Production. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGS 101. Broiler production, market turkey production and processing of poultry meat products.

AGS 452 (AGR) Beef Cattle Production. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGS 101. Production and management of purebred and commercial beef cattle.

AGS 461 (AGR) Light Horse Production. 3(3-0) S.

Recommended: AGS 101 and BIO 102. Breeding; housing; management of horses for pleasure and for profit.

AGS 491 (AGR) Animal Science Senior Seminar. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 hours and animal science major. Discussion and analysis of trends and developments in animal agriculture.

AGS 492 (AGR) Problems in Animal Science. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Assigned investigations dealing with current problems in animal science supervised by an agricultural staff member. Student prepares outline, investigates the sources of information concerning the subject, and summarizes his findings in a written report. May be repeated with permission.

AGS 511 (AGR) Animal Nutrition and Metabolism. 3(3-0) S.

Recommended: AGR 300 or CHM 200 or CHM 310. Utilization and metabolism of nutrients by domestic animals; role of vitamins and minerals.

The following courses are only open to graduate students.

AGS 612 (AGR) Special Topics in Animal Science. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Special study in an identified area of animal science not treated in other courses. Recent advances and new research techniques will be discussed. May be repeated when topic varies up to 6 hours.

AGS 616 (AGR) Mammalian Reproductive Physiology. 3(3-0) S. Recommended: AGS 302. Comparative anatomy and physiological processes of reproduction with an emphasis on domestic and laboratory animals. Fertilization through embryonic development, pregnancy, and growth to sexual maturity, reproductive efficiency and application of reproductive technology.

Horticulture/Plant Science Courses

AGH 243 (AGR) Indoor Plants. 2(2-0) S.

Identification, cultural requirements and growth habits of ornamental foliage and flowering plants for indoor use.

AGH 303 (AGR) Suburban Horticulture. 3(3-0) F.

Recommended: AGA 105 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. Horticultural concepts and their application to the growth and maintenance of fruit, vegetables and ornamentals common to most homes. Will not count toward Horticulture major or minor.

AGH 323 (AGR) Floriculture. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGA 105 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. Production and management of greenhouse floriculture crops and herbaceous landscape plants.

AGH 333 (AGR) Landscape Design. 3(2-2) F,S.

Theory and practice of landscaping including elementary design.

AGH 343 (AGR) Vegetable Production. 3(3-0) S.

Recommended: AGA 105 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. Methods and practices of home and commercial vegetable production.

AGH 353 (AGR) Turf Management. 3(3-0) S.

Recommended: AGA 105 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. The establishment, cultural maintenance, selection of cultivars and pest control relevant to lawn and turf grass.

AGH 363 (AGR) Landscape Plants. 3(2-2) F.

Recommended: AGA 105 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. Identification, classification and adaptation of important trees and shrubs used for landscape purposes.

AGH 393 (AGR) Fruit Culture. 3(3-0) S.

Recommended: AGA 105 or BIO 102 or BIO 121. The culture and management of tree fruit, grapes, strawberries and other small fruit.

AGH 403 (AGR) Nursery Management. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGH 363 or BIO 334 or BIO 339. General principles and practices involved in the commercial production, management, and marketing of landscape plants. Field trips required.

AGH 443 (AGR) Greenhouse Management. 3(2-2) S.

Recommended: AGH 323. Factors involved in site selection, construction, and management of greenhouses for the production of horticulture crops.

AGH 483 (AGR) Diseases of Economic Plants. 3(2-2) F.

Recommended: 9 hours of plant science. Plant diseases and physiological disorders of economic plants as seen in the environment.

AGH 493 (AGR) Problems in Horticulture. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Assigned investigations dealing with current problems in horticulture supervised by an agricultural staff member. Student prepares outline, investigates sources of information concerning the subject, and summarizes his findings in a written report. May be repeated with permission.

AGH 573 (AGR) Plant Propagation. 3(2-2) SO.

Recommended: either AGA 105 or BIO 121 and either CHM 105 or CHM 160. Practices employed by fruit and ornamental plant producers in propagation of plants, including seeds, cuttings, layerings, grafting and micropropagation.

The following courses are only open to graduate students.

AGH 630 (AGR) Advanced Topics in Plant Science. (Identical to FRS 630) 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. An advanced topic in plant science will be addressed via faculty lectures and student projects. Examples of proposed topics include: Improved Disease Resistance in Viticulture, and Application of Field Collected Data to Computer Analysis. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with differing topics. Variable Content Course.

AGH 653 (AGR) Plant Stress Physiology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. The effects of environmental stresses on plant physiological functions and plant growth, plus cultural methods to help plants adapt to stress.

AGH 673 (AGR) Plant Growth Regulation. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. The role of natural and synthetic plant hormones and related compounds in the growth, reproduction and cultivation of plants.

Wildlife Conservation and Management Courses

AGW 143 (AGR) Introductory Forestry. 3(3-0) F,S.

Introduction to field of forestry.

AGW 351 (AGR) Game Bird Production. 2(1-2) F.

Captive management of quail, pheasants and other gamebirds. Gamebirds will be raised in laboratory.

AGW 496 (AGR) Wildlife Conservation Senior Seminar. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours and Wildlife Conservation Major. Presentation, discussions and analysis of professional topics in Wildlife Conservation.

AGW 513 (AGR) Insects Affecting Horticultural and Forestry Crops. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Identification, life histories and control methods of insects affecting gardens, ornamental plants, orchards and forests.

General Education Courses

The following courses may be counted toward satisfying the Natural World Area of Inquiry of the General Education requirements: BIO 100, 102 and 121.

NOTE: Students who have completed BIO 134 and 167 combination are not required to take BIO 121 and 122; BIO 121 and 122 cannot count as degree credit if BIO 134 and 167 are counted as credit.

Majors

Biology (Non-Comprehensive) Bachelor of Arts

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. BIO 121(4), 122(4), 235(4), 310(5) or 320(4), 369(4), 494(1), 550(3)
2. Select elective courses in biology to total a minimum of 32 hours and include at least 12 hours of 300-level or above courses. Electives may be selected from one of the following emphases:
 - a. Botany: BIO 334(3), 536(4), 344(4). Suggested electives: BIO 339(2), 499(1-3), 500(3), 531(2), 539(2), 545(2)
 - b. Cellular Biology: BIO 310(5), 511(3); BMS 514(2), 516(4), 524(3), 529(3), 585(4)
 - c. Environmental Studies: BIO 339(2), 370(4), 374(3), 536(4), 562(4)
 - d. Microbiology: BIO 310(5), 508(3), 511(3), 517(4), 520(3); BMS 524(3), 529(3)
 - e. Wildlife Biology: BIO 562(4) and 575(3); or 276(3) and 577(3). BIO 334(2), 339(2), 373(3), 589(3). Students interested in certification requirements as set by the Wildlife Society and the American Fisheries Society should consult with their academic advisor.
 - f. Zoology: BIO 371(3), 374(3), 500(3), 539(2), 562(4), 563(3), 571(4), 574(2), 575(3), 576(3), 577(3), 589(3); BMS 382(4), 585(4)
3. Related Requirements: CHM 200(5) or 310(5) and 311(5) or 312(3); PHY 123(4) and 124(4) or PHY 203(5) and 204(5); MTH 261(5) or 287(3)

C. Minor Required

D. Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Arts Degree (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section catalog)

E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Biology (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements (37-46 hours)

1. BIO 121 (4), 122 (4), 235 (4), 550 (3), 494 (1)
2. PHY 123 (4) and 124 (4) or 203 (5) and 204 (5)
3. MTH 138 (5) or 181 (3) or eligibility for MTH 261 on mathematics placement test
4. BIO 310 (5) or 320 (4) or 361 (4) or 544 (4); consult options below before selecting course
5. CHM 105 (5) or 160 (4); consult options below before selecting course
6. CHM 200 (5) or 310 (5) or 330 (5); consult options below before selecting course
7. Complete requirements in one of the following options*:
 - a. General Biology (37-40 hours)
 1. Required courses: BIO 310 (5) or 320 (4), 369 (4)
 2. Complete courses in structural and functional biology totaling at least 6 hours from the following: BIO 355 (4), 361 (4), 380 (5), 511 (4), 515 (3), 517 (4), 520 (3), 540 (4), 544 (4), 546 (4), 560 (3), 567 (4), 571 (4)
 3. Complete courses in biodiversity totaling at least 6 hours from the following: BIO 334 (3), 339 (2), 370 (4), 371 (3), 374 (3), 530 (3), 531 (2), 545 (2), 573 (3), 574 (2), 575 (3), 576 (3), 577 (3); the following courses taught during the summer at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Mississippi: 534 (2), 535 (1), 555 (3), 556 (3), 587 (3), 588 (3)
 4. Complete courses in ecology totaling at least 6 hours from the following: BIO 373 (3), 436(4), 485 (1-3), 508 (3), 527 (1-4), 532 (3), 539 (2), 562 (4), 563 (3), 567 (4), 578 (4), 584 (2), 589 (3); the following courses taught during the summer at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Mississippi: 537 (2), 538 (2), 565 (3), 566 (2)
 5. Complete 0-8 additional hours of BIO courses to bring total to a minimum of 50 hours in Biology
 6. Related requirements in Mathematics, Statistics, or Computer programming: MTH 261 (5) or 287 (3) or 546 (3) or 547 (3) or CSC 125 (3) or 131 (4) or PSY 527(3)
 7. Related requirements in Chemistry: CHM 160 (4), 170 (3), 175 (2)
 - b. Ecology, Evolution, and Systematics (33-38 hours)
 1. Required courses: BIO 369 (4), 515 (3)
 2. Complete courses in biodiversity totaling at least 3 hours from the following: BIO 334 (3), 339 (2), 370 (4), 371 (3), 374 (3), 380 (5), 530 (3), 545 (2), 546 (4), 571 (4), 573 (3), 574 (2), 575 (3), 576 (3), 577 (3); the following courses taught during the summer at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Mississippi: BIO 534 (2), 535 (1), 555 (3), 556 (3), 587 (3), 588 (3)
 3. Complete courses in population biology totaling at least 3 hours from the following: BIO 436(4), 532 (3), 540 (4),

- 560 (3), 563 (3), 567 (4), 578 (4), 584 (2), 589 (3); the following courses taught during the summer at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Mississippi: BIO 557 (2), 558 (2)
4. Complete courses in community/ecosystem biology totaling at least 3 hours from the following: BIO 373 (3), 485 (1-3), 508 (3), 533 (3), 539 (2), 562 (4); the following courses taught during the summer at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Mississippi: 537 (2), 538 (2), 565 (3), 566 (2)
 5. Students must take at least one biology course with a substantial field component. A course used to satisfy this requirement also may be counted toward the biodiversity, population biology, and community/ecosystem biology concentration areas described above. Complete one of the following: BIO 370 (4), 374 (3), 436 (4), 527 (1-4), 562 (4), 574 (2), 575 (3), 576 (3), 577 (3), any biology course taught at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, any biology course taught at the SMSU Bull Shoals Field station or another field station (with the approval of your advisor)
 6. Complete 0-7 hours of elective BIO courses at the level of 300 or above to total a minimum of 43 hours in biology
 7. Complete one of the following: AGR 215 (3), ANT 227 (3), CHM 225 (3), CHM 480 (4), CHM 506 (3), GLG 110 (4), PHI 325 (3)
 8. Related requirements in Mathematics, Statistics, or Computer programming: MTH 261 (5) or 287 (3) or 546 (3) or 547 (3) or CSC 125 (3) or 131 (4) or PSY 527 (3)
 9. Related requirements in Chemistry: CHM 160 (4), 170 (3), 175 (2)
- c. Microbiology and Biotechnology (33-42 hours)
1. Required courses: BIO 310 (5), 320 (4)
 2. Complete 21 additional hours in BIO courses, with a minimum of 18 hours from the following: BIO 508 (3), 511 (4), 512 (3), 517 (4), 520 (3), 530 (3), 515 (3), BIO 540 (4); BMS 524 (3) may be substituted for one of these courses
 3. Related requirements in Chemistry: CHM 160 (4), 170 (3), 175 (2), 200 (5) or 310 (5) and 311 (5) or 312 (3), 350 (3) or 450 (3) and 550 (3)
- d. Organismal Biology (30-41 hours)
1. Required courses: BIO 310 (5) or 320 (4), 369 (4), 515 (3)
 2. Complete two courses in anatomy and physiology: BIO 361 (4), 380 (5), 544 (4), 546 (4), 567 (4), 571 (4)
 3. Complete a minimum of 2 hours in biodiversity: BIO 334 (3), 339 (2), 370 (4), 371 (3), 374 (3), 530 (3), 545 (2), 573 (3), 574 (2), 575 (3), 576 (3), 577 (3); the following courses taught during the summer at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs, Mississippi: BIO 534 (2), 535 (1), 555 (3), 556 (3), 587 (3), 588 (3)
 4. Complete elective 0-3 hours of BIO courses to total a minimum of 40 hours in Biology. One class from the following can be counted for this requirement: AGS 306 (3), BMS 582 (4), BMS 585 (4), PSY 336 (3), PSY 521 (3)
 5. Related requirements in Mathematics, Statistics, and Computer programming: MTH 261 (5) or 287 (3) or 546 (3) or 547 (3) or CSC 125 (3) or 131 (4) or PSY 527 (3)
 6. Related requirements in Chemistry: CHM 160 (4), 170 (3), 175 (2), 200 (5) or 310 (5) and 311 (5) or 312 (3), 350 (3) or 450 (3) and 550 (3)
- e. Wildlife Biology (30-47 hours)
1. Required courses: BIO 320 (4) or 361 (4), 369 (4)
 2. Complete two courses in plant biology from: BIO 334 (3), 339 (2), 530 (3), 544 (4), 545 (2), 546 (4)
 3. Complete three courses in animal biology from: BIO 370 (4), 371 (3), 374 (3), 380 (5), 571 (4), 573 (3), 574 (2), 575 (3), 576 (3), 577 (3)
 4. Complete a minimum of 5 hours in management from: BIO 373 (3), 485 (1-3), 532 (3), 562 (4), 589 (3)
 5. Complete two courses in ecology and evolution from: BIO 436 (4), 515 (3), 539 (2), 563 (3), 567 (4), 578 (4), 584 (2)
 6. Complete one course in human dimensions from the following: AGA 335 (3), CAS 210 (3), ECO 540 (3), GRY 108 (3), GRY 351 (2), PHI 302 (3), PLS 555 (3), RIL 537 (3)
 7. Complete one course in earth/environmental science: AGA 215 (3), CHM 225 (3), GLG 110 (4), GRY 142 (4)
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirement section of catalog)
- * With approval of advisor, up to 3 hours of the following can be substituted for one of the BIO courses listed in any option: 300, 399, 499, 597*

Biology (Non-Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major Requirements
1. BIO 121(4), 122(4), 235(4), 310(5) or 320(4), 369(4), 494(1), 550(3)
 2. Select elective courses in biology to total a minimum of 36 hours and include at least 12 hours of 300-level or above courses. Electives may be selected from one of the emphases listed under the Bachelor of Arts.
 3. Related Requirements: CHM 200(5) or 310(5) and 311(5) or 312(3); PHY 123(4) and 124(4) or PHY 203(5) and 204(5); MTH 261(5) or 287(3)
- C. Minor Required
- D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Pre-Professional Curriculum in Osteopathic Medicine

This program is an accelerated admissions program in cooperation with Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine (KCOM). The program is a seven-year program, entailing three years of undergraduate work at SMSU followed by four years at KCOM. Students considering this program should consult with the Pre-medical advisor in the Department of Biology to determine eligibility and to receive advice pertaining to application procedures.

By completing this option of approximately 100 hours, a student may apply for a B.S. degree in Biology from Southwest Missouri State University after successfully completing the first two years of the Osteopathic Medicine program at Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine.

- A. General Education Requirements 43-54
- B. Biology Requirements 36
- BIO 121(4)*, 122(4), 235(4), 310(5), 320(4), 361(4), 369(4), 494(1), 550(3), and elective course (3).
- C. Additional Science and Mathematics Requirements 30
- MTH 287(3), CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2), 310(5), 311(5), PHY 123(4)*, and PHY 124(4).
- D. Minor Required
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements
(see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog.)

May be included in General Education Requirements*

Unified Science – Biology

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Certifiable grades 9-12)

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)
- C. Major Requirements
 - 1. BIO 121(4), 122(4), 215(2), 235(4), 310(5), 361(4), 369(4), 515(3)
 - 2. Select elective courses in biology to total a minimum of 32 hours.
 - 3. Related Requirements: CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2); PHY 123(4) and 124(4) or PHY 203(5) and 204(5); PHY 505(3); MTH 135(3) (Note: MTH 145 cannot be substituted for MTH 135) plus 181(3) or MTH 138(5) or MTH 261(5) or MTH 287(3); GLG 110(4); GRY 135(4)
- D. Professional Education courses: SCI 414(3) and see College of Education/Secondary Education section
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Wildlife Conservation and Management

(Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

This major is offered in cooperation with the Agriculture Department.

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- Specific General Education Requirements: BIO 121(4); CHM 105(5) or 160(4); GLG 110(4); GRY 100(3); MTH 135(3) or 138(5)
- B. Major Requirements
 - 1. Agriculture Requirements:
 - a. AGA 105(3), 215(3), 335(3), 365(3) or 375(3); AGR 383(3); AGW 143(3), 496(1)
 - b. Select two courses (4-6 hours) from: AGA 485(3); AGB 354(2); AGH 333(3), 483(3); AGW 351(2)
 - 2. Biology Requirements:
 - a. BIO 121(4), 122(4), 334(3), BIO 339(2) or 545(2), 373(3)
 - b. Select one course from: BIO 369(4), 436(4), 562(4)
 - c. Select two courses from: BIO 573(3), 575(3), 577(3)
 - 3. Select ten additional hours in Agriculture and/or Biology. An advisor must be contacted to determine specific requirements that would result in eligibility to be placed on federal and state registries in Fisheries Biology, Social Science, Wildlife Biology, etc.
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Students who have completed BIO 134 and 167 combination are not required to take BIO 121 and 122; BIO 121 and 122 cannot count as degree credit if BIO 134 and 167 are counted as credit.*

Minors

Biology

Bachelor of Arts

BIO 121(4), 122(4), 235(4) and biology electives to total 15 hours.

Biology

Bachelor of Science

BIO 121(4), 122(4), 235(4), 369(4) and biology electives to total 20 hours.

Biology

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Non-Certifiable)

BIO 121(4), 122(4), 235(4), 320(4), 369(4) and biology electives to total 20 hours.

Certification

Health Education

(Certifiable grades 9-12)

Students who complete the Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a major in Biology may receive Missouri state certification in Health Education grades 9-12 by completing the following courses: BMS 307(4) or PED 250(3), BMS 308(4) or PED 252(3), or equivalents; CFD 163(3); CFS 130(3) or BMS 240(3); PED 253(2), 256(2), 257(2), 358(3); PSY 101(3); SWK 330(3); plus additional hours of electives in health-related courses, in consultation with their advisor, to bring total to 30 hours. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, student must have at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area which includes all courses listed above.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers majors in Biology and Plant Science. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in biology. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Biology Courses

BIO 100 Biological Science for Educators. 4(3-3) F,S.

An introduction to the unifying principles of biology and the processes of scientific investigation using an inquiry approach. Laboratory experiences model inquiry teaching methods appropriate for use in early childhood, elementary, and middle school science lessons. This course is open only to early childhood, elementary, middle school, and special education majors. Does not count for credit towards a major or minor in biology. Students receive credit towards graduation for only one of BIO 100, BIO 101, or BIO 102.

BIO 101 Biological Concepts. 3(3-0) F,S.

Lecture portion only of BIO 102. Does not count for general education credit for students who enter under the fall 1997 catalog or later. Does not count for credit towards a major or minor in biology. Students receive credit towards graduation for only one of BIO 100, 101, or 102.

BIO 102 Principles of Biological Science. 4(3-2) F,S.

Unifying principles of biology from the molecular level through ecosystems. Includes laboratory experience. Does not count for credit towards major or minor in biology. Students receive credit towards graduation for only one of BIO 100, 101, or 102.

BIO 121 General Biology I. 4(3-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for both ENG 110 and MTH 135. First half of 2-semester introductory biology sequence for biology majors and minors. Introduction to the concepts of biological structure and function at the molecular and cellular level, genetics, and evolution. This course may not be taken pass/not pass. A grade of C or better in this course is a prerequisite for enrollment in BIO 122.

BIO 122 General Biology II. 4(3-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 121. Second half of 2-semester introductory biology sequence for biology majors and minors. Introduction to the biology of organisms including evolutionary history, diversity, structure, and function of major taxa; and ecology. This course may not be taken pass/not pass. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take BIO 235, BIO 320, or BIO 369.

BIO 134 General Botany. 4(3-3) S.

Cytology, anatomy, physiology and heredity of seed plants; survey of plant kingdom, emphasizing taxonomy, morphology, evolution and ecology.

BIO 197 (160) Selected Topics in Biology. 1(1-0) or (0-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Course devoted to a biologic topic of current interest. Provided the topics are different, the course may be repeated to a total of 4 hours credit. Credit for this course cannot be applied to the minimum requirements of a major or minor in biology, nor the general education (natural sciences) requirement.

BIO 205 Life Science for Middle School. 2(1-3) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 100 or BIO 102. Processes of science using the inquiry approach with reference to society, technology, and decision-making. Content covers cellular biology, plant and animal structure and function, ecology and environmental biology. Does not count for credit towards major or minor in biology.

BIO 210 Elements of Microbiology. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 105 or CHM 160 and 4 credit hours of BIO courses. Public health aspects of microbiology, particularly causes and control of infectious diseases, immunology, sterilization and disinfection, and food and water bacteriology. A student who takes BIO 210 and BIO 310 receives credit toward graduation only for BIO 310.

BIO 215 Introduction to the Diversity of Life. 2(1-3) D.

Prerequisite: 4 hours of biology. Introduction to the diversity in structure and function of protists, fungi, plants and animals. This course is designed for B.S.Ed. students and does not count toward a B.A. or B.S. in Biology.

BIO 235 Principles of Genetics. 4(3-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122 and either MTH 135 or MTH 138 or MTH 261 or MTH 287. An introduction to basic concepts of molecular and Mendelian genetics and an inquiry into the basic processes of evolution.

BIO 269 Principles of Ecology. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 102 or BIO 121. A lecture/discussion course focusing on the relationships among organisms and their environment. It will emphasize broad ecological principles dealing with individual organisms, populations, and communities, and how these relate to a single interactive unit – the ecosystem. Does not count toward the major or minor in biology. A student who takes BIO 369 will not receive credit for this course.

BIO 300 Service Learning in Biology. 1, F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and permission, and concurrent registration in a Biology course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in biology to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; students should investigate possible placements, available through the Biology Department and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office, prior to registration. No more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation. A total maximum of 3 credit hours from any combination of BIO 300, 399, and 499 credit may be counted towards the major. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 310 Microbiology. 5(3-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 235 or BMS 230 and either CHM 200 or CHM 310. Fundamental principles of microbiology; development of sound laboratory skills. A student who takes BIO 210 and BIO 310 receives credit toward graduation only for BIO 310.

BIO 320 Introduction to Cellular Biology. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 235 or BMS 230 or permission; CHM 200 or 310. Introduction to the structure and function of cells with an emphasis on eukaryotes.

BIO 334 Plant Taxonomy. 3(2-3) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. Basic systematic principles, including the naming, classification, diversity, and evolution of angiosperms. Laboratory emphasis is on vegetative and reproductive morphology, use of taxonomic keys, and identification of common families and species of the local flora.

BIO 339 Identification of Woody Plants. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. A field course emphasizing the identification of woody plants (including some ornamentals) of the Interior Highlands of North America. Some consideration of forest communities and their distribution will also be included. Some Saturday field trips scheduled.

BIO 355 Developmental Biology. 4(3-2) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 235. An introduction to mechanistic embryology of selected vertebrate, invertebrate, and plant model systems. Lecture emphasis on fertilization, morphogenesis, cell surface roles in morphogenesis, cell motility, organogenesis, metamorphosis, regeneration, and neoplasia as a developmental system. Laboratory emphasis on the normal ontogenetic development of live animal and plant systems and the experimental modification of these systems.

BIO 361 General Physiology. 4(3-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 235. A study in animal biology that emphasizes the functional features of whole organisms including physiological regulations. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take BMS 363.

BIO 369 General Ecology. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122 and MTH 135 or higher. Introduction to the basic concepts of ecology. Cannot receive credit for both BIO 269 and BIO 369.

BIO 370 Invertebrate Zoology. 4(2-4) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. Biological principles exemplified by study of functional morphology, taxonomy and phylogeny of invertebrate phyla.

BIO 371 Introduction to Entomology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122 or permission. Introduction to insect structure and function with emphasis on comparative morphology, physiology, life history, behavior, and ecology.

BIO 373 Principles of Wildlife Management. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. This course considers ecological principles, conservation, and management policies for wild animals and habitats.

BIO 374 Field Zoology. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. Taxonomy, ecology and life histories of vertebrate animals with emphasis on local forms. Students taking two or more of the following courses cannot count the credit of this course for their degree: BIO 573, 575, 576 and 577.

BIO 380 Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy. 5(2-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. Vertebrate gross anatomy. Phylogeny and present status of organ systems of vertebrates. Shark, mud puppy and cat serve as principal sources for laboratory exercises.

BIO 398 Laboratory Internship in Biology. 1(0—3) F,S.

Prerequisite: B.S.Ed major in biology, BIO 310 and BIO 369, and permission of instructor. This course provides the opportunity to earn academic credit through supervised laboratory preparation and teaching. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 399 (390) Cooperative Education in Biology. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: acceptance into SMSU Cooperative Education Program and permission of department head. This course provides the opportunity to earn academic credit intergrated with a supervised work experience. Under the guidance of a faculty advisor, students will complete a work-related independent study project. This is a variable content course that may be repeated to a total of 6 semester hours. A maximum of 3 credit hours from any combination of BIO 300, 399 and 499 may be counted towards the biology major. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 436 (536) Plant Ecology. 4(2-4) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 or permission of instructor. The dynamics, structure, and distribution of plant populations and communities, with emphasis on interactions among plants, plants and other organisms, and plants and ecosystems. Laboratory emphasis on experimental studies in the greenhouse and field. Weekend field trip is required. BIO 436 may be taught concurrently with BIO 636. Students cannot receive credit for both BIO 436 and BIO 636.

BIO 485 Marine Conservation. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: BIO 102 or BIO 121. An overview of current issues related to the conservation and management of marine organisms, with emphasis on marine species and habitats exploited or endangered by human actions. BIO 485 may be taught concurrently with BIO 685. Students cannot receive credit for both BIO 485 and 685.

BIO 494 Senior Seminar. 1(1-0) S.

Prerequisite: 90 hours and biology major. Current issues in the biological sciences will be discussed and information on post-graduate opportunities for biology majors will be presented. Successful completion of the Major Field Achievement Test will be required. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 498 Honors Senior Project. 3, D.

Prerequisite: student must be a biology major and have junior standing and be a member of the Honors College and permission of instructor. The content of the project is determined by the honors student in consultation with a faculty member serving as project advisor and approved by the HC dean. The project can be started no earlier than the first semester of the junior year and must be completed before graduation. May be repeated to a total of 9 credit hours; a maximum of 3 credit hours may be counted toward the major in biology.

BIO 499 Special Topics in Biology. 1-3, F, S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Open only to biology majors having a GPA of 3.00 or better and 20 hours of biology courses. Outstanding students obtain additional experience through independent study. May be repeated to a total of 3 credit hours. A maximum of 3 credit hours from any combination of BIO 300, 399 and 499 may be counted towards the major. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 508 Environmental Microbiology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 210 or BIO 310. The study of the ecology of microorganisms and the applied use of microorganisms by man in the environment. Laboratory will emphasize current methods used in the field of environmental microbiology.

BIO 511 Immunology. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 210 or BIO 310. Fundamental principles of immunology. Lecture emphasis on the structure and function of antigens, antibodies, surface receptors, antigen-antibody interactions, other serologic reactions, immunoglobulin formation, cell responses, major histocompatibility complex, immunochemistry, immunogenetics, autoimmunity, immunosuppression, transplantation immunology and immunologic methods. Laboratory emphasis on immunologic techniques for investigative as well as clinical application.

BIO 512 Industrial Microbiology. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 210 or BIO 310. An introduction to the fundamental concepts of industrial and applied microbiology. The industrial production of proteins, metabolites, polymers, biocides, and vaccines will be discussed in addition to biotransformations and environmental applications. Production improvement strategies that employ both physical and modern molecular techniques will be introduced. Laboratory will emphasize the selection of industrially important microorganisms, the theory and operation of a fermentor for the production of proteins, antibiotics, and steroids, use of analytical equipment for monitoring product formation, enzymes analysis, downstream processing, and bioreactor construction and design.

BIO 515 (615) Evolution. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 235 and either MTH 135 or MTH 138. A survey of modern evolutionary biology, including the evidence that supports the theory of evolution, the natural processes that cause evolution, patterns and mechanisms of speciation, and methods for estimating evolutionary relationships.

BIO 517 Microbial Physiology and Metabolism. 4(2-4) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 210 or BIO 310 and either CHM 200 or CHM 310. Physiology and anatomy of microorganisms including adaptive responses to environmental changes and microbial metabolic diversity will be discussed. Laboratory will emphasize selective isolation and identification of microorganisms, the growth dynamics of microorganisms, and responses by microorganisms to environmental changes.

BIO 520 Pathogenic Microbiology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 210 or BIO 310. Fundamental principles of pathogenic microbiology; transmission, infection and control of the pathogen. Laboratory emphasis on clinical procedures in diagnostic microbiology.

BIO 527 Field Biology. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Field work during an extended field trip to a specific region of North America to familiarize the student with the flora and/or fauna of that region. Course is scheduled irregularly during academic breaks and may be preceded by several lectures in preparation for the trip. An incidental fee may be charged; cost will vary. May be repeated to a total of 6 credits with a maximum of 2 credits to be applied to the major in biology.

BIO 530 Phycology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 369. The structure, function, ecological significance, and diversity of algae. Emphasis will be placed on field studies, isolation and growth, and physiological characteristics.

BIO 531 Economic Botany. 2(2-0) FE.

Prerequisite: BIO 102 or BIO 121. Distribution and origin of plants which yield food, poison, drugs, spices, fibers, oils and other products generally used by man. Methods of preparations and analysis of products and ingredients.

BIO 532 Principles of Fisheries Management. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 or BIO 373. Life history, population ecology, and management of exploited freshwater and marine species. Scientific sampling and analysis of fishery populations. Characterization, history, and management principles for representative commercial and recreational fisheries.

BIO 533 Wetland Ecology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 and either CHM 105 or CHM 160. The composition, structure, function, and importance of wetland ecosystems. Comparisons of different wetland types, hydrology, nutrient cycles, plants and animals and their adaptations, and conservation strategies.

BIO 539 Biogeography. 2(2-0) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. Study of patterns of distribution of organisms in space and in time.

BIO 540 Applications of Molecular Markers. 4(2-4) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 235 and permission. Introduction to the use of molecular markers in biological research. Topics covered include methods for identifying genetic variation at the molecular level (protein electrophoresis, automatic DNA sequencing, RAPDs, RFLPs, AFLPs, microsatellites) and their applications to research in systematics, ecology, evolution, conservation biology, forensics, and gene mapping. Students will complete research projects using one or more of the techniques learned.

BIO 544 (344) Plant Physiology. 4(3-2) D.

Recommended: CHM 200 or CHM 310. Basic chemical and physical principles of plant function considering water relationships, nutrient transport, mineral nutrition, photosynthesis, respiration, and phytohormones.

BIO 545 Agrostology. 2(1-2) FO.

Prerequisite: BIO 334. Identification of local, native and economically important grasses.

BIO 546 Plant Morphology. 4(2-4) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 121 and BIO 122. A study of the form, structure, and evolution of plants.

BIO 550 Biometry. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 235 and eligibility for MTH 261. Scientific methodology, experimental design, statistical analysis, and data interpretation applied to biological questions.

BIO 551 Advanced Biometry. 2(1-2) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 550. The design and analysis of biological experiments, with an emphasis on the choice and interpretation of inferential statistics. Topics covered include causal inference, statistical power, general linear models, repeated measures designs, log-linear models, nonparametric procedures, and computer-intensive techniques. The use of computer software to analyze real data sets from the biological literature is emphasized.

BIO 560 Population Genetics and Evolutionary Mechanisms. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 515 and BIO 550. The theory of genetic variation in populations, with emphasis on quantitative description of the mechanisms of biological evolution.

BIO 562 Limnology. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 and either CHM 105 or CHM 170 and CHM 175. Physical, chemical, biological functions of freshwater ecosystems. Laboratory includes mapping, lake models, water chemistry, and surveys of taxonomic diversity. Two all-day Saturday labs plus one weekend field trip required.

BIO 563 Population Ecology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 and eligibility for MTH 261. Discussion of factors controlling the distribution and abundance of populations. Quantitative description of population dynamics is emphasized.

BIO 567 Physiological Ecology. 4(4-0) SE.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 and either BIO 361 or BIO 544 or BMS 308. Physiological adaptations of plants and animals to environmentally stressful conditions and to ecological/evolutionary pressures.

BIO 571 Comparative Animal Physiology. 4(3-3) SO.

Prerequisite: BIO 361 or BMS 308. Organ/system function in a wide range of invertebrate and vertebrate animals.

BIO 573 (276) Ornithology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: 12 hours of biology. Taxonomy, distribution, life histories and ecology of birds; emphasis on Missouri forms. Early morning field trips required.

BIO 574 Aquatic Entomology. 2(1-3) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 371 or graduate status. Aquatic insects, ecology and taxonomy with emphasis on field applications.

BIO 575 Ichthyology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: 12 hours in biology. Taxonomy, distribution, life histories and ecology of fish with emphasis on Missouri forms.

BIO 576 Herpetology. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: 12 hours in biology. Taxonomy, distribution, life histories and ecology of amphibians and reptiles with emphasis on Missouri forms. One weekend field trip required.

BIO 577 Mammalogy. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: 12 hours in biology. Taxonomy, distribution, life histories and ecology of mammals with emphasis on Missouri forms. One weekend field trip required.

BIO 578 Behavioral Ecology. 4(3-2) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 and BIO 550, or permission of instructor. Fundamental principles of animal behavior with an emphasis on the study of the ecological and evolutionary processes that influence behavior.

BIO 584 Fish Ecology. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 and BIO 575. The biology of fishes in relation to environmental conditions at the individual, population, and community levels.

BIO 589 Game Management. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 373. Management of game birds and mammals for recreational utilization.

BIO 597 (598) Topics in Biology. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. A variable content course to provide for the offering of selected topics in biology on a one time or first-time basis. May be repeated for credit when topic varies.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

BIO 610 Topics in Microbial Physiology. 3(3-0) S.

Topics of interest in microbial physiology will be discussed. These may include, cell structure, energy production, fermentation, nitrogen metabolism, protein and nucleic acid syntheses, regulation of gene expression, and dynamics of cell growth. Lecture will supplement discussion sessions.

BIO 612 Advanced Immunology. 2(2-0) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 511. Cellular aspects of the immune system.

BIO 622 Regulatory Mechanisms in Microorganisms. 2(2-0) S. Regulation of macromolecular synthesis and enzyme activity in bacteria and viruses.

BIO 625 Advanced Limnology. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 562. Advanced concepts of biological, chemical and physical limnology. Recent symposia, reviews, and primary literature are discussed.

BIO 626 Advanced Limnology Methods. 2(0-4) D.

Prerequisite: BIO 562. Research and practical application of modern limnological methods are taught.

BIO 628 Recent Advances in Biology. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics in biology to be discussed using original literature as the focal point. May be repeated when topic varies. Variable Content Course.

BIO 630 Advanced Topics in Biology. 1-4, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Individual study in biology; may include literature, field and/or laboratory work. May be repeated.

BIO 634 Advanced Plant Taxonomy. 4(2-4) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Philosophy and principles of modern taxonomic procedures.

BIO 636 Plant Ecology. 4(2-4) F.

Prerequisite: BIO 369 or permission of instructor. The dynamics, structure, and distribution of plant populations and communities, with emphasis on interactions among plants, plants and other organisms, and plants and ecosystems. Laboratory emphasis on experimental mental studies in the greenhouse and field. Weekend field trip is required. BIO 436 may be taught concurrently with BIO 636. Students cannot receive credit for both BIO 436 and BIO 636.

BIO 660 Topics in the Teaching of Biology. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Biological concepts, information, practical experiences, and use of resource materials in the elementary and secondary classroom. May be repeated when topic varies. Variable Content Course.

BIO 661 Environmental Science for Educators. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Discussion of environmental issues, practical experiences in teaching environmental concepts, and awareness of environmental resource materials for the formal and nonformal classroom setting.

BIO 667 Advanced Vertebrate Zoology. 3(2-2) D.

Evolutionary relationships of living and extinct vertebrates; analysis of geographic distribution and adaptive radiation. Includes field/lab experiences to be arranged.

BIO 680 Vertebrate Anatomy and Evolution. 2(2-0) F,S.
Vertebrate gross anatomy. Phylogeny and present status of organ systems in vertebrates.

BIO 685 Marine Conservation. 1-3, D.

An overview of current issues related to the conservation and management of marine organisms, with emphasis on marine species and habitats exploited or endangered by human actions. BIO 485 may be taught concurrently with BIO 685. Students cannot receive credit for both BIO 485 and 685.

BIO 690 Degree Paper. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. Extensive paper on selected topics. Exclusively satisfies requirements for non-thesis option, which also requires one BIO 690 paper to be presented orally to the department. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 694 Scientific Writing. 2(2-0) F.

Organization and methods in scientific writing. Included are discussions of literature searching, scientific methodology, experimental design, proposal writing, figure preparation, editing and oral presentation. Recommended for graduate students in biology, preferably during the first year of graduate study.

BIO 698 Research. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. Supervised research in special biology areas. May be repeated, but no more than 6 hours may be counted as credit towards the M.S. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

BIO 699 Thesis. 1-6 D.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. Independent study connected with preparation of thesis. May be repeated, but no more than 6 hours may be counted as credit towards the M.S. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

Marine Biology Courses at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory

Under a contract between Southwest Missouri State University and Gulf Coast Research Laboratory at Ocean Springs, Mississippi, students can enroll for summer courses in marine biology taught at the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory at Ocean Springs, Mississippi. See Biology department head or your advisor for information on these courses.

BIO 277 Marine Science II: Marine Biology. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: 8 hours biology. A general introduction to marine biology with emphasis on local fauna and flora. Recommended for students considering a career in any phase of Oceanography. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 278 required.

BIO 278 Marine Science II: Marine Biology Lab. 2(0-4) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 277. Laboratory portion of BIO 277.

BIO 521 Marine Science for Teachers I. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: 12 hours in biology. A course designed to introduce students, particularly inservice teachers, to the study of marine science and to promote the teaching of marine biology at all grade levels. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 522 is required.

BIO 522 Marine Science for Teachers I Lab. 1(0-2) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 521. Laboratory portion of BIO 521.

BIO 534 Coastal Vegetation. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: 10 hours of biology including BIO 121 and BIO 122. A broad study of the general and specific aspects of coastal vegetation, with emphasis on local examples. Vegetational composition, variation, succession, climax, and distribution. Includes aerial techniques, plant identification, delineation of vegetational types and mapping. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 535 required.

BIO 535 Coastal Vegetation Lab. 1(0-2) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 534. Laboratory portion of BIO 534.

BIO 537 (564) Salt Marsh Plant Ecology. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: BIO 122 or BIO 134; and BIO 334; and BIO 544; and BIO 369. A study with emphasis on the botanical aspects of local marshes; includes plant identification, composition, structure, distribution, and development of coastal marshes. Biological and physical interrelationships. Primary productivity and relation of marshes to estuaries and associated fauna. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 538 required.

BIO 538 Salt Marsh Plant Ecology Lab. 2(0-4) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 537. Laboratory portion of BIO 537.

BIO 555 Marine Ichthyology. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: junior standing; 16 hours of biology including BIO 121, BIO 122, BIO 235, and BIO 380. This course provides the student with a strong general background in the biology of marine fishes. Emphasis placed on the principles involved in the classification and taxonomy of marine and estuarine fishes. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 556 required.

BIO 556 Marine Ichthyology Lab. 3(0-6) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 555. Laboratory portion of BIO 555.

BIO 557 (579) Marine Fisheries Management. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. A course designed to familiarize students with practical marine fisheries management problems in today's real world. Covers the international and local, economic, social, legal, and political, as well as biological factors that are considered in decisions directed toward achieving optimum sustainable yield from marine resources. The history of management schemes, sources of information, current status of fishing technology, management methods, legal problems and educational needs are explored. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 558 required.

BIO 558 Marine Fisheries Management Lab. 2(0-4) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 557. Laboratory portion of BIO 557.

BIO 565 Marine Ecology. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: 16 hours of biology, including BIO 121 and BIO 122. A consideration of the relationship of marine organisms to their environment includes the effects of temperature, salinity, light, nutrient concentration, currents, and food on the abundance and distribution of marine organisms. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 566 required.

BIO 566 Marine Ecology Lab. 2(0-4) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 565. Laboratory portion of BIO 565.

BIO 587 (582) Marine Invertebrate Zoology. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: 16 hours in biology. A concentrated study of the free-living marine and estuarine invertebrates of Mississippi Sound and adjacent bayous, salt marshes, barrier islands, and the nearshore continental shelf of the northeastern Gulf of Mexico. Course emphasizes structure, classification, phylogenetic relationships, larval development, functional processes, and ecological aspects of Gulf of Mexico invertebrates and their natural assemblages. Advanced undergraduates and graduate students may be asked to conduct independent, short-term research projects during the course. Concurrent enrollment in BIO 588 required.

BIO 588 Marine Invertebrate Zoology Lab. 3(0-6) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in BIO 587. Laboratory portion of BIO 587.

ACS Certification

The Chemistry Department has been approved to offer a certified program of professional training. The comprehensive major meets all the requirements for certification. This major is recommended for students who plan graduate work in chemistry or plan to enter chemical industry after graduation.

General Education Courses

CHM 105, 106, 107, or 160 may be used toward the Natural World Area of Inquiry of the General Education Requirements.

Notes and Restrictions

CHM 197 and 106 do not count toward a major or minor in any physical science program.

For major and minor programs, courses taken more than 10 years before graduation are subject to review and possible rejection by the chemistry staff.

Recommended schedules for a chemistry major listing the courses to be taken each semester are available in the departmental office.

Majors

Chemistry (Non-Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. CHM 160(4)*, 170(3), 175(2), 310(5), 311(5), 330(5), 375(3), 398(1); 480(4) or 506(3) and 507(3) and 508(2); 498(1), 502(4); and one hour from CHM 397, 399 or 499
2. Chemistry electives (8-10 hours) from one of the following categories:
 - a. For a basic chemistry program without a specific area of emphasis, at least eight hours from CHM 350(3), 376(2), 399 or 499 (2-3), 425(3), 509(2)
 - b. For students with a strong interest in environmental chemistry: CHM 425(3), 426(3), 427(2)
 - c. For students with a strong interest in biochemistry or premedicine: CHM 450(3), 451(2), 550(3), 551(2)
 - d. For a specific area of interest not included in categories a, b, or c: at least nine hours of chemistry courses numbered 300 or above selected in consultation with the student's academic advisor and approved by the department head.
3. Related science and mathematics requirements: MTH 261* and 280(10) or MTH 261* and 288(8) or MTH 287* and 288(6); PHY 123* and 124(8) or PHY 203* and 204(10)

Will count toward General Education Requirements*

C. Minor Required

D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Chemistry (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. CHM 160(4)*, 170(3), 175(2), 310(5), 311(5), 330(5), 375(3), 398(1), 450(3), 498(1), 506(3), 507(3), 508(2), 525(3), 531(4)
2. Related science and mathematics requirements: MTH 287* and 288(6) or MTH 261* and 280(10) or MTH 261* and 288(8); PHY 123* and 124(8) or PHY 203* and 204(10); Recommended CSC 111(3)*
3. Complete requirements in one of the following emphases:
 - a. Graduate School Emphasis: This program is designed for students preparing for graduate study in chemistry. Required courses: CHM 376(2), 499(1-3), 509(2); Select one: CHM 514(3), 545(3), 570(3) or 550(3) Suggested electives: one year foreign language
 - b. Industrial Emphasis: This program is designed for students preparing for industrial positions upon completion of the B.S. degree, but who wish to be prepared for future entry into graduate school. Required courses: CHM 376(2), 509(2), 514 or 545(3), four hours selected from 397(2), 399(1-3), 499(1-3)
 - c. Biochemistry Emphasis: This program is designed for students preparing for a career in medicine or graduate study in biochemistry. Required courses: CHM 399(1-3) or 499(1-3), 451(2), 550(3), 551(2); BIO 134(4) or 121(4)*, 235(4), 320(4) Suggested electives: BIO 310(5). Premedical students should also take courses in anatomy and physiology.

Will count toward General Education Requirements*

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog).

Pre-Professional Curriculum in Osteopathic Medicine

This program is an accelerated admissions program in cooperation with Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine (KCOM). The program is a seven-year program, entailing three years of undergraduate work at SMSU followed by four years at KCOM. Students considering this program should consult with the Pre-medical advisor in the Department of Chemistry to determine eligibility and to receive advice pertaining to application procedures.

By completing this option of approximately 100 hours, a student may apply for a B.S. degree in Chemistry from Southwest Missouri State University after successfully completing the first two years of the Osteopathic Medicine program at Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine.

- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Minors

Chemistry Bachelor of Arts Bachelor of Science

CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2), and 200(5) or 310(5). Select electives numbered 200 or above to total 20 hours. The minor must include a minimum of 5 hours of course work numbered 300 or above.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers majors in Chemistry and Plant Science. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in chemistry. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Master of Science degree in Chemistry

Eligible SMSU majors in chemistry may apply for preliminary acceptance into the Master of Science degree in Chemistry after admission requirements for the accelerated masters option have been satisfied. If accepted, undergraduate courses chosen from CHM 507, 525, 531, and 545, may be counted towards both undergraduate and graduate degrees with a maximum of 12 credit hours counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degree. This option offers an opportunity for chemistry majors with undergraduate laboratory research experience to complete the requirements for the Master of Science degree in Chemistry in two semesters and a summer after attaining the bachelors degree rather than the typical four semesters and a summer. Contact the Department of Chemistry for further information and guidelines. See the Graduate Catalog for further details.

Chemistry Courses

CHM 105 Fundamentals of Chemistry. 5(4-2) F.S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 103 or higher. Emphasis on chemical fundamentals and applications. Recommended for students needing only one semester of general chemistry. (CHM 105 will not count toward a chemistry major or minor.) Course does satisfy prerequisite for CHM 200. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 200. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 106 Fundamentals of Chemistry. 4(4-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 103 or higher. Same course as CHM 105 except it does not include a laboratory component. Emphasis on chemical fundamentals and applications. Recommended for students needing only one semester of introductory chemistry. (CHM 106 will not count toward a chemistry major or minor.) Students may not receive credit for both CHM 105 and 106. Students should be aware that CHM 106 may not satisfy the chemistry requirement for other majors.

CHM 107 Chemistry for the Citizen. 4(3-2) F.S.

A one semester course for the nonscience major. Principal concepts and applications of chemistry are presented. The course looks at both the beneficial side of chemical usage and the problems associated with chemical production and usage. The course provides information needed for a better understanding of environmental concerns, the chemical industry, consumer products and our alternate sources and storage of energy.

CHM 160 General Chemistry I. 4(4-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 135 or higher. Emphasis on fundamental and theoretical concepts of chemistry. Recommended for all science majors, chemistry majors and minors, and most preprofessional students. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 170 or CHM 200. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 170 General Chemistry II. 3(3-0) F.S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 160 or permission. Emphasis on reaction kinetics, chemical equilibrium, precipitation reactions, acid-base theory and oxidation-reduction reactions. Concurrent registration in CHM 175 is highly recommended. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 310, 350 or 506. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 175 General Chemistry Laboratory. 2(0-4) F.S.

Prerequisite: CHM 170 or concurrent enrollment. An introduction to laboratory chemistry, including synthesis, physical studies, qualitative and quantitative analysis, and data manipulation and interpretation. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 310 or 330. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 197 (101) Chemical Topics. 1-3, F.S.

For non-science majors: a single topic of contemporary, historical or theoretical significance. Topics may vary each semester; course may be repeated any number of times provided the same topic is not retaken. Variable Content Course.

CHM 200 Essentials of Organic Chemistry. 5(4-3) F.S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in either CHM 105 or CHM 160. Principles of organic chemistry and biochemistry. Does not apply toward a chemistry major or minor if the student passes CHM 310. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 350. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 225 Principles of Environmental Chemistry. 3(3-0) SE.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 105 or CHM 160. An introduction to chemical processes occurring in the atmosphere, natural waters and soil. Sources of pollution, effects and remediation strategies are emphasized.

CHM 240 Glass Working. 1(0-2) D.

Prerequisite: CHM 170. Instruction and practice in glass-working techniques needed to make simple apparatus.

CHM 300 Service Learning in Chemistry. 1, F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and permission, and concurrent registration in a chemistry course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in chemistry to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; students should investigate possible placements, available through the Chemistry Department and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office, prior to registration. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

CHM 305 Investigation in Chemistry for Teachers. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: 15 hours of chemistry or permission. Techniques of performing science investigation with application to secondary and junior high science.

CHM 310 Organic Chemistry I. 5(4-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in both CHM 170 and CHM 175. Systematic coverage of reactions and properties of organic compounds. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 311, CHM 312 or CHM 350. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 311 Organic Chemistry II. 5(4-3) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 310 or permission. Continuation of CHM 310. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 545. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 312 Organic Chemistry II. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 310 or permission. Continuation of the lecture part of CHM 310. (Identical to lecture part of CHM 311.) A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 545. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 330 Quantitative Analysis. 5(3-6) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 170 and CHM 175. Gravimetric and volumetric analyses are studied; representative analyses are performed in laboratory.

CHM 350 Introduction to Biochemistry. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in either CHM 200 or CHM 310. Recommended: BIO 121 or BMS 110. Essentials of biochemistry; chemistry and metabolism of biologically important compounds. Does not apply to a chemistry major or minor if the student passes CHM 450.

CHM 351 Introduction to Biochemistry Laboratory. 2(0-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 350 or concurrent registration in CHM 350. Introduction to modern biochemical techniques including buffer preparation, chromatographic separations and spectrophotometric analysis of biomolecules. CHM 351 and 451 cannot both be applied toward a chemistry major or minor.

CHM 375 Intermediate Inorganic Chemistry. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 170. Structure of atoms, introduction to bonding, symmetry in chemistry, inorganic spectroscopy, and descriptive inorganic chemistry. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 525. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 376 (526) Inorganic Preparation. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 375. Synthesis of inorganic compounds and measurements of physical and chemical properties of selected inorganic compounds.

CHM 397 (380) Cooperative Education in Chemistry. 2, F,S.

Prerequisite: acceptance into SMSU Cooperative Education Program and permission. A combination of supervised work experience in an industrial or governmental laboratory and academic training. This is a variable content course that may be repeated to a total of 6 semester hours.

CHM 398 (395) Chemical Symposium. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 18 hours of chemistry. Introduction to scientific communication, both written and oral, career preparation and current trends in chemical research. Does not count toward a chemistry minor.

CHM 399 Undergraduate Investigations. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Individual investigation of a chemical problem. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

CHM 425 Environmental Chemistry I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 200 or 311; "C" or better in CHM 330; or permission from the department head. Chemistry of pollution. Sources, effects, detection and abatement of pollutants in air, water and soil.

CHM 426 Environmental Chemistry II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 425. Continuation of CHM 425.

CHM 427 Environmental Chemistry Laboratory. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 425. Techniques and procedures for environmental monitoring to test natural samples. Applications and limitations of wet chemical and instrumental methods such as atomic absorption, gas chromatography, absorption spectrophotometry.

CHM 428 Environmental Analysis. 1(0-2) S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 425. Techniques and procedures for environmental analysis of natural water samples with an emphasis on wet chemical methods. Students may not receive credit for both CHM 427 and CHM 428.

CHM 450 Biochemistry I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in either CHM 311 or CHM 312. Recommended: BIO 121 or BMS 110. Structure and function of biomolecules: proteins, enzymes, nucleic acids, carbohydrates, lipids and membranes.

CHM 451 Biochemistry Laboratory I. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: CHM 450 or concurrent registration. A series of multidimensional biochemical experiments designed to explore the biochemical literature, scientific report writing, and the biochemical techniques used to isolate and study biomolecules. CHM 351 and 451 cannot both be applied toward a chemistry major or minor.

CHM 480 Fundamentals of Physical Chemistry. 4(3-3) S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 330 and; "C" or better in either MTH 287 or MTH 261. A one semester introduction to physical chemistry including the following topics: thermodynamics, solution chemistry, electrochemistry, kinetics, and atomic and molecular structure. Laboratory experiments will illustrate principles of physical chemistry and techniques of analysis. Does not apply to a Chemistry major or minor if the student passes CHM 506.

CHM 498 (495) Senior Seminar. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: senior status chemistry major. Continuation of CHM 398. Successful completion of the chemistry assessment test will be required.

CHM 499 Advanced Undergraduate Research. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: CHM 506 and CHM 508 and permission of instructor. Individual research problems in chemistry. A written report is required for this course. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

CHM 502 Techniques of Instrumental Analysis. 4(3-3) F.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in either CHM 200 or CHM 310 and; "C" or better in CHM 330. Recommended: PHY 124 or PHY 204. Applications of instrumental methods for the separation and analysis of materials; included are potentiometry, photometry and chromatography. Does not apply to a Chemistry major or minor if the student passes CHM 531.

CHM 506 Physical Chemistry I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 170; MTH 280 or MTH 288 (or concurrent enrollment in MTH 280 or MTH 288). Recommended: PHY 124 or PHY 204. Chemical thermodynamics; kinetic theory of gases. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take CHM 507. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

CHM 507 Physical Chemistry II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 506. Recommended: CHM 375. Continuation of CHM 506. Kinetics, quantum theory and spectroscopy.

CHM 508 Beginning Physical Chemistry Laboratory. 2(0-4) F. Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 330; "C" or better in CHM 506 (or concurrent enrollment in CHM 506). Experiments in physical chemistry employing basic principles and experimental techniques.

CHM 509 Intermediate Physical Chemistry Laboratory. 2(0-4) S. Prerequisite: CHM 507 or concurrent registration. Intermediate experiments in physical chemistry combining basic principles.

CHM 514 Polymer Chemistry. 3(3-0) SE.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 311 or CHM 312 and; either CHM 480 or CHM 506; or permission from department head. Morphology and chemical structure, polymer characterization, chemical structure and polymer properties, vinyl and nonvinyl polymers and mechanism of formation. Inorganic and partially inorganic polymers.

CHM 525 Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 375; CHM 507 (or concurrent enrollment in CHM 507). Theories and techniques of modern inorganic chemistry; correlation of theories with inorganic compounds.

CHM 531 Advanced Analytical Methods. 4(3-3) F.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 330 and CHM 507. Principles and techniques of modern instrumental methods used in chemical analysis.

CHM 545 Advanced Organic Chemistry. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in CHM 311 or 312 and 480 or 506, or permission. Structure, reaction mechanisms, stereochemistry and other topics of theoretical nature in organic and polymer chemistry.

CHM 550 Biochemistry II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CHM 450 and; either CHM 480 or CHM 506; or permission from department head. Bioenergetics—Metabolism of biomolecules including carbohydrates, lipids, amino acids and nucleotides. Photosynthesis. Nitrogen metabolism. Mechanisms of hormone action.

CHM 551 Advanced Biochemistry Laboratory. 2(0-4) D.

Prerequisite: CHM 550 (or concurrent enrollment in CHM 550). Emphasis on modern techniques in the biochemistry laboratory; enzymology, protein purification and analysis; protein structure determination; isoelectric focusing; HPLC; trace techniques.

CHM 570 Chemical Bonding. 3(3-0) FE.

Prerequisite: CHM 507 or permission from department head. Quantum mechanics; atomic and molecular structure; computational procedures. Independent study project required.

CHM 597 (501) Special Topics in Chemistry. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 18 hours of chemistry or instructor permission. Selected topics of a theoretical or applied nature. May be repeated up to a total of 6 hours with differing topics.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

CHM 600 Chemistry Colloquium. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: admission to MS in Chemistry program or permission from department head. A series of oral presentations on new developments in chemistry. Presentations to be made by faculty members, students, and guest speakers from industry and academe. One of the requirements of this course is an oral presentation. May be repeated, but not more than 2 hours of CHM 600 may be counted toward the 32-hour requirement for the MS degree.

CHM 601 Chemistry Seminar. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: admission to MS in Chemistry program or permission from department head. Attendance at oral presentations on new developments in chemistry. Presentations may include those made by departmental faculty members, departmental graduate students, guest speakers from industry and academe and ACS tour speakers. All graduate students not enrolled in CHM 600 must be enrolled in CHM 601. Hours earned will not count toward the 32 required for the MS Chemistry degree. Graded pass/not pass only.

CHM 610 Special Topics in Chemical Education. 1-3, D. Prerequisite: college work sufficient to meet Missouri certification standards in chemistry for secondary teaching or permission. A single topic of current interest in the teaching of chemistry will be considered. May be repeated to a total of 9 hours provided the topics are different.

CHM 615 Chemistry of Environmental Systems. 3(3-0) FO.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor or department head. Advanced study of the chemistry of clean and polluted natural environmental systems, including the atmosphere, the hydrosphere, and the lithosphere.

CHM 620 Topics in Theoretical Chemistry I. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: college work sufficient to meet Missouri certification standards in chemistry for secondary teaching or permission. Nature of matter including atomic structure, chemical bonding and spectroscopy.

CHM 625 Organometallic Chemistry. 3(3-0) FE.

Prerequisite: CHM 525. An in-depth examination of the structure, properties, and reactions of molecules containing one or more metal atoms bonded to organic fragments.

CHM 630 Topics in Theoretical Chemistry II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: college work sufficient to meet Missouri certification standards in chemistry for secondary teaching or permission. Chemical changes, including energy changes in reactions, reaction rates and mechanisms and equilibrium.

CHM 631 Advanced Techniques in Chemical Analysis. 3(3-0) SO.

Prerequisite: CHM 531 or permission. Advanced topics in modern instrumental analysis, instrumentation, and methods, including data acquisition methods, data manipulation and analysis, and electronics.

CHM 640 Seminar. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Extensive paper on selected topics to be read before staff seminars. May be repeated to total 4 hours. Satisfies requirements for Option II.

CHM 645 Physical Organic Chemistry. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CHM 545. An in-depth study of the experimental techniques and physical principles used for the determination of organic reaction mechanisms.

CHM 650 Advanced Topics in Biochemistry. 3(3-0) SO.

Prerequisite: CHM 550. An advanced topic in biochemistry will be addressed via faculty lectures and student projects. Examples of proposed topics include: carbohydrates, the cell surface, and physical biochemistry. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with differing topics. Variable Content Course.

CHM 670 Chemical Kinetics. 3(3-0) FO.

Prerequisite: CHM 507. Fundamental concepts of chemical kinetics and dynamics, from both macroscopic and molecular level perspectives. An emphasis will be placed on the interpretation of gas, liquid, surface and catalyst reaction kinetics and mechanisms.

CHM 690 Advanced Topics in Chemistry. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: recommendation of student's advisory committee. Detailed treatment of various advanced topics in chemistry. Topics may include: water analysis, physical chemistry of macromolecules, chemistry of natural products, surface chemistry, and forensic chemistry. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with differing topics. Variable Content Course.

CHM 698 Research. 1-4 F,S.

Prerequisite: admission to MS in Chemistry program or permission from department head. Supervised research in special chemistry areas. May be repeated, but not more than 6 hours of CHM 698 may be counted toward the 32-hour requirement for the MS degree.

CHM 699 Thesis. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: admission to MS in Chemistry program or permission from department head. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis. Not more than 6 hours of CHM 699 may be counted toward the 32-hour requirement for the MS degree.

General Education Courses

CSC 101 or 111, will satisfy the Computers for Learning requirement for General Education. Students may take a proficiency test to determine if they already possess the computer-related knowledge and skills comprising the Computers for Learning requirement. Those who pass the test will be excused from, but will not receive credit for, the Computers for Learning requirement. Contact the Department of Computer Science for further information.

Majors

Computer Science (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

This major has been accredited by the Computer Science Accreditation Commission.

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. CSC 131(4), 232(4), 285(4), 324(3), 325(3), 326(3), 421(3), 450(3), 460(4), 482(1)
2. Select 18 additional hours from eligible CSC courses numbered 300 or above with at least 12 hours from courses other than CSC 399 and 596.
3. Related science and mathematics requirements*: MTH 261(5), 280(5), 315(3), 345(3) or 540(3); PHY 203(5), 204(5), 220(4), 324(4); and one of the following courses: BIO 121(4), BMS 110(5), CHM 160(4), GLG 110(4), GRY 135(4), GRY 142(4)

* Counts toward General Education Requirements

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Computer Science (Non-Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

This major has been accredited by the Computer Science Accreditation Commission.

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. CSC 131(4), 232(4), 285(4), 324(3), 325(3), 326(3), 421(3), 450(3), 460(4), 482(1)
2. Select nine additional hours from eligible CSC courses numbered 300 or above with at least six hours from courses other than CSC 399 and 596.
3. Related science and mathematics requirements*: MTH 261(5), 280(5), 315(3), 345(3) or 540(3); PHY 203(5), 204(5), 220(4), 324(4); and one of the following courses: BIO 121(4), BMS 110(5), CHM 160(4), GLG 110(4), GRY 135(4), GRY 142(4)

* Counts toward General Education Requirements

C. Minor Required (NOTE: The major requirements for Computer Science automatically satisfy the requirements for a minor in Mathematics, and all but two hours of the requirements for a minor in Physics.)

D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minor

Computer Science Bachelor of Science

CSC 130(3), 131(4), 232(4) and six additional hours from eligible CSC courses numbered 280 or above except CSC 399 and 596.

Computer Science Courses

CSC 101 Computers for Learning. (Identical with CIS 101) 2(1-2) F,S.

Fundamental computer concepts including word processing, spreadsheets, accessing information and the responsible use of information and technology. Course may be waived by proficiency exam.

CSC 111 Introduction to Computing. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: eligible for MTH 261. An introduction to computer hardware, software, and network resources relevant to the science major. Spreadsheets, word processing, databases, and computer-based mathematical software will be emphasized.

CSC 121 Introduction to BASIC Programming. 3(3-0) S.

Problem solving with computers, analysis of computational problems and development of algorithms for their solution. Algorithms will be implemented in the BASIC language utilizing personal computers.

CSC 125 Introduction to C++ Programming. 3(3-0) F.

Programming and problem-solving using C++. Language constructs for assignment, flow control, input/output and functions are studied and applied. Techniques of object-oriented programming are introduced.

CSC 130 The World of Computer Science. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 101 or CSC 111 or CIS 101. A broad overview of computer science, with topics ranging from the basic structure of a computer to artificial intelligence. Designed both for non-majors who want to learn more about computer science and majors with little or no computer experience. This course is not a requirement for computer science majors. Prospective computer science majors are encouraged to take preparatory mathematics courses concurrently with this course.

CSC 131 Introduction to Computer Science I. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: eligible for MTH 261. An introduction to software design methodology using a modern structured programming language. Topics will include: problem-solving techniques; high-level control structures, subprograms and modularity; simple, aggregate and user-defined data types; and fundamental algorithms. Program clarity, good coding style and effective documentation will be stressed.

CSC 197 Introductory Topics in Computer Science. 1-3.

Variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester. Topics will be identified by title in the schedule of classes. The course may be repeated if a different topic is offered, however, no more than six credits may count toward any degree.

CSC 226 Special Languages. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CSC 125 or CSC 131. A survey of modern higher level languages with emphasis on comparison of capabilities of languages. Choices of a language to be used in solving particular types of problems.

CSC 232 (132) Introduction to Computer Science II. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in CSC 131. Completion of or concurrent enrollment in MTH 315 is encouraged for CSC majors. A continuation of CSC 131. Topics will include: algorithm design; complexity analysis; abstract data types and encapsulation; basic data structures and their application, including stacks, queues, linked lists and binary trees; dynamic memory allocation; recursion; sorting and searching; debugging techniques.

CSC 285 Computer Architecture. 4(4-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PHY 220 and CSC 131. Introduction to the architecture and internal operation of computers, including assembly language. A study of the major components, functional organization, and sequential operation of digital computers during program execution. Several computer architectures will be studied.

CSC 300 Service Learning in Computer Science. 1, F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Computer Science course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Computer Science to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

CSC 324 Theory of Computation. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 131 and MTH 315. Recommended: CSC 232. Topics include finite-state machines and regular languages, pushdown automata and context free languages, Turing machines and computability, alternative models of computation including recursive functions, and an introduction to computational complexity.

CSC 325 Algorithms and Advanced Data Structures. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 232 and MTH 315. This course should be taken as soon as possible after CSC 232. Algorithms and advanced data structures, including graphs, heaps, self-adjusting data structures, set representations and dynamic programming. Sample applications, including memory management and data compression. Introduction to NP-complete problems. Correctness proofs and efficiency analysis are stressed.

CSC 326 Organization of Programming Languages. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 232 and CSC 285 and CSC 324. A study of the design and implementation of imperative, object-oriented, functional, and logic programming languages, together with their associated programming paradigms. Introduction to the compilation of imperative languages, including lexical analysis, parsing, and code generation.

CSC 335 Database System Concepts. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CSC 232. A study of modern database systems and their underlying concepts. Core topics include the relational model, SQL, database design theory, query processing, file structures, transactions, and concurrency. Programming projects provide practical experience in developing GUI database applications.

CSC 365 Internet Programming. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSC 232. An introduction to paradigms and languages used in Internet and World Wide Web programming. These include modern tools for client-side and server-side programming and dynamic Web page generation. Advanced topics, such as security and XML, will be covered as time allows.

CSC 397 Advanced Topics in Computer Science. 1-3.

Prerequisite: CSC 232. Variable content course with advanced topics that can change from semester to semester. Topics may be identified by title in the schedule of classes. The course may be repeated if a different topic is offered, however, no more than six credits may count toward any degree.

CSC 399 Cooperative Education in CSC. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. The opportunity to earn academic credit in a planned learning process that integrates academic training with a supervised work experience. This is a variable content course that may be repeated to a total of 6 semester hours in Cooperative Education.

CSC 421 Numerical Analysis I. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 280. Finite differences, numerical integration, matrix computations, numerical solution of nonlinear systems and differential equations, least squares techniques, curve fitting. Problem solution will incorporate a symbolic mathematical program.

CSC 422 Numerical Analysis II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CSC 421 and MTH 303. Continuation of CSC 421.

CSC 423 Digital Simulation. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CSC 232 and either MTH 345 or MTH 540. The study of simulation techniques. Topics will include: probability distributions, statistical testing, random number generators, design of simulation experiments, language structures for simulation, and study of a simulation language.

CSC 425 Computer Graphics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: CSC 232. Introduction to the hardware and software components of graphics systems. Development of algorithms for two-dimensional graphics including windowing, clipping, and transformations; algorithms for three dimensional graphics including viewing, transformations, and removal of hidden lines and surfaces. Data structures for graphics and interactive techniques will be stressed.

CSC 440 Introduction to Artificial Intelligence. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSC 325. Techniques of artificial intelligence including study of expert systems, natural language processing, search strategies, computer vision and robotics.

CSC 450 Introduction to Software Engineering. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 325. Principles, techniques and tools used to effect the orderly production of medium and large scale computer programs will be studied. These techniques will be applied to programming projects with students working in teams and managing all phases of a programming project.

CSC 460 Theory of Computer Operating Systems. 4(3-2) F, S.

Prerequisite: CSC 285 and CSC 325. The functions, design and techniques of computer operating systems. Topics include process management, storage management, processor management, multi-processing, and networks. Several modern operating systems will be studied.

CSC 465 Computer Networking. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: CSC 232. An introduction to the theory, concepts and techniques upon which modern computer networks and telecommunication systems are based. The emphasis will be on layered network architectures, the design frameworks for both local and wide area networks and communication protocols.

CSC 482 Seminar in Computer Science. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 326 (or concurrent enrollment) and CSC 460 (or concurrent enrollment). Current trends and ethics in computer science with consideration given to future opportunities in the field. A written report and successful completion of the computer science assessment test will be required.

CSC 500 Hardware, Software, and Troubleshooting Personal Computers. 3(2-2) D.

An introduction to the installation, maintenance, troubleshooting, upgrading, simple repair, and management of personal computers found in educational settings. This course will provide numerous laboratory experiences providing hands-on experience with the goal of enabling students to support personal computer laboratories found in PK-12 schools. This course cannot be taken for credit toward a computer science major or minor.

CSC 505 Web-Based Resources in Educational Settings. 2(2-0) D.

An introduction to the design, implementation, and management of World Wide Web resources over the Internet and Intranet networks. Topics include Internet overview, web authoring, web programming, server setting and maintenance. The objective of the course is to know tools (HTML, JavaScript, and JAVA applets, and Internet Server software, and Navigator/Internet Explorer software packages), and their applicability in WWW design and management in PK-12 school settings. This course cannot be taken for credit toward a computer science major or minor.

CSC 510 Networking and Telecommunications in Educational Settings. 2(2-0) D.

An introduction to networking and data communications from an educator's perspective. The course will examine the necessary computer hardware, software, and personnel resources relevant to networking and data communication requirements in various educational settings. Local Area Networks, Wide Area Networks, Network Interconnections, and the Internet will be addressed. This course cannot be taken for credit on a computer science major or minor.

CSC 521 Compiler Construction. 4(3-2) D.

Prerequisite: CSC 326. Topics include lexical analysis, parsing, symbol tables, type checking, run-time organization, code generation, basic code optimization, and the use of compiler development tools. The student must write a complete compiler for a small imperative programming language.

CSC 526 Methods of Optimization. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: CSC 421 and MTH 533. Convex sets, classical optimization of functions, constrained optimization, search techniques, linear and nonlinear optimization, applications to applied problems.

CSC 596 Special Readings. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: CSC 325 and permission of department head. Periodic conferences with an advisor are required. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

Coordinator: Professor William H. Cheek, Ph.D.

Minor

Environmental Sciences and Policy

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

The minor in Environmental Sciences and Policy consists of 24-25 credit hours. It is interdisciplinary and will permit students in various fields to complement their academic major with a minor emphasizing Environmental Sciences and Policy.

A. Natural Science Courses: (10 hours)

BIO 269 – Principles of Ecology (3) (BIO 369 – General Ecology (3), may be substituted for BIO 269 with permission of coordinator.)

CHM 225 – Principles of Environmental Chemistry (3) (CHM 425 – Environmental Chemistry (3), may be substituted for CHM 225 with permission of coordinator)

GLG 171 – Environmental Geology (4)*

B. Social Science Courses: (9 hours)

PLS 555 – Public Policy for a Global Environment (3)

ECO 540 – Economics of the Environment (3)

Select one course from:

GRY 108 – Ecology and Society (3)* or PHI 302 – Environmental Ethics (3)

C. Environmental Regulation: (3 hours)

RIL 537 – Environmental Regulation (3)

GLG 171 partially fulfills the Natural World general education requirement*

GRY 108 partially fulfills the Culture and Society general education requirement*

D. Electives: Select one of the following courses (2 or 3 hours)

AGA 105 – Soils and Crop Science (3)

AGA 335 – Soil Conservation and Water Management (3)

CRP 574 – Open Space and Recreation Planning (3)

GRY 108 – Ecology and Society (3)

GRY 351 – Conservation of Natural Resources (2)

PLS 537 – International Law (3) or

RIL 539 – Legal Regulation of International Commerce (3)

PHI 302 – Environmental Ethics (3)

SOC 505 – Population Analysis (3)

Recommended: At least one statistics course.

Administration of Minor

The Environmental Sciences and Policy minor is administered by the College of Natural and Applied Sciences with the Dean, or his/her designate, serving as program coordinator. Courses must be approved by the faculty on the Environmental Focus Committee for inclusion in the minor. The coordinator must approve the course of study for each student who wishes to complete the minor.

DEPARTMENT OF FRUIT SCIENCE

SMSU Mountain Grove Research Campus, 9740 Red Spring Road, Mountain Grove, MO 65711, Phone: 417/926-4105, FAX: 417/926-6646

Department Head: Professor James F. Moore, Jr., Ph.D.

Research Professors: Murlidhar R. Dharmadhikari, Ph.D.; Martin L. Kaps, Ph.D.; Howard G. Townsend, Jr., Ph.D.

Associate Research Professor: Karl L. Wilker, Ph.D.

Assistant Research Professors: Lazslo G. Kovacs, Ph.D.; Wenping Qiu, Ph.D.; José L. Saenz, M.S.

Research Associates: John D. Avery, Jr., M.S.; Marilyn B. Odneal, M.S.

Grower Advisor: Patrick L. Byers, M.S.

State Fruit Experiment Station

The State Fruit Experiment Station is operated in conjunction with the Department of Fruit Science on the SMSU-Mountain Grove Campus. The Station has a statewide mandate by law to generate knowledge through research, and to disseminate this knowledge for the economic development of the Missouri fruit industry. In addition to carrying out research, conducting advisory education programs, and teaching courses, the faculty is available to guide graduate students in their thesis research. The department head of Fruit Science also serves as the Director of the State Fruit Experiment Station.

Research is carried on in pomology, enology, viticulture, plant pathology, entomology, molecular genetics, and plant physiology. The fruit crops under investigation include apples, grapes, blueberries, peaches, strawberries, blackberries, and raspberries, as well as species of lesser economic importance. Information derived from the Station's research is disseminated through advisory programs to fruit growers and processors throughout Missouri.

The Station is the site of extensive testing of new fruit varieties and selections for their adaptability to Missouri soil and climate and resistance to diseases. Research on the culture of fruit crops is carried out on nutrient and water requirements, pruning and training systems, growth regulators, and rootstocks. Plant pathogens and insect pests are studied for clues which may help in reducing their damage to fruit crops. A program in genetic engineering has the improvement of fruit varieties as the major goal.

Graduate Program

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Plant Science. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Fruit Science Courses

FRS 121 Introduction to Wine. 2(2-0) S.

An introduction to wine in the modern world. History, classification, production and the geography of wine. The basics of wine appreciation will also be examined.

FRS 193 Internship in Plant Science. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Supervised work experience at the State Fruit Experiment Station involving selected research and/or advisory projects. A written report and an oral examination are required.

FRS 493 Internship in Fruit Science. 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Supervised work experience either at the Fruit Experiment Station or in the commercial fruit production and/or processing industry. A paper analyzing some major aspect or aspects of the work experience as related to fruit production and/or processing is required.

FRS 496 Independent Study in Fruit Science. 1-3, D.

The student, with the approval of the instructor, conducts an in-depth literature review and writes a paper on a subject within the area of fruit production, fruit processing, or fruit marketing. May be repeated for a total of 3 credit hours.

FRS 497 Selected Topics in Fruit Science. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: open to agriculture, biology, chemistry and related majors with at least 60 credit hours. Study of highly specialized topics related to fruit production or fruit processing. A variable content course which may be repeated for up to 6 credit hours when topic varies.

FRS 499 Undergraduate Research. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: 60 or more credit hours and permission of the instructor. Individually conducted field and/or laboratory research under faculty supervision resulting in a research paper. May be repeated for a maximum of 9 credit hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

FRS 600 Plant Science Colloquium. 1(1-0) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of graduate coordinator. A series of oral presentations on new developments in plant science. Presentations to be made by faculty members, students, and guest speakers from industry and academe. May be repeated, but not more than 2 hours may be counted toward the M.S. Degree.

FRS 601 Advanced Pomology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 544 or permission of instructor. The culture and management of perennial fruit crops adapted to temperate climates. Physiology, technology, and research as it applies to modern production practices will be emphasized.

FRS 602 Advanced Pomology Laboratory. 2(0-6) Su.

Prerequisite: FRS 601 or permission of instructor. Laboratory for FRS 601.

FRS 611 Viticulture. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 544 or permission of instructor. Principles of growing grapes based upon the genetics, physiology, development and morphology of the genus Vitis; the environments in which grapes are grown; and the uses of grapes.

FRS 612 Viticulture Practicum. 2(0-6) Su.

Prerequisite: FRS 611 or permission of instructor. Field application of principles in grape production.

FRS 621 Enology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 310 or permission of instructor. The course will study the chemistry, microbiology, and technology of modern wine production.

FRS 622 Enology Lab. 2(0-4) F.

Prerequisite: FRS 621. Laboratory techniques in assessing wine production methods and quality.

FRS 630 Advanced Topics in Plant Science. (Identical to AGH 630) 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: permission of the instructor. An advanced topic in plant science will be addressed via faculty lectures and student projects. Examples of proposed topics include: Improved Disease Resistance in Viticulture, Application of Field Collected Data to Computer Analysis. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with differing topics. Variable Content Course.

FRS 631 Plant Genetic Engineering. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: BIO 235 or CHM 200 or CHM 310. Principles, methodology, and commercial applications of plant biotechnology. Includes brief introduction to nucleic acid structure, gene regulation, and genome organization in eukaryotic and prokaryotic organisms.

FRS 698 Research. 1-6, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Supervised research in areas of emphasis within the discipline of plant science. May be repeated, but not more than 6 hours may be counted toward the M.S. degree.

FRS 699 Thesis. 1-6, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Demonstration of the capacity for research and independent thought culminating in a thesis. May be repeated, but no more than 6 hours will be applied to the master's degree.

Associate Professors: Rex G. Cammack, Ph.D.; Stanley C. Fagerlin, Ph.D.; Dimitri Ioannides, Ph.D.; Thomas D. Moeglin, Ph.D.; Robert T. Pavlowsky, Ph.D.; Thomas G. Plymate, Ph.D.; Charles W. Rovey, Ph.D.

Assistant Professors: Melida Gutierrez, Ph.D.; Rajinder S. Jutla, Ph.D.; Diane M. May, M.S.; Judith L. Meyer, Ph.D.

Lecturers: Alice Jill Black, M.S.; Deborah Corcoran, M.S.

Emeritus Professors: David A. Castillon, Ph.D.; Charles D. Collins, M.S.; Russel L. Gerlach, Ph.D.; Julius A. Kovats, Ph.D. (West Plains); Vincent E. Kurtz, Ph.D.; Donald H. McInnis, Ph.D.; Milton D. Rafferty, Ph.D.

General Education Courses

GLG 358 may be used to meet Writing II, Basic Required Courses; GLG 110, 115, 171, GRY 135, or 142 may be used to partially fulfill the Natural World Area of Inquiry; and GRY 100 or 108 may be used to meet the Social Sciences Perspective of the Culture and Society Area of Inquiry of the General Education requirements.

Notes and Restrictions

Geology majors wishing to emphasize paleontology should minor in biology.

Courses taken toward a major in geography or geology cannot be counted toward a minor in the other.

Majors

Cartographic Sciences (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. GRY 100(3) or 108(3), 142(4), 275(3), 305(3), 360(3), 363(4), 367(3), 470(4), 498(1), 552(3), 560(3); CSC 121(3), 125(3) or CIS 202(3); MTH 181(3) or 138(5), 340(3) or equivalent (AGR 330, ECO 308, PSY 200, QBA 237, REC 331, SOC 302); RPL 551(3), 562(3), 566(3).
2. Select 14 additional hours from the following list: NOTE: Students who select a surveying emphasis must take GRY 375(3), 377(3), and 379(3). GRY 301(3), 320(3), 321(3), 322(3), 323(3), 348(3), 351(2), 375(3), 377(3), 379(3), 507(3), 553(2), 575(3); TEC 110(3), 211(3); MTH 261(5), 280(5) or 287(3), 288(3); CIS 224(3), 321(3), 526(3), 528(3); CSC 131(3), 232(3), 335(3), 425(3).

Bachelor of Arts

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. GRY 100(3) or 108 (3), 142(4), 305(3), 363(4), 367(3), 470(4), 498(1).
2. Related requirements. One statistics course from the following: AGR 330(3), ECO 308(3), MTH 340(3), PSY 200(3), QBA 237(3), REC 331(3) or SOC 302(3).
3. Select additional geography electives (12 hours with GRY, CRP or RPL prefix) to bring total in geography to 37 hours.

C. Minor Required

D. Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Arts Degree (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Geography (Non-Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. GRY 100(3) or 108(3), 142(4), 305(3), 363(4), 367(3), 470(4), 498(1)
2. Select one of the following options:

a. General:

1. GRY 300(3)
2. Related requirement: One statistics course from the following: AGR 330(3), ECO 308(3), MTH 340(3), PSY 200(3), QBA 237(3), REC 331(3), or SOC 302(3)
3. Select additional geography electives (12 hours with GRY, CRP or RPL prefix) to bring total in geography to 34 hours.

b. Environmental and Natural Resources:

1. GRY 351(3); GLG 110(4) or 171(4)
2. Related requirement: One statistics course from the following: AGR 330(3), ECO 308(3), MTH 340(3), PSY 200(3), QBA 237(3), REC 331(3), or SOC 302(3)
3. Select one course in cultural-economic geography: GRY 310(3), 320(3), 321(3), 322(3), 323(3)

Recommended supplementary courses: CHM 105(5) or 160(4); AGR 215(3); BIO 134(4); GRY 597(1-5)

Students should select a minor in science, mathematics, agriculture, or an approved personalized minor.

c. Travel Geography:

1. GRY 308(3), 310(3), 324(3), 326(3), 410(3), 510(3), CRP 325(3)

Recommended supplementary courses: HRA 410(3); REC 152(3), 390(3), 422(3). Students should select a minor in general business, management, marketing, or a foreign language.

Unified Science – Earth Science
Bachelor of Science in Education
(Certifiable grades 9-12)

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)

C. Major Requirements

1. GRY 135(4), 348(3), 351(2); GLG 110(4), 314(5), 318(3), 412(4); AST 115(4), PHY 505(3)
2. Select a minimum of eight hours from each of the three remaining science areas: BIO 121(4) and 122(4); CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2); PHY 123(4) and 124(4) or PHY 203(5) and 204(5)
3. MTH 138(5) or 135(3) and 181(3), or MTH 261(5) or 287(3)

D. Professional Education courses: SCI 414(3) and see College of Education/Secondary Education section

E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Resource Planning. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers areas of emphasis in Earth Science and Geography. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Community and Regional Planning Courses

CRP 271 (371) General City and Regional Planning. 3(3-0) F. Introduction to the history of planning, urban form, urban design, and the planning process. Topics include the evolution of the city, the comprehensive plan, zoning, and examination of economic, social and environmental issues.

CRP 325 (RPL) Regional Tourism Planning. 3(2-2) D. Prerequisite: GRY 310. Study of social, economic, and environmental impacts of tourism on a region. Planning and design at the regional level will be emphasized. Field trip required.

CRP 372 Community Development. 3(3-0) S. Study of the planning process of community development planning theory. Emphasis is placed on the interactive roles of citizens, community officials, and planners from the perspective of the ethics and values of the planning profession and the need of equity, social justice, and respect for diversity of views in competition over resources.

CRP 400 Communication Techniques in Planning. 3(3-0) S. Focuses on the oral, written, graphic and computer techniques used by planners in communicating with the public and elected officials. Emphasis is on the use of computers by planners and graphic presentations. The course will also include basic techniques used in writing planning documents, grants and summaries.

CRP 570 (RPL) Planning Law. 3, S. Prerequisite: CRP 271 or permission of instructor. Study of the legal foundations of land use controls. Topics include historic legal cases establishing government intervention in private development, zoning, subdivision, growth management, individual liberty, environmental regulation and the general welfare concept.

CRP 571 (RPL) Land Use Planning. 3(3-0) F. Prerequisite: CRP 271 or RIL 266 or permission of instructor. Focuses on conceptual and analytical techniques of land use planning, including land use analysis, planning studies and procedures, and synthesis of planning elements through comprehensive plan development.

CRP 572 (RPL) Community Planning Practicum. 4(3-2) S. Prerequisite: CRP 271 or RIL 266 or permission of instructor. Focuses on the process of plan preparation and is intended to provide experience in the application of planning principles and analytical techniques learned in other program courses to an actual planning problem. Students will work on an individual basis and as part of a team in preparing a final report. Field problems will vary.

CRP 574 (RPL) Open Space and Recreation Planning. 3(2-2) S. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Content focuses on planning and design for parks, both active and passive recreation, and other open space amenities. Open space and recreation planning will be integrated with land use, economic, social, and transportation considerations involved in community and regional planning. Field problem required.

CRP 576 (RPL) Site Planning Studio. 4(2-4) F. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Lecture-studio focusing on the principles and processes of urban design and site specific design requirements. Students will design site plans for specific uses such as subdivisions, shopping centers and parks for public presentation.

CRP 596 Research in Planning. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Enrichment through guided but independent, original research in planning and planning related subject areas. May be repeated to a total of 6 credit hours.

CRP 597 (GRY 595) Selected Topics in Planning. 3(3-0) F,S. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Detailed treatment of various special topics in planning which may vary from semester to semester. Some typical topics: Economic Development Planning, Rural and Small Town Planning, Housing in America. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated to a total of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

CRP 599 (RPL 573) Internship in Urban and Regional Planning. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 hours and CRP 271 and permission of instructor. Work in community or regional planning agency. Students are monitored by Planning faculty and supervisory personnel of the planning agency. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

Geography Courses

GRY 100 World Regional Geography. 3(3-0) F,S.

A survey of the world's geographic regions focusing on the location of Earth's major physical features, human populations and cultures, and their interaction. Topics include natural systems, globalization, ethnic and geopolitical conflicts, and human impacts upon the environment. This course provides both an introduction to geography as a discipline and a basic geographic foundation for those interested in international studies, politics, history and public affairs.

GRY 108 Ecology and Society. 3(3-0) F,S.

Multidisciplinary problem study of population pressures, environmental degradation and socio-political perils and opportunities, through an integrated approach by a staff drawn chiefly from the natural and social sciences.

GRY 135 Atmospheric Science. 4(3-2) F,S.

An introductory survey of the earth's weather and climate. A description of the physical processes of the atmosphere is followed by a survey of the world's varied climatic regions. The laboratory involves the preparation and interpretation of meteorological data and the classification of climates.

GRY 142 Introductory Physical Geography. 4(3-2) F,S.

A study of the earth's natural systems including weather and climate, rocks and minerals, landforms and processes of landform development, biogeography, water resources and soils. Map fundamentals and the interrelationships of the geographic factors of the natural environment are emphasized. Students who take GRY 140 and GRY 142 may receive credit for only one of these courses.

GRY 240 (140) Earth Science for Teachers. 4(2-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: BIO 100. A course designed to give students an understanding of the processes of science and the basic concepts of earth science using the inquiry approach in hands-on laboratory activities. Content includes maps, earth in space, weather and climate, soils and vegetation, rocks and minerals, landforms, processes of landform development, water resources, environmental relationship to the physical setting. This course is open only to education majors. Does not apply toward the major in Secondary Education. Students who take GRY 140 and GRY 142 may receive credit for only one of these courses.

GRY 275 (375) (MTH 375) Introduction to Plane Surveying. 3(2-2) F,S.

CBE. Prerequisite: MTH 181 or MTH 138 or permission of instructor. Fundamental concepts of surveying, equipment theory and the use of the tape, compass, level, engineers' transit and theodolite in surveying.

GRY 297 (281) Selected Topics in Geography I. 1(1-0) or (0-2) D. Course devoted to a single topic that can vary from semester to semester depending on student and faculty interest. Topics are limited to those requiring no prior geography background. Examples: Geography of the Home Community, Geography of Energy Resources, Geography of Sport. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic title for any given semester. Since topics will vary, this course may be repeated, with permission, to a total of 5 hours credit. Variable Content Course.

GRY 300 Geography of the United States. 3(3-0) F,S.

Physical and cultural regions of the United States, including their characteristics and resource utilization. Topics include landforms, climates, natural re-sources, economic activities, and cultural and political patterns.

GRY 301 Geography of the Ozarks. 3(3-0) S.

Physical and cultural geography of the Ozarks. Surveys basic geology, landforms, soils, vegetation and the geography of settlement, population, major economic activities, lifestyles and the cultural landscape. Emphasis on historical development and spatial distributions. Field trip required.

GRY 305 Selected World Regions. 3(3-0) D.

An in-depth study of selected regions of the world. Examples: Tropical Areas, Arid Regions, Polar Regions, Pacific Islands, Australia and New Zealand. Surveys geology, landforms, soil, vegetation, climate, settlement, population, economic activities and the cultural landscape. The course will be devoted to a single region that can vary from semester to semester. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic title for any given semester. Since topics vary, the course may be repeated with permission. Variable Content Course.

GRY 308 Geography of World Tourism. 3(3-0) S.

A systematic description and analysis of the world's major tourism destination regions including coastal zones, alpine areas, interior lakes and waterways, cities, and cultural attractions. Geographic and economic factors affecting the development of tourism regions are considered.

GRY 310 Fundamentals of Tourism. (Identical to REC 320) 3(3-0) F,S. Geographical and recreational elements of tourism and travel including social, economic, environmental and political factors. Career options will be identified. Students participate in tourism research projects. One field trip may be required. Team taught by Geography and Recreation and Leisure Studies faculty.

GRY 315 Service Learning in Geography. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Geography course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Geography to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

GRY 316 Medical Geography. 3(3-0) S.

An examination of health and disease from a geographic perspective. Topics include disease ecology, environmental hazards, and spatial analysis of health care resources.

GRY 320 Cultural Geography. 3(3-0) F.

Geographic patterns and interpretations of man's imprint on the natural landscape; material and nonmaterial elements of culture. Population, settlement, agriculture, language, race, religion, and man's interrelationships with his natural surroundings and the resulting patterns of adjustment.

GRY 321 (110) Economic Geography. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours or permission of instructor. Location, distribution and extent of world economic activity. Topics include resource extraction, agriculture, manufacturing, retailing, and services.

GRY 322 Urban Geography. 3(3-0) F.

With an emphasis on patterns, this course documents the growth of cities, the reasons for that growth, presents models of urban structure, describes transportation systems, residential concentration, and commercial activities. Finally, current urban problems are identified.

GRY 323 World Political Geography. 3(3-0) S.

Major political problems of the world as related to geographic factors; regional blocs, strategic areas and disputed zones.

GRY 324 Travel Agency Procedures and Management. 3(3-0) F. An introduction to the history of travel agencies, travel related government agencies, ticket-writing, reference materials, and travel agency procedures.

GRY 326 Travel Agency Practicum. 3(1-5) F,S.

Practicum experience in the travel industry. Training experiences will include computer airline reservation systems, advertisement and selling, building and pricing reservations for airlines, automobile rentals, and hotels. Students will select three areas for emphasis from the following list of travel specializations: adventure, leisure, corporate, incentive, and motorcoach. Practicum experience will be in the SMSU Bearways Travel Agency and other agencies in the Springfield metro area.

GRY 335 Applied Climatology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: GRY 135 or GRY 142. Application of climatological data and principles of biological, sociological and economic problems.

GRY 348 Geomorphology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: GRY 142 or GLG 110. Processes of landform development. Erosional and depositional environments created by water, wind, and ice. Hazards and limitations associated with various landforms. Field trips required.

GRY 351 Conservation of Natural Resources. 2(2-0) F,S. Prerequisite: 30 hours or permission of instructor. An examination of the laws of the natural environment followed by an analysis of conservation issues and problems that occur in response to human use of the natural environment. Emphasis on the conservation issues and problems in Missouri. Field trip required.

GRY 353 Environmental Field Studies. 1(0-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Field methods in environmental science. Mapping the physical variables of the natural environment to develop an understanding of the interrelationships between geology, landforms, soils, vegetation and climate. Field trips required.

GRY 360 Interpretation of Aerial Photography. 3(2-3) F. Prerequisite: 30 hours or permission of instructor. Detection, identification, and analysis of objects or features from aerial photography and other types of remotely sensed images. Coverage of sensing devices and other equipment related to photogrammetric applications.

GRY 363 Principles of Cartography. 4(3-4) F, S.

Prerequisite: GRY 100 or GRY 321 or GLG 110. Introduction to mapping concepts in cartography. Map projections, coordinate systems, processing data, compilation, map design, and typography. Construction of general and thematic maps. Field trip is required.

GRY 367(467) Research Methods in Geography and Planning. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 340 or one of AGR 330 or ECO 308 or PSY 200 or QBA 237 or REC 331 or SOC 302. With emphasis on applications of descriptive and inferential statistics this course will introduce methods of sampling procedures, collecting, organizing, interpreting and analyzing data related to geography and planning. This course will also include computer applications.

GRY 375 Advanced Plane Surveying. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: GRY 275. Office and field techniques used in route surveying including circular, transitional and parabolic curves. Topographic mapping applications, slope stake and earthwork computations. Field astronomy, state plane coordinates, boundary control and USPLS surveys.

GRY 377 Legal Aspects of Boundary Surveying. 3(3-0) S. Prerequisite: GRY 375. The legal principles of surveying: Missouri surveying law, Boundary Control, and the role of the surveyor within the judicial frame work of the court system.

GRY 379 Surveying Computations. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: GRY 375. Computations in horizontal control networks, projections including Universal Transverse Mercator and State Plane Coordinates, Practical Astronomy, and Global Positioning Systems.

GRY 397 (381) Selected Topics in Geography II. 1(1-0) or (0-2) D. Course devoted to a single topic that can vary from semester to semester depending upon student and faculty interest. Topics generally require previous training in geography. Examples: Geography of Water Resources, Tornadoes and other Violent Storms. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic title for any given semester. Since topics will vary, this course may be repeated, with permission, to a total of 5 hours credit. Variable Content Course.

GRY 399 (373) Internship in Geography. 1-3 F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Work experience in geography. Students have periodic conferences with geosciences department faculty and supervisory personnel of the employing business or agency. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours.

GRY 410 The Travel Industry. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: GRY 310 or permission of instructor. Study of the structure and organization of the travel and tourism industry. Both private sector components of the travel industry and governmental organizations will be emphasized.

GRY 470 Field Methods in Geography. 4(2-4) Su.

Prerequisite: GRY 363 and permission of instructor. Methods and techniques of collecting and processing field data in Geography. Includes urban and rural land use mapping, environmental analysis, economic geography of mining. Field trips required. (Students should check with department head early in spring semester regarding preparation for summer.) Course fee.

GRY 496 (494) Readings in Geography. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Selected readings and reports on geographical literature. May be repeated to a total of 4 hours.

GRY 497 (499) Special Topics in Geography. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Open to departmental majors and minors. Outstanding students obtain additional experience through guided independent study in geography. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

GRY 498 (482) Placement Seminar in Geography, Cartography and Planning. 1(1-0) F.

Prerequisite: 90 hours or permission of instructor. Readings and discussion of current trends in geography, cartography, and planning with consideration given to future employment. A senior assessment evaluation is included in this course.

GRY 507 (307) Geography of Sub-Saharan Africa. 3(3-0) F,S.

An in-depth geographic study of Africa south of the Sahara Desert. Surveys physical and political geography, climate, tribalism, religion, demography, natural resources, transportation, industry and economic activities of African states South of the Sahara. Students enrolled for graduate credit are required to complete two research projects. Students enrolled for undergraduate credit are required to complete one research project.

GRY 510 Tourism and Sustainability. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: GRY 310 or permission. Study of sustainability issues associated with tourism development. Attention paid to the conflicting agenda of society's various stakeholders and the need to reconcile environmental, economic, and sociocultural concerns. Emphasis also placed on policy implications.

GRY 552 (GLG 552) Photogrammetry. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Basic concepts in photogrammetry; utilization of aerial photography as a means of obtaining accurate measures; orientation of photographic models and compilation of topographic maps on digital video plotters.

GRY 553 Analytical Photogrammetry and Digital Cartography. 2(0-4) S.

Prerequisite: GRY 552 or permission of instructor. Individualized instruction on the analytical stereoplotter-digitizer-interactive graphics editing system.

GRY 560 Thematic Mapping. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: GRY 363 or permission of instructor. Special purpose mapping of chosen topics. Emphasis will be on good graphic communication by means of maps.

GRY 575 Satellite Surveying and Navigation. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: GRY 363 or permission of instructor. Theory and operation of satellite-based positioning systems. Includes mission planning, measurement of point, line and area features, differential correction techniques and waypoint navigation. Field trips required.

GRY 596 (586) Topical Issues in Education. 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Selected topics in geography and earth science to upgrade understandings and skills in improvement of elementary or secondary teaching. Each course is concerned with a single topic or subject matter area. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours credit. Variable Content Course. A course fee may be charged for selected sections.

GRY 597 (548) Special Topics in Geography. 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Selected topics in geography. Special topics will be included in the class schedule for each term. Field trips may be required. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours credit. Variable Content Course.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

GRY 600 Cultural Geography for Secondary Teachers I. 3(2-2) D.

Population and the spatial imprint of man on the landscape in terms of settlement, economic activities, institutions; methods and materials of the high school geography project; other current curriculum materials.

GRY 603 Cultural Geography for Secondary Teachers II. 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: GRY 600. Continuation of GRY 600. Contemporary problems in land use, urbanization and planning for optimum use of resources; methods and materials of the high school geography project; other current curriculum materials.

GRY 630 Weather Elements for Secondary Teachers. 3(3-0) D.

Physical processes of the earth's atmosphere, use of weather instruments and interpretation of weather maps. Applied aspects of weather and climate and their effects on man's activities. Emphasis on current curriculum materials for secondary schools.

GRY 640 Selected Topics in Earth Science. (Identical to GLG 665) 3(2-2) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Students cooperatively select from general subject areas in earth science more specific areas to explore. Topics are studied consecutively during the semester. Subject areas from which the topic selections will be made are included in the class schedule for each term the course is offered.

GRY 648 Physiography and Resource Conservation. 3(2-2) D.

Landforms, economic minerals, soils, climate, water resources and closely related aspects of the natural environment as they relate to man's inhabitation and use of the earth; map reading and simple map construction; methods and materials for secondary schools.

GRY 670 Field Geography. 3-6, Su.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Field work in geographic areas of physical and cultural importance; observing and collecting field data and materials for use in secondary schools. Extended travel required. Term paper on completion of travel.

GRY 680 Seminar in Geography. 2(2-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Extensive paper on selected topics to be read before staff seminars. May be repeated to a total of 4 hours. Satisfies requirements for Option II.

GRY 699 Thesis. 1-6, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis.

Geology Courses

GLG 110 Physical Geology. 4(3-2) F,S.

An introduction to the study of the earth. Topics include minerals and rocks; dynamic internal processes including volcanism, earthquakes, plate tectonics, and mountain building; and surficial processes associated with streams, ground water, glaciers, wind, and shorelines. Laboratory instruction in identification and classification of common minerals and rocks; introduction to the identification of landforms as interpreted from topographic maps. Optional weekend field trips.

GLG 115 Life of the Past. 4(3-2) F.

Origin, evolution, and major extinctions of life forms set in the context of 3.5 billion years of earth history. Discussion of plants, invertebrate animals, and vertebrates (emphasizing dinosaurs and mammals). Laboratory exercises acquaint the student with representatives of the major fossil groups. Optional fossil collecting trip. Credit may not be applied toward any major or minor in geology.

GLG 155 Mineral Resources and Public Policy. 3(3-0) S.

Occurrence and distribution of mineral resources. An examination of the economics, governmental laws and regulations, methods of extraction, conservation, and environmental impact of the mineral industry.

GLG 171 Environmental Geology. 4(4-0) F,S.

Treats those aspects of geology that interface directly with humanity. Past, present and future of geologic hazards, geologically related environmental health problems, mineral resources and energy resources. Human dependence on geologic resources is examined and interrelated with problems of humanity. Field trips required.

GLG 197 (121) Popular Topics in Geology. 1-3 D.

Course devoted to a single topic that can vary from semester to semester depending on student and faculty interest. Topics are limited to those requiring no prior geology background. Examples: Earthquakes and Volcanoes, Rocks and Minerals, Caves and Karst, etc. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic title for any given semester. Because topics vary, this course may be repeated, with permission of the instructor to a total of 10 credits. Credit may not be counted toward any major or minor in Geology. Variable Credit and Variable Content Course.

GLG 314 Historical Geology. 5(3-4) S.

Prerequisite: GLG 110. Geological history of the earth with emphasis on North America; origin and evolution of animal and plant life on earth. One Saturday field trip required.

GLG 318 Physical Oceanography. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: GLG 110. A comprehensive study of the physical ocean; including the origin and nature of tides, waves, and ocean currents; marine geology, resources and pollution.

GLG 326 Marine Science I: Oceanography. 3(3-0) Su.

Prerequisite: MTH 135 and CHM 160 and CHM 170 and CHM 175 and BIO 102. Integrates physical, chemical, biological, and geological oceanography to provide a multidisciplinary approach to the fundamentals of oceanography. (Must be taken at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Ocean Springs, Mississippi.)

GLG 327 Marine Science I: Oceanography Lab. 2(0-4) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in GLG 326. Laboratory portion of GLG 326. Field and laboratory activities. (Must be taken at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Ocean Springs, Mississippi.)

GLG 330 Service Learning in Geology. 1, F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and permission of instructor and concurrent registration in a Geology course designated as a service geology offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in geology to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignment will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; students should investigate possible placements, available through the Department of Geography, Geology and Planning and the Office of Citizenship and Service Learning prior to registration. No more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

GLG 332 Mineralogy. 4(2-4) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 110 and CHM 160; and MTH 135 or MTH 138 or MTH 261 or MTH 287. Origin, classification, description, and identification of ore minerals and rock forming minerals.

GLG 333 Petrology. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: CHM 170 and CHM 175 and GLG 332. Origin, classification, and identification of common rocks. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take GLG 413. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

GLG 340 (320) Structural Geology. 4(3-2) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 314 and GLG 333; and either MTH 261 or MTH 287 and either PHY 123 or PHY 203 recommended. Elementary theory of stress and strain, rock behavior, continuous structures, fracture theory, discontinuous structures, and kinematics of plate motion. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take GLG 413. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

GLG 350 Speleology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 110 or permission of instructor. Caves, karst and cavernous terrain, their origin, geologic environment and evolution. Field trips and field research required.

GLG 351 Photogeology. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: GLG 340. Geologic interpretation of aerial photographs. Laboratory work includes field photointerpretation projects.

GLG 358 Writing II: Reporting Geological Information. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and GLG 314 and GLG 332; and either ENG 110 or placement. Techniques and strategies for locating and accessing technical geological information. Preparation of technical reports and presentations on geologic topics with emphasis on the styles and formats of the Geological Society of America and the United States Geological Survey.

GLG 360 Directed Field Trips. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Geologic field trips to areas of special interest. Because credit and destinations vary, the course may be repeated to a total of 8 credits. However, no more than 4 credits may count toward any Geology major. Graded Pass/Not Pass only. Variable Content Course. Course fee.

GLG 399 Internship in Geology. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Work experience in geology. Students have periodic conferences with geology faculty and supervisory personnel of the employing business or agency. May be repeated to a maximum of 3 hours.

GLG 412 Field Geology of the Midcontinent Region. 4(2-4) Su.

Prerequisite: GLG 314 and permission of instructor. Regional geology of the Midcontinent including the Ozark, Wichita, Arbuckle, Ouachita and Boston Mountains, and associated basins. Field methods are introduced; a representative collection of rock samples is made. Course fee.

GLG 413 Field Geology. 6, Su.

Prerequisite: GLG 314 and GLG 351 and a grade of "C" or better in both GLG 333 and GLG 340. Use of Brunton compass, Jacob staff, and tape in field methods; aerial photographs and topographic maps in mapping sedimentary, igneous, and metamorphic rocks; demonstration of lithostratigraphic succession and correlation in the field; preparation of geological reports from field data. Taught at off campus field station.

GLG 415 (315) Invertebrate Paleontology. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: GLG 314 or permission of instructor. Morphology and taxonomy of invertebrate fossils.

GLG 498 (459) Seminar in Geology. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Lectures and discussions of topics in geology. May be repeated for 4 hours.

GLG 499 Research in Geology. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Outstanding student obtains enrichment through guided, but independent, original research in geology and geology related subject areas. May be repeated at the discretion of the geology staff to a total of 6 hours.

GLG 523 Coastal Marine Geology. 2(2-0) Su.

Prerequisite: undergraduate: 6 credit hours of geology; graduate: 12 credit hours of geology. A study of inshore and nearshore geologic processes, sedimentation patterns and landform development. Concurrent enrollment in GLG 524 required. (Must be taken at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Ocean Springs, Mississippi).

GLG 524 Coastal Marine Geology Lab. 1(0-2) Su.

Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in GLG 523. Laboratory portion of GLG 523. Field and laboratory activities. (Must be taken at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Ocean Springs, Mississippi).

GLG 530 Optical Mineralogy. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 333. Essentials of optical crystallography; the use of the petrographic microscope in the identification of rock-forming minerals, both in oil-immersion grain mounts and in thin sections.

GLG 540 X-Ray Mineralogy. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 332 or permission of instructor. Principles and techniques of x-ray mineralogy; the use of x-ray powder diffraction in the identification and characterization of minerals and related crystalline phases.

GLG 570 Principles of Stratigraphy. 4(3-2) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 314 and GLG 333. Principles underlying the deposition of sediments; environmental control of lithofacies and biofacies; recognition of ancient depositional environments by key indicators and modern analogs.

GLG 572 Geohydrology. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 314; and either MTH 261 or MTH 287; or permission of instructor. Aquifer properties; elementary theory of groundwater flow through a porous medium; well and aquifer relationships. Laboratories include groundwater case studies and Hydrologic Investigation Atlas interpretations.

GLG 573 (571) Engineering Geology. 3(2-2) SE.

Prerequisite: GLG 333, and either MTH 261 or MTH 287; and either PHY 123 or PHY 203. Engineering properties of rocks and soils; fundamentals of rock and soil mechanics; application of properties and fundamentals to engineering problems concerning swelling clays, slope stability, groundwater, and karst areas. Laboratories include engineering classification of soils, soil strength determination, and hydraulic conductivity testing. Field trip to observe engineering problems of karst required.

GLG 580 Geochemistry. 3(3-0) FE.

Prerequisite: GLG 333; and either MTH 135 or MTH 138; or permission of instructor. Topics concerning the distribution of the chemical elements in nature.

GLG 581 Geochemical Techniques. 4(2-4) SO.

Prerequisite: GLG 332; and either MTH 135 or MTH 138; or permission of instructor. Geochemical techniques and procedures used in ore exploration, landfill contamination, and other environmental studies. Detection of trace elements in rocks, soils, plants and waters using x-ray, emission spectrographic, atomic absorption, and neutron activated techniques. Field trips required.

GLG 590 Applied Geophysics. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: GLG 340 (or permission of instructor); and either PHY 124 or PHY 204 (or concurrent enrollment in either); and either MTH 280 or MTH 288 (or concurrent enrollment in either). Application of geophysical methods in solving geologic problems. Techniques covered include seismic refraction and reflection, gravity, magnetics, direct current and electromagnetic resistivity. Field trips required.

GLG 597 (566) Selected Topics in Geology. 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Detailed treatment of various advanced topics in geology which may vary from year to year. Some typical topics: geologic instrumentation, selenology, sedimentology, and crystallography. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated for a total of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

GLG 601 Geology for Secondary Teachers I. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Earth materials, geological processes, geological history and the geological environments.

GLG 602 Geology for Secondary Teachers II. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: GLG 601. Continuation of GLG 601.

GLG 613 Field Geology for Secondary Teachers. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Field work; identification and correlation of rock units; determination of depositional environments from fossils and other indicators. Students are required to make a collection of specimens from rock formations in the study area. Course may be repeated to a total of 6 hours when destination varies. Course fee.

GLG 651 Seminar in Geology. 2(2-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Preparation of an extensive paper on selected topics to be read before staff seminars. Satisfies requirements for Option II. (Seminar) for the M.S. in Secondary Education.

GLG 665 Selected Topics in Earth Science. (Identical to GRY 640) 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Students cooperatively select from general subject areas in earth science more specific areas to explore. Topics are studied consecutively during the semester. Subject areas from which the topic selections are made are included in the class schedule for each term the course is offered. Since topics vary the course may be repeated for a total of six hours. Variable Content Course.

GLG 698 Research in the Geological Sciences. 1-3, D. Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Original research supervised by the geology staff, involving special areas of the geological sciences. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

GLG 699 Thesis. 1-6, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Independent research and study connected with preparation of thesis.

Resource Planning Courses

RPL 551 (661) Remote Sensing. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: GRY 360 or GLG 351. Analysis and interpretation of remote sensing imagery which includes urban, agriculture forestry, geology, and land planning. Digital image processing involves enhancement, geometric correction and classification routines.

RPL 562 (GRY) Introduction to Geographic Information Systems. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: GRY 363 or permission of instructor. Basic principles and applications of Geographic Information Systems (GIS). Examines the nature and accuracy of spatially referenced data, as well as methods of data capture, storage, retrieval, visualization and output.

RPL 566 (GRY) Advanced Geographic Information Systems. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: RPL 562. A theoretical and practical examination of analytical methods use in GIS, including vector and raster models, spatial overlay, incorporation of field data, analysis of surfaces, interpolation, TINs and network analysis.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

RPL 600 Introduction to Resource Planning. 3(3-0) F.

Orientation to resource planning and development of a research topic. Discussion of current issues revolving around the concepts of renewable and non-renewable resources in a cultural and physical framework.

RPL 601 Research Methods in Resource Planning. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 340 or permission of instructor. Methods of collecting, organizing and analyzing data pertinent to resource planning. Emphasis will be on developing research strategies and quantitative analyses where appropriate.

RPL 604 Community Resource Planning. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Explanation of community growth and change. Review of public and private agency programs. Topics may focus on small towns and rural areas as well as urban and metropolitan areas. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated for a maximum of 7 hours with permission.

RPL 650 Environmental Assessment. 3(2-2) S.

The procedures and processes of environmental assessment. Soils, hydrology, climate, biogeography and geomorphology will be examined in an environmental assessment context. Environmental assessment is a prerequisite for satisfying the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) requirements.

RPL 651 Issues and Problems in Land Resource Planning and Management. 1-3, D.

Course content will vary each time offered; emphasis will be on the examination and analysis of contemporary issues revolving around societal use of land as a non-renewable resource. Examples include: land use controls, environmental issues in land planning, a national land use policy, public ownership of land in critical resource areas, etc. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated for a maximum of 7 hours with permission.

RPL 652 Natural Resource Evaluation. 1-3, D.

Evaluation of natural resources including metallic and nonmetallic mineral deposits, fuels, soil, and water. Includes economic factors impacting on exploration, development, management and abandonment of accumulations of economically important earth materials. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated for a maximum of 7 hours with permission.

RPL 655 Applications of Digital Cartography, Analytical Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing in Resource Planning. 1-3, D.

Advanced application of aerial photography, analytical photogrammetry, remote sensing and digital cartography in areas of interest such as land use, geology, and soils. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated for a maximum of 7 hours with permission.

General Education Course

TEC 100 may be used to meet the Social Science Perspective of the Culture and Society Area of Inquiry.

Majors

Industrial Management (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog). It is recommended that the student take ENG 221 (3) and ECO 155. Specific General Education requirements: MTH 138(5), PHY 123 (4), CHM 105(5), PSY 121, and PHI 115(3). Note that completion of MTH 135 and 181 can be substituted for MTH 138; CHM 160 or GLG 110 for CHM 105; and PHY 203 for PHY 123.

B. Major Requirements

1. TEC 267(3), 268(3), 350(3), 359(3), 453(3), 455(3), 456(3), 494(1), 499(2), ACC 201(3), RIL 231(3), MGT 340(3), QBA 237(3), ECO 165(3)

2. Select one of the following options:

a. CADD Systems Management Technology (NOTE: This option may be deleted)

1. TEC 130(3), 131(3), 311(3), 313(3), 317(3), 318(3), 411(3), 419(3) and CSC 125(3). Note: TEC 121(3) and 122(3) may be substituted for TEC 130(3) and 131(3).

2. Select a minimum of six hours from: TEC 211(3), 361(1), 365(3), 399(1-3), 438(3) or other technical electives approved by the Industrial Management Department.

b. Construction Management Technology

1. TEC 121(3), 122(3), 221(3), 224(3), 321(3), 322(3), 323(2), 325(3), 426(3)

2. Select a minimum of six hours from: TEC 324(3), 361(1), 380(3), 399(1-3), 427(3) or other technical electives approved by the Industrial Management Department.

c. Electronic Systems Management Technology (NOTE: This option may be deleted)

1. TEC 143(3), 347(3), 348(3), 440(3), PHY 124(4), 220(4), 324(4), 352(3)

2. select a minimum of six hours from: TEC 142(3), 361(1), 380(3), 399(1-3), or other technical electives approved by the Industrial Management Department.

d. Manufacturing Systems Management Technology

1. TEC 130(3), 131(3), 311(3), 354(3), 355(3), 365(3), 380(3), 437(3), 438(3)

2. Select a minimum of six hours from: TEC 361(1), 399(1-3), 411(3), 459(3) or other technical electives approved by the Industrial Management Department.

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Industrial Technology (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Applied Science

A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)

B. Major Requirements

1. Associate of Science/Applied Science degree from accredited two-year institution. Contact the department for details.

2. 12 hours of upper division courses in the Department of Industrial Management with the approval of advisor.

C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Minor

Industrial Management

Bachelor of Science

TEC 121(3) or 130(3); 122(3) or 131(3); 350(3), 359(3), 453(3), 456(3)

University Certificate – Undergraduate

Manufacturing Management

The Certificate in Manufacturing Management provides a 12-hour educational experience with direct application to the needs of individuals currently employed in manufacturing related fields seeking professional growth and advancement within their profession.

Admission Requirements

To be considered for this certificate program, a student must have completed a college algebra course, a basic drafting course, and have prior manufacturing related technical education and/or experience. This requirement can be satisfied by completion of: MTH 135, TEC 110, TEC 130 and TEC 131 at SMSU; or an appropriate technical degree/courses; or three years of related work experience. An admission interview with a program mentor is also required.

Required Courses

TEC 350 Management and Control of Quality	3 hrs
TEC 354 Plant Layout and Work Design	3 hrs
TEC 355 Production Planning and Control	3 hrs
TEC 359 Project Management	3 hrs

GPA Requirements

Attain a grade point average of at least 2.00 on all certificate coursework at Southwest Missouri State University.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in Industrial Education. The Master of Science in Administrative Studies offers an option in Project Management. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

University Certificate – Graduate

A graduate level certificate program is available in Project Management. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Technology Courses

Courses having the designation CBE are available for credit by examination.

TEC 100 Technology's Impact on Society. (Identical to AGR 100) 3(3-0) F,S.

Technological progress of agriculture and industry and its socio-economic impact in a global environment.

TEC 110 Introduction to Industrial Drawing. 3(2-2) F,S.

CBE. Basic orthographic drafting and sketching theory and conventions. Auxiliaries, sections and dimensioning. Introduction to Computer Aided Drafting. (AutoCAD). Intended for students without previous drafting experience. This course does not count toward the Industrial Management major.

TEC 120 Introduction to Industrial Management. 2(2-0) F,S.

An introduction to industrial management with specific emphasis toward educational opportunities and activities in the Department of Technology. Course designed for students interested in Industrial Management. This course does not count toward the Industrial Management major.

TEC 121 (390) Construction Materials and Methods I. 3(2-2) F.

An introductory course which provides a survey of the materials and techniques of construction. Course will focus on a variety of materials used in light and commercial construction including metals and wood, thermal/moisture control, and finishes.

TEC 122 Construction Materials and Methods II. 3(2-2) S.

An introduction to the materials, and techniques of construction. Course will focus on masonry and concrete applications.

TEC 130 Manufacturing Materials and Processes I. 3(2-2) F.

An introduction and survey of the materials, machines, tools, and processes employed in manufacturing industries. Lectures, laboratory and plant visits are an essential part of this course.

TEC 131 (184) Manufacturing Materials and Processes II. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 130. Properties, application and commercial fabrication of various materials including plastics, composites, metals, wood and textiles. Laboratory experiences give basic understanding of how materials are processed. A continuation of TEC 130.

TEC 142 Introduction to Electronics. 3(2-2) F.

Elementary design, development, and assembly of electronic devices with emphasis on function and aesthetics.

TEC 143 Electronics: Passive Devices and Circuits. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 138 (or concurrent enrollment). Basic electrical and electronic principles and circuit analysis with an emphasis on passive components in dc and ac circuits.

TEC 170 Introduction to Printing Technology. 3(2-2) F,S.

Graphic arts processes, products and equipment. Examination of printing procedures in layout and design, darkroom processes, stripping, platemaking, presswork, and binding.

TEC 211 (310) Residential Architectural Drafting. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 110 or CAD experience. The study of architectural working drawings. Covers procedures used in developing a complete set of residential plans. Includes architectural drafting standards, design procedures, and building code requirements. (AutoCAD).

TEC 221 (190) Construction Contract Documents. 3(2-2) F.

An introduction to working drawings, specifications, and other construction documents. Designed to enable the student to read and interpret a complete set of contractual documents for commercial projects. Emphasis on the organization and use of specifications and architectural/engineering drawings in the construction process. Electronic acquisition of documents is also discussed. Students will study documents as supplied by architects, government agencies, and professional contracting organizations.

TEC 224 (490) Construction Quantity Estimating. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 138 and TEC 221. Material quantity takeoff for detailed construction estimates. Extensive use of spreadsheets and introduction to commercial estimating software.

TEC 267 Statics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: PHY 123. A study of the mechanics of forces associated with rigid bodies in equilibrium. Development of problem solving skills. Both English and metric units will be used.

TEC 268 Strengths of Materials. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: TEC 267. Stress-strain relationships; properties of areas; shear and moment diagrams; material properties. Both English and metric units will be used.

TEC 296 Readings in Technology. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Directed readings for individuals requiring additional depth or breadth of study. Outline of study must be approved prior to enrolling. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 297 (262) Topics in Technology. 1-3, D.

A variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester depending on faculty and student interests. Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 299 Cooperative Education in Technology. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: acceptance into SMSU Cooperative Education Program. The opportunity to earn academic credit in a planned learning process that integrates supervised work experience and education in an approved industrial setting. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 311 Engineering Graphics. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 268. Recommended: TEC 110 or CAD experience. A mechanical drawing course emphasizing working drawings, orthographic projection, pictorial representation, precision measurement, sectional and auxiliary views. Mechanical fasteners, gears, cams, revolution, intersection, fit classifications, geometric dimensioning and tolerancing are also included in this 3-D CADD based course.

TEC 313 Computer Graphics Programming. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: CSC 125. Students develop an interactive CAD software package. Principles of software design, the use of graphics hardware and the generating, modifying, and transforming of CAD entities and databases are included.

TEC 317 Constraint Based Modeling. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 311. The integration of 3-D solid modeling and surfacing techniques into part modeling, assembly, and animation.

TEC 318 (410) Structural Detailing. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 268. Recommended: TEC 110 or CAD experience. General course using CAD covering AISC standard detailing, welding symbols, connections, details, shapes, and plates. Design of bolted and welded connectors, beams, columns, framing, and process piping.

TEC 321 (391) Mechanical Systems For Buildings. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 123. This course addresses the principles and practices of heating, ventilation, cooling, plumbing and fire protection systems used in commercial and industrial applications. Emphasis is placed on coordination of design, applicable codes, estimating, installation, and problem solving.

TEC 322 (280) Electrical Systems for Buildings. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 138. This course addresses the principles and practices of electrical and lighting systems used in residential, commercial and industrial applications. Emphasis is placed on coordination of the NEC, design, estimating, and installation of various systems in the building process.

TEC 323 (393) Construction Layout and Dimensional Control. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 138 or both MTH 135 and MTH 181. Basic surveying necessary operations necessary for the location, layout, and construction of a building. Interpretation of plot books, site plans, and topographic maps is included.

TEC 324 Construction Cost Estimating. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 224. Development of feasibility estimates, conceptual estimates and system estimates. Applications of indirect and overhead cost. Preparation of bid proposals. Extensive use of commercial estimating applications.

TEC 325 Construction Planning and Scheduling. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 324. Introduction to the basic principles, techniques, and practices used as tools by contractors to plan, schedule, and control costs on building construction projects. Extensive use of commercial scheduling software.

TEC 347 Industrial Electronics. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 220 and PHY 352. Industrial control devices, circuits, and theory. Characteristics and response of transducers, motors, amplifiers, and power interface devices. Transfer function analysis of analog and digital controllers and signal conditioners.

TEC 348 Industrial Control Software. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 220 or permission. Evaluation and utilization of current programming procedures utilized in industrial control processes.

TEC 350 Management and Control of Quality. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: QBA 237 and 60 semester hours. An introduction to quality concepts in manufacturing and service systems. Includes case studies representing measurement and assurance in a variety of industries.

TEC 354 Plant Layout and Work Design. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 131. Recommended: TEC 110 or CAD competency. A study of facilities design and material handling systems and their integration into a manufacturing unit to achieve the most effective, economical, and safe relationships between the movement of labor, material, and equipment as they and the product flow from receiving through fabrication to the shipment of the finished product. The student will receive computer application experience in a laboratory.

TEC 355 Production Planning & Control. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 131. Production planning and control activities in the various manufacturing environments. Focus will be placed on the necessary prerequisites for an effective shop floor control system. Assemble-to-order, engineer-to-order, make-to-order, and make-to-stock are emphasized from the perspectives of volume and variety of output of manufacturing systems.

TEC 359 Project Management. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 138 or both MTH 135 and MTH 181. A study of technical management's planning, organizing, directing, controlling, and coordinating functions used to achieve productivity enhancements in a project environment. Includes case studies from a variety of industries. Computer laboratory experiences will emphasize project control utilizing commercial software.

TEC 361 Service Learning in Technology. 1, F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Technology course designated as a service learning offering. This service component of an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Technology to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of an participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. No more than one hour of service learning may count toward graduation.

TEC 365 Computer Integrated Manufacturing I. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 131 and TEC 311. A study of the integrated 3-D CAD/CAM/CAE approach to planning, designing, and manufacturing mechanical parts. Parts are created on a 3-D CAD system, analyzed, and processed by CAM software for tool path programming.

TEC 372 Computer Aided Publishing. 3(2-2) F,S.

Principles, procedures, techniques, and applications of desktop publishing, word processing, and computer typesetting. Minimum typing skills are expected.

TEC 380 Industrial Power Systems. 3(2-2)S.

Prerequisite: PHY 123. Commercial/industrial power applications. Includes generation, transmission, and use of electrical, hydraulic and pneumatic power. Emphasis is on components, system control techniques, logic, system analysis and design.

TEC 396 Readings in Technology. 1-3. F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Directed readings for individuals requiring additional depth or breadth of study. Outline of study must be approved prior to enrolling. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 397 (360) Topics in Technology. 1-3, D.

A variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester depending on faculty and student interests. Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. May be repeated for a total of 6 hours.

TEC 399 (392) Cooperative Education in Technology. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: acceptance into SMSU Cooperative Education Program and 60 semester hours. The opportunity to earn academic credit in a planned learning process that integrates supervised work experience and education in an approved industrial setting. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 411 Design and Analysis. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 317. A study of the role of the technologist in the decision making process which design professionals use to formulate plans for the physical realization of components and systems. Topics include design phases, codes, standards, stress analysis, failure criteria, design for fatigue strength, and the design of mechanical elements.

TEC 416 (SEC) Principles of Teaching Industrial Education. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: SEC 300, 301, TEC 101, 110, 130, or teacher certification or permission of department head. Instructional methods of attaining the objectives of technology education and vocational industrial technical education; design of individualized instruction and classroom and laboratory management; techniques of problem solving and applied decision-making; construction of tests; student evaluation; and use of visual aides. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). Meets Missouri certification requirements for technology education and vocational industrial technical education. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

TEC 419 CADD Systems Management. 3 (3-0) S.

Prerequisite: TEC 313 and 90 hours total. An overview of relevant topics which impact manufacturing document production control technology with an emphasis on product database management.

TEC 420 Teaching Multiple Activities. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 416 or concurrent enrollment. Techniques, constructional activities and instructional materials used in the teaching of the general shop in elementary and secondary schools.

TEC 426 (496) Construction Project Administration. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: ACC 201 and TEC 221. A study of the legal and administrative aspects of construction projects. Includes use of documents, subcontracting, purchasing, changes, claims, payments, and closeout.

TEC 427 Construction Equipment Management. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: TEC 324. Study of the basic principles, practices, and techniques used in the construction industry for selecting and managing construction equipment. Focuses on understanding the time value of money, estimating equipment ownership and operating costs, selecting the proper equipment for specific construction tasks, and estimating equipment production.

TEC 437 Materials Testing and Measurement. 3(2-2) S.
Prerequisite: TEC 268. A study of the behavior and properties of stressed materials and their effect on design and fabrication. Testing procedures for materials testing, inspection, and gauging techniques.

TEC 438 Computer Integrated Manufacturing II. 3(2-2) F.
Prerequisite: TEC 365. Use of computers in manufacturing applications for machine control and systems control. Laboratory experience to model manufacturing applications.

TEC 440 Analog and Digital Communication. 3(2-2) S.
Prerequisite: PHY 220 and PHY 352. Theory and application of transmitter-receiver circuits with emphasis on AM, FM, SSB, telemetry, digital data communication networks, and antennas. Fiber optics, HF, VHF, UHF, and microwave propagation are discussed.

TEC 453 (492) Industrial Management Accounting and Project Control. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: ACC 201 and 60 semester hours. Introduction to accounting practices used by industry placing emphasis on the analysis and use of financial statements and job cost accounting systems.

TEC 455 (250) Industrial Safety Management. 3(3-0) F,S.
Prerequisite: 60 semester hours. Occupational safety and health standards and codes. Hazard recognition, accident costs, accident prevention, ethic and administration.

TEC 456 Industrial Supervision. 3(3-0) F,S.
Prerequisite: 60 hours. A study of the role of the supervisor and the management concepts and techniques that may be utilized to optimize the productivity of a industrial enterprise. Leadership and teambuilding roles of the supervisor.

TEC 459 Distribution Systems. 3(3-0) S.
Prerequisite: 60 hours and MTH 138 or both MTH 135 and MTH 181. A study of pull and push distribution systems and their interrelationships to manufacturing and the emerging global marketplace. Channels of distribution, forecasting techniques, and independent demand inventory models will be central topics. The design of distribution systems will also be considered from local to global perspectives. Engineering, producing, and shipping the product to the marketplace also will be explored.

TEC 494 Senior Project: Internship. 1 F,S.
Prerequisite: department permission. The information gathering phase of the capstone project in which students demonstrate achievement of program objectives through solution of a problem provided by an industry sponsor. Requires written proposal and timeline for solution. Team projects (no more than three members) are permissible and encouraged.

TEC 497 Topics in Technology. 1-3, D.
Prerequisite: departmental permission. A variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester depending on faculty and student interests. Consult the semester class schedule for current offerings under this number. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 499 Senior Project: Report. 2 F,S.
Prerequisite: TEC 494. A capstone project in which students demonstrate attainment of program objectives through solution of a problem provided by an industry sponsor. Requires technical report and oral presentation. Evaluated by committee from faculty and industry. Team projects are permissible and encouraged.

TEC 520 Occupational Analysis. (Identical with BSE 520). 1-2, D.
Analysis and breakdown of broad occupations or specific jobs into basic elements for instructional purposes. May be repeated to a total of 2 hours.

TEC 521 Selection and Organization of Industrial Education. 3(3-0) F.
Selection and arrangement of units to teach; preparation of informational and job assignments; selection, purchase and arrangement of laboratory equipment; dispensing of supplies and keeping of adequate records. (Course typically taken in same semester as SEC 416.)

TEC 522 Philosophy of Vocational Education. (Identical with SEC 522, BSE 522) 1-3, D.

Philosophical foundations of vocational education; philosophies of vocational education in the contemporary school. Meets Missouri Vocational Education certification requirements. May be repeated to a maximum of 3 credit hours.

TEC 523 Guidance for Vocational Development. (Identical with BSE 523) 1-3, D.

Materials, procedures, and problems involved in the guidance of individuals in the selection of, preparation for and advancement in a vocation. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours with departmental permission.

TEC 525 Organization and Management in Vocational Education. 3(3-0) D.

A systematic approach to defining and measuring occupational knowledge, skills and attitudes based upon an occupational analysis, instructional methodology, evaluation, and program standards.

TEC 526 Coordination of Cooperative Education. (Identical with BSE 526 and SEC 526) 1-2, D.

Problems and procedures in organizing and operating part time cooperative and evening occupation programs. May be repeated to a total of 2 hours.

TEC 527 Teaching Adults in Vocational Education. (Identical with AGE 508 and SEC 527) 3(3-0) D.

Rise of the adult education movement; learning abilities, educational interests and vocational needs of adults; problems and procedures in organizing and operating adult education programs; relationship of adult education to public school education.

TEC 528 Measurement and Evaluation of Vocational Education Programs. (Identical with BSE 528 and SEC 528) 1-3, D.

Means for assessing specific program needs as determined from occupational surveys and other demographic data; follow-up techniques to evaluate the overall effectiveness of the program to the manpower needs in a given labor market area. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours with departmental approval.

TEC 530 Advanced Manufacturing Technology. 3(2-2) S.
A study of current manufacturing systems including product development and production methods. Emphasis is placed on production planning and processes including computer-aided manufacturing and control, inspection, and quality assurance techniques.

TEC 535 Managing Engineering and Technology. 3(3-0) F, S.
The management functions of planning, organizing, motivating and controlling with an emphasis on the management of technology.

TEC 545 Industrial Control Systems. 3(1-4) S.
Prerequisite: TEC 347 and TEC 348. Advanced analysis and application of microcomputers with an emphasis on their use in industrial control, interfacing, and system design in a project format. Project documentation will be required.

TEC 550 (450) Statistical Quality Control and Design of Experiments. 3(3-0) F,S.

Recommend: QBA 237 or other statistics course. Topics include the practice of statistical techniques widely used in industry to improve quality of the product, to reduce costs, and to solve problems. This course emphasizes the concepts and techniques of statistical process control and design of experiments from the user's point of view.

TEC 551 (451) Cost Analysis for Industrial Management. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 135 or higher. The use of engineering economic analysis as a decision making tool in the context of project management. Topics include problems in equipment acquisition, replacement, and capital budgeting.

TEC 596 Readings in Industrial Management. 1-3, F,S.
Prerequisite: permission of department head. Directed readings for individuals requiring additional depth or breadth of study. Outline of study must be approved prior to enrolling. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

TEC 597 (560) Topics in Industrial Management. 1-3, D.

A variable content course with topics that depend on faculty and student interests. Consult the semester class schedule for the current offering under this number. May be repeated up to a total of 9 hours when content varies.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

TEC 624 Organization and Administration of Vocational Education. (Identical with SFR 624 and BSE 624) 1-3, D.

Problems, procedures and local, state and federal relationships in the organization and administration of vocational education in the contemporary school. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

TEC 626 Seminar in Industrial Education. 3(3-0) D.

Presentation and discussion of professional or technical problems in the organization and management of programs and facilities in industrial education.

TEC 650 Project Management. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: TEC 535. Practical examination of project management from start to finish, including specific emphasis on planning and controlling to avoid common pitfalls. Topics include identifying needs, defining requirements, project costing, scheduling, resource allocation, and project politics. Students are expected to demonstrate the ability to apply the knowledge and experience gained in their program of study to the evaluation and analysis of project case studies that include projects ranging from the space shuttle to affordable housing.

TEC 660 Special Investigations. 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. The student in consultation with the advisor selects for in-depth study an area determined by the interest and background of the students. Based on demand and timeliness of the subject a cluster study group may engage in a joint investigation. May be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

TEC 692 Graduate Internship. 3(3-0) F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. Educational experience in cooperation with student's full-time employer. Written, oral, and classroom assignments related to workplace improvement. May be repeated, but no more than 6 hours may be counted as credit toward a Master's degree.

TEC 698 Research. 1-6, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of advisor. Supervised research in technology. May be repeated, but not more than 6 hours may be counted toward a Master's degree. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

TEC 699 Thesis. 1-3, F,S,Su.

Prerequisite: permission of the department head. Preparation of a thesis. May be repeated, but no more than 6 hours may be counted as credit toward a Master's degree. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

General Education Courses

All students must complete a college level algebra course numbered 135 or higher (excluding MTH 299). Many majors require a specific mathematics course. Please refer to the Specific General Education Requirements listed under the department of your major.

Mathematics Placement Test

Beginning Fall 1997, students will be allowed to use their ACT math subscore (NOT the composite score) as a placement according to the following table:

Score	Placement
ACT Math ≥ 27	MTH 340, 287, 285, 261, 181, 138, 145, 135
ACT Math ≥ 26	MTH 285, 181, 138, 145, 135
ACT Math ≥ 24	MTH 145, 138, 135, 103, 102, 101
ACT Math ≥ 22	MTH 145, 135, 103, 102, 101
ACT Math ≥ 20	MTH 103, 101
ACT Math ≤ 19	Must take placement test

If the placement according to the above table is not satisfactory, a student may still elect to participate in the placement test. In the event that the outcome from the test is different from the one through ACT, it will be the student's decision to choose either one after consulting with an advisor.

The one-hour placement test administered by the Mathematics Department will consist of fifty questions in three components: basic algebra; advanced algebra, and trigonometry.

Students will have an option to attempt only the basic algebra portion during the first thirty minutes and turn in the test if they so desire. They are, however, strongly encouraged to attempt the whole test.

There is no charge for the mathematics placement test, and there is no need to sign up in advance. Please contact the Mathematics Department for further information.

High School Core Curriculum

High school mathematics preparation strongly contributes to students' success in their initial mathematics courses taken at SMSU. Three units of mathematics at the high school algebra level and beyond are required for admission to SMSU (see "Admission" section of this catalog). The Mathematics Department assumes these three units contain a minimum of the content and performance skills experienced in Algebra I, Geometry, and Algebra II.

Majors

Mathematics (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major Requirements
 - 1. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 302(3), 303(3), 315(3), 497(1), 503(3), 532(3), 533(3), 540(3); MTH 541(3) or CSC 421(3)

- 2. Select an additional 18 hours from mathematics courses numbered 400 or above or CSC 324(3), 421(3), 422(3). The comprehensive major is individualized. Selection of courses for the additional 18 hours shall be made in conference with the advisor and is subject to approval by the department head. Students are encouraged to elect courses from other disciplines to enhance the comprehensive major. Minimum for major is 56 hours.
- 3. Courses required from related areas: CSC 125(3) or 131(4); PHY 203(5) (PHY 203 may partially fulfill the natural world general education requirement.)
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Mathematics (Non-Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Arts

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major Requirements
 - 1. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 302(3), 315(3), 497(1), 503(3), 532(3), 533(3), 540(3)
 - 2. Select an additional course from: MTH 303(3), 575(3), CSC 421(3), or from mathematics courses numbered 400 or above. Minimum for major is 34 hours.
 - 3. Course required from related area: CSC 121(3) or 125(3) or 131(4)
- C. Minor Required
- D. Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Arts Degree (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Mathematics (Non-Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major Requirements
 - 1. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 302(3), 303(3), 315(3), 497(1), 503(3), 532(3), 533(3), 540(3)
 - 2. Select one of the following options:
 - a. Actuarial Mathematics:
 - 1. MTH 450(3), 541(3)
 - 2. Select an additional six hours from the following courses: CSC 421(3), 422(3); MTH 543(3), 546(3), 547(3)
 - b. Applied Mathematics:
 - 1. CSC 421(3)
 - 2. Select an additional nine hours from the following courses: CSC 422(3); MTH 507(3), 543(3), 570(3), 580(3)
 - c. General Mathematics:
 - 1. MTH 541(3) or CSC 421(3)

2. Select an additional nine hours from the following courses, with at least three hours from mathematics courses numbered 400 or above: Mathematics courses numbered 400 or above; CSC 324(3), 421(3), 422(3)
- d. Statistics:
 1. MTH 541(3)
 2. Select an additional nine hours from the following courses: MTH 543(3), 545(3), 546(3), 547(3), 548(3)
3. Courses required from related areas: CSC 125(3) or 131(4); PHY 203(5) (PHY 203 may partially fulfill the natural science general education requirement.)
- C. Minor Required
- D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Mathematics (Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades 9-12)

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)
- C. Major Requirements
 1. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 302(3), 315(3), 460(3), 497(1), 503(3), 533(3), 540(3), 575(3)
 2. Select one course from: MTH 532(3), 536(3), 541(3), 567(3)
 3. Select 20 additional hours from courses numbered 300 or above with the exception that CSC 125 may be selected as part of the 20 hours. The comprehensive major is individualized. Selection of courses for the additional 20 hours shall be made in conference with the advisor and is subject to approval by the department head. Students are encouraged to elect courses from other disciplines to enhance the comprehensive major. Minimum for major is 58 hours.
 4. Courses required from related areas: CSC 121(3) or 125(3) or 131(4); PHY 123(4) or 203(5) (PHY course may partially fulfill the natural science general education requirement.)
- D. Professional Education courses: MTH 409(3) and see College of Education/Secondary Education section
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Mathematics (Non-Comprehensive) Bachelor of Science in Education (Certifiable grades 9-12)

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)
- C. Major Requirements
 1. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 302(3), 315(3), 460(3), 497(1), 503(3), 533(3), 540(3), 575(3)
 2. Select one course from: MTH 532(3), 536(3), 541(3), 567(3)
 3. Courses required from related areas: CSC 121(3) or 125(3) or 131(4); PHY 123(4) or 203(5) (PHY course may partially fulfill the natural science general education requirement.)

- D. Professional Education courses: MTH 409(3) and see College of Education/Secondary Education section
- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Pre-Engineering

The Department of Mathematics offers a two-year pre-engineering program in cooperation with the University of Missouri system at Columbia and at Rolla. Transfer to other engineering schools from this same program is also possible, since most pre-engineering programs cover the same background material; students should check with the school of their choice for details. Typical course schedules for several of the different engineering specialties can be obtained from the departmental office. A two-year pre-engineering program is also available through the Department of Physics, Astronomy, and Materials Science.

Actuarial Science

Students may pursue a career as an actuary by choosing a major and minor in related areas and selecting appropriate electives. Students interested in actuarial science typically major in mathematics with the actuarial mathematics option and minor in insurance. Help in preparing for the early actuarial exams is available through the Mathematics Department. For more information, contact the Mathematics Department or the Finance and General Business Department.

Minors

Mathematics

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

A total of 15 or more hours to include:

- A. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 315(3)
- B. Additional mathematics courses numbered 300 or above.

Mathematics

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Non-Certifiable)

- A. MTH 261(5), 280(5), 315(3), 575(3)
- B. Select one course from: CSC 121(3), 125(3), 131(4)
- C. Select one course from: MTH 460(3), 567(3)
- D. Select additional mathematics courses numbered 300 or above to total at least 24 hours.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers a major in mathematics. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in mathematics. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Accelerated Master of Science in Mathematics Program

Outstanding undergraduate mathematics majors may apply for admission to this accelerated program during the second semester of the junior year. If accepted, up to 6 hours of credit of 500- or 600-level mathematics courses may be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate programs. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Mathematics Courses

MTH 101 Intermediate Algebra I. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: an approved score on departmental placement test. This course is recommended for students who have not mastered algebra concepts needed for college algebra. Topics include linear equations and inequalities, absolute value equations and inequalities, exponents, polynomials, rational expressions, and radicals. A student who takes MTH 103 and MTH 101 receives credit toward graduation for only one of these courses. This course will not count toward a mathematics major or minor. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course to take MTH 102. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 102 Intermediate Algebra II. 2(1-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 101, or an approved score on departmental placement test. This course is a continuation of MTH 101. Topics include quadratic equations and inequalities, lines, systems of equations, parabolas, circles, and functions. A student who takes MTH 103 and MTH 102 receives credit toward graduation for only one of these courses. This course will not count toward a mathematics major or minor. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course to take MTH 135, MTH 138, or MTH 145. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 103 (3) Intermediate Algebra 3(3-0) or (2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: an approved score on the departmental placement test. This course is recommended for students who have not mastered algebra concepts needed for college algebra. Topics will include linear and quadratic equations, absolute value equations and inequalities, linear and nonlinear inequalities, properties of exponents, rectangular coordinate systems, lines, circles, parabolas, systems of equations, polynomials and rational expressions, and functions. A student cannot receive credit toward graduation for both MTH 103 and either of MTH 101 and 102. This course will not count toward a mathematics major or minor. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take MTH 135, MTH 138, or MTH 145. This course may not be taken pass/not pass. Assignment to the 3(3-0) version of the course is in summer only.

MTH 135 College Algebra. 3(3-0) or (2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 102 or MTH 103, or an approved score on a departmental placement test. Contents include the study of linear and quadratic equations; inequalities and their applications; polynomial, rational, exponential and logarithmic functions; and systems of equations. A student who takes MTH 135 and MTH 138 receives credit toward graduation for MTH 138 only. This course will not count toward a mathematics major or minor. Assignment to the 3(3-0) version of the course is in the summer session only. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course to take MTH 181, MTH 285, or MTH 287. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 138 Pre-Calculus Mathematics. 5(5-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 102 or MTH 103 or an approved score on the departmental placement test. Selected topics in algebra and trigonometry to prepare the student for calculus. A student who takes MTH 135 and 138 receives credit toward graduation only for one of the courses. Will not count toward mathematics major or minor. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take MTH 261, 287, CSC 125 or 131. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 145 Contemporary Mathematics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 102 or MTH 103 or an approved score on a departmental placement test. This is a problem solving course. Core topics will be: patterns, set theory, algebra applications, number theory, geometry, probability, statistics, and mathematics of finance. It will not substitute for any other mathematics course. This course will not count towards a mathematics major or minor. A grade of "C" or better is required to take MTH 320. This course will not serve as a prerequisite for any mathematics courses except MTH 320. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 181 Trigonometry. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 135, or an approved score on a departmental placement test. Triangle trigonometry and its applications; trigonometric and inverse trigonometric functions; trigonometric identities and equations; Rational, exponential and logarithmic functions. A student may not receive credit for more than one of MTH 138 and 181. Will not count toward mathematics major or minor. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take MTH 287. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 261 Analytic Geometry and Calculus I. 5(5-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 138 or an approved score on a departmental placement test or permission of department head. Analytic geometry of the plane, limits, continuity, differentiation with applications, introductory integration with applications. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take MTH 280, 288. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 280 Analytic Geometry and Calculus II. 5(5-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MTH 261, or permission of department head. Applications of integration, integration techniques, indeterminate forms, improper integrals, sequences, series, conic sections, parametrization, polar coordinates. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 285 Calculus for Business and the Social Sciences. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MTH 135, or an approved score on a departmental placement test. Short review of algebra; absolute value and inequalities followed by elements of geometry, limits, the derivative, anti-derivative, and their applications. Student taking MTH 285 and 261 receives credit only for 261.

MTH 287 Computational Calculus with Analytic Geometry I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MTH 138, or "C" or better in both MTH 135 and MTH 181, or an approved score on a departmental placement test. Introduction to the concepts and methods of analytic geometry and differential and integral calculus with emphasis on applications in the natural sciences and technology. Students taking MTH 287 and MTH 261 receive credit only for MTH 261. A student can receive credit for only one of the courses MTH 285 or MTH 287. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take MTH 288. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 288 Computational Calculus II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in MTH 261 or MTH 287. Continuation of MTH 287. Students taking both MTH 288 and MTH 280 receive credit only for MTH 280. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 299 Introductory Topics in Mathematics. 1-3, D.

Variable content course with topics that can change from semester to semester. Topics will be identified by title in the schedule of classes. The course may be repeated if a different topic is offered. Will not count toward a mathematics major or minor, nor will it satisfy the general education basic skills requirement in mathematics.

MTH 300 Service Learning in Mathematics. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Mathematics course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in mathematics to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning credit may count toward graduation.

MTH 302 Multivariate Calculus. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 280. Vector algebra and calculus, solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation, multiple integration, vector fields.

MTH 303 Differential Equations. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302. Ordinary differential equations; their solutions and applications. Introduction to operators and the Laplace transformation.

MTH 315(230, 322) Algebraic Structures. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 261. Sets, logic, functions, relations, matrices, induction, recursion, combinatorics, quantifiers, infinite sets, with emphasis on reading and writing proofs and the development of mathematical maturity.

MTH 320 Foundations of Mathematics for Teachers. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MTH 145. This course centers around the structure and properties of the real number system and its subsets. Numeration systems, patterns of numbers, models and algorithms for operations, number theory, probability, and statistics will be studied. Problem solving and communication are continuing themes of this course. Manipulatives (including Base-10 Blocks, Cuisenaire Rods, Number Cubes, and Colored Counters), calculators, and computer software (including a statistical package, spreadsheet and word processor) are used extensively as tools to develop mathematical concepts. Cannot be used as a mathematics elective for the mathematics major or minor.

MTH 340 Statistical Methods. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 135 or an approved score on a departmental placement test. Statistics, elementary probability, estimation and tests of simple hypotheses involving both large and small sample methods, linear correlation. Will not count toward mathematics major or minor. A student may not receive credit toward a degree for more than one of the following courses: AGR 330, ECO 308, MTH 340, PSY 200, QBA 237, REC 331, SOC 302.

MTH 343 Foundations of Probability and Statistics for Teachers. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MTH 320. This course includes the collection, display, analysis, and misuse of data, measures of central tendency and variation; counting techniques including permutations and combinations; elementary probability, and an informal introduction to correlation and regression. Problem solving and communication skills are continuing themes. This is an activity-based course with extensive use of manipulatives, models and technology. It cannot be used as a mathematics elective for a mathematics major or minor.

MTH 345 Statistics for Scientists and Engineers. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 280 or MTH 288. Topics include events, probability, random variables, discrete and continuous density functions, expectations, sampling distributions, central limit theorem, estimation, confidence intervals, tests or hypotheses. Computer statistical packages will be used for simulation study and data analysis.

MTH 360 Foundations of Geometry for Teachers. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" or better in MTH 320. This course includes the study of synthetic, analytic, vector and transformational geometries through properties of geometric figures, measurement, construction, conjecture and proof, and tessellations. Problem solving and communication are continuing themes of this course. Manipulatives (including MIRA, Geoboard, Tangrams, Attribute Blocks and compass), calculators, and computer software (including Logo, Geometer's Sketchpad and a word processor) are used extensively as tools to develop geometric concepts. Cannot be used as a mathematics elective for the mathematics major or minor.

MTH 377 Mathematical Processes. 3(2-2) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 135 and MTH 343. This course examines both finite and infinite mathematical processes used when solving problems involving discrete or continuous data. As an activity-base and laboratory-centered course, these processes are to be explored in the context of real-world applications. Communication of mathematical concepts and solutions to problems using technology, as well as paper and pencil procedures, is a continuing theme. This course is for the middle school education major who chooses mathematics as an area of subject matter concentration and elementary education majors with an emphasis area in mathematics. The course connects experiences from the concepts of numbers, algebra, geometry, and data analysis to those of the calculus. This course cannot be used as a mathematics elective for the mathematics major or minor.

MTH 409 (SEC) Teaching of High School Mathematics. 3(2-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: SEC 300 and SEC 301 and MTH 302. Develops foundation for reflective decision-making when teaching mathematics to emphasize problem solving, communication, reasoning and connections. Credited only on B.S. in Education (Secondary). A grade of "C" or better is required in this course in order to take SEC 493 or SEC 494. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

MTH 450 Theory of Interest. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. A thorough treatment of the mathematical theory of interest with some discussion of economic aspects such as inflation, risk and uncertainty, and yield curves. Topics include: Annuities, yield rates, amortization, bonds, and sinking funds.

MTH 460 College Geometry. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 315. This course examines concepts not usually included in a high school plane geometry course: axiomatic structure, finite geometries, poles and polars, transformations in two or three dimensions, convexity, geometry of polygons, the nine-point circle, constructions, and an introduction to non-Euclidean geometry.

MTH 479 Mathematical Tools and Structures. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 343 or MTH 360. Recommended: 15 hours of elementary or middle school mathematics. This course is designed to coordinate, connect and extend the mathematical experiences of the student who is preparing to teach mathematics in the middle school. Specific course content will include all of the following: an in-depth overview of problem solving and the nature of proof in mathematics and the mathematics classroom; history of the development of mathematics; a variety of mathematical topics such as algebraic structures, discrete mathematics, fractals and chaos, etc.; examination and exploration of mathematical topics that are appropriate and necessary for middle school students to ensure their efficient transition into secondary mathematics. A constant awareness of the use and impact of technology upon the mathematician and the mathematics classroom is explored and integrated throughout the course. The course experience is culminated in the final project, which will be an original, independent investigating of some relevant mathematical topic of interest to the student. This course cannot be used as a mathematics elective for the mathematics major or minor.

MTH 497 (490) Topics. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 90 credit hours. Recommended: completion of or concurrent enrollment in all mathematics courses required for the mathematics major. A written paper on a mathematical topic will be required. The student will be exposed to elementary research topics and to professional opportunities including graduate programs, employment by business, industry and government, and teaching options. Each student will be required to take the mathematics major assessment exam.

MTH 503 Advanced Calculus I. 3(3-0) F, S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Concepts of limit, continuity, differentiation, Riemann integration, sequences and series, other related topics.

MTH 504 Advanced Calculus II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 503. This is a continuation of MTH 503, including sequences and series of functions, uniform convergence, multivariate calculus, and other selected topics.

MTH 506 Theory of Functions of a Complex Variable. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Theory of elementary functions—polynomial, trigonometric, exponential, hyperbolic, logarithmic—of a complex variable; their derivatives, integrals; power series; other selected topics.

MTH 507 Introduction to Partial Differential Equations. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 303 and MTH 315. Introduction to linear first and second order partial differential equations, including some formal methods of finding general solutions; the Cauchy problem for such equations, existence theorems, formal methods of finding the solution, and the role of characteristics; the classical boundary and initial value problems for the wave equation, heat equation and the boundary value problems for Laplace's equation.

MTH 532 Introduction to Abstract Algebra. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Theory of groups, rings, integral domains, fields, polynomials.

MTH 533 Linear Algebra I. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Vector spaces, linear independence, inner product spaces, linear transformations, Eigenvectors, diagonalization.

MTH 534 Linear Algebra II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 533. Topics include eigenvalue problems; Jordan normal form, linear functionals, bilinear forms, quadratic forms, orthogonal and unitary transformations, Markov processes, and other topics selected by the instructor.

MTH 536 Theory of Numbers. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Factorization, Euler totient function, congruences, primitive roots, quadratic residues and reciprocity law.

MTH 540 (440) Statistical Theory I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Random variables, discrete and continuous probability functions, expectation, moment-generating functions, transformation of variables.

MTH 541 Statistical Theory II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 540. Estimation, complete and sufficient statistics, maximum likelihood estimation, hypothesis testing, nonparametric statistics.

MTH 543 Stochastic Modeling. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 540. This course will study applications of probability and statistics from a modeling point of view. Topics include generating functions, branching processes, discrete time Markov chains, classification of states, estimation of transition probabilities, continuous time Markov Chains, Poisson processes, birth and death processes, renewal theory, queueing systems, Brownian motion, and stationary processes. Computer statistical packages will be used.

MTH 545 Applied Statistics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours and either MTH 135 or MTH 138. A course on statistical concepts, methods and data analysis with emphasis on assumptions and effects on violating those assumptions. Computer statistical packages will be used. Topics include statistical models, random sampling, normal distribution, estimation, confidence intervals, tests and inferences in single and two populations, and n-way analysis of variance.

MTH 546 Analysis of Variance and Design of Experiments. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 345 or MTH 541 or MTH 545 or permission of the department head. Topics include analysis of variance, estimation of variance components, randomized incomplete blocks, Latin squares, factorial nested, split-plot designs, fixed, random and mixed models.

MTH 547 Applied Regression Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 345 or MTH 541 or MTH 545 or permission of the department head. Topics include fitting a straight line, matrix models, residuals, selecting best equation, multiple regression, and nonlinear estimation.

MTH 548 Applied Time Series Analysis. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 345 or MTH 541 or MTH 545 or permission of the department head. This course will study the analysis of data observed at different points of time. Topics include stationary and nonstationary time series models, linear time series models, autoregressive models, autocorrelations, partial autocorrelations, moving average models, ARMA models, ARIMA models, forecasting, prediction limits, model specification, least square estimation, and seasonal time series models. Computer statistical packages will be used.

MTH 567 Introduction to Non-Euclidean Geometry. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Development of non-Euclidean geometries; intensive study of hyperbolic geometry.

MTH 570 Combinatorial Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 280. An introduction to combinatorial analysis including enumeration methods, combinatorial identities with applications to the calculus of finite differences and difference equations.

MTH 575 (370) History of Mathematics. 3(3-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Development of mathematics through the calculus; solution of problems of historical interest, problems which use historically significant techniques; problems whose solutions illuminate significant mathematical characteristics of elementary mathematics.

MTH 580 Applied Mathematics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 303 and MTH 533 or permission of the department head. An introduction to several areas of applied mathematics including control theory, optimization, modeling of population dynamics, modeling of mathematical economics, minimax and game theory, and calculus of variations.

MTH 582 Introductory Topology. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 302 and MTH 315. Properties of abstract metric and topological spaces; discussion of concepts of compactness and connectedness.

MTH 596 (554) Readings. 1-3, F,S.

Prerequisite: permission of the department head. Periodic conferences with an advisor are required. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

MTH 601 Real Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 503. Topics include countable and uncountable sets, convergence, Lebesgue measure on the real line, the development of the Lebesgue integral, the fundamental theorem of calculus and L^p spaces.

MTH 602 Real and Abstract Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 601. A study of the theory of abstract measures and integration, and an introduction to functional analysis.

MTH 606 Complex Analysis. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 503. Analytic functions, power series, Cauchy's theorem and its applications, residues. Selected topics from conformal mapping, analytic continuation, harmonic functions, Fourier series, and Dirichlet problems.

MTH 610 Contemporary Mathematics for Secondary Teachers. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: either MTH 532 or MTH 533 and; either MTH 460 or MTH 567. Reports, research, and recent trends in secondary mathematics; recently developed programs in algebra and geometry.

MTH 621 Theory of Ordinary Differential Equations I. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 303 and MTH 503. Existence and uniqueness theorems for first order differential equations; system of linear and nonlinear differential equations; continuous dependence of solutions on initial conditions and parameters; behavior of solutions of equations with constant coefficients, study of Lyapunov's theorems on stability; introduction to boundary value problems.

MTH 622 Theory of Ordinary Differential Equations II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 621. Theory and application of boundary value problems; periodic solutions; linear systems with periodic coefficients (Floquet theory); two dimensional (autonomous) systems limit cycles. Differential equations under Caratheodory conditions; theory of differential and integral inequalities and other selected topics, if time permits.

MTH 630 Abstract Algebra I. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 532 and MTH 533. Topics from group theory will include Cayley's Theorem, finite abelian groups, Cauchy's Theorem, the Sylow Theorems, and free groups.

MTH 632 Abstract Algebra II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 630. Topics from ring theory will include the Chinese Remainder Theorem, Euclidean domains, rings of fractions, PID's and UFD's, and polynomial rings. Topics from field theory will include splitting fields, Galois Theory, separability, normality, and finite fields.

MTH 641 Statistical Inference I. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 541. Formulation of statistical models, sufficiency and exponential families, methods of estimation, optimality theory. Uniformly minimum variance unbiased estimators, Fisher information, Cramer/Rao inequality, large sample theory, Bayes procedures and minimax procedures.

MTH 642 Statistical Inference II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: MTH 641. Confidence intervals and regions, hypothesis testing, the Neyman-Pearson framework, uniformly most powerful tests, likelihood ratio criteria, power functions, similar regions, invariant tests, distribution free tests.

MTH 681 Topology. 3(3-0).

Prerequisite: MTH 503 or MTH 582. Point set topology in abstract spaces.

MTH 691 Seminar I. 2(2-0).MTH 692 Seminar II. 2(2-0).MTH 697 (655) Topics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Material covered determined by the interests and backgrounds of the students. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 hours.

MTH 698 Research. 1-6, F,S.

Supervised research in special areas of mathematics. May be repeated. May not be counted toward the Master of Science in Education degree.

MTH 699 (694) Projects. 1-6.

Independent research for thesis preparation.

Instructor: Rebecca Baker, M.S.

Baker Observatory

The William G. and Retha Stone Baker Observatory is located approximately ten miles northwest of Marshfield in Webster County (off Missouri Highway 38 on Hillcrest Road.)

The observatory is used on clear evenings for laboratory work by students in beginning and intermediate astronomy courses, and by advanced undergraduate students and faculty conducting astronomical research. The observatory houses several small telescopes and two large instruments—a 0.36 meter Celestron Schmidt Cassegrain telescope and a professional model 0.4 meter Cassegrain reflecting telescope on loan to SMSU from Cerro Tololo Inter-american Observatory in Chile.

The public may visit the observatory during open houses that are conducted by the Department twice each year, in April or May, and in September or October.

Undergraduate Research

The department encourages undergraduate research in physics and astronomy as a charter member of the national Council for Undergraduate Research in science.

Dated Courses

Courses taken more than 10 years before graduation are subject to review and possible rejection by the department faculty.

General Education Courses

The following courses may be used toward satisfying the Natural World Area of Inquiry: AST 114, 115; PHY 100, 101, 102, 123, 203.

Majors

The mathematical preparation (or lack thereof) in high school strongly governs the point at which a student should begin a physics major. Since there are at least 6 different levels of beginning students in this discipline, it is imperative that these students consult a member of the physics staff as soon as possible, preferably before their first semester in attendance.

Engineering Physics (Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (See General Education section of catalog)
Specific General Education Requirements: CSC 111(3); PHY 203(5); MTH 261(5); ENG 221(3)
- B. Major Requirements (67-68 hours)
 1. CSC 121(3) or CSC 125(3); MTH 280(5), 302(3), 303(3); PHY 204(5), 252(3), 343(3), 352(3), 375(3), 386(1), 391(3), 392(3), 486(1)
 2. Select one of the following options (28 - 29 hours)
 - a. Computer Engineering: PHY 220(4), 324(4), 353(3), 354(3), 385(2), 475(3) or MAT 580(3), PHY 485(3), 524(4), 558(3)

- b. Materials Science: PHY 353(3), 385(2), 475(3), 476(3), 485(3), 558(3); MAT 540(3), 550(3), 580(3). In addition at least 5 hours chosen from: PHY 463(3), 543(3), 553(3), 573(3), BMS 514(2).

- c. Personalized: TEC 110(3); PHY 333(3), 353(3); plus 19 hours of optional computer science, mathematics, and science courses in a program covering some engineering specialty. This emphasis is to be developed with the student's advisor and is subject to approval of the head of the Department of Physics, Astronomy, and Materials Science.

- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Physics (Non-Comprehensive)

Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
Specific General Education Requirements: PHY 203(5), MTH 261(5), ENG 221(3)
- B. Major Requirements
 1. PHY 204(5), 333(3), 343(3), 352(3), 353(3), 375(3), 385(2), 386(1), 391(3), 476(3), 485(1), 486(1)
 2. At least one course selected from: AST 115(4), 311(3), 315(3); PHY 324(4), 392(3), 463(3), 475(3)
 3. At least one course selected from: PHY 533(3), 543(3), 553(3), 575(3)
 4. Related mathematics requirements: MTH 280(5), 302(3), 303(3)
- C. Minor Required
- D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Unified Science – Physics

Bachelor of Science in Education

(Certifiable grades 9-12)

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Specific General Education Requirements for Teacher Certification (see College of Education/Secondary Education section)
- C. Major Requirements
 1. PHY 203(5), 204(5), 333(3), 343(3), 352(3), 375(3), 385(2), 485(1)
 2. Select additional hours from AST 115 or any PHY/AST course numbered above 300 to total a minimum of 32 hours.
 3. Related Requirements: Mathematics through calculus (MTH 302) and differential equations (MTH 303); computer science at, or equivalent to, the level of CSC 101; BIO 121(4), 122(4); CHM 160(4), 170(3), 175(2); GLG 110(4); GRY 135(4); PHY 505(3); plus course(s) selected from among the following for a minimum of 4 hours: GRY 108(3), BIO 369(4), GRY 351(2), or GLG 171(4). AST 115 is strongly recommended.
- D. Professional Education courses: SCI 414(3) and see College of Education/Secondary Education section

- E. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- F. In order to meet Missouri state teacher certification requirements, candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree are required to meet the following grade point average requirements: at least a 2.50 GPA on all course work attempted at all colleges attended; at least a 2.50 GPA in the certificate subject area (major field of study) which includes all courses listed under C; at least a 2.50 GPA in any additional certificate subject area; at least a 2.50 GPA in the professional education courses; and no grade lower than a "C" in all professional education courses. All GPA requirements include both SMSU and transfer grades.

Engineering

Pre-Engineering

In addition to its Engineering Physics major, the Department offers a two-year pre-engineering program in cooperation with the University of Missouri system at Columbia and at Rolla. Transfer to other engineering schools from this same program is also possible, since most pre-engineering programs cover the same background material; students should check with the school of their choice for details. Typical course schedules for several of the different engineering specialties can be obtained from the departmental office. A two-year pre-engineering program is also available through the Department of Mathematics.

Minors

Astronomy

Bachelor of Arts

Bachelor of Science

AST 115(4); or AST 113(3) and AST 110(1); or AST 114(4) and AST 110(1); AST 311(3), 315(3); plus additional physics and astronomy courses to bring total to 18 hours with no more than 10 hours of courses numbered below 300. Recommended electives: PHY 123(4), 124(4), 386(1), 486(1). Recommended related electives: MTH 261(5), 280(5)

Environmental Physics Technology

Bachelor of Science

PHY 123(4), 124(4), 352(3), 373(3); CHM 105(5) or 160(4); GRY 135(4)

Physics

Bachelor of Science

PHY 203(5), 204(5); plus electives from any other physics courses to bring total to 20 hours with no more than 14 hours of courses numbered below 300.

Graduate Programs

The Master of Science degree offers a major in Materials Science. The Master of Science in Education (secondary education major) offers an area of emphasis in physics. See the Graduate Catalog for details.

Astronomy Courses

AST 110 Astronomical Observations. 1(0-2) D.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 101. An introductory laboratory course stressing the techniques of astronomical observation and analysis of observed data. Students will have an opportunity to use telescopes and instruments at the SMSU Baker Observatory.

AST 111 Astronomical Frontiers. 2(2-0) D.

A general interest course which will explore in detail, but nonmathematically, current subject areas of astronomy and astrophysics, such as quasars, black holes, and the origin of the universe, which attract the greatest attention in the media and among the general public.

AST 113 Modern Astronomy. 3(3-0) F,S.

An introduction to our present knowledge of the nature of the universe, the galaxies, the stars, and the planets. A description of the natural laws and physical observations which are leading us to an understanding of our place in the cosmos.

AST 114 Survey of Astronomy. 4(4-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 101. Historical and descriptive aspects of astronomy; topics of current interest related to space science. Students may not receive credit for both AST 114 and 115.

AST 115 Basic Astronomy. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 101. Historical and descriptive aspects of astronomy; topics of current interest related to space science. Laboratory consists of observations with telescopes and of experiments pertinent to the field. Students may not receive credit for both AST 114 and 115.

AST 311 Astronomical Techniques. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: MTH 135 and; either AST 114 or AST 115. Intermediate level course; actual techniques of astronomical observation, methods of analysis of these observations, possible interpretations of acquired data. In laboratory, each student obtains his observations for study in spectroscopy, photometry, photography, and CCD imaging.

AST 315 Galactic Astronomy and Stellar Evolution. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: either AST 114 or AST 115 and; either MTH 261 or MTH 285 or MTH 287. Intermediate level course; methods of studying the Milky Way Galaxy and other galaxies from the standpoints of stellar population, motions, associations; descriptions of the interstellar medium and star clustering; basic concepts of stellar interiors, atmospheres and evolution.

The following course is open only to graduate students.

AST 611 Astronomy for Teachers. 3(2-2).

Theory and techniques of observational astronomy.

Additional courses with possible astronomical content include: PHY 131, 141, 386, 390, 409, 486, 495, 499, and 509.

Materials Science Courses

MAT 540 Thermodynamics of Materials. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 343 or CHM 506, or permission. Review of classical thermodynamics, equilibrium in thermodynamic systems, the statistical interpretation of entropy, unary and multi-component systems, thermodynamics of phase diagrams and phase equilibrium.

MAT 550 Introduction to Materials Science. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 375 or CHM 507 or permission. Investigation of the relationships that exist between the structure, properties, processing and performance of materials. Different types of materials will be studied with a special emphasis on polymers and semiconductors. Structure-property correlations, including electronic, thermal, and mechanical properties, will be presented for these materials.

MAT 580 Structure of Solids. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 375 or CHM 507 or permission. Review of quantum mechanics, followed by an in-depth study of crystal structures, energy band structures in solids, lattice dynamics, and a survey of the physical properties of solids.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

MAT 620 Advanced Quantum Mechanics. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 575. Advanced topics in quantum mechanics including variational methods, approximation techniques, time-independent and time-dependent perturbation theory, second quantization, and the interactions of light with matter.

MAT 650 Experimental Design. 3(1-4) F.

Laboratory techniques necessary for the development of instrumentation. Topics will include elementary computer interfacing, prototype design, mechanical and electronic construction, and reliability testing. The student will develop, design and build a test instrument and study each of the above topics during this process.

MAT 658 Optoelectronic Materials. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MAT 580. Course includes the study of advanced electronic properties of materials, lattice dynamics, and a survey of the optical-electronic interactions in materials.

MAT 660 Experiments in Physical Characterization. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: MAT 550 and MAT 580. Laboratory techniques in electronic, optical, and thermal characterization of materials. Students will become familiar with equipment and procedures used in research and commercial laboratories.

MAT 670 Vapor Synthesis of Materials. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: MAT 550 and MAT 540. Experimental techniques in the vapor deposition of thin film materials used in the electronics industry. Some modification of the resulting films including chemical doping and ion implantation will also be studied. Experimental methods including computer control and analysis will be studied.

MAT 680 Polymer Preparation and Characterization. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: MAT 550 and MAT 660. Preparation of polymers, including the techniques of condensation polymerization, free radical polymerization, and if time permits, plasma polymerization. Characterization experiments will be viscosity measurements, differential scanning calorimetry, and thermal gravimetric analysis. Film preparation including spin coating, aspiration, and doctor blade systems will also be investigated.

MAT 690 Statistical Applications in Materials Science. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MAT 550. Selective topics in materials science important to the design, testing, fabrication, and manufacture of materials whose underlying theme is mathematical modeling based in statistical methods. The topics include mass transport in solids, atomic diffusion on surfaces, adsorption and desorption on surfaces, epitaxial growth, degradation of materials, queuing theory, and operations research.

MAT 698 Seminar in Materials Science. 1, S.

Prerequisite: candidate for the MS degree in Materials Science. Selected topics in materials science of a theoretical, experimental, or applied nature with an emphasis on recent developments and their impact. May be repeated for a maximum 4 hours.

MAT 699 Research in Materials Science. 1-6. D.

Prerequisite: permission. Supervised research in areas of materials science. May be repeated, but no more than 12 hours may be counted toward the M.S. degree.

Physics Courses

PHY 100 Survey of Physics with Laboratory. 4(3-2) F. Description of nature as seen by physicists; effects this description and new scientific discoveries will have on society. Laboratories consist of discussions of current relations between science and society, demonstration of precise experimental apparatus, some actual involvement with the experimental method. Students may not receive credit for both PHY 100 and PHY 102.

PHY 101 Physics By Inquiry for Educators. 4(2-4) F,S.

This course is open only to early childhood, elementary, middle school, and special education majors. Laboratory experiences model inquiry teaching methods appropriate for use in early childhood, elementary and middle school science lessons. Science content includes mechanics, optics, heat, electricity and magnetism, properties of materials. Students will increase their understanding of the nature of science.

PHY 102 Physics and Technology. 4(4-0) S.

Description of nature as seen by physicists; effects that new scientific discoveries will have on society; application of technological concepts to decision making in business and public affairs systems. Students may not receive credit for both PHY 100 and PHY 102.

PHY 123 Introduction to Physics I. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 261 on mathematics placement test; CIS/CSC 101 or CSC 111 or pass spreadsheet competency examination administered by the Department of Computer Science. An introduction to physical theories covering the content areas of mechanics, fluids, sound, and thermodynamics. A knowledge of the laws of Physics will help the student better understand the world and how these laws can be used to make informed decisions to improve society. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course to take PHY 124. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

PHY 124 Introduction to Physics II. 4(3-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in PHY 123. A continuation of PHY 123 in the content areas of electricity and magnetism, electronics, and optics.

PHY 131 Mini Physics. 1(1-0) F,S.

A course whose various sections treat physics or astronomy from a contemporary, historical and/or theoretical point of view. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic associated with each section being offered. Course may be repeated, provided topic and title are different, to a total of 15 hours. Variable Content Course.

PHY 141 Mini Physics Laboratory. 1(0-2) F,S.

A laboratory course explaining the use of scientific equipment and experimental procedures. Students should check the current registration schedule to determine the topic and titles for any given semester. Since the content of this course varies from semester to semester, it may be repeated, provided the topic title is different, to a total of 5 hours. Variable Content Course.

PHY 203 Foundations of Physics I. 5(3-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: MTH 261 (or concurrent enrollment in MTH 261 if a score of 30 or higher was received on the mathematics section of the ACT). Students must be skilled in using the Microsoft Excel spreadsheet program. (see the Department of Physics, Astronomy, and Materials Science for a list of required spreadsheet skills). First of two semesters in basic calculus physics. Lecture and laboratory topics covered include mechanics, waves, and thermodynamics. A grade of "C" or better is required in this course to take PHY 204. This course may not be taken pass/not pass.

PHY 204 Foundations of Physics II. 5(3-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: "C" grade or better in PHY 203 and; either MTH 280 (or concurrent enrollment in MTH 280) or MTH 288. Students must be skilled in using the Microsoft Excel spreadsheet program (see the Department of Physics, Astronomy, and Materials Science for a list of required spreadsheet skills). Continuation of PHY 203 with lecture and laboratories covering electricity, magnetism, and optics.

PHY 220 Introduction to Structure and Logic of Digital Computers. 4(2-4) F,S

Prerequisite: eligibility for MTH 261. Introduction to the internal structures of digital computers; design of gates, flipflops, registers, and memories to perform operations on numerical and other data represented in binary form. Laboratory uses logical blocks for experiments with combinational and sequential networks and simple digital systems. A student may not receive credit toward a degree for both PHY 220 and TEC 343.

PHY 233 Engineering Statics. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 203. Application of mechanics to equilibrium problems; topics include principles of center of mass, resultant force, friction, moment of inertia, torque, etc. Course does not satisfy any requirement for a physics major or minor.

PHY 252 Introduction to Circuit Analysis. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 280. A study of Kirchoff's current and voltage laws, resistive circuits with DC sources, network analysis by node voltages and mesh currents, Thevenin's and Norton's theorems, and first order circuits.

PHY 300 Service Learning in Physics. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 30 hours and concurrent registration in a Physics course designated as a service learning offering. This service component for an existing course incorporates community service with classroom instruction in Physics to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of and participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than 2 hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

PHY 324 Instrumental/Computer Interfacing. 4(2-4) F,S.

Prerequisite: PHY 220. An introduction to computer architecture, machine/assembly language programming, and peripheral interfacing. Topics include microprocessor operation, addressing modes, memory organization, microprocessor buses, reset and interrupts, parallel I/O, serial I/O, timers, and analog/digital conversions.

PHY 333 Intermediate Mechanics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 203 and PHY 391 and MTH 303. Classical mechanics of particles. Topics include kinematics, dynamics, oscillations, central forces, conservation theorems, scattering, and an introduction to the Lagrangian and Hamiltonian formulations of mechanics.

PHY 343 Thermodynamics. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 203 and MTH 302 (or concurrent enrollment in MTH 302). The laws of thermodynamics and their application to macroscopic systems. Topics include equations of state, thermodynamic potentials, Maxwell's relations, and phase transitions.

PHY 352 Electronic Circuit Design. 3(1-4) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 124 or PHY 204. An introduction to the design, construction, and evaluation of basic electronic circuits is presented. The topics for the course include multistage discrete bipolar transistor and FET amplifiers, linear integrated circuits, and regulated power supplies. The circuit analysis tools will include electronic instrumentation and computer simulations.

PHY 353 Elementary Field Theory. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 204 and PHY 391. An introduction to the theory of electric and magnetic fields and their sources. Topics include electrostatic and magnetostatic fields in a vacuum, electric potential, magnetic vector potential, electromagnetic fields, and Maxwell's equations.

PHY 354 Signals and Systems. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 252 and PHY 392. An introduction to continuous time and discrete time signals is presented. Basic system properties such as causality, linearity, time invariance, time and frequency domain representations, and digital filter design and analysis will be studied. General analysis techniques will include matrix algebra, complex variables, Fourier transforms, and Laplace transforms.

PHY 373 Radiation Physics. 3(2-2) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 124 or PHY 204. Theory of and measurement techniques for electromagnetic and particulate radiation.

PHY 375 Twentieth Century Physics I. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 204 and MTH 302 (or concurrent enrollment in MTH 302). An introduction to the major developments in physics during this century. Topics include the special theory of relativity, the experimental basis for quantum mechanics, wave-particle duality, introductory quantum mechanics of one-dimensional systems, nuclear physics, and elementary particle physics.

PHY 385 Experiments in Twentieth Century Physics. 2(1-2) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 375. A study of basic experimental techniques, data analysis, and analysis of experimental errors. Laboratory experiments chosen from physical phenomena discovered in the twentieth century and may include photoelectric effect, Hall effect, Frank-Hertz experiment, electron spin resonance, and others.

PHY 386 Undergraduate Research I. 1(1-0) F,S.

Prerequisite: permission. An introduction to research that requires the selection of a suitable research project, completing a written feasibility study for the proposed project, and making all necessary preparations for the actual pursuit of the project in PHY 486. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

PHY 390 Interdisciplinary Topics in Physics. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Topics of interdisciplinary nature; usually team-taught by members of the disciplines involved. Typical topics chosen from: space physics (e.g. lunar studies), chemical physics (e.g. spectroscopy), biophysics, geophysics, mathematical physics, etc. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated to a total of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

PHY 391 Mathematics for Science and Engineering I. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: MTH 302. A study of mathematical techniques widely used in science and engineering. Topics covered include series solutions to differential equations, Fourier series and transforms, vector calculus, matrix algebra, complex functions, and partial differential equations.

PHY 392 Mathematics for Science and Engineering II. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PHY 391. A continuation of PHY 391 with topics selected from complex integration, numerical solutions to differential equations, special functions, probability distribution functions, and group theory.

PHY 399 Cooperative Education in Physics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: acceptance into the SMSU Cooperative Education Program and permission. The opportunity to earn academic credit in a planned learning process that integrates academic training with a supervised work experience. This is a variable content course that may be repeated to a total of 6 semester hours.

PHY 409 Selected Topics in Physics 1-5, D.

Prerequisite: permission. Advanced topics in physics which may vary from year to year. Some typical topics: solid state, nuclear structure, plasmas, fluids, astrophysics, applied group theory. Inter-disciplinary topics such as atmospheric physics and spectroscopy might also be offered. Since credit and topics vary, the course may be repeated to a total of 6 hours. Variable Content Course.

PHY 463 Physical Optics. 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 204 and PHY 391. Treatment of optical phenomena including waves, superposition, interference, diffraction, polarization, electromagnetic character of light, and light sources and their spectra.

PHY 475 Introduction to Solid State Physics. 3(3-0)D. Prerequisite: PHY 375. An introduction to the mechanical, thermal, and electronic behavior of solids. Topics include crystal structure, reciprocal lattice, crystal binding, phonons, free electron theory, and energy band theory.

PHY 476 Twentieth Century Physics II. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 375 and PHY 391 and MTH 303. A continuation of PHY 375. Topics include applications of quantum mechanics, atomic physics, and spectroscopic notation.

PHY 485 Instrumentation Circuit Design. 3(1-4) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 352. A study of a variety of basic transducers used to make measurements of temperature, light, and mechanical forces, and the design of analog integrated circuits used to interface those transducers to computers.

PHY 486 Undergraduate Research II. 1(0-2) F,S.

Prerequisite: PHY 386. A continuation of PHY 386 in which the feasibility study from PHY 386 and the research project outcome are to be combined in a written report following a format required for journal publication. An oral presentation of this work will be reviewed by the faculty. Graded Pass/Not Pass only.

PHY 495 Readings in Physics. 1-4, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Independent reading; topics not offered in regular courses. Course may be repeated to a total of credit of 4 hours.

PHY 499 Honors Project in Physics. 1-3, D.

Prerequisite: permission of department head. Enrollment limited to students of distinguished capability and industry. Students must consult with the physics and astronomy staff concerning their proposed problem prior to enrollment for this course. This course may be repeated to a total of 5 hours.

PHY 501 Physics and Astronomy By Inquiry. 2(1-2) F.

Prerequisite: 70 hours including PHY 101. This course is a continuation of PHY 101. Additional topics in mechanics, optics, heat, electricity and magnetism will be covered. The course will also include an introduction to Astronomy. Concepts will be explored using the inquiry approach. Will not count towards a major or minor in physics.

PHY 505 Intellectual Foundations of Science and Technology. 3(3-0) S.

Prerequisite: 70 hours including 8 hours of natural science. An historical and philosophical examination of the origins and the development of science and technology. The differences between science and technology, their interrelationships in modern times, and the impact of each of these on society will be considered.

PHY 509 Special Topics in Physics and Astronomy. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission. Variable content, variable credit course. Topics to be chosen from current areas of interest. May be repeated to a total of 6 hours with different topic.

PHY 524 (424) Digital Signal Processing. 4(2-4) S.

Prerequisite: PHY 324 and PHY 354. Development of real-time digital signal processing systems using a DSP microprocessor, with an introduction to discrete-time signals and systems, discrete Fourier transforms, and digital filter designs.

PHY 533 Advanced Mechanics. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PHY 333. Advanced treatment of the dynamics of particles, rigid bodies, and continuous media. Topics include moving coordinate systems, rigid body motion, mechanics of continuous media, and theory of small vibrations.

PHY 543 Kinetic Theory and Statistical Mechanics, 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PHY 343 and PHY 375 and PHY 391. An introduction to statistical theories of physical systems containing large numbers of particles. Topics include the microcanonical, canonical, and grand canonical ensembles, the connection of statistical physics to thermodynamics, Boltzmann statistics, Bose-Einstein statistics, Fermi-Dirac statistics, and applications.

PHY 553 Electromagnetic Field Theory. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PHY 353. Mathematical treatment of electric and magnetic fields in a vacuum and in matter. Topics include solutions to Laplace's and Poisson's equations, multipole expansion of the electric potential, electric fields in matter, potential formulations of electrodynamics, electric and magnetic field boundary conditions, and electromagnetic waves.

PHY 558 Physics of Semiconductor Devices. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PHY 352 and PHY 375 and PHY 391. Topics will be selected from: band structure and electron statistics in semiconductors, doping and carrier transport in homogeneous materials, p-n junction and its characteristics under bias, bipolar devices, unipolar devices, MOSFETs, light-emitting diodes, semiconductor lasers, and integrated circuits.

PHY 575 Quantum Mechanics 3(3-0) F.

Prerequisite: PHY 375. A mathematical development of the principles of quantum mechanics and their application to selected systems. Topics include Schrodinger's equation, operators, Heisenberg uncertainty principle, angular momentum, and applications, including the hydrogen atom.

PHY 590 Applied Group Theory. 3(3-0) D.

Prerequisite: PHY 333. Recommended: PHY 533 and MTH 533. Basic concepts of point groups as applied to molecular vibrations in relation to Raman and IR emission and absorption; continuous groups as applied to quantum mechanics.

The following courses are open only to graduate students.

PHY 601 Workshop on Topical Issues in Science Education. 1-3 D.

Prerequisite: permission. Workshop to upgrade understanding of selected topics in science, and improve elementary, middle school and/or secondary science teaching. Each workshop will include performance and analysis of appropriate investigations to enhance understanding of the selected topics. Number of class hours determined by semester hours of credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours provided the topics are different. Variable Content Course.

PHY 685 Physics Laboratory for Teachers. 3(1-4).

Prerequisite: permission. Performance and analysis of secondary laboratory experiments in physics.

PHY 690 Seminar in Physics. 2(2-0).

Prerequisite: permission. Extensive paper on agreed topic in physics or astronomy to be read before staff seminars. May be repeated to a total of 4 hours.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

University College Hall.

Dean: Professor Curtis P. Lawrence, Ph.D.

115 University College Hall, Phone: 836-5872, FAX: 836-6372

Associate Dean for Continuous Orientation: Professor Mona J. Casady, Ph.D.

212 University College Hall, Phone: 836-8343, FAX: 836-6372

Associate Dean for General Education: Professor John C. Catau, Ph.D.

123 University College Hall, Phone: 836-8346, FAX: 836-6372

The University College provides instruction, service, and development opportunities to the whole university community, including the faculty, staff, and students. University College is the academic home of all entering freshman students and all students who have not declared majors. The University College includes the following departments and programs:

General Education

The College administers the program in general education which is designed to provide the student with educational experiences that will develop skills and knowledge and a breadth of understanding. The program is detailed in the "Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements" section of this catalog.

Honors College

The College offers enhanced and advanced study to those students who show exceptional academic achievement and motivation.

Interdisciplinary/Individualized Programs

The individualized programs are offered as alternative degree programs to students with a clear sense of direction and individual motivation. Interdisciplinary courses are offered.

Study Away Programs

These programs offer to students the opportunity to live and study in another culture. Long- and short-term study abroad programs are offered, among which are the Missouri London Program; exchange programs in Australia, China, France, Germany, and Mexico; the International Student Exchange Program; the Intensive Spanish-Language Program in Mexico, and the Intensive French-Language Program in Québec. The National Student Exchange allows for the reciprocal exchange of students among more than 160 colleges and universities throughout the United States and its territories.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT CENTER

109 University College Hall, Phone: 836-5258, FAX: 836-6372

Email: Uadvise@smsu.edu

Department Web Site: www.smsu.edu/advising/

Director: Kathy J. Davis

Academic advising at Southwest Missouri State University assists students as they develop meaningful educational plans to help them achieve their life goals. The Academic Advisement Center advises SMSU undergraduates who are in the process of selecting majors. Department faculty or staff advisors who are specialists advise students with declared majors. Students should visit the Academic Advisement Center to declare or change majors or to ask questions about academic matters. Many services are offered to help students succeed at SMSU, such as:

- Individual appointments with academic advisors available by calling 836-5258.

- A Transfer Advisor is available to smooth the transition to SMSU for students transferring from another institution.
- Students who are interested in health professions but have not selected a particular program of study can make an appointment to review health careers information.
- Undeclared major students register for classes and change their schedules through the Academic Advisement Center.
- To help students choose appropriate and satisfying majors and minors, the Academic Advisement Center sponsors a Majors Fair each October.

CONTINUOUS ORIENTATION

212 University College Hall, Phone: 836-8343, FAX: 836-6372

Email: Ucollege@smsu.edu

Director: Professor Mona J. Casady, Ph.D.

Continuous Orientation administers the freshman success course, IDS 110 Introduction to University Life. To facilitate a successful university experience, IDS 110 supports students in the acclimation and adjustment to university life. Students are assisted in enhancing their appreciation of higher education, acquiring academic skills, cultivating a positive attitude toward learning, exploring career opportunities, clarifying personal values, developing critical thinking skills, and appreciating multicultural diversity. IDS 110 helps students discover what a high-quality university SMSU is, how they can fit within the campus environment, and how to develop to their fullest.

DEVELOPMENTAL READING AND STUDY SKILLS

Department Web Site: www.smsu.edu/studyskills/

Coordinator and Lecturer: Betty J. Thomas, M.S.Ed.

Lecturers: Harriet M. Crofts, M.S.Ed.; Michael L. Frizell, M.A.

The Developmental Reading and Study Skills program through IDS 117-College Reading and Efficient Study Techniques, through IDS 118-Enhancing Learning Techniques for College and for Life, through campus outreach presentations, and through our resource website is designed to enhance reading and study techniques for success in college and life.

HONORS COLLEGE

115 University College Hall, Phone: 836-6370, FAX: 836-6372
Email: Ucollege@smsu.edu

Dean: Professor Curtis P. Lawrence, Ph.D.

Membership

A. Membership is offered to all national merit finalists, presidential, and university scholars; and to selected governors scholars who have at least an ACT of 27 (or an SAT of 1220 or higher) and who have graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class. Other students may apply for membership no later than the first semester of the sophomore year. To maintain membership a student must have a 3.25 cumulative grade point average, and should also carry a full-time load of at least 12 semester hours per semester. The Dean will review eligibility at the end of each semester. Members in the HC should normally carry no more than two honors classes in any one semester. They must take one honors class in each of the first four regular semesters. Students who complete the general honors requirements maintain membership in the college by having at least a 3.25 cumulative grade point average at SMSU, whether, or not, they pursue departmental distinction.

B. Students (including transfer students) may apply to the HC for admission no later than the first semester of their sophomore year. Application to the HC must be made through the honors office and will include an essay describing the student's academic and vocational goals and how the student perceives the HC as facilitating the attainment of those goals. An interview may be required. Such students will be advised by the Dean on an individual basis as to requirements and make-up courses in order to qualify for college membership and graduation in the HC.

Late entering students who qualify to graduate in the HC will be required to follow a program whose rigor is equivalent to that required of students who enter as freshmen.

Students transferring from institutions in which they enrolled in an honors program may contact the Dean for individual advice on entering the HC at SMSU.

C. First semester freshmen who do not achieve the required grade point average of 3.25 will be given one more semester to achieve that level, provided it is mathematically possible. Students who remove themselves from the college due to low g.p.a. may apply for readmission when they have raised their grades to the required level. Students who remove themselves from the college a second time due to low g.p.a. are not eligible for readmission.

The Program

A. Advanced placement credit and "CLEP" credits are available in some departments of the University. These will not carry honors designation.

B. Honors courses, sections, and components may not be taken on a pass/not pass basis. The senior honors project might be taken on a pass/not pass basis upon recommendation of the department and approval of the Dean of the HC.

C. Students are required to complete that part of the honors college designated "General Honors" and to maintain a cumulative 3.25 g.p.a. at SMSU. In addition, they may elect to complete "Departmental Distinction." Descriptions of general honors and departmental distinction follow.

D. General Honors

1. Freshman Honors Seminar: All students entering the HC must take the Freshman Honors Seminar. This is a one-semester-hour seminar offered every fall semester. It is designed to introduce the honors student to the HC and to faculty who frequently work with the honors students. This course introduces the honors student to the University through a seminar revolving around a topic of intellectual significance. The student uses the research, faculty, and student resources of the University as a complement to the seminar discussions.
2. General Honors Curriculum: During their first two years in the program, all honors students are required to schedule at least five honors courses in addition to the Freshman Honors Seminar. At least four of the five must come from the University's General Education offerings. To ensure breadth, each student must take at least four different prefixes among the general honors offerings. Normally, students should schedule at least one honors course each semester.
3. Capstone Course: After at least 60 hours have been completed, each honors student is required to take an honors section of GEP 397.

Students who are not members of the HC may be allowed to enroll in courses of HC designation provided they have both a 3.25 cumulative g.p.a. and permission of the Dean.

Honors students who complete the Freshman Honors Seminar, the general honors curriculum, an honors section of GEP 397, and who maintain the 3.25 g.p.a. will qualify for graduation in the HC after fulfilling all other University requirements. Their transcripts and diplomas will read "Bachelor of _____ (with possible grade point honors such as cum laude, magna cum laude, summa cum laude) in the Honors College."

E. Departmental Distinction

1. Senior Project: This may carry 3-9 semester hours of credit. The content of the project is determined by the honors student in consultation with a faculty member serving as project advisor, and is approved by the Dean. This project can be started no earlier than the first semester of the junior year and must be completed before graduation. The HC may provide students the opportunity to publish or otherwise present their projects. The project advisor will normally be from the student's major, and will serve to advise the student in all aspects of the project. The project is, however, to be based on the student's own ideas and work.

Once the project topic is agreed upon the student must write a typed proposal to be approved by the project advisor and the department head who will certify to the Dean that the project has been so approved. The student may apply for a grant of up to $200 from the Honors Committee. This grant will be administered by the Dean and used to support the student's project. Any equipment purchased with this money will remain with the University.

The completed project and a separate abstract will be approved by the project advisor and the department head. The advisor will send the approved abstract, the project and a completed project approval form to the Dean.

2. Departmental Honors Offerings: Each department that wishes to participate in the HC must require as part of its degree that honors students take at least 12 hours of departmental honors offerings, including the senior project. All departmental offerings, once approved by the Dean, will carry the suffix "H" attached to the numbers in the student's records to indicate the course was an honors offering. These offerings may take the following forms:

Honors courses. These are special courses open primarily to honors students with limited enrollment. The content of the courses is determined by the departments. A new honors course must be approved by the Dean and then follow the regular approval procedure of the Faculty Senate.

Honors sections. These are special sections of existing courses that are open primarily to honors students. The enrollment in these courses is usually limited. Departments must nominate sections to the Dean for approval.

Honors components. In certain departments it may not be practical to offer a separate honors section or honors course due to low demand. In such cases an "honors component" of one semester hour can, with the approval of the Dean, be added to a regular course or section to recognize honors work (e.g., ART 372, 3 semester hours, becomes ART 372H, 4 semester hours). Such components must be developed in writing by the student in consultation with the faculty member and approved by the department head before being sent to the HC Dean for final approval. No more than two such components in any one department may be counted toward the honors degree.

Diplomas and transcripts of those students who complete both general honors and departmental distinction will read "Bachelor of _____ (with possible grade point honors) in the Honors College with Distinction in (major)."

- F. Course criteria: Honors courses, sections and components must have the following characteristics when appropriate to the discipline:

1. Reading intensive, including books and journals that reflect recent scholarship.
2. Writing intensive, including writing assignments that are evaluated not only on content, but also on grammar and style. Research projects that include critical analysis in such courses are encouraged.
3. Professorial instruction. Departments should nominate instructors for honors courses, sections and components who are scholars and excellent teachers. Instructors should be committed to the concept of excellence in education. Substitutions of faculty assignments may be made only with the advice and consent of the Dean of HC.
4. Tests. These should require synthesis and critical evaluation in written or oral form of course and library material. In the fine and performing arts this could take the form of an original contribution to the art concerned.
5. Faculty who teach honors courses, sections and components should not expect a normal distribution of grades, nor should they use norm-referenced grading.

Honors College Courses

UHC 110 Freshman Honors Seminar. 1(1-1) F,S.

This seminar will be on a topic of intellectual significance. The student will be required to use the library, research, and faculty resources available in the university. Variable Content Course. Satisfies the Introduction to University Life requirement in the Basic Required Courses of General Education. Open to Honors Program members only.

UHC 410 Senior Honors Seminar. 3(3-0) F,S.

This seminar will explore in depth a topic of intellectual significance that lends itself to exploration from a number of different disciplines. Variable Content Course.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

122 University College Hall, Phone: 836-5034, FAX: 836-6372
Email: Ucollege@smsu.edu

Dean: Professor Curtis P. Lawrence, Ph.D.

The faculty and staff of the University cooperate in teaching the courses and programs in this office. Interdisciplinary Studies offers individualized majors.

Major

Individualized Major (Comprehensive)

The individualized major is intended for any student with a clear sense of direction, motivation and strong concept of an educational program that will best serve individual needs. This major shall be described individually, specifying the area(s) of emphasis.

Bachelor of Arts

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major of not less than 45 hours with not less than 15 hours of upper division credit
- C. Specific Requirements for Bachelor of Arts Degree (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)
- D. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Bachelor of Science

- A. General Education (see General Education section of catalog)
- B. Major of not less than 45 hours with not less than 15 hours of upper division credit
- C. General Baccalaureate Degree Requirements (see Undergraduate Degrees and Requirements section of catalog)

Procedure for seeking candidacy

- A. Without written permission by the dean of the student's college, a student cannot be admitted to a baccalaureate degree program until he/she has completed these General Education basic required courses: IDS 110/UHC 110, CIS/CSC 101 or CSC 111, COM 115, ENG 110, MATH 135 or higher, and PED 100. Apply through the Academic Assistance Office (UNVH 122) for admission to an individualized major. A minimum of 25 hours must be completed after the advisory committee has approved the program.
- B. The student shall submit to the Dean of the University College a written statement of intention, aims and background, and transcripts of prior work (minimum 2.00 grade point average required). In some cases, a personal interview or supporting information (such as faculty recommendations) may be required.
- C. A student accepted to pursue an individualized major is assigned, by the Dean of the University College, three faculty advisors from departments in which the student will work. No two faculty members shall represent the same department. These faculty members shall comprise the student's advisory committee. The student shall designate one member as major advisor.
- D. It shall be the responsibility of this advisory committee to approve the student's degree program to satisfy the goals and purposes of the proposed individualized program. It is also the responsibility of this committee to evaluate the student's transcript and determine the number of credit hours previously earned which will be applied toward the hours required for this major. The approved program, including a recommended title, shall be submitted to the Dean of the University College for final approval.
- E. All agreements shall be filed as a part of the student's degree program. Any alteration of the degree program must be approved by the advisory committee. Changes of schedule shall be handled by the major advisor provided the student's degree program is not altered.

General Education Program Courses

GEP 300 Service Learning in Public Affairs. 1 F,S.

Prerequisite: 60 hours, concurrent registration in GEP 397. This service component incorporates community service with classroom instruction in GEP 397 ("Public Affairs Issues for the 21st Century") to provide an integrative learning experience that addresses the practice of citizenship and promotes an awareness of a participation in public affairs. Includes 40 hours of service that benefits an external community organization, agency, or public service provider. Approved service placements and assignments will vary depending on the specific course topic and learning objectives; a list of approved placements and assignments is available from the instructor and the Citizenship and Service Learning Office. May be repeated but no more than two hours of service learning may count toward graduation.

GEP 397 Public Affairs Issues for the 21st Century. 3(3,0) F,S.

Prerequisite: 60 hours including all the Basic Required Courses except Writing II, or permission of the Dean of University College. An integrative and interdisciplinary experience which addresses public affairs issues and choices of broad importance from the perspectives and interaction of multiple fields. Includes an examination of crucial decisions facing individuals and communities. May not count toward any major, minor, or other programs of study. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours with content change on a space available basis. Variable Content Course.

Interdisciplinary Studies Courses

IDS 101 Interdisciplinary Seminar. 1-3, SU.

Variable content, variable credit course that is offered only in the summer term and only to the participants of the Pre-college Summer Academy. Topics will be interdisciplinary in nature and will usually be team taught.

IDS 110 Introduction to University Life. 1(0-2) F,S.

Designed to facilitate a successful university experience, this course introduces students to the purposes and processes of higher education. Emphasis is placed on the holistic development of the student. Required of freshmen. Honors students must substitute UHC 110 for this class.

IDS 117 (RDG 107) College Reading and Efficient Study Techniques. 2(1-2) F,S.

Designed for any student who wishes to develop stronger study and learning techniques such as note taking, test taking and preparation, time management, text study, memory and concentration; to improve reading rate and comprehension; and to develop a stronger vocabulary. This course may not be used to satisfy general education requirements and may not be credited on any major or minor offered by any department. Students may not receive credit for both IDS 117 or 118.

IDS 118 Enhancing Learning Techniques for College and Life. 1(1-0) F,S.

Designed for any student who wishes to develop stronger study and learning techniques such as notetaking, test taking and preparation, time management, text study, memory and concentration. This course may not be used to satisfy general education requirements and will not count toward any major or minor offered by any department. Students may not receive credit for both IDS 117 and 118.

IDS 120 Approaches to Career Life Planning. 1(0-3) F,S.

Designed to assist students in learning the process and techniques of making appropriate academic and career choices which will enable them to fulfill their life objectives.

IDS 250 Special Topics: International Travel Courses. 1-6, D.

A variable content course with topics involving a foreign travel component. Course offerings represent selected and interdisciplinary subjects. Some courses under this designation may be interdepartmental and team-taught. May be repeated as the topics change.

IDS 275 Resident Assistant Seminar. 1(0-2) F,S.

Designed to facilitate new Resident Assistants in developing skills necessary to work with students living in the residence halls.

IDS 280 Student/Life Leadership. 1(1-1) F,S.

The course will focus upon the study and practical application of student and student organization leadership skills and the knowledge of campus and community resources. Students will become actively involved in leadership as they participate in individual and group learning experiences.

IDS 310 Peer Leadership. 1(0-2) F,S.

Experience in working (a) with an IDS 110 teacher to achieve the course objectives, facilitate class discussions, present information, and help evaluate assignments and (b) with students to get their feedback, serve as a role model, and help them adjust to SMSU and maximize their potential. May be repeated to a total of 3 hours.

IDS 350 British Life and Culture. 3(2-2) F,S.

Through a historical and topical format students will study the interdisciplinary aspects of Great Britain. Lectures will be enhanced through British lecturers and field trips illustrative of the lectures. LONDON PROGRAM ONLY.

IDS 397 International Culture and Study Abroad. 3(3-0) F,S,Su.

An interdisciplinary study of other cultures while living and studying in an international venue. Through history, language, literature, sociology and other disciplines the student will acquire a deeper understanding of another culture and of the American culture. May be repeated once with content change. Variable Content Course.

STUDY AWAY PROGRAMS

205 University College Hall, Phone: 836-6368, FAX: 836-6372
Email: Ucollege@smsu.edu

Dean: Professor Curtis P. Lawrence, Ph.D.

Students enrolled in these programs on a full-time basis are eligible to apply for all federal, state, and university financial aid. Further information about any program can be obtained from the University College.

Missouri London Program (MLP)

SMSU participates in the Missouri London Program sponsored by the Missouri Consortium for International Programs and Studies. Through this program students at SMSU can live and study in London, England, and receive credit directly from SMSU. Registration is through SMSU during the regular enrollment for each semester. Courses offered will vary from semester to semester and will be taught by participating faculty from each of the consortium institutions and by British nationals.

The Missouri London Program is located in Kensington in central London. Classrooms are located at the Imperial College of the University of London. Frequent excursions are made to English and European places of interest.

Australia Exchange

SMSU participates in a reciprocal student exchange program with Curtin University of Technology, Perth, Western Australia; University of Ballarat, Victoria; and University of Tasmania, Hobart. Through this program, SMSU students pay SMSU tuition and fees to study for a semester or a year in Australia. Transfer of credit is arranged through the University College. Coursework is offered across the curriculum.

Perth is located on the Indian Ocean, 2000 miles west of Sydney. It is the commercial center for the state of Western Australia, and enjoys close linkages with its Asian neighbors. The temperate climate encourages an outdoor lifestyle and participation in a variety of outdoor sports, including surfing, sailing, and hiking.

Ballarat is located in Southeast Australia and enjoys a Mediterranean climate and vicinity to Melbourne.

Hobart is the capital of the Island of Tasmania.

China Exchange

SMSU has a reciprocal exchange agreement with Qingdao University in the Peoples Republic of China. Students from SMSU in China will study Chinese language, history, and culture.

France Exchange

SMSU enjoys a bilateral exchange with the University of Blaise Pascal in Clermont-Ferrand. The exchange is a reciprocal tuition exchange and requires fluency in French. The program is currently directed toward business students.

Clermont-Ferrand is about 280 kilometers south of Paris in the Massif Centrale. It is the place where Julius Caesar defeated Vercingetorix in the Galic Wars.

Germany Exchange

SMSU participates in a reciprocal student exchange program with the Philipps-Universität in Marburg, Germany. Through this program SMSU students pay SMSU tuition and fees to study for a year in Germany. The program requires fluency in the German language. Transfer of credit is arranged through the University College. Coursework is offered in a wide variety of disciplines.

Marburg is located in central Germany, approximately one hour away from Frankfurt. It has a well-preserved medieval center of shops and houses. The university was established in the sixteenth century and is a prominent part of the life of the city. Approximately 1000 foreign students are part of its student body of 16,000.

Magellan Exchange

Business students at SMSU can participate in exchanges with various universities in Western Europe where they can study international business topics.

Mexico Exchange

SMSU participates in a reciprocal exchange with the Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico City. The student pays SMSU tuition and studies in Mexico. Living arrangements are at the student's expense, but are limited to home-stay facilities provided by the Universidad Iberoamericana. Students experience total immersion in the language as they study with native speakers and live with host families. Students may choose a program of intensive language and courses in Mexican art, literature, politics and other subjects. Transfer of credit is arranged through University College.

Mexico City is the largest city in the world. The Universidad is a private university that is comprehensive and offers a wide range of majors and fields of study. Mexico city enjoys warm days but its altitude assures cool and comfortable nights.

International Student Exchange Program (ISEP)

The International Student Exchange Program allows students of its member campuses to study at host institutions in more than 30 countries around the world. Through this program, SMSU students pay SMSU tuition, room and board, and are provided with the same benefits at their host institution. The program allows for study in English, as well as in French, Spanish, German, and several other foreign languages. Transfer of credit is arranged through the University College. Coursework is offered across the curriculum.

SMSU students have participated in ISEP programs in England, Scotland, Switzerland, Germany, France, and Sweden. Countries in Europe, Africa, Southeast Asia, Latin America, and Australia participate in the program.

National Student Exchange (NSE)

The National Student Exchange provides students the opportunity to study at one of more than 160 member campuses across the United States and its territories. Through the program, SMSU students pay SMSU tuition and fees to study at another American university for a semester or a year. Transfer of credit is arranged through the University College. Coursework is offered across the curriculum.

SMSU students have participated in the NSE in Las Vegas, New Orleans, and over 20 states, including Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Guam, Hawaii, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Montana, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas, Washington, Wyoming, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Summer Intensive Language Programs

SMSU offers students the opportunity to study French or Spanish in summer programs that are 4-6 weeks in duration. Students are enrolled in a local university and experience "total immersion" in the language as they study with native speakers and live with host families. Transfer of credit is arranged through the University College.

The Spanish-Language Program is located in Spain. It is designed to give students total immersion into Spanish language, history, and culture. The first two weeks of instruction are held in Salamanca, followed by two weeks of study in Alcala de Henares. A ten-day study tour of Spain closes the program. Cities to be visited include: Madrid, Salamanca, Salamanca, Santiago de Compostela, Segovia, Avila, Alcala de Henares, Toledo, Seville, Cordoba, Granada, Valencia and Barcelona.

The French-Language Program is located at the Université Laval in Québec City, Canada. Students enroll in a 6-week program which might involve intensive language training, or classes in literature, music, or other subjects, or a combination of the two. Québec City on the banks of the St. Lawrence River, was founded in the seventeenth century and is the only walled city in North America.

Short-Term Study Tours

SMSU professors offer a variety of options for students to participate in short-term (2-5 weeks) programs between spring and fall semesters, or during the winter intersession (early January). The programs vary from year to year. In the past, study tours to Spain and Portugal, Australia and New Zealand, Greece and Italy, London, Europe, Israel, Mexico, China, and Russia have been offered.

The College of Continuing Education and the Extended University coordinates the following programs and services:

Academic Outreach

This department uses a wide range of traditional and technology-based delivery systems to serve the needs of students throughout southwest Missouri and beyond. It coordinates with academic departments to deliver instruction in a variety of ways: through interactive video, web-based instruction, traditional off-campus courses, and dual credit courses offered in high schools. This department provides special support services for the convenience of the off-campus and distance learning student.

Center for Continuing and Professional Education

This rapidly growing program provides a wide range of noncredit learning opportunities for specific target populations as well as for the general public. It includes conferences, workshops, professional development programs, and in-house training programs custom-designed for special groups and organizations.

Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center

The Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center provides the technical support necessary for the delivery of media-based instruction. Primarily, the Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center supports the distance learning programs of Academic Outreach of the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University. Internet based courses, computer assisted instruction, interactive television classrooms, telecourses, courses-by-video, and satellite videoconferencing are all a part of the instructional opportunities available at SMSU.

Evening College and Adult Student Services

Through this program, a wide range of courses and special services are provided which are designed especially to help evening, part-time, and adult students. Academic Services provide a focused and coordinated resource for addressing student concerns related to admissions, academic advisement, reinstatement and scholastic action.

Intersession and Special Credit Programs

Intersession provides an exciting group of short-term, concentrated classes for credit during times when the regular academic semesters are not in session. Credit classes tailored to meet the needs of special populations are also available.

Registration Services

This office serves as the primary application, registration, and referral source for students who are interested in credit courses offered through Continuing Education.

Summer School

Undergraduate and graduate classes are provided during the summer session using a variety of schedules and formats. This includes regular lecture classes, workshops, weekend classes, field trips, and tours. The College of Continuing Education and the Extended University acts as a facilitator for the academic departments as well as for the students who participate in Summer School special programs. Support services include mail and on-site registrations, promotion and publicity, on-site coordination, and providing the financial impetus for some special programs.

ACADEMIC OUTREACH

303 Alumni Center, Phone: 836-4128, FAX: 836-6016

Email: CE@smsu.edu

Director: Steve Robinette, M.A.

The Department of Academic Outreach works with academic departments and colleges throughout the University to provide a wide range of credit courses at off-campus sites beyond the Springfield campus, using traditional off-campus instruction and technology-based delivery systems. While the Academic Outreach Department provides many of the “non-technical” support services for faculty and students participating in off-campus programs, Continuing Education’s Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center provides the technical support required for courses delivered via distance learning systems.

Traditional On-site Instruction

Graduate-level courses are taught on-site at the Joplin Graduate Center and on the SMSU West Plains campus. In addition to the Joplin and West Plains sites, Academic Outreach will coordinate the delivery of courses to communities with a demonstrated need throughout the service area.

Joplin Graduate Center

Joplin graduate students can complete Master of Science in Education (Elementary), Master of Business Administration, or Master of Accountancy degrees through the Joplin Graduate Center on the Missouri Southern State College campus. Courses in educational administration, secondary education, reading and special education, or middle school are also often taught in Joplin. In addition to “on-site” courses, the Joplin Graduate Center is also a current BearNet interactive video site.

SMSU West Plains

A variety of undergraduate upper-division courses, including upper-division nursing courses are available through a combination of “on-site” instruction and those delivered via the BearNet interactive video network on the SMSU West Plains Campus. West Plains students who complete an Associate of Arts degree from SMSU West Plains can complete a Bachelor of Science degree in General Business or a Bachelor of Science in Education degree in Elementary Education from the Springfield campus through BearNet. Educators will find a large number of graduate-level education courses delivered “on-site” or via BearNet on the SMSU West Plains campus.

BearNet – Interactive Video System

Technology-based courses delivered via BearNet, are often used to augment traditional “on-site” courses in West Plains and Joplin. These same courses are often offered multipoint at other BearNet sites in Lebanon, Nevada, Neosho and Mountain Grove. BearNet has been and is currently being used to enable students and communities to connect almost anywhere in the world with interactive video capabilities.

Internet Based Instruction – SMSU Online

The University’s newest distance learning program is SMSU Online, which offers for-credit courses delivered entirely via the Internet. Students are no longer restricted to participating in class at a specific time or place. By using a personal computer and an Internet connection, SMSU Online students access their course sites, get assignments, talk with their instructors, and participate in class discussions. This convenience and flexibility is an appealing alternative for students worldwide who juggle the demands of work, family and school, or who live at a distance from a college or university.

The Southwest Regional Professional Development Center

Continuing Education works with the Southwest Regional Professional Development Center to provide special credit programs to those in professional education positions. The Center’s mission is to promote lifelong learning for PK-12 educators by providing specialized staff development for school districts, as well as providing a series of professional development workshops each summer and throughout the school year. For additional information about programs through the Southwest Regional Professional Development Center, contact the Outreach Coordinator at 417-829-5057.

Telecourses

The University offers several undergraduate courses for academic credit via television. Designed for the independent learner, telecourses offer flexibility in setting class schedules. Course materials may be viewed on campus or at home over AT&T Cable Services at specified airtimes or as tape delayed by the individual student. Most telecourses are available for rent, in limited quantities, through the SMSU Bookstore. All courses are available for viewing through SMSU Meyer Library, however, checkout of telecourse tapes is not available.

Off-Campus Pre-College Dual Credit Program

Academic Outreach coordinates the off-campus pre-college program for high school students. Through this program qualified high school students are able to receive both high school and college credit in specially approved courses offered at participating high schools. Contact Academic Outreach at 417-836-4128 for more information about this program.

CENTER FOR CONTINUING AND PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Director: Don E. Schlueter, M.P.A.

The Center for Continuing and Professional Education provides numerous professional development programs which are tailored to meet the needs of specific groups, associations, and organizations. Working closely with various University academic departments, professional continuing education and training is provided for business and industry, health care organizations, professionals in social service agencies and mental health services.

The Center is one of two University units authorized to award Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for satisfactory completion of non-academic credit offerings and courses. The CEU program is a nationally recognized means of measuring and documenting continuing education experiences designed to improve one's work and professional skills.

Professional Certificate Programs

Continuing and Professional Education offers many opportunities for professional development and education that meet the specific needs of individuals, health care professionals, government agencies, business and industry throughout Missouri and nationwide. The following professional certificate programs are currently available.

- 4-Day Wound Management Workshop
- Advanced Management for Activity Directors Certificate
- Alzheimer's Caregiver Certificate
- Annual Addictions and Disorders Institute
- Basic Education for Activity Directors Certificate
- Nursing Home Administrator Certificate
- Missouri POST Training
- SMSU Computer Institute
- Substance Abuse Counseling
- Victim Advocate Certificate
- Wound Team Educator's Modules and Resource Seminar

Continuing Education

Health care professionals can take advantage of a variety of test preparation and national certification programs. The Center is an "approved provider" for a number of state and national accrediting bodies and professional organizations.

- American Psychological Association
- Association for Play Therapy, Inc.
- Bureau of Emergency Medical Services
- Kansas Board of Adult Care Home Administrators
- Kansas Dietitian Department of Health and Environment
- Kansas State Board of Nursing
- Licensed Clinical Social Workers
- Marriage and Family Therapy
- Missouri Board of Nursing Home Administrators
- Missouri Peace Officer Standards and Training
- Missouri Substance Abuse Counselor's Certification Board, Inc.
- National Association of Activity Professionals
- National Association of Boards of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators (NAB)
- National Board of Certified Counselors
- National Board of Certified Dietary Managers

SMSU Computer Institute

The SMSU Computer Institute provides professional training opportunities for companies and area professionals in software applications and technical training. We offer training levels for everyone from the beginner to the advanced user. The SMSU Computer Institute combines outstanding instruction with top-of-the-line computers for a pleasant, highly results-oriented learning experience.

The following advanced technical training tracks are designed for career changers and professionals interested in updating their skills and include A+, Network+, Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer, Novell and Cisco. Qualifying certification exams are available at our Authorized Prometric Testing Center.

Customized Training

SMSU Computer Institute

SMSU's Computer Institute offers customized training for area professionals. In partnership with business, the SMSU Computer Institute designs training programs, a series of classes or one class, to enhance computer efficiency.

Visit CCPE on the Web: <http://ccpe.smsu.edu>

Conferences, Workshops and Seminars

The Center works with a variety of campus, community and state wide groups to develop conferences and workshops of special interest to the general public and to specific groups. Numerous training and professional development programs are developed and sponsored to meet the individual needs of associations and organizations.

A wide range of conference support services are available to assist organizations who already have a firm program idea in mind, but need help with other aspects of conference planning and development. This includes help with program marketing and publicity, budgeting and financial management, computerized registration services, facilities and food service, certificates of completion, etc.

English Language Institute

The Center sponsors the English Language Institute, an undergraduate study program. This program is designed to assist international students who wish to enter SMSU or any other school with an intensive English language and communication experience.

DISTANCE LEARNING AND INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY CENTER

102 Public Affairs Classroom Building

Phone: (417) 836-6111 or toll-free (888) 767-8444, FAX: 836-6494

Director: A. Gary Ellis

The Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center provides the technical support for distance learning programs servicing both local and remote audiences. This technical support extends from technical help response for enrolled distance learning students, to maintenance of distance learning systems, and to collaboration with faculty on design and development of distance learning modules. Examples of these distance learning systems and modules are internet-based instruction, interactive video classrooms and telecourses. Additionally, the Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center facilitates the receipt of televised satellite programming on the SMSU campus.

SMSU Online

SMSU offers internet based programs in a growing number of disciplines. The Distance Learning and Instructional Technology Center supports SMSU Online via design and development of internet courses, Help Desk response to enrolled students, and maintenance of computer systems that house course modules.

BearNet/GrizzNet—Interactive Television Classroom Network

SMSU operates an interactive television classroom network—BearNet—which is a two-way, audio/video connection offering live communication between students and teachers at multiple, distant locations.

Students at all locations can see and hear each other, as well as the instructor. All sites mutually participate in lectures, presentations, discussions and other standard classroom activities.

BearNet is committed to facilitate access to SMSU educational resources throughout the 24 county service area, and additionally, provides links to state, national and international videoconferencing networks. BearNet includes sites in Springfield, West Plains, Mountain Grove, Joplin, Nevada, Lebanon and Neosho. GrizzNet is a south central Missouri subnet of BearNet and includes sites in West Plains, Alton, Mountain Grove, Houston, Willow Springs, Ava, Gainesville and Dora.

Telecourses

SMSU offers several undergraduate courses for academic credit through videotape delivery. Designed for the independent learner, telecourses allow for considerable flexibility in the setting of class schedules. Course materials are viewed over Springfield Cable, on-campus, or via a rental system. Some telecourses are available for viewing via broadcast television on Ozarks Public Television.

Satellite Programming and Videoconferences

SMSU utilizes a satellite downlink system to provide both live and taped programs for special target populations from southwest Missouri as well as regular students. Satellite programming also enhances regular lecture courses.

EVENING COLLEGE AND ADULT STUDENT SERVICES

Director of Academic Services and the Evening College: Susan Cohen, M.A.

Evening College

The SMSU Evening College serves both the regular day student who desires evening courses as well as adult students who may need educational opportunities at night. During each of the fall and spring semesters, more than 450 evening sections from more than thirty academic disciplines are offered with an enrollment of more than 9,500. Students can select from a wide variety of undergraduate and graduate courses to help them progress toward their educational goals. In some cases total degree programs or large portions of a major can be completed almost exclusively through evening classes. To confirm what portion of a given academic degree or major can be completed in the evening, students are encouraged to contact the specific department offering the program.

The SMSU Evening College is a vital and integral part of the overall academic program of the University, not a separate unit with its own entrance requirements and faculty. As a result, the academic quality of the Evening College is identical to that of the rest of the University, and the same admission requirements apply to both day students and evening students.

Special Services for Adult and Evening Students

The University recognizes that many students are adults who must attend college on a part-time basis and assume a variety of other responsibilities along with their academic work. For that reason, a wide range of services and special programs are offered through the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University in cooperation with other administrative offices on campus especially to assist students of this type. A few of these services are shown below, but students are encouraged to call or visit Continuing Education for further information.

Adult Student Orientation Programs. Orientation programs are offered the fall and spring semesters to assist evening and adult students who wish to learn more about the University, learn ways to improve their chances for success with college work, and meet other students who have similar concerns.

Nondegree Undergraduate Admission Program. In many cases, students may be admitted as nondegree undergraduate students, be exempt from usual admission requirements, and still be able to take a limited number of undergraduate courses. Students in this admission classification do not have to submit high school transcripts or ACT scores. This program is especially attractive to those adult students who may be hesitant about meeting regular admission requirements until they are more confident about their performance in university courses. It should be emphasized that non-degree undergraduate students are limited to 8 credit hours per semester and an accumulated total of 24.

The Postbaccalaureate Nondegree Program. Some students with a baccalaureate degree may also be admitted as Postbaccalaureate nondegree seeking (PB). Under this classification, they may take unlimited undergraduate hours and a limited number of graduate hours (9) for credit. (To receive detailed information or to initiate the special nondegree admission process, please contact the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University).

Office Hours. Throughout most of the regular academic year, the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University keeps extended office hours so that evening students can handle a number of administrative procedures after normal work hours. During each semester, the office is open Monday through Thursday until 6:00 p.m. During registration we also offer evening and Saturday morning registration hours by appointment only. When classes are not in session, we encourage students to confirm office hours before making a special trip to campus.

Adult Learner Scholarships. A merit scholarship program is available especially for adult students who may not qualify for traditional forms of financial aid. A limited number of recipients are selected each spring and fall semester with each award being $300 per semester. For details, call 836-6929 or pick up scholarship information packets in Carrington 422. Our staff can also provide you with basic information on other forms of financial assistance.

Academic Advising Services (Undeclared Majors). Adult and evening students can take advantage of advising services with or without admission to the University. Our staff will be happy to sit down and discuss your concerns, whether it is about financial assistance, how to add college work to an already busy schedule, or a wide range of other matters related to your educational plans. Contact our Evening College Adult Services Office (422 Carrington) by calling 836-6929.

Admission and Registration by Mail/Fax. Evening students and graduate students may be admitted or readmitted to the University and register for classes by mail during a significant portion of the registration period. By taking advantage of this service, students can avoid unnecessary trips to campus and registration lines. This service is provided by the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University, and interested students should call 836-4126 to receive further information.

Special Services by Telephone. Continuing Education has worked out arrangements with other campus offices so that evening students can handle several important administrative procedures without having to visit the campus in person. Depending on individual situations and the specific date of the request, this can include the dropping and adding of classes, confirmation of class availability, and initiation of the process for University withdrawal.

O.A.S.I.S. Organization for Adult Students in School. The purpose of O.A.S.I.S. is to provide social, academic, and tutorial support to non-traditional students. Membership also provides the non-traditional student the opportunity to qualify for additional scholarship funds. For more information, call 836-6911.

INTERSESSION AND SPECIAL CREDIT PROGRAMS

422 Carrington Hall, Phone: 836-4126, FAX: 836-4929
Email: CE@smsu.edu

Director: Mary Ann Claypool, M.S.

At SMSU, “intersession” is the term used for those time periods that fall between the regular academic semesters or sessions. A Winter Intersession and Summer Intersession are scheduled in early January and late May respectively and Fall Intersession occurs between Summer School and the fall semester. The Intersession Program, administered by the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University, enables 1,000-1,700 students each session to pursue their education throughout the year. The regular, full-time day student as well as the evening or part-time student can select from more than 100 one or two credit hour classes that will help to meet degree requirements.

Faculty from all of the colleges on campus have offered classes during the Intersession – many of which are innovative, special topics that are of interest to the community-at-large. In addition, the Intersession provides a vehicle through which the academic departments can meet the continuing education needs of special community groups.

Continuing Education works in cooperation with academic units across the campus to offer special credit classes which are designed to meet the specific needs of professional groups and community organizations. These classes provide academic credit, but are often structured as workshops or intensive short-term classes for the convenience of the participants they are designed to serve.

Groups interested in exploring academic credit offered at on or off-campus sites, on weekends, or according to other special arrangements, should contact the College of Continuing Education and the Extended University at (417) 836-4126 for further information.

SUMMER SCHOOL

422 Carrington Hall, 836-4126, FAX: 836-4929
Email: CE@smsu.edu

Director: Kathy Pulley, Ph.D., Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs Coordinator for Special Program Services: Mary Ann Claypool, M.S.

The Summer Session is uniquely organized when compared to the other semesters which make up the academic year. Summer School is divided into four distinct terms or “sessions” with each one ranging from four to eight weeks in length. Most Summer School day and evening classes are offered throughout the summer and utilize a variety of scheduling formats. One example of these special programs is the Summer Weekend Program. Each summer, ten or twelve one credit hour classes are offered on a weekend format and often focus on topics of special interest to a variety of populations.

Summer School offerings are developed by many different academic departments throughout the University with topics and schedules which are often quite varied. In addition, some programs are developed fairly late in the academic year in response to special community needs and may not meet publication deadlines for the class schedule. To assist prospective students in getting accurate information, Continuing Education serves as a central information point concerning Summer School programs. For assistance call Continuing Education, (417) 836-4126.

SMSU-West Plains also is a member of the American Association of Community Colleges and the Missouri Community Colleges Association.

Located 110 miles southeast of Springfield in the community of West Plains, SMSU-West Plains serves a seven county area of the south central Missouri Ozarks region.

The campus consists of four classroom and administration buildings. Kellett Hall, Looney Hall, and Melton Hall, the latter of which was completed in the summer of 1997. The new $4.3 million Michael J. Lybyer Enhanced Technology Center was completed in February 2000. In addition to the classroom and administrative buildings, the campus includes the Garnett Library, a 60-person residence hall called the Grizzly House, the Putnam Student Center, Hass-Hoover Hall, and the V.H. Drago College Store.

SMSU-West Plains provides a two-year general education program that is integrated with the curriculum on the SMSU-Springfield campus for purposes of transfer and baccalaureate study.

The campus also offers associate degrees designed to prepare students for employment.

SMSU offers a variety of undergraduate courses and graduate level courses on the West Plains campus, including completion programs for Bachelor's degrees in General Business, Nursing, and Elementary Education with certifications in Special Education and Middle School Education, as well as a Master's degree in Business Administration. SMSU courses are offered on-site in West Plains and through BearNet, SMSU's interactive television distance education network.

The small campus environment with quality undergraduate instruction in a relaxed, personal atmosphere has been the hallmark of SMSU-West Plains as the college continues to serve the post-secondary educational needs of area students.

Requests for further information regarding SMSU-West Plains should be directed to the Admissions Office, SMSU-West Plains, 128 Garfield, West Plains, MO 65775, Tel. no. (417) 255-7955.

Admission Requirements

The West Plains campus is an open admissions campus. All graduates of accredited high schools or GED recipients may be admitted to SMSU-West Plains as freshmen. More information on admissions requirements can be found in the SMSU-West Plains catalog.
