

Lambda Chi Alpha - Beta Psi

Financial Transparency Information

Dues: 600 Dollars per Semester

Breakdown:

This 600 dollars is put towards many different projects and fees during the school year. This includes association fees, philanthropy events, brotherhood events, and fees to keep our house clean and stocked. We are incredibly flexible with our payment plans and will work with any financial situation. Missouri State Lambda Chi Alpha prides itself on being the most affordable social fraternity on campus and strives to provide a safe and affordable environment to promote every brother's academic success while building better men during their time at Missouri State University.

If you have any questions regarding financial flexibility,
